Never The Same Again

The Laughter I'll never hear. all the emilee I'll never chare-The tears that will never be cried. only the pain of saying good-bye. No, it'll never be the same again, you can't go, where you've already been. So grab the chance to live before it's past: Never be silent, when you've got somethin' to say, 'cause you've only got today. So smile while smilin's easy. be you, while you're still free, 'Cause time will quickly pass and you'll wish you had another chance To say what was never said. and do the things you never did. No. it'll never be the same again. 'cause you can't go where you've already been.

High Goals Get Attention at Bitburg

School year 1977-78 has been highly successful for the Bitburg High School Barons. Our enrollment continues to climb slowly and steadily. This past year students have worked hard and studied conscientiously. Our curriculum offerings are wide, varied, and comprehensive. Our activity program is EUR Schools. The high degree of faculty-student unity is a mark of a unique situation.

For those remaining at BAHS, I urge you to continue to put forth your very best efforts and devote your full loyalty to your school.

For those who will graduate, be sure that you reflect and recall the spirit of cooperation you have learned here, and practice it in your lives.

Cheerleaders, Drill Team Focus on Spirit

An unusually fine spirit all year aided the Barons as they rolled along during the various sports seasons. Leaders in the move toward better school spirit were a per club, a band, and an outstanding sudent body. Blittug's "spirit booters" supported all of the athletic teams as they sought to make 1977-78 one of the Baron's finest years in the school's long and brilliant sports history.

- The Bitburg High School coat of arms is designed to show the power and might of our school.
- The shield forms the bond of our school's goals and aspirations. The Baron head, the hallmark of power and might of Germany and the mascot of our school.
- The stars and stripes symbolize our nation, the United States of America.
- The clasped hands represents the unity of our school and the brotherhood within our school.
- The quill and scroll represents education and the aims and goals of all students within our school.
- The crossed swords stand for power, while the two banners declare Bitburg and the words "ano 78" stating the appropriate year of our lord and the senior class.
- Above the coat of arms, forming the base of the torch of knowledge, is the double B, standing for the Bitburg Barons.

Chris Chesmore Brilliant in Leading Barons to Most Impressive Mark Since '71 Champs

The Baron basketball quintet had some cold moments during the 1977-78 season. But generally it was a magnificent unit. Chris Chesmore was the mastermind and floor leader. His brilliance was undeniable. And he had a host of outstanding helpers: Forward Dennis White. Center Tom Lollis, Guard Bob Lovett, Forwards Mike Williams and Gordon Couffer, and reserves Dave Smith, Tom Noonan, and Dennis Burks. They all had a hand in the Bitburg success story. What's in store for the Barons? Take a look at the returnees. With all this year's success . . . it was a building year. Look out in 1979, DODDSUER tournament, the Barons will be there!

Special Moments Preserved by Annual Staff

A lot of time must be spent with every successful project. And that; what we found with this year's annual.

Mr. Bob Galitzers, members of the staff, and I have spent many hours attempting to make this an outstanding effort. Saff photographers were at nearly every event (from sports to pic-eating contests) in an effort to capture the year's spectrum. With the help of other members of the staff, we set up these pages to give a varied, excitting review of the 1977-78 school year.

With the help of you students, who were so very cooperative with our schedule for picture taking (takes and retakes), we got everything done . . . despite impossible deadlines .

Outside of school, I would like to thank all the companies which took ads in our yearbook; Herr and Frau Hubertus Siewert of Foto Siewert, who were always so helpful in getting u our pictures on time; and finally, Mrs. Condrey, who brought in over half of our advertising.

Last, but by no means least, I want to thank Mr. Gaittens, our advisor, for dedicating so much of his time and effort to give us all, a book of memories to keep for the rest of our lives. - Byrdette.

Many People Aid In Capturing Tempo Of a Wonderful, Interesting School Year

When putting out a yearbook, it is so easy to "over picture" the few who are so active in school life. However, this year's staff took great pains to seek out everyone, and effort to give all a fair chance to be picture of the pict

Many Students Take Part In Outstanding C.W.E. Program

More than 150 Bitburg High School students took part in the school's fine C.W.E. program this year. C.W.E. (Cooperative Work Experience) is a program designed to introduce students to the world of work. The program provides the high school student with the opportunity to gain experience in occupations of his/her choice by utilizing the resources of the community and the school. The students were usually enrolled for two or three periods each day, and time was spent on the job site learning about a specific job and related occupations. Bitburg's program was under the direction of Mr. Bob Gaittens and Mr. Richard Heidt. Jobs were available at both Bitburg and Spangdahlem. On pages 214 and 215 are pictures showing some of the many "iobs" where students found themselves working.

Spirit Stick Won at Homecoming

The sophomore class accomplished a lot this year. We have had lots of spirit. . . we even won the "spirit stick" for homecoming. We also won second place during B-Week. We have had a very successful year and thank our fine sponsors, Mrs. Whitfield, Mrs. Faire and Mr. Heidt, for all their help. Sheldon Stokes was our persident.

Teen Chefs Prepare Weekly Food

Members of the advanced food preparation and creative cooking classes offer a weekly moon meal for faculty and classmates. The purpose of the class project is to acquaint students with commercial aspects of the foods career field. Mrs. Marilyn Richard is the class project sponsor.

Frosh Whip Sophomores in Tug-of-War

Dedication Maureen Williams

Thanks, Mrs. Williams! The Baron Shield is proud to honor you by dedicating the 1977-78 yearbook to you. From your position in the Eng-lish department, you have helped students in so many ways. Your work in Minority Studies got the program off the ground here at Bitburg. Then your excellent leadenthip of the school newspaper and your spontanthip of the cheerleaders, too. But most of all for just being our friend. — the staff.
