Education . . . A Challenge

Your future, as well as that of our nation, is dependent more than anything else upon education — an education of thinking, an education of feeling. May this graduation be the commencement of a new and important beginning in life which is learned with understanding, maturity, and happiness. Keep in mind that you will get out of education — and life — what you put into it. To reach your goal there are certain constants which will not change in a changing world. They are honesty, loyalty, and integrity. — JOHN F. LOVE, Principal, Bitburg American High School (Tufts University, Medford, Mass., and Boston University, Boston, Mass. B.A., M.A., C.A.G.S.)

Memories Important

As you put together your own personal yearbook of memories of 1978-79 at Bitburg High School, I hope you will include, along with thoughts of friends, fun times, and extracurricular activities, remembrances of what you've learned about becoming a better human being.

Hopefully you will also focus on benefits that have come from opportunities to exercise the rights and responsibilities of being a citizen of your country and of the world.

To be remembered, as well, is the ability which you have developed this year for being both a teacher and a learner, with emphasis on inquiry, openness, and commitment.

May you have happy recollections of 1978-79! — BETTY J. NICHOLAS, Assistant Principal.

'In the Future, You'll Think Back'

Your yearbook staff has done a fine job in putting together the activities and highlights of this school year. As time passes these pictures and pages will grow in importance for you, and you will enjoy the memories of your days at Bitburg High School and of your friends and classmates.

I'm sure all of you join me in extending thanks to the members of the Yearbook staff who have done their best to make our days together come to life in these pages. — JOHN I. MURRAY, Deputy Principal.

District Officials Visit Our School

Bitburg High School seems a long way from "everywhere." But that hasn't stopped district officials from visiting us. Here are some who visited this year: Above, Jack South, art coordinator, with Ms. Heath; Tom Hamara, personnel specialist, with Ms. Nicholas; Donald Ridgeway, industrial arts, with Mr. Love and Ms. Nicholas. At right, Diego Zuchetti, CWE coordinator, with Mr. Hendt. Far right, from top: Mitch Michelina, business education, with Ms. Shaw and Mr. Moore; Ari McCoy, human relations specialist, with students; Ridgeway with Mr. Ponce; Richard Gordon, health, with Ms. Richard; and Lee Mawby, P.E., with Mrs. Leuthauser and Mr. Love.

Careers Program Stresses Life Goals

Students from the high school worked two or three hours each day at either Bitburg or Spangdahlem to fulfill the requirements for C.W.E. (cooperative work experience). Bob Gattens, above, and Richard Heidt directed the program.

Jankunas Sparks Bitburg Harriers to 7-3-1 Record

Bitburg's Cross Country program continued in its tradition of producing winners and outstanding runners. The team won 70 per cent of its efforts and pushed its 10-year record to 73 wins and 13 losses. Alan Jankunas was Bitburg's individual star. He finished the season unbeaten — DODDSEUR'S undisputed champion. It was Bitburg High School's second undefeated individual champion in the past eight years. John Burdan was able to accomplish the feat in 1972. Jankunas usually won by more than a minute and only once was he given a close race!

Jankunas Tops Bradach 5 Times This Year

The 1978 All-Germany Cross Country championships were held on the tough Heidelberg course. Bitburg's teams made fine showings as runners were in top form for the event. Alan Jankunas won the European individual championship as he defeated the best from every school in Germany. Brian Foster ran first for the Barons in the JV men's race. Tami Lollis was first for the Baronettes. The All-Germany run-off proved to be a fine finish for Bitburg. Following the Heidelberg run, top runners from each of the district runs were invited to K-Town for the All-Europe event. Paul Holland and Jankunas were the only Barons to qualify for that event.

Undefeated Season!

Volleyball fortunes are on the upswing at Bitburg. Not only did the varsity have its finest finish in the school's history, the Junior Varsity completed an UNBEATEN year . . . knocking off nine straight foes. Coach Leuthauser's fantastic juniors opened the season with a 15-12, 15-3 victory over Zweibruecken. From there it seemed like a pretty easy task. Outstanding team play highlighted the campaign. When it got down to those final two weekends, the gals weren't to be denied. Their final victory came 16-14 and 15-11 over powerful Frankfurt.

Team Work Nets Volleyball Success

The Bitburg High School volleyball team finished its finest season as it finished above .500 and won its final four matches. Sporting a 4-4 record going into its last match, the fine team-play of the Baronettes brought them from behind to defeat Frankfurt. After losing an 8-15 match, Coach Leuthauser's team won 15-8, 15-5 and 15-10. The entire student body was proud of the fine season turned in by our volleyball team!

Rodriguez, Claxton Represent Barons at Golf Finals

Ron Rodriguez shot a 98 for 10th place in the DODDSEUR golf championships at Munich. Randy Claxton fired a 105. Rodriguez and Claxton qualified for the finals when they registered scores of 99 and 105 at the Wiesbaden regionals.

Bitburg's Golf Team: Ron Rodriguez, Randy Claxton, Bob Miller and Dave Lacaille. Sgt. Porter coached the team.

Bitburg's 1978-79 Drill Team

Co-Captains of the 1978-79 Bitburg High School drill team were: Chris Bennett and Cheryl Thompson. This year's team was one of the most active groups in school.

Dedication Brings Outstanding Success to High School's Colorful Drilling Unit

The Bitburg High School drill team is a very special unit. Members of the team were very active in school affairs . . . but this activity didn't limit the amount of time which was devoted to practice of routines. The splendid drill team was active at sports events . . . lending great support to the football and basketball teams. It performed at the home games . . . and traveled often. You could see the gals at most away football games and it was a very popular group when it made several trips with the basketball team . . . especially when it traveled to Ramstein for both the semi-finals and finals of the Class A basketball tournament. Also, the drill team took part in several parades, working very well with the school's band. Mrs. Bernice Bullard was the sponsor of the organization. Flashy outfits, colorful routines, outstanding individuals . . . these were the things which gave the Drill Team its class in 1978-79!

New Group Lauded for Brilliance

The 1978-79 school year brought a new group onto the "Baron" scene — the Flag Twirlers. The new addition didn't take long to establish itself as a popular item. Working with the high school's outstanding music group, the "flag gals" fit in well with the cheerleaders and the drill team. Ms. Karen Shaw was the unit's sponsor. Through the fine efforts of Ms. Shaw and the eight participants, Bitburg's newest group won high marks at football and basketball games.

White, Lovett Co-Captains

From the start to the finish the 1978-79 Barons found the season to their liking. They started the season with an 80-49 triumph over Baumholder . . . and they finished up with a thrilling come-from-behind 52-50 victory over Frankfurt in the finals of the Class A tournament. Dennis White and Bob Lovett were co-captains of the Barons.

White, Lovett, Bates Gain All-Star Honors as Barons Compile Brilliant 18-3 Record

All-Conference, All-Tournament, and All-Europe honors fell like rain on the Bitburg Barons this season as the highly praised quintet posted an 18-3 season's record.

Dennis White got the "honors parade" started when he was selected to the Coaches' All-Conference dream team. Then he was joined by Bob Lovett and Lee Bates on the Class A tournament All-Star team.

However, honors for the Barons didn't stop there. White was named to the Stars and Stripes "All-Europe" basketball quintet for the second consecutive year. And he was joined on that elite unit by teammate Lovett.

It was only the second year in the history of the All-Europe selection that Bitburg has placed more than one on the dream team.

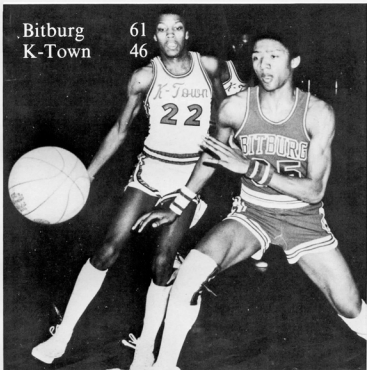

White and Lovett were the tenth Bitburg players to be so honored in the past 10 years.

Bitburg's high-scoring, 6-4 guard, in being named to all three cage all-star teams, repeated the honors he gained last year as a junior.

Bitburg Defeats Frankfurt to Win Class A Crown

Photos by "Stars and Stripes" newspaper.

Bitburg's Barons gained the first Class A championship in a major sport this season when they annexed the basketball crown in late February.

The lofty honor came about when the Barons defeated Mannheim 46-30, K-Town 61-46, and Frankfurt 52-50.

The Bitburg Frankfurt game was one of the most thrilling victories the Barons posted this year. Trailing by two points, 50-48, with only 19 seconds showing on the clock, Tom Lollis scored a tip-in and Bob Lovett stole a ball and drove the length of the floor to register the winning points with only nine seconds left.

Most Bitburg fans who attended the tournament felt a real sense of community as it was generally regarded as a total school victory.

Close games highlighted the season's opener as the Barons split with the Stuttgart Stallions. Bitburg shot 44 percent in the opener, winning 58-53. Lee Bates was sturdy for the hosts in the opener . . . getting nine field goals and high scoring honors. Kenny Smith's 15 rebounds also aided in the win. Saturday found the Barons ahead with 25 seconds left . . . but a last-second field goal turned the tables in the 55-53 loss.

The second two-game sweep in two years over the Warrior came in '79. At Wiesbaden, Dennis White (19), Kenny Smith (15) and Bob Lovett (10) were high in the win . . . then in the second game, White burned the hemp with 31 in an easy 57-44 victory. An excellent floor series by Bubba Owens and superb rebounding by Tom Lollis and Kenny Smith aided in the wins.

Heidelberg opened its series against the Barons by grabbing a 12-0 lead. But Bitburg fought back with a 24-point third quarter to win the first game. Then on Saturday, things went a little easier. Dennis White humped 21 in the opener and Lee Bates had 21 Saturday.

Defense was the order of the day in the opener of the series between the Barons and the Red Raiders. In points, Dennis White had 21 and Kenny Smith had 18. A 15-10 fourth quarter assured the win. Then on Saturday, K-Town used a big second quarter to do the Barons in. The clubs matched second-half efforts, getting 21 each. But a 32-29 halftime edge held up for the win. White had 19 and Lee Bates 13 in the second game.

Barons Defeat K-Town on Great Defensive Effort

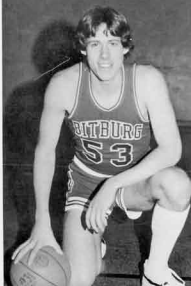

Ben Abrams of the "Stars and Stripes" called it the greatest defensive effort he had seen in DODDSEUR basketball this year . . . but the Barons just saw it as one of their regular games. They had limited foes to 47.5 points-per-game during the regular season.

So their defensive effort of 46 wasn't so unusual to them.

It came in the second round of the Class A tournament . . . and resulted in a 61-46 triumph for the Barons. Dennis White was high for the Barons with 17. But Lee Bates hit 12. Bubba Owens and Bob Lovett had 10 each. Kenny Smith caged eight and Tom Lollis added six in a real team effort.

Dennis White, and Kenny Smith were honored as the players of the year for the Bitburg Barons at the annual Athletic Banquet. White was given the best free throw award and named the Most Valuable Player on the team. Smith was named the club's top rebounder. White and Bobby Lovett were named Team Captains for '79 while Smith and Tom Lollis were named "special Game Captains." JV award winners are listed elsewhere in the yearbook.

Reserves Post 4-1 Record

Bitburg's reserves missed the chance for an unbeaten season as they dropped a two-point verdict to K-Town. Steve Steadman was named the club's MVP. Mike Crudder was the top rebounder, and Kelby Trusty was selected "Mr. Hustle."

Barons "Cut the Net" at Class A Fest

With the Barons shooting .750 from the free throw line and .467 from the field, they had little trouble posting three victories in the Class A tournament. Field goal shooting of 21 for 34 against K-Town and 22-38 against Frankfurt highlighted the entire tournament. Of the six Bitburg "starters", the tourney fans saw the lowest FT average at .636 and the FG average at .417. Those statistics were fantastic!

They netted the Barons the championship, three All-Star spots, the tourney's MVP and the Ted Ryall award for individual mental attitude. Honors went to White (MVP and All-Star), Lovett (All-Star), Bates (All-Star), and Tom Lolis (Ryall).

Following the tournament, Coach Bob Gaittens was interviewed by Ben Abrams of "Stars and Stripes" and Tony Butera of AFN . . . and the Bates brothers (with the aid of Kelly Trusty) cut down the championship net!

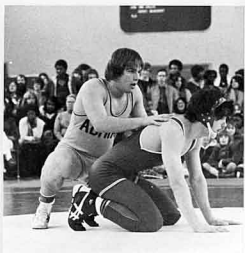

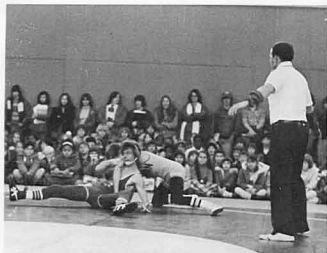

Bitburg's Andy Lemke (26-0) finishes off a tournament foe at Munich in this nifty bit of action.

Europe:

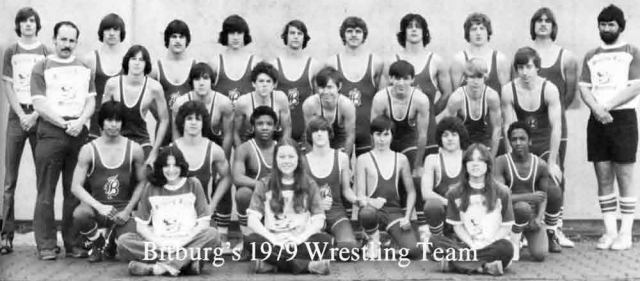

Lemke	1st
Zehner	2nd
Neville	3rd

Bitburg wrestlers finished 1st, 2nd, and 3rd in individual action in the European championships (AFCENT Invitational) at the close of the regular wrestling season. Unbeaten Andy Lemke posted a thrilling tournament march as he won top honors at 165. To get the title, he defeated Zweibruecken's Yves Pacheco twice, 15-1 and 4-1. He had beaten the same wrestler in the German championships, 5-2. Ken Zehner finished 2nd in the AFCENT meet (after a 4th in Germany). Mike Neville wrestled very well in the finals, taking a third. Zehner won the tourney's "most exciting match" honors.

Young Team Posts Outstanding Season, Varsity Rips Way to 12-5-1 Mark

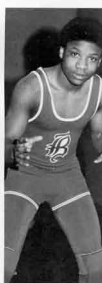

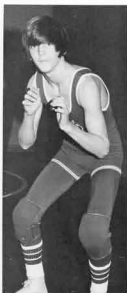

With only four veterans on hand at the season's outset, coaches and wrestlers at Bitburg High School knew they had their work cut out at the season's start. But hard work and long hours of practice paid off as they posted a 12-5-1 record. The Barons piled up 243 points in their final four meets as they geared up for the All-Germany and European championships. The season's two biggest wins were over Bonn and SHAPE when the Bitburg matmen posted 70-6 victories. The team had two 20-plus winners, Andy Lemke and Ken Zehner. Lemke was named the team's MVW. Tom "Bird" Collins was named most aggressive and Rich Marventano and Brad Cooper were most improved. In JV wrestling, Milton Curry was named most improved and Maurice Greene was most inspirational.

Coaches Fritchman and Carr stressed hard work and dedication as they prepared their charges for the 1979 season. The formula paid off for the Barons as they came in with a very impressive season's record of 12 wins against five losses and a tie. Only four seniors were included on the squad in this, a building year!

Barons Defeat Two Foes at Berlin

A trip to Berlin is always an interesting and exciting event for an athletic team. It was no different for the Barons, who journeyed there for a regular season meet. There they defeated Berlin 42-19 and Mannheim 42-32.

Lemke Wins Title at 165; Barons Finish Seventh

Bitburg's brilliant undefeated wrestler, Andy Lemke, posted a perfect 26-0 record in 1979 as he won the DODDSEUR Germany championship. Lemke posted 14 points in the Munich tournament to pace his teammates to 39 points. Junior Ken Zehner was the Barons' second-high scorer. He had 4½ points. Lemke won the Baron's only individual crown as he nabbed the 165 pound title.

Daily Competition Highlights Homecom- ing

Homecoming is held to spotlight Bitburg's athletic teams . . . and name a King, Queen and court. But along the way students find plenty of fun in a "week long" series of events used to raise spirit. Daily class competition gets high marks from Monday until Friday when the annual Homecoming assembly is held. The Hanau Panthers spoiled the Baron's hopes of victory in football, winning 31-14 over Bitburg.

Class Skits Highlight Week of Activity

“The Assembly”

The class skits are always the highlight of the fall's Homecoming assembly. Sure, coaches talk about their teams, the cheerleaders try to drum up support, the drill team and flag gals put on routines . . . but the event's real attention getters are the class offerings. That's the way it was this year, too. Classes built their skits around a "Beat the Hanau Panther" theme. As always, these skits dwarfed everything else which took place that day.

Besides the King and Queen of Homecoming, all classes had members on the "court." Others on the royal slate: seniors — Chris Lemmon, Alan Jankunas, Lynn Johnson, Lee Cooper, Mona Gardner and Andy Lemke; juniors — Laurie Beattie and Bubba Owens; sophomores — Tracy Yuki and Marcos Alvarado; and freshmen — Sylvia Parzentny and Brad Cooper. A three-tiered cake decorated completely in blue and white was also shared by those who attended the dance.

Teresa Riecke and Craig Wurtz provided "royalty" for the dance . . . but the highlights were the side-events: the marriage booth, the jail. Students had a lot of fun at the annual "Dog Patch" dance. As noted in the picture below, fun wasn't limited to students.

Pep Band . . . A Smash!

WOW! What an addition to the Bitburg High School music department. Dave Schallert and Sonny Hobson were the group's leaders. And they really did a super job at basketball games. Not only did they play at home games, but they traveled to K-Town for the semi-finals and championship of the DODDSEUR basketball play-offs. They were by far the best music group there . . . and generally were considered the "hit" of the tournament.

'Kaleidoscope of Memories for Sharing'

Graham Shirley
Assistant Editor

On the pages of this annual we have tried to recapture the 1978-79 school year. We've tried to create a kaleidoscope of memories for everyone to share.

Whenever something was going on, we tried to have a photographer there . . . ready to take pictures. (We tried to capture a glimpse of everyone, as our school is not complete without each and every one of you).

Despite many difficulties in getting the yearbook started, we finally got it all together ready to be mailed.

We would like to thank Mr. Love and the rest of the faculty for all kindness shown us . . . and thanks to Lt. Col. and Mrs. Condrey for their work in helping us get ads.

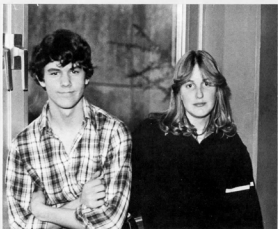

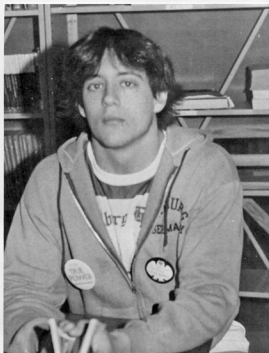

Graham Shirley did one fantastic job as my assistant . . . I really don't know what I would have done without him! Thanks also to the rest of the staff . . . especially Walter Healis, my Sales Manager.

Last, but definitely not least, Merci, Danke, Gracias, and Thank You, Mr. Gaittens for all of your efforts and support of our project.

And to the student body . . . you were great. In helping with this yearbook, I've really found you all to be interesting and helpful.

To all, thanks for everything. — Byrdette Condrey, Editor, Baron Shield, 1979.

Yearbook Staff Captures Special Memories

A Word From the Yearbook Sponsor

This has been an interesting year for the 1979 yearbook staff. As we are rushing toward deadline, several facts have come out which you might like to know about. First off, let me tell you that the cost of this yearbook is just over $8,000 ($6,528 to the publisher, $700 for postage and $925 for photography and picture production). Our sales have been about 525 . . . making each book cost about $16. If we are to sell the book for $12 (which we have), we've had to come up with about $3000 extra. We've done this by selling about $1,300 in ads . . . and then selling pages to athletic teams and their support groups, clubs, drama, etc. Some people have questioned the wisdom of selling these pages . . . but these page sales have cut the price of each book more than $2. That's why it was done. — Bob Gaittens, sponsor.

1979 Senior Superlatives

Didn't 1978-79 produce a wealth of outstanding seniors? The yearbook staff thought so! On these pages are the "super seniors" as picked by vote of their classmates. (on page 178) upper, from left: best dressed — Brigitte Roundy and Kenny Smith; best all around — Lynn Johnson and Tom Lollis; center: wittiest — Tom Kearney and Chris Mohn; most athletic — Alan Jankunas and Christi Wilkendorf; most talented — Mike Saiz and Chris Lemmon; lower: most spirited — Mona Gardner and Ken Ohishi; most individual — Ruby Smith and John Shumway; friendliest — Gretchen Dalsbo and Bob Lovett. (page 179) upper: most likely to succeed — Alan Jankunas and Dana Hale; most intelligent — Dana Hale and Jim Sigler; center: biggest flirts — Chris Lemmon and Tom Humphries; most talkative — Greg Boyles, Cheryl Argyle, not pictured; most attractive — Kelby Trusty and Chris Lemmon; lower: class couple — Sarah Stewart and Tom Lollis; quietest — Susan Dyke and Mike Saiz.

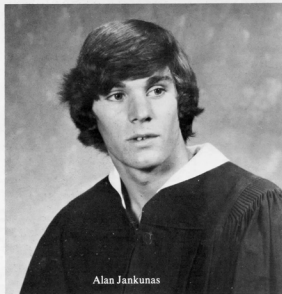

Bitburg Senior Hall of Fame

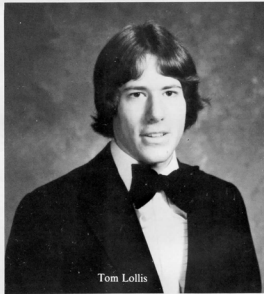

Byrdette Condrey

* Sarah Stewart

Alan Jankunas

Tom Lollis

Every year the faculty of Bitburg American High School selects a "Hall of Fame" from among the members of the Senior class. The task is requested by the senior class itself. The above students — Byrdette Condrey, Sarah Stewart, Alan Jankunas and Tom Lollis — were chosen as this year's outstanding foursome. The B.H.S. "Hall of Fame" is chosen on the basis of over-all attitude toward themselves and the school. This year's elite group compares very favorably with senior winners. The Yearbook staff says, "Hats off" to these honored ones.

Seniors Dominated Spirit at Homecoming

The Senior Class of '79 dominated fall spirit as they swept all but one of the Homecoming spirit events. As the year progressed, this spirit spread into other areas . . . athletics, clubs, organizations and the classroom. Every honor roll found many from our class at the peak. Many seniors etched their names on the "fame" plaque of Bitburg High School. It was a cherished year and we'll remember it well. One day, we will all look back with a great deal of satisfaction at the hard work and fun we shared together!

Juniors Nab 'Puff' Win; Named 'Class With Class!'

The junior class enjoyed much success this year. The Sadie Hawkins dance provided much fun for everyone. The junior girls defeated the senior girls in the annual powder-puff football game, 14-0! Many juniors enjoyed success in their individual sports. In football, Sheldon Stokes, Tom Collins and Scott Rector were big news. Janine Limpus was the star in gymnastics. On the basketball court, Cherie Drew led scoring for the girls with 139 points and Bubba Owens was the only non-senior starter on the No. 1 team in Europe. In track it was Kevin Jungling and Craig Wurtz. . . Definitely OURS was the Class with Class!

Sophs Take Part in Total School Picture

B-Week Giant Success For Sophs

During 1978-79 the sophomore class had an eventful year. The year's high point was during B-Week when we won the spirit stick. We also put on the B-Week dance which was such a success. The Sophs were very involved with sports, cheerleading, the flag corps, and the drill team. . . . along with other activities. This was an excellent year for the class of '81.

Freshmen Enjoy Fantastic School Year

As usual, the freshman class was the biggest one at Bitburg High School. We finished second in spirit at both Homecoming and B-Week. The class sponsored the very successful Snowball dance . . . and most felt that it was great and everyone had lots of fun. There were many freshmen involved in sports this year. Among those who won varsity letters were Brad Cooper (wrestling), Steve Steadman (basketball), Tom Tadd and Rick Marventano (wrestling), and Tami Lollis, Betsy Nicholson and Sylvia Parzenty (cross country).

Dedication — Thanks, Mr. Love

Our principal, Mr. John F. Love, concluded his 20th year with DODDSEUR this spring. The last four of these have been at Bitburg American High School. During this time, Mr. Love has given each of us much of his time and effort as he has guided our school along the path of learning. The Baron Shield staff is proud to be able to dedicate this yearbook to you. I guess all we can say is, "Mr. Love, thanks!"
