DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE
DEPENDENTS SCHOOLS

Böblingen Elementary Middle School
Unit 30401
APO AE 09107

We are at the end of year two for our new middle school. As a school community, we have engaged in many productive activities and experiences designed to make our good school the best it can be. We have experienced changes in many areas. These changes include increased staffing, curriculum adoptions, successfully addressing all safety concerns and adjusting to the military PCS-ing schedule. To help us manage the changes, we have all exhibited flexibility, positive attitudes and PRIDE<sup>2</sup>. Specifically, we have enhanced our character development through demonstrating the characteristics embodied in our BEMS Guiding Principles:

Preparation
Respect and Responsibility
Integrity
Determination
Effort and Excellence

Our year has been filled with many opportunities and visitors to include two Congressional teams evaluating our physical facility, our NCA (accreditation) visit, Reading Recovery review, Special Education Monitoring, AFAP puppet shows and Irish Dancers. We have achieved much as we formed productive partnerships with parents and the Command. Through effective collaboration and much hard work, we accomplished and engaged in activities such as our annual Terra Nova assessment, an engaging African American History Month Program, a great African American Wax Museum Exhibit, Dr. Seuss activities, Family Reading Nights, Women's History Month recognition, Band concerts, an exciting Time Travelers' Club, a VFW Essay Contest, National History Day competition, Awards Assemblies, Success Parties, Talent Shows that included teachers and students and many other events.

As an administrative team, we express our sincere gratitude to our PTA and to all the students, teachers, and parents who have helped make our year successful. A special thank you goes to our volunteers who have assisted in classrooms as well as with special events and activities. To Mrs. Diane Gravatt, our yearbook editor, thanks for a wonderful product and a job well done. We look forward to next year. It promises to be another exceptional opportunity for our students to excel in their academic endeavors. We will continue working toward highest student achievement which is a goal set forth in the DoDEA Community Strategic Plan.

2007 Year In Review

In the NEWS

Presidential campaigning started earlier than ever for the 2008 elections. In the early caucus and primary season, senators Hillary Clinton, John Edwards and Barack Obama were early front runners for the Democrats as former governors Mitt Romney and Mike Huckabee, along with Senator John McCain and former Mayor Rudy Giuliani, vied for the Republican nomination.

In September General David Petraeus reports to Congress on progress on the war in Iraq, sparking considerable debate. As the war entered its 5th year, debate within Congress and throughout the country continued on how to successfully end the struggle.

Monks in Myanmar (formerly Burma) demonstrate for return to democratic rule.

A severe drought in the Southeastern U.S. caused water shortages in Georgia.

Prime Minister Tony Blair of Great Britain resigns and turns over power to successor Gordon Brown on June 27, 2007.

Former Pakistani Prime Minister Benazir Bhutto was assassinated December 27, causing elections to be postponed until February 18, 2008.

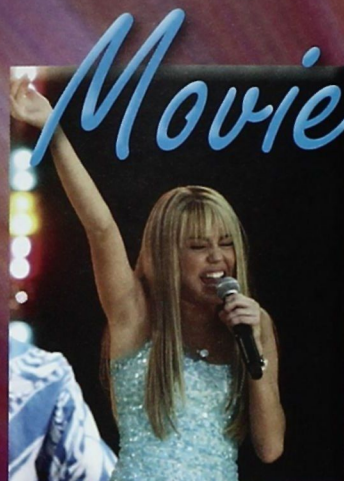

13 people died and many more were injured in Minneapolis when the I-35W Mississippi River bridge collapsed on August 1.

Deadly wildfires raced across southern California in late October. Almost 500,000 people fled their homes and about 1,500 homes were destroyed.

Movies, Music & TV

Johnny Depp was back as Capt. Jack Sparrow in the "Pirates of the Caribbean" series "At World's End."

Justin Timberlake was voted favorite male singer by the 2007 Kids' Choice Awards. Justin's hit song "What Goes Around... Comes Around" was also nominated for a Grammy in 2007. He is shown here receiving an MTV award.

The American Film Institute named the top 10 TV shows of 2007: Dexter (Showtime), Everybody Hates Chris (The CW), Friday Night Lights (NBC), Longford (HBO), Mad Men (AMC), Pushing Daisies (ABC), The Sopranos (HBO), Tell Me You Love Me (HBO), 30 Rock (NBC) and Ugly Betty (ABC).

The writers' strike of 2007 caused many of our favorite TV shows to be cancelled or go into reruns earlier than normal. The primary issue was residual income for DVD sales, and distribution of media through the internet.

Beyoncé was voted favorite female singer by the 2007 Kids' Choice Awards. She received a Grammy nomination for her hit song "Irreplaceable."

Disney released the next installment of its very popular musical movie series, "High School Musical 2."

Going Green

Former Vice President Al Gore had a big year, winning an Academy Award for his book-turned-movie "An Inconvenient Truth" and the Nobel Peace Prize for raising awareness on environmental issues.

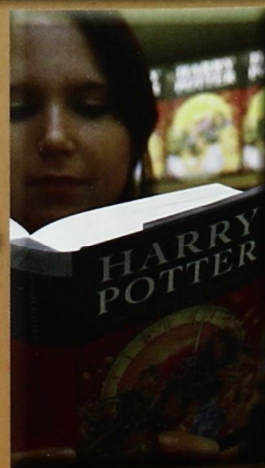

According to the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, replacing regular light bulbs with compact fluorescent light bulbs would save enough energy to light more than 2.5 million homes for a year.

Books

J. K. Rowling's "Harry Potter" series continued its world-wide popularity with the release of the final book in the series, "Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows."

Other popular best sellers for 2007 are "Eragon" by Christopher Paolini, "Diary of a Wimpy Kid" by Jeff Kinney, "Twilight Saga" by Stephanie Meyer, and "Junie B. Jones" by Barbara Park.

Sports

The New York Giants stunned the New England Patriots with an electrifying 17-14 upset victory in Super Bowl XLII. Giants quarterback Eli Manning was named the games MVP.

Slugger Barry Bonds broke Hank Aaron's home run record but also spotlighted problems in professional sports with performance-enhancing drugs.

The San Antonio Spurs, featuring Tim Duncan, defeated the Cleveland Cavaliers for the NBA Championship.

Pat Summitt coached the Tennessee Lady Volunteers to an amazing 7th women's NCAA national title.

Tiger Woods once again rose to the top of the golfing world by winning his 13th major at the 2007 PGA Championship.

Jimmy Johnson won the 2007 Nextel Cup in NASCAR.

The Boston Red Sox won the 2007 World Series over the Colorado Rockies in 4 games.
