BELIEFS

WE BELIEVE EVERY CHILD HAS THE RIGHT TO HAVE AN EDUCATION. WE BELIEVE EVERY CHILD WHO ENTERS OUR SCHOOL CAN LEARN AND SHOW RESPECT FOR OTHERS. WE BELIEVE EVERY CHILD WHO ENTERS OUR SCHOOL CAN TAKE RESPONSIBILITY FOR HIS / HER OWN ACTIONS. WE BELIEVE HARD WORK PRODUCES GOOD RESULTS. WE BELIEVE HARD WORK IS NOT AN OPTION, AND SOME MEASURE OF SUCCESS IS POSSIBLE FOR ALL STUDENTS. WE BELIEVE OUR BEST TODAY MAY NOT BE OUR BEST TOMORROW. WE BELIEVE IN A GENEROUS PRAISE FOR INDIVIDUAL AND GROUP WORK. WE BELIEVE ALL RULES SHOULD BE FOLLOWED. WE BELIEVE IN CONSEQUENCES. WE BELIEVE IN A SET DAILY ROUTINE. WE BELIEVE IN HOMEWORK. WE BELIEVE READING IS ONE OF THE MOST IMPORTANT PARTS OF EDUCATION. WE BELIEVE READING DAILY IS NOT ONLY GOOD BUT A NONNEGOTIABLE, BE IT AT HOME OR IN THE CLASSROOM. WE BELIEVE IN KEEPING CONTINUOUS COMMUNICATION WITH PARENTS, FACULTY, AND STUDENTS. WE BELIEVE A SCHOOL NEEDS TO HAVE A SAFE, HEALTHY, CARING, AND NURTURING ENVIRONMENT. WE BELIEVE IN HAVING FUN AND BEING NICE. WE BELIEVE EVERYDAY SHOULD BEGIN AND END ON A SMILE. WE BELIEVE IN CHILDREN, FAMILY, AND PUBLIC EDUCATION.

Mabel Marcotte's Memories From 1952

Teacher Mabel F. Marcotte was assigned here in 1952. She wrote about her experience and noted that she was assigned to the school on Boeblingen Panzer Kaserne in 1952.

Excerpt from The American Overseas Schools Historical Society

http://www.aoshs.org/memories/Memorydetail.asp?MemoryID=45&VolumeID=1

Marcotte, Mabel F. Germany: 1952 - 1958

As I write, the headlines in today's NEW YORK TIMES are no different from those that have captured our attention for many months about the battles in Yugoslavia. Yet when I think of the Yugoslavia of 1957, my recollection is of two verbal disputes. One confrontation was with a border guard and the second with a trio of Communist officials in Niska Banja about obtaining lodging. Oh yes, there was also a tussle with bedbugs.

There was no conflict in my mind about wanting to teach overseas. I just needed a little shove. During my first two years of teaching third grade in North Plainfield, New Jersey, I eagerly corresponded with a friend who went to Japan. The following two years I taught in Clearwater, Florida and met another teacher who had taught in the Panama Canal Zone. She gave me the encouragement I needed to send in my application. Nine months later I was aboard an Army transport, the Darby, bound for Europe.

Cruise ship it wasn't. Twelve of us in double decker bunks were scolded every day for laundering "undies" in the sink and draping them in our cabin. Dependents had first crack at the laundry room and that was before Pampers. But who was complaining? We had delicious meals, German lessons, dances, and perfect weather. Our destination was Bremerhaven, Germany, with one stop at Casablanca, North Africa. At Casablanca, we anxiously awaited our half-day pass as we gazed down at the departing wives and children and many passionate reunions on the deck. Next stop, Germany, where I learned the night before disembarking that I'd be teaching in the Böblingen American School. Böblingen was a small town near Stuttgart and the Black Forest.

As we boarded the trains for our destinations, we were told our trunks would reach us in a few days. Someone had a great sense of humor. They didn't arrive for several months. Whenever a trunk did arrive, we had an "Opening Event". As the first lucky gal opened hers, a dead silence fell over the group, while her face flushed in embarrassment. The clothes, thrown in helter skelter, were filthy. Of course, she'd receive the wrong trunk. What a blow!

While waiting, we lived out of the two suitcases we had been allowed to carry and became acquainted with our surroundings. The Post, a Panzer Kaserne, located on a hill above pretty little Böblingen had been Rommel's headquarters. How strange it was passing armed soldiers each morning as we walked onto the post, and in the classroom peering through barred schoolroom windows. Other differences we experienced were larger class sizes than back home and we also ate lunch with our students from mess trays filled with G.I meals. One thing I found difficult was a higher student turnover than I was accustomed to in the States. Some of the children found it difficult too. Supplies were requisitioned from an Army Sergeant. But the curriculum was familiar, and the children were American, so we adjusted quickly. Living with the other teachers in a two-story dorm helped. We made friends easily and enjoyed having German maid service for only $12.00 a month.

I adjusted more quickly than I had expected to the military scrip and Deutsche Marks. The latter were the size and the shape of American quarters and were approximately four to the dollar. Everything was so reasonable! What an added bonus we had in having our purchases shipped home free when we left Europe. I paid only $200 for a set of George Jensen silverware. Beautiful little wood carvings and Christmas ornaments cost next to nothing. I'm still using the German stainless silverware today after almost 40 years.

Life was exhilarating and full. We carried out our teaching duties, plus the many hours of extra work and meetings, to pile up compensatory time for trips on weekends and holidays. Some of the school activities involved field trips to the Stuttgart Zoo and a local airport. During my second year, our beautiful new gymnasium-auditorium was opened. We held a huge art fair and invited German teachers to visit. And we still had time to go to the Service Club!

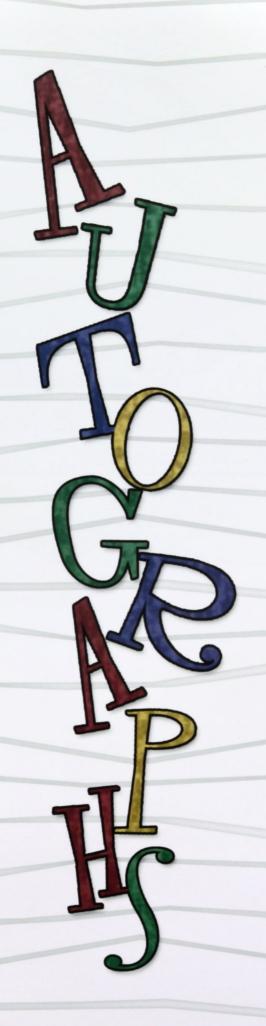

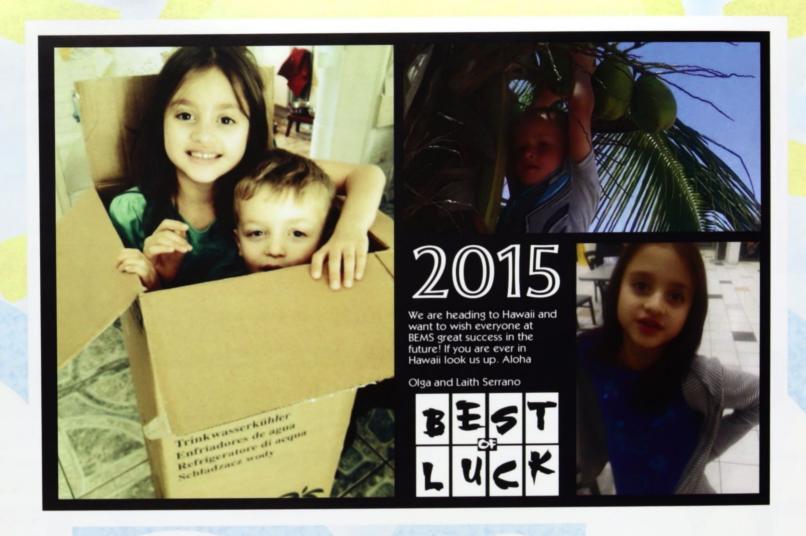

Messages from my friends
