

Bitz Intermediate School

Camp Lejeune, North Carolina 2009-2010

Principal & Assistant Principal

Daniel J. Osgood

It is hard to believe that the school year is drawing to a close. As we near the completion of the fourth quarter and the end of the school year, I want to wish all of our students continued high achievement and success. Looking through this wonderful yearbook brings back so many memories for you, your teachers, parents and friends. I hope that your time at Bitz Intermediate has been memorable and you will always think favorably of your school. Bitz is a great place to learn. Always remember, "You are the Best!"

> Go Gators! Mr. Osgood

Jennifer Steimel

Students. It has been such a pleasure and great fun to join you at Bitz this year. I enjoy watching you learn and grow! Have a fantastic summer and I look forward to seeing many of you again next vear.

5th Grade Social

At the Fifth Grade Social, Gators ate snacks, and had fun line dancing together. Mrs. Buckley & Mrs. Purcel showed some pretty sweet moves too.

D.A.R.E.

Officer Davis taught our 5th grade Gators how to stay away from drugs and alcohol. He also brought in some special goggles that made the students dizzy, so they could experience what it feels like to be impaired by alcohol. Watch out!

Open House

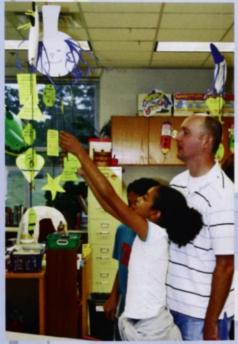

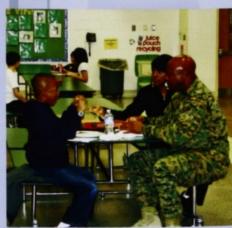

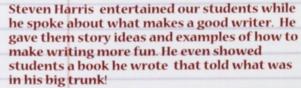

Bitz students attended the Fall Open House and gave their parents a tour of the school and their class rooms. Parents also purchased school t-shirts, yearbooks, and tasty treats from the Bake Sale table!

During the Winter Open House, Gators enjoyed Pizza Night with their families and then visited the Book Fair.

Writing Assembly

Writing should be FUN...

a way to express your ideas and your dreams...

good words can teach, persuade, & bring happiness.

Publishing House

Once upon a time...there was

Cathy Close taught students how to write an original story. Those stories were published into a hard back book by the PTA's Publishing House and given to the children. Who will be our next famous author?!

a creative student who became a famous author, who wrote wonderful stories for the world to read.

Constitution Assembly

Verl H. Matthews, Sr. Vc. Commander of the Military Order of the Purple Heart, talked to our Gators about the Constitution, our freedoms, and why we should be proud to be Americans! He also taught students how to fold an American flag. Our Veterans are great!

Onslow Museum Assembly

Brandie Cline-Baggett, from the Onslow County Museum, talked to our 3rd grade students about the "Colonial Days" and showed them historical artifacts of that time period. She showed them how a Colonial woman made wool & then let our Gators dress up in period clothing.

USMC Birthday Celebration

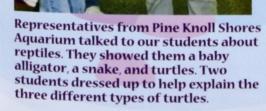

Bitz students celebrated the 234th Marine Corp birthday by attending the school's annual Cake Cutting Ceremony. The oldest and youngest students, Joseph Sanders & John Thorne, got to eat the first pieces of cake. The rest of the Gators enjoyed a Birthday cupcake at lunch.

African Acrobats

These African Acrobats came from Kenya to share their talents of balance, flexibility & gymnastics with the students at Bitz. They had a few Gators come up during their program to participate in the fun!

Read Across America

Gators participated in Read Across America and celebrated Dr. Seuss's Birthday with a cupcake and a book! Marines from AA Battalion read a Dr, Seuss book to each class, and Colonel Fuquea also came out to read some other class favorites. Ms. Angelis' class made those great Dr. Seuss hats!

Hike nonsense:

it wakes up the brain cells. ~Dr. Seuss

Jump Rope for Heart

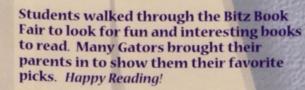

Gators participated in Jump Rope for Heart to raise money for the American Heart Association and spread awareness about cardiovascular health. Students tested their skill at jumping rope, and got a good aerobic workout in the process.

Book Fairs

"Gators Only" Movie Night

Students attended Gators Only Movie Night in December and February. Gators watched a fun movie while eating pizza and popcorn. They also played a movie scavenger hunt.
