The Military Family -- Kathleen McCauley

We plant trees & gardens we may never see grown. Empty rooms & boxes we make into a home. New friends & new faces become quite routine, as we move coast to coast & sometimes in between. We are used to goodbyes as our Soldiers depart, though physically gone, they are close in our hearts. We keep up our spirits as time travels on, knowing each day that passes gets them closer to home. We can be sentimental, our freedom we prize, a patriotic song can draw tears from our eyes. The sounding of Taps, the lives that were lost, we know better than most what freedom can cost. We have love for our country, great pride in this land. The love of our Soldiers gives us the strength to withstand all the heartache, the loneliness, the trials & the tears, the wrenching goodbyes, the sadness & fears. Though there be hardships sadness is not all we know. After goodbyes come welcomes & Hero's hellos. We are proud of our Soldiers and always will be. Where they go -- we go; The Military Family.

WELCOME BACK!!!

Dr. Seuss said "A person is a person, no matter how small!" Do you think he was writing about Johnson Primary students? Did you know that when he was a little boy he loved to write stories and draw pictures? Just like you! He said he was always thinking about things. Just like you! Dr. Seuss worked hard. Just like you! He wrote stories and books. Just like you!

JPS students are the best! You are special in so many ways. You are a very important person - a VIP! I am proud of how much you have learned this year! You are smart! You can do terrific things! There is so much more for you to discover and think about. You are now ready for more learning adventures. Dream big! May each day of your life bring more learning fun!

Have a great summer!

A Penguin Christmas

December 15th & 16th, 2008

A cast of 115 K-2 children proudly presented A Penguin Christmas during the 2008 holiday season. Can you believe that a parade of positively, pesky penguins invaded the North Pole? Did these pesky penguins really think they could replace the elves and reindeer at the North Pole...on the busiest night of the year?

Our cast of Arctic and Antarctic characters discovered that everyone has their own special talents and together, they can make holiday happenings really come true.

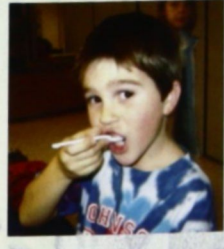

1st Annual Chili Cook-off!!

In our first-ever Chili Cook-off, we had a husband and wife squaring off, two teachers dueling it out and 14 other parents who were wrangling for the title of "Best Chili this side of the Mason-Dixon"

Happy Birthday Dr. Seuss!!

Their First 4 Years...

Pre-Ker's when Johnson Primary opened, these 28 students are leaving our nest & flying on to greater heights. They will take with them the building blocks of education & social skills that will last a lifetime. THANK YOU JPS! We'll miss you!

We're the school's first students to go all the way through, it may seem amazing, but we know that it's true.

Starting in Pre-K to now Second Grade it's hard to believe all the progress we've made!

We've grown in our knowledge; skills learned in grades past. Secret stories and UPSE; making friendships that last.

The last walk we take down those VERY LONG HALLS, will be filled with fond memories, ones we want to recall.

Time has moved on, and yes, so must we. Our "history-making" group is leaving to enter Grade THREE!

As we move on to Bitz or a school far away, Know the LOVE for Johnson Primary will be in our hearts for always!!

Friends Forever!
