THE DRAGONS' LAIR

VOL. III

The faculty, staff, and student body of the Darmstadt American Elementary School dedicate this 1988-89 volume of THE DRAGONS' LAIR to their "knight in shining armor", Mr. Robert J. Platenberg. Mr. Platenberg has served valiantly as our principal since 1967, and has labored gallantly in DoDDS for a total of 37 brilliant years.

For two years Darmstadt Junior High School students have worked as aides in our school, for one class period per day, providing individualized help to our younger students. Their efforts in the classroom, the office, the library, and the nurse's office are appreciated by our faculty and staff. The students' helpfulness, courtesy, good behavior and hard work make us truly thankful for the program. We do appreciate the coordinated efforts of the Jr. High counselor, Marlene Fritz, and all the administrators and faculty who have made this student aide program possible, workable, and beneficial.

Jason Grimm, a 5th grade student from Ms. Miller's classroom, was the first place winner from his grade level in the cover design contest for this year's edition of The Dragons' Lair.

The D.A.E.S. faculty wishes to extend a special thanks to our: administrators, bus monitors, cafeteria workers, classroom volunteers, cleaning crew, dental clinic, "McGruff", parents, P.T.O., playground monitors, School Advisory Committee, substitute teachers, and student aides.

A special thanks to Marcia Schmitt, who gave new meaning to the term "dragon lady", for her many contributions to all phases of both the 87/88 and 88 89 yearbooks!!

The End

A special "thanks" to the following individuals for their contributions to the production of this 1988-89, Vol. III of THE DRAGONS' LAIR: Caroline Liebig, Marcia Schmitt, Allen Folds, Brian Gardner, Jeff Montague, Omar Soto, Amanda Thompson and Shannen Winkler.

Shannen, a 5th grade student from Mrs. McCloud's homeroom, was the grand prize winner in the cover design contest for this year's book; it is her super drawing that greets you on the front cover.

It is with the assistance of all the aforementioned, and the support of the administrators and school staff, that this yearbook is proudly presented to you.
