look back @ your year

In Memory of...

Mary Jane Schneider

This year Darmstadt Elementary School lost a dedicated teacher who served as a guiding force at our school for many years. Since 1996 she has taught the German Immersion class at our school. Ms Mary Jane Schneider died in the Darmstadt Klinikum on March 13, 2005 after having bravely fought cancer for over three years.

As a dedicated teacher MJ saw hundreds of students blossom as she taught them the skills needed to be successful readers and lifelong learners. She also gave them the gift of understanding and using a foreign language in a meaningful and important way. Her legacy will continue to live on through the many children she taught in a dedicated and honorable manner.
