The Dream of Martin Luther King

Once there was a gentleman who talked about a promised land
He reached out and took the troubles of the people in his strong black hands. He had a dream that everybody ought to hear the bells of freedom ring.
Now the people shout and sing about the dream of Martin Luther King.

To reach the goal we must at times run with the wind, other times, against it--
But we must certainly run, not walk, nor stand still.

Happiness is when what you think, what you say, and what you do are in harmony.
