Hundreds of meteors blazed through the sky in late 1998, burning up in the earth's atmosphere.

In 1962 John Glenn was the first American to orbit the earth. This year the country celebrated when this 77-year-old Ohio senator got a second chance in space on the Shuttle Discovery.

Discovery rockets blast the Shuttle into space where John Glenn helped scientists study how older people would fare in space.

U.S. Space Shuttle Endeavor astronauts began the assembly of the International Space Station to be completed by 2004.

National hero John Glenn gave President John F. Kennedy a tour of the capsule, Friendship 7.

"Zero G and I feel fine"

In 1962, John Glenn flew alone. Thirty-six years later, Glenn joined six multi-national astronauts to make up the crew for the Space Shuttle Discovery.

evil eye

Hurricanes Mitch and Georges brought over 100 mph winds, torrents of rain, and mud-slides to the Caribbean and Central America in 1998.

Tequigalpa, Guatemala and cities in Honduras and Nicaragua were left without power, food, supplies and transportation.

A hot, dry summer sparked out-of-control fires in Florida that burned more than 320,000 acres. Four-thousand firefighters from 41 states fought the blazes.

It was a busy year for American Red Cross president, Elizabeth Dole. Mrs. Dole resigned from the Red Cross in early 1999.

Storms brewed in Washington

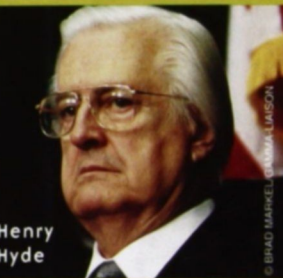

Bill Clinton

Kenneth Starr

Henry Hyde

For only the second time in history, a president was impeached by the United States House of Representatives. Like Andrew Johnson in 1868, President William Jefferson Clinton was impeached by the House on charges of perjury and obstruction of justice.

Independent Prosecutor, Kenneth Starr, investigated the President and brought a referral against him to the House of Representatives' Judiciary Committee. Republican Congressman from Illinois, Henry Hyde presided over the Judiciary Committee that brought two Articles of Impeachment against the 42nd President. The President was tried by the Senate, and Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, William Rehnquist presided.

John Hume and David Trimble shared the 1998 Nobel Peace Prize for their work in forging the "Good Friday" agreement, aimed at ending violence in Northern Ireland.

Palestinian leader Yasser Arafat, the late King Hussein of Jordan, President Clinton, and Israeli Prime Minister Netanyahu agreed to pursue peace in the Middle East.

Ground was broken for a memorial to the 168 victims of the 1995 bombing of the Alfred P. Murrah Federal Building in Oklahoma City.

Simultaneous bombings occurred in the U.S. Embassies in Nairobi, Kenya, and Dar Es Salaam, Tanzania, killing 257 people and injuring more than 5,000.

The timber wolf, the bald eagle, the Canadian goose, and the brown pelican were removed from the endangered species list this year.

Ethnic Albanian residents returned to their homes in Kosovo, Serbia, with the protection of NATO soldiers.

On September 8, '98, Mark McGwire hit his 62nd home run of the season, breaking Roger Maris' 37-year-old record set in 1961. McGwire finished the season with a total of 70 homers, the last two sailed out of the park in the final game of the season.

Homerun Heroes

⚡ 'Atta boy Dad! McGwire's son, Matt, was bat boy for dad's team, the St. Louis Cardinals.

⚡ Chicago Cubs' Sammy Sosa came a close second to McGwire, hitting 66 homers. He drove in 158 runs, scored 134 times, and batted .308.

Yankee slugger Roger Maris.

⚡ Baltimore Oriole Cal Ripken broke Yankee legend Lou Gehrig's record of 2,130 starts by playing 2,632 consecutive games. Cal went 16 years without missing a start.

So Long Michael

⚡ Perhaps the best known and most loved sports player of all time retired this year. With six NBA Championships, six NBA Finals MVPs, five league MVPs, three All-Star MVPs, 10 scoring titles, 31.5 points per game (the best in history), and 13 seasons, Michael Jordan said, "This is the perfect time for me to walk away from the game..."

1960-1998

⚡ Known for her body suits, 6-inch nails, and unbeatable speed, Florence Griffith Joyner died in her sleep at 38, but her records, and her legacy, still stand.

⚡ Rebecca Lobo plays for the New York Liberty, one of eight teams in the new WNBA.

Extremely Good!

⚡ 20-year-old Se Ri Pak from Korea won the U.S. Open.

⚡ Match Point! Lindsay Davenport beat Martina Hingis in the U.S. Open. This 6'-2" Californian was the first American-born woman to win in 16 years.

⚡ Beads and braids flying, these tennis playing Williams sisters, Venus (right) and Serena (left) were ranked 6th and 20th in the world. Venus is 6'2" and her serve has been clocked at 110 mph!

⚡ Quarterback John Elway led the Denver Broncos to their second straight title with a 34-19 victory over the Atlanta Falcons in Super Bowl XXXIII.

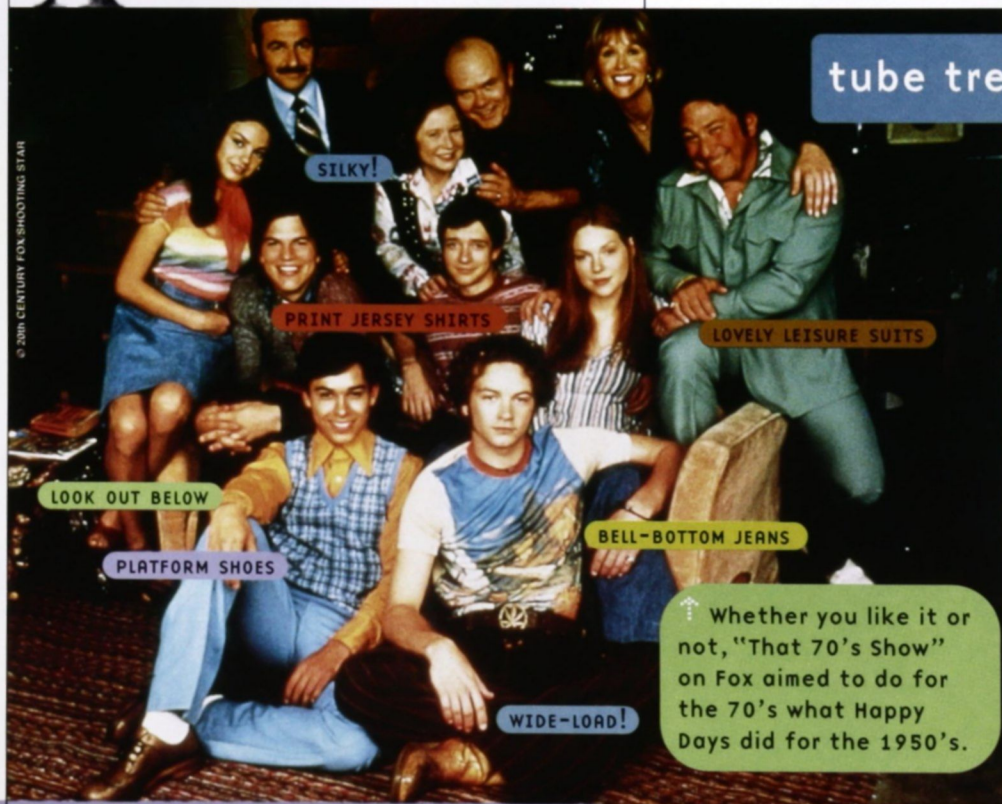

⚡ The Detroit Red Wings swept the Washington Capitals to win their second Stanley Cup in a row.

⚡ Simply Z Best! Led by striker, Zinedine Zidane, France beat Brazil 3-0 in the World Cup.

⚡ No jumping for joy! Michael Jordan and all NBA players were "locked out" by team owners until February, 1999. Owners got the salary cap that players protested.

⚡ Twenty-seven-year-old NASCAR champion Jeff Gordon and his team the Rainbow Warriors have won 41 races in six years—the best all-time winning percentage!

⚡ Dave Mirra soars during a stunt street competition at the '98 summer X-Games in San Diego.

Sarah Michelle Gellar starred as a brave soul in the popular WB thriller "Buffy The Vampire Slayer."

The styles in WB's top-rated "Dawson's Creek" echo the 70's look. Kerr Smith, Michelle Williams, James Van Der Beek, and Katie Holmes starred in one of prime time's hottest teen TV shows.

"Just The Two Of Us." Will Smith and his son Trey starred in a hit music video and dad scored with movie, "Enemy of the State," hit single, "Miami," and top-selling album, "Big Willie Style." Smith won three American Music Awards this year.

With the hard drive and monitor all in one unit, Steve Jobs, CEO of Apple Computer, successfully launched the iMac.

Bugs were small but big. The 1998 version of this classic has the engine in the front.

Also in the forefront was the coming millennium and the Year 2000 Bug, alias Y2K. Power, communication and transportation systems might fail if we don't swat this pesky bug.

Stephen Spielberg's movie, "Saving Private Ryan," starring two-time Oscar winner, Tom Hanks, along with Matt Damon, Edward Burns, and Tom Sizemore made history. The opening D-Day landing sequence was possibly the most realistic combat sequence ever filmed.

Tom Hanks and Meg Ryan fell in love by communicating over the Internet in the romance made for the 21st century, "You've Got Mail."

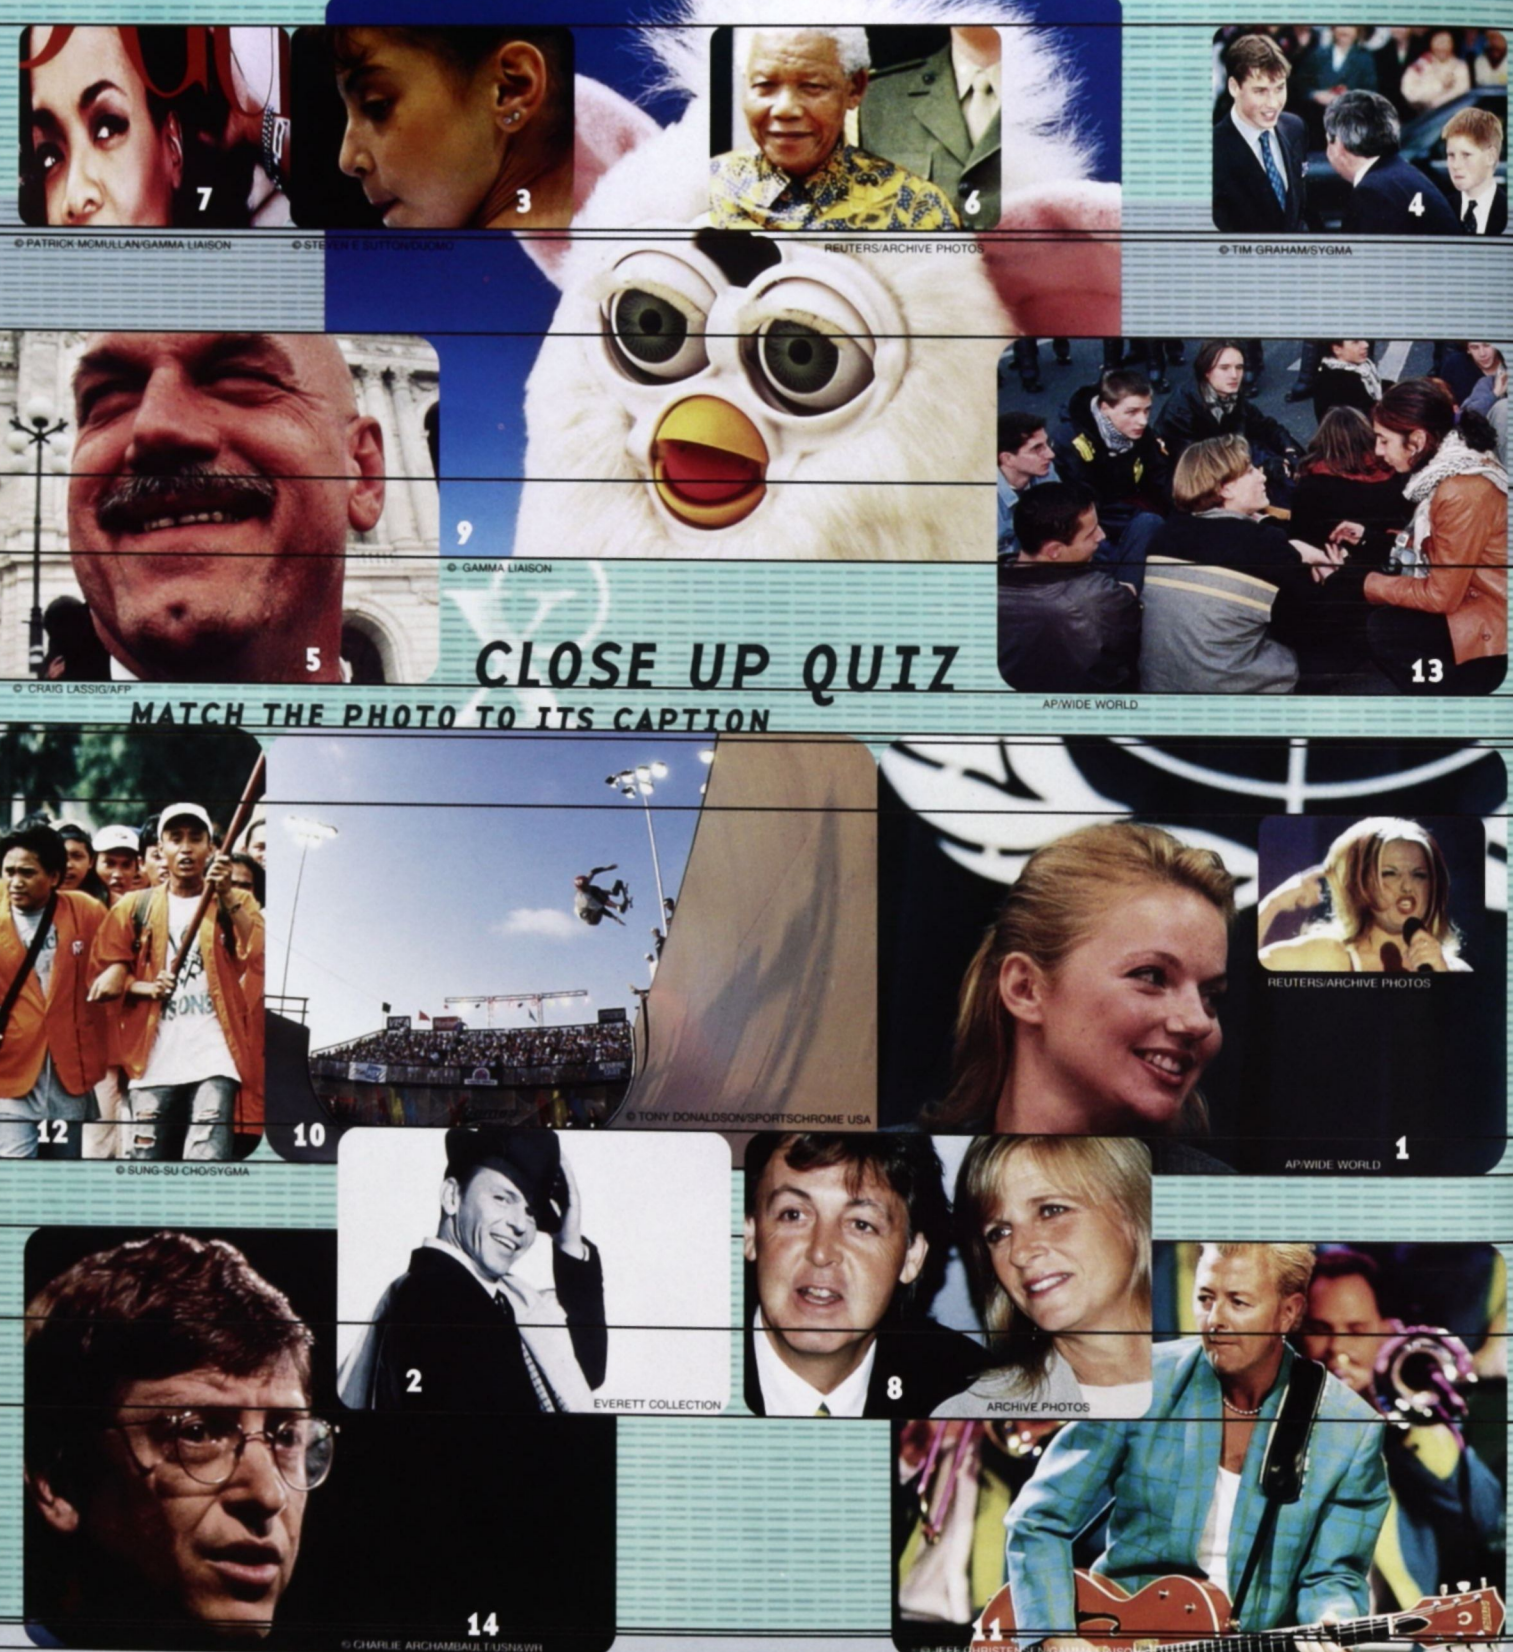

A new twenty dollar bill featured a larger portrait of Andrew Jackson, the words "USA Twenty," and a thread that glows green in UV light. Can't counterfeit that!

"Don't Have A Cow Man!" As the most watched animated TV series, "The Simpsons," continued to grow in popularity, a variety of new animated shows hit the scene like "South Park" and "King of the Hill."

The Kimono is a traditional Japanese dress. This little girl was in a wedding that took place at a Shrine.

Miss Butler applied for this program sponsored by Japan to honor United States teachers. She traveled in Japan for three weeks.

This boy is on his way to school wearing his uniform and carrying a backpack he will keep for much of his schooling.

...With International Flair

During lunch, students must wear these white outfits and serve each other food. These three invited Miss Butler to eat in their classroom.

The elementary school students were creating a drama similar to a puppet show. They are dressed for a Japanese festival.

Students work on the floor for their art class. Most classes in Japan have between 30 and 40 students each.

The Shinkasen, or the bullet train, is the fastest train in Japan, traveling at 300 kilometers an hour. It is famous for never being late.

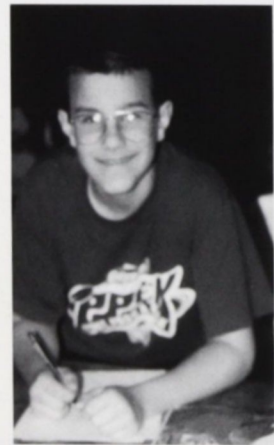

Japanese students study traditional cooking in junior high. They are pictured in their club activity uniforms.
