

Irwin Intermediate Yearbook

2008

*Welcome To Irwin Intermediate School
Fort Bragg, NC*

I'm a Military Child

"Do you think that he's ok?"
Is what a child would always
say. When my dad had left me,
That was my nervous plea. All thoughts good and bad, spinning in my head. I'd wonder is he; will he be O.K?
Don't tell me not to be mad.
Dont tell me not to be sad.
And don't tell me he's saving the world. And not have time for his little girl! So I'll have my "Pride and Proud", but my angers just too loud. I'm a military Child.

Poem By Valora
Brunner

FREEDOM IS NOT THAT EASY TO EARN

*Life is so simple, Life is so great such a world ,
Only God could create Here I sit, In this desert waste land But soon I shall behold , The vast beauty of my homeland*

I wander far, And I wander abroad Not for the parades, Or the people who will applaud This I do not do for myself, Or for medals to be placed on my shelf I do this for my country, And I hope you can see I do this for future generations, And so my children can be free I see all around me, Death and turmoil This is the reason, I left my home soil

*The people at home , They have it so grand All because of the soldiers, Who have left their homeland Many have left and, Will never return Freedom for others,
Is all that they earn*

*This is the reason, I write this poem
Because i will soon be, On my way home
Back to America, And the land of the free I think of my brothers/sisters, Which will not be with me*

I read the paper, and hear the report Of flags and ribbons, and the support These are the reasons, My duties I perform Proud to put on This uniform

But one thing, We must remember Are the lost lives, Of our service members It all comes down to one simple lesson, That all Americans should learn

FREEDOM IS NOT THAT EASY TO EARN

Our Thank You To Bravery

You all are very loyal. You would give anything to make sure nothing and no one would get hurt in the United States. You do not go to war for nothing. You do so because you want to protect your friends and families. Thank you.

Daekwon Woodfaulk

You soldiers are the most brave and courageous people I know. You are willing to sacrifice your life for your country. You are my heroes. Stay safe always.

Emily Wilson

Thank you for guarding our lives every day and risking your lives that is so special. Thank You.

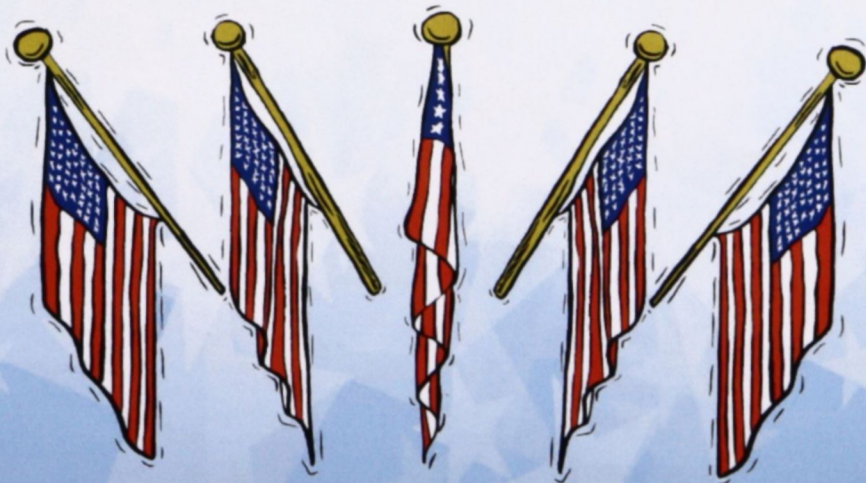

Asante Gilmore

Thank you for keeping our world safe. I appreciate everything you do. Cassie McAlister

Thank you for putting yourselves in harms way just to protect the men, women, and children of America. Thank you for everything.

Xavier Brooks

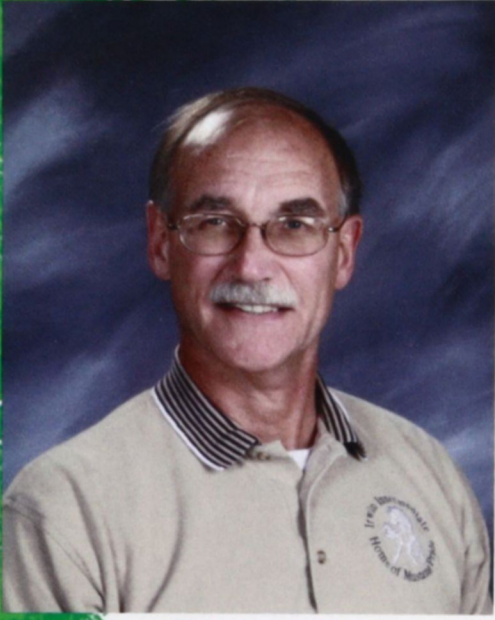

Thank you for your strength, bravery and sacrifice. Your love for our country is very inspiring Dorota Quiroz

Thank you so much! You guys are the best. You are brave, courageous and you really care for our country. Thank you for protecting us.
Alandra Lawrence

Thank you so much for your selfless service to our country. You are so appreciated! Stay safe and God Bless You!

Mission Statement

Irwin Intermediate School is a positive, safe and exciting place to learn. Challenging standards and Diverse experiences prepares students to excel as responsible citizens in a global society.

School Pledge

I am here to learn. This day has been given to me fresh and clear. I promise I shall use this day to its fullest, realizing it can never come back again. Every day is a wonderful opportunity for me to learn, to care, and celebrate the joy of life. I am the only person who has the power to decide what I will accomplish. I am a unique and precious human being. I have the potential to achieve great success. I am an important part of the universe.

SCIENCE FAIR

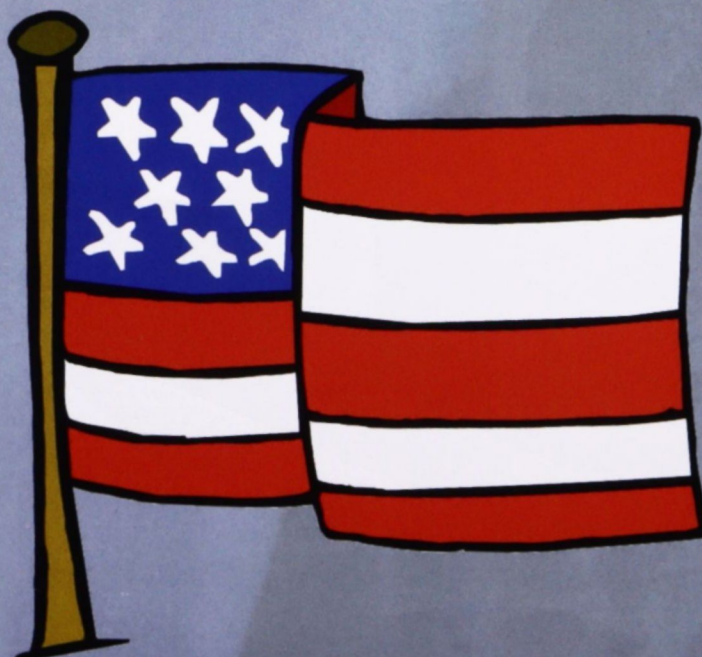

Each year at Irwin the students participate in a Science Fair. Each student prepares an experiment that is judged on certain criteria. This year Jenna Presta-Broomer won first place for the fifth grade and Jamie Staton won first place for the sixth grade. Tyler Partridge and Harrison Wright were runners up for the fifth and Kevin Russell and Alec DiRuzza were runners up for the sixth.

DARE

I pledge allegiance to myself and who I want to be Cause I can make my dreams come true, if I believe in me. I pledge to stay in school and learn things I need to know to make the world a better place for kids like me to grow. I pledge to keep my dreams alive, and be all I can be. I know I can, and that's because I pledge to stay Drug-Free!!!

D.A.R.E. GRADUATION

The Three Essay Finalists

Erin Colster
Essay Winner

Each year at Irwin we celebrate the culmination of the D.A.R.E. program with a graduation for the fifth graders. This year the fifth grade worked hard in their learning about drug and violence resistance.

SUPER SLEUTH

Mrs. Geiger

Mrs. Alvarez

Mr. McCaig

Jose needs to send in his summer soccer camp registraion. The postage needed to mail in his oversized letter is $1.22. He looked in his pocket and saw that he had 15 coins that add up to $1.22. He has quarters, nickles, dimes, and pennies. How many of each coin does he have?

4-Step Process

THINK

Write the facts of the problem and the question.

PLAN

Write your strategy in words.

SOLVE

Show your work and make sure your computations are correct.

EXPLAIN

The correct answer is stated with a label and in a complete sentence.

Statement of why you did what you did. Check your answer by an alternative method or by working backwards.

Mrs. Lydick

Can you solve this problem? Remember to use the 4-step process. The answer will be announced on the last day of school.

Winner - Josh McKinnie
Runner Up - Coshawn Egan
Runner Up - Melissa Riley

GEOGRAPHY BEE

Each year the National Geographic Society sponsors a geography contest. All students at Irwin are involved in the beginning and each homeroom sends a representative. From there the participants are narrowed to ten and then to one winner.

The PTO at Irwin did many things this year. They sponsored the book fairs, and the yearbook. They raised money that was used by almost every area of the school. Every Tuesday and Thursday there is always a long line at the school store. The students love the nick nacks. Thank you to the PTO for all you do.

SIXTH GRADE MEMORIES

My memories are of teachers and friends. This year has been a joy because of my funny teachers Ms. Mustin, Mrs. Sweger, and Mrs. Shirley. Not only did I get the best teachers, I got the best friends. I am going to miss Irwin!

Aurora Hudspeth

Lauren Mikos

My favorite memory that I will always remember is meeting new friends, and having the opportunity to have my favorite teacher Mrs. Sweger for the second year.

Something I will always remember is when we made plant cells out of gram crackers and a bunch of candy. After we made them we got to eat them.

Elizabeth Alford

Elizabeth
Grimsley

A favorite memory for me is when our class did the science museum for other classes to visit. I made the artic fox project. I also got to be a tour guide. It was great fun.

SIXTH GRADE MEMORIES

Something I will always remember is getting to be in Jr. Beta Club. It is a club that you must be recommended for by your teacher. You get to help the school.

Cassandra
McAlister

Kaylee Brennan

My Irwin memory is when I met my teachers. I was not very excited about starting school, but my teachers made learning fun. They taught me to be kind to others. I believe when I am older I would like to be a teacher and teach what they have taught me.

My memory is meeting friends. It was the first day of school and I met Brenna, Marissa, Lorena, and Toast (Carlitos.) After that I met more people. Now, I have a big group of good friends for the rest of the year.

Jenna Phillips

Joseph McNeill

My memory is having great teachers that know what a joke is. I know that this will be the last year that I can joke around. I have enjoyed every moment of sixth grade.

SIXTH GRADE MEMORIES

I remember in 5th grade my homeroom won the D.A.R.E. door decorating contest. We got a pizza party for being the winner.

Christian
Encarnacion

Chris Aguilar

My memory of Irwin was the D.A.R.E. graduation. It was cool that the Golden Knights jumped out of the plane. I couldn't believe that Mr. Richardson was going to jump with them. That was really cool.

My memory was when I got my first A of the year. That felt really good. My family was really proud. I was very happy.

Justice Williams

Thomas Trainor

I have a lot of great memories of Irwin, but my favorite was when I was in the fifth grade. It was the fourth quarter awards ceremony when I made the honor roll for the 3rd time in a row. When Mr. Richardson called my name I felt like I was exploding.

SIXTH GRADE MEMORIES

My favorite memory of sixth grade is having Mr. Autry make everything fun. When something is boring he makes it not so bad. He keeps it real. I will miss him.

Danielle Ceballos

Lorena Leon

I remember when I met all my friends. I especially remember when I met my two BEST Friends Carlitos (Toast) and Kyle(Cereal). They made this year fun for me. I will miss them and my other friends too!

My memory is when I played in the winter concert. I played the trombone and thought I did a good job. I was very proud of myself because it was my first concert.

Pedro Pagan

Clarissa Leyda

My favorite memory of Irwin is the wonderful friends and teachers that I met. They are the ones who made the band concert, field day, and every single day here at Irwin extra special.

Bald Eagle Soars Off Endangered Species List

Challenger, a bald eagle, participates in an event marking the removal of the bald eagle from the endangered species list June 28, 2007 at the Jefferson Memorial in Washington, D.C. This marks one of the world's greatest conservation success stories with 11,040 nesting pairs in 2007—an increase of nearly 1,300 pair from 2006. In 1963 there were barely 400 nesting pairs of bald eagles in the lower 48 states.

California Wildfires

US President George W. Bush (second from right), Congressman Brian Bilbray (center) and Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger (second from left) meet with Jay (right) and Kendra Jeffcoat (left) who lost their home in the wildfires October 25, 2007, in San Diego, California. Pictured at far left back is FEMA Director, R. David Paulison. 400,000 people were evacuated from their homes in what became the largest mass evacuation in California's history. The fires burned nearly 500,000 acres and have an estimated cost to the state of one billion dollars.

Goodbye Harry Potter

2007 brought about the end of an era for Harry Potter fans. Worldwide anticipation and hype surrounded the publication of

"Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows," the seventh and final book in author J.K. Rowling's fantasy series. The fifth movie in the Harry Potter series, "Harry Potter and the Order of the Phoenix," was also released in 2007.

Hall December 10, 2007. Former US vice president Al Gore received the 2007 Prize with Pachauri "for their efforts to build up and disseminate greater knowledge about man-made climate change, and to lay the foundations for the measures that are needed to counteract such change," per the association's website.

Hannah Montana

Twens everywhere were crazy about Hannah Montana in 2007. The popular Disney show featuring actress Miley Cyrus hit the road with the "Hannah Montana and Miley Cyrus Best of Both Worlds Tour" with stadiums selling out nationwide.

Major Toy Recall

Recalled toys are piled in a shopping cart after being pulled from the shelves August 14, 2007 in Chicago, Illinois. The toys were among nine million Chinese-made toys being recalled by Mattel. Other toys including Polly Pocket play sets and Batman action figures were recalled due to potential dangers to children from lead paint or tiny magnets that could be accidentally swallowed.

The ball was later purchased by designer Marc Ecko who allowed individuals to log onto www.vote756.com and choose to give the ball immediately to the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, permanently brand the ball with an asterisk (*) before sending it to Cooperstown, or put the ball on a rocket ship and launch it into space. Forty-seven percent of voters chose to brand the ball with an asterisk. According to the website, "The public chose to send the ball to the Hall of Fame with an asterisk, as a constant reminder of this unforgettable moment in sports history and popular culture."

Minnesota Bridge Collapse

An aerial view shows the collapsed I-35W bridge on August 4, 2007, in Minneapolis, Minnesota. The bridge collapsed August 1 during rush hour.

iPhone Mania

On January 9, 2007, Apple CEO Steve Jobs introduced the iPhone—a revolutionary mobile phone, a widescreen iPod with touch controls, and a breakthrough Internet communications device with desktop-class email, web browsing, searching and maps—into one small and lightweight handheld device. iPhone introduces an entirely new user interface based on a large multi-touch display and pioneering new software, letting users control iPhone with just their fingers. iPhone also ushers in an era of software power and sophistication never before seen in a mobile device, which completely redefines what users can do on their mobile phones.

Presidential Campaigns

Democratic presidential candidates, New York Senator Hillary Clinton (left) and Illinois Senator Barack Obama (right) stand on stage prior to the start of the CNN/YouTube Democratic Presidential Candidate Debate, July 23, 2007, at the Citadel Military College in Charleston, South Carolina. Democratic candidates were U.S. Sen. Joe Biden (D-DE), New Mexico Gov. Bill Richardson, U.S. Rep. Dennis Kucinich (D-OH), U.S. Sen. Hillary Clinton (D-NY), Democratic National Committee

Chairman Howard Dean, U.S. Sen. Barack Obama (D-IL), U.S. Sen. Chris Dodd (D-CT), and former U.S. Sen. John Edwards (D-NC). Republican candidates were U.S. Rep. Tom Tancredo (R-CO), former Arkansas governor Mike Huckabee, former Massachusetts governor Mitt Romney, former New York City Mayor Rudy Giuliani, former U.S. Senator Fred Thompson (R-TN), U.S. Sen. John McCain (R-AZ), Rep. Ron Paul (R-TX), and U.S. Rep. Duncan Hunter (R-CA).

Beckham Joins LA Galaxy

Los Angeles was crackling with anticipation as David Beckham prepared to kick off a new phase of his career in the United States. The 32-year-old sporting icon arrived in Los Angeles July 12, 2007 with pop-star wife Victoria and the couple's three children to be greeted by a blizzard of paparazzi camera flashes worthy of a fashion show. The athlete is set to become the highest paid athlete ever.
