DRUG ABUSE RESISTANCE EDUCATION

Officer Redmond teaching class.

This year Officer Redmond brought the D.A.R.E. message. Stay drug, alcohol, and violence free. She engaged the students in lessons which taught them strategies such as say no, give the cold shoulder, and so on. Irwin is very lucky to have such a caring officer working with the students.

IRWIN ASSEMBLIES

Dr. Howle is a good sport in supporting the PTO Book Fair.

To celebrate NCO Month and Dr. Seues' birthday, Two NCOs came and read two selections written by Dr. Seues.

At Irwin this year we have had assemblies to reward good grades, good attitudes and Science Projects. We had an author talk about the subject of bullies. Two NCOs came to read Dr. Seues books. Miss Sharp held an assembly to discuss behavior and Dr. Howle was hit by water balloons and was slimed.

Dr. Howle and Miss Sharp hand out an Honor roll Award.

Trevor Romain came to Irwin to discuss dealing with bullies.

Character Wall Of Fame

Each year at Irwin we celebrate one character trait per month. By doing this we hope to emphasize the good that everyone should be doing.

CARING

TRUSTWORTHINESS

RESPONSIBILITY

RESPECT

INTEGRITY

CITIZENSHIP

Each student pictured on this page has the type of character emphasized at Irwin.

IRWIN SCIENCE FAIR

Some kids who entered the Science Fair were nervous and thought it would be hard to win.

For most kids, this was their first Science Fair and they were proud of what they did.

Trey Adkins

When a parent is deployed it is very sad the first few days. After that it feels better. You can do things like put candy in a jar and eat one every day until your parent gets back home.

Drucilla Stephenson

I don't like my dad being deployed. When he is deployed I worry something might happen to him. Kids attitude changes and the grades drop down and no one listens. It makes me mad. I can't wait til he comes home.

Shakrie Wisher

For me it was really hard to see my dad leave and not come back for a year. I was so worried that I would never see him again.

I tried not to think about it that much, but it got to me all the time. Even though my dad had been deployed time and time again I still cannot get my mind around him being gone.

Alicia Cisneros

I miss my dad and I wish he would come home. He sends me, my brother and sister stuff.

He sends my mom flowers. I can't wait till he comes home in June for R&R.

I think having a deployed parent is really tough, especially if you are very young. Some people say that it is not right for our parents to go away to war.

They have to understand that when our parents join the military they are making a commitment to protect our country. They do this to keep our country safe.

Precious Williamson

Janae Gamara

When my father deployed I was very depressed. I kept all my sad feelings inside. Then at the oddest moments I felt the pain and sorrow that my dad felt.

Wince Nordan

Its hard because I have to help my mom a lot. I have to help mom when she misses dad so I have to be the man of the house. I really miss my dad.

Amber Jones

I am happy that my dad is home now. I feel glad because my whole family was affected, from my mom to my baby brother. Now that dad is home, this has made my whole family happier.

Sabrina Hudspeth

It is tough to have my dad deployed. He misses our birthdays. It makes me feel better when he calls because I haven't talked with him in a while. I also feel better when I write to him.

Malcolm Fletcher

one
of the girls

Hi, I'm Kaila and I'm going to talk to you about getting the A honor roll . First of all, I turn in all of my homework and class work.I participate in all class activities. I respect all teachers and adults. I am able to work independently,or by myself. I can also work in groups without causing drama or trouble!So thats pretty much it, so try all of these things to get straight A's!

one
guys

Hi, I'm Malcolm and my comment on having straight A's is that it takes a lot of work, determination, and you will have to be willing to do the work. You also have to be nice to every one,including the teachers! It's not easy, but it's possible for anyone to do!

These kids decided to be in our school band, and they are good too! This band is not any ordinary band, this band is IRWIN INTERMEDIATE'S 6TH GRADE BAND!

B The 6th grade band is divided into two groups, Band 1 and Band 2. They were both completely awesome in our winter and spring concerts!! Both bands are led by Mr. Thomas, the band director. He is absolutely fabulous! He has trained first time instrument players into fabulous performers! Mr. Thomas is amazing! The band is full of talented students that have great potential!!!

Band practice. This is where the music begins!

This is Mr. Thomas. He is the conductor that turns people that have never touched a instrument to a harmonious band.

2008-2009 was another great year for the Irwin Chorus. Lead by Ms. Yorgey, the chorus gave a wonderful Christmas concert that delighted students and parents alike.

Their performance at the Fort Bragg Christmas Tree Lighting Ceremony is always a crowd pleaser, and in the spring, I am sure they will put on a great show. Well done Ms. Yorgey and chorus.

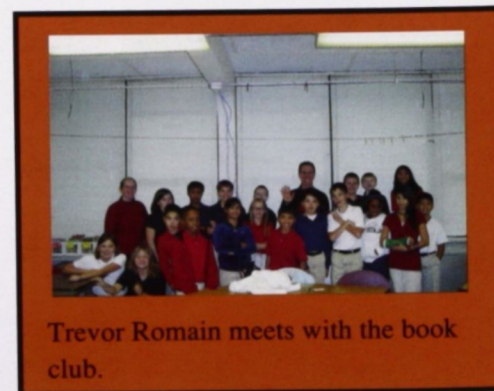

IRWIN CHORUS

Battle of the Books / History Club

This year Mrs. Weipert tackled two clubs, the Battle of the Books (BOTB) and the History Club. BOTB were a group of students who loved to read. They read many books and even competed with other schools on their knowledge of them. The History Club worked on several projects, went on a few field trips, and had some special speakers all for the love of history. How awesome!!!

Trevor Romain meets with the book club.

Q & A

Is BOTB cool or lame?

Q "It is cool because at the end of the year you get to compete in a contest about books."

Shawn Cecconi

How's History Club?

Q It's awesome if you love history!

John McCombs

ART CLUB

Mrs. Flores and Mrs. Quiroz led students talented in the area of art. Each of the two semesters students were challenged to create works of art for themselves and ones that helped to beautify our school.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Mrs. Hannon

Student Council Leaders
 Sponsor: Mrs. Hannon
 President: Talia Tilly
 Vice President: Samantha Lopiccolo
 Secretary: Courtnee Denton
 Sergeant of Arms: Will Huff

What is Student Council's job? Student Council's job is to represent and support the school. They will try their best to make this school the best school they can. They play an important role as leaders working with Principal Howle as voices for the students.

JUNIOR BETA CLUB

Mrs. Bronzo

Junior Beta is a club that recognizes academic achievement, promotes character, develops leadership skills, and encourages service involvement.

To be in Junior Beta, a student must be nominated by a teacher and carry a certain grade point average. These students are future leaders. This year through various activities, they collected food and toys for needy families in our area. They are presently collecting pop can tabs to raise money for the Ronald McDonald House Charity.

The Homework Club

Mr. Stewart is the committed teacher that manages the homework club. Homework Club will help kids that need support in understanding homework and just regular schoolwork.

I Am

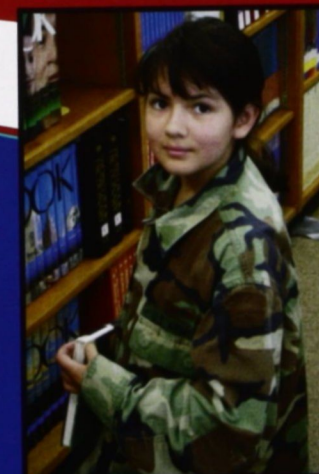

I am a military child
I wonder if my dad is O.K.
I hear the laughter of other children playing with their dads
I see him flying away from me, towards war
I want him to come home
I am a military child

I pretend I'm not hurting inside when my dad is overseas
I feel his strong arms hugging me when he gets home
I touch my heart when I think of him
I worry my dad will get hurt
I cry when I miss him
I am a military child

I understand he's helping our country
I say, "I love you," when he comes home
I dream my dad will never have to leave again
I try to hold back my tears to be strong
I hope my dad comes home safely
I am a military child

Shannon McLaughin

IRWIN CELEBRATES THE MONTH OF THE MILITARY CHILD

Military Children

Military children are like no other
Every mom, dad, sister or brother
We go through terrible times each day
When a loved one is sent away
Sometimes it's Afghanistan, Iran, or Iraq
Most things just fall through the cracks
Morning, noon, and in the night
We pray for everything to be all right
Fear is brought into our heart
That one day we will be apart
But one day there will be no more
And our cries won't be ignored
Hearts won't be across the world
And world peace will then be heard

Jenna Bilak

ALWAYS MY HERO

Dad, you've always been my hero,
In good times and in bad.
You're a strong and loving soldier.
When I remember this I never get sad.

I always feel ever so safe.
You are my shelter in a storm.
Even though you sometimes have to leave,
I know it's not the norm.

I hide your love with honor
In the very depths of my heart.
I love you my hero, my dad,
Even when we are miles apart.

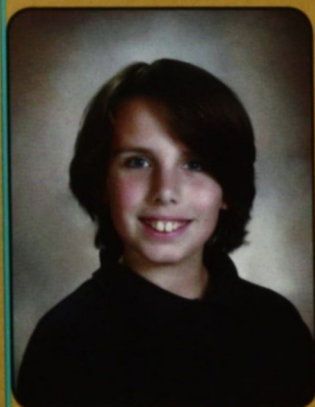

Allen McKnight

Trisha
Pratap

I am proud of my dad for serving in the military, but I hate that he is deployed and I dislike war. Since he has been gone he has missed a lot of birthdays, holidays and other important events. I do not understand why governments have to go to war, I just want my dad back safe.

Justin Reynolds

I think having a deployed parent can be tough, but you have to make the best of it. You have just got to know that these things happen and your deployed parent will make it home safe.

I am mad and sad that my daddy is deploying because he has deployed before.

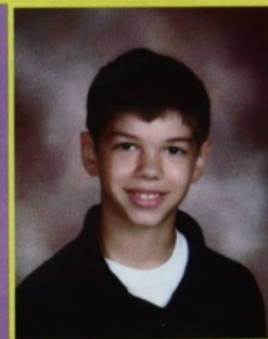

Mathew O'Connor

It is also tough for my mom because she has to watch me and my two sisters by herself. I also remember that the last time my daddy deployed my family was sad, but we got through it. I hope we can get through it this time.

I feel very frustrated because I have to do more work and boss people around and that takes a lot of responsibility. I do not have much time to do what I want to do.

Garret Cudd

Cody Duchi

It makes me feel like a part of my life is missing and it kind of never leaves my mind. While I am at school, and everywhere I am always thinking of him.

I miss my dad very much. I do not want him to leave. I feel I hardly know him sometimes.

Toni Stonerock

Sherman
Baker

I am glad my dad is deployed because I know my dad is helping the world be safe and free. Then again I am sad he is gone because he takes me fishing and to fairs. My dad is my hero!!

Sage
Allen

I feel very sad about not being able to see my dad on a day to day basis like I am used to. Since he has been deployed I miss him so much and I am always thinking of him. It makes me super happy though when I get to talk to him on the phone.
