Compliments of a job well done

Every member of the Ft. Campbell High School staff is immensely dedicated to their work, giving 110' every day of the year. So this year when the time came to pick a dedicatee for the 1983 Falcon yearbook, the task to choose xxxxxxxx a worthy individual seemed impossible. But after much deliberation, Coach Parrent was chosen. Coach Parrent is not only a good teacher, but an even better friend to most. He relates well with the student body and the majority feeling among students is that he is just "a good 'old guy."

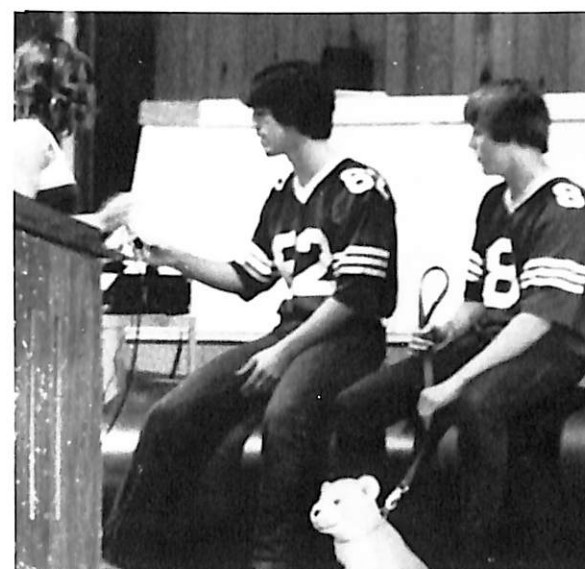

This is Coach Parrent's third year at Ft. Campbell as a physical education/health teacher. Along with his responsibilities as a teacher, one must also add that he has been the wrestling coach for the past three years. While in high school, Coach Parrent captured the state wrestling title in the 155 lbs. weight class for Hopkinsville High School. In addition to being the wrestling coach, he has been the assistant track coach for the past two years and served as the tennis coach the first year he taught here.

The yearbook staff wishes to compliment Kent Parrent, 1983 Falcon recipient, on a job well done!

Rallying for Victory

Where the

Clockwise from upper right: 1. Me a star? 2. You're kidding? 3. Boy Richard, you really are hungry. On opposite page, clockwise from upper left: 1. You mean, it wasn't a pizza? 2. Hail, hail the gang's all enjoying a pizza at Gatti's after another Falcon victory. 3. What to have, what to have.

People Go

To the students at Ft. Campbell, the social hour was a time to get away from the daily grind of classes. For some, the best way to ease the daily pressure was by getting a coke or grabbing a bite to eat at one of the nearby fast food restaurants. In addition were the weekly celebrations of Falcon victories at Mr. Gatti's on 41-A.

Friendship . . .

The Name of Friend is common, but faith in friendship is rare.

Personality Plus

What is a school? All it is, is a mass of brick and concrete . . . So what makes it what it is? The people make the school. They give a school its personality and distinguish it from all others. Next time you think about it, stop for a minute and look at some of the people who made our year at Ft. Campbell.

The Daily Grind

As the new school year started, wisdom became the goal of everyone, for survivals sake. Yet while we studied, no one neglected to have a good time. We found it necessary in fact, to balance these two things.

Hmm, eanie, meanie, mynie, moe . . .

What's this, study hall students actually studying?

Jim Extine studying? Now that's incredible.

David Peyton shows Erick Peoples how to work a problem.

No Brian, I don't think Ztyxlabq is a word.

Cynthia Santa takes aim in 6th period gym class.

Are you sure it won't blow up?

Now, just a bit more . . . there, a perfect mustache.

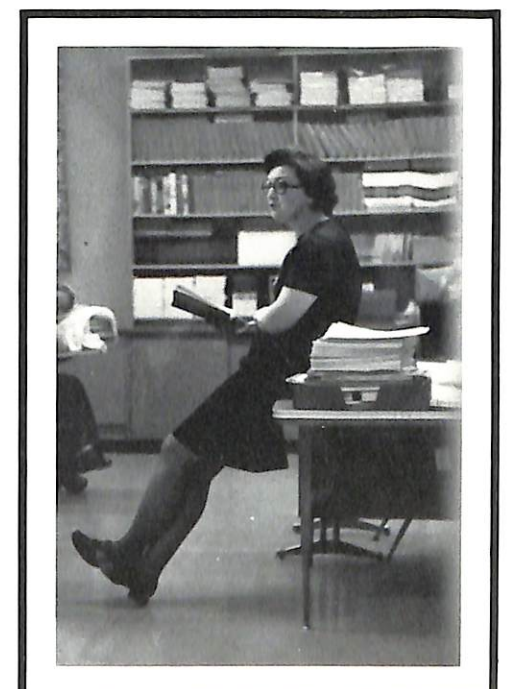

We came from everywhere, preoccupied with our interests. Slowly a curious thing occurred. Pep rallies got louder. The football stadium filled up faster. And more students attended the Spring and Winter sports events. We had become one; We had become Falcons.

31-derful Years

While many faces graced the halls of Ft. Campbell this year, there was one very important face missing — that of Mrs. Proctor who retired after 31 years of service. She will always be remembered for her principles of silence and discipline in the library, yet she made the library a fun place to go, a place which maybe one could escape the hours of mindgrinding lectures and relax. The students and faculty will indeed miss Mrs. Proctor and her personality greeting us as we enter the library.

Open Arms

The 1982 Homecoming activities began October 12 as the cheerleaders sponsored Spirit Week, consisting of Western Day, Nerd Day, Punk Day and Blue-Gray Day. The students showed great spirit and participation for the first time in quite a while and made Spirit Week a great success. The 1982 queen and princesses were crowned during a pre-game ceremony Friday night. Chosen to represent the Sophomore, Junior and Senior classes were Wanda Webster, Suzanne Senkus and Karen Bright, respectively. Roberta Becerra was crowned as the 1982 Homecoming Queen. Afterwards, the mighty Falcons rolled over Todd County to take a 42-8 victory. Saturday night was the Homecoming dance at which everyone seemed to have a great time.

The Directors

Superintendent of Schools

The person responsible for supervising our entire school system is Dr. Leon R. Sitter. Dr. Sitter is originally from Cobden, a small town near Carbondale, Illinois. He received his B.A. and M.A. in Education at Southern Illinois University in Carbondale and a Doctorate from Indiana University. He has served as a teacher, basketball coach, principal, and superintendent in the state of Illinois before coming to Fort Campbell as superintendent in July, 1972. Under his guidance and leadership, the Ft. Campbell school system consistently receives the highest ratings from the Kentucky Department of Education. Dr. Sitter is a strong supporter of our high school and is an ardent Falcon fan.

Board of Education

The members of our Board of Education are elected by parents from the seven districts which they represent. These individuals meet at least once a month and determine policies, approve the budget, and take other actions required to oversee the operation of our schools. These men devote a considerable amount of their own time to making sure that the Ft. Campbell school system retains its ranking as one of the best in Kentucky. We appreciate the interest and dedication shown by our Board of Education to the mission of providing a first-class program of learning at Ft. Campbell. Current board members and their districts are: Col. Fred Bright, Jr., Drennan Park and Turner Loop, Col. Ward M. Le Hardy, Cole Park, Gardner Hills, and Farm Houses, CW4 James E. Duff, Werner Park, SFC David B. Shetterly, Hammond Heights, SFC William D. McQuigg, Striker Village, SSG William R. Johnson, Lee Village, and La Pointe, and SSG Raymond D. Donham, Pierce Village.

Mr. Perry

Mr. Perry, the school principal, is known for his strong sense of purpose in guiding the school staff and the student body through the turbulent waters of high school education.

Many of us know Mr. Perry as a man of his word. He has been a positive force in all our lives, providing a model of leadership and administration that may guide all of us in the future.

Mr. Perry is to be commended for his fine service by making the best use of the facilities and personnel available.

Mr. Stewart

Although he is often busy with necessary paperwork, Mr. Stewart, our Vice-Principal, always finds time to help students. Whether it is opening jammed lockers, holding the door open for you, or trying to get you to class on time, Mr. Stewart is always willing to help. He cares about the students of Fort Campbell High School.

Mr. Stewart's job is to assist Mr. Perry, but he is also the one more directly involved with the students. He is the sponsor of the Student Council and Fellowship of Christian Athletes. Mr. Stewart is very active in the Booster Club, and it would be unusual not to see him at football games, basketball games, and other sporting events, as well as school-sponsored events such as dances and bonfires.

At times, Mr. Stewart may seem to be a strict disciplinarian, but he is only doing his job. Being a Vice-Principal requires a lot of time and hard work and Mr. Stewart would not appear this way if he wasn't interested in helping the student body and making each student's stay at Fort Campbell High School their best.

Technical Advisers

If it weren't for our guidance counselors, we wouldn't have our schedules on the first day of school, know which required classes we still need, or know our GPA and class standing. We wouldn't have anyone to give the PSAT or to give applications for the SAT and ACT. Who would we talk to about our problems? Where would we get information on colleges, and who would write our recommendations? Guidance counselors are very busy people. We are very lucky to have two counselors at FCHS. Mrs. Allensworth and Mr. Lane share the responsibilities as guidance counselors to help serve us better.

Mrs. Allensworth has been at the high school for six years. She is also the sponsor of the National Honor Society. Mr. Lane has been at the high school for four years. He is also the coordinator for the Community Learning Program, which has been very successful at FCHS.

Location Technicians

The High School office staff consisting of Mrs. Stouffer, Ms. Moody, Mrs. Parks, and Mrs. Gilkey are often taken for granted by the students. Stop and think about it though; these three ladies have a great many responsibilities which range anywhere from writing out passes for the students to get in to class, to running off the tests which we all love taking. In general, these three ladies help keep the school running smoothly. For these reasons Mrs. Stouffer, Ms. Moody, Mrs. Parks, and Ms. Gilkey are an important part of Fort Campbell High School.

PART-TIME TEACHER

Getting up early, tolerating disruptive students, and struggling to teach a lesson to unresponsive pupils, is what being a part-time teacher at Fort Campbell High School is all about. Mrs. McGuinness has been substitute teaching for seven years, four of which were at Fort Campbell. She feels teaching is a professional joy and is both interesting and challenging because of the diverse classes and subjects. "Yet," she says, "a student who tries to get away with everything, obviously has problems."

Mrs. McGuinness has taught all three of her children and claims that they are treated just as any other student in her classroom. "My teaching philosophy is that students in my classroom will be given the opportunity to learn, whoever the student," says Mrs. McGuinness.

The Student Council at Fort Campbell has a lot of responsibility throughout the school year. Every year they support the Operation Santa Claus which provides food for the needy people in the community. They also sponsor the annual Homecoming dance and in the spring Sadie Hawkins.

KEY CLUB

The Key Club started the year on a good note with many new members enthusiastic about the events to take place. The Key Club being involved in many activities engaged first in the supporting of the cross country teams in their own invitational. Our next task was the sponsoring of the bonfire, as a regular homecoming tradition. We then went on to share our Christmas spirit at the Clarksville Manor, with the older citizens of Clarksville, followed by the annual all school faculty basketball game in early January.

We participated in other fund raisers as well and donated the profits to charity in Clarksville. The over all efforts and participation by all the members of the club proved to be rewarding for a very successful year.

NHS

One of the highest academic honors at Fort Campbell is to be inducted into the National Honor Society. NHS is an organization designed to recognize and encourage students who are superior academic achievers. The honor society is based upon four principles: service, leadership, character, and scholarship. In order for a student to be inducted, they must possess the four qualities. In addition to possessing each of the four qualities, these students were required to have a grade point average of 3.2 for Seniors, 3.3 for Juniors, and 3.4 for Sophomores. This year once again, Mrs. Martha Allensworth was the NHS sponsor. Ruth Bittel was the co-sponsor.

Girl Fridays — Future Secretaries

Preparing for the future is the most important reason for attending school. At Ft. Campbell, we have clubs which go beyond the classroom. Future Secretaries of America is one of these clubs. It's members are students who are planning to specialize in the secretarial field.

ALL IN A GOOD DAY'S WORK!

The job of the yearbook staff is to take all the memories of the student body and record them in black and white so they can be looked back on in the years to come.

This year the yearbook staff was made up of entirely new members. Mrs. Sylawa and editor, Lorri Sanders had to start from the bottom teaching the staff about publishing, sales and promotion.

Although these and many other journalistic skills were heaped upon the new staff, they all responded well, and hopefully did a good job to make the 1982-1983 Falcon Yearbook a great book.

In addition to publishing the yearbook, the staff was responsible for writing the school newspaper; The Falcon Crier.

Band, Inc.

The Marching Band under the direction of Tim Dickson, Don Hofe, and Field Commander Kim Coleman, as well as the Flag Girls under the direction of Donna Page, added some finer moments to the football games during the half-time performances.

This marked the first year that the band attempted field formations. Field Commander Kim Coleman also added her own kind of magic when she walked out on the field and began directing the music.

Hours of daily practice paid off well as the band did tremendously in the two contests they were entered in this year.

Band officers for the 1982-83 band were: president Johnny Beamon, vice president Bobby Powell, secretaries Wendy Sampson and Gigi Ford, and historian Gloria Hern.

Strike Up the Band

Learning to appreciate the finer things in life is important to Ft. Campbell students. Throughout the year, the Jazz Band and Concert Band perform a great deal of these finer works of art. By playing these well-known pieces, the Jazz Band learns to perform as well as appreciate Jazz — America's own original art form.

Concert band learns to perform and appreciate all styles and types of music. They perform concerts throughout the year in surrounding areas.

THE MUSIC MAN

Most successful organizations contain a "positive component" which contributes greatly to that organization's success. One such "positive component" at Ft. Campbell is Falcon band member, Johnnie Beamon.

Johnnie has earned many awards and achieved many goals, throughout the years. Although Johnnie can play the majority of the band instruments, his major instruments include the saxophone, piano, and all percussion. Besides earning several superior solo medals, he has earned a spot in the Western Kentucky Honors Band for the past two years and a spot on the AP-SU Concert Band. He has been chosen as the Outstanding Musician of the Year, and Who's Who in Music. He was a section leader for six years and this year he was president of the Falcon Marching Band. He was a student conductor for two years, a field commander for four years and received the Leadership Award in Band. But probably his most important achievement was being chosen for the McDonald's All American High School Band.

Due to all these achievements and awards, Johnnie Beamon is being featured for his outstanding contributions to the Ft. Campbell music department.

HALF-TIME Showstoppers

ON KEY, ON TIME

Singing with the quality that parallels to nightingales, the Chorus thrives under the direction of Mr. Tim Dickson.

Champions of the Gridiron

That time of year rolled around again when school started up for another year and, of course, with the starting of school, many school-oriented activities started such as football season.

In past years, Ft. Campbell has set many goals and many records, both by individual players and as a team. This year also found the Falcons with an undefeated season. The team earned the number one rating in the state for the first time, and furthermore, the team earned a national rating of 21 these are just a few of the many outstanding records and achievements set by the "blue machine."

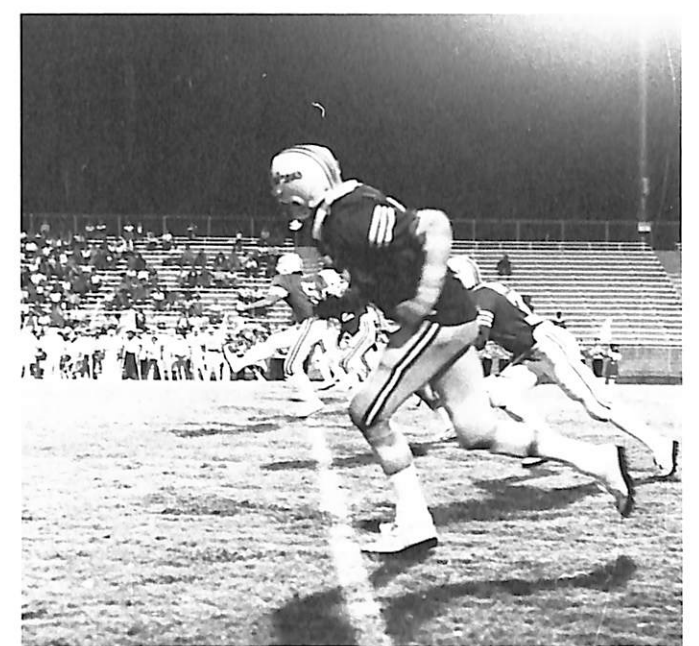

In the beginning there was some doubt as to how well the Falcon team would do after suffering the loss of 37 players due to graduation and the transferring of families. During the first few weeks of practice, the team was shaky, especially with the arrival of new players. But soon the coaching staff of Marshall Patterson, Ronnie Bell, Rocky Cobb and Houston Mills had the new arrivals accustomed to football — Falcon style.

The phenomenal combination of coaches has complied a record of 106-30 over the 12 years that they have been together. This statistic proves that no matter what kind of talent these four men have to work with, they will produce a winning team. This year "Coach P" led his team, Rommel-like, through the season tearing up teams and leaving them in his wake. Another major factor in the success of the Falcon team is the pride in which the team builds its reputation. No matter what the situation, the team is always enthused, both on and off the field. Pride and enthusiasm seem to run in abundance on the Falcon team.

The managers and trainers are the nucleus of the team. The trainers repair the players while the managers repair the equipment. Without these people, the season would be a failure.

Cheerleaders Add Sparkle and Spirit

Dawn Leonard, Sharon Santiago, Dorine Leonard, Shelby Alexander, Suzanne Senkus, Jamie Petress, Karen Bright, Roberta Machnicki, Kim Thompson, Monique Robinson

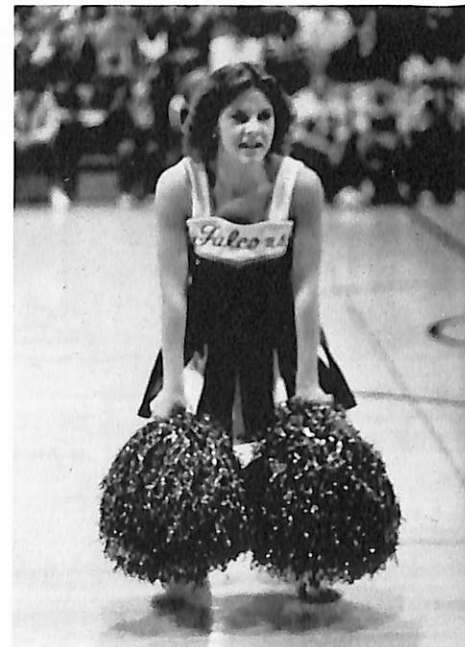

Cheerleading is fun but it takes a lot of hard work and dedication.

After being elected in April, the decision of uniforms was the girls' first task. Realizing that their bill would be over $2000, the cheerleaders made immediate plans to raise money. The girls raised most of their money during the summer by selling concessions at concerts and at the 4th of July festivities, washing cars, and sponsoring a cheerleading clinic. They also sold baseball caps, pom poms, cushions, and calendars to help pay their expenses.

Practice began the last week of June, Monday through Friday at eight thirty each morning. "What a way to spend the summer. We can't even sleep late," was what many people said. However, the girls believe that cheerleading was well worth the sacrifice of their mornings. Once the games start, the summer preparations are forgotten and the real fun begins. The thrill of cheering at a game never wears off. The last game is just as exciting as the first.

The dedication and devotion of their sponsor, Ms. Rita Chaney, has benefitted not only the girls on the squad, but also the team members, and the entire student body.

Cross Country — The Other Sport

The road to another state championship started at 8 am on July 1, 1982 when the men's cross country team started their summer training, the ladies' team commenced training one month later.

The teams called themselves, "The Other Sport" because football has always been the major sport in the fall and cross country, the minor one. At the meets, the loyal supporters would gather to assist Coach Lange in marking the course, helping in scoring, and cheering on the runners. The team, in turn, provided another outstanding performance throughout the season. The men's overall record was 14 wins and no defeats. However, the most important event is the state championship. Only the top two teams in each region go to the state finals in each class. So all the sweat, the wind sprints, the 6 mile runs, "cardiac" hill, the advice and pertinent coaching from Coach Lange all come down to an afternoon race in Lexington, Ky. — the state championship. Again, for the third year in a row, the men's squad returned with the biggest prize — the men's championship in class A.

The ladies' team was paced by captain Roberta Becerra and Debra McLemore, the ladies' number one runner. The Lady Falcons finished another winning season with an overall record of 6 wins and 2 losses.

Although called "The Other Sport," the cross country team's hard work, dedication, and superb coaching, placed in the school trophy case another state championship trophy and on the gym wall another banner that says, "State Champs Men's Cross Country 1982."

Ties State Record — Wins Third State Championship

For the third consecutive year, the men's cross country team won the title of state champions. Only winning by seven points in 1980, five points in 1981, the team beat Dayton by a mere three points this year (1982).

Another beautiful autumn day had dawned in Lexington, Kentucky where the races for class AAA had begun, but as the time came to begin the class A contest, a steady, cold rain began to fall; however, this did not dampen the determination and spirit of our Falcon runners. Through the sticky mud, constant perspiration, and the steady drizzle of rain, our Falcons completed their worst race of the season; yet they still won, which proves that true champions can come through under any conditions.

The ladies placed third as a team in the regional meet and they qualify three runners for the state meet — senior Debra McLemore, senior Roberta Becerra, and seventh grader Amy Wyckoff. They placed 33rd, 49th, and 47th respectively.

A New Beginning

The 1982-83 basketball season was one of starting over and rebuilding for the men's varsity squad. The Falcons started the season with plenty of inexperience and had to build with what they had. With only one man, David Peyton, returning from last year's starting line-up, the Falcons relied on the inexperienced but talented playing of Erick Peoples, Frank Cooper, Melvin Berry, Charles Cummings, David Fales, Curtis Looper, Henry Parks, and newcomers Rusty Simonetta, Edward Diggs, and Rodney Long. With plenty of enthusiasm, hard work and talent, the squad came together for a successful season.

Suspending themselves in the air, the Lady Falcons strive for the glory received on a job well done. The coaches consist of Coach Killebrew and Coach Bolen (rookie). Winning first place in the Christmas Tournament which was the first time in girls basketball history, Kim Timmons, Debra McLemore, and Stephanie Garrett made all tournament against Montgomery Central, Houston Co., and Stewart Co. Stewart Co. was the most crucial game for the Lady Falcons because they were favored to lose and it gave the girls confidence, showing themselves that they could do anything. The end result was Ft. Campbell 44, Stewart Co. 42. The girls have won most of their games with a few exceptions. The few teams that did beat the women did not win by much. The team consists of girls that have the skill and talent that it takes to make a true team.

The team members are: Lenora Newman, Kim Timmons, Debra McLemore, Stephanie Garrett, Lesleigh Garrett, Angie Ogden, Michelle Hardy, Sherelle Galloway, Tammy Carson (who incidentally stands six feet one inch tall), Donna Rynne, Shon Isom, Regina Odom, Missy Bradford, and Dawn Parks (the last four being freshmen). The team practices from three o'clock to five thirty every evening. Their regular season began October 15th and should end February 25, unless they qualify for playoffs. Players not returning because of graduation are Lenora Newman #24, Kim Timmons #13, Debra McLemore #22, Stephanie Garrett #33, and Donna Rynne #23. These are the Lady Falcons the blue and gray suspenders of 1983.

Waiting for a bite . . .

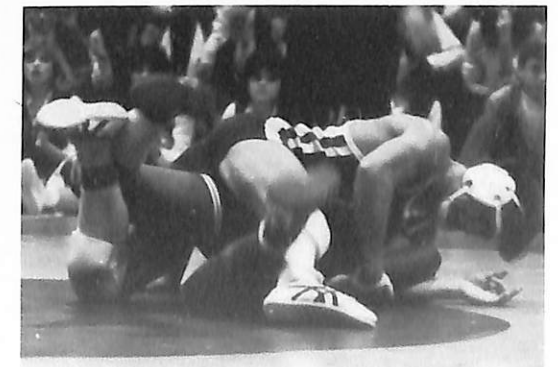

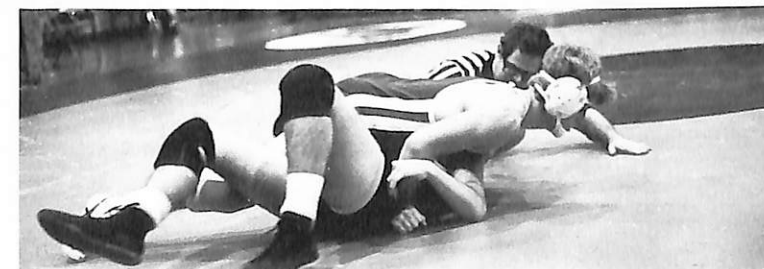

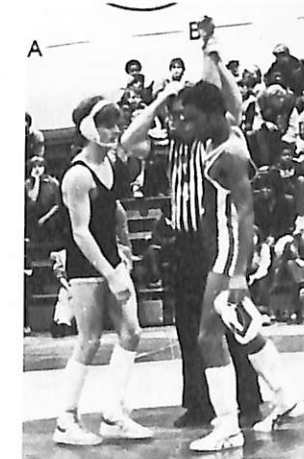

As in years past, the dominance of Ft. Campbell athletic teams in the athletic world is prominent. However, before the season started, there was a question as to how well the Falcon wrestlers would do with only three returning first team Varsity lettermen; 138 lb. Jay Robinson, 155 lb. Darrell Wallace, and 167 lb. John Extine. While many Falcon fans were in doubt about the extent of success the team would experience, the wrestlers seemed to have no doubt, for they rounded out the regular season with an overall record of 10-6-2. As a team, they finished first in the Webster County Tournament, second in the Hopkinsville Tiger Tournament, third in the Blue/Grey tournament and the Christian County Takedown Tournament, and sixth in the Cape Girardeau Tiger Classic Tournament. In post-season action, the team earned a fourth place finish in Districts, and a fifth place finish in Regionals. John Extine was the only wrestler to remain undefeated throughout the season.

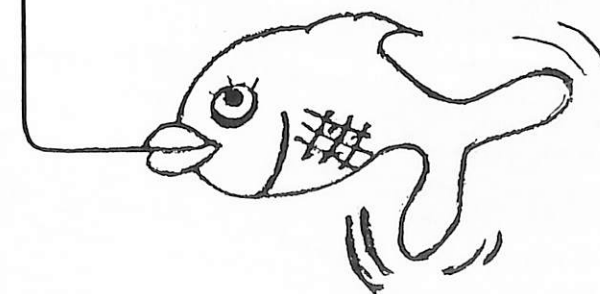

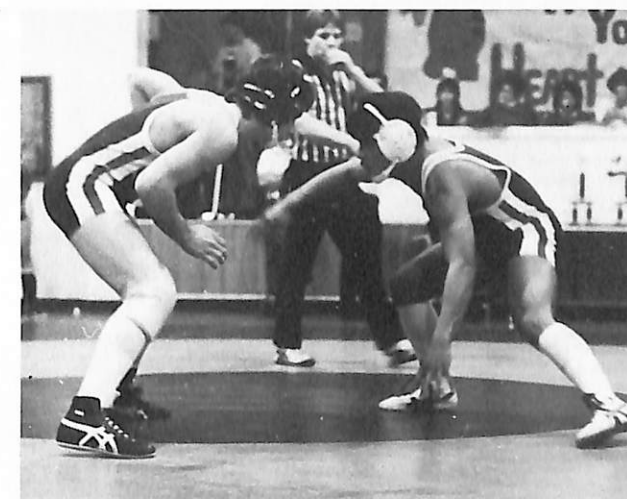

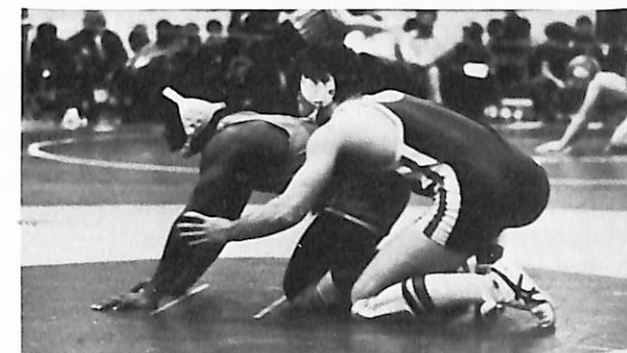

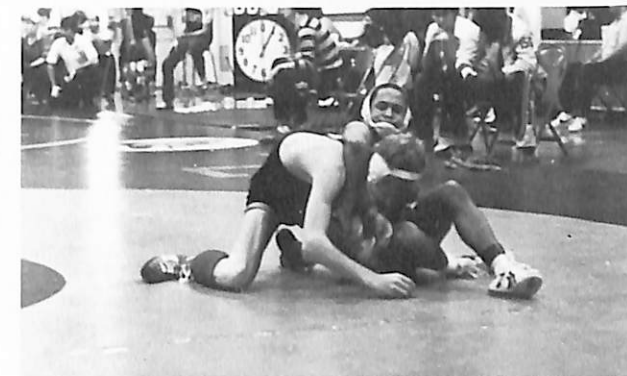

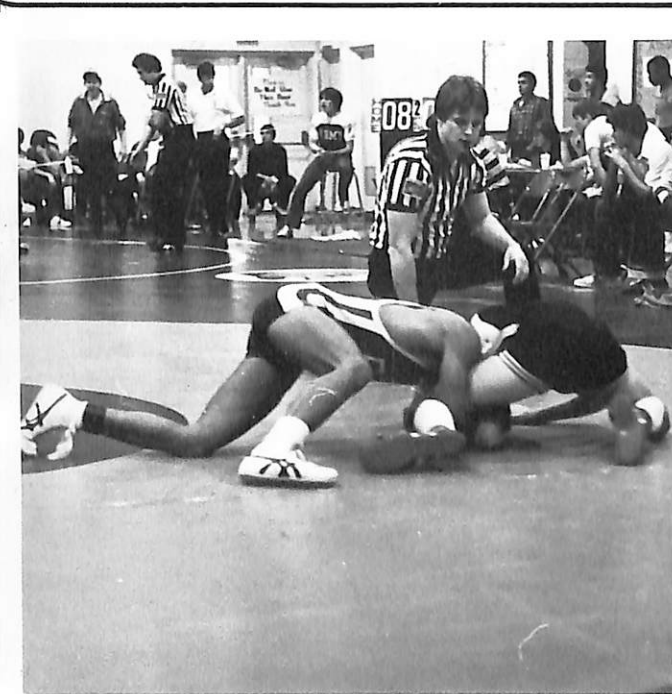

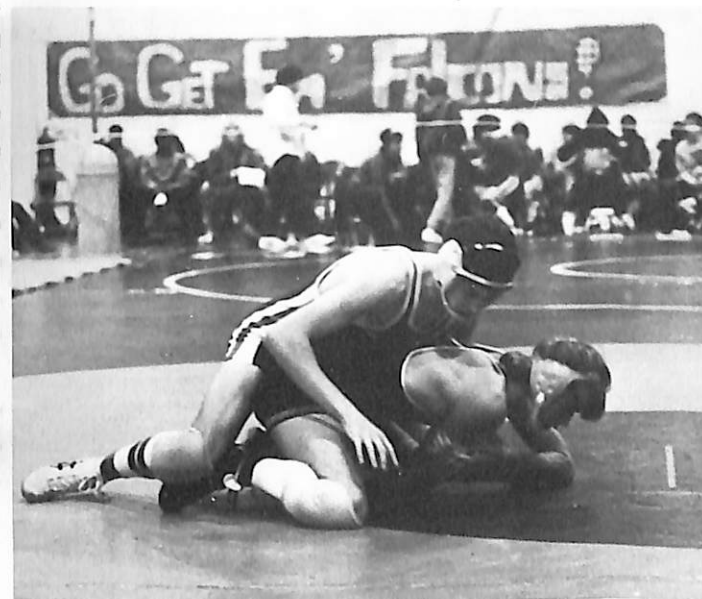

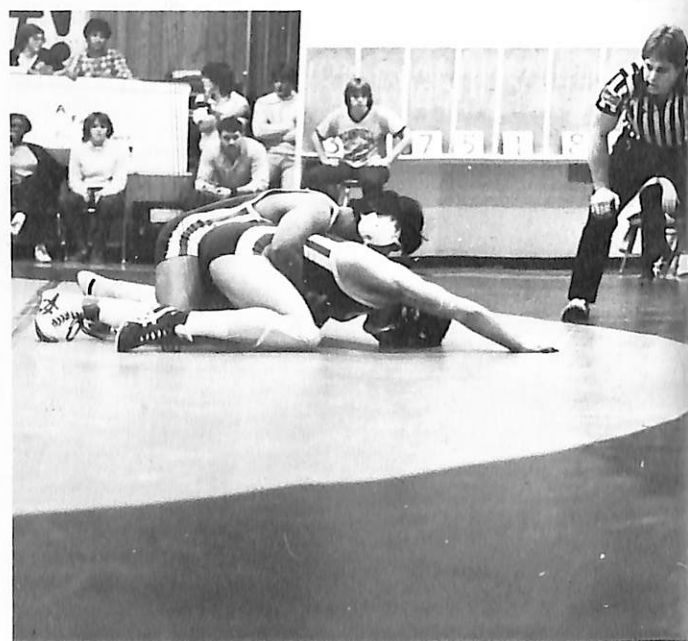

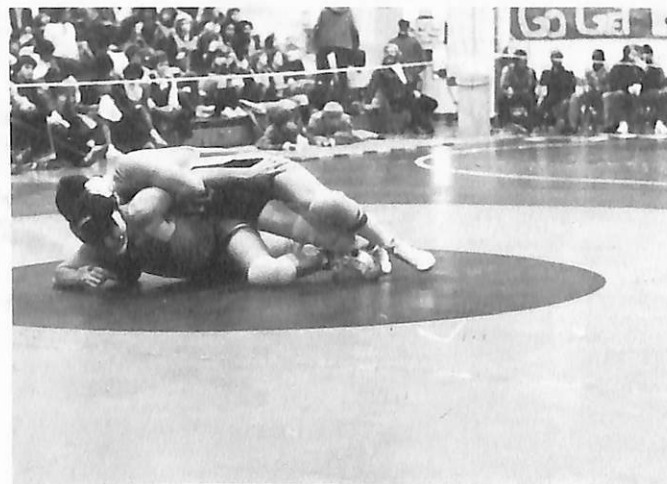

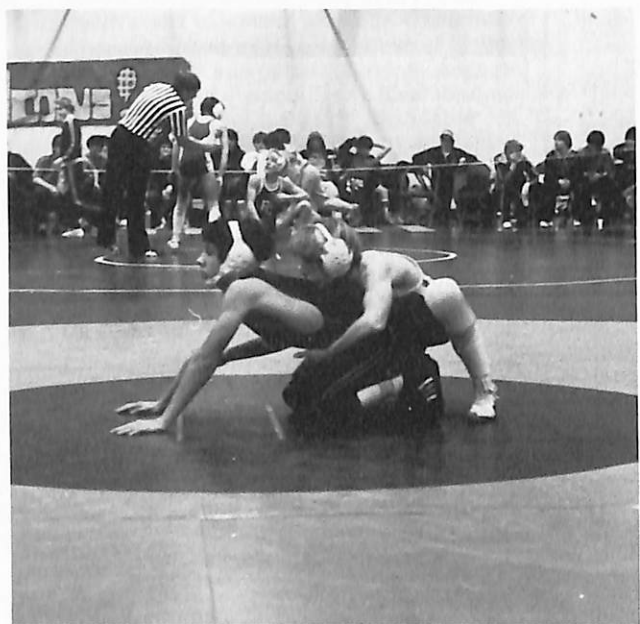

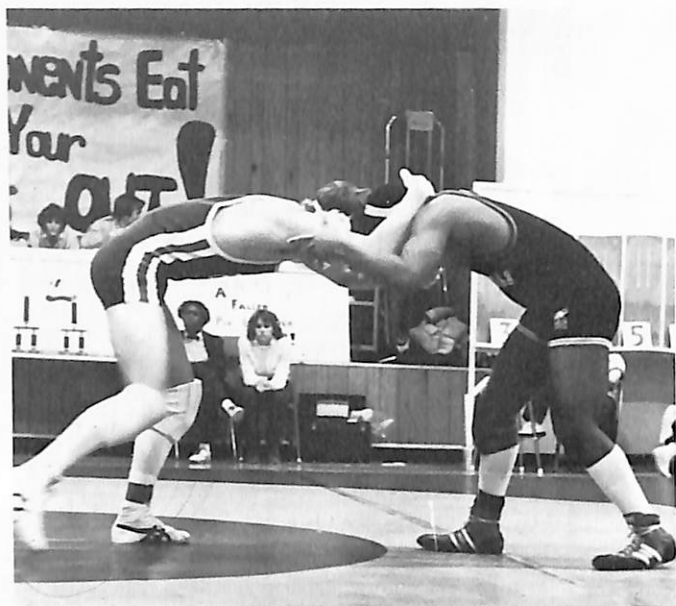

This year also saw the addition of new assistant coach Brian Galloway. Mr. Galloway, who teaches World History and U.S. History, wrestled in high school in Bloomington, Illinois.

Different Strokes for Different Folk

At the mention of Fort Campbell, people immediately think of the terrors our cross country, track and football teams place on other area teams. What most people don't realize is that in the swimming world, Fort Campbell still has a threatening ring to it.

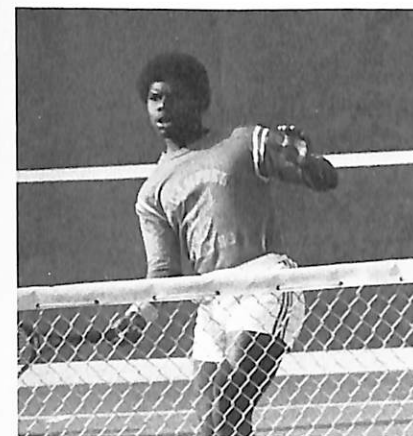

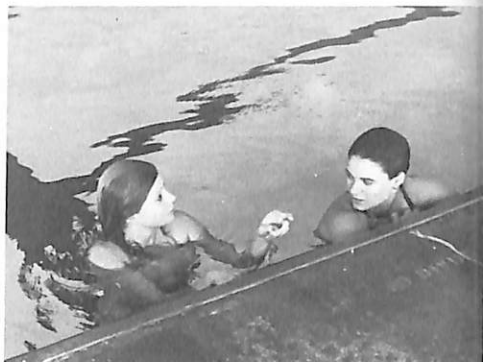

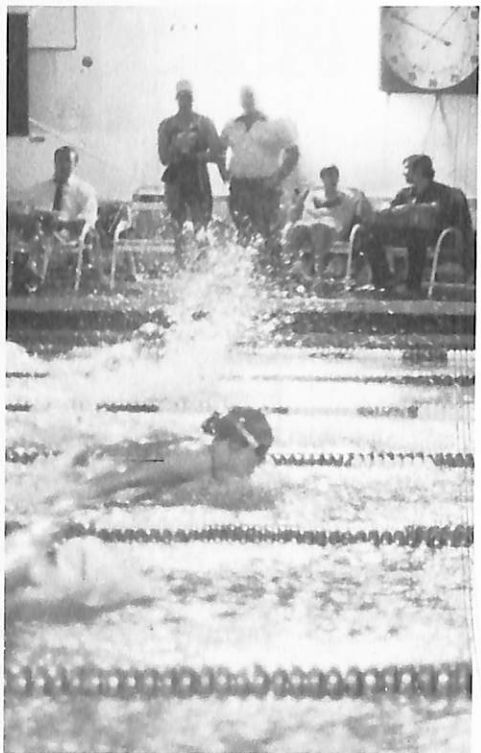

The Fort Campbell swim season is composed of only two meets, Regionals and State. The reason being that the team is too small to be able to hold an effective dual meet with other schools. Contrary to the small numbers, the team has made a name for itself in the swimming world.

The girls' team has been very impressive over the years going as high as a second place in team honors at the regional meet held in Bowling Green. Not bad considering Fort Campbell had only seven swimmers in the meet compared to the other teams with fifteen swimmers. The girls have won as many as eleven regional titles over a period of four years.

Last year the team consisted of only one swimmer, Andrea Kuhl. Swimming in the 100 and 200 free events. She placed first in both at regionals, 3rd and 1st respectively at state and 14th place finish in the team standings.

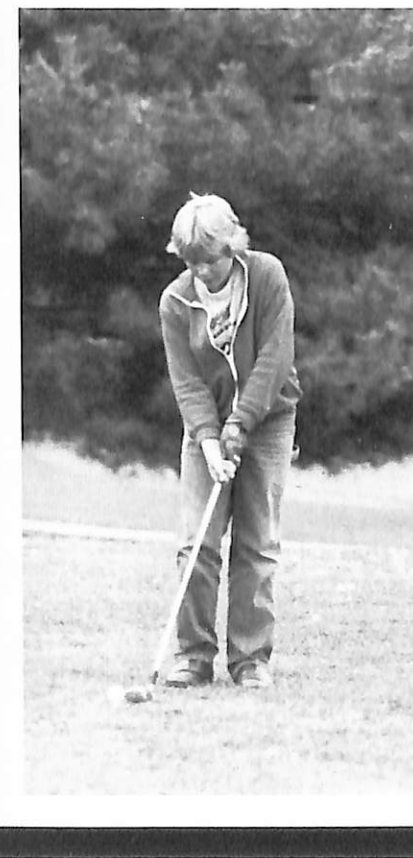

The boys have also been impressive, although the numbers have gotten the better of them. The highest they have been in the team standings is a fourth place finish in the regional meet in 1980. The boys have only had one regional title, by David Frederick in the 100 backstroke two years ago, but it was good enough for a regional record which has since been broken.

This year the team is composed of eight swimmers: Andrea Kuhl, Renee Kirkpatrick, Angela Frye, Domonic Wiebersch, Matt Meyer, Mike Frye, Travis Rupe, and John Cope.

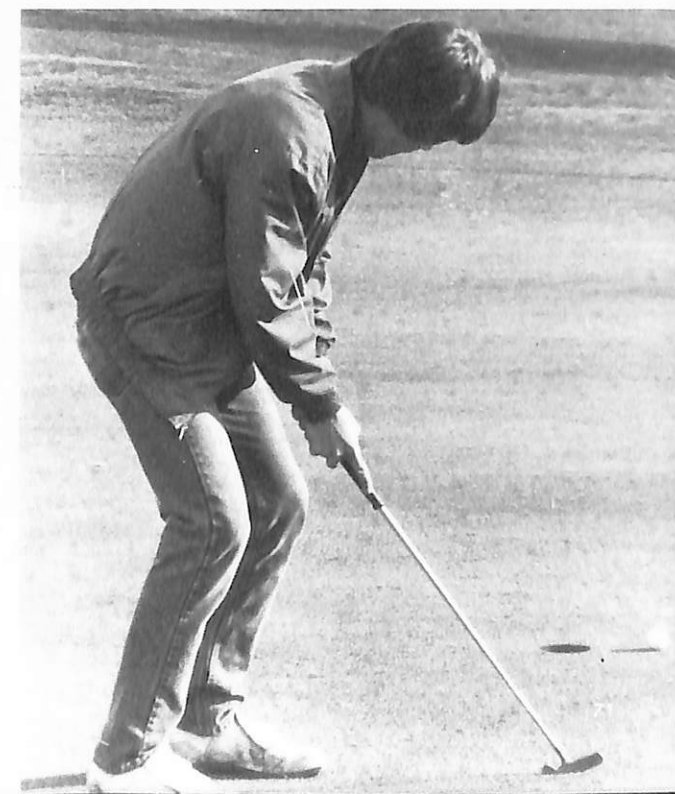

The returning letterman for the 1983 tennis season are: Cynthia Santa, Susan Sanders, Mike Knouse, Marchese Gildersleeve, and Gene Zirkle.

The returning lettermen for the 1983 golf season are: Mark Shriner, Deryck Chase, Scott Brehm, Jim Mattingly, Jim Turecek, Mark Leonetti, Eric Leonetti, Ward Hunter, and Lorri Sanders.

Individuals Battle Mental Foes

Away from the cheers and rumble of the crowd, Ft. Campbell athletes toiled alone on the field fighting mental as well as physical opponents, competing in less recognized but by no means less important sports of their own.

Golf, Tennis, and Track are some of these sports which require a competitor to compete individually and without many fans to cheer them on. Although baseball is not an individual sport, each player not only works as a team, but he also strives for many individual achievements.

Ft. Campbell's individual sports excelled again this year with a number of Falcon athletes attending post-season competition in their respective sports.

These athletes feel that the extent of their team's success depends on their performance which helps decide the outcome of the contest.

Although these athletes don't receive the attention that is accredited to a team sport participant, this doesn't prevent them from working on and trying to perfect their skills.

The Cream of the Crop

Valedictorian

Among the few academic honors to be reached by a Ft. Campbell High School student is to achieve a place in the Top Ten Seniors; starting off this year with a grade point average of 3.89 is Karen Bright. Born in Bad Kreuznach, Germany, Karen plans to attend the University of Tennessee in Knoxville where she hopes to be majoring in either business or education. Even though she is teased about being a hermit, Karen has been involved in several extracurricular activities throughout her high school career. Some of these activities include cheerleading, the National Honor Society, where she was elected president for the 1982-83 school year, and the Christian County Youth Council. When asked what she thought she would be doing ten years from now, Karen replied, "I'll probably find a good job, become successful and get married."

Salutatorian

Holding on to the number two position this year, with a grade point average of 3.78 is Ohio born, James Extine. His plans for the future are to attend the University of Michigan and someday become a successful doctor. Jim also plans to get married and have a family, but not anytime soon. Participating in sports, clubs, and student council have made him a very active person, and Jim believes that in order to be successful you need equal portions of hard work and dedication. Even with his father in the military and his constant moving from place to place, Jim still considers Lima, Ohio to be his home.

In the third position with a grade point average of 3.66 is Donna McGee. A native of Heildelberge, Germany, Donna's hobbies include reading good books, and curling up around the fire with someone special. When asked about future plans, Donna said that she would like to go to Hopkinsville Community College and major in business, then get an office job and work with computers. Donna considers herself an individualist simply because, "I have a mind of my own and try to do my own thing."

Reserving the number four position this year is Lise Pescatore. A New Jersey native, she considers "The South" to be her home simply because that's where her family is. She plans to attend the University of South Carolina to study pre-med, and hopes to attend Medical school at Boston University. One of Lise's all time dreams has been to own a ranch up in a secluded part of the Appalachian mountains. When asked what the most exciting event in her life has been, Lise replied, "I don't know. It hasn't happened yet."

Brian Pierce, who ranks fifth in the Top Ten this year, has a grade point average of 3.57. Brian plans to attend college at either Vanderbilt or Notre Dame. It's only natural that, since science is his favorite academic area, he is considering a career in the medical field. To Brian, the most important things in his life are his family and his future; and with his dedication, his future looks awfully bright.

In the sixth position with a grade point average of 3.56 is Tammy Brickner. Born in Fort Belvoir, Virginia, Tammy is at the moment undecided as to where she will be attending college. Though undecided on the college, she is very certain about the major, accounting; and no wonder, her favorite academic area is math. As a track manager Tammy enjoys the outdoors best of all and describes the perfect day as "a bright sunny day with the birds singing and nothing to do but relax."

Sharing the 7th position with a grade point average of 3.50, is Virginia born Gary Gates. Forever being teased about his resemblance to comedian Don Knotts, Gary plans to attend Northern Illinois University and work toward a degree in Aeronautical Engineering. After college he hopes to be a pilot in the United States Air Force and, to Gary, the perfect day would be "having 20 beautiful women to wait on me hand and foot."

Also ranking seventh in this year's Top Ten is Debbie Sloan. Debbie, who was born in Landstuhl, Germany, plans to major in Art at Arkansas' Harding University. When asked about her formula for success, Debbie replied, "When you do what you enjoy doing most, and you do it well, you will be successful." After college, her plans include trying the effectiveness of her "success equation" as a commercial artist or an illustrator of children's books. Debbie, who had a "devil of a time" trying to explain to her fellow classmates why she wore so much red clothing this year, was voted Most Talented by the Senior class.

Rounding out the three way tie for 7th is Laurie Fitzpatrick. Laurie plans to attend Sullivan Jr. College of Business in Louisville, Ky. and ten years from now she sees herself working for a large company as a data processor. Born in Bangor, Maine, though she considers Brownville Junction to be her home, Laurie has traveled throughout this country and abroad, but still claims that Hawaii is the most exciting place she's ever been. "I enjoy Hawaii because of its beautiful scenery," she stated recently, "I also enjoy its cultural mixture of people and its warm climate."

Rounding out the Top Ten Seniors for the 1982-83 school year is Lorri Sanders. Lorri plans to pursue a Doctorate degree in Journalism/Broadcasting at the University of Missouri, which is about two and a half hours from her home in Springfield. She has been involved in several extracurricular activities including the National Honor Society and was the only girl on last year's Golf team. Lorri enjoys the outdoors life and says in ten years from now she hopes to be doing the nightly news or sports commentating and possibly some sportswriting.

For the Class of "83" this last year of high school seems to be the most memorable year of all. As Seniors, we have had to realize the door to our future is finally being opened. The paths before us are many and the decisions we make will determine our future.

Stricken by “Senioritis” we sit back and enjoy our senior year — (supposedly). Starting early in the year with our senior pictures, we think we’re really rolling, but that was only the beginning!!

Next thing we knew, we were ordering our announcements, senior keys, memory books and of course last minute class rings.

Among the many "past times" to keep us occupied and out of trouble were the Falcon games and the weekend parties. With the arrival of transferring students, we found new friendships, as well as strengthening the old friendships.

As seniors, one journey is coming to an end, and yet another is just beginning. The many surprises along the way have brought a tear and a smile throughout this important stage in our life.

The Co-stars of today will be assuming the major roles of life sooner than any parent is willing to accept. Life, with its many obstacles, will be a challenge to them all, while still being within their capabilities.

The character of today's Junior class is synonymous with intelligence, perseverance, and unity. The Fort Campbell High School student body is subject to a constant turnover which would normally tend to encourage these ill feelings, or at least a cool detachment towards one another, since it is a fact of military life that they will be moving again very soon.

Suprisingly the Juniors of FCHS are warm, friendly, almost a family in relating towards one another. This relationship gives a feeling of security that will allow them to expand mentally and emotionally through their senior year. Today's juniors truly possess the qualities that make individual lives richer while allowing them to interact and grow, not only through High School but through their lives.

Your class ring A GREAT FEELING

Pride is the catalyst for human achievement...the mover of minds, of muscles and most of all hearts. Your class ring is more than a mere piece of jewelry. A class ring shows Pride.

Your class ring identifies you with your school and your class for all to see. It carries with it much sentimental value and will help you preserve special memories forever.

Editor's Note

What you have been looking at is the end result of many hectic hours of hard work and mind boggling ideas arranged in a way in which I hope will hold your memories for a long time. I do realize that there are many things that were left out and that many things did not get the coverage they deserved, but we had a limited number of pages to work with and my job was to edit the material going into the book. So, that is what I did.

Yet, with all the editing and revisions, each page remained unique in its own way, showing the attitudes of not only the creative views of the staff members, but also reflecting the heartfelt emotions of the student body in general throughout the year. This was our hardest task. When looking at the various layouts we wanted each one of you to remember the memories you shared with your classmates. The staff put in many hours of extra time and effort to accomplish this and make this book a success.

Ahh yes — the staff! Planning on being a journalism major, I should know the exact words in which to describe this tremendous group of fellow students; but no matter how hard I try, I find that I am at a loss for words. For indeed, there are no words to express the excellent job they have done. We had one returning staff member — me, so the challenge set before us was to teach the new staff “the ropes.” Adding to the awkwardness was the fact that deadlines did have to be met on time. The staff responded whole-heartedly putting in 110% to make everything just right. Some wrote their own copy in order to keep our copy writers from becoming swamped with assignments; others came up with some terrific ideas for both layout designs and advertising sales. Everyone carried their own weight without ever complaining about the circumstances or final decisions that were made. For these reasons, I would like to first thank everyone on the staff for their hard work and unyielding ideas and brainstorm. Without each one of you, this book would not be a success. Pat yourselves on the back. You put out a darn good book and I would like to congratulate you for it. Thanks!

I want to give a special thanks to our photographers Sean McGuinness, Bruce Pranger, and sometimes Dominic Wiebersch (just kidding) for an outstanding job of capturing this year in pictures so that we could put it between the bindings of this book. A very special thanks to Pascal Priest for taking and developing pictures on his own time. Pascal, there were many times when you saved us from having a late deadline. Thanks again.

This brings me to Publications advisor, Pat Sylawa. Not only was she a good friend throughout the year; but she also helped me hold on to my sanity, which I thought at times was surely gone. Without her technical expertise and hard work, you would not be reading this, for the book would still be in its planning stages. (By the way, she is the “we” and the “us” I keep mentioning). Once again, a very, very special thanks to Mrs. Sylawa for making this all possible.

Finally, I would like to thank our account executive Nancy Jones and all the other professionals at Taylor Publishing Company for their fine services.

This book represents the combined efforts of the many special people mentioned above. I hope you feel we have successfully recorded your memories as you want to remember them!
