Have you ever heard the saying, "Do you want the good news or bad news first?" Most would ask for the good news first. Well, first, The Good News. The good news is if you're holding this book in your hands and reading these words, you have survived either your first, your last, or another year here at Fort Campbell High School. Now, usually, you expect to hear the bad news. The bad news is there is no bad news, only more good news.

The good news is we are all in this journey together. Whether you're an upcoming freshman or a graduating senior, we're all striving toward a common goal; preparing ourselves for the world outside of these four white, brick walls we call Fort Campbell. Waking up at 6 a.m., tucking in our shirts, finishing last minute homework during seminar, trying to hack into Myspace and Facebook on the computers, chicken nugget Tuesdays, and pizza Wednesdays, we are doing this together.

Want more good news? No matter how stressful our lives become, we still manage to have fun with those around us. We may have our close groups of friends who we eat lunch with or hang out with in the halls, but we all managed to laugh together at our teachers who danced in the middle of the gym floor during the homecoming pep rally and turn a boring lecture into a widely known inside joke that we will be laughing at 25 years from now at our class reunions. From the soccer field to the pitcher's mound, we have all had fun times, running miles upon miles with our teammates or supporting our classmates at their games.

As you have read this, certain memories have probably stood out in your head, and as you can probably realize, there's not much bad news. The good news is we are united together as a school and will continue to support each other by always remembering The Good News.

Sincerely,
Amber Spade and Courtney Richardson
Co-Editors-In-Chief

Mary Everett

By: Amber Spade and Taylor Duplessis

The 2009-2010 Yearbook Staff proudly dedicates this year's publication to Mrs. Mary Everett.

Cheering fans, Scratch the Falcon, school spirit, and Mrs. Mary Everett can be found at every FCHS sporting event. She attends every game and after school activity that the students are involved in. Sadly, however, after 25 years this "mom to all" has decided to retire.

Mrs. Everett was born in Robersonville, NC as one of eleven children. She earned her bachelors degree at St. Augustine College in Raleigh, North Carolina and her masters degree at Austin Peay State University. Mrs. Everett is married to Billy, her husband of 30 years. Together they have three children, Billy Jr., Anitra, and Monique, and two grandchildren, Steven Michael and Jaylen Se'ven. The Everetts moved to the area when Billy was stationed at Fort Campbell. They loved the area so much that when Billy retired, they decided to make Clarksville their home.

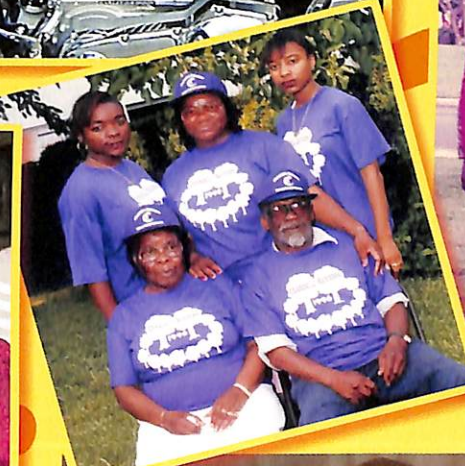

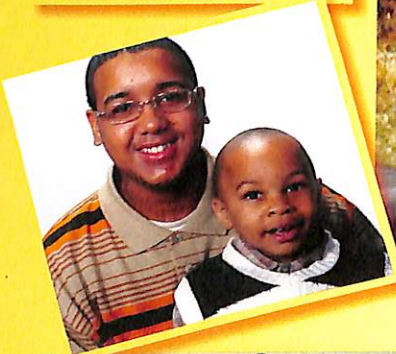

Her love of math, her students, and her spirituality transcends her persona. Mrs. Everett enjoys tennis, gardening, traveling, and, especially videography. During her years at FCHS, she has been a mat maid sponsor and the head sponsor of the Black History Team. Under her direction the Black History Team has won many awards and accolades.

All of Mrs. Everett's siblings agree that she is everyone's favorite. She is the most genuine person you will ever meet; an angel sent from above. Others who know her will tell you she goes out of her way to see how you are doing, how your family is, how you are feeling and ask about your day. The most important thing Mrs. Everett brings to FCHS is her ability to brighten everyone's day.

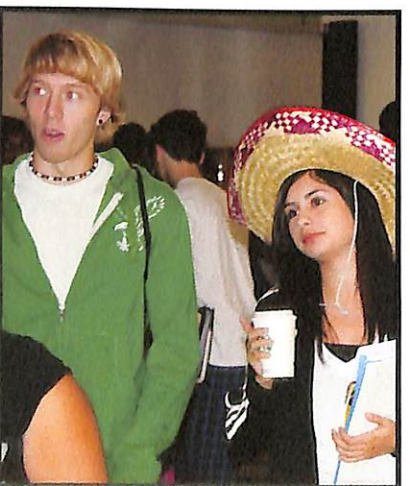

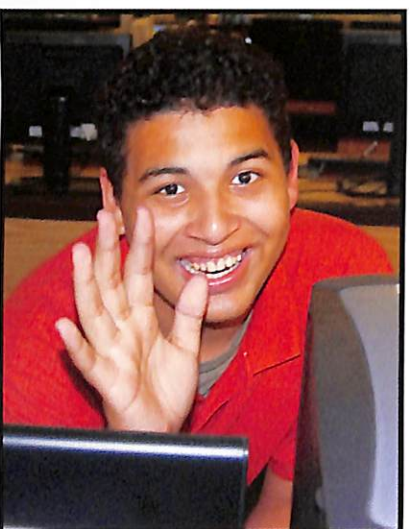

As a teacher, she is patient, enduring, and steadfast. She wants nothing more than to see her students succeed and is willing to do whatever it takes to make it happen. Xenia Castro, a senior, said, "I have had Mrs. Everett for both geometry and discrete math. She teaches with great detail and continues to work with you until you understand the material. Without a doubt, she has taught me many skills that I will use later in life and that will help me succeed in college."

As a colleague, Coach Gammons sums up Mrs. Everett's time here perfectly. "It has been absolutely delightful working with Mrs. Everett. When things are going wrong, she picks me up. When I'm having a bad day, she gives words of encouragement. She is one of the most beautiful people, inside and out, that I have had the pleasure knowing."

The last thing Mrs. Everett will be is forgotten. Her positive attitude, warm smile, and compassionate heart are qualities that everyone at FCHS aspires to have. Even if you do not personally know Mrs. Everett, you will surely remember, seeing her come into the building, as the lady with the hat.

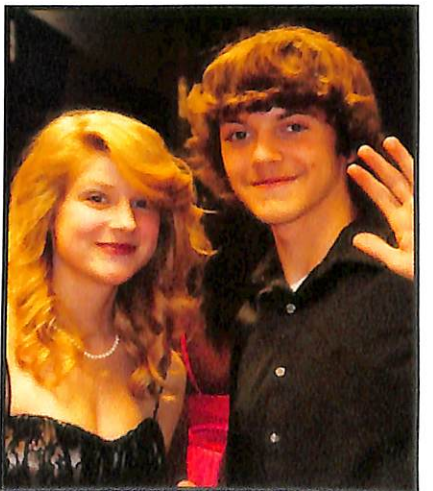

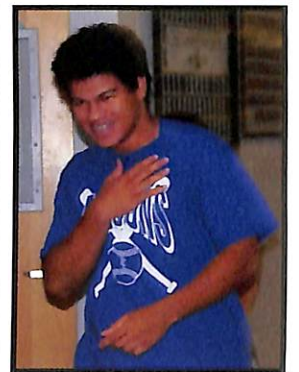

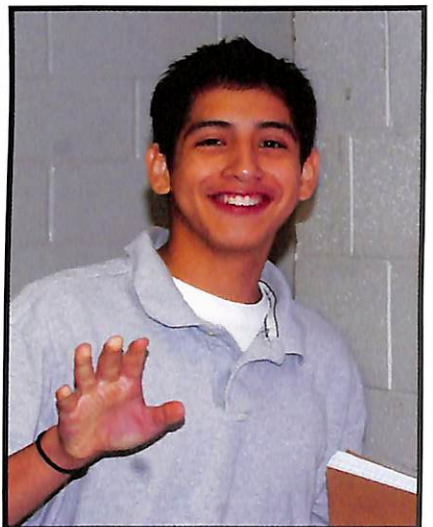

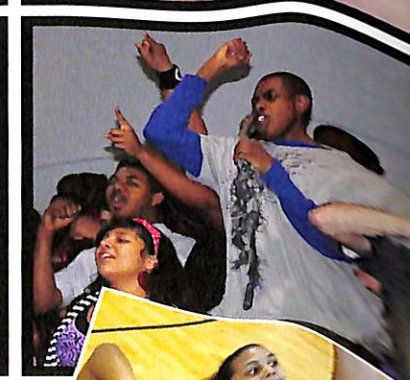

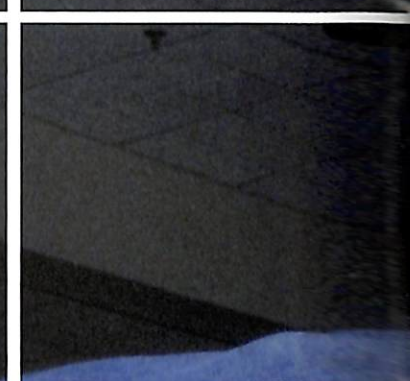

A photograph of two male students in blue and white tie-dye shirts with "FCHS" printed on the front. The student on the left is wearing a blue headband and holding a white flag on a silver pole. The student on the right is holding a clear water bottle. A third person in a pink shirt is partially visible on the right side of the frame. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.

Sports, clubs, and pep rallies are all significant aspects of life at FCHS, however, student life is more than just class, lunch, and football practice. Senior Braxton Wallace, is involved in AVID and JROTC at Ft. Campbell High School, but enjoys acting down at the Roxy in Clarksville and attends Club Beyond, as well.

First, The Art

By Abriel Dellarosa

De'Anthony Robinson spends hours making his projects flawless. He uses people as his inspiration and enjoys sketching them most, as shown in the pieces of art above.

Janice Soledispa recreates pictures that were taken by someone else and transfers them onto a blank canvas. Most of Janice's art work consists of sketches and paintings, like the ones above.

The word "talented" does not even begin to describe these artists' work showcased on these two pages. Whether it is in art classes or just recreational drawing at home these students don't take their craft lightly. Each artist takes time sketching and re-sketching or just letting their creative juices flow until they are satisfied. Steps and designated plans or spur of the moment thoughts about what to draw, sculpt, paint, sketch, color or even carve, brings out the originality and amazement of each piece.

Bobby Thompson shows off the sketch he drew from a picture of himself.

Whitney Jackson's style is depicted in her piece here.

"Good art is not what it looks like, but what it does to us." - Roy Adzak

Ariel Dezellemm pauses from her busy sketching to get her picture taken. The sketches shown above are her recent pieces of art of Japanese women, which she enjoys drawing the most.

Justin Wirkkala shares his created articles of clothing that explore color and designs which most people wouldn't think to use. Also his heart sculpture grabs attention because of the unique use of wire.

Maria Sanchez made this stained glass creative face in Fundamentals of Art to express herself.

Nickii Hasken worked extremely hard to create this colorful masquerade mask perfectly.

Marysa Campos used tissue paper to create a stained glass look while creating this teddy bear.

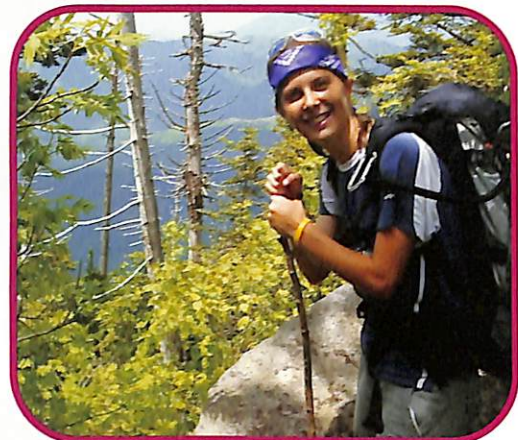

The FCHS Cheer Team brought home trophies after attending a summer camp.

Eriel Smith basks in the sun while on a Jeep safari in Florida.

Julie Lopez and Abbi Deno made many memories racing turtles for prizes.

Cori Hatley enjoyed nature's beauty by hiking in the Appalachian Mountains.

Lindsey Horton had fun in the sun while parasailing with her best friend at the beach.

Scott Hill marveled at some of the world's most exotic animals at a zoo in Texas.

Let the Good Times Roll!

By: Courtney Richardson

As the bell rings and school is out for the summer, we all look forward to being free from books, tests, and homework. Fun and relaxation is our goal. To some, relaxing means leisure activities like waterskiing, golf, and bowling. To others, organized sports is what they call fun. Summer is also time when students take advantage of sports camps. Emily Ward spent her summer going to soccer practices, APSU Soccer Camp, UK Soccer Camp and Wrightsville Beach in North Carolina.

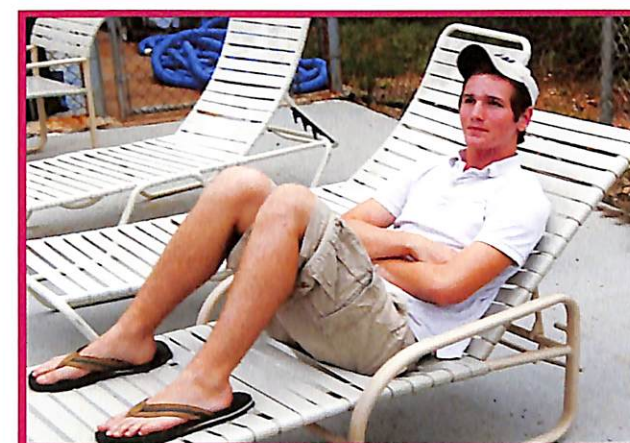

Tralisa Noblin, Alex Englen, Amber Spade dress up and enjoy a good old fashion hoedown at a Younglife Camp in Georgia.

Olivia Cook uses interesting perspective points to take creative pictures in Washington D.C.

Jackie Pierson and Ashley Gibson cause mischief while having their own Wacky Tacky Night.

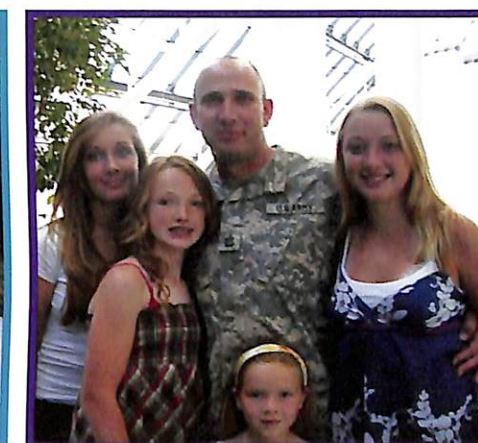

Kelso Blair chillaxin' at the pool in his "swim gear."

The FCHS Volleyball team taught young girls the fundamentals of volleyball.

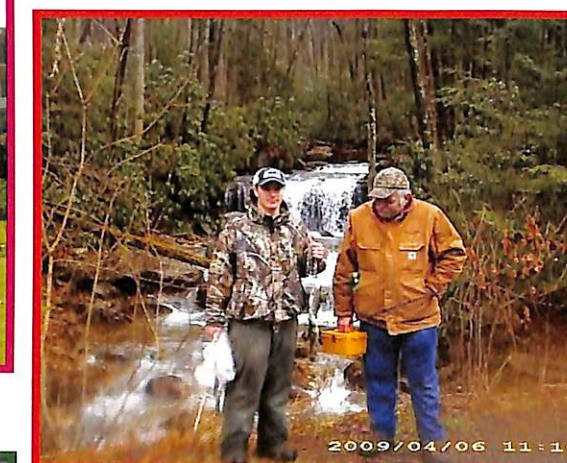

Kierra Whitehead, Olivia Cook, Amanda Miner, Kirsten Amorine, Casey Moffitt, and Allie Yerkes-Klatt posed for the traditional group picture at Girls State.

Courtney Richardson visited Central High School, which is the world's largest high school.

Harley Davis spends quality time with his family by fishing in a nearby creek.

Andrew Schonthaler makes cannonballs at the S2S pool party.

There are many reasons people get pets. Some for a companion or a friend, others for protection, or some just simply because they are cute. There is that something that fills your heart with joy when your dog meets you at the door with sloppy, wet kisses as you arrive home from school or when your cat finally comes around purring. Nick Mastrian adores his 13 year Persian Mix cat. When asked about his cat Ambrosia, he replied, "I think my pet is cute and I love when she behaves, but I hate when she gets outsided and I have to chase her down." Whatever their reason and whether they have a hamster, a snake, or a cockatoo, these kids all have one thing in common; they all share a love of animals.

When it comes to spirit, Fort Campbell pretty much has it all. Our pep rallies are loud, our mascots are fresh, our athletic teams "go hard", and most importantly, our students are amazing. We accomplish all this while knowing that we, the Fort Campbell Falcons, are impeccable. For these reasons, the students at FC show school spirit whenever the opportunity presents itself. Whether it's at a game, club meeting, or school function, we show our school spirit. Spirit Week in particular is when you can see Fort Campbell at its best. This year we had only three days to celebrate our school before our big homecoming football game, however, we made it the best three days ever. We had blue/gray day to wear our school colors, we had Bed-Head/Chill day to simply take a load off, and of course there was a day for Color Wars. This year the freshmen wore yellow, sophomores wore black, juniors wore purple, and seniors wore red. Everyone enjoyed the festivities and showed school spirit as only a true falcon can.

First Club Campbell

By : Jackie Pierson

Homecoming Week is no doubt one of the most exciting and anticipated weeks of the entire school year. After consecutive days of dressing up for the spirit days, the week ended with a bang at this year's homecoming dance, themed "Club Campbell." An essential for the dance, glow sticks, provided a new twist that contributed to the excitement and left students raving for more. When Jessica Medeiros and Laci Lancaster were asked they firmly stated, "This year's dance was way better than previous dances. It was amazing and spectacular."

Good Vibrations

Music plays a big part in the life of Fort Campbell students. Whether it is listening to music, or playing an instrument, students find thousands of ways to escape reality with the help of music. Most students have found comfort in music since childhood and some students are just now finding music. Music can be expressed through almost everything around us whether it involves banging on the desk with your pencils, humming to a tune on your iPod, or just picking up an instrument and simply starting to play, and letting all of your stress float away. So whether you play in a band or make beautiful music in classes at FCHS, don't stop feeling those good vibrations!

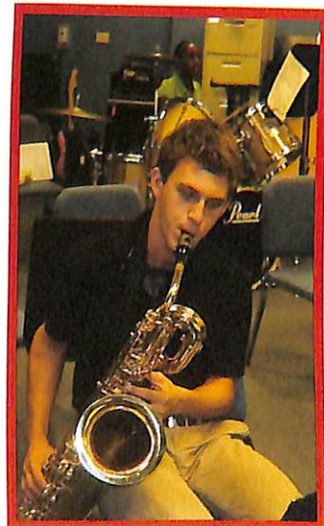

By: Tyler England

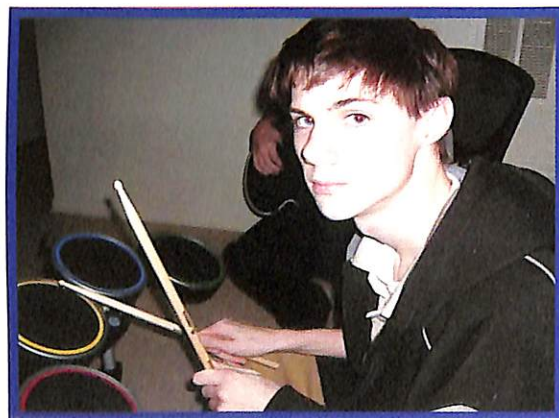

Outside of school, Olivia Cook sings and performs at local music venues.

According to Corey England, his brother, Tyler, plays a big part in his music, as does Metallica bass player Cliff Burton.

Tim Place concentrates as he practices the saxophone for the upcoming jazz concert.

Cody Waychoff plays Rock Band 2 to satisfy his musical needs.

"Whenever I am in need of music, or just to play a game, Rock Band 2 has a great variety of music to choose from!"

- Cody Waychoff

How does music affect you?

"Listening to music always makes me feel good. Even when I am sad, it puts me in a good mood before I go to work"

-Herb Tenorio

"Music is an escape from the world. You can really reach the highest point in your life by just listening and playing."

-Cole Dadswell

"Music is just an extra beat to my heart. Everytime I get behind a drum, all of my problems just seem to go away"

-Lydell Dyess

"Music is a great way to escape from seminar, chores, and life itself."

-Zachary Green

Tyler England shows his love for music through guitars, posters, CDs, and clothes.

Connor Arnold loves playing bass to pass the time and to fulfill his creative needs.

Allie Yerks-Klatt plays a little sample of a song for the Christmas concert.

Alex Combs warms up his fingers before jazz band practice starts.

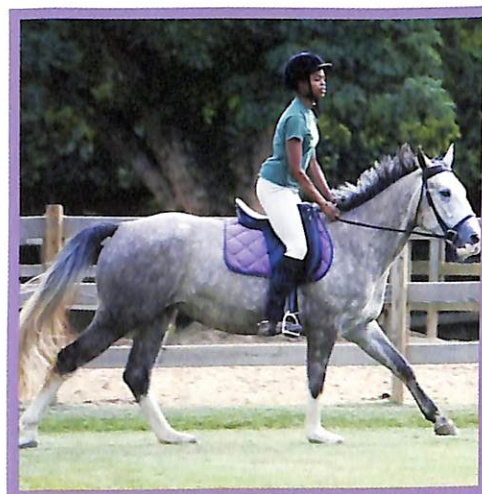

Dee-Dee Corwin and Edwin Hinson concentrate to harmonize perfectly and in time with their trombones.

Extremely

Most would think of a sport as the traditional football, baseball, soccer, wrestling, or track but who would think of surfing or even speed cubing? Students here at FCHS take part in numerous sports that our school does not offer. We look at the sports we do outside of school and realize we would definitely lose our minds if we did not have these constructive outlets to let loose and have fun. We also use these sports as a way to make new friends that we would not have made if we just stuck to the sports that are offered at our school. Playing these sports inspires us to not settle for what is presented to us on a piece of paper. However, it takes some research to find out what we are good at and go out of our comfort zone to add some extra excitement to our lives that we will always remember.

Jourdan Lewis loves riding horses in her free time to help release stress.

Ethan, Levi, and Ashley Gibson vacation during the winter to snowboard.

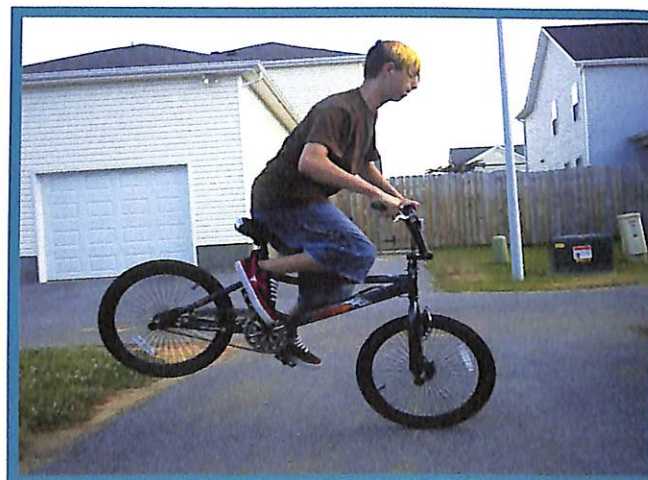

Shannon Grammel shows her skills as she skis down a hill.

Kevin Phipps skates around the ice rink waiting for practice to commence.

Thomas Mesiriak does a front wheelie for the camera under no pressure.

"Catching a shark is not an easy task since it takes at least two people to pull in just a small shark!"

-Justin Speakman

"Horseback Riding is a lot of fun! But it takes a lot of concentration and balance at the same time in order to stay on and not fall off."

-Jourdan Lewis

"Every other day, I drive an hour to Nashville just to play hockey since our school does not have a team. All it takes is dedication."

-Kevin Phipps

"I can solve a regular Rubix cube in 40.4 seconds, and with my big cube it takes 20 minutes. It's great for traveling to away games!"

- Paul Getchell

"Surfing is my chill time away from football. Being out in the water is a great feeling to your body and mind, but it is not as easy as it seems."

-Harley Davis

Tony McDonald swings his golf club hoping to get a hole-in-one.

Italy Caraccilo demonstrates a heel flip over two piles of leaves.

Paul Getchell is one of very few students who can solve a 7x7 cube in 20 minutes.

Good for a Laugh

You can tell a lot about what a person is feeling by just looking at their facial expressions. Smiles express happiness, frowns express sadness. It's "written on your face." However, when a person squishes up their face, bugs their eyes out, or looks different than they usually do, you can't help but laugh. From our bloopers files, these funny faces can be seen throughout the halls of Fort Campbell High and for this reason you can also hear sounds of laughter within every class. So while you're on this page...go ahead, laugh. Allow these hilarious expressions to put a smile on your face.

Even the people you don't talk to on a day to day basis affect your life, whether you realize it or not. Falcons come first is the motto you subconsciously live by. Luke Reynolds said that the sudden loss of Tim Williams, who was a great friend and always had a smile on, has taught him to always appreciate his life.

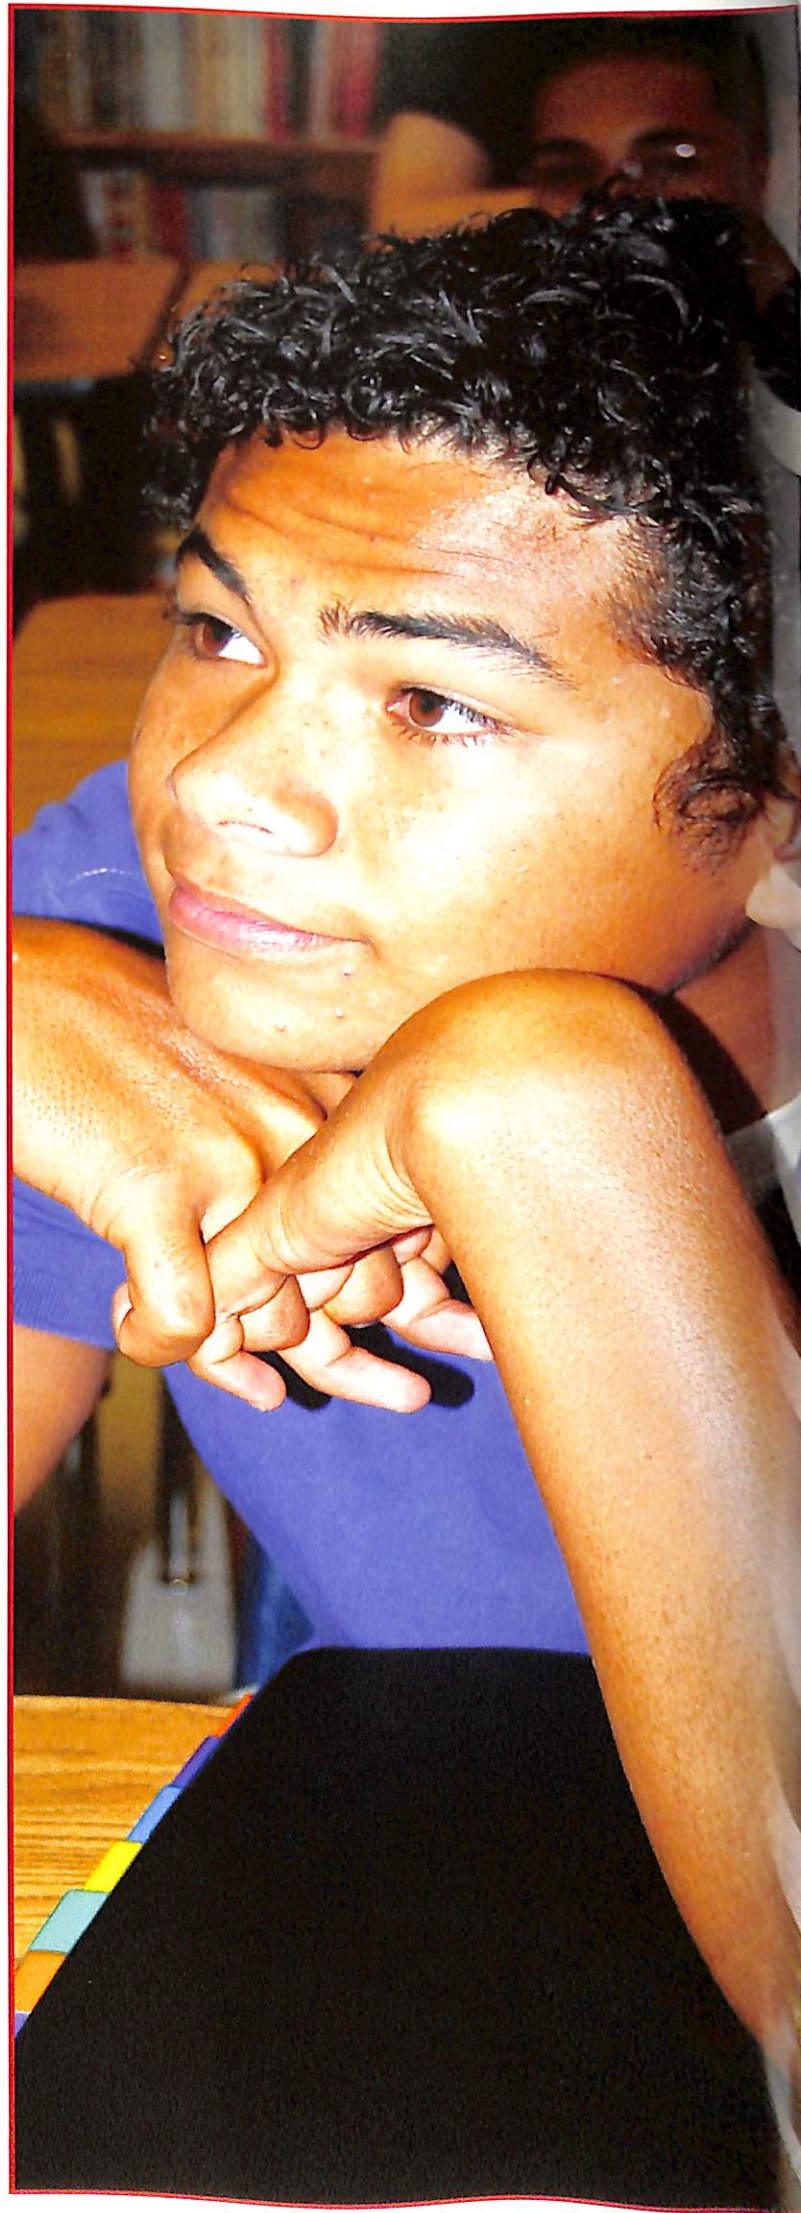

After four long years, the Class of 2010 is finally the top dog. The seniors know all the tips, tricks, and tools of the trade for Fort Campbell High School, and while most are excited for finally graduating, Cody Cartusciello cannot wait for prom night.

Shannon Grammel #1

My journey to the Top Ten has shown me that I worked too hard and slept too little. The most important thing I have learned is to be who you want to be, not who anybody else wants you to be. Living to please others is pointless and only brings illusory happiness. Those other people will not be with you forever, and once they are gone, you are left with a fabricated personality. When you are yourself, you develop your true personality, and, no matter where you are or who you're with, you will be able to be yourself. That is true happiness. My parents have been the most influential people in my life. They provided me with encouragement and support but never pressured me. They have provided me with wonderful examples and invaluable guidance. I hope I have made them proud. I will continue my career by majoring in Physics at either Princeton or MIT.

Jackie Pierson #2

A year ago if one were to ask how my senior year would have turned out—there's no way I could have predicted or imagined I'd be where I am today. This year has brought many ups and downs, but through it all I have become a stronger person. If there's one thing I have gained from this year, it's the drive to never give up. I thank those who stuck by my side and encouraged me to pursue my goal. "The greater danger for most of us lies not in setting our aim too high and falling short; but in setting our aim too low, and achieving our mark." —Michelangelo

Cole Dadswell #3

As the year closes, it becomes even more difficult to realize that we will all be in college this time next year and that we will soon be in our twenties. I can still remember the nineties like they were yesterday. I'm proud to say I am a member of the Fort Campbell High School Class of 2010, the teachers and counselors had repeatedly said that we are one of the strongest classes they have had. I'd like to thank you for making it a fun and exciting four years, while never losing sight of the final goal. I wish everyone luck in pursuing your life and dreams and I hope to see you all soon.

Jared Elliott #8

Four years of hard work on English papers and math problems landed me here at number eight. I would like to thank God for blessing me with my intelligence and my parents for instilling me with a desire to learn. Now I'm off to bigger and greater challenges at the University of Kentucky in the College of Engineering.

TraLisa Noblin #4

You can be whatever. Make sure you impress those who matter and shun the rest. "Every day I wake up to another day gone by, nothing but the open road and the never ending why." It took late nights of studying and hard work to get here. Top Ten wasn't my goal, but aiming for my dream rewarded me with this. I know I am going to where I am supposed to be. I hate sharing a bathroom with two brothers and daddy never let me use his. I'm going to UK and won't have to share with boys there!

Olivia Cook #5

It's time we embark on a new chapter of our lives. Looking back, there have been many influential people in my life. Mostly everything that I am today is a result of motivation and spiritual growth I have received. Looking forward, my future college plans are to attend Belmont University in Nashville, TN. There, I will be majoring in commercial music with a minor in music business. Once I complete my bachelors, a masters will be sought abroad. These future endeavors have been made possible from the many people in my life. -Thank you!

Kirsten Amorine #6

I have worked profoundly hard for my spot in the Top Ten. I have stayed up into the wee hours of the morning working on English papers and biology labs and many times I wanted to throw in the towel, but I never gave up. Fort Campbell High School and its teachers have fully prepared me for college and the real world. I'm excited to continue my journey through life as I attend Austin Peay State University and major in nursing. Good luck, Class of 2010.

Meghan Strehle #7

I have a lot of memories associated with Fort Campbell High. As many as there are of marching band bus rides, foreign language competitions and football games, there are many memories of stacks of homework that kept me up until three in the morning. Getting into the Top Ten has taught me one essential thing: hard work pays off. Wherever I go from here, I'll take that belief with me. I will also remember those teachers who both challenged and supported me: Thank you Mrs. Greene, Mr. Hofe, and Mrs. Fox. Congratulations Class of 2010, and good luck!

Dexter Manning #9

I'm proud to have made the Top Ten and glad that I had the opportunity to come to Fort Campbell. I would like to thank God for giving me the strength to make it through these years. I would like to thank my parents for their love and support. I would like to thank everyone that made my high school years memorable. Fort Campbell High School holds many memories for me, but now it is time for me to move on to the University of Kentucky.

Nick Harman #10

"You can have everything in life that you want if you just give enough other people what they want." -Zig Ziglar
"The journey is the reward." -Chinese Proverb
I don't know how I managed to get into the Top Ten, but I'm glad. I plan on going to the University of Kentucky and majoring in sports medicine.

Tyler Nikolao

De'Anthony Robinson and Tyler Nikolao cannot wait to experience college life; the campus events, meeting new people, making new friends. Tyler is hoping that college is as fun as his older brother said it is.

Jacque Smith

Mahalia Stubbs Anderson and Jacque Smith are excited to finally start their lives. Mahalia is anxious to get her degree and find a suitable career that will help her begin her life.

Ready to Take the First Step

By: Amber Spade

Julianna Martinez, along with T.J. Davis and the entire senior class at FCHS, is getting prepared for college. Some are anxious and excited, while others are sweating bullets about leaving home. Everyone's expectations are different, but we depend on each other to keep our sanity and make our last moments unforgettable.

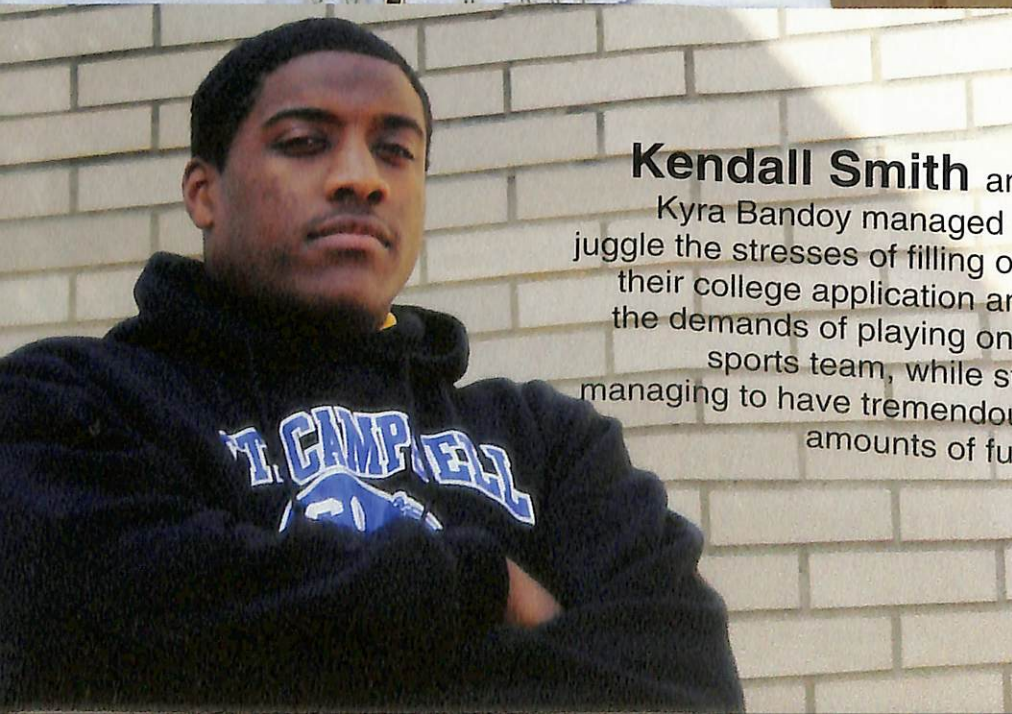

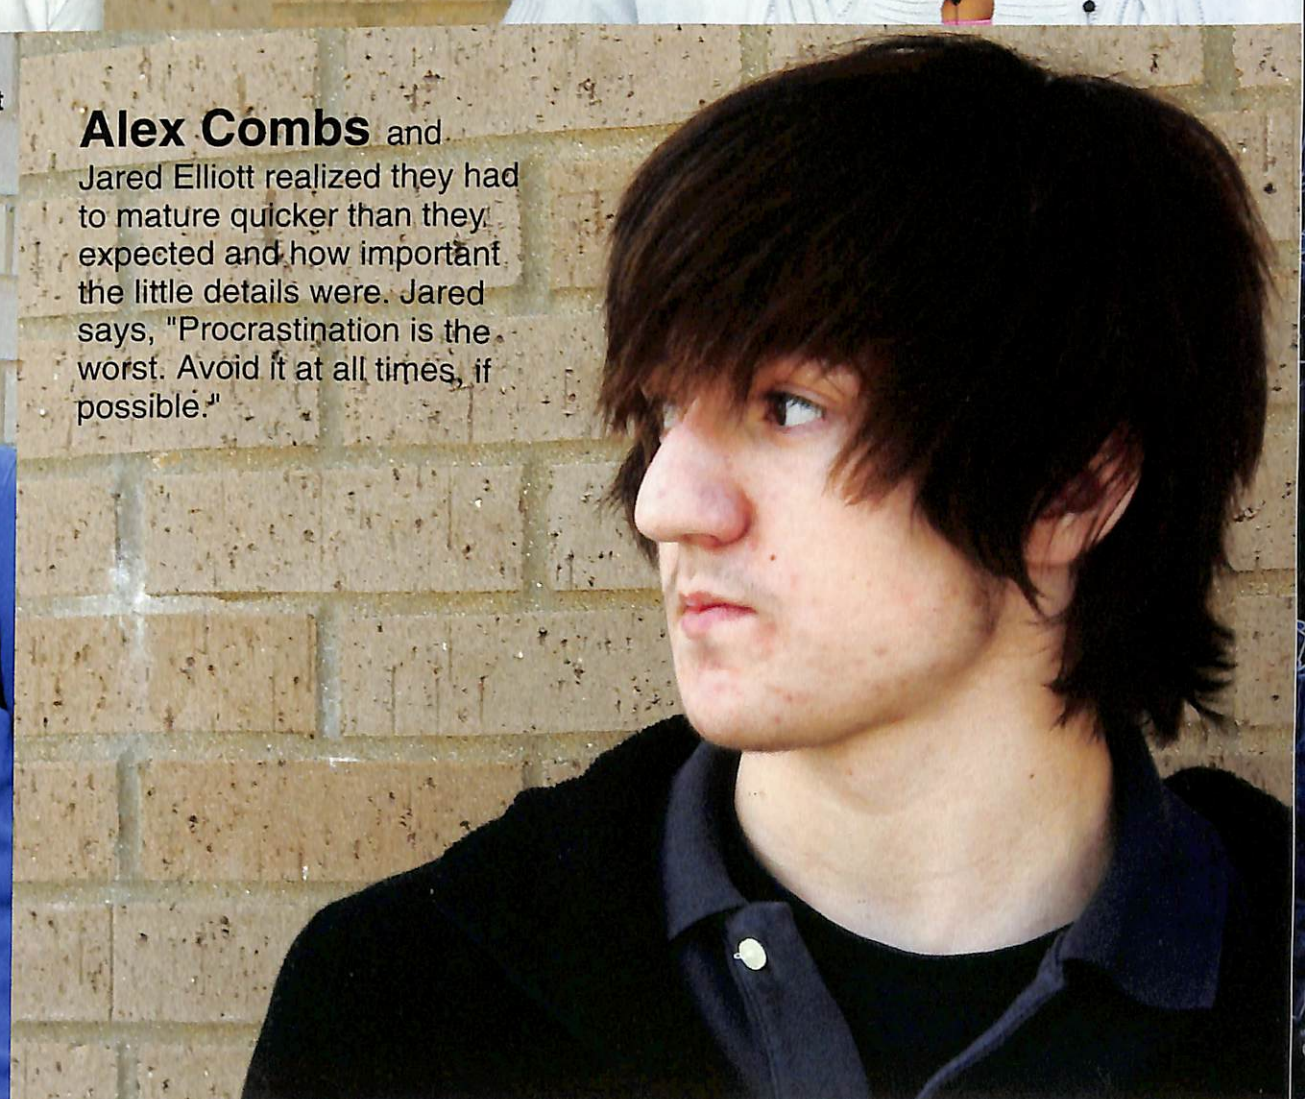

T.J. Davis

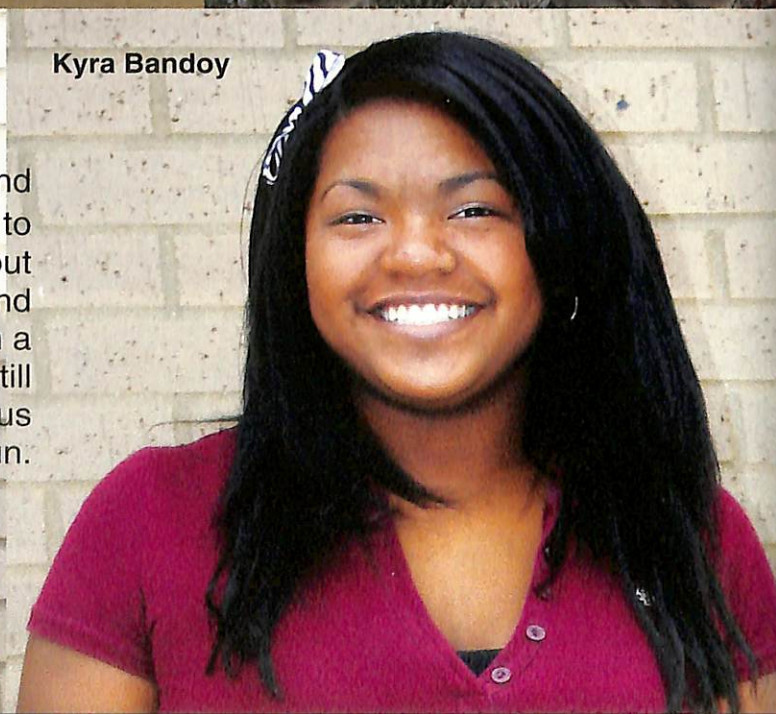

Jared Elliott

Alex Combs and Jared Elliott realized they had to mature quicker than they expected and how important the little details were. Jared says, "Procrastination is the worst. Avoid it at all times, if possible."

Kendall Smith and Kyra Bandy managed to juggle the stresses of filling out their college application and the demands of playing on a sports team, while still managing to have tremendous amounts of fun.

Kyra Bandy

Trent Short and Shanntina Hartrum balanced their school work, an active social life, and learning the responsibilities of a job during their college entrance preparation time.

With only a year left, the members of the Class of 2011 have begun to feel a sense of power around school and accomplishment within themselves. Many juniors are looking to the future, but Scott Hill is looking to the past wishing he could give his freshman-self the advice to be more outgoing and have more of a variety in his friends.

Sophomore year is often overlooked but it is definitely one to remember. You are no longer a freshman where everything was new and nerve-racking. Most sophomores consider their second year in high school better than their first round. Curtice Barrow thinks hers is better since she is class president, a varsity cheerleader, and she is well known.

As a freshman, life in high school "First Time Round" is scary, but we have all done it. Once schedules have been learned, combinations memorized, and teachers' names remembered, life gets better. What's the best part of being a freshman? "Meeting new people."

What was your response to receiving the news that you were hired at Fort Campbell High School? What were you doing at the time?

Mrs.Drake - I was excited about getting the job. I had heard good things about Fort Campbell.

Ms.Ladd - I did some student teaching here in the spring time with Mrs.Briggs. I interviewed during the summer for the job then got hired in July. I was thrilled to death!

Mr. Jankowski - I was happy to be joining Fort Campbell, where I could do my part supporting the troops.

What was your response to receiving the job at Fort Campbell High School? What were you doing at the time?

Mr. Gillis - I had taught for four years. The first three at a small Catholic school and one year in a public school. I lost the job at the public school, so I started working in business. I was really unhappy because I felt like I was born to teach. So when I got this job I was very happy!

Mrs. Eichhorn - I was excited but nervous because the principal does not have the final decision. I was working at Northwest HS when I found out that I got the job here.

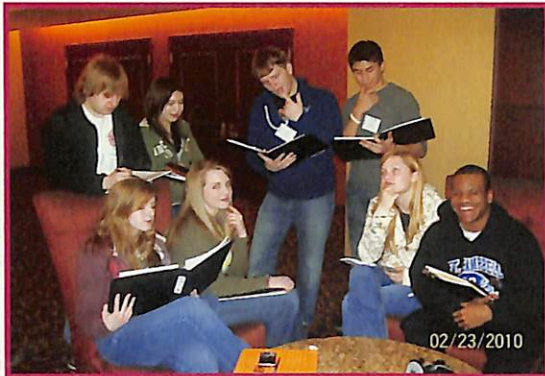

Mrs. Vaughan - I was leaving my comfort zone big time! I only knew two people here and knew everyone from where I came. It's hard to come from somewhere where you had worked for 23 years.

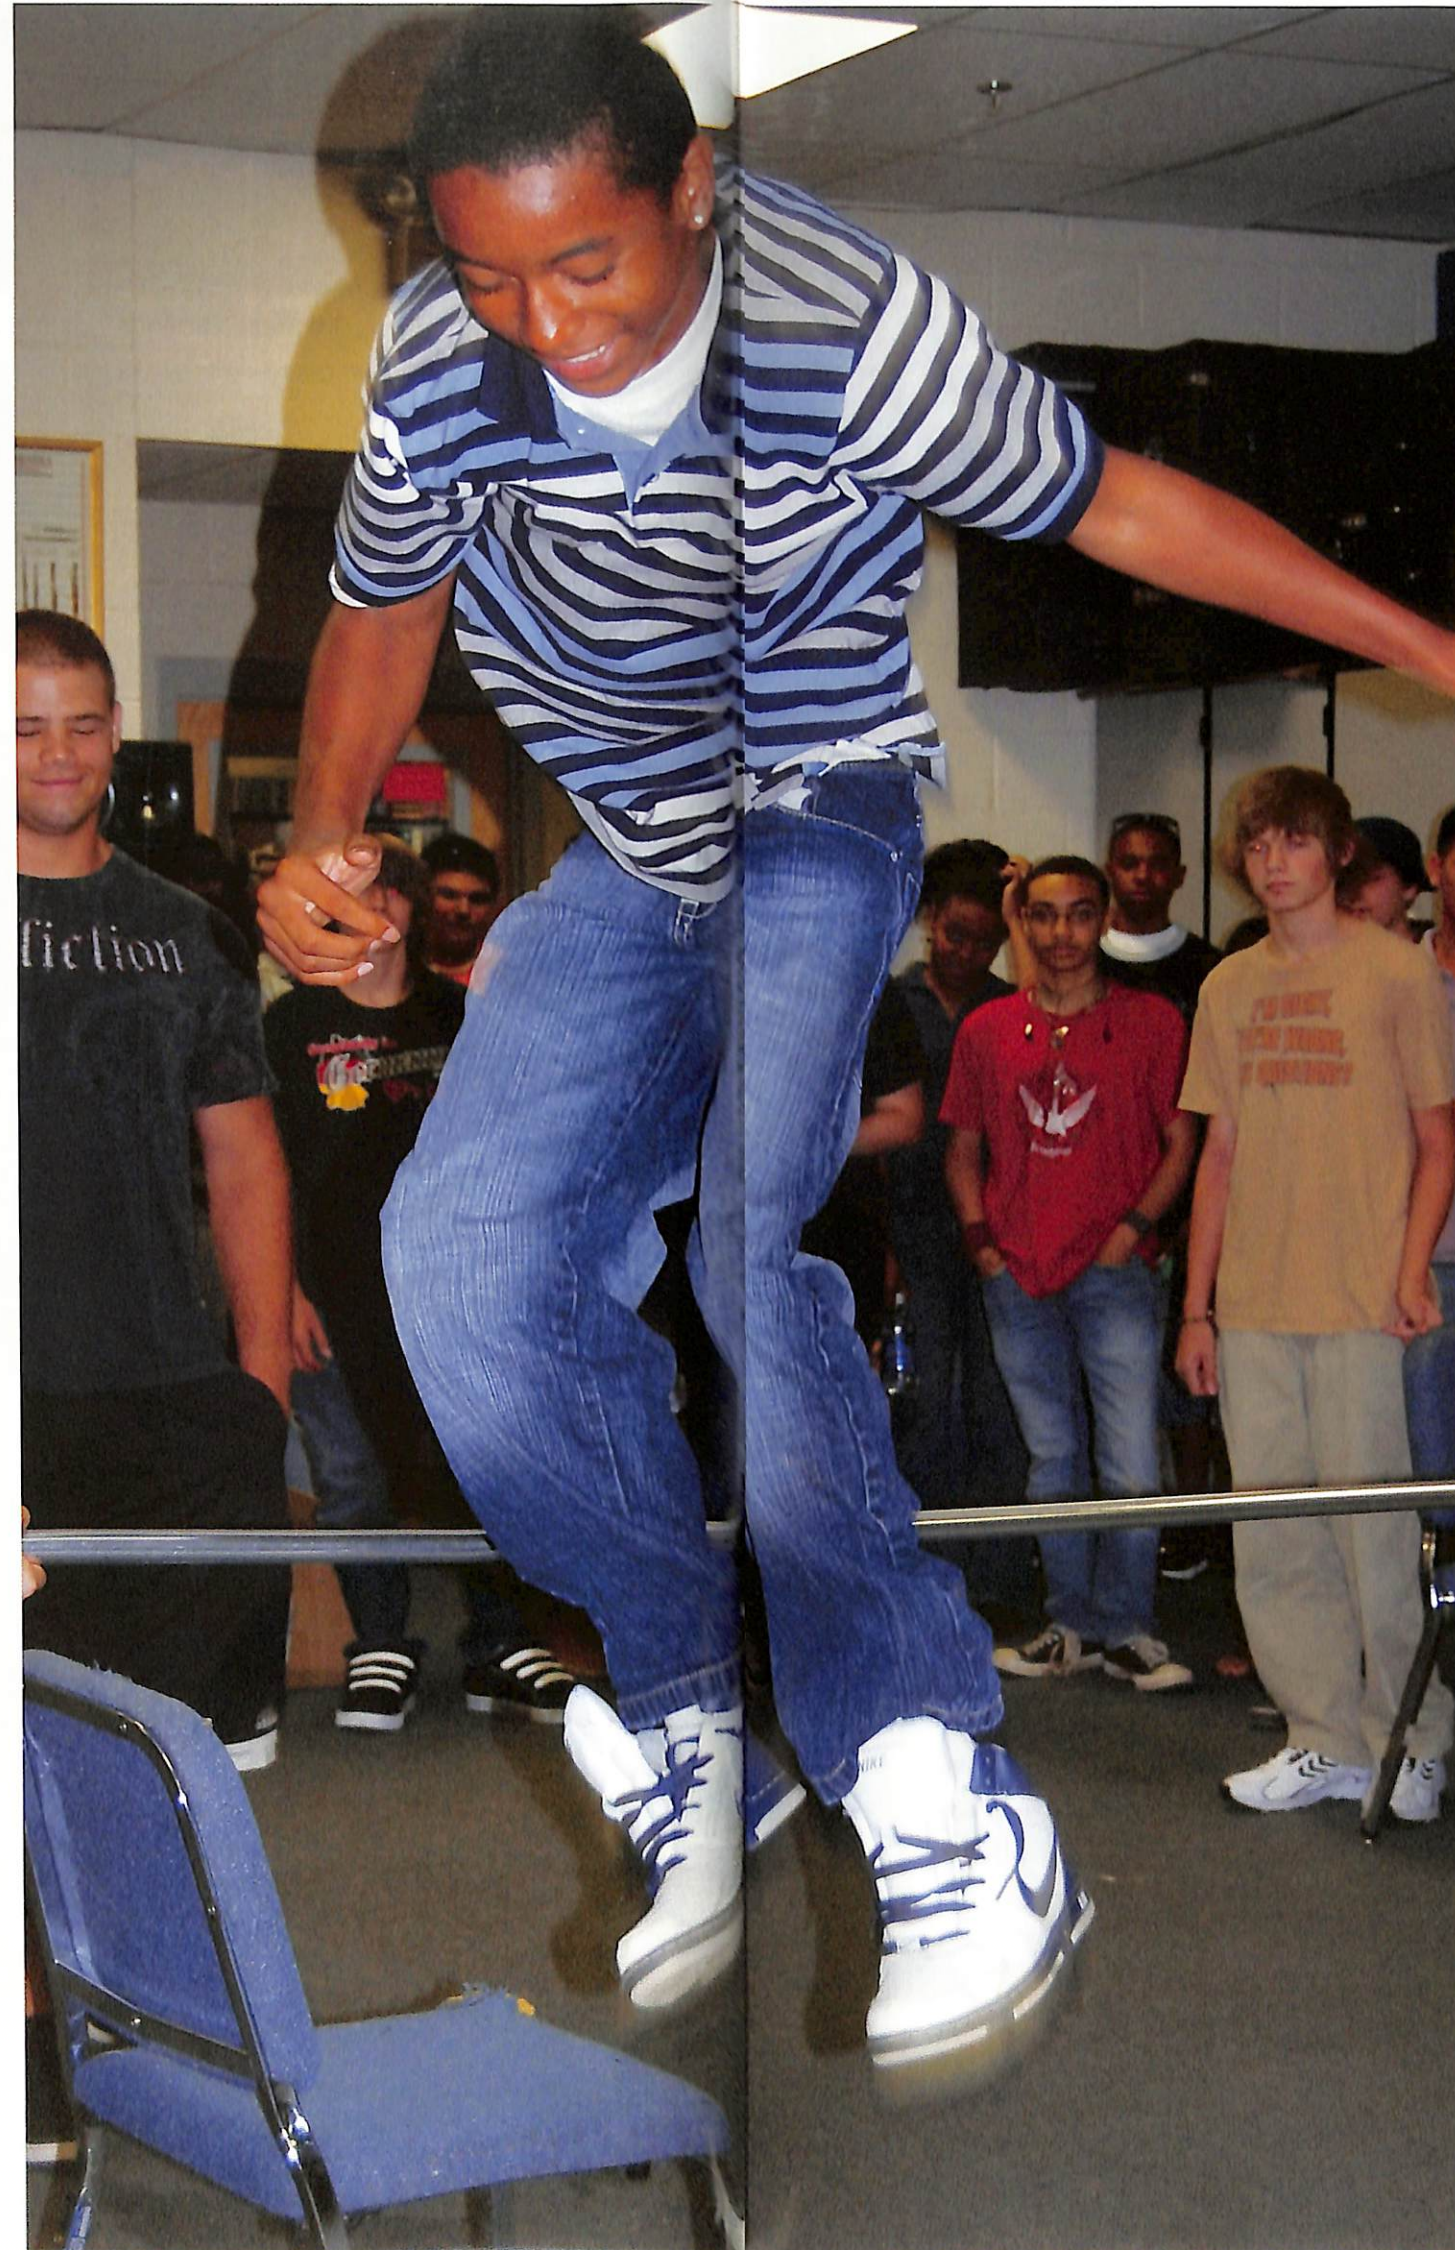

Mrs. Samuels - I got the call at midnight. I was in Korea visiting my husband. I was nervous and excited about starting at the school but I was looking forward to joining a military team.

Good Activities ~ Good Activities ~ Good Activities ~ Good

Good Activities ~ Good Activities ~ Good Activities ~ Good Activities ~ Good Activities

Joining a club is one way students at FCHS like to have fun. Getting together after school to watch movies and eat pizza or competing in competitions are just a few of the many activities that club members participate in. Sarah Hockett spent some of her time after school enjoying the company of her friends at German Club socials.

First to Plan, First to Organize

Club meetings are where the planning happens. Everything begins here. While meetings might not be the most exciting aspect of clubs or the most exciting way to spend your time after school, meetings are significant. When clubs like TCC, which is known for their help within the community, collect cat and dog food for the local shelter, or when the black history team prepares for Black History month, these things could not happen without the organization and planning that is brought together at a meeting. Most clubs here at FCHS consist of a president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, and historian. Collectively the officers and the members of the club work to accomplish a common goal. Olivia Cook says she enjoys the responsibilities that come with being the President of First Priority and a member of numerous other clubs because, it keeps her busy and she enjoys the thought of helping other people who are in need.

Club Meetings

Selling with Good Intentions

Fundraising helps clubs flourish by giving them the opportunity to do things like send their message out, going on trips, and helping other people and organizations. Clubs fundraise in a number of ways. TCC raised money by selling baked goods to teachers, while MUN sold snacks to students before their after school activities. Many clubs sell festive candy grams for the holidays. Scratch the Surface sold reindeer candy canes in December, NHS sold Orange Crush in February, and FEA sold St. Patrick's Day Skittles in March. Some organizations were creative and came up with more unique ways to earn money. MUN hosting a dodgeball tournament and "Pie a Teacher in the Face" pep rally, Band selling oranges at their annual "Citrus Fruit Sale", and TCC and German Club selling pink bracelets and wearing pink shirts for breast cancer awareness are just a few examples. Fundraising is a crucial, yet fun and creative aspect of clubs at FCHS. By fundraising, clubs spread their ideas and gain support from their peers, teachers, and the community.

Samuel Lampkins and Paige Crawford find out who is compatible with them by supporting Student Council and buying their Matchmaker Lists.

Lending a Good Hand

"Helping others is more than simply donating items or offering your help, it's all about success and how to pursue it." There is just something about helping others that literally brings personal satisfaction to many people. Club members of FCHS not only understand this concept, but they also encourage others to offer a helping hand without expecting anything in return. Their goal is to bring people together in the community and promote charity. They pursue these goals by assisting the elderly, donating items such as food and clothing, and by offering service to those who need it the most. Giving back not only makes them feel good about themselves, but it also makes the person receiving feel good and gives them a sense of hope.

"Success has nothing to do with what you gain in life or what you accomplish for yourself, it's what you do for others."

GOOD Time for Activities

Who likes to do activities? If you're one person that likes to have a good time, then you should get into some type of club. Clubs at FCHS are always doing something new and exciting! Whether it's going to the Adult Day Care Center with TCC, wrapping presents with German Club, having movie night with FEA, or S2S showing the new kids the ropes around school, there is a club for everyone. Getting involved in activities is always a great thing. It's an awesome way to make friends and have an amazing time. Clubs get students involved in school more than anything. Clubs are often what make school worth looking forward to everyday. Clubs and activities are not just in school, but all around you, like Club Beyond for example. This club brings kids together outside school. So what are you waiting for? Join an activity or club today!

Good times, Good times

One organization that is all about giving back to the students and improving the school is Student Council. Student Council is responsible for organizing all activities that involve the school, outside of the class room. Behind the scenes, members of Student Council plan, debate, and vote on what they think will provide the most fun for the student body; whether it's pep rallies or dances, Student Council is involved.

Fort Campbell High School is filled to the brim with variety amongst its students. Within this variety comes extreme, unknown talent. This year Student Council held the traditional talent show. There were a total of twelve acts that included solo performances, band performances, and even an ROTC exhibition routine. This year's winners were for solo performance, Aldrin Evangelista and for group performance, "That Other Band." Congratulations to the winners and thank you Student Council for providing the school with a night of fun and entertainment.

Tabby Woods gathers her courage and sings Taylor Swift's "Love Story."

Ashley Luong, Dillon Schroeder, Nick Harman, and Kevin Phipps put together a band and performed two excellent songs.

FIRST to Work

By: Amber Spade

Career practicum, or CP as it is referred to around FCHS, gives students a chance to take their future career interests and experience them first hand before actually entering the career field after high school. Students travel by bus to various sites around post every other day and work with teachers or managers and become their apprentices, so to speak. Students may decide to work with elementary teachers and students or choose their favorite teacher here at FCHS to get a glimpse of what we students put them through on a daily basis and try to discover if they have it within themselves to follow the teaching career path. Some work with the mechanics at the local auto repair shop and Charles Wilson and Kevin Gilbert follow in their parents footsteps and shadow soldiers around post to get a peek into the world of the U.S. Army. No matter where the students of CP decide to go, they learn the in's and out's of a certain career to help them decide if it is one they really want to pursue.

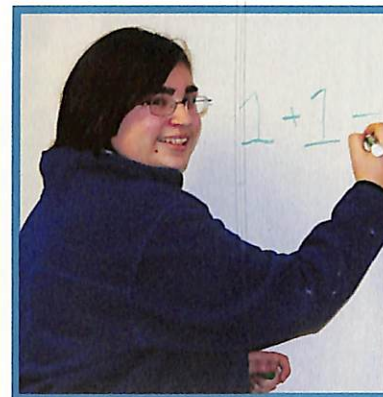

TaMeisha Rowe and Mindy Phillips help younger children with following directions at Jackson Elementary School.

Jonathan Borowiec works many odd jobs at Gear to Go.

Caitlynn Jay is Coach Berner's apprentice where she reviews plays from previous games to become a better manager.

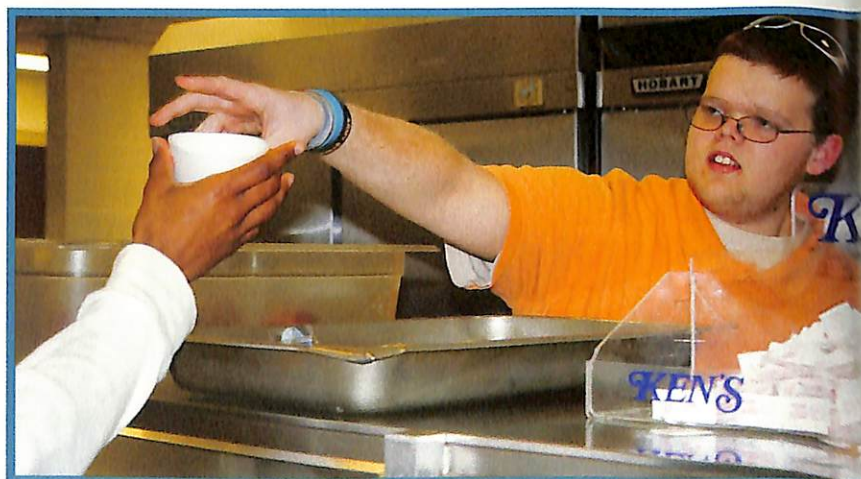

Danielle McDonald helps young students learn basic math skills at Lucas Elementary School.

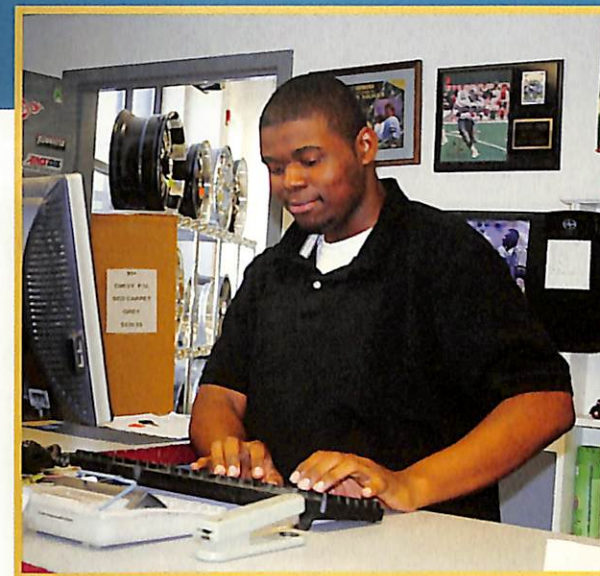

Kyra Bando sets up the hearing testing machine in the nurse's office at Lincoln Elementary School.

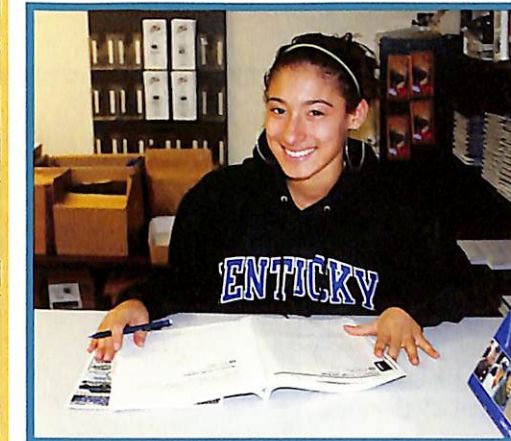

Lacey Bullock sorts the letters for the letter cutter while helping out teachers at Barkley Elementary School.

Justin Blackmon assists our school's cafeteria staff by serving the students food during all three lunches, as well as helping the custodians clean the commons once the students have left.

Shelton Cole takes inventory for all the parts sold at the Air Assault Auto Shop.

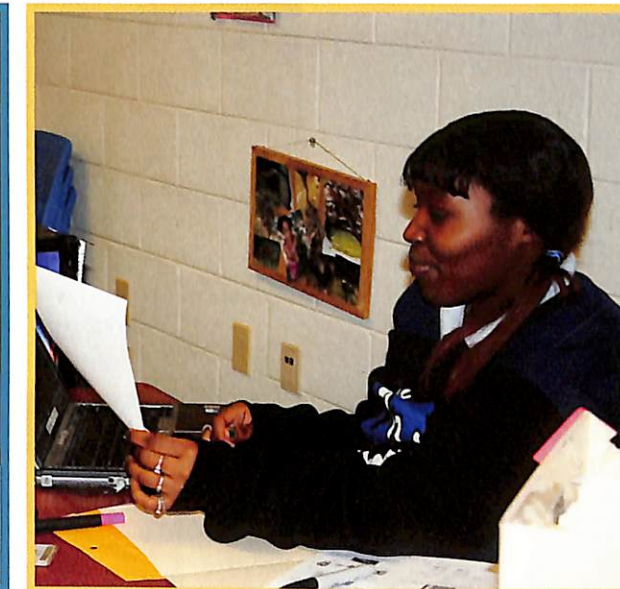

Adrianna Chavez enjoys maintaining the record books at the MWR on post.

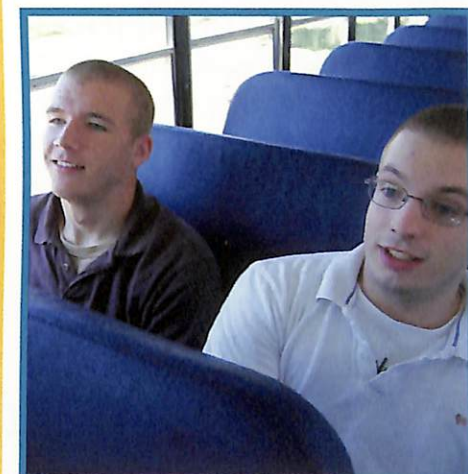

Patricia Rogers is prepared to go to work at the Dryer Field House on post.

Lorian Riley learns the in's and out's of our school's main office and makes sure that the attendance records are written in the book correctly.

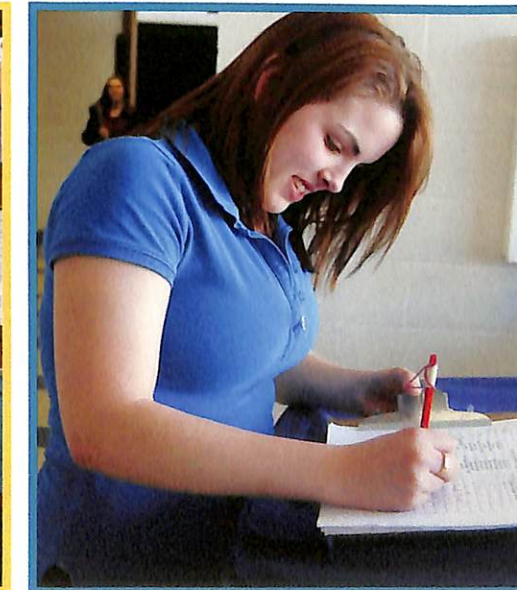

Tiffany Caldwell shadows Mrs. Allen and makes her life easier by grading papers.

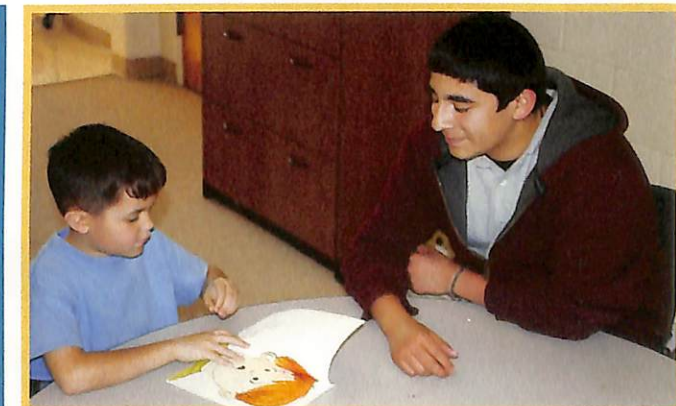

Kevin Gilbert and Charles Wilson anxiously wait for the bus to leave that will take them to the airfield.

Whitley Montgomery properly organizes the recently returned books at the R.F. Sink Library.

Eriel Smith signs the CP log before heading off to Ms. Ladd's room to help her grade papers.

FIRST to be Fit

By: Kevin Phipps

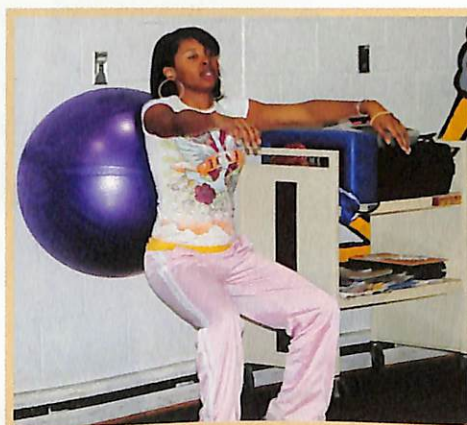

Every student at Fort Campbell has to have a credit and a half of P.E. to graduate. Most of the students accomplish this at the beginning of their high school career to have some fun in their new environment. As a student begins P.E. they first have to change into their fitness clothes. No matter the smell of their shorts and shirts, students welcome an excuse to get out of dress code. Coach Marciano, Coach McKillip, Coach Reilly, and Coach Ray all put fitness first. They like to push their students to be at a great fitness level and to be happy with themselves. FCHS offers P.E. classes for every student who wants to let off some steam. Exercise breaks up the daily grind for most students and gives them an opportunity to get into or remain in shape.

As Bianca Morrow jogs around the gym she likes to keep it serious.

Sade' Daniel breaks a sweat to keep perfect form while doing wall sits with an exercise ball.

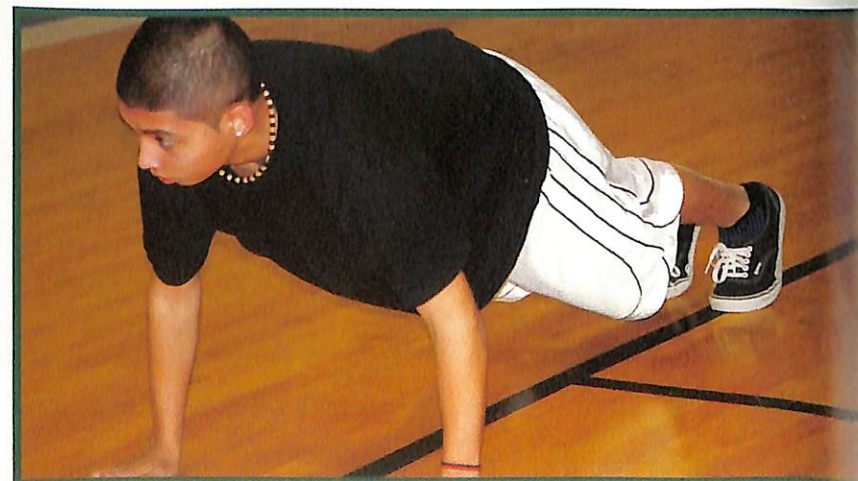

Cami McFarland works on strengthening her calf muscles by jump roping during the class circuit.

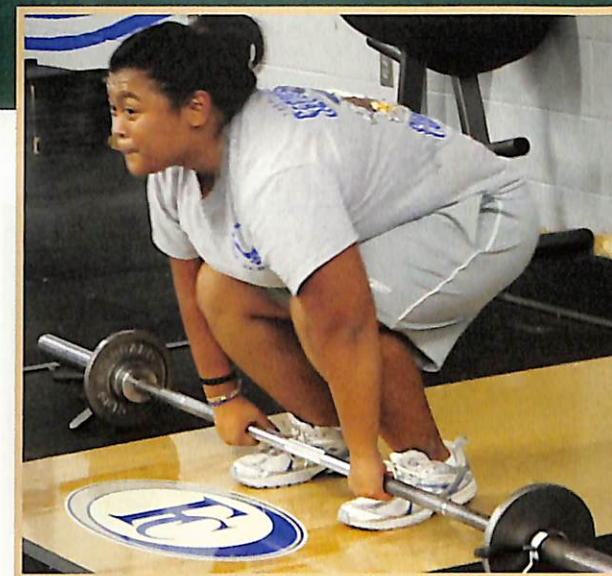

Sarah Hockett rides in the shade to keep cool while bike riding outdoors.

DaraAnn Aguon enjoys the circuit workout in P.E.

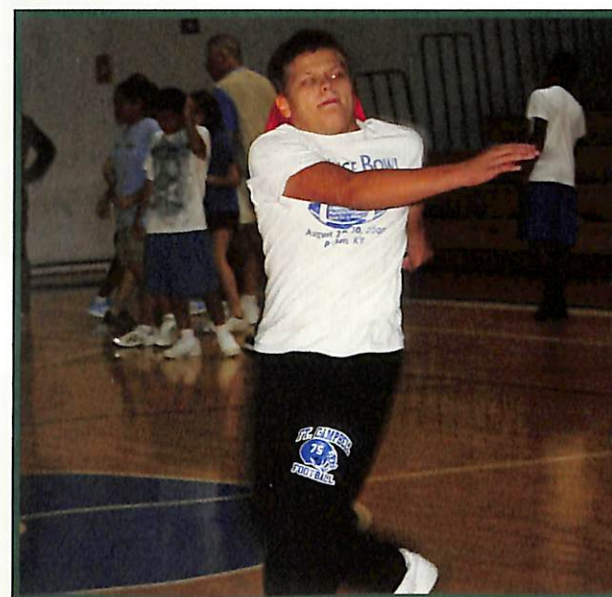

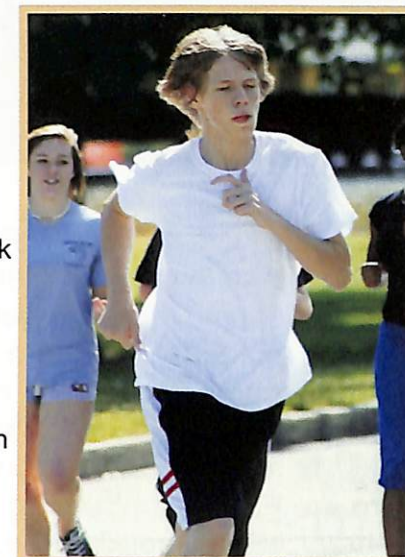

Robert Sanchez keeps perfect form while working on his arm and chest muscles by doing push-ups.

Julianna Martinez and Eriel Smith work on their back muscles.

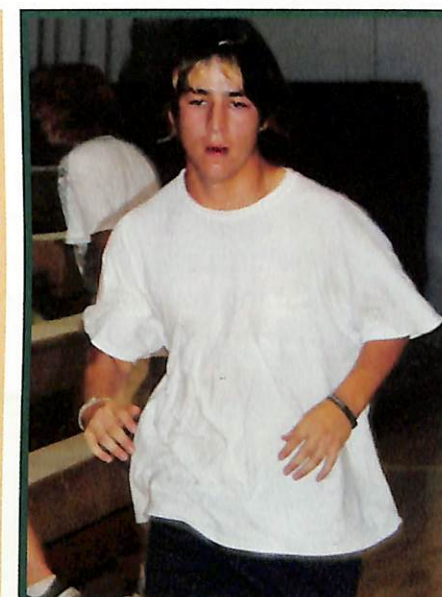

Tyler Fackelman works cardio by running outdoors.

This class works hard to keep up with Coach McKillip's count while doing toe touches during the class's daily warm-up routine.

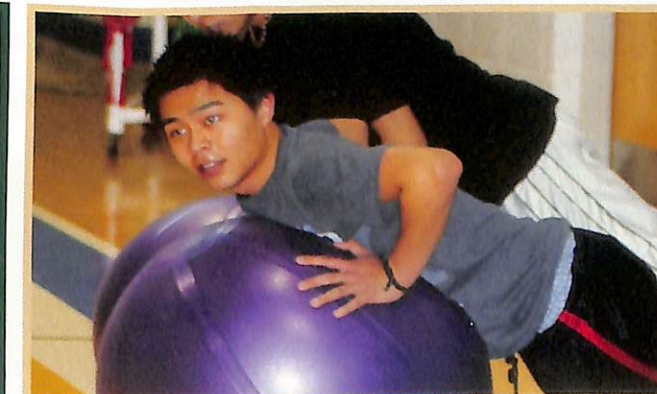

As Kevin Davis runs around the gym, while he tries to pace himself.

William Berg-Dewitt loves to jog outside to keep his mind focused.

Craig Boykin loves long rides on the mountain bike and always tries to pull off some one-handed moves.

Aldrin Evangelista sneaks in a rest while doing push-ups on the agility ball during circuit training.

Advanced Placement, or AP, classes are classes taught at the college level. At the end of each year, students have the opportunity to receive college credit by taking a rigorous exam. Some of the benefits of taking AP classes include a competitive edge over other students in the application process for college, a weighted grade point average, and a more personalized teaching experience. Here at Fort Campbell High School, there are a broad range of AP classes offered. Recently FCHS has implemented a new program called distance learning, where students take online AP classes with students from all around the world. Shannon Grammel says the best part about taking an online class is being on her own schedule, but the worst is not having a teacher, which sometimes gets boring. Being an AP student comes with many responsibilities and sacrifices. Students are held to higher standards and are often found staying up all night making finishing touches to their projects or doing some last minute cramming.

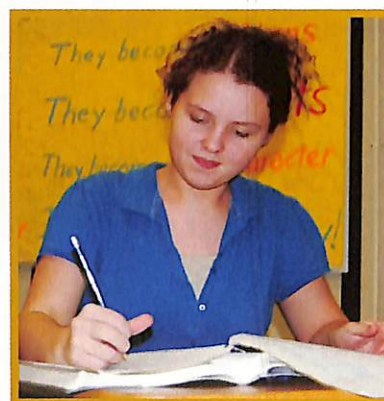

Brian Peacock and Shannon Grammel separate Gummi Bears so they can graph and present their results in German.

Dexter Manning strives to complete his AP Calculus homework before the deadline passes.

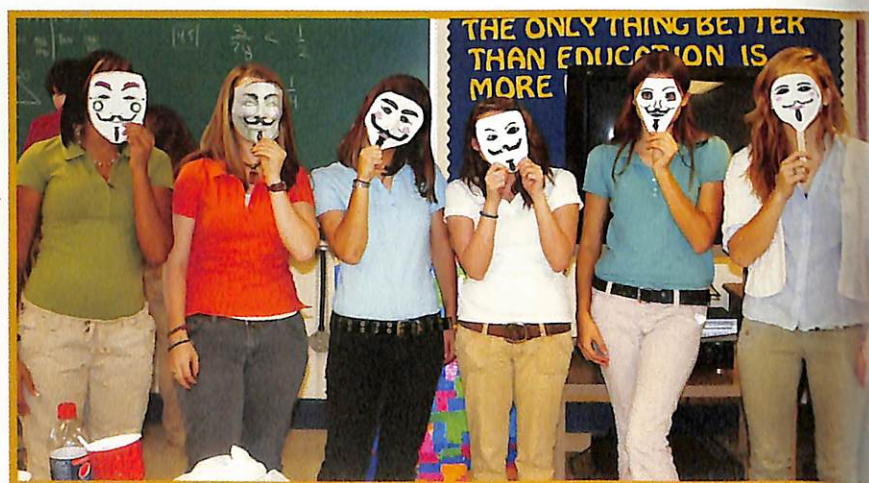

Lockard Cassity says her favorite part about AP Art is the freedom. She is allowed to work at the pace she wants and work on whatever project she wants.

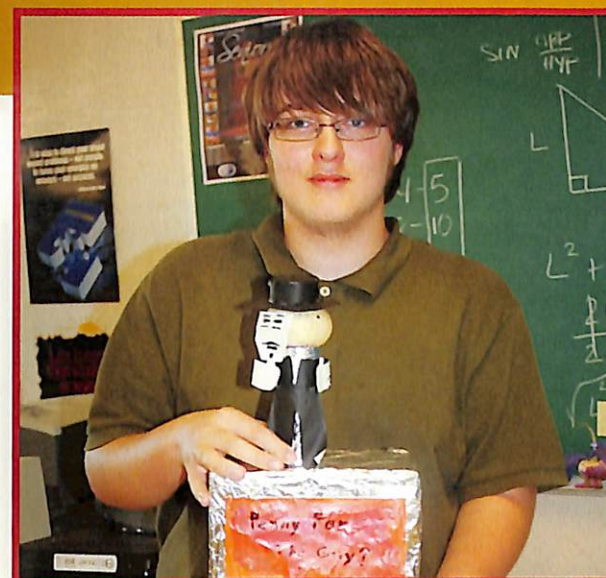

Sarah Bowers works to complete an AP World History test.

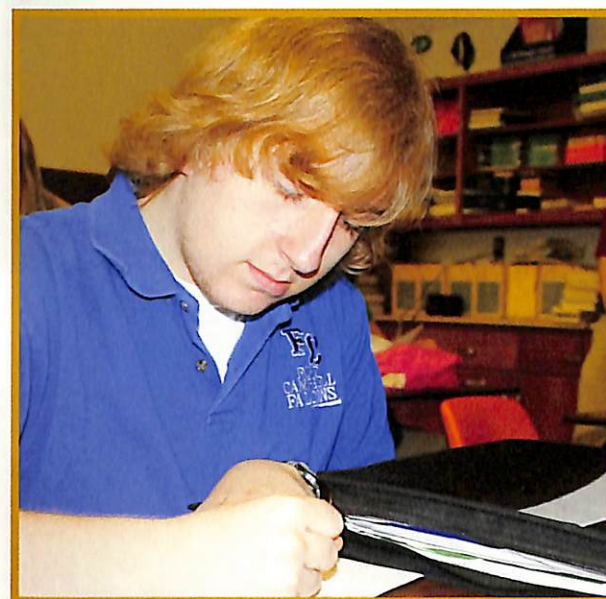

Casey Moffitt and Meghan Strehle prepare for an experiment in AP Biology.

AP English Literature students show off their Guy Faux masks in Celebration of Guy Faux Day.

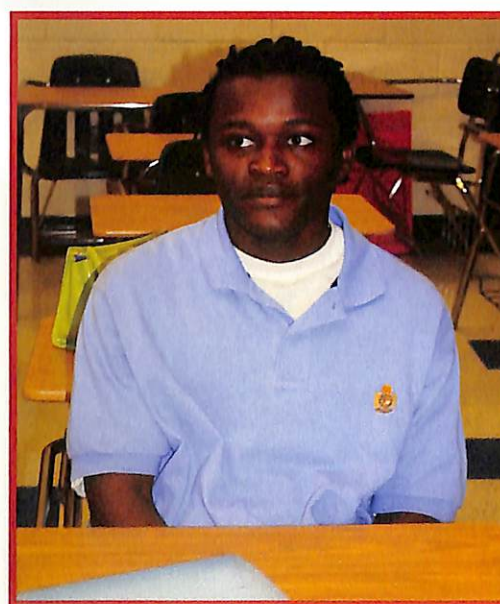

Jerath Cherry said the worst part about being in an AP class is the extra work you have to do.

Cole Dadswell says that the hardest part about online classes is the lack of sympathy from teachers who assign homework due on a day when you do not have their class.

Good Translators

Two years of the same foreign language are required at our school. Languages offered include French, German, and Spanish. In these classes, students learn to speak, write, and read in another language. Learning a second language allows students more ease in communicating in today's global environment and also helps students improve their English grammar skills. There is even a foreign language competition during the year where our students can test their abilities against those in other schools in Kentucky. If a student particularly likes speaking a foreign language, they can pursue a career as a translator after college. Anna Cobb says that she enjoys how Mrs. Pagan, her French teacher, brings in French food for the class to sample, such as crepes, a pancake like breakfast food eaten with jelly. These classes not only provide many opportunities for the students in the future, they also make them aware of the many cultural differences in this small world and teach tolerance.

Treyvon Neal and Chantal Hart pay attention to Mr. Jankowski's lecture about German culture.

Sophia Reyes and Mickol Rathbun practice their poems on the bus to the competition.

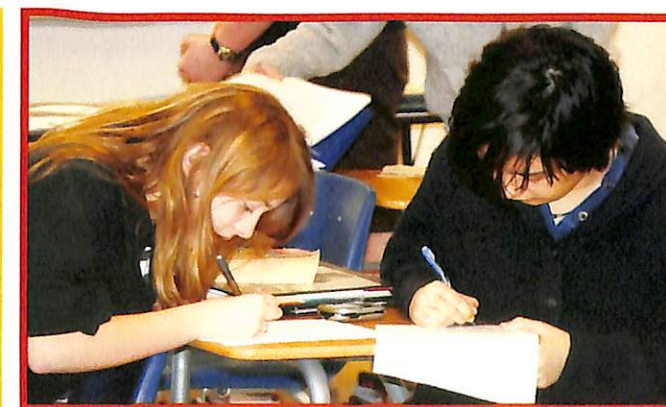

Dillon Schroeder tries to decide what Spanish phrase to write on his cast.

Warner Grandfield, Alex Goodman, and Brandon Bechtol are humored by information they found on their German project.

Thays Flores helps to keep Mrs. Pagan's classroom squeaky clean by picking up after a culture day in Spanish class.

Emilee Morse and Jackie Espinoza write the dialog that they hope will win them a trip to the state foreign language competition.

Good Artists

By: J Wirkkala

The students that are involved in the FCHS Art department thrive on the instruction given by Ms. Eichhorn. As the students express themselves through their art work, she continues to guide them and to keep their creativity flowing. Art is not all about drawing but to draw with meaning, feelings, and how the students see the world. The different mediums that the students express themselves include photography, oil pastels, water paints, free hand, acrylic paint, and 3-D objects. The 3-D objects push their mind and creativity to a whole new level. The students have to imagine how to create their project as 3-D. Imagining what their next project is challenging at times, but these talented and very creative students always pull through. The students are there for one another when a fellow artist is in need of help to boost their masterpiece.

FIRST into College

By: Betsy Grammel

While trying to get into a good college, the students taking AVID work hard for their success. AVID stands for Advancement Via Individual Determination. AVID students work on skills to help them succeed in college and find other ways to solve problems. Alyissa Smith, a sophomore and first year AVID student, says that her favorite thing about the class is how it has taught her to take Cornell notes and do research papers.

Brittany Talleyrand gets help on her history homework from AVID tutor, Troy Turner.

Lindsey Horton and Porshia Austin take a break from their classwork to chat about the upcoming AVID club events.

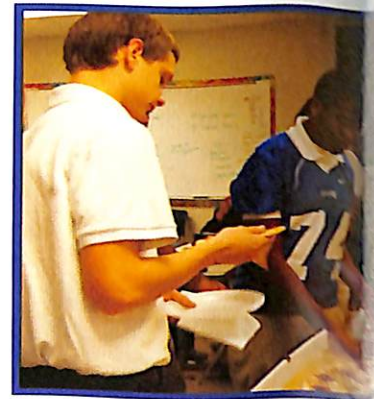

T.J. Tucker explains his method of solving a difficult math problem.

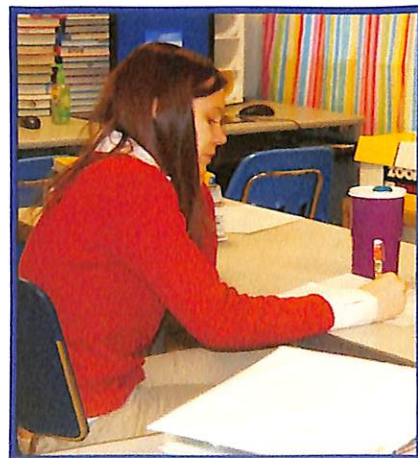

Seniors, A.J. Taylor and Troy Turner, pose in front of the Western Kentucky University trophy case during an AVID trip.

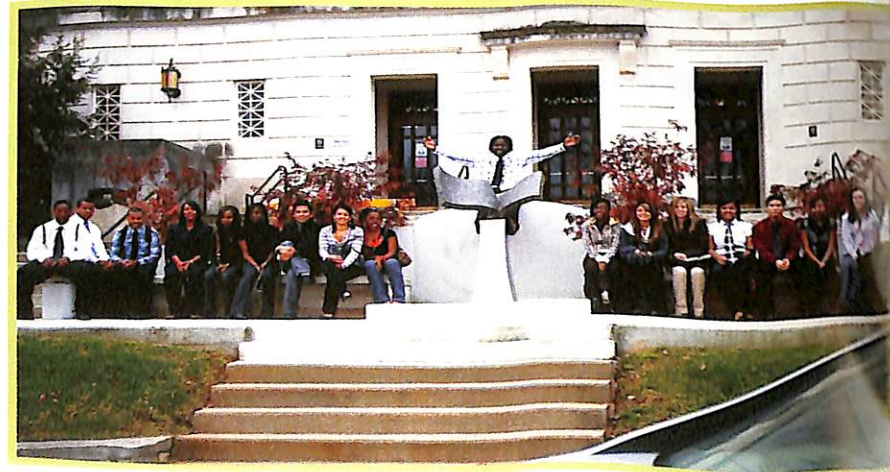

Curtice Barrow racks her brain to figure out which classes will benefit her most next year.

Kevin Miller and Cody Wilson enjoy an AVID pizza party.

Alyissa Smith thinks about what to write as she fills out what classes she plans to take next year.

The AVID seniors take a trip to Western Kentucky University to see what the college has to offer.

FIRST Second Language

By: Betsy Grammel

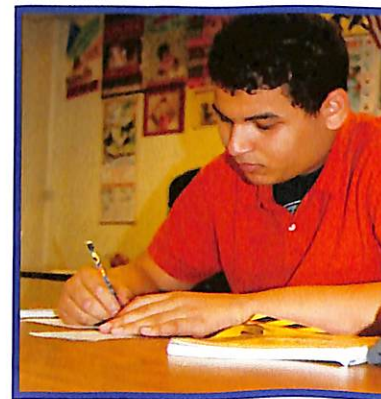

The students in ESL work diligently towards their goal of mastering the English language. ESL stands for English as a Second Language. ESL students learn how to speak English and the rules of grammar, as well as the difference in cultures. Princess Tauai, a sophomore and first time ESL student, says that her favorite aspects of the class are reading and seeing her favorite teacher, Mrs. Allen, because she makes the class fun.

Jerome Clark accepts a reward coupon for good behavior and finishes all his work for the week from Mrs. Allen.

Tynell Ihop gets help from Mrs. Allen on a difficult problem.

Jennifer Nolin concentrates as she works on an assignment.

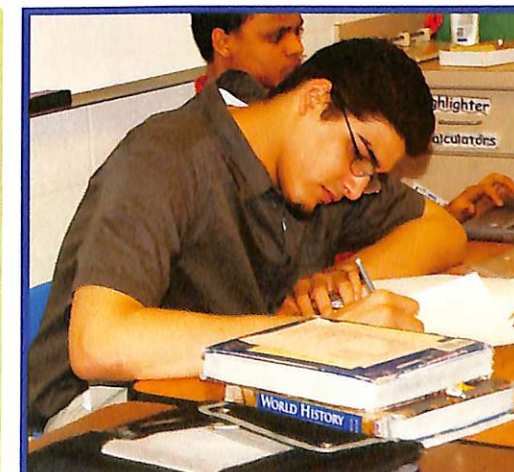

Princess Tauai looks up from her computer for a minute to ask a question about her assignment.

Lenardo Santos gets comfortable on the floor as he finishes typing his paper.

Ashley Jimenez reads through her vocabulary list in preparation for the next test.

Jenaro Gonzalez concentrates on a worksheet that is due at the end of the class period.

Dayana Perez shifts her attention away from her paper to listen to what her teacher says.

FIRST to Report

By: Scottie Brown

Whether they are first to report on the scene with a video camera or typing up the story a few days later, the students of Blue Review and Journalism are always first to report. Although it is her first year in Journalism, Senior Caitlynn Jay describes the school newspaper, "Scratch the Surface," as a way to get information out to the students and teachers while breaking up the repetitive routine of just watching everything. A returner to the Blue Review staff, Olivia Cook describes the class as a way to relax and express her creativity through her music videos, public service announcements, and her movie trailers. When she edits the show, she hopes to make sure everything is perfect so she does not disappoint those who watch the show during seminar. Whether you watch it or read it, these information savvy students make sure their viewers and subscribers are up to date on what is going on around the school.

The Blue Review cast shows their wild and goofy side while they take time out of their busy schedules of preparing the next show to take a group photo.

Sam Gittings and Dillon Schroeder ready their camera in the hallway while waiting for the rest of the crew to set up for the next scene.

Amanda Miner racks her brain for an exciting topic for the next "Scratch the Surface."

Jake Tillinghast plugs in his fire-wire so he can upload his recently filmed footage for his next segment.

Lockard Cassity and Caitlynn Jay run the bake sale at open house in an attempt to raise money for Journalism.

Aime Montjoy helps assemble the Christmas grams sold by the Journalism staff to help them raise money.

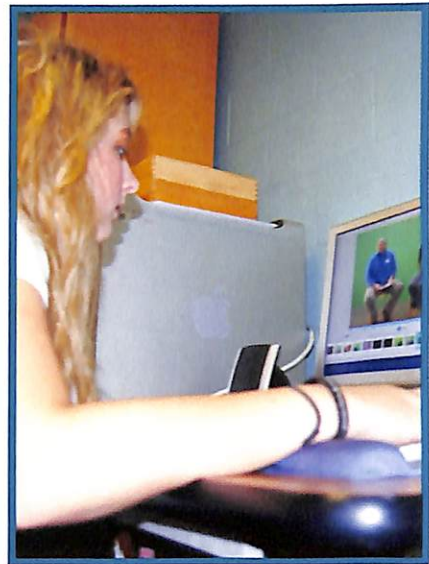

Even though the "Scratch the Surface" staff is busy, they take a moment to show that, not only can they write, they can take a great picture.

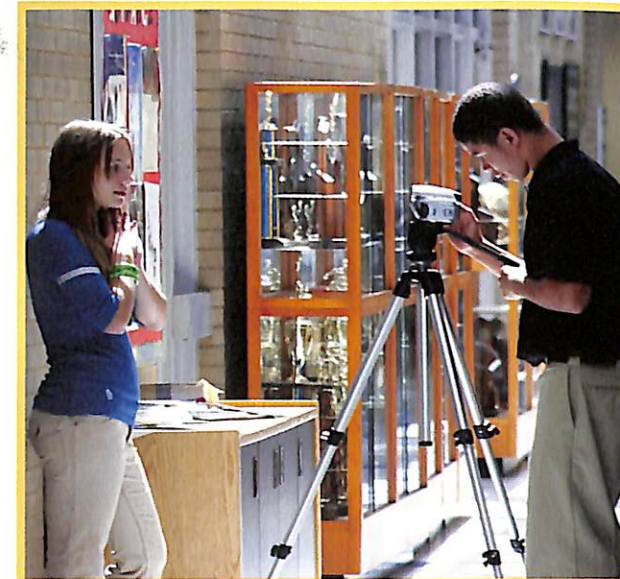

Mrs. Fisher helps Samantha Taylor get her creative juices flowing for her next editorial.

Caitlynn Jay looks up the horoscopes for the next edition of "Scratch the Surface".

Olivia Cook works on editing a segment for the upcoming Blue Review episode.

A.J. Taylor checks the light before he begins recording Carly Kozal for the Breast Cancer Awareness segment.

The Journalism staff laughs at a funny picture while doing a mock up of their next edition.

Tenesha Trammell and Breon Moreno work together to edit film from one of the last football games for the "Falcon Sports" segment.

Javier Rivera is caught handing Mrs. Lunsford her seminar's copies of the first edition of the newspaper.

The staff prepares to hand out their first copy of "Scratch the Surface" to waiting students and teachers.

Coach Brown takes a second to help his Blue Review student, Corey England, with a malfunctioning computer.

FIRST to Experiment

By: Kevin Phipps

At Fort Campbell High School the laboratory is a place of science. The knowledge that leaves the room is unbelievably great. Students may doze off in class while taking notes but they are all wide awake and energetic while partaking in a lab. The labs range from blowing bubbles, to making rockets, building molecules, to smashing eggs. The science department does not lack any enthusiasm or creativity in labs. With the amazing creativity that our teachers and students possess, it is not hard to have fun, educational labs. The labs are designed to intrigue the minds of students and help them enjoy learning by involving hands on activities to break the routine of just reading a textbook or taking notes in class.

Janise Soto-Gonzalez likes to spend her spare time in class examining organisms.

Mitchell Shannon constructs a bottle rocket as his partner Nick Leonard sits back.

Jasica Malone-Elliot always has fun when she gets the opportunity to participate in the building of molecules.

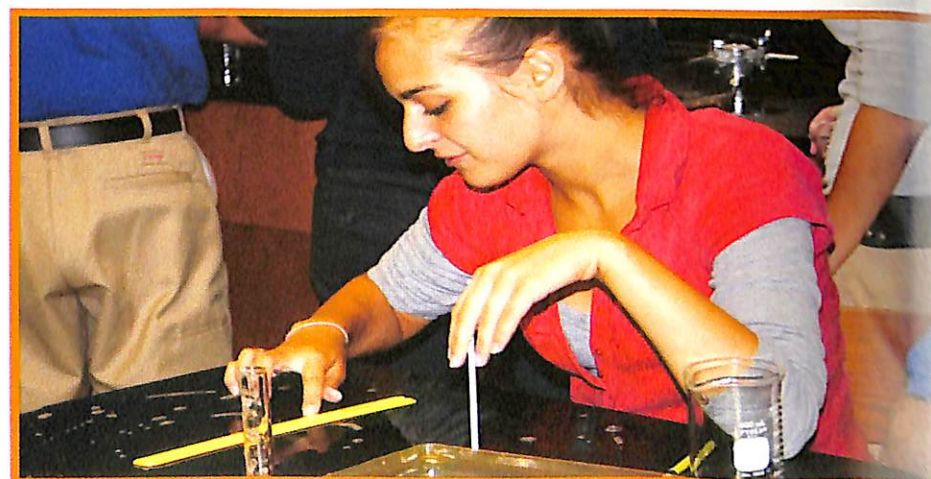

Keith Beasley admires his bubble making skills while trying to keep his hands clean at the same time.

ChrisTuncap likes to smile at the molecules he examines.

The Tools Of Science Knowledge

Kelsy Christensen tests her skills as she measures tiny bubbles with a big ruler.

Jessica Hill has fun digging through dirt trying to grab the worm to examine its movements.

Trent Short, Megan Ryan, and Victor Gonzalez all show off their proud work they did on their eggs they are going to smash.

Precious Tauai takes detailed notes on how to examine and split atoms.

Ashley Luong enjoys a nice relaxing day of Chemistry while she sits back constructing molecules.

Fred Hayes likes to take charge while experimenting because he proclaims himself as a self-taught scientist.

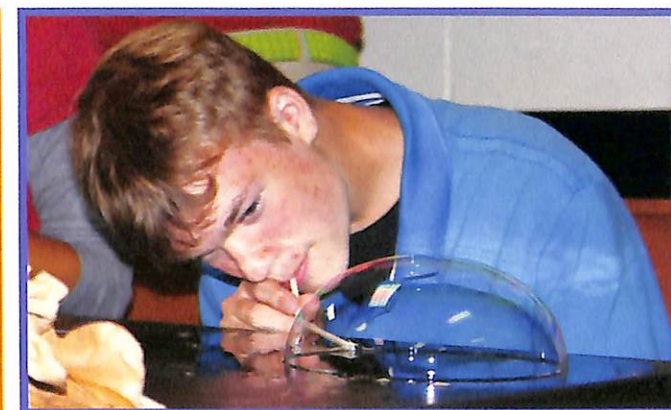

Janell Walls takes her turn to examine the molecules under the microscope.

Emily Ward likes to focus while checking out intense atoms.

Malaki Gonzalez sits back and examines the atoms with his naked eye while partner Jonathan Gaspers Lund prefers the microscope.

Tanner Schwengler brings his bubble blowing experience to school to show off his mad skills in science class.

GOOD Entertainers

The sound of the music rocks Ft. Campbell at all the football games and concerts when students perform for their families, friends, and fellow students. They pride themselves for all their hard work that it takes to be the best. Some students play in the FCHS Marching Band; others in concert band. The students take pride in their musical talents and abilities. Mr. Hofe, the band teacher likes to have a good time and make it fun, but he also knows when it's time to get down to business. He is passionate for the sound of music and teaches his students all that he knows to make them successful for the next year or the tryouts for a college band. Students not only participate in band, but in choir, piano, and guitar. Many take Mrs. Schoonover's classes to learn the guitar or piano or join the choir to show off their singing abilities. Each of these classes practice a semester long in preparation for their recital for their friends and family.

Joseph Bodiford performs his guitar solo on stage in front of his peers and family members.

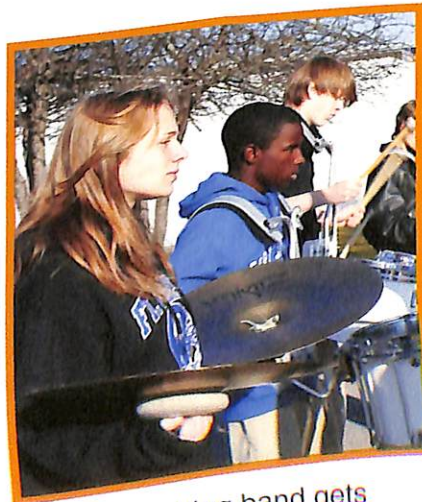

Keegan O'Keefe concentrates to perfect his solo for the final concert.

Amanda Ellis and Omari Perry are practicing on a duet for the upcoming recital.

Austin Williams and De'Anthony Robinson practice together for their next recital.

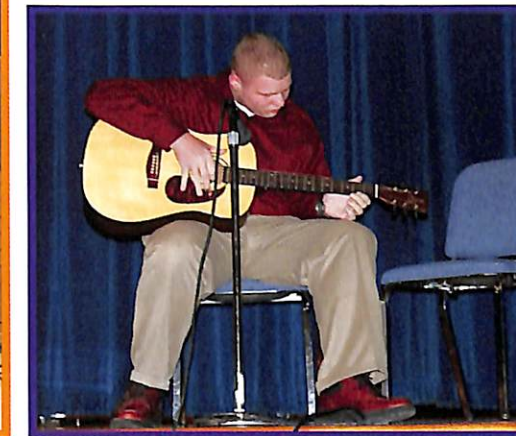

The marching band gets ready to restart again, hoping they get it right the next time around.

The FCHS Brass section performs for an audience at Christmas time.

Kirsten Amorine shows her talent not only at the piano but as a basketball player for FCHS.

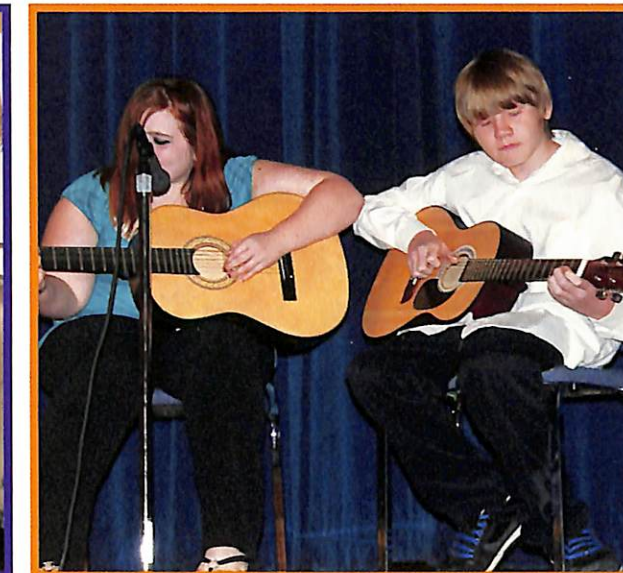

Some football players, like Kaleb Collins, have a sensitive side besides tackling.

The brass section plays their hearts out while keeping the beat.

E.J. Hinson and Tyler Woods work together to keep the band in steady rhythm.

Christian Stimmell and Preston Cash showing off their guitar skills to the FCHS crowd.

Andriana Aponte-Anderson plays the piano and feels the music through her body.

Lacey Bullock is getting jiggy with it by playing with heart and soul.

FCHS Choir shows off their pipes during practice so recital.

The concert band windwood section practices in class before a big concert.

According to dictionary.com, a classroom is defined as "any place where one learns or gains experience." By this definition, there are many classrooms, both inside the school and outside of it. Inside of the school, they range from the library to the office to seminar rooms and science labs. They may have four walls and a blackboard, or merely a hallway populated with those few random students. Lessons learned in a classroom may be the traditional three R's, Reading, Riting and Rithmatic, or they could be a fine art or computer class. Outside of the school building, the classroom could be anything from the football field to the pitcher's mound. Either way, students at FCHS have learned skills and gained knowledge that has helped them prepare for college and the vicious world outside of the gates of Fort Campbell High.

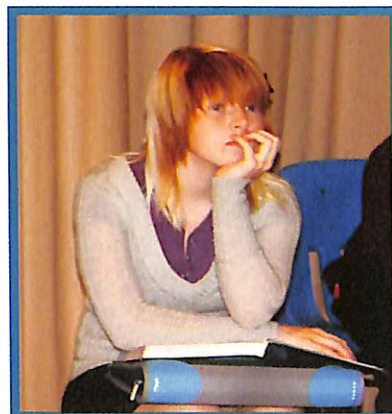

Muhammad Shahid and Marcus Tucker work hard on their notes in AVID that will help them pass their next test.

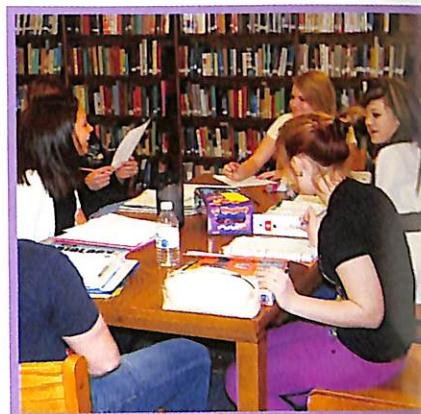

Paige Crawford listens as Mrs. Schoonover gives her tips about playing the piano.

Scott Story works during class to make sure his project is perfect before turning it in.

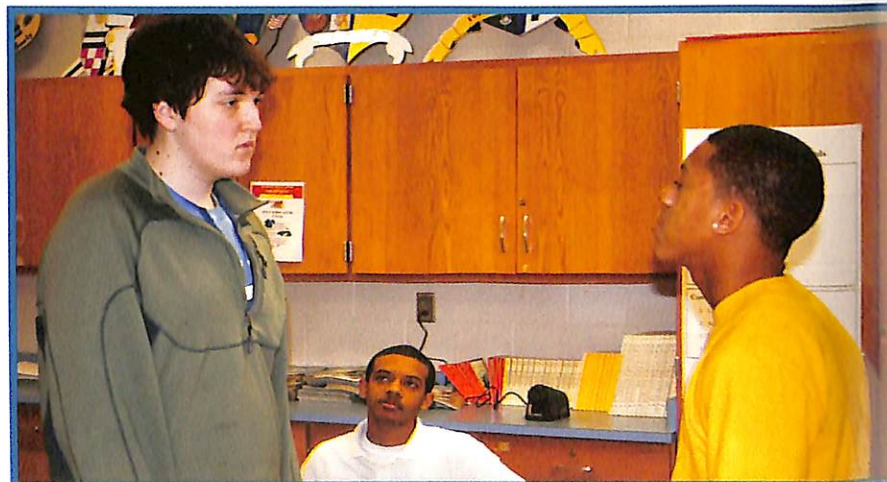

Kayla Hills contemplates a prose her drama teacher gave her to analyze.

Freshmen biology students study for their test in the library during seminar.

Destinee Shaw works diligently on an assignment, hoping for an good grade.

Jesse Waller, JoeVanni Rangel, and Devante Woods practice effective communication in their language arts class.

Mr. Witte puts the "pal" in "principal" and gives Tori Weaver help on an assignment.

Brandon Lieto gets ready to start his new math lesson for the day.

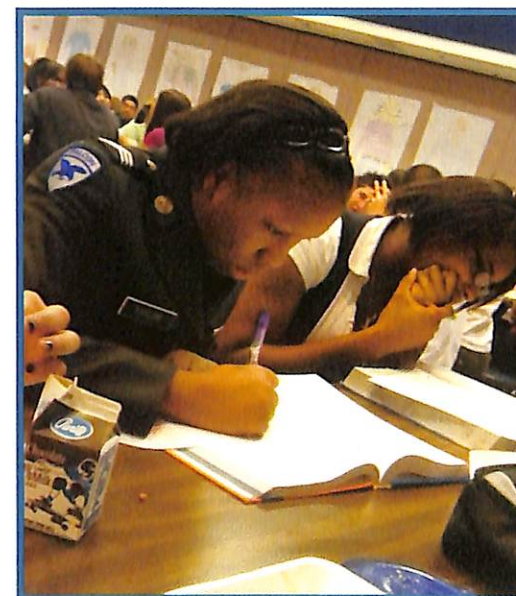

Joseph Krebs joins in an intense conversation that was struck up in his English class.

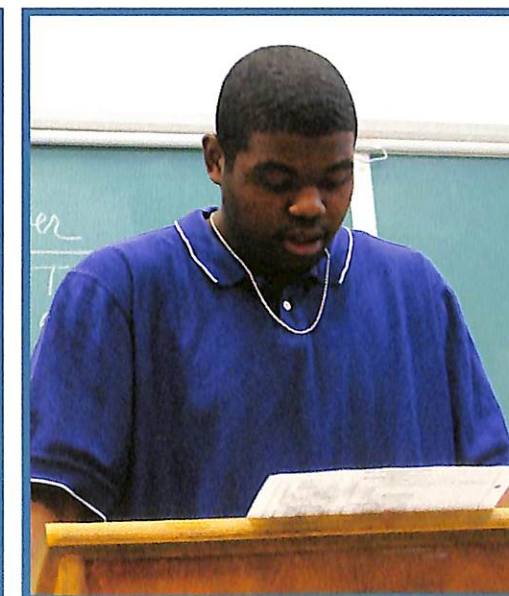

Trent Short works hard on constructing his race car for physics.

Shakiera Taylor and Jenniffer Riley take advantage of their lunch break to do homework for their math class.

Shelton Cole recites his essay about MacBeth to his senior English class.

FIRST to Serve

By: Amber Spade

The JROTC room is the one place at FCHS to which students are proud to wear a uniform. Students enter the JROTC program with aspiring dreams of joining the Armed Services and serving our country. The program opens doors for students future by shaping them into leaders that could contribute to the school, as well as the community. Inside the classroom, Sergeant Major Jones and Colonel Sartain teach the cadets the value of commitment, discipline, teamwork, and respect, while Battalion Commander Tony McDonald and Battalion Executive Officer Kevin Gilbert, maintain order of the classroom. Outside the classroom, Drill Team Commander Tony McDonald, Raider Team Commander Amanda Miner, Color Guard Commander Kevin Gilbert, and Rifle Team Commander Sydney Martinez, teach the cadets the responsibilities of being a member of a team, but, most importantly, how to have fun. These teams participate in competitions around the state in hopes of bringing home trophies to stock the cases in the halls.

FIRST to Learn

By: Chloe Nicholson and Taylor Duplessis

Every year, each student takes seven classes chosen from the variety of courses offered at Fort Campbell High School. Some courses, such as advance placement classes and government, are offered only to juniors and seniors; however, the majority of classes are offered to all grade levels. Teachers and students work hand in hand to help each individual succeed and make the best grade possible. Teachers write seminar passes, stay after school, and even come to school early to ensure that each student gets the help he or she needs. Though the teachers do all they can to help, the responsibility is still on the student. Every class challenges the student in a different way. From the dramatic scenes performed on stage to the orange walls of Mrs. Briggs's U.S. history room, students create their own work and study habits that best suits them in order to graduate and hopefully on to college. During the many lectures and lessons given, students and teachers form friendships that will could last beyond high school.

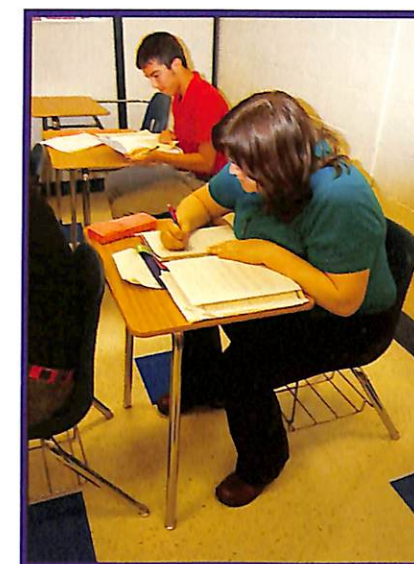

Christopher Hearn Hottel and Lamyricle Goodwin review their notes in class in preparation for an open-notes quiz.

Nickolas Hartson runs through a dress rehearsal for drama class.

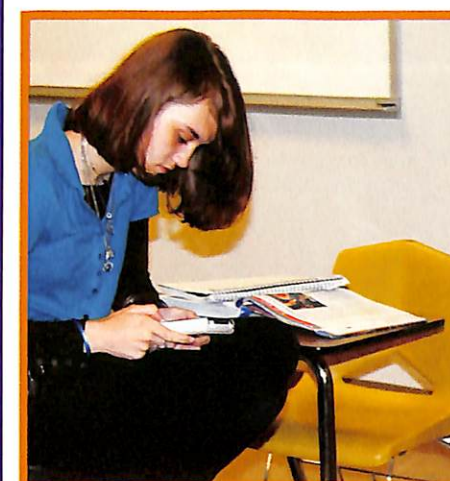

Erika Field follows along with the teacher and takes notes during class.

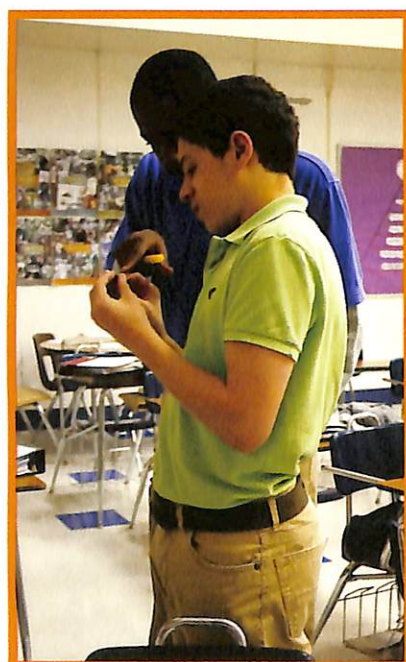

Ronald Long reads Tears of a Tiger during his free time in Mrs. Duerr's English class.

Marylin Early comes to class during seminar to be certain she fully understands the lesson.

Wesley Gosney and Jameil Turner work together in humanities to analyze an object and write a description about it.

Codey Harmon works diligently on an assignment for Coach Brown.

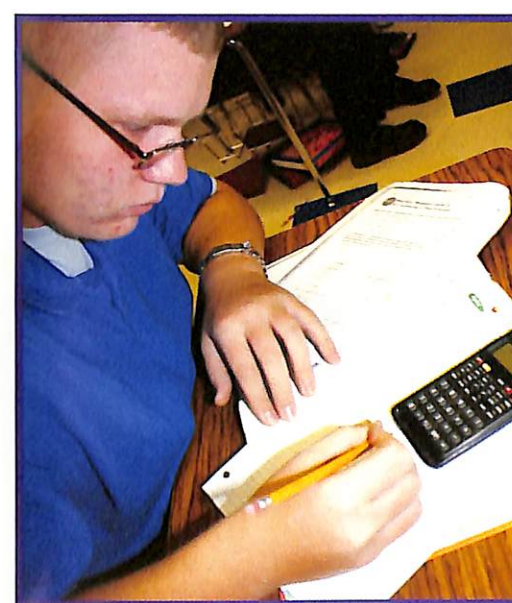

Melissa Swimm waits for the algebra lesson to sink in.

Karina Sierra prepares props backstage before a dress rehearsal in drama class.

Scott Story follows along in his Spanish book as Señor Terry gives a lecture about the Hispanic culture.

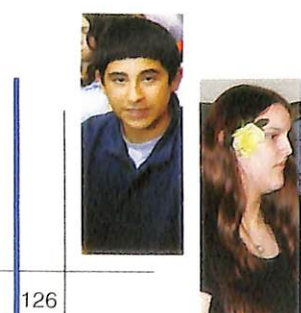

Kaleb Collins concentrates while using his calculator to help him solve a problem in geometry class.

Brittany Dykes double checks to ensure she has all of her work completed before going to class.

Caitlyn Stoner, Michael Peterson, Victoria Borja, and Nadine Erskine show their sprint for St. Patrick's Day by dressing in all green.

Outside of school, FCHS students take part in a variety of extra curricular activities. Those who play sports are deemed athletes. The name is given to these people for hours of dedication to not only their school but their team. From after school practices to late night games, the player's dedication can be tested. By the end of the season a bond like no other has formed as Kennefa Mullings said, "The best part of being on a team is meeting all the different people and becoming family."

FIRST TO SPIKE

By: Taylor Duplessis

1. Naylil Soto-Gonzalez and Annabell Garcia use teamwork to dig the ball. 2. Kapri Evans uses her strength to spike the ball and win a point for the Lady Falcons. 3. Brittany Talleyrand executes a perfect approach, helping lead the Lady Falcons to a win. 4. Angely Casiano-Rivera jumps as high as she can to spike the ball during warm-ups before a match. 5. 2009 Lady Falcon Junior Varsity Volleyball team. 6. Annabell Garcia starts off a home match game by aing the opponent. 7. Carol Guillen gets prepared to sprint to the ball in order to set up the play. 8. The Lady Falcons perform their chant before a match to help pump each other up. 9. After a home match, the Lady Falcons show sportsmanship and shake their opponents hands. 10. Chelsea Jarvis watches after hitting the ball to ensure it doesn't come back over the net.

2009 Lady Falcon Varsity Volleyball team

The Lady Falcons Volleyball team began a challenging season this year with two new coaches and the task of replacing the positions of players who either graduated or moved. However, by the end of the season, they managed to pull together and make their time worthwhile with their dedication, long hours, and a positive attitude. Though often stressful, in the end everything fell into place. From exhausting practices to intense matches, the coaches ensured that the girls gave 110% at all times. As Coach Carter said, "Every ball, every time!" Through thick and thin, the girls supported each other like family. "If I ever had a problem, I always felt like I could turn to one of the girls for help," Kayleigh Faulkner, a varsity starter, commented. By the end of the season the team showed improvement, and they believe next season will be even more successful.

Coach Heather awards Kaytlyn Rosynek with a bouquet of roses and wishes her good luck on her senior night.

FIRST TO THE BALL

By: Courtney Richardson

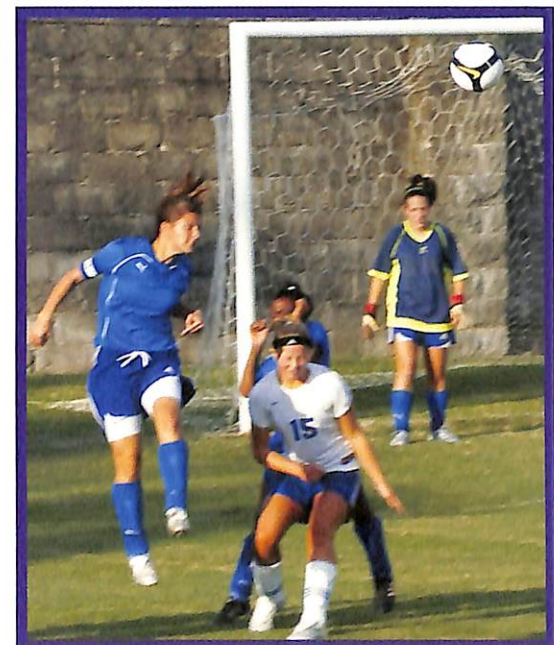

1. Mazzie Ellis dribbles down the field passing her opponent to switch the ball across to her teammates. 2. Alex Englen steps to the ball trying to win it from a Christian County player. 3. Jenna Caraccilo opens her hips to receive the ball and look up to pass to her teammate. 4. Courtney Richardson sprints to recover the ball from the UHA opponent. 5. The Lady Falcons huddle before the game to discuss what needs to be done. 6. Allie Alfeld pushes the ball forward to the corner flag to switch fields to another player on her team. 7. Brittany Gomez attempts to step over the ball while tripping her opponent and catching her balance. 8. The Lady Falcon seniors show their spirit by doing the "High School Musical Jump". 9. Jackie Pierson kicks the ball up field away from a Clarksville Academy opponent. 10. Brittney Ellis tries to cut the angle off of her opponent so a goal is not made.

Melissa Flynn uses her body to step in front and shield the ball.

A phrase the Lady Falcons hear a lot on or off the field is "first to the ball." The girls have been saying this phrase in their sleep as many times as Coach Raby has told them. Every year when soccer season rolls around, these girls kick off their flip flops and lace up their cleats. From the sweat dripping down their faces, the horrible conditions of the fields, and to the times the ball has smacked them in the face, the Lady Falcons never let defeat phase the passion of the game. With the dreadful hot summer practices, the timed three mile runs, and camps, the Lady Falcons have improved throughout the year. A team must share the same intensity, passion for the game, laughter, and tears, to show progression throughout the season. Without that, there is nothing the team has to reflect upon.

Cori Hatley heads the ball out of the goal box to prevent Caldwell County from scoring a goal.

ALWAYS FIRST TO SCORE

By: Amber Spade

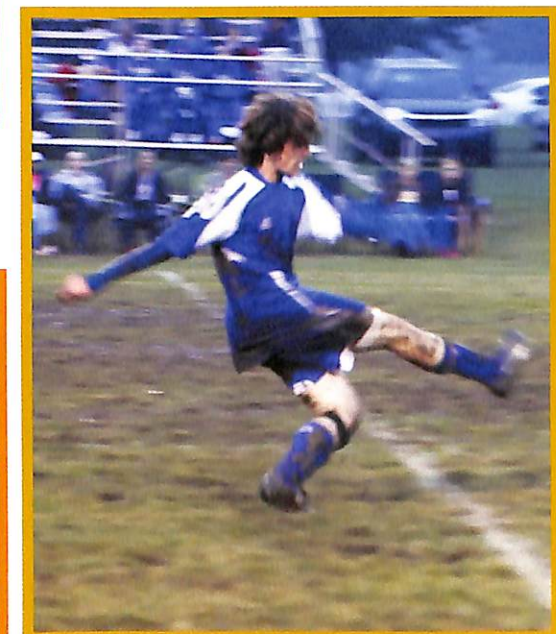

1. Dylan Rogers sprints to the ball during a game against rival opponent Hopkinsville High School. 2. Aldo Torres shoots the ball during a penalty kick, hoping to get another goal for the Falcons. 3. Cameron Raby takes the ball away from a Hopkins County Central opponent. 4. Blake Eslinger tries to settle the ball before sending it up the sides. 5. Coach Brown says the traditional prayer before each game hoping for an injury-free victory. 6. Caleb Stuart takes a shot during an intense warm up. 7. Dillon Schroeder kicks the ball down the field during the last season game against UHA. 8. Mikey Hiemall makes another amazing save during an away game against Russelville, giving his opponent no hope of winning. 9. Tony McDonald passes the ball to his teammate looking for an assist. 10. Determined to gain control of the ball, Cru Ullian takes off down the field attempting to score a goal.

David Sahms puts his game face on as he practices his shooting during warm ups before a home game.

For the FCHS Boys Soccer team, soccer season "began" last February. Working out through the summer brought the boys closer together as a team to have fun and make awesome memories. The boys were district and regional champions this year; a feat that had not happened since the early nineties. Robby Sahms, one of six captains, thought this season was amazing. "Since this was my senior year I just tried to have as much fun as possible, trying to make it all last. Winning districts and regionals was just an added bonus. I'll definitely miss it all and never forget a single moment." Through the ups and the downs the boys soccer team did their part in making an unforgettable season here at FCHS.

Despite the horrible field conditions, Cody Robinson manages to stay on top of his game and help win the regional game.

FIRST TO MARCH

By: Amber Spade

1. Alex Combs double checks his position on the field as he plays his important trombone part in "Louis, Louis." 2. Noah Nicanor focuses on keeping in rhythm as he performs in the halftime show. 3. Cole Dadswell looks at the audience in the stands as he prepares to move onto his next position on the field. 4. Chelsea Judd prepares to play her keyboard solo as Shantina Hartrum gets in her opening position. 5. The 2009 Falcon Band. 6. Not only does the band perform at pep rallies and at football halftimes, they also performed in the homecoming presentation. 7. Dakota Pike silently counts to herself as she twirls her flag and prepares to dance across the field. 8. Jessica Jones effortlessly plays her xylophone on the sideline. 9. Before each home game, the Falcon Band performs the National Anthem as the JROTC Color Guard presents the colors. 10. Meghan Strehle watches her conductor to make sure she doesn't miss any notes.

Band director, Mr. Don Hofe, conducts while the band performs their halftime show, "The Best Years."

Despite the freezing temperatures, Sarah Hockett manages to play a flawless performance on her tuba.

The brass section concentrates as they march their difficult routine.

FIRST DOWNS

By: Kaytlyn Rosynek

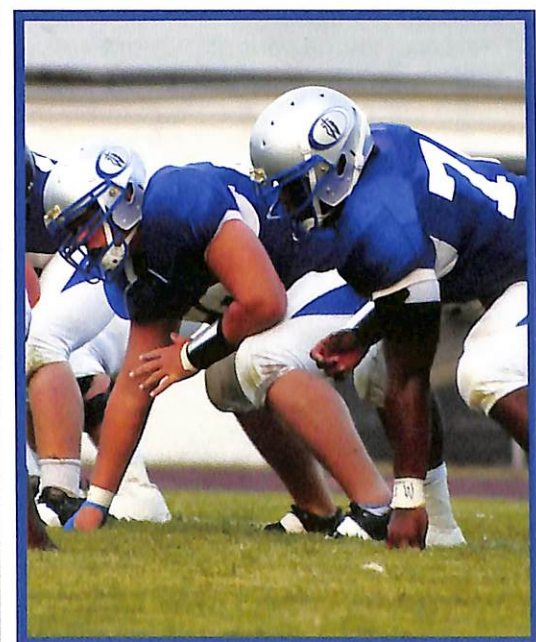

1. Captains Anthony Topps, Derrious Brown, Chris Allen, and Darien Crank meet in the middle of the field for the coin toss. 2. The Falcons defense sacks the Monroe County quarterback, causing an incomplete play. 3. Maquel Ross uses his strength to tackle an opponent to help out the defense. 4. Quarterback Antonio Andrews completes an amazing play as he sprints past his opponents for another touchdown. 5. The 2009 Falcon Football Team 6. The team runs through the banner at the annual Army Bowl against Fort Knox, to get pumped and ready for the kickoff. 7. Darien Crank sprints down the field and into the endzone for a touchdown. 8. Reace Hughes takes down a Fort Knox opponent. 9. Muhammad Shahid makes a catch and attempts to run with the ball trying to gain another Falcon first down. 10. Darien Upshaw and Chris Allen work together to get another field goal to add to the Falcon's evergrowing score.

Breon Moreno runs through a line of defenders on his way to the endzone.

The Falcons football season ended the way the team wanted. The team achieved the perfect season, 15-0, and became Kentucky State Champions for the third year in a row. The Falcons began conditioning during the winter of last school year and continued throughout the summer and into the fall, where they began their quest to Top the Hill. The Falcons dominated in the annual Army Bowl, complete with a 101st Airbourne Division airshow, crushed many new opponents, such as Hopkinsville High, and breezed their way through the district, regional, and state games. Maquel Ross said, "This season was great. We knew what we were up against each game and we stayed focused. I feel we got the job done."

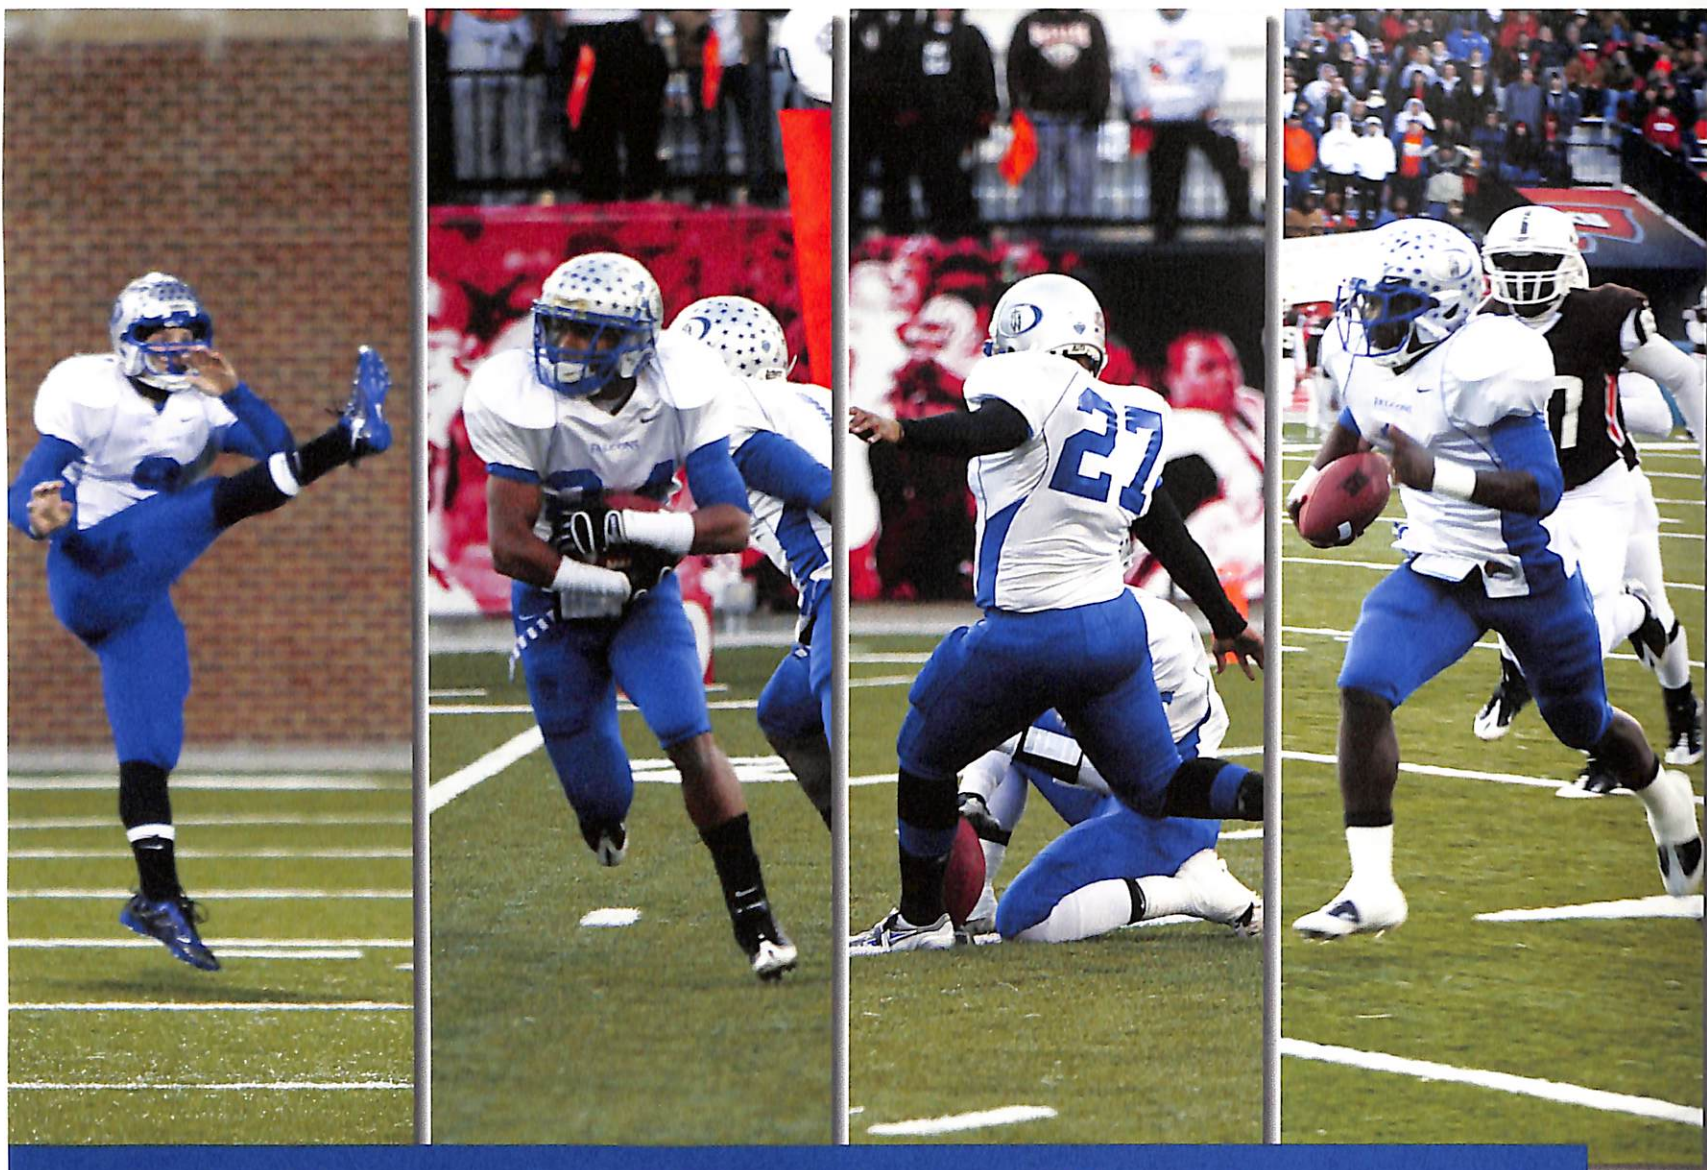

Brady Jorstad and Anthony Topps get ready to tackle their opponents, hoping for a successful play.

The offensive line coach, Coach Lowe, talks to the linemen about which plays they will use in the next quarter.

"Falcon Football about Family and Tim Williams"

-The Eagle Post

This headline posted in the Eagle Post explains who the FCHS Football team won their third consecutive KHSAA state championship for this season. No doubt the sudden loss of teammate Tim Williams was a shock to everyone, however, the Falcons used this as their motivation throughout the season. Starting practices in the unbearable heat during the summer through the freezing, windy winter, the Falcons became strong and unstoppable. Breezing their way through win after win during the regular season, then dominating each playoff game, the Falcons managed to come together as a family and make many unforgettable memories. Through determination, tremendous amounts of hard work, and dedication, they made history by becoming the first high school in Kentucky to win three consecutive state championship titles. They brought pride to the student body, faculty and staff, and the community. Way to Go Falcons!

FIRST TO THE FINISH LINE

By: Jackie Pierson

1. Scott Hill, Jake Tillinghast, and Levi Gibson push each other at the Regional Cross Country meet. 2. Bryce Faulkner works hard despite the extra weight of his arm cast. 3. Kelso Blair runs through a mud pit as he makes his way to the finish line. 4. Giving it everything he has left, Casey White struggles to sprint the last few meters of the race. 5. The girls sport their medals and celebrate another win at the Twilight Run on Halloween. 6. Patrick Miner races against the clock as he sprints to the finish line. 7. Emily Ward is determined to not let anyone pass her as she nears the finish. 8. Jackie Pierson works hard to keep ahead of the pack. 9. Bryan Beeler works hard to pass other teams as he enjoys the scenery. 10. Lockard Cassity shows that a consistent pace is the best way to succeed in a race.

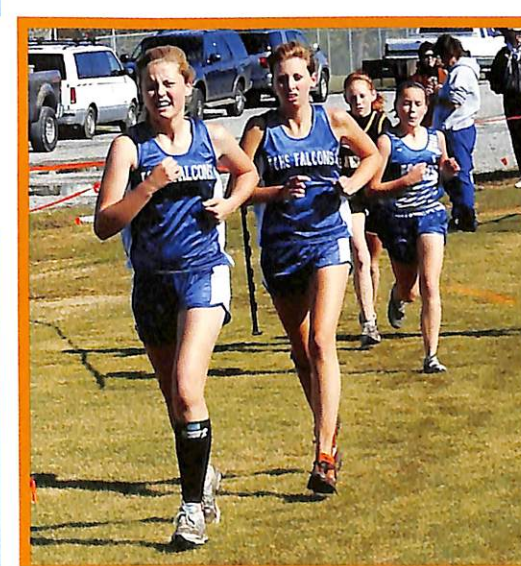

Jake Tillinghast successfully attempts to pass other runners at the end of the race.

The cross country squad sports their free-spirit in the team picture.

While most sports spend a small amount of time running during their conditioning months, cross country devotes their entire season doing just that; running. After losing more than half of their runners from the previous season, the team had to push themselves harder than they ever had. Practices varied from long seven mile runs to miles of lunges. Bryan Beeler said his favorite workout was the 400 meter repeats at the track. Bryan also said the biggest obstacle the team faced this year was the rain and the mud. "The courses at the majority of our meets were in horrible condition." The Falcon's hard work paid off when both the girls and guys team advanced to the state competition.

Amanda Miner and Lindsey Horton work together, keeping each other motivated as they run.

GOOD STUNTS

By: Kaytlyn Rosynek

1. Porshia Austin gets the crowd pumped up by leading the squad in "What You See is What You Get." 2. Kierra Stanley cheers along, with all her might, during the band song and dance "Hey! Go Blue!" 3. Tenesha Trammell smiles proudly as she performs a flawless arabesque at a football game. 4. Bree Buckler helps get the stands filled with Falcon pride during a home basketball game. 5. The 2009 FCHS Football Cheerleading Squad. 6. Despite the cold weather, Brittany Hendrickson has fun getting the crowd to cheer for the football team during a playoff game held at Austin Peay State University. 7. Performing stunts always entertains the crowd during halftime at basketball games. 8. The squad celebrates as Mr. Sharp announces another Falcon first down. 9. The girls work hard to get the football team motivated, the crowd excited, and stay uniform during each cheer. 10. Kiona Mosier prepares to dismount after performing a perfect stunt.

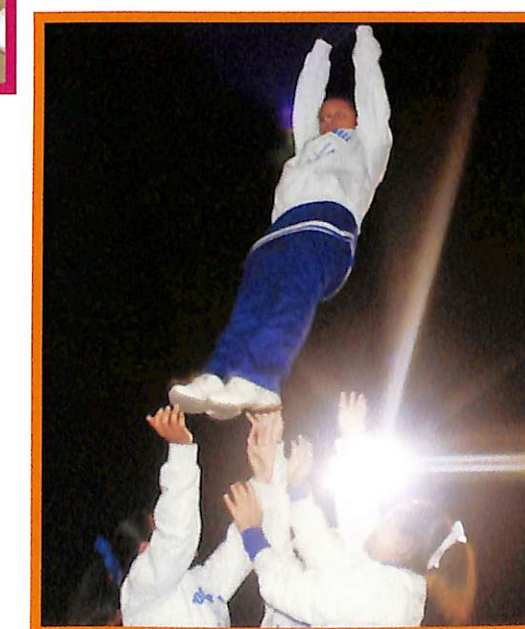

2010 Varsity Basketball Cheerleading Team

2010 Junior Varsity Basketball Cheerleading Team

The FCHS Cheer Team worked hard to support both the football team and girls and boys basketball teams. Tryouts for football cheerleading began in April 2009 for the upcoming season. The cheerleaders attended a camp over the summer to learn new dances and stunts to use during their routines at games and pep rallies. Throughout the football season the team made locker signs and run-throughs to support their football players. When basketball season came the team attended both girls and boys' home games; dancing at half-time and stunting whenever a time out was called. Porshia Austin, a senior captain, says, "The season was a lot of fun, and I made some amazing memories with the team this year."

FIRST TO THE COURT

By: Sarah Franklin

1. Antonio Andrews jumps high off the ground to get past the defender to make the basket. 2. Darriss Martin gets tripped while trying to beat an opponent to the ball. 3. Tre Powell tries to cut off his opponent to regain possession of the ball. 4. T.C. Elmore uses his height to his advantage, as he wins the tip off. 5. The 2009-2010 FCHS Basketball Team. 6. Jorge Cook looking to pass the ball to his teammate, hoping to score. 7. T.C. Elmore concentrates under the pressure of making his free throws. 8. The team brings it in at the end of warmups, trying to pump each other up for the game. 9. D.J. Davis jumps up around three opponents, hoping to make his lay-up. 10. Antonio Andrews shows off his dunking skills at a pep rally, and brings the crowd on their feet.

D.J. Davis and Tevin Neal trap a UHA player after coming down the court.

Tevin Neal slaps the ball away as the other team goes to shoot.

This year's boys' basketball team worked tremendously hard in every practice and it showed in every game they played. One thing this team has is discipline, on and off the court. They worked together as a team and became one huge family; they are always looking out for each other. The 2010-2011 season is looking very bright after the conditioning season this year. Junior, Shane Hempfield, had a few words to say about the season this year. "As a team, we had our ups and downs, but overall it was fun and I am looking forward to a great season next year."

T.C. Elmore shows off his skills as he warms up for the game against UHA.

FIRST TO THE BASKET

By: Cori Hatley

1. Shakiera Taylor blocks an opponent so teammate, Jenasia Daniels, has a clear shot. 2. Jenna Caraccilo proves she is not afraid to dive for the ball and steal it away. 3. Kalyn Crenshaw exhibits her ball handling skills. 4. Kendall Ladrillono dribbles and prepares to make her next move. 5. 2009-2010 Lady Falcon Basketball Team. 6. Cori Hatley attempts to steal the ball away from two opponents. 7. Cierra Laxton and Deanna Aponte-Anderson work together to block a Clarksville Academy opponent. 8. Haley Bolduc attempts to make a pass, while Carol Guillen in the background looks on. 9. Jenasia Daniels shows her willpower as she pushes her way through a UHA player. 10. Angie Rangel makes a hard drive down the court looking to score.

Kirsten Amorine starts off the game by showing her superior jump.

When starting a season it is one thing to be a little rusty or in need of some conditioning, but rebuilding a team literally from scratch is completely different. This was something the Lady Falcon Basketball Team definitely endured in a season full of new teammates, coaches, and experiences. Kendall Ladrillono describes the best part of the season as "starting from a baby team and bonding until everybody just meshed." She also said the hardest part was making it through, "a long, hard season" because it required a lot of dedication. Many players would have given up, but the Lady Falcons prided themselves by losing without defeat. They maintained the attitude of never being defeated no matter the score. From this, the coaches and players alike are excited to continue playing basketball, slowly but surely rebuilding the name and gaining back respect for FCHS girls basketball.

Shakiera Taylor jumps to score an easy lay-up for her team.

The Lady Falcons listen to Coach Jankowski while rehydrating on a short time-out.

FIRST TO PIN

By: Taylor Duplessis

1. Robert Wright uses his strength to turn his opponent onto his back and pin him. 2. Nick Ringle holds his opponent down while waiting for the referee to call the match. 3. David Sahms helps the team to a win by using his agility to set up the suicide cradle and pin his opponent in the first round. 4. Tyrell Jones exposes his opponent's back to the mat to score "back" points. 5. The 2009-2010 FCHS Wrestling Team. 6. Celeste Roby applies techniques she has learned at practice into a match and wins points for the team. 7. Johalbert Guillen works for the pin by using his strength and keeping his opponent on his back. 8. Zach Green uses a cradle to pin his opponent. 9. Robbie Sahms displays his skills with a textbook sprawl, preventing his opponent from scoring a takedown. 10. Chris Guilbeau maneuvers his opponent onto his back and pins him, winning points for the team.

Tyler Nikolao cross-faces his opponent and goes on to win the match at the Brentwood High School Invitational.

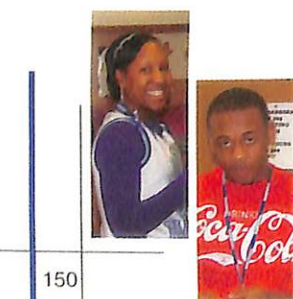

The FCHS Wrestling Team had many obstacles to overcome this season. From having a new coach to trying to cut weight, the wrestlers had to pull together to make it all happen. Countless hours of conditioning ensured that every member of the team knew exactly what hard work was. They knew what they had to do in order to win, and that's just what they did. The wrestlers won the title of regional runner-ups this year, making them state qualifiers; something that has never happened to the Fort Campbell wrestling team. Sam Gittings, a two year wrestler, thought this season has been one of the best the team has ever seen. "When I heard we would be getting a new coach I was skeptical, but once the season started everything fell into place. What I wanted most this season was to have fun but, to my surprise, I got so much more. I'll never forget what we accomplished this year." Though the team faced many challenges, they managed to achieve great things and made memories that they will never forget.

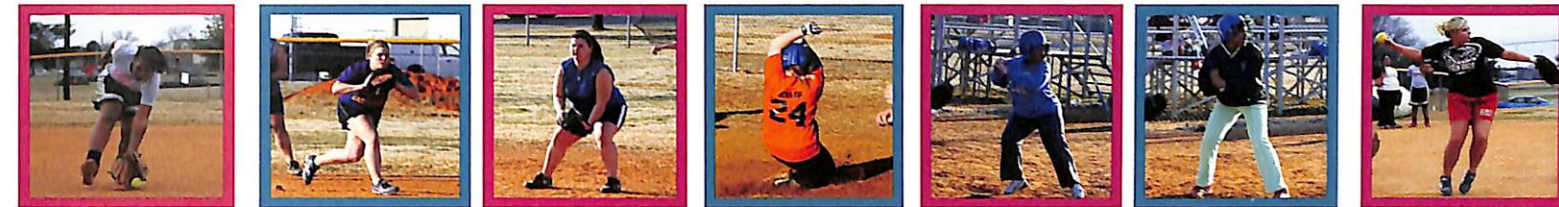

After the Blue/Grey Duals, the Falcon seniors show off their runner-up trophy.

2010 KHSAA Regional Runner-Ups

GOOD CATCHES

By: Taylor Duplessis and Sarah Franklin

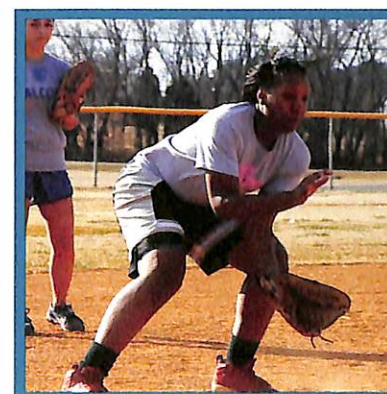

1. Kendall Ladrillono pops up and prepares to throw the ball to first base, hoping to gain an out. 2. Jessica Struck practices improving her batting technique for her upcoming game. 3. Kyra Bandy gets in her ready position at first base to catch the ball, while her other teammates get their practice in. 4. Jennifer Riley starts practice off right by doing running exercises, such as butt kicks, to warm up her legs and avoid injury. 5. The 2009-2010 FCHS Girl's Softball Team 6. Andriana Aponte Anderson listens to Coach Heather's instructions to help perfect her batting technique and learn the complicated signals. 7. Amber Spade looks to field a ground ball hit to second base. 8. Sarah Franklin practices catching for the pitchers during her warm-up routine at each practice. 9. Mahalia Stubbs-Anderson practices making her pitching flawless during practice so that it will be perfect during the games in the upcoming season. 10. Taylor Leidlein successfully fields a ground ball hit hard in the infield.

Freshman Allie Alfeld tries to take the spot as varsity pitcher by perfecting her pitching technique.

Brittany Gomez and Kendall Ladrillono warm up by catching for the pitchers.

Shakiera Taylor waits to field a ground ball, if hit to third base.

The FCHS Softball Team began conditioning this season in October. After countless hours of hard work, only 21 girls made the team and began practicing. The girls were also faced with the challenge of having a new coach, Heather Fabin. However, this was not a set back for the girls. They welcomed her with open arms and were determined to make this season a good one. The girls hope to improve as a team and not only win, but enjoy playing the game. Caitlynn Jay, a senior, has high expectations for this season. "I'm impressed with how the season has started and it seems like the girls will bond even more as a team. There has been no division among us and we are all anxious to see how we perform with our new coach."

The softball team gathers together during a practice to receive instructions from Coach Heather.

GOOD PITCHES

By: Amber Spade

1. Cody Jay practices his throw downs during his rigorous warm-up routine. 2. Shaune Boschulte catches a line drive and gets his opponent out at second base. 3. Casey Miller throws a perfect fast ball, gaining the team's third out. 4. Kelso Blair practices his throws from third to first base. 5. Cyle Jay effortlessly strikes out his Kenwood High School opponent. 6. Jorge Vera catches a pop fly smacked into far, left field, getting the batter out. 7. Chachi Borja strengthens his arm by tossing the ball around with a teammate before a scrimmage. 8. Jared Elliott safely slides into third base as a Clarksville Academy opponent attempts to get him out. 9. J.D. Swails throws the ball to homeplate to prevent the batter from advancing to the next base. 10. Jason Cowan gets in the ready position to prepare for any ball that is hit his way.

Jared Elliott concentrates on throwing the ball across homeplate, hoping to strike out the batter.

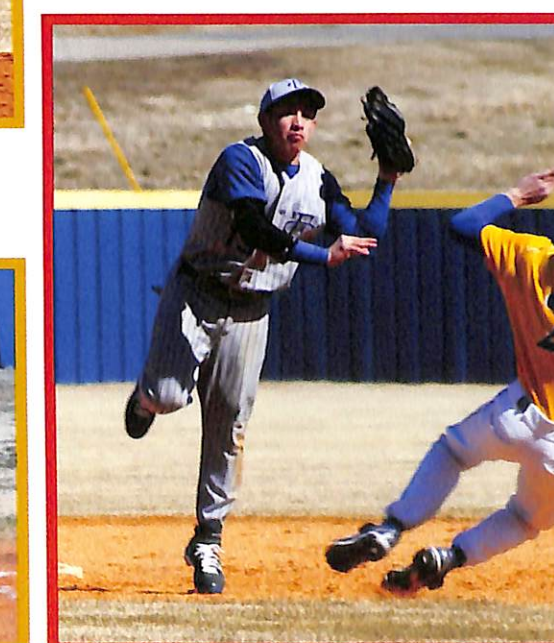

Koty Hix prepares to catch the ball at first base to get the runner out.

Antonio Andrews helps warm up his pitcher before beginning the next inning.

Baseball is a sport of accuracy, precision, and teamwork. The FCHS Baseball Team knows these important elements all too well. With their head coach recovering from back surgery and gaining a new assistant, Coach Hernandez, the team has worked profoundly hard to maintain the standards expected from them. Working through cold weather and with new teammates, these boys have managed to mesh together and play excellent games. Through wins and losses, the team still has fun making unforgettable memories. When asked about his thoughts about the team this year, Mikey Heimall responded with, "We have a really young team, but we have a lot of talent and a lot of players who can play anywhere you need them."

Pedro Hernandez makes a perfect catch and manages to get the runner out mid-slide.

FIRST T ACE

By: Keishla Valle

1. Coach Keenan gives the tennis team a quick pep talk before practice. 2. Josiah Crandell practices how to correctly hold the tennis racket. 3. Leaning back, Tamarah Webb prepares to make a perfect serve across the court. 4. Brandon Bechtol quickly returns the ball back to the opposing side hoping to gain another point. 5. Members of the tennis team listen closely to Coach Keenan's instructions as they prepare themselves for another intense workout at practice. 6. Daisha Braswell focuses on learning how to strike the ball to the correct side of her opponent's side of the court. 7. Rileigh Jorstad works on serving the ball with a powerful forehand, hoping to overpower her partner in a serving drill. 8. Sabrina French and Tamarah Webb support and encourage each other during a game of doubles against two other teammates. 9. E.J. Hinson extends his arm to return a low serve hit on his side of the court. 10. Aldrin Evangelista perfects his position and positions himself in the most accurate spot to return the ball to his opponent.

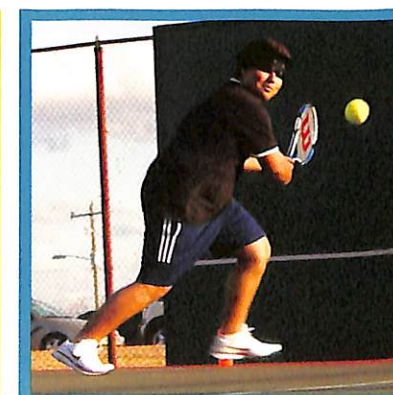

Using all of his upper body strength, Aldo Torres focuses on serving a powerful ball to the opposite side of the court hoping to win a point.

Another season of tennis is under way here at FCHS. With a new coach, Coach Keenan, and many new players, the team hopes to excel and meet a large amount of goals this year and unite as a team. Not only does each player on the team work extremely hard on improving their tennis techniques, but they also hope to exceed Coach Keenan's expectations of them. When asked about playing tennis Aldrin Evangelista responded "I perceive the sport of tennis as the most intellectual sport. You are able to manipulate where the ball lands." Overall the tennis team this year is looking forward to a great season.

About to throw the ball in the air, Kimberly Palacios focuses on where she wants the ball to go when she serves.

Kevin Phipps concentrates on slamming the ball onto the opponent's side of the court.

Keeping her eye on the ball, Katie Keenan prepares to return the ball back to her opponent.

FIRST TO GO THE DISTANCE

By: Scottie Brown

1. Nick Deans practices hurdles after the normal track workout is completed. 2. Brian Beeler, Cru Ullian, and Lavert Smith laugh at something Coach Johnson said as they do side lunges during dynamic stretch. 3. Preston Spade makes sure he does his "knee hugs" right during warm-ups. 4. Tenesha Trammell prepares to receive the baton for the 4x200 meter relay. 5. Scottie Brown successfully clears the bar during pole vaulting practice. 6. Jourdan Lewis does a practice run of the 4x400 meter relay before the next meet. 7. Reace Hughes throws the discus at practice. 8. Cru Ullian practices clearing opening height for high jump with the bungee cord. 9. Pedro Gelpi shows off his Spiderman hat and gloves while doing the "spiderman" stretch. 10. Ellen Menton uses all of her strength to get as high as she can while doing "bounds" during warm-ups.

The FCHS Track Team listens to Coach McKillip's announcements before practice begins, a daily routine for the team.

Do the high jump, long jump, triple jump, pole vault, shot put, discus, 800 meters, 100 meter dash, and even the dreaded 3200 sound crazy to you? Not to these dedicated athletes. While the official season does not start until the middle of March the team starts conditioning the first day back from Christmas break no matter what the weather is. Too cold outside? The team will practice in the hallways and the common area, because as Coach McKillip says, "while they are at home sleeping we are getting better." During the season the team becomes a family; spending countless hours on the bus, in bleachers, and at practice. While this year the team was met with the obstacle of not having a track, they worked hard and as senior Anthony Topps declared, "it definitely wasn't cool not having a track but it was nice not having to rush and drive to the track everyday."

Chris Holder and Cody Wilson practice hand-offs the Friday before a meet to be ready for their race the next day.

Kendall Smith explodes upwards as he throws the shot put at practice.

Treyvon Neal practices a "California" style hand-off with one of the other track team members.

Justean Anthony 9th

What's your list of pros and cons about being a new student at FCHS?

Pro - New place and people
Con - Not being able to interact with students because I don't know them.
Pro - New beginning
Con - First time living on an Army post

First... the Good News

is after a long, hectic year of numerous late night study sessions, riding the roller coaster of high grades and low grades, hearing "tuck in your shirt, please" 10 million times, and suffering from anxiety attacks as we finish our homework assignments five minutes before the seminar bell rings, we are still alive and kicking. Looking back on the year, we come to realize there is still no bad news. Even as the senior class moves onto the mysterious world of college and a slew of new freshmen move in, there is no bad news. We had fun together while it lasted and we have this book to help us keep those precious memories fresh in our minds forever.

Sincerely,
Amber Spade and Courtney Richardson
Co-Editors-in-Chief

On behalf of the students and faculty at Fort Campbell High School, we'd like to take this opportunity and say thank you and goodbye to our principal, Mr. Dave Witte. Thanks for all of your effort and support that you have dedicated to the school and the people within it. You will be missed and we hope you enjoy your time on the golf course in the many years to come.

SENIOR FAREWELLS

Kaitlyn Aleman
Good luck Class of 2010!

Chris Allen
I had fun for the past 3 1/2 years. I have learned a lot of lessons in life. Mr. Mac!!!! MONDAY!!!!!! I'm going to miss everyone who influenced me and guided me in the right direction. Mrs. Stevens even though you are gone, you still had a huge impact on my desire to do well in school and I appreciate it. Coach Marciano, you taught me so much in the game of football and helped me with the opportunity to continue my career in the sport. Ms. Ladd, you have given me some hard times in class, but you became someone I could go to; I knew you would never judge me, and I appreciate that we could talk about anything.

Kirsten Amorine
The tragedy in life is not that everyone must die, but that so many don't start living until right before they die. Too many people waste their existence on just making a living, rather than mustering up the courage to get a life. So grow...and get a life.

Antonio Andrews
I would like to thank everyone who pushed me to greatness and kept me motivated especially my boy Josh 'Pac-Man' Smith. I give thanks and respect to my teachers, coaches, and mentors; they made me into the person I am today, "WELL RESPECTED." They taught me the true value of hard work and dedication. The one person who broke me down and changed my life around was Mrs. Stevens. I love her for that. I will miss the Class of 2010 greatly. To the squad (Crank, Tre, and Mac Daddy Bre) we jugged the whole year and had our trials and tribulations, but we remain boys for life. I never thought this year would go by this fast, but we have had one heck of a ride. For you incoming freshmen, make sure you start off right; your teachers expect only the best of you.

Deanna Aponte Anderson
Man, man, man! I never thought this day would come so soon... To some this is good-bye, but I hope not forever, and to others I hope it is bye forever, lol. Well, I just wanted to thank those who helped me get through school and who were always there for me. Josh, you are the greatest; you always make me smile and laugh about the stupid stuff you say or do. Marcuz, you're the only one I can fight with then talk to a minute later, lol, because you are so goofy. TJ, you were always there when I needed to talk. Kelsey, we can sit there and laugh and laugh about nothing; you're the coolest. Tell your fish I said "Hi." Jenna, we played all the sports together; you're my left hand man. To everyone, THANKS for being there for my senior year.

Porshia Austin
This day came quicker than I thought. I'm not even going to lie, and I'm ready to start my new beginning. This senior year was pretty crazy and we made memories. :) I have not gotten to this point in my life without guidance and direction from so many people. I want to thank God for protecting me through everything - the good and the bad. To my parents I love you and thanks for keeping me straight. Big Bro Tyrone, you're still my big burrito. I appreciate all the things you do for me. Thank you to all the teachers and coaches that have made an impact on my life. To the amazing friends, thanks for keeping me laughing, love you all and y'all have a place in my heart. Cheerleaders enjoy cheering. Make memories. :) Big shout out to my haters; y'all helped make me who I am today. Goodbye FCHS! Congratulation to Class of 2010, we did it!

Stephanie Aviles

Colin Balecha
Wow...they weren't lying when they told me that our best and last year of high school would fly by so quickly. I would like to thank all of my teachers throughout my 4 years of high school. Despite all the hard times among us, you all have taught me how to succeed and become accomplished in life, and I sincerely appreciate that. I want to thank my parents for being there beside me throughout adversity and getting me the things I needed for every occasion. I want to thank my awesome friends: The Thunder cats, The Wolf pack, and my other great friends outside of that. You all have given me great memories to keep throughout my life from fire extinguisher wars, camping at the high school, shooting BB guns, and the list goes on. I couldn't ask for anything better. I hope to see you all in the future if we have a high school reunion or something. Let's all live our dreams, stay in touch, and don't forget... "IT'S NOT THE GOING; IT'S THE COMING!"

Kyra Bandoy
Oh my word...FCHS. I am pretty bummed out to be leaving, but I guess it's what I'm supposed to do. My 3 years at FCHS have been pretty great. I want to thank all my teachers; especially the one's who truly cared. I wouldn't be here without you all. You crazy people I call my friends, Justin Swails, Treyce Brock, and Harley Davis, I'll miss you guys too. Abbi, Chanelle, Destinee, Mahalia (Management '09) you guys made my football season worth it. I want to thank Casey Miller for making these last 3 years of my life the best 3 years I've ever had. You weren't just my boyfriend, you were my best friend. I don't think anybody can understand how much I truly care for you. I'm so happy I met you. I love you.

Bryan Beeler

Joseph Bodiford

Jonathan Borowiec
Farewell to you peeps, who I knew and didn't know. I know some of you will cry at my departure but don't worry I won't be back. Cheerio, you are dismissed.

Miguel Boschulte
To all my teachers throughout my high school career, I thank you all for putting your time and effort into helping me succeed. To my long lasting friends, for being there for me when times got tough and helping me stick it out until the end. The memories we forged in high school will last a lifetime. Singing Mayday Parade songs in physics, going to MTAC, watching band practice, hanging out, driving around - things we did together, memories that I will hold close to me. You guys are my family. Keep in contact; I will visit often. It's only high school! Let's finish our lifetime and make it wonderful. "With futures intertwined so tight...with a love bound so strong...nothing can tear us apart...Nothing..."

Victor Bradley
How this school has changed me: I'll never look at polo shirts the same way again. The lesson learned here that will most impact my life: Inevitably there is a limit to the amount of order that one can impose without becoming tyrannical. What has amazed me most: How many people there are who know inexcusably little and how little they seem to care. The sum of my experience expressed in a dead tongue: veni vidi vici (I came, I saw, I conquered) or cogito ergo sum (I think, therefore, I am.) Proposed school motto: FCHS, a tolerable way to kill four years.

Daisha Braswell
During these 4 impressionable years at FCHS, I have learned much. This statement may seem obvious - since the objective of high school is to learn - but learning Newton's Law and cosines were not the most important lessons I learned. Mrs. Schoonover helped me find my voice, Mrs. Fox helped me discover my passion, Señor Terry showed me what it means to be a true "scholar." High school taught me to roll with the punches and keep on fighting. High school also showed me how blessed I am to have such wonderful support from my family and friends: Casey and Lockard...we have been fighting this uphill battle since the 5th grade! I love y'all! Mahalia and TraLisa - I'll miss us being the loudmouth sopranos! Aldrin and Victor B "THEY'RE ALL FASCISTS!" Cheer family -stay FRESH! Last but NOT least I would like to thank my amazing God. Without Him, I wouldn't have made it.

Derrious Brown
First off I want to thank all my HATERS! You guys really made my 4 years of high school fun =D. I have to thank God for letting me get this far. I have to thank my family, the Davis family, the Williams family, my coaches, and some teachers for believing in me. Class of '10 we were dummy LIVE! I MIGHT miss y'all, lol jk, I will, I will miss some of you underclassmen too. I can't forget about the little people. I'm going to miss my SQUAD. Y'all my boys for sho! I love my BESTFRIENDS Kristabell Rue and Annabell Garcia, we've been through so much, so many fights, and we still stand together being best friends--now that's love. ""#&$ and syrup 'til I die...matter of fact it's going to kill me!" "So you mad? Mmkayi!" "Oooooohhh S*@#!" R.I.P. T.J.W. Goodbye Fort Campbell!

Scottie Brown
After 4 LONG years, it is finally over. Courtney, I love you and our crazy adventures; no matter how many times we almost died, we went back for more. Shannon, we have yet to find our old abandoned church and have a crazy rave, but we will; slash, have you chewed your Swedish Fish lately? Jourdan, BFF soul mate, mac and cheese Monday was the best. Eggplant and Pumpkin, I love y'all! Ashley- "I'm on a date" "With who?" "Charlie...O'Charley's!" Jenna, if it's not me it's you. Putting clothes on inside out, crazy men with baseball bats, "SHE'S GOT MY DOOOO!", Dinasour, "The Scottie," hitting potholes, track practice, Wednesdays, never tying my own shoes, Zebras!, making shirts, Raby Juice, sweet tea and grits, Diet Cokes with extra salt, "GREAT GAME GUYS!", and watching Disney movies.

Brionna Buckler
We finally made it. I never thought we'd see this day, it has come so fast. Thank you to everyone who has helped me achieve my goals. As I look back on my high school career and see my flaws, I don't look at them as mistakes but as lessons I've had to learn the hard way. To my fellow students, hold on. Don't give up. Push! The struggle is almost over! To my brother, Bk, I love you, and it'll be so different going to school without you. And to the cheer team, you are all like my family. I love y'all! Mrs. Gammons, I love you mom! "Obstacles are put in your way to see if we really want to reach our goals or if we just thought we did." - Alyssa Farmer

Lacey Bullock
We are finally at the top of our class. This year has gone by fast, but the times we spent will last a lifetime. I have enjoyed the good times and the bad times. The school I regret; my peers I could never forget. Walking at graduation will be a piece of cake, but leaving my friends will be a heartbreak. I enjoyed my time here as hard as I tried; the times I missed school, I dared to cry. I do not want to say goodbye, so I will say farewell until we meet again.

Kanoolehua Camanse
I want to thank everybody at FCHS for making my first and last year a memorable one. I want to give a special thanks to my parents, Shell and Tomas Calavera, for giving me the push and motivation that I needed to get as far as I am now. I want to thank Tiffani Caldwell for being one of the truest friends since I've moved here; she picked me up when I was down. I'd also like to say I am thankful for my best friend, Victoria René Hart, for being my inspiration since the 7th grade. Even though there is distance between us, it didn't stop all the motivational speeches over the phone. I would like to say I love you and thank you all for the support.

Cody Cartusciello
High school was a breeze. Now comes the hard part. LIFE! I've had a lot of fun times at this prison. I loved skipping seminar. Life is either a daring adventure or nothing at all. I made high school as fun as I could but it wouldn't have been fun without the friends along the way. But it's time to move on and become a billionaire. So long, farewell.

Lockard Casaly
Dear FCHS, despite all your efforts, I've managed to have the best high school years I could ever ask for. The most impressionable mentor I encountered here is Coach Lange, but like he has done, I'm choosing to move on to bigger and better things. The memories are endless and the people who have touched my life are countless. I owe a lot of thanks to my parents as well, for tolerating my stubborn, opinionated self, but I would also like to remind them that it's their fault! Mercedes, I could never ask for a better sister. You've always had my back and I have no idea why. To all those still left here...speak your mind! You'll never get what you want in life without having any enemies...jus' saying. I do what I want. GOLDEN!

Xenia Castro

Adriana Chavez
High school is a major stepping stone for many people who want to try and graduate from college one day. My 4 high school years have been some of the best and worst that anyone could have gone through. I've had so many amazing memories here that it's almost hard to imagine that I'm done with this chapter in my life. I have few regrets and so many things I am grateful for. Congratulations to my graduating senior class for making it this far, and also thanks to everyone that has been there for me because I couldn't have made it this far. Class of 2010!!!!

Jerome Clark
Good Luck Class of 2010!

Shelton Cole

Alexander Combs

Olivia Cook
Today will be a memory. Yesterday is a memory drifting away. Memories are bittersweet, some more in some ways. Fear of moving on, afraid of change, in a minute this will just be a memory. Memories are all pain in vain. Memories are like dreams, a reflection of the past. Don't forget about the past without memories there is no yesterday. Make every day one to remember a memory to move on with no regrets. Goodbye to everyone who made my memories what they are instead of being close, we will be rather far. Our lives will go on, but one thing is true the happiness I have is all thanks to you. I'll miss you all. Lindsey, you made high school an experience for me. I wish you the best. Brady, I love you. We may take different paths, but we will be in each other's hearts. God Bless.

Chanelle Crank
OMG I can't believe we are about to graduate. I never thought the day would come and here we are. To my best friends FLOCKA and FREAKYDEAKY, I love you and I am going to miss the times we spent in high school together especially our junior year. I would like to thank all my teachers for helping. I've only been here 2 years and it feels like I have been here forever. I am glad I finished my last 2 years at FCHS. To Coach B. I will miss you so much. You have done so much for me and I love you like a father. To Coach McKillip, Coach Marciano, Coach Moore, and Coach Lowe thanks for pushing me to be my very best. To the underclassmen, I hope you guys give it your all and never settle for less.

Darien Crank
A lot has been accomplished over the years of high school, especially the last two! From being a Second Team All-Stater to graduating with a GPA over 3.0, this experience has been amazing. FCHS is a great atmosphere to be in. No matter how bad the dress code sucks and how strict the rules are, the people are caring and are willing to do whatever necessary to get us to succeed. I want to give special thanks to the Falcon Football coaching staff for always being there for me. "You made me a better person." I also would like to thank the Falcon teachers for all their help and caring support. I don't have to name names; you know who you are! I'll miss you guys; you all are UNFORGETTABLE!!

Karyn Crawford

Cole Dadswell
Thanks to everyone who helped make the past 4 years some of the best. I will definitely miss the time we spent together. It's hard to believe that almost 4 years have passed since I moved to FC. At the same time, though, I'm sure everyone is eager to go out and face the world that's waiting outside. Good luck to everyone as you go your own ways; to both the seniors who are graduating this year, and the juniors and underclassmen who will soon. Tomorrow never knows what's coming at it, and right now, we are.

Kenneth Davis
My years of high school are over and I'm moving on to bigger and better things. Thanks to all of the people that I have known that made this a year to remember. I cannot wait to go to college where I will see new faces and learn new things. Although we are all moving on, there are always new challenges in our future.

Kevin Davis

Timothy Davis

Abbi Deno
So... I really don't know what to write in this thing, but I want to thank Ms. Ladd and Ms. Robinson for being such amazing teachers!! You both taught me a lot! Oh, and to my sister, Michaela, have fun next year and stay out of trouble; I know you're moving but take what you went through this year, and apply it to your new school. I won't be so close to help you out next year, I love you. Kyra!! You're amazing and I love you, STATE OH EIGHT, I will never forget that :) and Ms. Julie Lopez, ahh... we had lots of fun this summer.. let's do it again. Well FC, see you later.

Ariel Dezellem

Jared Elliot
Wow senior year...I still can't believe it. I've lived here for 12 years now and watched my friends come and go. While I've been here, I might have changed the ways things happened or the situations I was in, but the outcome, I wouldn't change one bit. I'd like to thank my mom and dad for pointing me in the right direction. Dex and Antonio, calculus was killer but we made it through. Tony and Chris, we got some memories in engineering I'll never forget. And this quote by Ralph Emerson is what helped me get through my last year. "Do not go where the path leads, instead go where there is no path and leave a trail."

Tyler England
Future seniors, good luck and don't slack off. This year determines your fate. Mrs. Greene, thanks for being here for me since my 9th grade year; you've taught me so much and I will put the knowledge you've given me to good use. My coaches, thanks for helping me through a hard time last year and helping me get my strength back. Y'all have taught me so much on what it means to better yourself athletically and physically. My friends, you are amazing; without y'all I would be nothing. I love you all and good luck in the future. I'll see you all soon. Finally to my brother, don't fall down the wrong path. Do what is right and what dad has taught us. Listen to the teachers who've taught me; they know what they're talking about. Even though we may fight a lot, you're still my brother and always will be. Good luck little bro. Peace out Fort Campbell!!

High school epiphanies: English - reading Romeo and Juliet was INDEED a tragedy. Science - Isaac Newton stood on giants. Math - not as easy as pi. History - to sum it up, repetitive. Don't get me wrong though, high school wasn't a total waste of time. I just discovered a thousand ways not to graduate.

Richard Ferguson
To the few good teachers at this school, thank you very much for the learning experience. To the rest of you, especially leadership positions, I won't miss you.

Neil Patrick Flores

Ashley Gibson
Sophomore year. Déjà vu jokes. "I knit sweaters yo!" Soccer bus rides. Spring Break '08. "TOGETHER!" McJagger. Bird poop hints. Moots and Toots. Dr. Jackal. "That's Ripe!" Rollie and Tootsie. The friend that told me Mexicans kidnapped him and took his kidney. Best Best Friend. Your "stupid weather forecast." My boyfriend Alex. O'Charley's dates. Red M&Ms and alarm clocks. Planning a toilet paper wedding at the softball field. Planning to live in Alaska with penguins. "I can't drive because I don't have a spare tire" excuses. "I smell a rat!" Car Surfing. Cross Country. "God gave us memory so that we might have roses in December."-James Matthew Barrie.

Kevin Gilbert
Well, it has been a crazy 4 years, the fights, homework, the bad food, teachers, friends, the go crazy dances and those crazy pep rallies. Many cool points to my past and current teachers, you all are in my memories for life because you guys helped me get to where I am right now. Because I know some of you teachers, I'm sure when you sitting in those chairs, looking at every senior you know or was in your class, receiving their diplomas, at that moment you're thinking in your head "I taught that kid and look at where he/she is now. I helped that kid graduate." I'm sure that's the best feeling ya'll will feel, but when we students look out to you teachers were thinking, "Man, those teachers are sure excited to see us get this diploma." (Laughing) But I know when I walk out those doors, a whole new world is opening up for me. I'm going to miss the memories here, but I'm going to miss everyone that had helped me succeed and I THANK YOU!!!! So, I guess this is farewell, but it's not going to be last time I'll see everyone again, I promise that much!!!! Oh yeah, seniors I hope your dreams take you, to the corners of your smiles, to the highest of your hopes, to the windows of your opportunities, and to the most special places your heart has ever known. Because the future belongs to those who believe in the beauty of their dreams.

Jenaro Gonzalez

Shannon Grammel
Boy, we've had a real good time, and I wish you the best on your way. Be you honest friend, yeah; I'll love you forever. Up in the clouds, we'll be higher than ever. The story of us, it always starts the same: not psychotic or dramatic. We live a cute life, soundfematic, glamophonic, electronic, disco, baby. Not sure what it means, but this photo of us, it don't have a price. I've never seen one like that before. Tommy is a monster. Sunglasses cover up my blue eyes. No, you can't read my poker face. It's some kind of joke. I'm obsessively opposed to the typical, but it's alright. Just dance. Grove. Slam. Work it back. Let's have some fun. This beat is sick. I want your everything as long as it's free. Play that song where everything was everything, but everything is over. You've left me speechless.

Megan Grebner
Many people have said that their time in high school was something they'll never be able to forget, and even though this sentiment is not always entirely positive, I agree that it is indeed true. I will not say that my time here has been extremely enjoyable, but I cannot say that it was entirely all that bad. I have come to accept the lessons I have learned and appreciate the experiences that high school has offered me and am more than ready to move on to bigger and better things. I only hope that I can continue to learn more as I step into the future and look back on the moments I spent at Fort Campbell with fondness.

Christian Hall

Nick Harman
I've only been here a year, but it's been one of the craziest. So many friends from last year graduated or moved, but new ones have come. Now that we're leaving, I realize how fun high school really was. From bonfires, to pizza parties, to accidentally getting punched in the face, to the Crawfish Boil, to cashing checks with Lockard, to stealing Ashley's car, to getting my car Post-It noted, to the state game, to playing competitive Uno in seminar with Kelsey and Reace, to winning soccer region, to after prom, to Club, to missing movies because Max got hungry, to breaking Jackie's car, and to all the other memories I forgot to mention. It's been great, but for now, GOODBYE FC! HELLO UK! See you there TraLisa and Morgan! Later! WF!

Shantinna Hartrum
To all my friends who have been with me all 4 years I've been at this school, to those who know what sha-oreos are, to those who sang All Star, and other songs, on the bus, to those who sat in Papa John stadium in the freezing cold, to those who laughed with me and couldn't stop, to the only guy I know who can do the splits, and to the friends I have who had us laughing when all the cheerleaders were staring, I'll miss you all. I can't believe it has been 4 years. They went by so fast. (Keep your head in the game because it's going to be a rough ride with all the drama that as accumulated.) May 21st, I'll see you there. Good luck Class of 2010 and beyond.

Kelsey Henderson
I'm ecstatic that I'm finally graduating and getting the opportunity to live on my own. Reace Hughes, my future husband, I'm glad you moved here and that I found a "legeat" best friend. I couldn't imagine how boring my senior year would have been without you. Ross thanks for always giving me the dumbest looks; they are just increasing the chance for me "jwoww" you. Even though you guys constantly laugh at and make fun of me, I still love you guys. Dee, you're so weird, so you make me laugh. Mac, you're the best. Ms. McCullough thanks for tolerating us playing Uno every seminar. I'm psyched for Chico State!

Erin Horkey

Lindsey Horton
"What lies behind us, and what lies before us, are tiny matters compared to what lies... within all of us." As my time at FCHS is coming to a close I would like to say the past 4 years have flown by, and I'm SO glad my time here is almost over. All of my hard work has paid off because I'm getting out of Fort Campbell and moving on into the REAL world and leaving the drama behind. I couldn't have gotten through this year without everyone on the XC team, Bevie, Maranda, Olivia, and Jacque. Good luck 2010 (:

Reace Hughes
I've only been here for a year, and THANK GOD for that. The only thing to do here in Fort Campbell is to play sports so I'm playing basketball. Thanks to all my good friends for making this year bearable. Kelsey, my future wife, Ross, never give up that seat Rosa. Jourdan, I hope your future Spartan babies are awesome, unless your abs eat them for protein. The Jersey Shore is the coolest show ever, Kelsey and Ross I will Snooki you.

Da'Shae Jackson

Whitney Jackson
Wow! I can't believe this is the last year I will have to walk these halls. It was fun while it lasted. I would like to thank all my teachers who never gave up on me, you taught me how not to be scared of setting goals that may seem impossible to achieve. I am very proud to be one of the couple people in my family who've made it this far in life. I would like to thank my wonderful people who been there for through thick and thin! Jasmine Nickens has been my best friend since 9th grade. I love her so much! And shout outs go to, Lashonda (Pork chops an' Gravy) Porterrrrrrr, Angie Davis, and Shea Jackson. I love you all and keep me in your prayers and I'll do the same HOLLAAAA!

Caitlynn Jay
I could not have made it here without you all. KJ's + TH for teaching me to make situations adventurous. HF, you are my role model, for the donut fights and bake sales. TJ, you make no sense, but you will take me to the red train one day! MM, SL, SB, JM, you are the best coaches out there. BD, I'll never forget your sarcasm and all the memories. "Are those cookies?" I love you Piggy. MSA thanks for listening to the complaining and bringing me out of my shell. Chit, I love you Butterball! KB, "Oh My Hacking God" putting food and drinks in the Gatorade canisters makes us resourceful. I love Simba! CC, I'm sorry for the hair incident. Love is all I have for you Jeepers Creepers. AG, McJaggerr!, MNGMNT, we all hated each other at some point, but I love you guys.

Kristen Kirkland
Though we've only known each other for a short period of time, I hope we'll stay friends even after high school. We both met each other as new students to FCHS and new to military life style. No matter what happens in life, know I will always be a phone call away. Rachel Robbins, you are a great friend.

Clara LaRue
Even though this is my first year here at FCHS, it will also be my last. I will miss a lot about being in high school, but the main things I will miss are my friends and the memories I have about high school. I remember my first day here at FCHS. I remember knowing only one person in the whole school, and she wasn't in any of my classes, but as time went on I met new people, and I can honestly say I wouldn't change John or Ashley for anything in the world. I know I couldn't have survived without my best friend Ashley aka Fork and my boyfriend John. There were many days when I didn't want to get out of bed, and the only reason I did was to see them. Thank you for motivating me. Oh, and I love you, family.

Jacquelynne Littlefield

Julie Lopez
Four years goes by really fast. If nothing else, FC has been interesting. (: I want to thank all my friends that made the 2 years I spent here amazing. Sometimes it's been terrible, sometimes it's been great, and I wouldn't change any of it. I've made so many good memories. Thank you to all the teachers who did their best preparing me for college AND life. I hate to say it but I'm going to miss this school. This is the end of something great, but it's the beginning of something even better. Congratulations to the Class of 2010!

Dexter Manning
Good-bye FCHS it has been a great 3 years. I want to say see you later to my boys Antonio and Jared, to my wife Dae Dae, to the bestie Julianna, Ja'cque and TRISH, to Treyce who is fresher than me, to Breeon - I'm on unlimited forever, and to Kendall, Justin, Ross, Zach, Shelton and Pat. "I hope that my achievements in live shall be these - that I will have fought for what was right and fair, that I will have risked for that which mattered, and that I will have given help to those who were in need, that I will have left the earth a better place for what I've done and I've been."- C. Jullanna Martinez
So long, farewell to you my friends, goodbye for not until we meet again. (Yes, it is the Out of the Box song.) I've been here for a good 2 years. Something I can tell you right off the back is friends have come and gone so fast. Believe it if you want, but honestly, you do find your true friends in this roller coaster ride of 4 years that never seem to end, but also came to an abrupt halt just as quickly as it began. Thanks to my BEST(EST) friend Nicole Marie. Without her, I don't think I could've made it thorough this last year. Seminar junior year in Ms. Watts's class baking brownies for birthdays was always a blast. Seminar senior year with Chocolate and Fatz; I always had a blast (giving and getting massages.) Class in Auntie Mary was always fun, we always had something to talk and debate about. I enjoyed all the classes I've had in FCHS. I'll see y'all. Toodaloo. (:

Victor Martinez
To all my teachers and friends here at FCHS or as I like to call it, "the high school that never closes-beyond all reason." I owe Fort Campbell so much because I have experienced many events in my time here. These experiences include becoming the first Spanish teacher aide as a freshman, representing courage for Student of the Month in April, participating and volunteering at Camp We Can/Teen Club. Teachers, friends, and faculty here at FCHS are some of the nicest and caring people I have ever met. I leave the Falcon grounds, but I will never stop being a Falcon. I began as a follower; but now I will take all I have learned and become a leader, teaching others what I have learned. I thank FCHS for opening my eyes to new horizons and sending me soaring toward a new future!

Robert Maseda

Nick Mastrian
Finally! The last 4 years have been great! Chloe, the last 2 years have been crazy, but I'm so happy I met you. You taught me so much about myself. To my friends and coaches in football, thanks for all the fun. Mr. Mac...PAMMM! Tyler, Colin, Cody, Chris, Bryan, everyone I've called my friend, thanks for the memories. I'll never forget bike rides, July 4th, fire extinguishers, starting lunch tables, new dirty words, state championships, arguments with Darth Ladd, mailbox-car collisions, 6 crackers in 30 seconds, the pool at night, down time, carnivals, my days in El Paso, getting kidnapped and losing a kidney in Mexico, hanging with Uncle Chad with my friends, the tripod, walks around post, Trent's fake Mexican birthday, FC2, field trips, "going to San Antonio", mistakes, racing tornadoes, high school all around. I love you guys! I loved everything. Life's a garden, Dig it. Thundercats, HOOOOOO!

Stephen McCoy
This is my senior farewell. After I am done typing this farewell, I will never have to type another one of Mrs. Greene's papers again. I'll start by saying goodbye to the boy's bathroom because I'll miss it. I'll miss the wrestling room and the stairs we had to run for endless hours. I will also miss how ten minutes of stairs felt like hours. I'm not going to miss the lunch at this school, which made me completely skip it and starve myself. I will miss the long bus rides to random schools and places I have never heard of or ever knew existed. I will also have to say goodbye to the few teachers at this school who have completely changed my life for the better. They have made me a better person and taught me to be myself and always stay kind to everyone.

Tony McDonald
My farewell will NOT be a goodbye. I only want to thank those that helped me move on to the next step and made high school the most for me. Thanks to SGM and COL, Coach Lange, Mrs. Greene, Mr. Garnett, Coach Brown, Mr. Gillis, Mr. Gilbert, and those cadets that presented challenges to me, strengthening my leadership.

Danielle McDonald
I hope in the 4 years in high school your heads are full of knowledge, hopes, and dreams. I hope that all of you have found a path to follow or make your dream come true and that you are leaving here with a process. I know I did and will. The past 2 years I was here, I found, my dream; my process but not on my own. There are many people in this school who were helpful when I needed a push to go to the next step. Some are teachers; some are friends, but most were other students. School is and will always be a competition. Who got an A on a test? Who got into the college they wanted? Who has the highest class rank? I would like to thank all of you for doing your best and making me do mine.

Jared McQueer
Wow, 4 years already passed by that quick? But now I am finally out of this place and on to college. It was fun while it lasted, but all things must come to an end. I want to say thank you to both of my parents, Jason and Christy Forster. They have pulled me through everything and pushed me to succeed. They have raised me to be the young man that I am today. I want to say peace-out to D-Rain and W and I hope that next year flies by for you guys. I will be flying you out to Colorado whenever I can. Certain people will always be remembered, and those people know who they are. Allie, thank you for always being there for me, I love you and look forward to our life together. Thank you to all of the teachers. I'll always remember this place.

Amanda Miller

Casey Miller
Well I just want to say thank you to all the teachers who helped me through these last four years. Also I want to say to my friends thanks for all the fun and good times we had in these four years. Thanks to my coaches for the support and help whenever I needed it. Thank you to the football team for the best memories I could ask for. Last I would like to thank Kyra, thank you for loving me and being my best friend for these last three years. I made some of the best memories in high school with you. I love you. I hope all the seniors in the class of 2010 had the best time of there life at FCHS.

Amanda Miner
It is time to say goodbye because, ladies and gentlemen, it is my life; and it is now or never. I am most definitely not going to live forever. Goodbye and thank you to all the teachers who have enhanced my education. Thank you Alejandro, Amber, Allie, Michelle, and Lockard for sticking with me through all the heartbreaks and drama. Also, thank you FCHS for trying to destroy my individuality and for making me the educated, sarcastic, opinionated person I am. Auf Wiedersehen.

Casey Moffitt
"Another turning point, a fork stuck in the road, time grabs you by the wrist, directs you where to go, so make the best of this test, and don't ask why, it's not a question, but a lesson learned in time, it's something unpredictable, but in the end it's right. I hope you had the time of your life."-Green Day. Momma, Daisha, Kai, Tiffany, and Lindsey, you all are my SHEROES. I couldn't have done anything without you. To my teachers, who gave me my opportunity to succeed, thank you. To my coaches and club leaders, who let me be a part of something bigger than just me, thank you. To my family and friends, who supported me through everything and made it all worthwhile, I love you!

Taylor Monroe

Whitley Montgomery

Cordelia Moon
FINALLY!!! I am done with high school, but it seems like it was yesterday when I was just a freshman. When I first got here to FC, I was only a sophomore. I honestly did feel that time had stopped, and I was never going to be a senior. But here I am. Man, I am most definitely going to miss Tevin, A.K.A Tevi pooh; we stayed clowning and laughing in class. Sequita AKA Tweety I guess I'm going to miss your lil smiley faces (insider), even though they ugly as I don't know what (lol). I'm so happy to graduate!! We made it Class of 2010!! See ya'll at WKU (lol)

Breon Moreno
First and foremost I would like to thank all my family, friends, coaches, teachers, and most of all God not only for getting me through high school successfully but making me who I am today. High school has been full of memories and I couldn't ask for more. Kierra don't forget that nothing is going to be given to you so go get it! TP23, DC, Mac Daddy "Squad Up!" 10, Neez, I'm going to miss you guys like crazy. But time flies so I'll see you in a little, ha. The football family and everybody I forgot to mention don't worry I didn't forget about you guys. Just remember that desire is the starting point of all achievement, not a hope, not a wish, but a keen pulsating desire which transcends everything. BELIEVE!

Bianca Morrow

Xavier Mulkey
I would have never thought it would come so fast. It seems like just yesterday when I first started high school. Even though I'm ready for that day to come for me to receive my high school diploma, I'm not quite ready just yet. I feel like I can learn so much in the next four months to prepare for the real world and college. Every little mistake I made along the road in high school, I learned and grew from. I think I get what the teachers meant about character, leadership, and attitude adjustments. Leaving all of mu class friends so we can split and go our own way will really take a chunk outta me. As I say goodbye, I promise to keep every memory with me forever and cherish it. I love the class of 2010. The bitter word which closed all, earthly friendships, and finished every feast of love-farewell."- Robert Pollok

Sequita Myers
I want to say thank you to all of my friends who have been here with me these past 4 years (and some of you less than that). You guys stood by me when I needed you the most. I love you guys! I also want to say thank you to all of my teachers who helped me excel to where I am now with your support and words of encouragement. And last, but not definitely most least, GOODBYE FCHS!!!

Tevin Neal
I would like to thank the ones I care for most and have had some "ruff" times with; I want to say I will miss my lady Jasmine King; you have been there for me no matter what, and I will certainly miss you when you leave. I want to thank my little brother Trey. Angie, you have been the best friend since freshmen year. Shae, you were always the person to talk to when I needed it. I would also like to thank some others such as; Lacey, who always made sure my work was done, Josh, Antonio, Alexa, Justin, Dee Dee Davis, and Cookie. Finally, I want to give a special thank you to Coach Gammons and Berner. I've put a lot of sweat in at practices for you two.

Oliver NGumbi
Saying goodbye is never easy, especially if it's to a place that has grown to be as familiar as my own heart beating. These past four years expanded my horizon well beyond the norm by showing me that nothing is impossible if I work hard and put my mind to it. The friends I have gained here will be carved into my memory as we separate to chase our own dreams. I bid farewell to the teachers who lit that spark in my eyes and made me explore my limits by satisfying my thirst for knowledge. All that I gathered here will guide me through every obstacle that awaits me in my cloudy future. I will never forget every single person that stood by my side through the good and bad times for the rest of my life.

Jasmine Nickens
High school - these 4 years have been filled with grief and happiness. I don't know what else to really say. I remember walking into this school as a freshman halfway into the school year to graduating at the APSU Dunn Center on May 21, 2010. I met my best friend here and I lost my first boyfriend here. LuLu and Roewsha'i are going to be my best friends for life. These girls have made my senior year the best. Even though I've not known LuLu for long I feel like I have known her all my life. Roe is sister material; I don't have anymore to say about that. To all the rest of you that I have known since I came here as a freshman, I'm going to miss you guys.

Tyler Nikolao
Well it's over, and having been here for 4 years has left me many memories. Whether it is nights with the Thunder Cats, soccer practice, or just spending time with Taylor, these meaningful memories will stay with me throughout the rest of my life. This experience has had its ups and downs, but I can honestly say it has taught me just about everything I'll need to know, which makes this experience positive. Finally, I have to thank my friends, family, teachers, and coaches for all the help throughout these past four years. I dedicate this farewell to those people.

Tralisa Noblin
Take my purse to limit my privacy, my hoodie to make me cold, my voice to control me, and my individuality by way of uniform. I've proven myself. Administration and limitation are the names of this school's violations. Thanks to all of the lovely tardies and write-ups to correct my morals, I'm an interesting, complex contributing member of society because of you. RIGHT. High school was meant to be hard. Congratulations Class of 2010! We stuck it. Our new lives are calling, and we welcome the response, "Come get me!" To those who still remain at FC, keep your grades up and focus. I know you don't want to end up here forever trying to scrounge change for a Coke. Thanks especially to God, my parents, my brothers and my friends. I got you on weekends, Paige, and see ya at UK. Nick! I'm a Wildcat sucka!

Christopher Nugent
Fort Campbell is probably the best school I have attended. I have moved around almost once every semester. I finally settled here my second semester of my junior year. I would like to thank Ms. Duerr because she is the nicest teacher I have met. I am off to bigger and better things. Later everyone. Best of luck to everyone.

Jennifer Otey
To the Class of 2010, I want to thank all my classmates and teachers for the best 4 years ever! Sorry to the the teachers that have had to deal with all 4 of us Otey kids, especially the boys. I'm happy to say that I'll be the last Otey to walk these halls. I'll really miss 1st period lunch, y'all are awesome. I want to thank my parents for all the support through my 12 years of school and my brothers too. I hope I keep all the friends that I have made through these past 10 years at Fort Campbell. Proud graduate of 2010!

Brian Peacock
I've come a long way since my freshman year when I was immature and didn't care about much, except having fun all the time. I now know what lies ahead and how I should reach my goals. I'd like to thank everyone who has helped me get through these four long, excruciating years that seemed like an eternity. Thank you to all my teachers, family, and best of friends; I hope good comes to you in the future.

Alexa Pena
First off, I would like to thank all my friends; Jacque, Mahalia, Deanna, Mindy, Tevin, and Ashley for helping me get through these years of high school with my class work and drama. My friends have made me laugh and made this high school experience a good one! I am going to miss the time I had here but I am not going to miss the work I have done here. I learned a lot such as there are not many people I can trust and having relationships can basically be a waste of time. Also I learned to put my work before anything because that is what gets me where I want to be. I am happy that I won't have to deal with wasting money on polos for dress code for school anymore, and good luck to the students who still have to.

Mindy Phillips

Kevin Phipps
Another turning point, a fork stuck in the road. Time grabs you by the wrist, directs you where to go, so make the best of this test, and don't ask why. It's not a question, but a lesson learned in time. It's something unpredictable, but in the end it's right. I hope you had the time of your life. So take the photographs, and still frames in your mind. Hang it on a shelf in good health and good time. Tattoos of memories and dead skin on trial. For what it's worth it was worth all the while. If you want to get the feeling and you want to get it right. Then the music's got to be loud. For when the music hits I feel no pain at all, especially when I'm skanking out at the ball. Let's bounce, rock, skate, Man I'm ready to roll.

Jackie Plerson
Thank you FCHS for making my high school years everything I ever dreamed of. With the dress code, delectable lunches, and subzero/blazing temperatures, I couldn't have asked for anymore. Thanks for filling my closet with such a variety of clothing, which I can't wait to wear for the rest of my life. Thanks for demonstrating how dangerous hoodies and carrying a purse can be. Thanks for the continual support of the cross country endeavors at state and for recognizing the existence of the other sports teams here at Fort Campbell. Thanks for the clarification about how great the football team is. Thanks for successfully using a cookie cutter to plan everything. Thanks for offering such a variety of classes and realizing the ridiculousness of online courses. Thanks for giving me the short end of the stick when it came to just about everything this year.

Jayne Piliias
Goodbye, Farewell!! Leaving is always the hardest things to do but it happens every now and then because it is a part of life. I'd like to take this opportunity to thank my parents and all my wonderful friends and teachers that have helped me succeed throughout the years and inspired to do better things in life. So much has happened throughout the past 4 years and I will always treasure the memories. Although I wish I could stay another year in high school, this is good bye to all the good and the bad memories and hello to my bright future ahead that has been waiting. But I hope someday in the future, we will all be reunited and look back at the wonderful memories we had here at this wonderful school. Farewell my fellow FALCONS!!!

Tim Place
This is my farewell to you and all who read this. Know that I only attended this High School for 2 years, but that was all I needed for this school to make an impact on my life. I have made many new friends and also reunited with old friends. It has been a splendid 2 years here and I hope that I have made an impact on the school as it has made on me. To all the juniors, know that your time has come to rule the school so don't mess up. Sophomores get ready for your hardest academic year in school yet so don't give up. Freshman well I just laugh at freshman lol. I would like to give thanks to all the teachers who have taught me something. Mrs. Duerr, Frau Doucks, Coach Brown, and of course Mr. Hofe. So this is goodbye. PEACE

Courtney Richardson
Best Friends, WALRUS! "JENNA YOU MY BOO!" taking pictures, state champs. "Katie who let you out of the house?" Poncho Villas, Chuckie Cheese, "Do your little turn on the catwalk, yeah, yeah, on the catwalk." Peppermint pigs, ALEX ENGLIN YOU ARE MY BEST FRIEND, tent sleepovers, soccer practice, APSU soccer camp, "Did you know Courtney has hearing aids, no she said she has a head ache!" Trips to sonic, BURN HER! avid class, slip n slides, Club Beyond, "Jenna look at that guy running, um that's my dad," family guy quotes, "TC, NEVER LET GO!" "The Scottie," Fresh Four, "That's Ripe!" "You without me is like a zebra without stripes," "FOR THE CUP!" "Your voice is the soundtrack of my summer," "Yeah, I work out 40 hours a week," "Mazzie you run?" "GREAT GAME GUYS!" If these inside jokes made you laugh this farewell was meant for you! :)

Lorian Riley
Good-bye and good luck, senior year is going to be rough but worth it.

De'Anthony Robinson
Goodbye to my friends; Jasmine, Jenniffer, Demptry, Lorain, Angie, Megan, Jay, and E.J.

Trish Rogers
These four years at FCHS were some of the most fun, sad, exciting, and most boring times of my life. I've made friends and lost them. As long as you realize you're going to be someone, let that drive you to succeed and don't let anything tear you down. Also, stay focused; you will walk across the stage. I would like to thank the people who helped me realize that and helped me make it. It's sad; I won't see some of you anymore, but we all have to say good bye at some time. Thanks to all my close teachers and homies that helped me make it through all my hard times. I love you all; you know who you are.

Maquel Ross
High school was my best years ever. All the stupid, bad and good I'm going to remember forever. Brittany you mean so much to me. I will never forget her; I've shared my best and worst times with you. (Love you). Crank, my God brother actin stupid with you. Kelsey, I want to snooki you sometimes but I still love you. (You need to gain weight) Luke Reynolds, one of my best friends and a brother Kaytlyn Rosynek is my best friend. We've gotten closer over the year and our friendship grew stronger. Reace, you got me worried when you knew "It's Raining Men" and Coco Chanel. I'm going to miss all my home boys and girls. I ain't gotta name all y'all cuz y'all know who you are. Y'all know I love you and I will see y'all later.

Kaytlyn Rosynek
All right...so the time is finally here to get out of FCHS! After 4 years of being in this school, I'm ready to move on to something new. To my parents, thanks for supporting me no matter what. Brittany, OH MAN, I LOVE YOU. We have had too many fun times...from "the break we learned it all," to all our inside jokes like sling shots and run and nun. Maquel, we never got along; but I think that has made our friendship what it is now. Thanks for always being around, and our everyday fights to supposedly "make me stronger." To Ms. Sheets, we are always complaining together; or I'm constantly eating your food. To all my friends who have basically gotten me through; Amanda, Ciarra, the crazy seminar, and many others, I'll never forget you guys! I will definitely be back to visit the people still stuck in this place.

TaMeisha Rowe
It seems like everything went by so fast. I can still remember my freshman year, but now I'm a senior about to graduate - OMG. I'm going to miss all the fun times I had with my BFF Jacque; even our silly fight over a boy. I'm also going to miss my other friends and my favorite teacher Frau (Ich liebe dich). I wish I didn't have to move but I'll make the best of it. I'm really going to miss Fort Campbell even though I didn't like this school some times lol. Auf Wiedersehen!

Jacquest Rudolph

Dae Dae Russell
WOOT WOOT CLASS OF 2010 WE FINALLY OUTTA HERE!!! I didn't have the time of my life like I thought I would but I did have a few good laughs. Can't believe it's time to go. Kelz omg we might not have talked in Hawaii but we chopped it up in Kentucky boo I'm going to miss you so much, Pooh man our late night Wally world trips are something I'm really going to miss, Pattie you know I love you know matter how we end the year you still my trashy -f- baby, Joc (I'm going to buy you all a car), bye husband I love you Dexter, D. Brown my tongue tat king Mr. 305 you know you like that you like that, JOSH!!!! You the only reason half of us showed up to seminar, Tevin I LOVE YOU class with you was the best. I'm really going to miss you guys.

Megan Ryan

Robbie Sahms
I would just like to say good bye to all my friends and thank you to all the teachers I have had. I can't say I will miss high school itself, but I will miss the sports and friends I made during the last 4 years. Good luck in high school, David.

Jasmine Saunders

Angelette Savoris

Destinee Shaw
CLASS OF 2010!!! I am definitely happy to be out of here. I will miss the few people I actually liked here. I love u Dae Dae!!! Now D. Brown, Mahalia, Chanelle, Josh, Ross, Topps, Angie, Dex, Jacque, Joc, Kyra, Caitlynn, Jasmine Nickens, La Chonda, Whitney, Johnny...I love you guys. Y'all made my year the best!!! And y'all make me laugh...I will miss you guys! If I left anybody out, you might be missed. It just depends on who you are. LOL!!! CLASS OF 2010 IS OUT!!!

Trent Short
Picking out our caps and gown means we're done; we're out off this jail called school. We get to see how the world is, and we lose a lot of people in the process. The high school reunion will be sooner than we think, and we'll be back with the bros. High School was the greatest experience and we made a lot of close friends. I am thankful for all those who have helped me in my claim to fame, but I am out of this place. It's not the end. It's a new beginning.

Charles Simon
Life in high school can be hard and a difficult journey. From freshman all the way to being a senior, you meet new people and have fun times and hard times. What I'm about to talk about some of the highs and lows of being a high school student. When I was a freshman in Fort Campbell High, I was really shy and rarely spoke to anyone. Then one day I started socializing more and becoming popular among my peers. After all I went through my favorite saying is every night has a dawn and good things happen to those who wait.

Amanda Smith
My experience at FCHS has been interesting. Many of the students have been friendly towards me and welcoming. The only issue I have to express is the dress code. I don't believe it is right or necessary. I have felt safe and been treated with respect. When I was going through a rough time, my teachers were understanding and helped me in any way they could. I am especially going to miss Mrs. Hunter and Mrs. Beale. They were there for me when I needed help, and they were never judgmental. I am truly going to miss this school. Goodbye, Fort Campbell. I am sad to be going. My months have been worthwhile and I have spent the best part of my high school career here. Thank you for contributing to the best school year of my life.

Eriel Smith
We've been here for 4 long years. The first 2 years were full of work and drama. Junior year went by too fast, and senior year is even faster. As it comes to an end, I'm sad. These 4 years have been fun, and I've learned so much. I've made the best of friends and lost some. Freshman year I felt would never end and sophomore year was even slower. To all the new comers, stay focused and organized. Keep your head up high and follow your dreams. High school will be over before you know it; don't waste your time worrying about it. Do all your homework, study hard, and have fun. Don't waste your time on drama; it's not worth it. It will eventually pass. As for exams, study hard, they're important. My high school experience was fun and I've learned a lot. Thanks to all my friends and some teachers. Coach Marciano, you were harsh.

Amber Michelle Spade

When you came into this world, you were the sweetest, most wonderful little girl that I'd ever seen. That has been years ago, you never stopped amazing me with what you've learned, can do, and able to handle situations. All I can do is hope and pray that I've done all I can to prepare you for a life on your own and the challenges that you will have to face in the future. I am so proud of you, you've grown into a wonderful young woman .... but in my eyes...you will always be that wonderful little girl that I remember....you will always be my little girl....daddy's little girl. Love, Daddy.

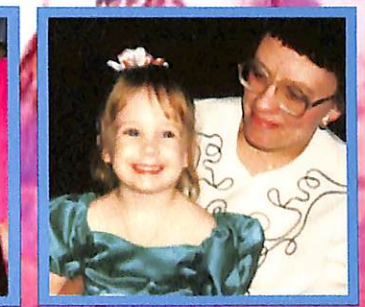

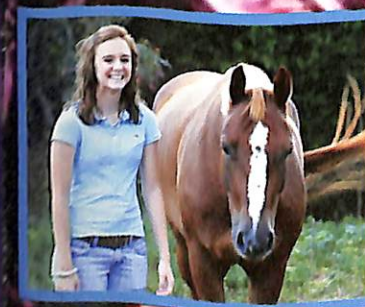

Amber...You have grown into a mature young lady. From the day that you were born I knew that you were going to grow up and be a special person.. You have got your whole life ahead of you and I know that you are going to do great things. Remember that I love you very very much and want the best for you. I am proud that this time in your life is here. It will be hard to let you go and spread your wings, but my job as your mother to get you to this point is done. I have to let you go and be your own person. Remember what your dad and I have taught you. Make the right decisions and you can't go wrong. Keep God first in your life and He will not let you down. I will always be here for you through the good times and the bad. Love with all my heart, Mom

After having three lovely girls,
We got our wish - a boy!
Who'd have thought there would be trouble
Along with all of the joy?

Nickelodeon, you have been both
Our chatterbox and silent one.
Ever changing, ever daring,
Yet always full of fun.

We bet you will remember
When up in mid-air over ditches
Thinking "What the heck am I doing?"
Usually means broken bones or stitches.

May God bless you on your journey.
We are so proud who you are today.

Dear Kevin,
CONGRATULATIONS!! Dad and I have watched you grow from a little boy into a young man and have enjoyed EVERY minute of it! We could not be more proud of who you have become! You have always strived for excellence and have always achieved it! You have always asked GOD for guidance and we pray you continue to do so. As you get ready for college we pray that you NEVER forget where you came from and NEVER forget to do the right thing. You have been a great son, brother, friend, and leader. May your blessings grow and your dreams never end! GOD BLESS and KEEP YOU SAFE!!!! WE LOVE YOU!

Kelsey Marie,
 We are so very proud of you! You have grown into a beautiful, amazing, young woman! We know you will have much success in college and in life. Remember to stay true to yourself and your beliefs, and you'll achieve your dreams! We love you so much!
 Love Always,
 Dad, Mom, TJ, Seth and Kassidy

Ms.Kelsey Marie,
 It goes without saying that we are so very proud of you and your accomplishments. We love you so very much and we all want you to know that you have always managed to bring such joy and pride into our lives. We all wish you continued and much success in the future! We are always "there" for you!
 Love you dearly - always,

You are my daughter, my friend, my heart. Words can't express the love I hold for you inside. You have grown to be a wonderful lady that I am proud to call my daughter. I will always be here for you, to laugh, to talk, to argue to cry, but most of all to love you. Continue to make me proud! Love, hugs and kisses - Mommy!

Daddy's Little Girl

You have grown up into a beautiful young lady. I am so proud that you have always been your own woman. I know that daddy has and always will continue to be protective over his little girl, but I do know that I have to let you make your own decisions, whether good or bad. I will always have your back. Stay focused and you can do anything you want in life. Remember life is short so enjoy every moment. High school is over! Take charge of your life and always be a leader not a follower. I love you Ladybug.

We Love you Bree, The Boys BK & Brody

Even though I didn't get to live in the physical to see you, I am looking down from heaven with joy and gladness in my heart knowing you have grown to be a beautiful young woman. I will always love you. Nonna

A few things to get you through life: 1. Life is meaningless without God, so remember to keep him first in your life;

This will save you from a lot of heartache and pain. 2. Always make time for family; life is lonely without having people in it who love you unconditionally. 3. Stay around positive people who love life and make the most of every opportunity. The sky is the limit. We love you! Aunt Tamara, Uncle Carlos, Kacy, Elias, and Michelle.

My Dearest Katie,
I have always been so proud of you and have loved you since the day I gave birth to you. You, my child, are wonderful. You and I have been through a rough life, but now it is looking up for us. You are a wonderful child. Those who have left your life have missed out. I am so glad I got to see it all as you have grown up. Grace is looking down on you and is so proud of you, my love. Words cannot express how proud I am of you for accomplishing the most important step of your life. I have seen you cry, hurt, laugh, and even disappointed. Become successful, don't ever give up and if you feel you will not, read this and know that you can! Congratulations Kaitlyn you are Class of 2010!!!!!! Love, Mom

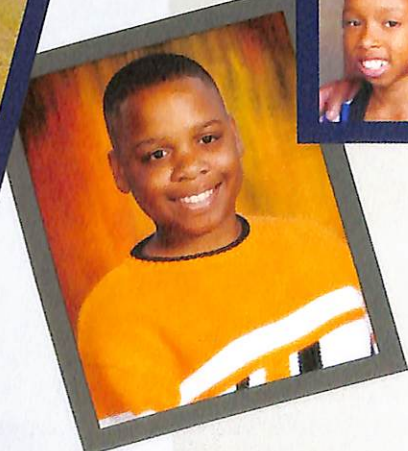

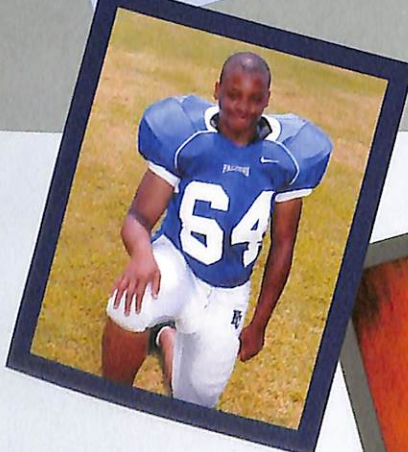

My Dearest Katie,
Words cannot express how proud I am of you for accomplishing the most important step in your life. I may not have seen you grow from a little girl, but I have seen you through the pictures your mom has shown and I know that you are being smiled upon from above. I have seen you cry, hurt, laugh, and disappointed. Just know that those are all part of growing up and what may come your way will now be impossible to break you from achieving your highest goal in life. Become successful, don't ever give up, and if you feel you will not read this and know you can! Dreams are dreams that come from our heart. They are what we wish for from the very start. Some don't always grow with a mom or dad, love and devotion is what they always have. Remember you are just beginning your path, don't give up and don't ever slack. Yes it is hard, I have been there too, but you are smarter and know just what to do. So, remember to smile and that big grin 'cause I am proud of you...Graduate of 2010! Love You Always, Monica

Babe, thank you for supporting me and making my life easier. I couldn't have asked for better half or a better secretary. I Love You Babe.

Hey Babe, look how far we've made it and you're still in one piece. You're pretty tough to tolerate my difficultness. We're so different yet so in sync; from my "making a scene" moments and your "throw up in your West Point ring" times; the way we know what the other is thinking without saying a word, how we laugh while we're fighting, our ticklish wrestling matches, our "finish the lyric" games, 'NO!' 'NO YOU DON'T UNDERSTAND?' 'NO!' 'NO WHAT?' 'NOOOOOO! Hmpf. *mumbles*' I wouldn't have wanted to do any of it with anyone else. I Love You.

To Our Daughter,
Since the day you entered this world we have felt so honored and blessed to be your parents. The years have gone by so quickly. We have watched you grow from a beautiful baby girl to a beautiful young woman. You are everything we hoped you would grow up to be. We are so proud of your achievements. Follow your dreams and you will go far. With everything you do, our love and support will be with you. You will always be our Sunshine.

We love you so much and are very proud of you!

Amanda Maureen Miner

Amanda, you have finally made it to graduation. We are very proud of you, who you've become, and what you will do once you set out on your own. You have come a long way, and although there were challenges along the way, you have become a strong young woman who will do great things. We value the time we have had you and understand it's time to strike out on your own. We love you and never forget "to make good choices."

To My God Daughter Lacey,
I am so very proud of you and all that you have accomplished. To see you graduated is what I've hoped to live to see. You have been a wonderful daughter, and I am proud and thankful that I had the honor of being a part of your life. I love you with all my heart and you will always be a part of me. Graduation, Graduation, and I know you will do well in making your future dreams come true. I will always keep you in my prayers. I love you and again Graduation. I am so proud of you.

To My Daughter Lacey,
Mommy is so proud of you. I know you will be successful in life, and everything you do. You have grown to be a sweet and kind hearted person. You will always be my baby no matter what. I wish you all the best in life. Your granddad would have been so proud of you. Always remember that he is watching you. Continue with your dreams and never settle for less. You deserve so much in life. One thing I will never forget is the poem you gave me when you were a little girl.

Hello World My name Is...

Kevin Angel Phipps

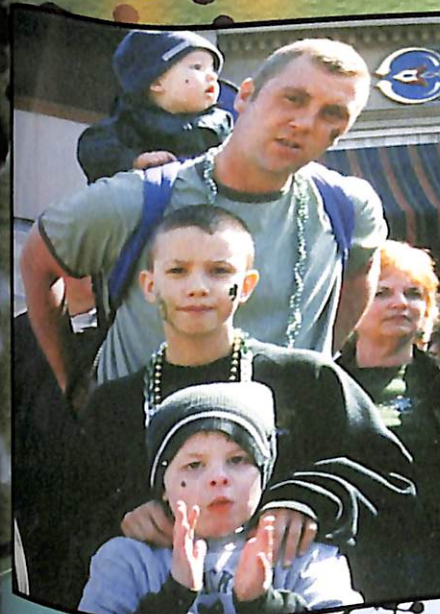

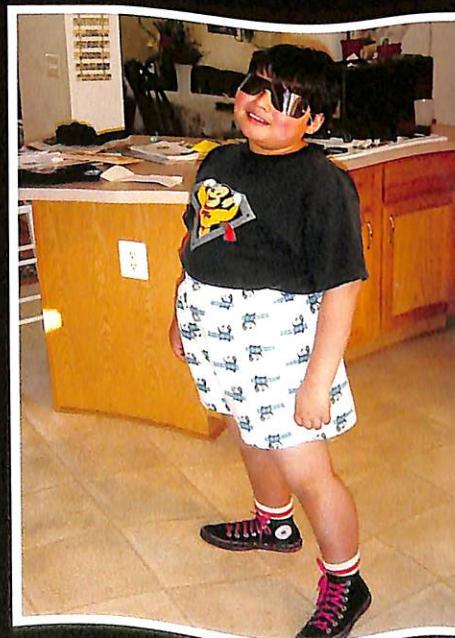

Kevin,

WOW! Seventeen years old, graduating from Fort Campbell High School, Class of 2010! Now you're on your way to college! Time flew by way too fast! It seems like just yesterday that you were born into this beautiful world. We have been truly blessed with such a wonderful son. Kevin you have been charismatic from day one. You have an outgoing personality, you're witty, charming, honest, sincere, genuine, tenacious, and an all around down to earth great guy with a pretty darn cute smile!!!

Kevin, we are so very proud of you! You have brought joy and laughter into our lives. You amaze us with your perseverance to do your best in everything that comes your way. You have always been determined to reach your goals no matter how difficult the challenge. This is why as your life's journey begins you will succeed. Continue to be Kevin and all your dreams will be fulfilled. Do not let anything stand in the way of your dreams.

Henry David Thoreau once said, "Go confidently in the direction of your dreams. Live the life you have imagined." Reach for the stars Kevin; you have what it takes to fulfill your "Destiny!"

In a world full of hardship and turmoil, you have always strived to do the right thing by your family. Your can-do attitude, dedication to those you care about, and relentless drive and motivation will always carry you through future hardships. Your academic, athletic, and civic accomplishments have brought your Mother and I endless joy and pride. More importantly, your commitment to our family during times of deployment, demonstrates the maturity and dependability that many have come to find as part of the core foundation of your character. We love you very much and will always be here for you. Regardless of the path you choose, we will support you. Your example and the legacy you leave to your younger sisters is second to none. We love you and could not be more proud of the man you have come to be. Love, Dad

Your momma loves you! No matter where you go or what you do in life, I'll always love you. I am so proud of the man you have become, but you'll always be my baby boy! Love, Mom

Brother,

I have always made it my sole mission to make you laugh everyday. Ever since we were kids, there hasn't been one day that you and I have not made each other laugh. Even though most of the time we end up being complete opposites of each other, despite sharing DNA, we found common ground in the corner-the poetry corner. If there's anything I can ever do for you, you know that you can count on me. Always remember to find something to laugh about everyday, and if you find it difficult, just come and see me and I'll prescribe you a large dose of jokes! Let me know when you want to finally win at something, I'll cut you some slack.

Love, Jesus

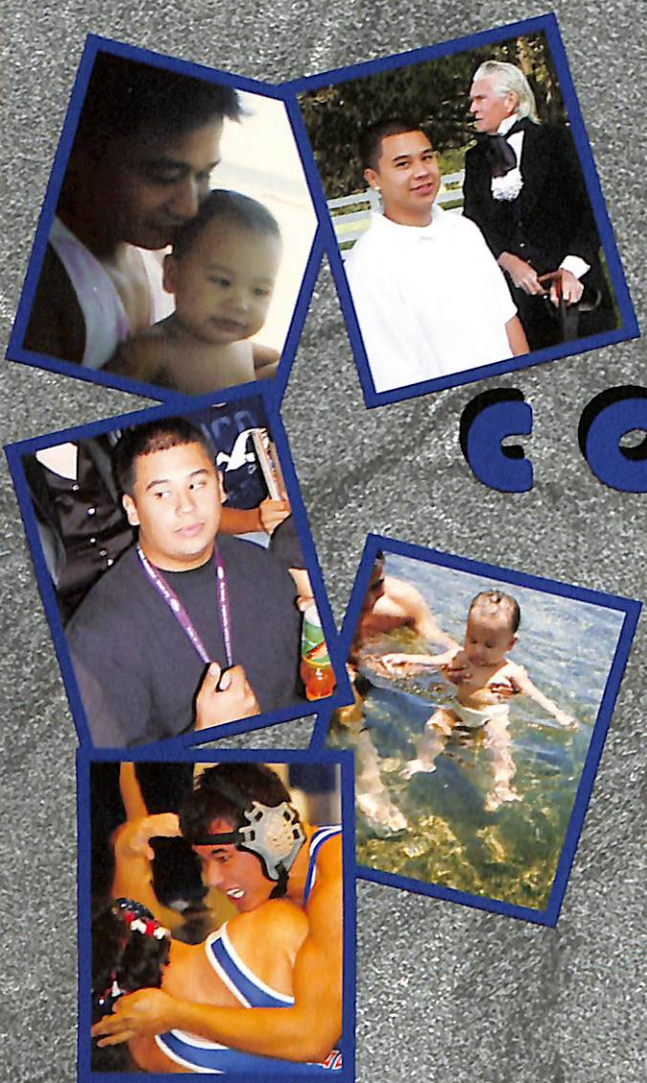

Victor,

With you I have learned how easy it is to love, care, and give a whole heart to another. I know you have to grow up, yet I wish I could forever hold you close to me and protect you from the world. Always know your father and I will be here for you no matter what comes your way. You are now all grown up, but always know that when you were little I carried you in my arms. From now until eternity I will carry you in my heart. Remember to always keep your confidence. It will allow you to take risks and not be afraid of failure. Always keep your sensitivity, it will help you to understand and do something about injustices in the world. As you continue to grow in your own unique wonderful way, always remember that I am more proud of you than ever before and I love you. You have been a book of teaching in my life, you have changed me as a human being and helped make me a better daughter but most of all a better mother. Most of who I am today, you have helped me become since you have been my strength. When I have needed someone, you always have words of support. You are like the best friend anyone can have. I want you to know that you have high intellectual abilities and are capable of everything you set your mind to. Although you cannot move your legs, you have no limitations and you have learned to break down any barrier with your strength.

I love you, Mami

The years have gone by so fast. We can remember when your favorite song was Don't Take The Girl & you would run around in your underwear saying nana...nana...boo...boo... with your thumbs in your ears & tongue stuck out. You looked so darn cute but we couldn't tell you that because you just got in trouble for something you weren't supposed to be doing. Or when you used the bathroom behind the house in Texas! You know what I'm talking about. When you got in trouble in school & we would bail you out, because that's what moms and dads do for their children. Or when dad would be deployed for months at a time & you would want to step up and be the man of the house while he was gone, so mom wouldn't have extra weight on her shoulders. When you played your first football game & we could see how much fun you were having, it made us happy to see you smile. On Halloween you had to be the red ranger because he was the toughest, or when you fell on the field carrying out the Falcon flag, or when you got to win two state championships & a possible third. You're always thinking of everyone else & not yourself. When someone asks for your help or just needs a favor you never ask what's in it for me. These are memories we will never forget. It was a part of you growing up & becoming the wonderful young man you are today. We are so proud to call you our son. Now that you have grown into such an amazing young man & we see you starting to put your dreams into action, we couldn't be more proud of you than we are right now. We know you will be all that you set out to be & your wings will spread & you will soar as high as you can dream. You will always be our little angel. We love you. Love, Mom, Dad & Chelsey

"Lean on, trust in, and be confident in the Lord with all your heart and mind and do not rely on your own insight or understanding. In all your ways know, recognize, and acknowledge Him, and He will direct and make straight and plains your paths." (Proverbs 3:5-6)

You are such an amazing person, you always make everyone laugh and smile. Everything you have done you have always excelled in. Words can not describe how proud we are of you Bubba. It doesn't feel like you are old enough to graduate yet. It seems just like yesterday you were running around in your cowboy boots with everything you wore, even your pj's. We couldn't get you out of those things. LOL Congratulations Big Guy, You did it!!! We love you very much.

Love,
Dad, Mom, Rylee, and Breannah

D.J. DAVIS

D.J.,
You are a great son and we love you just the way you are. Remember James 4:8 as you come closer to God, He will move closer to you. Keep the faith because it is the substance of things hoped for and the evidence of things not seen. Although your future is unseen your hope in the Lord will provide you the evidence and the energy to press on toward your destiny. Don't ever forget to glorify God for all that you do for that is your purpose and He has created us to worship Him. Always be strong in the Lord. Never be afraid, for God is with you. We love you!
Dad and Mom

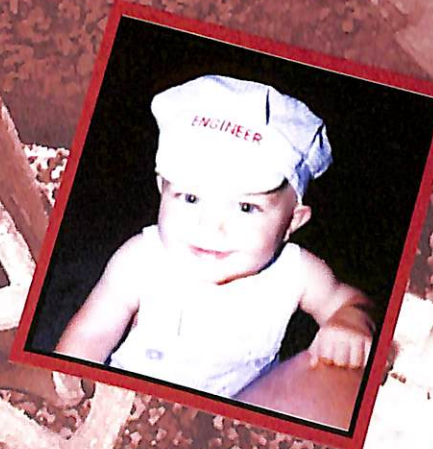

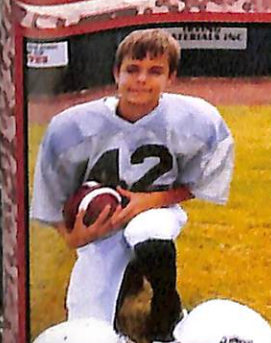

Congratulations D.J.!

We know you are excited about the next step in your life, college. As you always say, "It's time to move on to bigger and better things," but always stay humble. We will miss you around the house. Love, your sisters, ShaNonté and ShaKynah

**Caitlynn, (my little F.S.) Look at you! Look at all that you have already seen in this world, been a part of and accomplished. You are absolutely everything we hoped that you would be. Every quality you have, every strength, every moral, every part of you is what we dreamed of when God gave us the privilege of having you. You are so strong and have your sights on great things and we are sure you will achieve everything you set out to do. Your faith is abundant, you have such a good heart, your goals are so high for yourself and we could not be more proud of you! You are a true joy in our lives and to many, many lives around you that you have touched. You are amazing! I will miss you desperately when you leave for college. We love you so much our precious Baby Girl! Congratulations Sweetie! Love Dad and Mom (aka L.P.)****

**Caitlynn, We love you and we will miss you. Love, Chris, Cyle and Cody ****

Cole, words alone cannot begin to describe the incredible pride we feel for you. You are an amazing big brother and son. You are not only bright, but you are kind and wise beyond your years.

COLE DADSWELL

You have a wonderful sense of humor that lightens up any overly serious moment! In fact, MBU is sounding better and better! We are so grateful to have been able to observe everything you have accomplished until now, and we are excited to see what your future holds. Love, Mom, Dad, Evan, and Max (P.S. We get the Lincoln bedroom.)

Kristen Loren Alyson Kirkland

Kristen -
Your life has been like sailing the ocean. Some days are stormy and rough while others are smooth as glass, but as a family, we have always landed on top of the world. You will always be our "little" girl. We Love You and Will Always Be Here For You.

Daddy, Momma, and Grace

Timothy Jason Williams

I read of a man who stood to speak
At the funeral of a friend
He referred to the dates on her tombstone
From the beginning to the end
He noted that first came her date of her birth
And spoke the following date with tears,
But he said what mattered most of all
Was the dash between those years.

For that dash represents all the time
That she spent alive on earth.
And now only those who loved her
Know what that little line is worth.

For it matters not how much we own;
The cars, the house, the cash,
What matters is how we live and love
And how we spend our dash.

So think about this long and hard.
Are there things you'd like to change?
For you never know how much time is left,
That can still be rearranged.
If we could just slow down enough
To consider what's true and real
And always try to understand
The way other people feel.
And be less quick to anger,
And show appreciation more
And love the people in our lives
Like we've never loved before.
If we treat each other with respect,
And more often wear a smile
Remembering that this special dash
Might only last a little while.

So, when your eulogy is being read
With your life's actions to rehash
Would you be proud of the things they say
About how you spent your dash?

Every morning I walk into the locker room,
I step through the door,
And your locker catches my eye.
But your stuff's not there,
It's an empty locker now,
But so full of your memories.

The Locker,
Covered in decorations,
With your name and number on it,
Will never be used again.
For no one could replace you,
Or the happiness you caused,
Or your laugh or smile,
At least for a little while.
I miss the times we sat and laughed,
When we would joke and kid around,
We laughed so hard we cried,
Not caring about the sound.

But now I sit alone here,
My heart so full of gloom,
And wish you were still here,
In this locker room.

-Justin Swails

In loving memory of our friend, our student, our brother, and our inspiration. You will live on in our hearts as we cherish the memories you've made with us. We are so thankful to have been part of your dash. We love you Tim! The 2009-2010 Yearbook Staff
