

GERMERSHEIM ELEMENTARY SCHOOL
1988-89

8-1-7
Y. 16.

Dr. Cynthia Gessling
Principal

Table of Contents

Title Page and Mascot	1
Kindergarten	2,3
First Grade	4,5
Second/Third Grade	6,7
Fourth Grade	8,9
Fifth/Sixth Grade	10,11
Faculty & Staff	12
Programs	13
Swimming & Other Activities	14,15
Potpourri	16

8-1-7
Y. 16.

Kindergarten

Left to Right-

Front Row: Amber Poole, Joshua Wayt, Arthur Kroll, Crystal Justice, Jamal Hammonds, Danielle Markham and Stormie Muilenburg

Middle Row: Neil Hamann, Alex Carlton, Alisha Leverett, Christopher Baker, Wesley Dunn, Kerry Stephens, Brandon Benton, and James Dunmore.

Back Row: Mrs. Michaud, Aide; Takenya Dallas, Kennetha Leonard, Nichole Giannopoulos, Kendra Tilson, Sheila Snyder, Melissa Stephens, Gina Haskins and Mrs. Wilson, Teacher.

Bonnie Cassity

Simone
Johnson

Kellye
Patterson

Cruzita
Riviera

Class of 2001

Jamal Hammonds, Melissa Stephens are cleaning up after play. Christopher Baker, Cruzita Riviera and Crystal Justice are still having fun.

Mr. Brandt, the counselor, is showing us a video about our feelings. Mr. Brandt visits our class every Monday.

Just getting started are Amber Poole, Bonnie Cassity, Brandon Benton, Jamal Hammonds, Kellye Patterson, Alex Carlton and Simone Johnson.

First Grade

Left to Right-

Front Row: Caitlin Kleppinger, West Via, Rebecka Kroll, Brandon Benton and Lisa Kanning

Middle Row: Jennifer Pratt, Jewel Johnson, Amy Hatlan, Clifford Bennett, Ta'Shara Toombs and Danilynne Peji.

Back Row: LaFonte Bennett, Tanya Tilson, Shelly Bierle, David Smith, Jarrett Berger and Mrs. Donnelly, Teacher.

Samuel
Barfield

Kellye
Patterson

Cruzita
Riviera

Class of 2000

The American flag means to love everyone.

by Jennie Pratt

The American flag
means that I love
the United States.

by Rebecka Kroll

Everyday we eat at the Dining Facility.
Here, the first graders are enjoying their lunch.

The American flag means George Washington.

by Amy Hatlan

The American flag
means America.

by Jewel Johnson

Mrs. Graves is keeping track of swimming skills for Shelly Bierle, Caitlin Kleppinger and Chrichelle Balan.

Lisa Kanning, West Via and Caitlin Kleppinger are busy with their morning work while Mrs. Donnelly is working with a reading group.

Second & Third Grade

Victoria Cassity

Left to Right-

Front Row: Michelle Stephens, Melissa Hamann, Julia Parker and Audrey Bowers.

Second Row: Amber Scott, Chrichelle Balan, Mary Knapper, Rachel Michaud and Michelle Musgray.

Third Row: Marcus Birtwhistle, Christina Baker, Alexander Parks, Jennifer Guyne, Christal Kroll and Sarah Beardsley.

Back Row: Roderick Hughes, Matthew Hansen, Ricardo Costa, Jeremy Belton, Vivlavia Edwards and Mrs. Guillory, Teacher.

When I see the flag I think about the Presidents of the United States.
When I see the eagle I think of America.

By Joel Michaud
Grade 2

When I see the American flag I think of freedom.
When I think about the eagle I think about the flag.

By Amber Scott
Grade 3

The flag and the eagle make me think about my state and my freedom.
by Jennifer Guyne
Grade 3

When I see the flag, I think about Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.
by Vivlavia Edwards
Grade 2

When I see the flag I think of America.
When I see an eagle I think of everybody.

By Michelle Stephens
Grade 2

The American Flag is special to me because it's a friend to me.
An eagle is special to me because they will be extinct.

By Mary Knapper
Grade 3

Classes of 1999 & 1998

Rachel Michaud, Jennifer Guyne, Mary Knapper and Alexander Parks enjoy lunch.

When I see the eagle it makes me think of a quarter.

By Christina Baker
Grade 2

The eagle is an American symbol but the flag is what America is all about.

By Ricardo Costa
Grade 3

When I see the eagle I think about people that died.

By Melissa Hamann
Grade 2

Rachel Michaud, Mary Knapper and Audrey Bowers are hard at work in their classroom.

When I see an eagle it makes me think of freedom.

By Jeremy Belton
Grade 3

When I see an eagle I'm happy as can be. It makes me think of America.

By Chrichelle Balan
Grade 3

When I see the American Flag I think about the blue color that stands for the sky - red that stands for the war - and white that stands for freedom.

When I see the eagle I think about it's hard working wings and how hard we worked to make America beautiful.

By Rachel Michaud
Grade 3

When I see an eagle I think about a mountain.

By Michelle Musgray
Grade 2

When I see the eagle I think about the Statue of Liberty.

By Julia Parker
Grade 2

Michelle Stephens and Mrs. Parker at aerobics.

When I see the eagle or the flag I think about America and its peace.

By Alexander Parks
Grade 3

When I see the eagle or the flag I think about the U.S.A.

By Marcus Birtwhistle
Grade 2

Fourth Grade

Left to Right-

Front Row: Tiffany Duke, Meghan Kleppinger, Diedra Stephens, Crystalin Dannenbring and John Trick.

Middle Row: Kibibi Devero, Devan Brown, Craig Wright, John Robinson and Benjamin Ott.

Back Row: Amy Wilson, Don'ta Crawford, Meg Marsili, Thomas Graves, DeAndra Bowers and Mrs. Parker, Teacher.

Denise Barfield

Pamela Barfield

Quentin
Johnson

Class of 1997

Quentin Johnson is ready to answer the question, while Meghan Kleppinger, DeAndra Bowers, Craig Wright, Don'ta Crawford and John Trick wait for Mrs. Bennett to call on them in Health class.

Meg, Thomas, Dion, Don'ta Mrs. Parker, Tiffany, Kibibi, DeAndra, Meghan, Devan, Amy, Pam, John, and Denise march in in the Easter Bonnet Parade.

Thomas, Devan, Diedra, DeAndra, Pam and John are taking notes on the information that Mrs. Bennett is giving them in Health class.

When I see the Eagle and the flag I think of freedom and no slavery.

By Ben Ott

When I see the eagle I think about our freedom. When I see our flag I think of our country, freedom, life, and history. I think a lot about everything.

By Thomas Graves

When I see the bald eagle and the flag, I think of freedom that my country fought for. I am happy to be an American because I have freedom.

By Craig Wright

Fifth & Sixth Grade

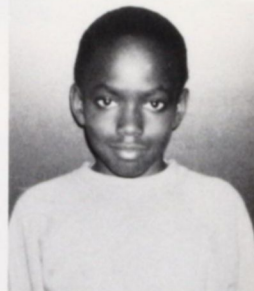

Frederick
Dion
Patterson

Left to Right-

Front Row: Milan Bethany, Shurie Smith, Zachary Michaud, Nathalie Parks, Marisa Bandel and Rex Jenkins.

Back Row: Scott Guyne, Greg Edwards, Jason Keeser, Daniel Brown, Aaron Wilson, Mrs. Boutelle, Teacher, and LaWanda Robinson.

The American Flag and the Bald eagle mean freedom for all in the United States. They also mean for us to remember the blood that was shed for our country.

by Daniel Brown
Grade 6

It means freedom and loyalty to my country.

by Dion Patterson
Grade 6

The American flag and the Bald eagle represent liberty, freedom and justice. They let us speak freely.

by Shurie Smith
Grade 5

The eagle is our National bird and the flag belongs to our States.

by Milan Bethany
Grade 5

The eagle and the flag mean peace without any more war.

by Greg Edwards
Grade 6

The eagle stands for our country's freedom and hope. The flag stands for our united nation and as a reminder of the war.

by Jason Keeser
Grade 6

When I see the American flag and the eagle I am reminded of my free country. A country full of brave people that would risk their lives for their country. That's what I think of when I see the American flag and the eagle.

by Scott Guyne
Grade 5

The eagle fights for prey and he fights for his country.

by Marisa Bandel
Grade 6

Freedom and liberty for justice for all Which our flag stands proud and tall. People have the right to roam and move from state to state and home to home.

by Rex Jenkins
Grade 5

Eagles: they fight for freedom and peace. Our country does the same. The flag said that thousands died for loving their country. They stand up and fight, as does the eagle.

by Nathalie Parks
Grade 6

An eagle and our American flag stand for freedom which we do have as Americans.

by Aaron Wilson
Grade 6

Classes of 1996 & 1995

Marisa Bandel

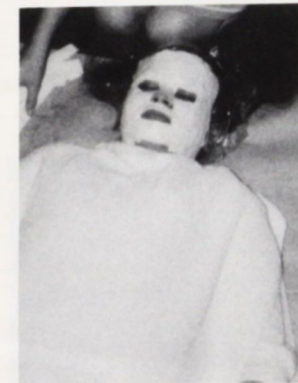

Daniel Brown

Greg Edwards

Jason Keeser

Nathalie Parks

Aaron Wilson

Milan Bethany

Rex Jenkins

Scott Guyne

Zach Michaud

LaWanda Robinson

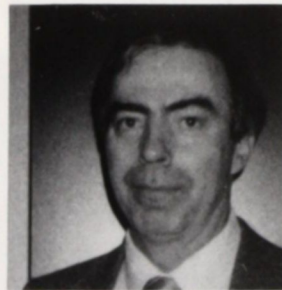

Shurie Smith

Faculty & Staff

Front Row: Mrs. Bandel, Music; Mrs. Donnelly, 1st Grade; Mrs. Jordon, Secretary; Mrs. Bennett, Nurse; Frau Grisar, Host Nation & Library; Mrs. Michaud, Aide.
Back Row: Mrs. Holloway, Aide; Mrs. Boutelle, 5th/6th Grade; Mrs. Moormon, L.I.; Mrs. Guillory, 2nd/3rd Grade; Mrs. Parker, 4th Grade; Mrs. Wilson, Kindergarten; and Dr. Gessling, Principal.

Mr. Brandt Counselor

Mrs. Davidson Kindergarten

Mrs. Davila Speech

Mrs. Jenkins Housekeeping

Mr. Jordon
Supply

Mrs. Kidd Nurse

Mrs. Pearce
Substitute

Programs

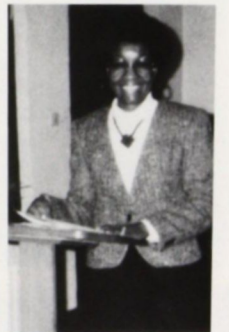

These children drew award winning posters for the Community Black History Observance: Christal Kroll, Christina Baker, Ben Ott, Melissa Hamann, Diedra Stephens, Tanya Tilson, Amy Hatlan, Samuel Barfield, (front) Brandon Benton, Ricky Hughes, Rachel Michaud and Amy Wilson. They each received a certificate and a trophy from the Community.

Sarah Beardsley, Rachel Michaud and Mary Knapper read the "Sympathy" poem for the Black History Program.

The 5/6 grade present an oral reading on Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. for the Black History Program.

Mrs. Tessie Ballard was our guest speaker for the Black History Program.

Audience for "Kids On The Block".

"Kids On The Block" puppet play.

Swimming

Girls in the locker room: Rebecka, Lisa, Denise, Shelly, Caitlin, Christal and Rachel.

Enjoying free time in the pool are: Denise, Alex, Gina, Arthur, Brandon and Lisa.

Rachel, Amber and Joel are practicing their kicks.

Sheila Snyder and Shelly Bierle listen to the instructions being given by Mrs. Graves.

How many can we get on this tube? Wait and see!

Other Activities

Thursday morning is also volleyball time for the 4,5 & 6 grades.

Amy Wilson, Aaron Wilson and Mr. Fritz, SWEP teacher, work on the school newspaper, "GES What?".

Thursday morning aerobics with Mrs. J. Parker .

The first annual Spelling Bee had four contestants: Aaron Wilson, Scott Guyne, Nathalie Parks and Marisa Bandel. Aaron was the school winner and represented Germersheim at the Karlsruhe DSO Spelling Bee in March.

In February, Dr. Blackstead, DoDDS-Germany Regional Director, visited our school. He was given a tour by Marisa Bandel and Nathalie Parks. Pictured above are: Noel Tillman, DoDDS Germany; Dr. Bamberger, Karlsruhe DSO; Dr. Blackstead; and Linda Resch, European PTSA President.

Yearbook Staff

Marisa Bandel
Milan Bethany
Daniel Brown
Gregory Edwards

Jason Keeser
Zachary Michaud
Nathalie Parks
Shurie Smith

SCHOOL ANNUAL •PUBLISHING COMPANY•

BOX 58 • 545 WALNUT STREET
COSHICTON, OHIO 43812