Ms. Marron's class made 100 hearts!

WELCOME TO THE 100TH DAY!

Sixth grade listed 100 reasons to graduate and 100 famous Americans!

Ms. Morris' class made necklaces of 100 pieces of Cheerios. Second grader Shatterria Boykins shows off her stringing talents on February 5th.

Everybody celebrated the 100th day of school in different ways. First grade counted 100 things.

There is nothing better than a good Christmas Market in December to shop and eat. Fifth grade enjoyed the sights and sounds of the Frankfurt Christmas Market. Looks like Brittany, Kauri, Elexis and Kim had a great time!

Star Lab anyone? Joey, Kauri and Sam will show you the way!

Many students enjoyed the Santa's Secret Shop run by parent volunteers in December. Thanks Moms!

Santa?? No, just Mr. Hohn joining in at the Holiday Sing Along.

HOLIDAY FUN

Steven Black, Ashley Perry and Mary Avery sang along at the Holiday Sing Along.

Bryse Ed and Will Eckles eat a delicious Christmas breakfast.

Best turkey ever!
By Dereck Scott

Mrs. Claus? No, just another holiday hat at the sing along!
Nice hat Camrin Stonesifer!

This year, four parents came in to share how the holidays are celebrated in their native lands. Mrs. Jones told us about holiday life in Cuba!

Mrs. McKnight told us all about Italy.

Mrs. Avery & Mrs. Boatwright told us about Christmas in Korea.

Mrs. Barnes told about Germany.

MOMENTS TO REMEMBER

In October, first grade went to a farmer's house!
Group shot in the courtyard!

Can you believe this was the farmer's house?!

Christmas Markets are so fun, aren't they?

Shawn, Joey and Sam shopped for surprises at the Frankfurt Christmas Market.

Kathy, Mark and Sasha tried out the treats in Frankfurt.

Ivan and Tyler gave the rides a whirl at the Giessen Christmas Market.

HERE AND THERE

COMPUTER TIME! Joey Durossette checks out the Apple. Where is that Y key?

"Wow!" look at that smile!
(Alex Ramirez)

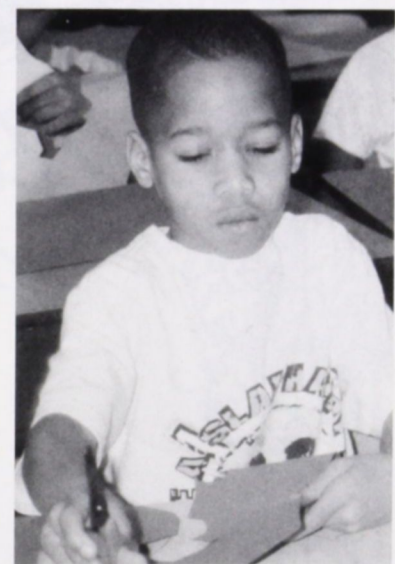

Serve it up, dudes!
