GOOSE BAY DEPENDENTS' HIGH Goose Bay, Labrador

Mrs. Nadene M. Carylon

Guidance Director '65-'67

When it's the first day of school,
And we're all deranged;
To whom do we go to get our schedules changed?

When we're in need of helpful advice, To whom do we go for counsel, Always clear, clean, and concise?

When we're Seniors, and college bound,
Who looks at our record, our tests too,
And gives us a million pamphlets....or two?

But when all the votes
are in,
And all the chips are down,
You can always depend on our Guidance counselor, Mrs.
Carylon, to be around.

We the yearbook staff of 1967, knowing the entire student body, wish to extend our thanks in recognition of the fine service you have rendered to the students of Goose Bay High.

We sincerely hope that your experiences on the Goose will live on within us.

1980

The Year is 1980. The place is the magnificent Goose Hilton. It is currently the object of world curiosity and the scene of much merry making, for this is the spot that the famed 1967 Senior Class of Goose Bay has chosen for their first reunion. Looking through the group it is easy to spot many of the world world's successes. Let's see what has become of the class of '67.

Jon Moergen is now the lead male ballet dancer of the famed Russian ballet. This only goes to prove that his gymnastic abilities on the Goose must have paid off.

Randy Ogden is Hollywood's most noted columnist. All the Hollywood inhabitants just love him because of his scarcasm and vast cutting ability.

Benita Linnell has joined her husband at San Diego, and so, Anchors Away, Benita.

Sue Gates has retired to a huge Texas ranch where she and her millionaire Texas cowboy do nothing but sit around and raise kids.

Mike Martin, famous Greenwich Village artist, specializes in nude paintings, and in his spare time customizing cars, especially '56 Fords. His specialties are rip cords and extra-wide back seats.

Janet Walls, famous dress desinger of Tennessee, is sought by all the world's most fashionable people for her originals. She abolished Ivy League Look and brought back lace, ruffles, bows, and skirts two inches above the ankle.

Bill Stockton, Senior Senator from Alabama is currently pushing a resolution to ban all Yankees from the South.

Bob Weed the famous Texas Cowpuncher has retired from his strenous daily life, because the cows kept punching back, to write a book on the "Daring and Adventurous Escapades of Bob Weed."

Rick French went to Paris upon graduation and received a diploma as an international beautician. His styles are currently worn by a number of the world's First Ladies.

Nick Moore, our student most Likely to Succeed, graduated from the Air Force Academy but, alas, is now painting white lines on run ways.

Loren Frank Johnston II, M.D. is currently doing research in the field of plastic surgery. His speciality is in the field of reducing prominent, protruding noses.

Our famous Submarine Commadore, Vallie John Swartz, who holds the present record of Japanese tonage (1 aircraft carrier, 2 battleships, 13 destroyers, 3 submarines, and 1 Chinese junk) all sunk in 1969.

man band called the "Red Wonder".

Terry Vanlandingham, the little senior with the big smile, now works in the Playboy Bunny Club as the highest paid person in her field--Oh, by the way, her occupation is Bouncer.

Lena Patton is still carrying on her tradition as Miss GHS and now holds the title of Miss America. Famous lawyer, Gary Wells, is still taggin' along behind her waiting until her reign is up so they can get married.

Vera Ross has become a world reknown preacher. Her favorite topic, on which she frequently speaks, is "Why sex is a Necessity!"

Roger Whiteis has not only accomplished conquering the guitar, but also the organ and drum and is now known world-wide for his one Dave Arnold has replaced the famous star of the Tarzan program; Chita.

Gail Oliver is a professional spaghetti bender, working part time in a pizza parlor to help support her 15 kids.

Lucille Tillman since 1967 has turned into an all-around female athlete. Besides winning an Olympic medal, she also gave her Dad a karate chop and lived to tell about it.

Shy, retiring Patrick McCabe is proprietor of the Semore Nudist Colony. He holds the title of Head Fig Leaf in the Naked Sunworshippers of America.

Suzie Roy is a famous missionary in the deepest part of Africa. She has solved her problems of transportation, however, it seems whenever she wants to be transferred she automatically becomes a stowaway in a CARE package.

Patty Gaunt, with all of her ups and downs, is now an elevator operator in the tallest building in Labrador, the Goose Hilton.

Ed Haskin is now appearing in the Grand Ole Opry, where he replaced Jimmy Dean in his old age as M.C. and lead country-western singer.

With her deep insight in poetry and literature, Dianne Miller has become a leading literary critic. Her articles appear regularly in the New Yorker.

Diane Moyle's experience as a librarian assistant in High School paid off, for she is now head librarian in the Library of Congress.

Kathe Smitley is superintendent of all American elementary schools in Upper-Transylvania, Lower Slavovia, Outer-Mongolia, and Inner Povungtuk.

Jim Shaffer is presently a card shark in Las Vegas--while on the Goose, he kept his wallet wide by making the rest of the gang go home empty-handed.

Faye Daniels is another world reknown performer. She's an exotic Go-Go dancer in the famous club Whiskey a-Went-Went.

After finally completing high school, Lee Roy Weed, with his long, curly, flowing black hair, became a Mamma for the notorious Hell's Angels.
