This Yearbook will preserve a precious memory of the students' unique experience at the Hahn Elementary School. It reflects the happenings over the school year and captures the images of friends, classmates, and teachers. Years from now it will continue to be a source of pleasant recollections to faculty and students alike.

I would like to express my congratulations to the publication staff for the fine job which they accomplished. I thank them for their devotion and hard work in developing an outstanding Yearbook.

AN AIR FORCE KID

I MOVE AROUND FROM PLACE TO PLACE
FROM ONE COUNTRY TO ONE OTHER
WE GET SETTLED DOWN IN ONE CITY,
WHEN WE HAVE TO MOVE TO ANOTHER.

MY FRIENDS ARE VERY MANY
THEY COME FROM DIFFERENT LANDS, FROM DESERTS TO SNOWCAPPED MOUNTAINS,
FROM BEACHES TO DUSTY SANDS.

SOMETIMES IT'S HARD TO ADJUST TO DIFFERENT LANGUAGES AND LAWS, FOR INSTANCE, TSCHUESS AND AUF
WIEDERSHEN,
SE', UNO AND UMPAS.

SOME DAYS I HOPE AND WISH I COULD BE LIKE ALL MY FRIENDS,
I WOULDN'T HAVE TO MOVE AROUND,
MY TRAVELS WOULD COME TO AN END.

BUT IT'S VERY INTERESTING, MEETING NEW PEOPLE, YOU KNOW, AND DADDY MOVES WITH HIS JOB,
SO WE'RE ALWAYS ON THE GO,

SO I'LL JUST KEEP MOVING ON,
AND LEAVE MY FRIENDS AMID,
BECAUSE, INSTEAD OF BEING A SETTLED CHILD,
I'D RATHER BE AN AIR FORCE KID.

There once was a little mouse
 Who lived in a big house
 He loved to sniff roses
 And scratch birds' noses
 And chewed up the woman's new blouse

By Clarence Dixon

I would be a nice red colored leaf over the trees and over meadows full of grass and flowers. I'd play tag with the birds and dip and soar through the air. I should go up high above trees, above telephone poles, above forests I'd climb higher, higher, and higher until I'm drifting lazily with the clouds
 I should make a sharp turn and head for home

Thanksgiving's the time
 To celebrate November
 You eat turkey also.

By Jenny Henderson

Blue

The color blue looks like ocean waves rolling toward the shore.

Blue smells like fresh blueberries on pancakes.

Blue tastes like icing on a birthday cake.

The color blue feels like cool sheets on a newly made bed.

Blue sounds like seagulls at the seashore when the tide is high.

by Daniel Church

The wind is blowing
 The colored leaves are falling Thanksgiving is near.

By Spencer Fomby

If I were a kite, wouldn't be neat,
 To be light on your feet!
 To soar up high, my my my!
 But then there is the weather,
 Could I hold together?
 The sun would be bright in my eye,
 To see the moon like a giant cream pie,
 On through the night, boy would I sail!
 But I couldn't land, to no avail,
 Until a boy would catch me,
 Smack dab in a tree,
 And there's the story,
 If I were a kite,

Pilgrims and Indians
They made friends and then feasted,
One Thanksgiving Day.

By Diana Berkley

SIXTH GRADE

There was an old man
He traveled all day in a blue sedan
Every day he ran
He kicked an old can
A poor old man

By Jon Beck

In the cool Autumn
We walk in the great forest
And see the leaves fall.

THE PUMPKIN WITH PERSONALITY

"A-are you a t-talking pumpkin?" I asked this big round pumpkin.

"But of corse my friend," he answered
"didn't think I was a sock did you?"

"W-well no but I've never seen a talking pumpkin!" I explained.

The pumpkin said, "Well you have now, but not for long 'cause I have to go. By the way my name is Peter the pumpkin with personality!"

"Uh, by Mr. Peter the pumpkin with personality" I said.

Peter said "By!" and thats all folks!

Blue

The color blue looks like a melted ice cube.

The color blue sounds like rain falling at my door step.

Blue feels like waves splashing on my face.

The color blue smells like fresh air.

Blue tastes like cold water.

I would fly free in the blue sky. I would be somebodies kite, who would fly me and take good care of me. Somebody who wouldn't throw me under their bed or stuff me in a closet. If I were a kite I would want to be loved, and be somebodies best friend. If I were a kite, I would want somebody to fly me.

If I Were a Kite

If I were a kite, I would feel as light as ever. I would fly free and with the wind. I would fly high in the sky and listen to the birds talking and squawk. I would fly in and out among the clouds and feel their dampness. Oh only if I were a kite.

Snow

Snow falls like cold, wet fingers, Reaching,
 Reaching,
 Reaching for the leaves of trees.
 Cold, white fingers,
 Trying to find something to grab

Fingers, Reaching,
 Grabbing,
 Looking for something to hold.
 Have you ever seen
 Snow like me?

LIFE IN GERMANY

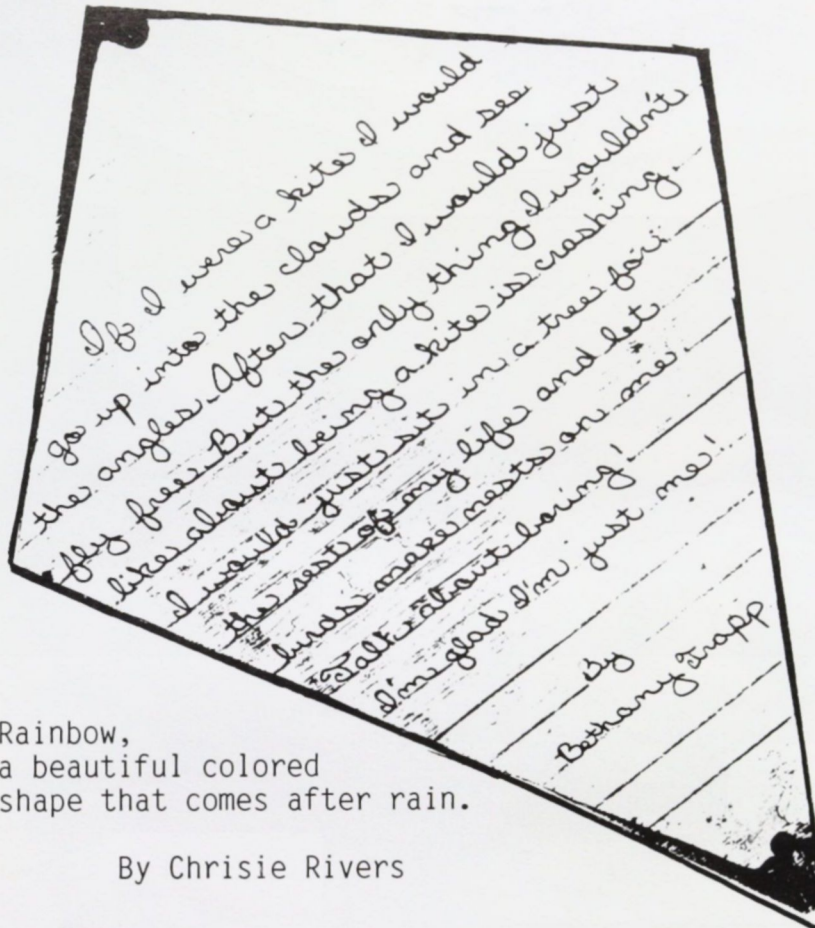

Germany's fun,
in the spring and fall,
on a 30 Km
volksmarch.

Germany's fun,
in the summer,
a frolicking,
in a castle.

Germany's fun,
in the winter,
when snow is,
on the ground.

Germany's fun,
anytime,
for learning,
its language.

By Michael McCarty

Rainbow,
a beautiful colored shape that comes after rain.

By Chrisie Rivers

Sunbeams shining down.
Oh how bright you are tody.
Shining down on me.
Oh how nice you are to me,
and very helpful to us.

By Shauna Monroe

Snow

As I walk through the snow,
It crunches like crackers!
I look forward to the snow
Because school gets out early.

Snow cheers me up when all my Friends are gone.
And you can always depend on Snow in Hahn German!

Snow

It jumps out of the sky and paints
the ground white and makes the kids play.

By Ryan Trenary

The falling leaves are Red, yellow, orange, greenish
The trees will be bare.

By Kelly Baldwin

Look at the leaves fall
When they fall they turn brown
Then you rake the leaves.

By Barry Harris

Leaf-covered lawns are A pretty sight to see when They glisten so nice.

Bare trees,
no leaves,
So bare and dull.
Their only color-brown!
They sway in the breeze.

Snow

The snow has shiny eyes,
It walks and talks and even dies,
I like the snow because its white,
It walks over everything in sight.

It came and walked up to my Door last Saturday night,
And so it won't let me go outside.

DAD'S DIRTY SOCKS

Have you ever had to take your dad's dirty socks to the dirty clothes hamper. Well I have let me tell you about it:

They stink like crazy. I hate to hear my dad say "get my socks and put them in the dirty clothes". I hate to even touch them because they stink like dirty diapers. Well that's all I have to say except never look at your dad's dirty socks. That's a warning.

SUCKING THUMBS

I hate sucking my thumb because if you put your thumb under a microscope you will see a lot of germs on that dirty little finger.

My mother told me I never sucked my thumb, but I believe that every one sucked their thumb one time or another.

YUCKY STORY

One day in math this girl had an egg with paint on it. I smelled it. I smelled awful. And then set it right on my desk and I smelled it even more.

Then I started to feel sick, I felt a headache coming on, it hurt. Then my stomach felt upset that was the most stinky thing I every smelled.

A YUCKY NIGHT OF A SPOON

(written by a spoon)

I wonder what the Penmans are having for dinner tonight. Oh, here comes Mrs. Penman. She's getting out a can of chicken soup. She put it on the stove and know she's going to set the table. Oh no, I got stuck with Melissa. Everytime they have soup Melissa puts crackers in her soup so that there's hardly any soup, just mushy crackers. Also she sits there and chews on me while she talks. I mean seriously do you know what it's like to be stuck in mush then chewed on. It's disgusting!

After dinner I'm put in the kitchen to be washed. Not again! Melissa is doing dishes! She can't do dishes at all! She never gets me clean. When she's done I'll have mushy crackers still all over me. Well here I go right into the dish wat-bl. bl. bl.....

DIRTY DIAPERS

Have you ever thought of dirty diapers. Dirty diapers make me feel sick. They smell like stale garbage and the stench of bananas that have been sitting for days. It looks like a dirty brown rag. When you think of dirty diapers you can almost hear a baby cry. If the world didn't have dirty diapers there would be dirty pants.

The Tiger and the Race

Once there was a tiger kid who wanted to enter a race for being king of all beasts except lions, and for tiger kids only.

The tiger was determined to win the race and he thought, "Why not, if I win that race I will be handed the crown and seat of the throne. Everyone will honor me and if they don't, I will finish them greatly for I will have the power."

The tiger kept on bragging about when he wins the race he will do this and that, and other animals got so sick that they didn't even listen to tiger, or if they did they said, "Oh we'll see, we'll see."

Finally the day of the race began and the tiger walked up the track, head high, and chest out and got ready for the race in fancy shorts and shirt. A murmur ran through the crowd, when the gun cracked and the race started. Tiger was far behind everyone then he started to catch up. He started to think of his fortune as a king. Then he fell behind and lost the race. Then a zebra came up to him and said, "Don't count your chickens before they hatch."

IF I WERE ELECTED PRESIDENT

If I were elected president I would make there be no wars. Everything would be in peace. I would give money, clothing and food to the poor people and there would be no taxes to pay. Computers would do almost everything for us. The schools days would be shorter because computers would teach kids things much faster than people.

In big cities crime would be cut down on and there would be no pollution because cars and factories would also be run by computers.

There would be no need for most of us to work because almost everything would be free.

Even with all of these things I would be fair to everyone.

And there are trees with no leaves
The leaves cover the grass.

"SLUGS"

I hate slugs because they're so slimy and yucky. I hate them when they move around on the cement. Or when somebody steps on one. They smell so bad they make me want to barf.

We live where most of them live. My little brother likes playing with them and flicking them ten feet over my head. "I HATE SLUGS"!

By Robert Stolt, Jr.

YUCKY

What I think is yucky is teachers. This is why I do not like teachers is because they teach school and I do not like school. Teachers give us too much homework especially subs.

Teachers get mad at kids and tells the kid to call their parents and the teachers tell the kids "You are on detention." Get rid of them, have no more school.
