Mr. Manfred Casper is the Supply Specialist who orders supplies and materials for the school. He also is accountable for school property.

Below is Ms. Nancy Parsons and Ms. Mary Chemlick discussing a computer problem. Or the Chicago Bulls? The three ladies above are Ms. McGahee, Ms. Morris, and newly arrived registrar Ms. Kelly.

THE OFFICE STAFF

No Hanau Middle School yearbook would be complete without praise of Ms. Ramona Wunsch, admin assistant, secretary, philosopher, and just simply the heart of the school. Ms. Wunsch came to HAMS in March 1989 when the school first opened. Before coming to HAMS, Ms. Wunsch worked at Gelnhausen ES and Argonner ES. Prior to that, did you know she was an NCO in the U.S. Army for 14 years. That's right! She's an amazing person whose hobbies are reading, swimming, biking, and watching over her nephews and grandchildren. Keep going, Ms. Wunsch!

Rick was a friend and colleague. I only knew him less than two years but he made me feel welcome to HAMS and always showed great kindness.— Ed Jude

Rick was a real friend and a great teacher. I first met him when he came to work at Sportfield and shared many good times as we traveled Germany in search of sites historically important for field trips and class studies.
— Merlene Bennett

Rick was a comedian, a cook, a photographer, a wonderful travelling buddy and professional tour guide. He lived life to the fullest and brought many warm smiles and laughs to those around him. I miss him!
— Monika Juergens

Our halls were richer for his love of teaching and that wonderful laugh.
— Ruth Callahan

I can still see Rick standing in the hallway before class exchanging greetings and jokes with students entering his class or passing by. A bit of humor and a positive attitude made for a bit of sunshine in the 6th grade hallway.
— Bob Sennett

Rick always brightened my day with his unique sense of humor accompanied by his raucous laughter. I enjoyed discussing various modern jazz musicians and concerts with him. Rick was admired by his students and respected by his colleagues. I have benefited from having known him.
— James Lynch

I miss his laugh. He had a way of making me laugh when I was sad. I miss him. — Ramona Wunsch

I always looked forward to Rick's smile, jokes, and laughter. He had a talent for living life to the fullest. I miss him. — Carol Phillips

A TRIBUTE TO RICK LANCASTER

Welcome to Hanau

Welcome to Hanau American Middle School. I'm just one of the guides. Wait a minute! If you're not smiling, you're going to be kicked out of this yearbook. Smiles! At HAMS, we have smiles.

Well, you see Mr. Sennett. It all started with Josh Miller last year. We're actually tied to a glue stick so we can't possibly get hurt. We're smiling and we want to also welcome you to Hanau Middle School. Let us show you around.

Yes Mom, I was welcomed for one more year. All I had to do was smile. Yes Mom, I'll cooperate.

AMERICAN MIDDLE SCHOOL

Danielle, Keegan, Vanessa, Tanesha, and Syretta are flashing million dollar smiles.

If I find the answer, I'll smile!

I'm just happy to have an older sister.

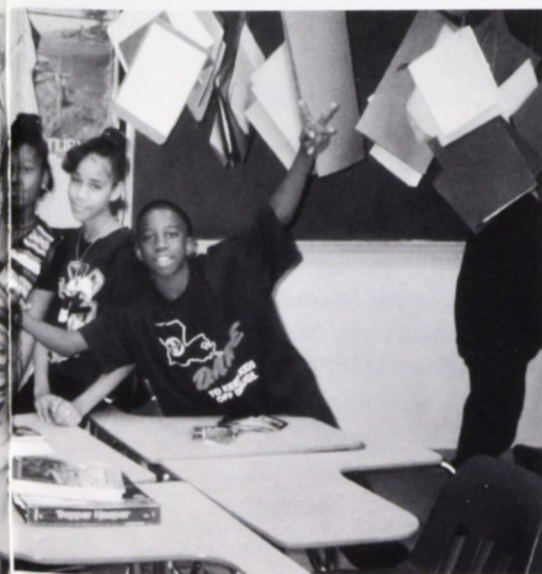

Although sometimes we get frustrated, life is great. As students, we have a schedule: get here, get there, walk, don't run, hurry, wait, sit down, stand up, but we still have a smile.

The walls cry for your laughter and your steps To the point the paint peels without their caress Of your presence and enduring acceptance of destiny!

The bus brings us here by eight And we then leave for other places, With smiles of happiness on our faces!

As you can see, students stick together whether coming to school or just hanging out at school. If a camera happens to come around all gather flashing a smile and an eagerness to help. Sixth, seventh, and eighth graders are friends and running to education.

Oh, is Dr. Hunt moonlighting, cleaning up for "education", frustrated, or running in his classroom?

Mr. Rivenbark actually is talking to the genie.

Ms. Warner is in Webster's as the definition of music.

Here we are! Without you, we would not have a job. With you, we are the happiest people in the world although occasionally, we complain. We are extremely lucky to teach at HAMS and to have wonderful kids like you in our classrooms. We wish you the best of luck in your future endeavors.

HAPPINESS

Sixth Grade Sensations

Robert Finders, Social Studies

"Say, Ms. Callahan, I need your help," Dr. Finders stated strangely. "Who are THESE guys?"

"Well, Jude came here the same year as I did (93), Hunt was already here, Juergens came last year, and Edwards came here this year as you did," Ms. Callahan replied. "What's your problem?"

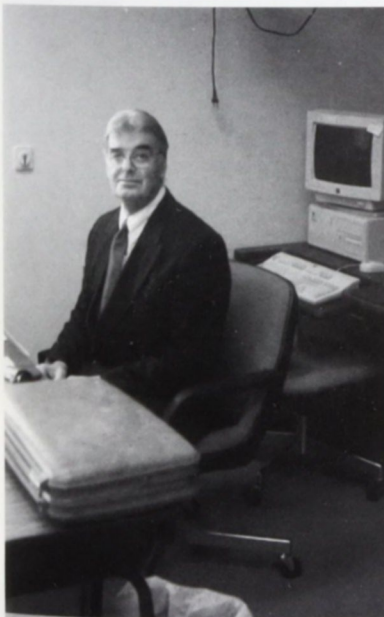

"Gee, Edwards looks dressed, Jude is too casual but Hunt? And what's with Juergens?" inquired Dr. Finders.

"Why what's wrong with you? They've joined the sixth grade. Come on, let's shoot some basketball," retorted Ms. Callahan.

"Where's the enrollment form?" responded Dr. Finders.

8th Grade Wonders!

Merlene Bennett

A Dedication--To Merlene

*As we finish our tasks on time,
And march through adolescence
For a future of no promise or certainty,
We will remember many who pierced our hearts
And instilled knowledge, desire, and respect.*

*There is One who will be in a chamber
Flowing with every beat of our lives.
There is One who entered our hearts
And will continue to kick us in line
As we journey to our final destiny.*

*Some things are easily forgotten and
Just as easily remembered, but our Merlene is the Jewel of our lives. She is the sun
That brightened our day as we exited the darkness
And entered the halls of learning.*

*Yes, although we part and go our chosen paths.
There is still a merging of Oneness.*

---Anonymous

*Ms. Merlene Bennett-- teacher, mother, grandmother--has been in DODDS over half her life (which is a long time!). She has cuddled us and she has gathered us in her arms and made us laugh
as we learn. We dedicate this yearbook to her and challenge her to teach the poem above to all the school before she leaves. Education won't be the same without her. Ms. Bennett will retire and spend more time with her family in the states. We wish her the best of luck and we hope she will enjoy her retirement. And, by the way,*

Come back! I have one more story to tell!

HAMS ACTIVITIES AND MORE

Receiving awards are Paula, Tamika, Tanika, and Lorena

Ms. Carolyn McCloskey is the definition of activities. Dedication and hard work create an atmosphere in not only sports but academics as well. You will never find a school with this level of enthusiasm towards “rewards.” With McCloskey, all kids are winners. See her before you leave school this year and say thank you!

Some winners are holding “The Amazing Bull” award, the school’s highest award, based on academic excellence and service to the school. Pictured are just a few of the awardees: Shannon, Kristina, Christina, Amanda, Heather (Gosh, we love that smile!), Kevin, Maria, and Ben. Congratulations!

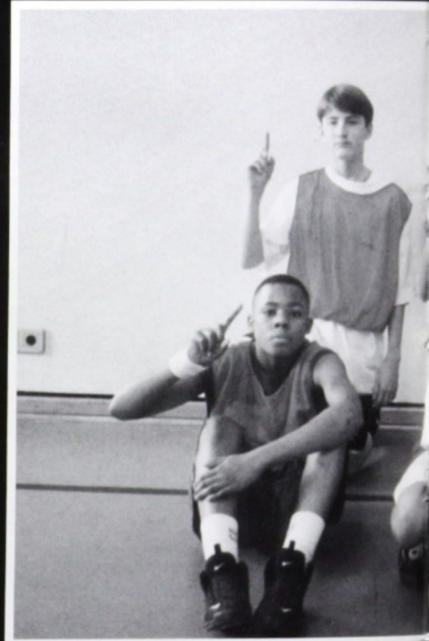

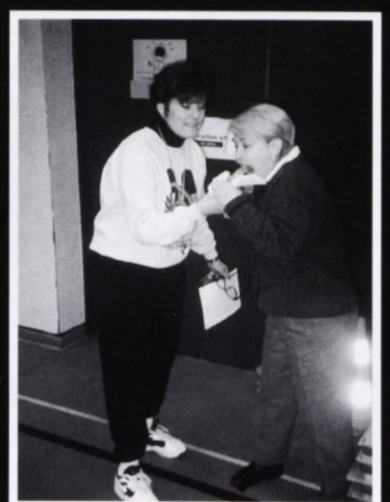

Wrestlers Tim, Aaron, Caleb, and Bryan with Coach Brooks

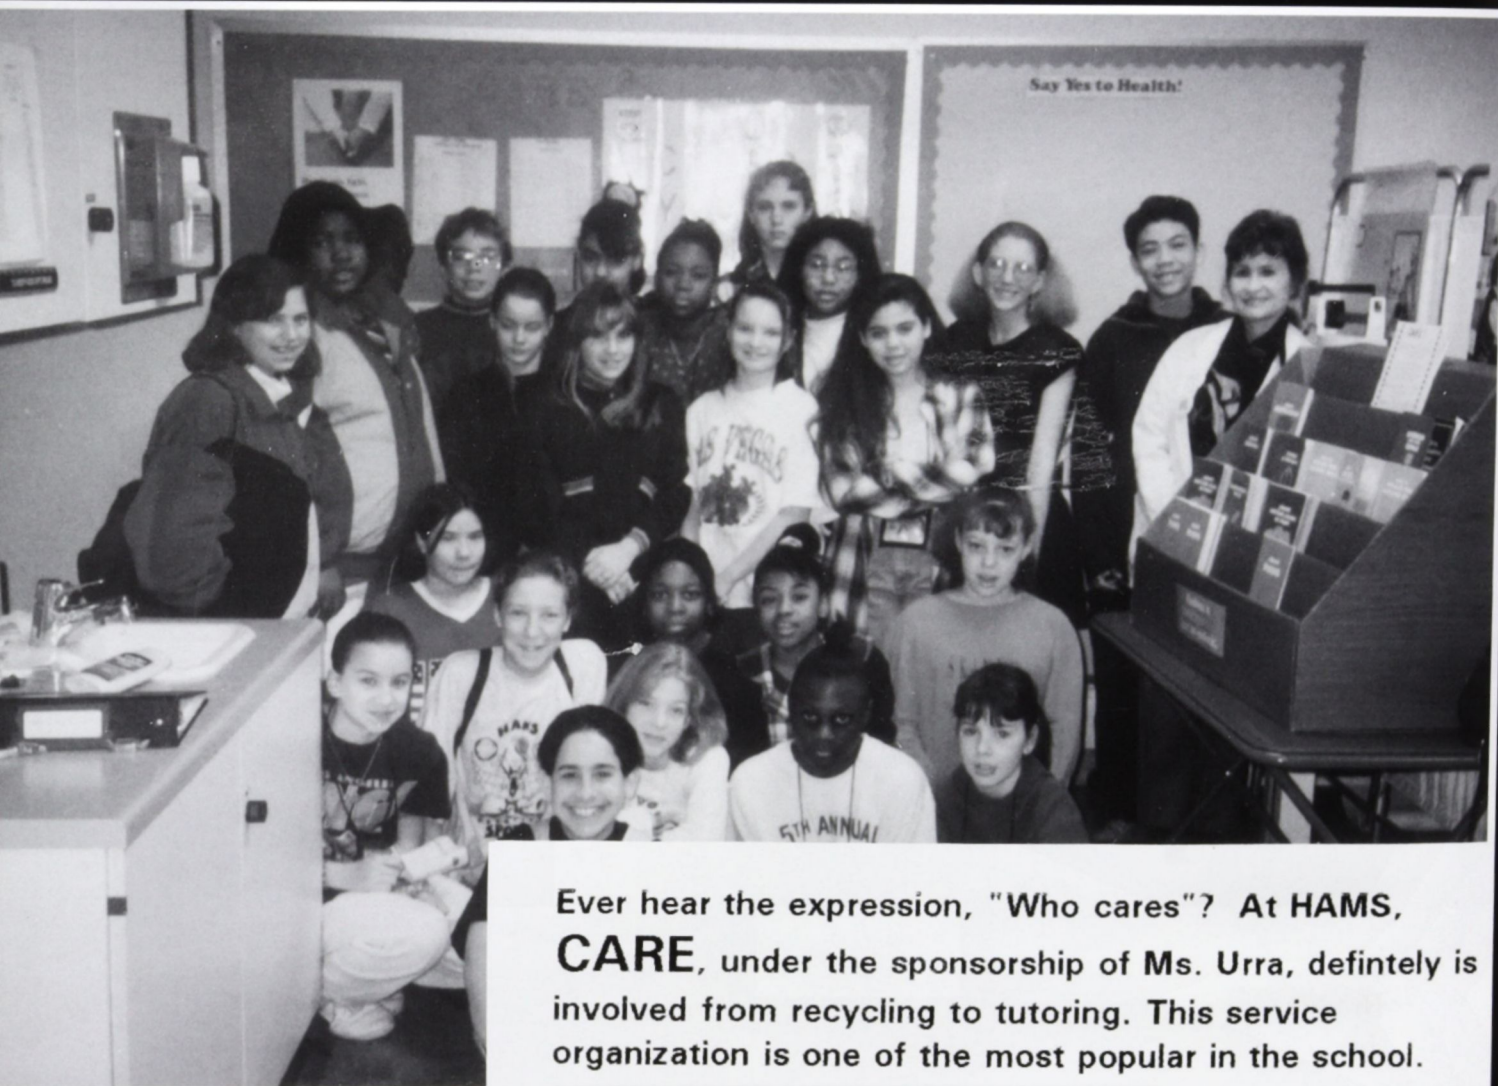

To the right from top to bottom are three boys' intramural teams: red, green, and blue. They play mornings, lunch, and after school. At the far right top is the girls' team, coached by Ms. Juergens. The boys' team is next with Mr. Beau. The girls' and boys' teams played games with Rhein-Main and the Frankfurt International School. Hats off to THE AMAZING BULLS! Special thanks should be extended for the many hours of volunteering from the coaches.

Not only will Ms. McCloskey sell the pastry, she will also hold it while you eat.

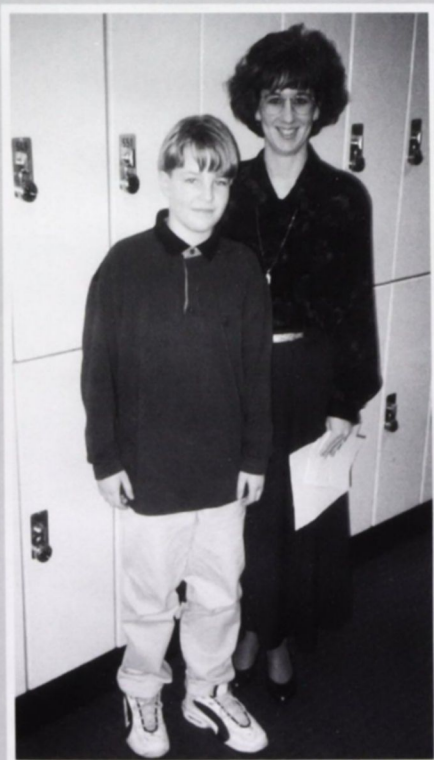

Ever hear the expression, "Who cares"? At HAMS, CARE, under the sponsorship of Ms. Urrea, definitely is involved from recycling to tutoring. This service organization is one of the most popular in the school.

The elite of the elite! The brains and academic leaders of the school, HAMS Junior National Honor Society. Sponsored by Ms. Callahan, the honor society inspires those who do well to do even better!

Ms. Bradford sponsored Mathcounts. Above is Ms. Bradford, Desirae Leipply, James Gray, Kristina Atterberry, and Heather Phillips. Oh, the penguin didn't participate.

Ms. Bradford also sponsored the Spelling Bee. Nick Scherer was the HAMS champion.

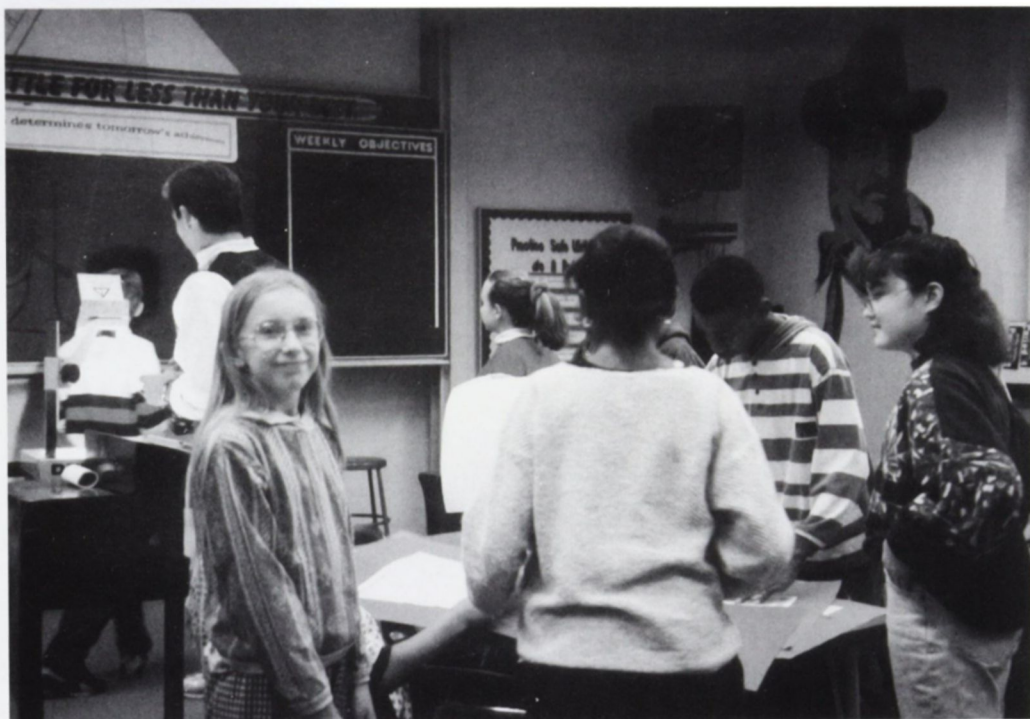

Some kids just love to walk and rest!

The Student Council under the sponsorship of Mr. Rivenbark sponsored this year's Valentine Dance. Top photo above shows the planning committee and immediately above the work on the finished product takes place.

The finished product of the ...

ASSOCIATION

The Student Council of Hanau American Middle School has been very active this school year. Many issues of student government are discussed and many motions are brought before the council. For example, before any major changes are made in policies of the student handbook, input from the Student Council is solicited. A major event that required many hours of planning and decoration was the Valentine Dance. This dance was not only a success financially but brought middle schoolers in the best of dress. It was a fantastic event at a fantastic school for fantastic students. Many thanks go to the Student Council.

... hard work paid off at the dance.

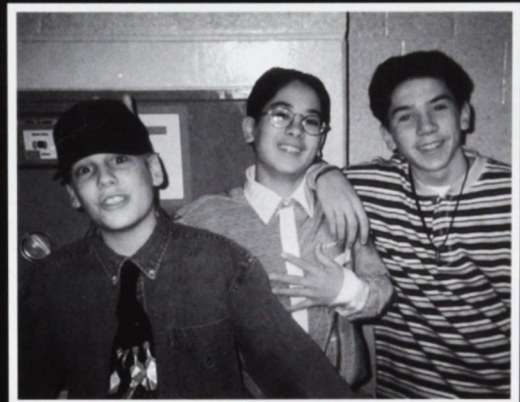

Mom, come get me before twelve!

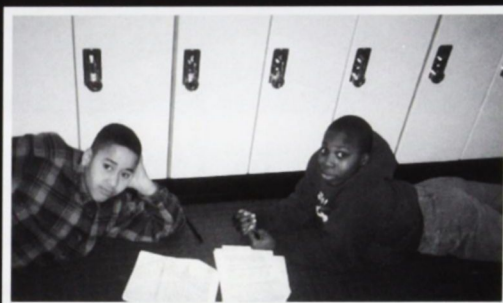

Please send Angelo here!

Anyone ask for us?

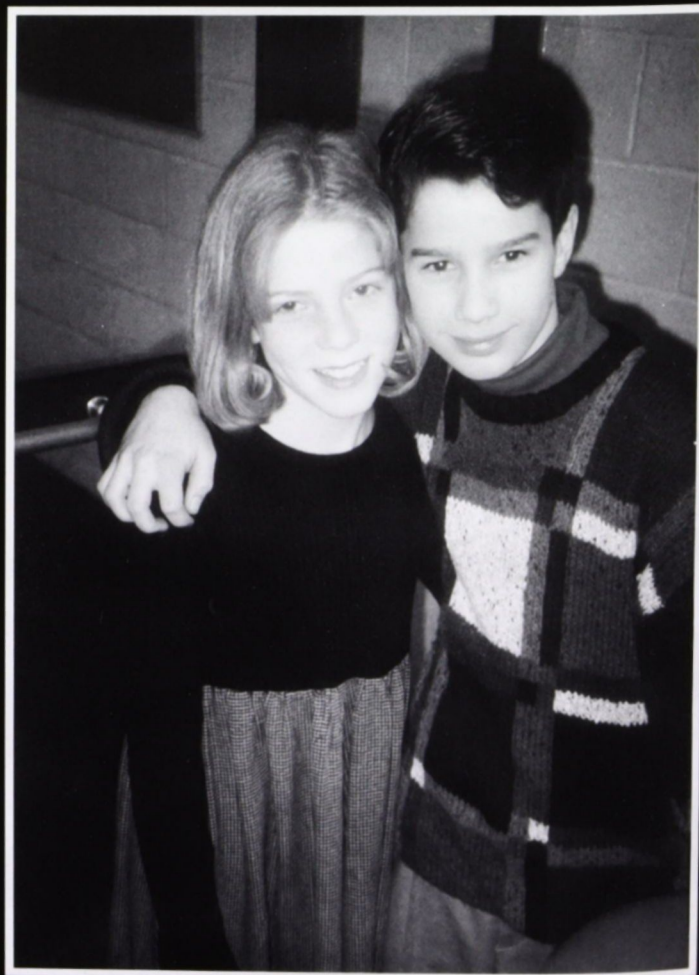

Hey, let's ask them to dance.

We couldn't find the tickets!

*We greatly enjoyed
this year's dance.
Let's do it again
next year. Thanks

The photos tell the story.
Many thanks to Ms. Warner,
Ms. Whitaker, and Mr. Rivenbark.

One of the greatest pleasures of any yearbook advisor is to be able to work with many unique personalities. Look above and you will see almost all are unique. Meetings after school, photos, griping from the advisor, photos, deadlines, photos, and more photos. Who wants to hear this all the time? Well, some kids did and were a great help in putting this book together. Sixth graders Eddy, Tanesha, Syretta, Theresa, and Jason are not shown here, but they helped tremendously. When you see any of these students, give them a big thank you! Well, Danielle and Keegan--I was happy to meet you!
