Dedication:

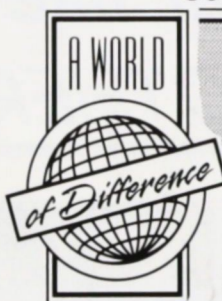

...the most important reason for going from one place to another is to see what's in between, and they took great pleasure in doing just that. From The Phantom Tollbooth

Mr. Lynch and Mrs. McCloskey, as coach, counselor, volunteer, teacher, administrator and friend, you have exemplified the most positive characteristics of educators.

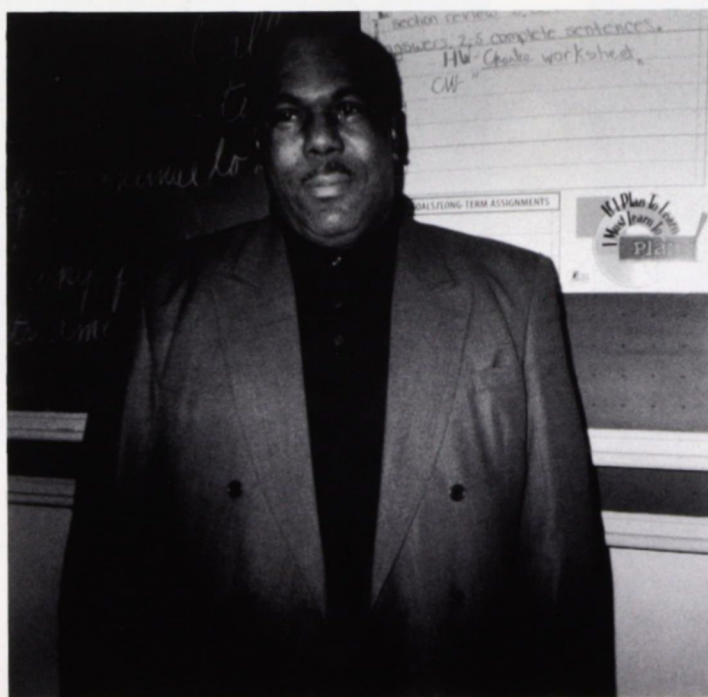

You've earned our respect, admiration, and appreciation for a job well done.

The 2000-2001 edition of Hanau Middle School's yearbook is dedicated to you - with as much honor as you've given our profession by being a part of our team. We enjoyed sharing your journey from then to now and wish you well in retirement.

Go in peace.

Wellness Day

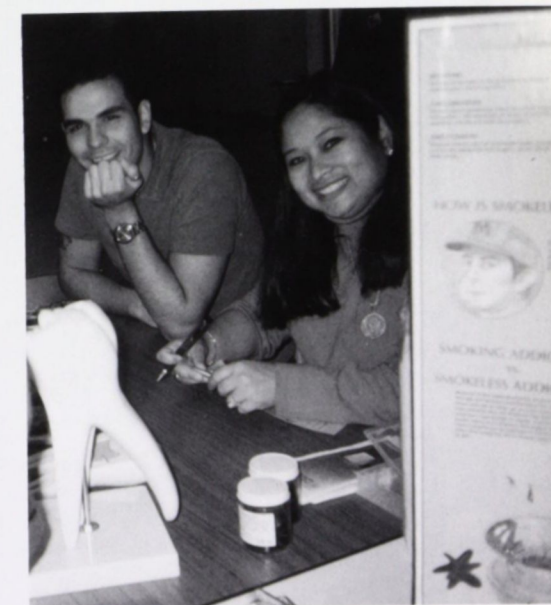

Jogging, biking, roller blading, hiking three miles, walking and cleaning up the environment, Latin dancing, doing yoga and relaxation exercises, making theme t-shirts, making and eating healthy snacks were some of the highlights of the October "Wellness Day."

"A Totally Awesome Day!"

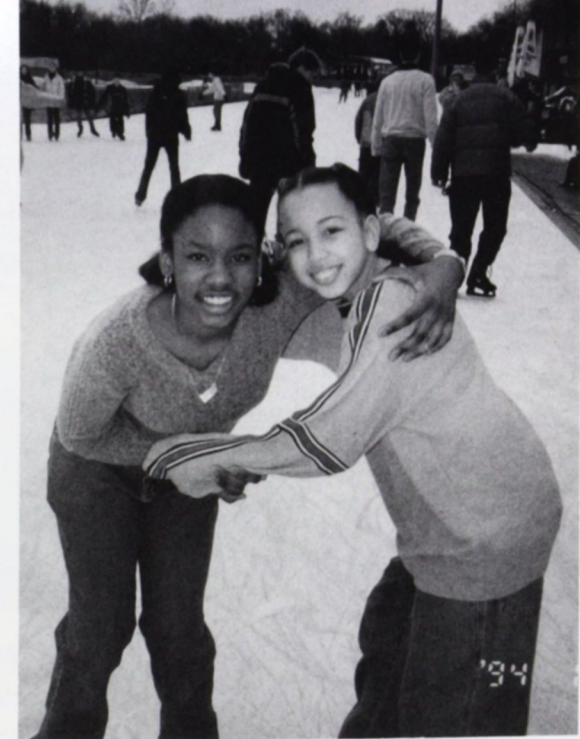

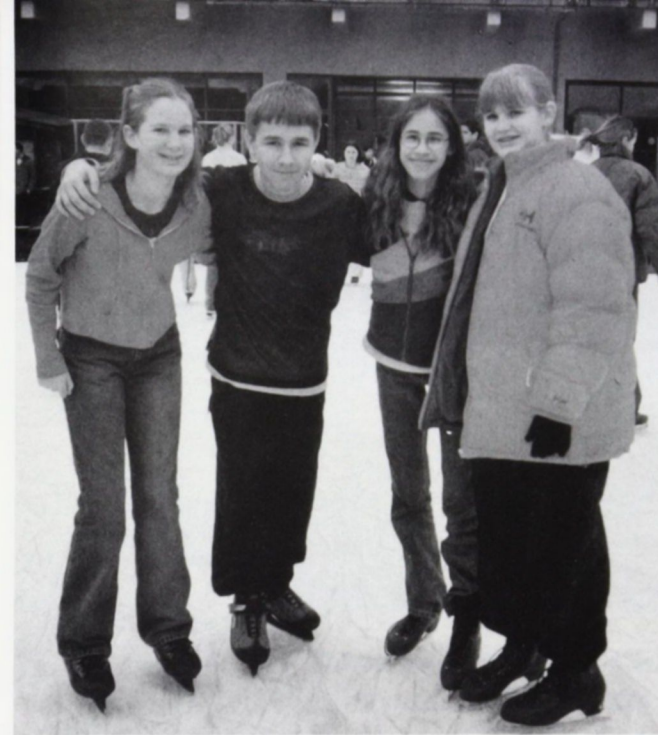

Presenters gave mini-lessons on drugs and alcohol, make-up, weight training, bike and rollerblade safety, weight control, and many other topics.

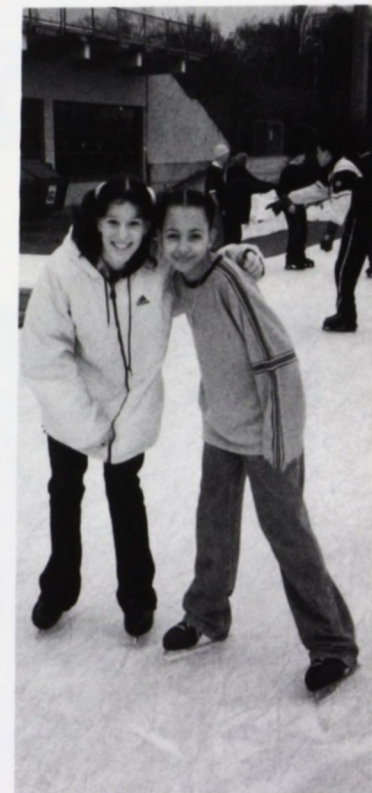

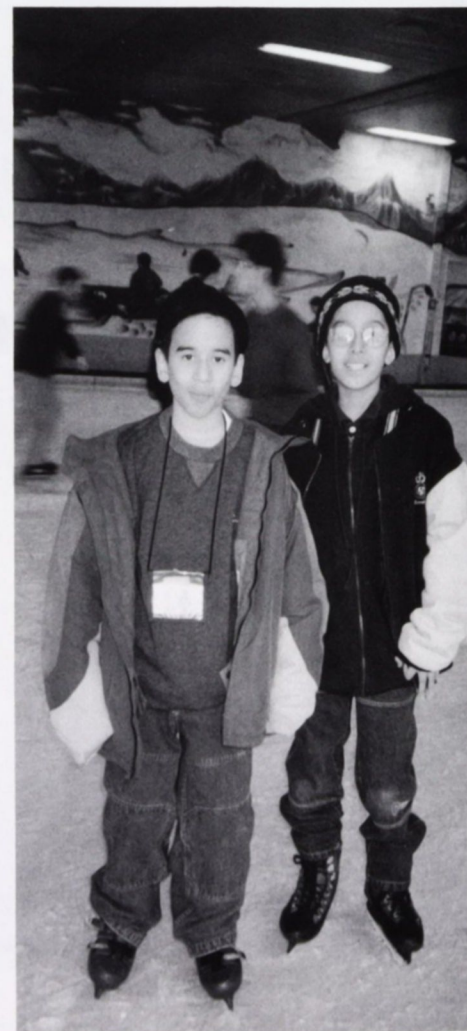

In the gym, kids took part in CPR demos from the American Red Cross. Representatives from the Hanau Clinic and Dental unit were available with information and screenings.
