STUDYING PHYSICS

Good Luck! 2002

The Senior class went to the ice skating rink to study physics while the young under-classmen were stuck at school taking the Terranovas. Most seniors were on their bottoms whether it was on the ice or on a bench. Afterwards they went to the Hessen Center to eat and shop. Lucky Seniors!!!!

Golf

The Hanau Panthers 2001 Golf Team did a great job this year. The season started out strong, with the Panthers winning the first two tournaments. Matthew Lawrence came in first in those two tournaments, and Ryan Lawrence came in second. Matthew and Ryan both went on to Divisionals, where Matthew came in second and Ryan came in sixth. Captain Matthew Lawrence said that the team's strong points were their strong sense of camaraderie and their willingness to learn.

SENIOR WILLS

I, CHANTAL AGUIRE, would first and foremost like to than MY PARENTS for supporting me in everything and thank you to MY LORD JESUS for all that he has blessed me with. For MY BROTHER DANIEL, I leave him a good 10th grade year, thanks for all the help. To ANTOINETTE, I leave you the patience and persistence to give you a great senior year, I love you and I hope that those anger management classes work, next time swing and forget the broom. To NAOMI, I leave you all our memories and hope that our friendship will stay the same forever. To RONALD, I leave you $55,000 so that you can have everything, including all the finer things in life that you love so much, thanks for being there when I needed you. To DESHAUN SELLERS, BOONER, and THEN RESET OF THE ORIGINAL HYPNOTIZE BOOGER CAMP POSSE, I leave you guys all the raps that DJ Nostribs can mix. BOONER, take it slow and don't always go for the pretty face, look for the thug passion, you know how we do. To DOMINIC, I leave you all the girls you can handle, play on playa. To MARK PROFIT, you always going to be my boy, but I hope you and (somebody) learn to work it out in the end. To TERAYE, I leave you all our clubbing memories, you'll always be my sister. To DYSH and little MARK, I hope by the time this gets printed you guys are back together. MARK, I leave you all the neck chops that we came up with. To OWEN, PAT, and THEO, I leave you all the iverson moves that you can do. To CHRIS ISAAC, I leave you many drawing pencils so that you can keep drawing those wonderful but crazy pictures. To CANDICE, I leave you all the wisdom to keep it right with my boy Allen, he's a keeper. To MIRIAM, I leave you the will to know how to pick the right one. I also want to leave you with the will to not change. I saw a drastic change form you that was so different, you're a beautiful person and there was nothing you should have changed. To JOSH I leave you all the clubs, keep on dancing you did learn from the best, right? (NOT). To TIM, I've loved you since the day we met, thank you for showing the kind of love that's "Real". And last but not least, to JILL BEST and BRITTNEY ABEYTA, the original Tag Team Twins, remember, no matter how much time goes by, a noodle will always be a noodle, so I leave you guys all the wood that comes your way.

GRACE ANIM Life is a beautiful journey but don't rush to it. Also do everything in sound mind and body. I would like to thank GOD for his guidance throughout these years, his compassion and love around me all these years and also preserving my life. I also want to thank MY PARENTS for bringing me this far. I also want to thank ALL TEACHERS for being there for me through everything and never thinking badly of me. I also want to thank MS. BROWN for being so kind to me.

I, LARZIBAL BAGALAWIS, am being so nice an thankful to those people who have helped me. I would like to first start off by thanking GOD, for giving me the strength to accomplish my goals and for making it this fair in high school. To DAD, thank you for working hard in the Army. To the UNITED STATES ARMY, thank you for giving hope for success for those people in the Army. To my BROTHERS and FRIENDS. I leave you all of my knowledge. Adolescents is the hard part of growing up, so keep out of trouble. TEACHERS, I will never forget you. I owe you all my gratitude. I respect all that you have done to prepare me and build me up for the next step. FOR THE GIRL I LIKE, who inspired me to go to school even though she doesn't like me. I know how foolish I am, anyone fantasies are part of our nature. To the CLASS OF 2002, I would like to wish you all the happiness in the world.

My name is EMMANUEL BAKER. I too have ridden the roller coaster of Hanau high. Like an invisible person at times, I have seen and know your ways and deeds when you couldn't even sense my presence. But I tell you. There should be no regrets so long as you learn from the past for all who open the door to life and welcome it, I give you the gift of the sight of future. I beg you to use it well. Don't live in the past or of those mistakes of the past, but instead, walk with your head up, eyes locked ahead to the endless possibilities of living. Now, to my fellow pupil of the senior class of 2002 of Hanau High School – those that have come and gone. For you have touched my life and the lives of many Hanau students and this is a gift that will be with us every minute of your lives. I thank all of you. A special shout out to all my BROS. & SIS. Who were here from the beginning. MAURICE, VALERIE, JOHN, KAYLEE, DOMINIQUE, CHRISTINA...Because of you, I am ready to accept the many wonders that lie ahead. With Panther Pride, Emmanuel Baker

In my final farewell, I, CHRISTINA BRADSTREET, would like to say good-bye and "thanks" to the following people who have in some way touched my life. First of all, to MY PARENTS, I just want to say thank-you for everything for putting up with me, being there when I needed you, and just basically being the best parents that you could be. I love you, and no matter where I go, always remember that! To MY BROTHERS, I DO NOT leave you my room, my stereo, or my cell phone... I plan on taking all of that with me!! (JK... At least wait until I move out!). To HEATHER WELLS, I leave you the "Anne" books... really! You (and the books) have taught me a lot this year that would have probably taken me several more years to figure out if it hadn't been for you! Also, thank-you for being there when I needed someone to listen to me talk, no give advice or fix my problems, just listen. I think it was you who helped keep me sane throughout this hectic year! Well, KEISHA BROWN (Edkesh) we have made it! I am going to leave you a box of Altoids since you always seemed to have them when I needed one... and just like the Altoids you were always there for me as well!! (Even if I worry too much and am a perfectionist!) KAYLEEN MERLE, I leave you an agenda or at least something so that you can write your assignments down! I won't be here next year for you to call, so I think it is time that you start getting them for yourself! To ELIZABETH YOU (Hey you!), I leave you and VAUGHN COOTHAM my "oh-my-gosh." You both analyzed and copied it so much that I couldn't say it for awhile, but that's okay cause now you both can just keep it! (Hopefully I won't need it in college!) KENDY HORNACK, STEPHANIE SEMONITE, and MARY KATE CORRELL... to be perfectly honest, I do not have any idea what to leave to you three! However, thanks for being the cool people you are and for "taking me in" and showing me Hanau High School when I was new! "SUGUI" (DAVID) I am leaving you three things... 1) Tic Tacs... hopefully you won't starve to death! 2) an application to UW... there is no need for an explanation there! And finally 3) my "cool" blue pen that turns silver and that you can erase... for whatever reason you want that particular pen I have no idea, but be happy cause you got it!! (Would we still have the same seminar if I were to be going to Hanau High School for another year?) To STEVEN, I am leaving you an endless supply of paper and a couple of pens so that you will always have it all handy when you want to play tic-tac-toe. Oh and thanks for "tryng" to teach me how to play even though I don't think that I ever won against you... not even once! But it was fun and seminar was never boring if you were there! To MAURICE, all I have to say is... the lunch line! To ANGELA HOLCOMB... well, what I want to leave to you I don't think that it would be very appropriate to say right here and now, but I think that you et the idea! I just can't wait until I can go to a school where you are not there so I won't have to look at your face every single day!! (Will I ever be able to say that to your face with out laughing!!!?) To ALL OF MY TEACHERS, I want to say thank-you since with out you I wouldn't have made it this far! To the CLASS OF 2002... what can I say? We made it!!

I, SOTORA MONIQUE BRINSTON, give thanks to GOD, MY PARENTS, TEACHERS, and FRIENDS, and well wishes. I thank GOD for making every think possible for me and for giving me strength to endure. To MY PARENTS, I give special thanks for pushing me forward. To my best friends ANGELIA, VALERIE, VALERIE, ALICIA and SHAR-RAE I leave the memories we shared and I pray that their time spent at Hanau High School was as exciting as mine. To THE FRIENDS I'M LEAVING BEHIND I will miss the time we shared. To NICOLE, SUGAR, KARA my Power Puff Girls, I will miss walking down the halls and hearing Nicole sing. Sotorous. To MARK, I wish you the best and good luck. Stay out of trouble. To VONTRELL, I will miss your talking and annoying behavior. To THE BASKETBALL TEAM, I have enjoyed the trips and the lovely singing coming from the back of the bus. MUR. HUNT, even though we had our differences, I enjoyed your class and getting on your nerves. Just think you have another two years with Vontrell. To MR. ELLER, I have enjoyed being in your class and I hope that I will encounter another teacher as inspiring as you were to me. And a special thanks to MY MOTHER, SISTERS, and MY BROTHER, without you all in my life I wouldn't be the person I am today. And TO EVERYONE ELSE, I can't imagine what life would be like if ya'll weren't in it.

I, KEISHA BROWN, would like to start out by saying thanks to a couple of people. First off to HEATHER WELLS, for being a very dear friend and all the help I've received from you. Even though we didn't see eye to eye all of the time, you were always there and willing to help when I needed it most. Second, to MRS. BRASHIER, even if you aren't here right now (although I wish you were) I want to say thanks for helping me expand my vocal range and meet new heights. I enjoyed the time I spent in our class and I loved the way you helped brighten my day. You were always full of energy and ready to help when we needed. I'll make sure to dedicate my first c.d. to you! Third to NAOMI MANUEL, for helping me to see that there is another side of life and inviting me to have a glance of it! Finally, to BRITTANIA HILL. Thanks! You made me see that even though life throws you hard balls, you can still pull through and go for your dreams. I can't wait till you become a professional singer. Look out world... Here comes another star! Now for everyone else I mention, I have something to leave to you! If I forget to mention anybody I'm very sorry. CHRISTINA BRADSTREET I leave you my ability to not be so perfect. Sometimes the things that have the least perfection are the best things in life. SOTORA BRINSTON, I leave you memories of our chorus days. Remember the little things in life can be the brightest parts of our future. KAYLEEN MERLE, I leave you my... or should I say our song, "Fallin'" by Alicia Keys, and a piece of tape for the light in the stairwell. I'll never forget you and our talks we had in the stairwell. To ANTHONY STARTKTS, the brother I always wanted but never got, I leave you my life-long friendship. To the BUBBLE CLIQUE, I leave all you guys lunch tickets! I know how much you really need them and I hope that in the future we'll have the time and enough money for lunch! Lastly, to the DRAMA CLUB of 2000-2001, I leave you my talents that I took away stupidly. I'm very proud of all of you- good job! To the DRAMA CLUB of 2001-2002, I leave you a finished play because I am going to finish this year. Thanks to MRS. LYNN for giving me a second chance! Oh and before I go, to MR. HUNT, I leave you patience. Even though I talked a lot in your class, I did learn something. Have more patience and class will go even better!

I, MARYKATHLEEN ELIZABETH CORRELL, being of sound mind and body, upon occasion of my high school graduation do hereby bequeath the following: to MY PARENTS, I leave you infinite "I love you's." You've raised me well. I leave you the comfort of knowing that I'll be fine, so don't worry too much. I want you to know that I really do appreciate everything you've done for me, and all the sacrifices you've made. I have a wonderful life, and I'm a good person, and I have you two to thank for that. To MY MOTHER, You and I have a bond that most mother/daughter pairs dream of. I love you, Mommy. Thank you for always being there to laugh with me, and to cry with me. Thank you for my life. I hope I make you proud. JOHN, I know we've had our ups and downs. Especially in the beginning. But I want you to know that I have learned so much from you, and I am a smarter, stronger person because of you. I leave you a quiet house. To SAM, my angel. You are the brightest part of my life. I love you. You are the coolest person in the world, baby. I leave you all hugs, kisses, understanding, patience, and appreciation you will ever need. I love you, sweetheart, and I am always here if you need me. To MY DADDY. I miss you, and I love you. But I feel you in the warmth of the sun, and I see you in the beauty of the stars, so I know you're with me. I feel you here. Just because I can't see you doesn't mean you're any less there. Thank you for my life. To MY MOTHER, I was raised by a committee, and I wouldn't be who I am today if it wasn't for all the hugs, kisses, tears, laughs, stories, jokes, spontaneous moments spent bursting into song... everything you've given me. I love you all. To DESIRRE, hey gorgeous! You have two more years left, and I won't be here to tell you it'll all be ok. But it will. Trust that. Trust God. You know that! I leave you all our memories... our books, getting yelled at by Frau Keil, making collages in art, all the drama we've talked about over the past two years... everything. You remember more of it than I do. I leave you all the hugs you ever need. To AL...EX, I leave you our long conversations about our dysfunctional relationships. And your mad American Eagle style. To RICH, L.J. AND ZACH, I don't know what to leave you! You're really sweet guys. I guess I leave you girls who deserve you. Um, that's all I can think of. STEPHANIE GRUMMEL, thanks for teaching me how to wear make-up. I leave you all our talks in art, and the class periods we sang through. Someday you will find a man who deserves you. And you won't have to go through any drama for him. I hope you remember that. STEPH. Geez, Where do I start? There are so many things I want to say here, but I don't have near enough room. I leave you riding scooters around your block at 2 am, I leave you all our trips to Frankfurt, piercings, cartwheels on the baseball field, Sonnenex, NoDoze, a bottle of Nyquil, the Perks of Being a Wallflower, our infinite moments... everything. Our friendship means more to me than you will ever know. You've taught me so much. Thank you for always being there to pick me up when I fell on my face. Thank you for your patience, and for knowing me better than I know myself sometimes. I love you. Oh, and baby, you are a thug. To KENDY, I want to thank you for not giving up on our friendship. I leave you a famous husband and a coke addiction to go along with it. Just kidding. I leave you our Holland near death experience. I leave you a new copy of "Ariel". You will get one someday, I promise! JEREMY, what can I say? I've already said so much. I leave you all our memories. Our good times, and bad times, our smiles, our tears. I learned so much about myself in the time we were together, and without you I wouldn't be who I am. Thank you. I leave you the courage to go after your dreams. And as things go on, I hope you remember me as who I am. Because you know who that is. MATT, I leave you delusions of Nelly grandeur, I leave you sitting by the vacuums at the Shell station because there was nowhere else to go. I leave you all the Scott memories. SCOTT, even though you won't be able to read this, I just want you to know that I tried, I really, really tried to make things work between you and you know who. I leave you a car that isn't a piece of crap. I leave you your drunken "level" speech. I leave you a woman who won't break your heart, and who is worthy of you. She's out there. Take care of yourself. JED, You will definitely never see this, but I'm leaving you all the poems you inspired. Thank you for being the most beautiful person I've ever seen in my life. NIGGAJOE! I leave you a place in my senior will. Ha! And a big, floppy che's hat. And 5000 years with Kristen ARRON. I don't know how to write this. I just want you to know that no matter what happens, and where we go, I did love you. And I do care about you. And you sparked something in me that I didn't know was there. I am so proud of you and I support you in everything. Because I know you, who you are. I see you. And you know that I leave you our bubbles. I leave you "Alive" by P.O.D. And the Lifehouse c.d. I'm here to be whatever you need me to be. Thank you for letting me take down your walls. Thank you for taking down mine. You are a beautiful person. I leave you the strength you need to let someone in, and let her matter. I don't know. I leave you the strength to be happy. To my best Hanau friend SYLVIA. I leave you the countless hours we spent wandering around Fliegerhorst. I leave you all the time we spent hanging out at the trash hole, and all the time we spent knocking on Scott's door (he's not gone, he's just sleeping). I leave you all the advice you will ever need. I leave you a car you can drive. What are you going to do when I'm not there to keep you on the road? I leave you the car dances. I leave you our bubble (ch-ch access denied). Oh, geez. I leave you scoping. I leave you Ludacris and Ruff Ryders. Geez, what am I forgetting? "What's his name? Guy? Hey Guy!" Thanks for everything. I love you, dogg (dawg? I don't know). And, finally, to my best friend in the whole world. My soul sister, BECKY. I leave you 8 years worth of memories, and a friendship few people ever find. I leave you the smiles, tears, good times, bad times, identity searches... I leave you sea-sickness on a dolphin run, I leave you paralyzing sunburns, I leave you chewy chicken nuggets, I leave you guy drama, sooo many horse shows. I leave you driving in your car in the dead July heat with no air conditioning, driving in your car listening to the same 8 songs over and over and over and... over again because the tape was stuck, I leave you driving in your car at 3 am singing the lyrics to those same 8 songs... I leave you my shoulder if it's needed, and as many hugs as you need. I leave you so much, you are so important to me. You have been with me through so much, and I never would have made it through if I hadn't known you would be there. I leave you the best of everything. You are my sister, like we've always said. And I'm here no matter what happens or how many miles are put between us. We have no choice in this. The friendship chose us. It's a life long thing. Not many people get that I've been blessed.

I, JACK D. COTHAM, will be saying goodbye to my friends, my family, my school, and my Sabrina. It's never easy to move away from all of the things you've grown to know and love so much. Even thought I'm in a military family, you'd think that it might make it a little easier, but it doesn't. MOMMY and DADDY... what would have I become if it weren't for you two? I know I wouldn't be as sweet, loving, charming, smart, and hot if it weren't for you, but what you guys have done for me goes a lot deeper than what I just mentioned. Both of you always told me to do my best, and after I did you told me to do my best. I treasure the encouragement and love that you both gave to me. MOMMY, I knew I could always talk to you about anything. Some things never change between us no matter how old I get. You still always told me to take my contacts out, go to bed, wake up, and to not listen to my music loud. I love you Mommy. Hey DADDY, there's so much that we've been through as father and son. I know I have a smart mouth more times than I need to and I don't always do what I told the first time around, but I'm still the best son you got. I'm the luckiest guy in the world to have you as my dad. I know when I get everything started we'll be sitting in your backyard in the shade just tellin' lies. VAUGHN, what can I say about my brotha? You definitely made the school year more fun for me. Competing with you in math and other things was kinda boring because I always seemed to be the best. Throughout my time in Hanau High I've made the greatest friends. STEPHANIE and KAYLENE were two people I really couldn't picture not knowing. You two were always fun to be around and talk to. STEVE LEECH... all I can say is that I'm surprised you've gotten this far. I mean, with Asian Pride on your back the school year can get pretty scary. BIG EASY, also known as ERIC, came to everyone during football season. From the times we talk and from the times we share a good laugh I'm glad that I know you. I personally think you make a better Hanau Panther than a Patch Panther. Someone that I've been best friends with since I got here was MAURICE. We've been through football, soccer, and other things together. You and me are the same in so many ways. You gave me advice when I needed it and I know things wouldn't be the same without you. Thank you to ALL OF MY TEACHERS for you're the ones that have helped me get this far in life. You all knew I could get the "A" in your class and when I wasn't you pushed and encouraged me to do better. I'll never forget that. Now, my life changed dramatically on the first day of school., I got dressed and headed out the door just like a normal day, and then I got to the bus stop. There she was... my SABRINA. I knew at that moment I wanted to have her. Sabrina, I know that I can't put the love and emotions I feel for you into words, but I'm going to try. You and I have experienced feelings that other couples can only dream about having. Everything about you is real, so pure, so true. There's nothing that I'd ever want to change about you. You man the world to me, and I know my heart would never love again if I didn't have you. You really are my definition of love and a perfect girl friend. We've cried together and laughed together. If you're thinking that this is as good as it gets, I got a little something more to tell you. The way we feel for each other is going to multiply with each day that passes by. We're going to have such a great future together and I just can't wait for it to start. There will be times when we're both just with each other and I find myself just staring at you with the biggest smile on my face. I could look at you now just as I did on the first day we met. We've had a lot of great times. Like when we were outside of your house and I told you I loved you for the first time, when we went to Paris, when we watch movies, when I spend New Year's at your house, and when holding each other. These are only a few of the many things that I'll treasure forever. I thank my lucky stars that you're family moved to Germany. I love you Sabrina, and that's how I'll always feel. Graduating with the class of 2002 is truly an honor. Hanau is truly a home to me and it's sad that all of it is going to come to an end. I just wanted to say goodbye in my own way. Here's to you, friends, family, Hanau, and my Sabrina.

I, DOMONIQUE HAYNES, would like to leave the following people something behind. First, I would like to leave the WHOLE SCHOOL behind my laugh and ability to make people laugh. I would also like to leave MR. VAN the silence that I gave his class when I was in it. You're the oldest now! STEPHANIE ("Phanny"), we have been Best Friends since we were three. I love you so much, I will always consider you my Sister. I have so much to leave you, so I will just say words, and only you and I will know what they mean, because it's no one else's business! 4 days, "Hook, Hook, where's the Hook?" Tanning, you, me, Anna—Kitchen table! Getting lost in England, Cornish Pasties, my crazy English family, warm, cold rocks, cleaning lavender in my belly button, candy wood chips, double dates... "how are the apples hanging?" sky diving, crazy nights out, girl with choc. Finger dancing (I knew we shouldn't have watched!), dancing in the mud. Biology Class, Prom, all those crappy guys we have been through, tennis practice... I will always keep you in my heart. And when we are older we will find two blue, blue eyed brothers to marry, so we can legally be related. Best friends forever! CRISTINA, you are a wonderful, super, awesome, rad woman—you deserve the best in life, always go for what "YOU WANT." And that one night closing down took two hours, we played ice cream soccer and then sold it the next day! "Shootit!" "Losing it," "Shelly—what" (she's my cousin). "Stupid." Get away cars, at Stephanie's, Mtv Music Awards. Bra wires with sunburn, the breakfast with my cousin, egg shell--$5, messing up my room, covering your mouth when you laugh, thank you for all the presents you gave me, they always made me happy. Hotel night! New Year's, Nonny's! "I hope you dance!" Best friends forever! NONY, your birthday, may you only remember the good parts, sleeping with me and Maurice's feet in your face. "IT'S JACK!" and our super secret super jingle hand shake, I will remember the memory we made on the stairs when you threw the pen at me. Best friends forever! ADAM, Baskin Robbins, "dark, scary sunglasses." You are just a cutie, and like my mama always says, you're such a gentleman. "President to President!" Best friends forever! JILL, you really are the "Best," ha! I will always remember our times, cheerleading, IC, clubs, sleepovers, Baskin Robbins, you are a kleene affe! STEPHANIE SEMONITE, I can't believe she hit you! She actually reamed in my car and hit you! —Our secret—No one else's business! Ha Ha Ha! I leave you our time at the MTV Music Awards. I still can't believe that we saw Jennifer Lopez, Puff Daddy, Robbie Williams, and Atomic Kitten. You have been way rad! And we had fun together when we went to Stuttgart. And we got those guy's phone #'s! Maurice and I had a blast on Halloween! Thanks KENDY—Remember the MTV Music Awards in Frankfurt, we didn't have tickets so you had the "great idea" to run up the stairs and sneak in, but we got thrown out by security! Ha! Aren't you glad you weren't sitting in Steph's seat in my car or you would have gotten swung at too! JEREMY—I have known you since 9th grade, you have been there through every screwed up relationship I have had! And always managed to make me smile again. Thanks for always being there for me. Our yearly Homecoming picture together. Remember Giessen, how you pulled me down the hill... ELLER, you were the best class sponsors, without your encouragement and support we couldn't have made it happen. I love you both! God bless! To the CLASS OF 2002—everyone, there will always be a place in my heart for you all... And when we meet again, we will rejoice in the memories we have made! "It's not what you get out of life, it's what you bring to it." To all of my friends. Marry Rich!

I, ANGELA HOLCOMB, would first and foremost like to thank my parents for putting up with me. I know that I have been a trial to you. I would like to leave you all of my misadventures so that I do not take them to college. I would also like to leave you a clean house and a clean room, for once in my life. To my handsome boyfriend, SVEN, I leave you nothing for I am taking you with me. But I love you mostest!! I, KENDRICK ALLEN HORNACK, being of sound mind, body, and soul do hereby bequeath all of my worldly possessions to the following persons. First, I would like to thank MOM and DAD for always being there for me, no matter what phase I was going through, to them I leave patience to deal with my brothers and tons of money to send to me in college. I leave you both a much quieter house. To my brother RICHARD, I leave my room (I'll re-paint) so you can play your music as loud as you want. To my brother STEVEN, I leave unlimited internet time, just remember to go outside occasionally. Both of you better be good to Mom and Dad. MARY KATE, despite our occasional differences, you've been a good friend, I leave you "American Pie" (the Don McLean version) and a guy who will treat you right, you'll find him I know he's out there somewhere. I'll never forget the nick name that you gave me, can't put it in here, it against the rules, I still don't think I'm winter. I'll never forget almost being killed up in Holland during Winter Blitz. KAYLEE, remember to watch out for old German women on crosswalks. NONY, you were so nice to me when I fist moved here, I wish you all the luck and leave you the girl of your dreams. To ADAM, "I'm not patronizing you!" I leave the memories from shop and TLC and the knowledge that I will be first in line to see you movies when you become a big star. I believe in you. To BENNIE, I leave a ticket to Amsterdam to enjoy all the art. JEREMY, you can be weird sometimes, but that's what makes you cool. To you I leave a college experience that lives up to your expectations. ANGELA, my physics buddy, to you I leave tapes to learn German, money to pay for all the food of yours that I ate, and all the uh... interesting times we had on our soccer trips. To MATT, where do I begin? First off, I leave you gas money for your car and all the times you wouldn't let me pay. If it weren't for you who would entertain me? Baby, I'm so glad that you moved here. I can't imagine this year without you. You can always make me laugh (Especially the "Nelly Dance") and smile and make me feel better with a kiss or a hug. Whenever you hold me, all my troubles seem so far away. You have my heart and my trust, these last few months have been so great, whatever happens I just want you to know that I love you. And that no matter where I am I will always remember that. STEPH, we've had a blast these last couple of years and you're my best friend. To you I leave every episode of the Simpson's on tape, a bottle of cough syrup, a box of No-Doz, and the millions of memories that we've shared. You're like a sister to me. I remember when I first met you the summer before our junior year, seems like forever ago. I'll never forget all of our trips, skiing in Austria, Frankfurt to go see the EMA's, MUN, our backpacking trip to Italy (even though it hasn't happened yet, I'm sure it will be great). Or the feeling of power that came with our "money fights", don't get used to that, remember what your dad told you about your artist husband. Don't forget about the airplane game, our Uzbekistan cooking show and the dance that went with it. "I do not know where he is" I'll never forget about all the times that you almost died, "It's but a flesh wound!", and when you got hit by old German woman. You've always listened to my crap no matter what it was that I was having an issue or insecurity about. I remember all those times during the summer when we would sit outside at night and talk about everything from music to psychology...those were some great times, and when you come visit me in Florida there will be many more! If I were you were a car, what car would you be? To the rest of the graduating class, we finally made it, best of luck to everyone, I'm sure you will succeed in everything that you do, remember, we're better than you, we're 2002!

I, STEPHANIE RAE SEMONITE, being of sound mind, body, and soul, do hereby bequeath all of my worldly possessions to the following. To MOM and DAD, I leave a quiet house and an automatic $20,000 yearly pay decrease. Thanks for everything. If I ever become a stand-up comedian, you've provided me with enough dysfunctional family stories to keep the audience rolling for hours. To ALEX, I leave you all the crap that comes with being the oldest in the family, (i.e. you get blamed for everything). Grow some ankles and enjoy the big room. Oh, by the way, sorry about the whole slide thing. To WILL and STEVIE, I leave you sunlight! Go outside! To CHARLEE, I leave all the Simpsons movies in the entire world! To MRS. HORNACK, I leave back rent for the last 2 years that I've practically lived at your house. Good luck with your bookstore. To KIRST, CECILIA, and ERIN (my "H-town girls") I leave The Annual Super Fun Awesome Birthday Shopping Weekend in Stuttgart... 3 years running! You guys will always have my heart. Someday we'll reunite and go to Gino's. To JUSTIN COHN, I leave solutions to all of your problems because all I've ever wanted is for you to be happy... a trip to the zoo, a road trip to Babenhausen, and a dancing elephant. And best of all, that Gato's future that we both know that you'll have and a dog named Jed to keep you company when you're old and sitting on your porch with a shotgun. To CLARE FRANK, I leave a hair tie, a rag, and a pen, assembled to make a handy and affordable Romanian window cleaner. To WES, I leave "The Sign" and the knowledge that we really were the coolest people in the whole school. To VANESSA, I leave tequila nights, scary old men at Tony's 2, a trip through the Twilight Zone to Ashley's house, and a large sum of money to pay for all the times that you drove me all the way home from school. To HEATHER, I leave our legacy, "the pin," staples in Thai food, a reconciliation with an old friend, and my thanks for showing me that you can make it out of Hanau High and still be relatively normal. To HANNA, RANDI, STEPHANIE, and STACEY, my favorite sophomores, I just want to leave you with the knowledge that you were TOO young to do half of the stuff that you did the year HANNA, you're still on a two drink maximum. To RICHIE, I leave you a bat in the middle of the night—you have to watch out for those... To LJ, I leave you a bongyard because I don't think that you're going to make it out of high school without someone to keep you out of trouble. To SARAH and PRECIOUS, I leave Journalism and all of the thug songs that we sang... To SYLVIA and KRISTEN, I leave the title of "First and Second Coolest Senior Girl," you guys can fight over who gets which. To JOE, I leave a wonderful cooking career, my wedding reception dinner, fun in art, our painting, and your $3 million cut when it's sold. To ERIC, I leave you lessons in how to use a table saw from someone who actually knows what they're doing. To MAURICE, I leave Burger King, our trip to the EMA's, all those crazy times in PE, and 6 pages in the back of the yearbook for your will. I can't wait until you show me how that blue bird flies... To NONY, I leave low tolerance, art that's "all about the love" (girls with robots are NOT ALL about the love), and the ever evasive Stephanie. To JACK, I leave a career in toothpaste commercials for that smile, a swearing superlative performance, and a very special prom night. To ADAM, I leave you my thanks for that forbidden superlative you gave me. "Funniest when..." To GIL, I leave a polygraph test. To REM, I leave Friday nights at Tony's, The Hague, and our museum trip to Frankfurt. To JOSH, I leave Ms. Arbour's therapy bill for all the crap that you put her through in advanced PE. Thanks for teaching me how to be "THUG." To BENNIE, I leave you a pair of aviators and a "Get out of Jail Free" card, cause we all know you might need it sometime. To the other cool Stephanie, my girl SUAREZ, I leave a fiancée who's filthy rich and will scrub the kitchen for you. "That's what friends are for, G..." (insert crazy hand gesture here). To KAYLEE, I leave the word "sex," getting hit by old ladies in your car, office aide antics, the crystal ball dance, paper clip earrings, and all of the other stupid things that we somehow got away with. To My CALC CLASS, I leave 4 words: THANK GOD IT'S OVER. To JEREMY, I leave stardom and a girl who appreciates all that you do, and a certain Missy Elliot song. I think that you know which one. To JUSTIN LANDRITH, I leave Jungle Badminton, explicit Ludacris songs, IM conversations that made me blush, and the hope that someday we'll have the luxury of being a real couple. You're an excellent friend, and no matter what happens, we'll always be friends. I miss you, thank you for being there for me even though you were so far away. You make my heart smile babe. To MATTHEW, I leave the title "Useless Trivia Questions Master of the World" (you are the weakest link, goodbye"), all of those car rides with 3 people in the front seat, a wonderful career in AAFES employment, a membership in the NSS, a yellow 'vette, English class and your wonderful grade, a blank tape to record your golf swing on and watch over and over and over... and over again, the Heideleberg addictions, and finally, an identity change to NELLY. To MARY KATE, I leave the sky, look up to it for pensive pictures, dance under it on the field at 1:00 am, fly through it to find your own drops of Jupiter... Thanks for understanding that music isn't just notes—it's emotion. And that emotions aren't just feelings—they're powerful. Our friendship means so much to me, you'll never know. And baby, I am a thug... And finally, to my second half, KENDRICK ALLEN HORNACK, (Kendry, Kenry, Bendy, Kendry, Bendrick, Kenriquo, etc...), my strawberry blonde Southern Belle, I leave the world, cause you deserve it all. I leave the Simpsons ("I want answers now, or I want them eventually!!"), absinthe, Van Gogh, our Uzbekistan dance ("I say, 'Who is dis? You called me!'"), getting lost with pretty much everyone that we've ever gotten in a car with, a thirst for knowledge, early morning power walks to "heighten our senses," Robbie Williams fanaticism, Calculus, skiing (falling), church and our forced attendance, Bible Study with Allison ("You're a terrible person."), a cough syrup addiction, ruling the school, our trip to the Hague, a highly anticipated EuroRail pass, Bacon Double Cheesburgers and a milkshake, being dead broke, the Love Hut, and countless nights sitting in the streets playing the airplane game and talking about life. You've always been my best friend, you know me better than anyone, and you've always watched out for me, whether I was "inebriated," indecisive, or just being plain dumb. You mean the world to me, and there's absolutely no way that I could have made it through Hanau without you, my bestest friend. Finally, to my arch rival, AAFES. I leave you the knowledge that you failed to hire the most dedicated, driven and responsible student in the senior class of Hanau High School—ME. I don't need your $6.75 an hour anyway. So there

As of being of sound mind and body, I, JOSEPH SERRANO, bequeath my high school possessions to a number of people. First of all, I leave my little brother ANDREW with one chance to make me give up (because he can't beat me). And to my soon to be little brother some day or another, BRANDON, I leave the one phone call to Randi to tell her how you feel. REM, I leave you the plans for Florida to live strong in your mind cause we will be there sooner or later, rich or poor. STEPHANIE SEMONITE, you know that I didn't like you much when I first got back. You seemed too stuck up for me. Since I have gotten to know you, you are the coolest senior (well, excluding me) that I know. And I leave you all my art talent. We may think differently, but we see things in the same matter. JEREMY, you are a poser! I would like to give you something, but I don't have any poser stuff! But you can have my singing skills, because every little bit helps. To NONI, you have been a good friend to me this year, I leave you all the "woman" you can handle. ADAM, there is only one thing I want to say to you. I am giving you my kidney, go ahead, drink a beer! MIKE SMITH, I am sorry but you can't have the Subway hat back. I was going to leave it for you but I decided it looks better on my anyway. RICH HORNACK, you can have your shorts back. I will tell you what I did in them. To SYLVIA, you have been there with me through the good and the bad of this year. I know you are the Korean but it is OK, you will get over it. I leave the gun hidden in a secret spot only you would know where! (Not really, you can have all the AE shirts you want since I split chocolate milk on the one of yours). Hopefully we will meet later in life. Oh yeah butt plug! STACEY, in the last couple of months we have gotten to be pretty close friends and cause you are from New Jersey you deserve something really special. You get an Italian Hoagie (or sub) and a lifetime supply of Pizzeria Pringles. We might have to meet up in Jersey sometime. Hey MARY KATE, well I don't really know what to give you but I guess you can have a dollar since you are the biggest moosher. GIL, I am sorry about that whole nuts thing so you can have one of mine... not. You can take Ryan's CHRIS ISAAC, you know what, I didn't think this before but I am gonna give you something to you, the belief and faith that God does exist and we will all be saved! BIG EASY, you can have anything you want except Kristen, she is mine. You are a cool person and you deserved All-European. You will succeed and make some gorgeous girl really happy. CHRISTY, I just met you but I had some cool stuff to say to you and to give you a little advice. D.A.R.E. (Drugs Are Really Expensive)—just remember that you will get through life. Alright, the most important person in my life, who has helped me through that last year of high school. KRISTEN, there is so much to say but words can't describe. But this can. When I have no one to turn to and I am feeling kind of low. When there is no one to talk to and nowhere to go, I search deep within myself it is the love inside my heart. That lets me know my Angel is you. Even though we will be miles apart, a smile then appears upon my face and the sun begins to shine. I hear your voice so soft and sweet saying, "Everything will be just fine." It may seem that I am alone, but I am never by myself at all. Whenever I need my Angel near All I have to do is call. And Angel's love is always true That I can depend on You will stand behind me and will always be my friend. Through the darkest hours and brightest days. My Angel sees me through. You are my Angel. Perhaps I am yours too. Baby I love you with all my heart and soul. My love for you will never die. I give you the strength to believe in us and that I will return for your hand in marriage. No matter how hard life gets, always find the love inside your heart and you will get through anything. One day baby, we will be together to live our lives like we're together. You are my only love and you are my soul mate. You are my pride and joy and I will love you no matter what life throws at you. I leave you my André xoxo. I didn't realize I was writing this until now. I am so sorry for the grammar mistakes. I am still learning. Love you lots. Yours truly, Joseph Serrano being of sound mind and body, would like to leave the following people a few things I have acquired in my four years at Hanau High School. First, to my MOM and DAD, thank you for being there for me and for pushing me to do my best. To MR. KING, thank you for making me work hard in your classes, I had a lot of fun on the golf course too. To MR. VAN, being in your class was an experience. Thank you for all you taught me. I will never forget you. And now for the friends—To REM: I don't know where to start. It's been a wild three years and I've had a great time. I leave you snowboard, our night of feeling really dumb at the club, our hot boxed rooms in the hotels, an eternal ticket to Frankfurt, and some bass skill, cause you suck. We had a lot of fun and there is so much you get the idea. P.D.A. and The Discontents, good times, rock on. To JOE, I leave you my skates (they don't suck, yours do) and some pom-poms. Keep skating and having fun. Good luck with you two. You were meant for each other. You have been a great friend. GIL, I leave you invisible cigarettes so you don't get caught anymore, a career in the military (good luck in the military Private and a full month of not being grounded). To JOSH, even though you are gone, I still have to leave you some stuff. I first would like to leave you The Discontents (remember when it started?), a brand new guitar of your choice. Never stop playing—I learned a lot from you. JENNIFER, you're gone too, but you deserve a lot. First, to you goes every Pink Floyd CD ever made. Second, all those times I leave you your craziness. You are a great friend and thank you for putting up with everything (you know what I mean). CHUCK, thank you for caring about me, I leave you the drum set of your dreams. SYLVIA, I have decided you are the punk rock princess, the only one at this school who is even remotely close to how I feel. I enjoyed our talks—especially Popeye's. That was a lot of fun. Last year I will miss you a lot. I would like to leave you the perfect Mormon guy to marry, thank you for all the good times we've had. I hope to see you sometime in the future. To STEPHANIE, I leave you (sorry about that), your thuggishness, a big whoopin from me, and don't worry—everything is under control. To MARY KATE, I'm sorry about all the hard times and the fighting. It's been rough and I want to leave you a Dave concert. You will get to see him eventually. Also, a book that no one can read (you should get the other ones made into novels—remember, it's you in a book). There's a lot of fun to leave you but if I do I'll probably yell at me or something. Don't take that the wrong way. It's just stuff that you don't want me to talk about. But you know what it is, all that stuff means a lot to me. Thank you. I leave you a new computer all to yourself, a dog instead of that cat, the perfect music class, all the stuff I stole from you, and a stereo that works. Anyway, you are a wonderful person. You are a heart of gold. Don't let anyone tell you otherwise or change that. Thank you for making me smile. Do what makes you happy. Oh yeah, I leave you a giant steak. The last person I have to leave is to very special ERYN. I miss you terribly. We all do. You were a wonderful friend and a light in the darkness of the world. Even though you're up there with The Man, we still wish that you were here. I leave you all the lock-ins we ever went to, and a last week of camp where we didn't fight. I still can never forget you. I leave you TRAVIS, I still miss you. I leave you all the lock-ins we ever went to, and a last week of camp where we didn't fight. I still can never forget you. I leave you TRAVIS, I still miss you.

of school to school, the early mornings, the homework, everything. The texts, the messages, things I can't even begin to tell you about. You know who you will be loved down here. You are in our hearts forever, can't wait to see you again. Thank you to everyone else that I know, I wouldn't be who I am today without you all. Chaos and Pandemonium always...

YARBOUROUGH During my 12 years of required education, I have accumulated many things that have some sort of personal value. Now that I'm done with school, I will no longer need these things, so I decided that I should leave it all behind for those who come after me. Why? What have any of you done for me, that I should give you something for it? So for my last will and testament as a high school student, I leave all of my nothing! Well, almost nothing, I leave my car.

Dear Angela,

Where has the time gone since you boarded a big yellow bus to go to kindergarten for the first time? Now, you are graduating from High School and getting ready for college!

We are proud of all you have accomplished and we know you will do well in college. Keep up the good work!

We love you and we are very proud of you!

The Best of What's Around

By Dave Matthews Band

Hey my friend
It seems your eyes are troubled
Care to share your time with me
Would you say you're feeling low and so
A good idea would be to get it off your mind
See you and me
Have a better time than most can dream
Have it better than the best
So we can pull on through
Whatever tears at us
Whatever holds us down
And if nothing can be done
We'll make the best of what's around
Turns out not where but who you're with
That really matters
And hurts not much when you're around
And if you hold on tight
To what you think is your thing
You may find you're missing all the rest
Well she ran up into the light surprised
Her arms are open
Her mind's eye is Seeing things from a
Better side than most can dream
On a clearer road I feel
Oh you could say she's safe
Whatever tears at her
Whatever holds her down
And if nothing can be done
She'll make the best of what's around
Turns out not where but what you think
That really matters
We'll make the best of what's around
