DISCOVERING ME

By Carl VanLewis

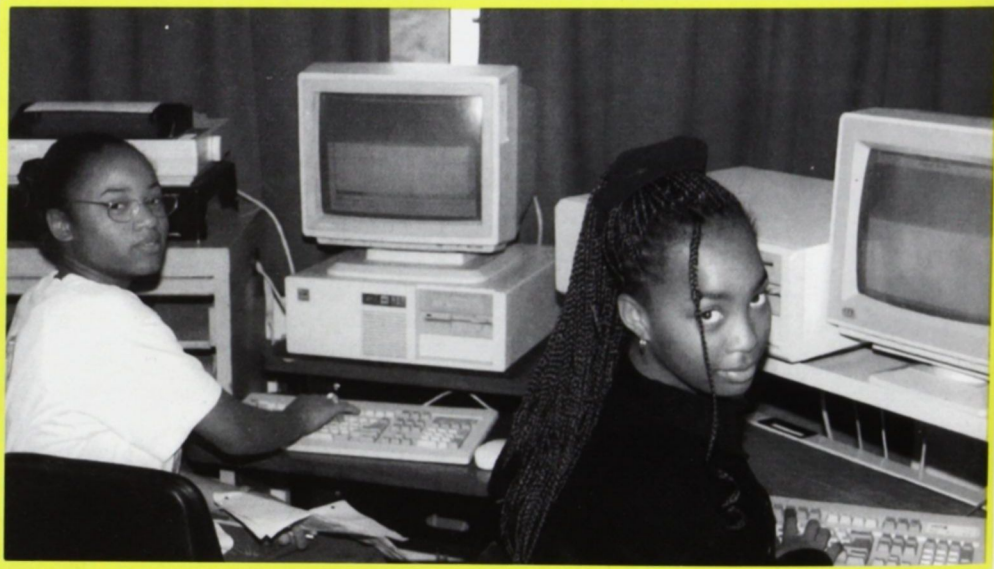

Discovering me ...

H.M.S. is the key.

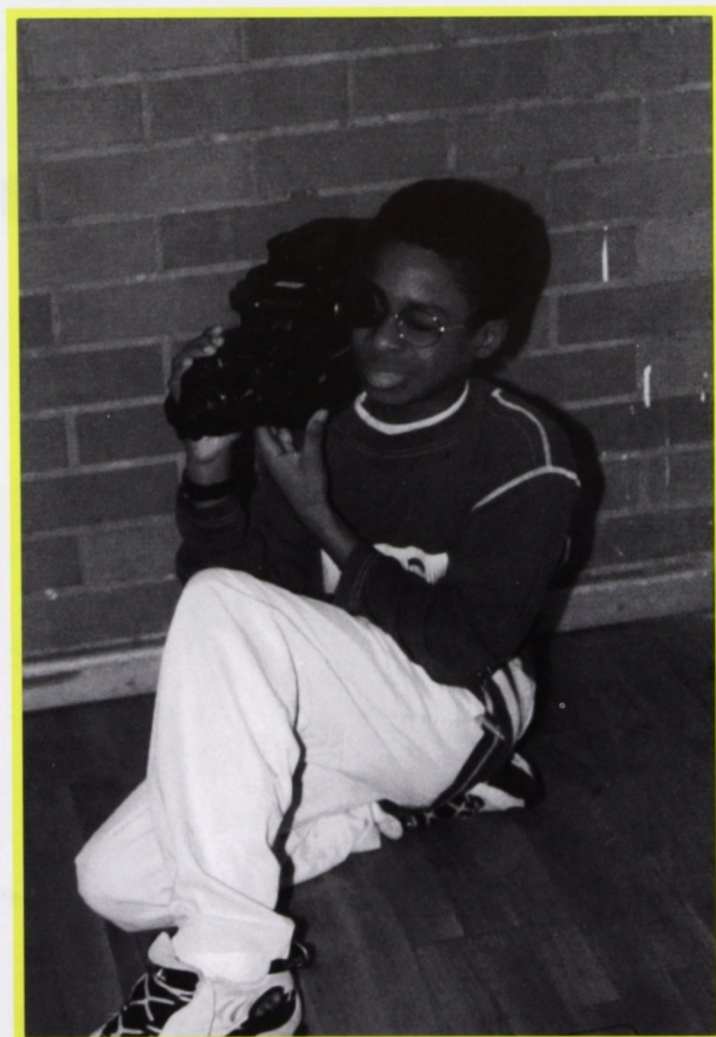

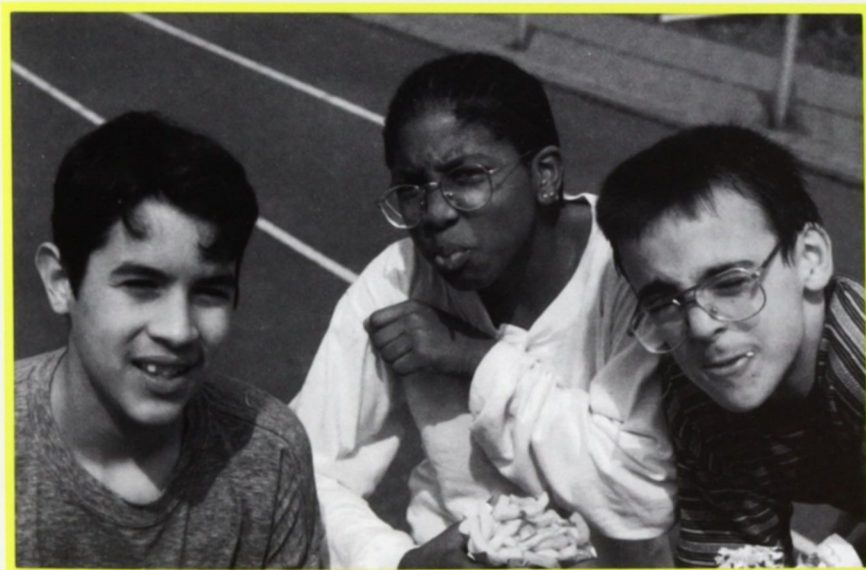

Discovering me ...

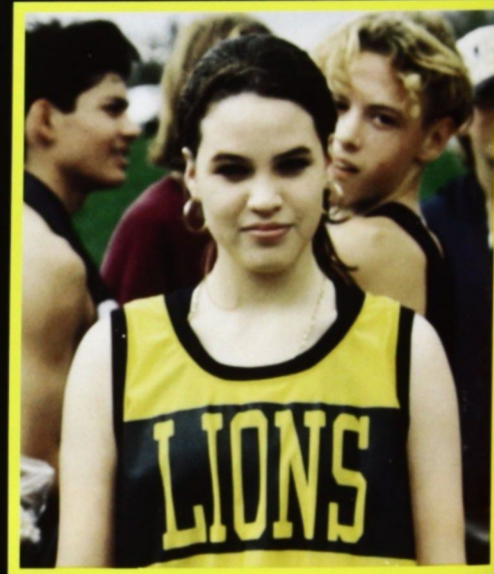

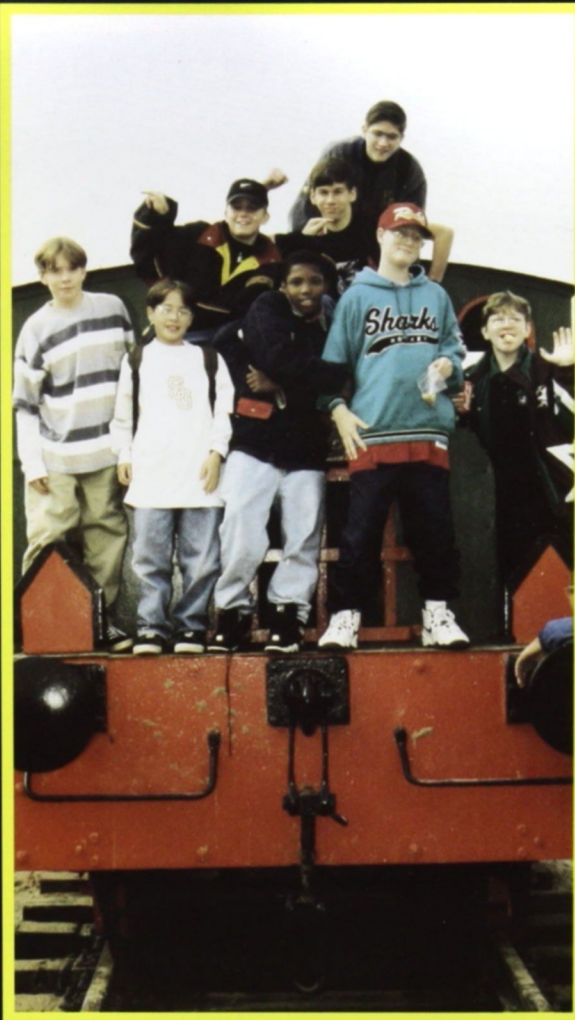

DISCOVER

Teachers help willingly.

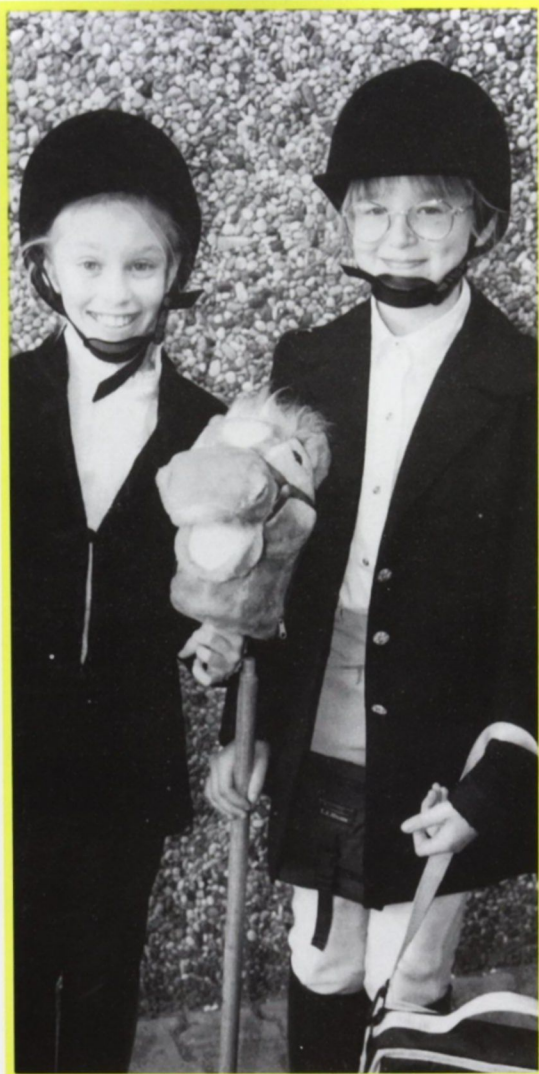

Discovering me ...

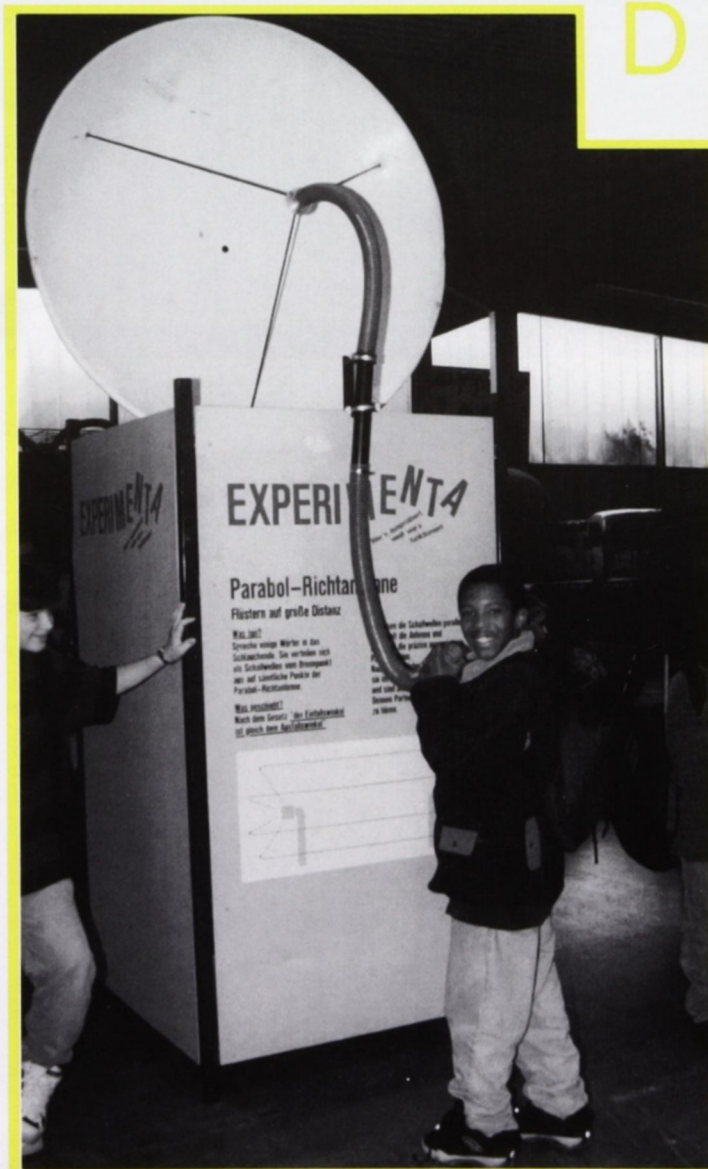

Friends help us see.

Discovering me ...

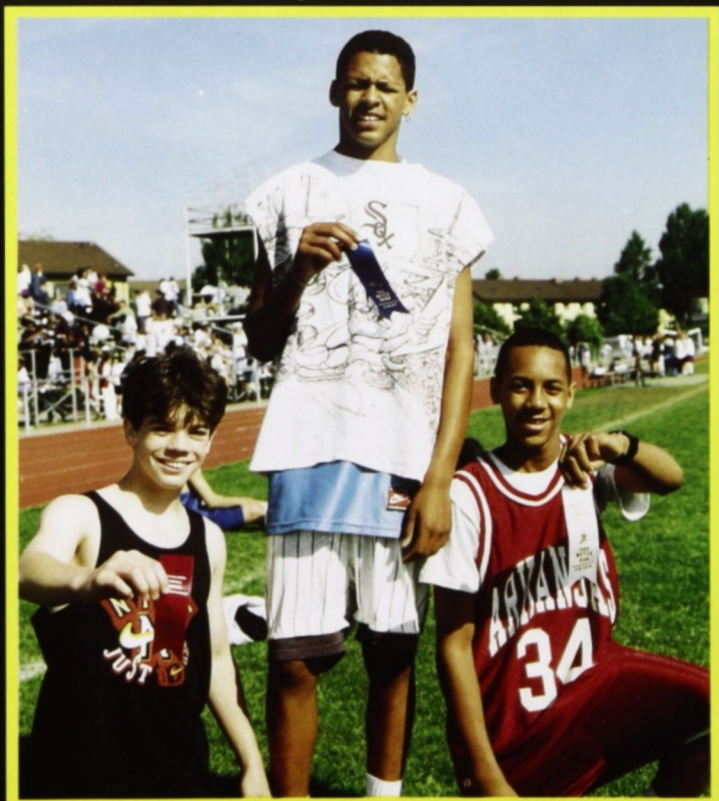

With fun and creativity.

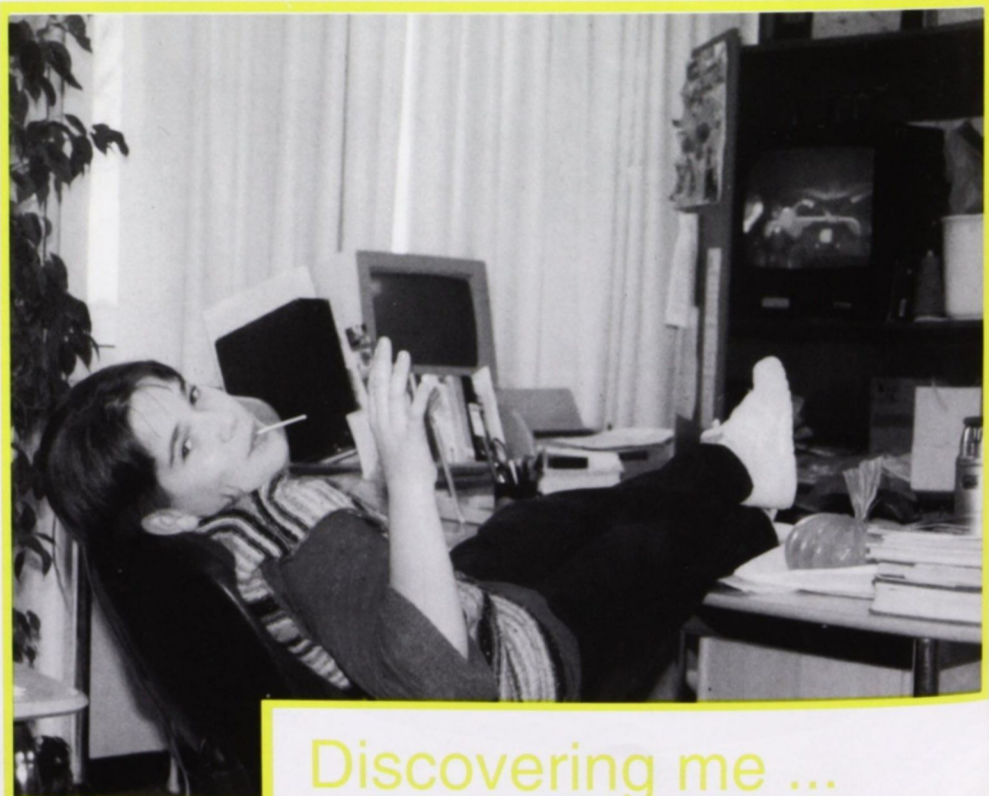

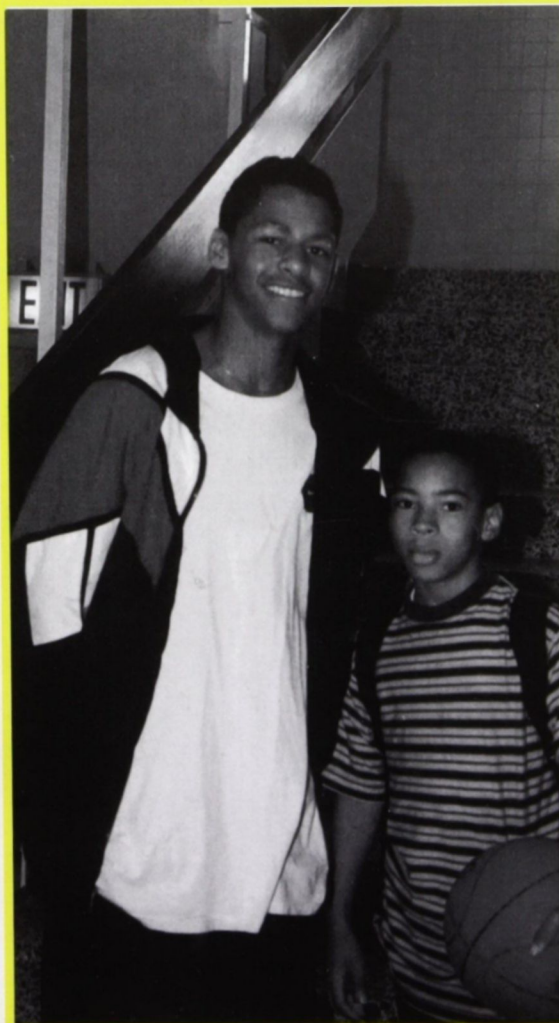

Discovering me ...

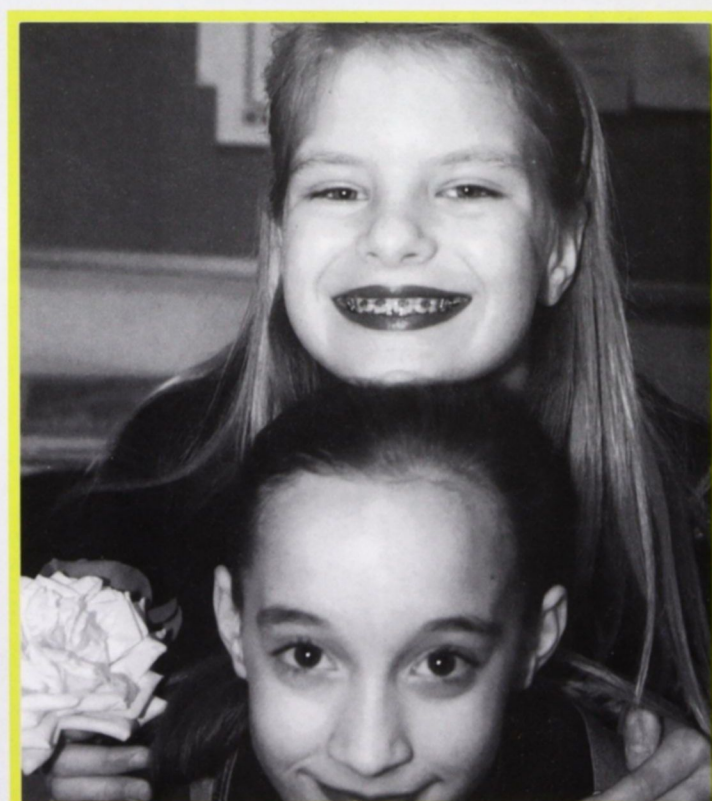

Activities instill energy.

Discovering me ...

And what I will be.

Matt Warner, Courtney Young, and Kris Houtz ran cross country with the high school team.

Discovering At School

At school you can discover a world of joy.

There are sports and subjects here to enjoy.

Learn to have fun

Under Germany's sun.

If you can't figure out what to do,

I'll give you an important clue.

Get off your seat

And onto your feet,

For you might discover something just for you.

- Stacy Aquipel

Intramural competition has always been a source of pride for HMS Panthers.

Teachers, too, participated in the track meets.

Field trips brought students into direct contact with the local culture.

HMS staff enjoy each other's company, especially at the end-of-year picnic.

ADVISORIES AND STAFF

Advisory period was shortened this year and class periods were slightly longer, but the changes balanced out. Teachers and teams had to hustle to intramurals, but they didn't seem to mind the shortened SSR period. Learning to live, work, and play together were the objectives of advisory periods and the goals of our hard-working staff.

Media Center staff and community members celebrated the newly-renovated facility.

Three "wieners" serve 'em hot on our last full day of the year.

No, teachers do not belong behind bars!

Baumgardner's BombSquad

Ms. Juliana
Baumgardner

Home Economics

The Bomb Squad participated in the intramural and SSR programs. Their week included days for activities, homework, and games. They celebrated advisory birthdays with a birthday breakfast every other month.

Bicknell's Blue Devils

Ms. Judy
Bicknell

English

The Blue Devils made our new teacher from Mannheim welcome this year. She cheered them on as they participated in intramural sports such as flag football, volleyball, and floor hockey. Back in the classroom, they discussed current events and issues of the day.

Blice's Bulldogs

Mr. Carl Blice

Health
P.E.

The Bulldogs welcomed two new German students, Hammed and Hanni. In addition to "swish and spit" and SSR, they discussed all kinds of social issues. But it was in intramural competition where they became Blice's Bull Dogs!

Bruffey's Beachcombers

Ms. Donna
Bruffey

Reading
Social Studies

The Beach Combers liked to play games, watch "I Love Lucy," and have hot chocolate. They loved their teacher because "She's cool, nice, and the best teacher. We also love our advisory because we're number one in intramurals!"

Cobey's Cool Cats

Mr. Philip Cobey

Social Studies

The Cool Cats shared musical skills during "Share Your Talent Day." Hannah Grewatz played a Vivaldi concerto on the violin. Jennifer Larson played a Turkish march on the flute. Both were enthusiastically applauded by the Cats.

Dish's Delinquents

Mr. David Disharoon

English

The Delinquents tried to make it four flag football championships in a row for Mr. Dish, but a lucky pass in their third game, against Mrs. Johnson's team, disappointed this well-tuned team. They went on to compete for championships in other events, however, and they'll always be champs in Mr. Dish's book. A great group of kids, just look!

Gardy's Sea Stars

The Sea Stars won intramural softball! They also won the "Most Beautiful Leaf" contest, thanks to Brenda Robb. This class is full of good sports, academic and warm-hearted champions!

Ms. Anna Gardy

Education Specialist

Gehring's Great Whites

The Great Whites were among the most predatory competitors at the 6th grade track meet. A very athletic class, they describe themselves as "intramural lovers." "We never give up!"

Mrs. Susan Gehring

Math

Gerber's Gators

Mrs. Lana Gerber

Math

Great, Gorgeous, Galloping Gators gladly in 6th Grade,
Going to intramurals, giving lots of grief, gaming every Wednesday,
Going about our studies gladly every day.

Gibson's Stingrays

Mr. Bill Gibson

Science

The Stingrays took second place in the "Most Beautiful Leaf" contest, winning a yearbook for Erin Lukasiewicz. In addition, they liked to read and participate in intramurals. Several students won outstanding academic honors by making the Honor Role.

Jackson's Juveniles

The 8th grade Juveniles targeted their good qualities this year as they worked on leadership and self-discipline training activities. Among a variety of other things, they accomplished projects which included "the candy bar of life," advisory coat of arms, and a hand shaking competition.

Mr. James Jackson

Science

Johnson's Juveniles

The 7th grade Juveniles distinguished themselves early this year by wrecking the dreams of a fourth straight flag football championship for Mr. Dish's Delinquents. No paltry feat! They went on to distinguish themselves with outstanding grades and other distinctions. Go, Juveniles!

Mrs. Shirley Johnson

Science

Kiebler's Kookies

Mrs. Patricia Kiebler

Drama
Video Production

SUCH A VARIETY, BUT ALL SO FLAVORFUL! The Kookies were even environmentally friendly. Each Thursday they collected all the excess paper in the school and deposited it in the recycle bin. Our trees and forests thank the Kookies!

Lehmann's Las Panteras

Mrs. Nancy
Lehmann

U.S. History Spanish

The Panteras, or Panthers in English, spent part of the year teaching 8th grade advisories the ancient strategy game of Muhle, a variation of "Nine Men's Morris," a game similar to chess. They planned to organize an intramural championship competition.

Mattfeld's Mountain Lions

Mrs. Mary Jane
Mattfeld

Science

The Mountain Lions concentrated on affective activities this year, that is, activities which make you feel good about yourself. They started off on the right foot by winning the 7th grade flag football championship and by almost beating the staff in the annual "crazy game." Congratulations, Mountain Lions!

McKedy's Mad Dogs

Mrs. Pam McKedy

Education Specialist

The Mad Dogs spent much of the year learning about friendship. They began by examining their own ability to make friends. They explored definitions of friendship and discussed what people look for in a friend.

Merhar's Merry Millionaires

Mrs. Janet Merhar

English

The Merry Millionaires are an AVID advisory. They keep busy with fund-raisers, field trips, and peer tutoring -- but never - ever - on a day when they could be playing softball.

Morgan's Martians

Ms. Vera Morgan

Reading
Business Enterprise

"We're the Morgan Martians and we are from Mars, a place out so far and beyond the stars and above the rest. That's why we confess we are the BEST!"

Nowinski's "8" Balls

Mrs. Geraldine
Nowinski

Science

The "8" Balls are a great algebra advisory. They work hard, play hard, and aim to please!

Mr. Dennis Osborne

English

Enthusiastic, Energetic, and Likable, the E.E.L.ectrifying E.E.L.s enjoy game day, sportsmanship parties, and driving Mr. Osborne crazy. To shock our intramural opponents, we dream up fancy strategies that somehow never seem to work. But when these E.E.L.s begin to wheel and deal, we make our opposition reel!

Pangman's Pacers

Mrs. Kerri Pangman

Math
Algebra

One of the Pacers' favorite activities this year was SSR. Students read books ranging from the popular Goosebumps series to nonfiction. The principal even dropped in to read with them on one occasion.

Pappas' Patapus

Mrs. Sheri Lu
Pappas

Social Studies

In case you didn't know, a Patapus is an underwater creature with 21 arms standing for 21 great kids in our advisory!

Paternostro's Hyenas

"The Hyenas are a lot of fun. Melanie Jarvis designed our advisory banner. We enjoy game days and intramural sports most of all."

Frau Silvia Paternostro

German

Peyton's Pearls

Advisory period is very short this year which makes the Pearls work even harder to build unity. "We're a great group who like and support one another. We love having speakers and participating in intramurals and SSR."

Mrs. Karol Peyton

English
Journalism

Primmer's Power Rangers

Mrs. Karen Primmer

Math
Algebra

The Power Rangers powered their way to the championship of 8th grade intramural softball. Study-buddy partnerships were formed to help each other with homework and to study for tests.

Rayburn's Regulators

Mr. Donald Rayburn

Education
Strategist

The Regulators participated in the "Most Beautiful Leaf" contest, drug awareness program, and the 7th grade intramural football championship game.

Seaton's Cyclones

The Cyclones were involved in many activities. They participated in intramurals, game day, homework day, and discussions. "Seaton's Cyclones are the best!"

Ms. Donna Seaton

Education
Strategist

Slattery-Green's Green Giants

"It's quality not quantity that counts. We're the Giant Jolly Green Giants, and beware. We're comin' to you!"

Ms. Mary
Slattery-Green

Social Studies

Smith's Mad Dog Untouchables

Mr. R.W. Smith

Band Music

The Untouchables were international. They came from Great Britain, Hawaii, Panama, and Germany, as well as the United States. They discussed current events and many other subjects. Their goal was to win one of the team events.

Smith's Sharkanators

Mr. Ronald Smith

Math
Science

The Sharkanators included several members of the swim team, soccer teams, and others. They were serious when they took the field of competition. They were GOOD SPORTS, too!

Smith's Scorpions

Ms. Shelia Smith

Math

The Scorpions did various activities that helped build self-esteem and socialization skills. Each day was a different activity. Their favorite, of course, was intramural sports, especially those they won!

Mama Welch's Wise Ones

Ms. Mari Anna Welch

English

The Wise Ones, an 8th grade advisory, reflected the maturity and wisdom that come with age. They enjoyed a great role model in their adviser, "Mama" Welch, one of the founding "pillars" of HMS. She has helped raise thousands of "wise ones" in her more than 20 years here at HMS.

Traunsteiner's Sea Twisters

Ms. Helen Ochs
Super Substitute

Ms. Traunsteiner returned to us second semester after a lengthy illness.
Welcome back, Ms. T.!

Weller's Warheads

Mr. Chris Weller Technology/Math

The Warheads were engaged in a number of aggressive activities this year, but their favorite by far was SSR. (Did we get that wrong, Mr. Carlin?)

Administration And Staff

Eighth Grade Class of 2001

Most Eighth grade Panthers went on to become HHS Lions at the end of the 1996-97 school year. Others would PCS and return to life in "the real world" of the States. Wherever they end up in this temporary world of life with the U.S. Army, we hope they will always remember their friends here at HMS.

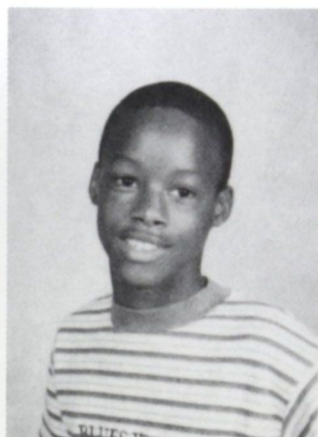

Phil Donohue would like to know who discovered America. Native Americans and Leif Ericson disagreed.

Jeremy Cotter and Jesus Arias helped put this book together.

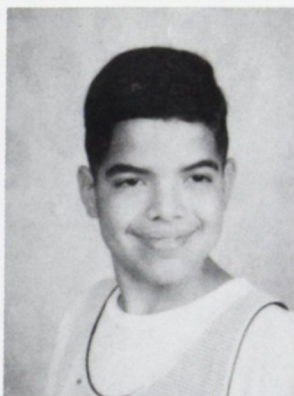

Eighth graders jazzed up the awards assemblies.

Dynamos Rule!

The Dynamos, one of two eighth grade teams, were extremely busy this year. Their energy for volunteering was super-charged.

They added spark to the Christmas Bazaar by running errands for the staff. They also sponsored a clothing drive for three orphanages in Hungary. Dinkelsbeuhl and Rothenburg were treated to holiday cheer. Dynamos were also home base for the two AVID classes which traveled to Amsterdam, Paris, and Berlin.

The KOOL Team

The K.O.O.L. Team, Kids Overseas Opportunities for Learning, under the leadership of Ms. Lehmann, Ms. Pangman, Ms. Seaton, Ms. Welch, Mr. Jackson, and Mr. Smith, traveled to Ladenburg, a city dating back to Roman times, and to Hessen Park. They also completed an extensive interdisciplinary unit on Anne Frank.

Heidelberg District Teacher of the Year

MRS. JAN MERHAR

"Mrs. Merhar is an angel in disguise. She makes learning fun and is always willing to learn a few things herself."

DESIRAE DANA

"Mrs. Merhar never lets you stop trying ... She is definitely Teacher of the Year, probably the century."

JILLEANE BEARD

Most seventh graders loved to play. Anything physical was cool. Books were "boring."

Seventh Grade Class of 2002

Seventh graders were "extremists." Too hot or too cold, too excited or too bored, too happy or too sad, they all agreed on one thing, "We have too much homework!" Friendship made life worth living.

They had hardly begun before it was time to move on to the eighth grade and become the new BMOC.

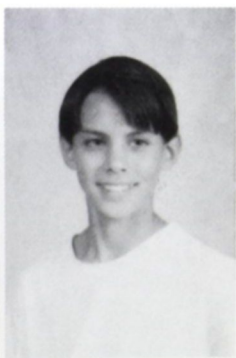

Odyssey of the Mind took first place in competition.

Seventh graders loved to "dress up" even when they were working.

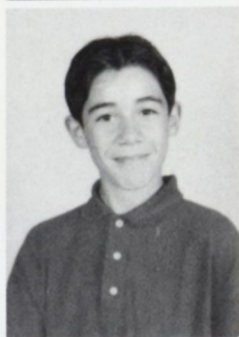

"Oh yes. Let's hear it for the soon to be eighth graders!"

We did tons of homework and survived the classes of Mr. Cobey, Mr. Dish, Ms. Mattfeld, and Ms. Smith.

Eyeballing eyeballs wasn't fun for everyone.

Everyone loved to be in the picture.

Getting there was a big part of any trip.

Dream Team

Team 7b, The Dream Team, headed the 2nd Annual Romanian Mission to help children at the Nazarca Orphanage in Constanta, Romania.

Dream Team's unselfish efforts on behalf of other children will not soon be forgotten, at least by the people of Constanta.

Children at the Nazarca Orphanage, Constanta, Romania, August 1996.

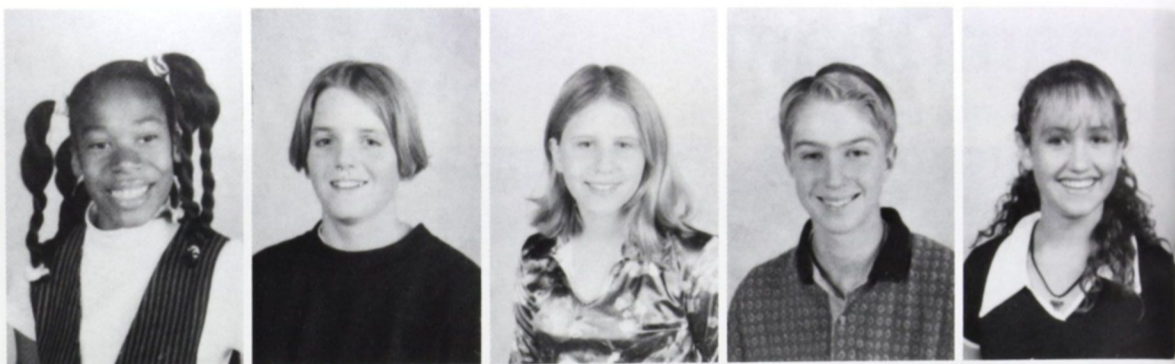

Dream Team leaders were Ms. Bicknell, Ms. Johnson, Ms. Rausch, Mr. Smith, and Mr. Weller.

A Few Special Events

HMS seemed to have something going on all the time. Assemblies, club meetings, sports, student council and NJHS activities were just a few.

Eighth graders were inducted into NJHS in the fall. Seventh graders were inducted in the spring.

Awards assemblies honored our hard-working scholars. And snow, don't forget the snow! We had more snow this year than any year in recent memory. Happy skiing!

Eighth graders were inducted into National Junior Honor Society in the fall.

Odyssey of the Mind team members Mike Winters, Ceyanna Fry, Aaron Lauber, and Amber Schmitt won first place at the competition in Landstul with their skit "Can You Dig It?"

Arrival of this, our '97 Panther Yearbook, was one of the last events of the year.

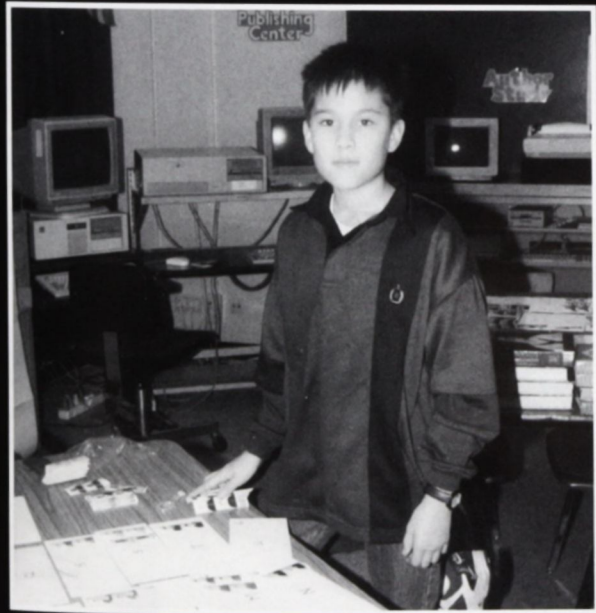

Sixth grade boys were heavily into sports.

Sixth Grade Class of 2003

Sixth graders came to us as “little darlings” from the elementary school, but ended the year as the new seventh graders. They grew and grew up in those few short months into people you could no longer call a “child.” Some even became teenagers. Most could not wait to take over second place at HMS.

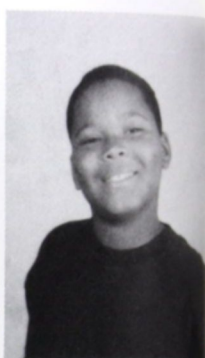

Sixth graders learned to mediate solutions to human problems and received awards for their efforts.

Jeremy McKean was a yearbook photographer and helped put this book together.

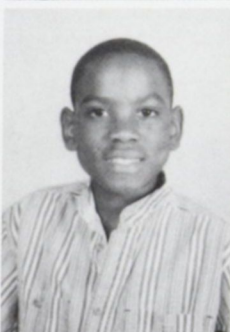

Sixth grade girls liked sports too, if the guys would ever give them a chance.

Shell Seekers

The Shell Seekers consisted of Ms. Gerber's "Gators," Ms. Bruffey's "Beach Combers," Mr. Smith's "Sand Dollars," and Ms. Peyton's "Pearls."

In the fall, the Seekers learned to open lockers and follow a schedule. At holiday time, they gathered for breakfast and performances by reading and English classes. In winter, they made "Flat Stanleys" to help the students explore their place in our American Quilt of Cultures.

Pearl Divers

Pearl Divers team leaders included Ms. Traunsteiner, Ms. Pappas, Mr. Gibson, Mr. Osborne, and Ms. Gehring.

Students from both teams made straight A's first quarter.

Discovering Bees

Spelling Bee Champion Jennifer Erickson with alternate Shane Winters and sponsor Mrs. Merhar.

National Geography Bee Champion Kerry von Jacobie with 3rd place finisher Steven Weber and 2nd place finisher Ahsan Nasar.

Students had a chance to see a part of the famous AIDS Quilt for the first time.

Events and Organizations

The assembly and special events calendar was full of events ranging from the Native American assembly to dances and the spaghetti dinner.

Organizations such as Student Council, NJHS, PTSA, and HYS made such events possible. It looks like groups of people, working together, can accomplish amazing things. Join a group next year, and help make it a year to remember.

The Choral Ensemble performed throughout the German and American communities.

Everyone couldn't win the Talent Show, but Kevin Wigfall was one of two who did.

A lot of the fun and music this year was thanks to Mr. R.W. Smith and his band students. We'll miss you, Mr. Smith.

End Of The Year Activities 1996

Discover You,
Discover Me,
Discover Our Fantasy ...
HALLOWEEN '96

Celebrating an American Patchwork Quilt of Cultures, Chorus and Drama students presented a Happy New Year World extravaganza.

Students lit the seven candles celebrating Kwanza.

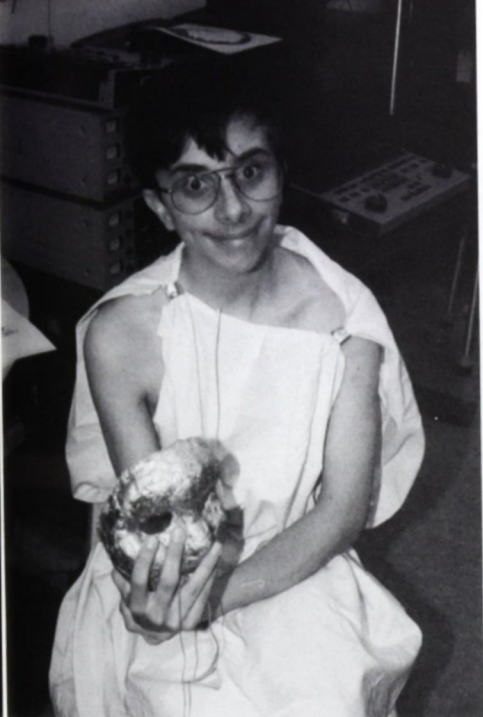

Mother Earth, Cawanna Wilson, told about the people and customs of Africa.

Ryan Askew as Father Time took us on a world wide tour.

Janus looked to the past as well as the future.

HMS Chorus set the pace for the winter musical.

It was waltz time for Casey and Ross in Austria.

Hannah, Melanie, and Kristin danced to the music of Portugal and Spain.

From Rome to Mexico, it was a Happy New Year!

Kristin Cullison danced a Highland Fling to celebrate the Scottish New Year.

Happy New Year World

Holiday Activities

Holiday activities in December varied from the AIDS Quilt display to the Talent Show sponsored by the Student Council. JoAnn Molina and Kevin Wigfall won first place at the Talent Show with their incredibly beautiful voices.

Business Enterprise sponsored Santa on stage for pictures. The P.E. Department sponsored the annual Jingle Jog, an HMS tradition.

It was a cold day for the annual Holiday Magic Parade. Check it out.

Santa Claus arrived on a Heidelberg Army Firetruck along with several HMS "elves."

HMS Advanced Band members' fingers froze to the valves!

Santa's little helper Devon Wood tried hard to keep smiling.

Nikita, Kim, and Anna blew hard to keep from freezing.

Santa Morgan posed for pics with Alison and Jenny.

HMS Step Team "broke it down" with sponsor Mrs. Anderson and Phat-Phat.

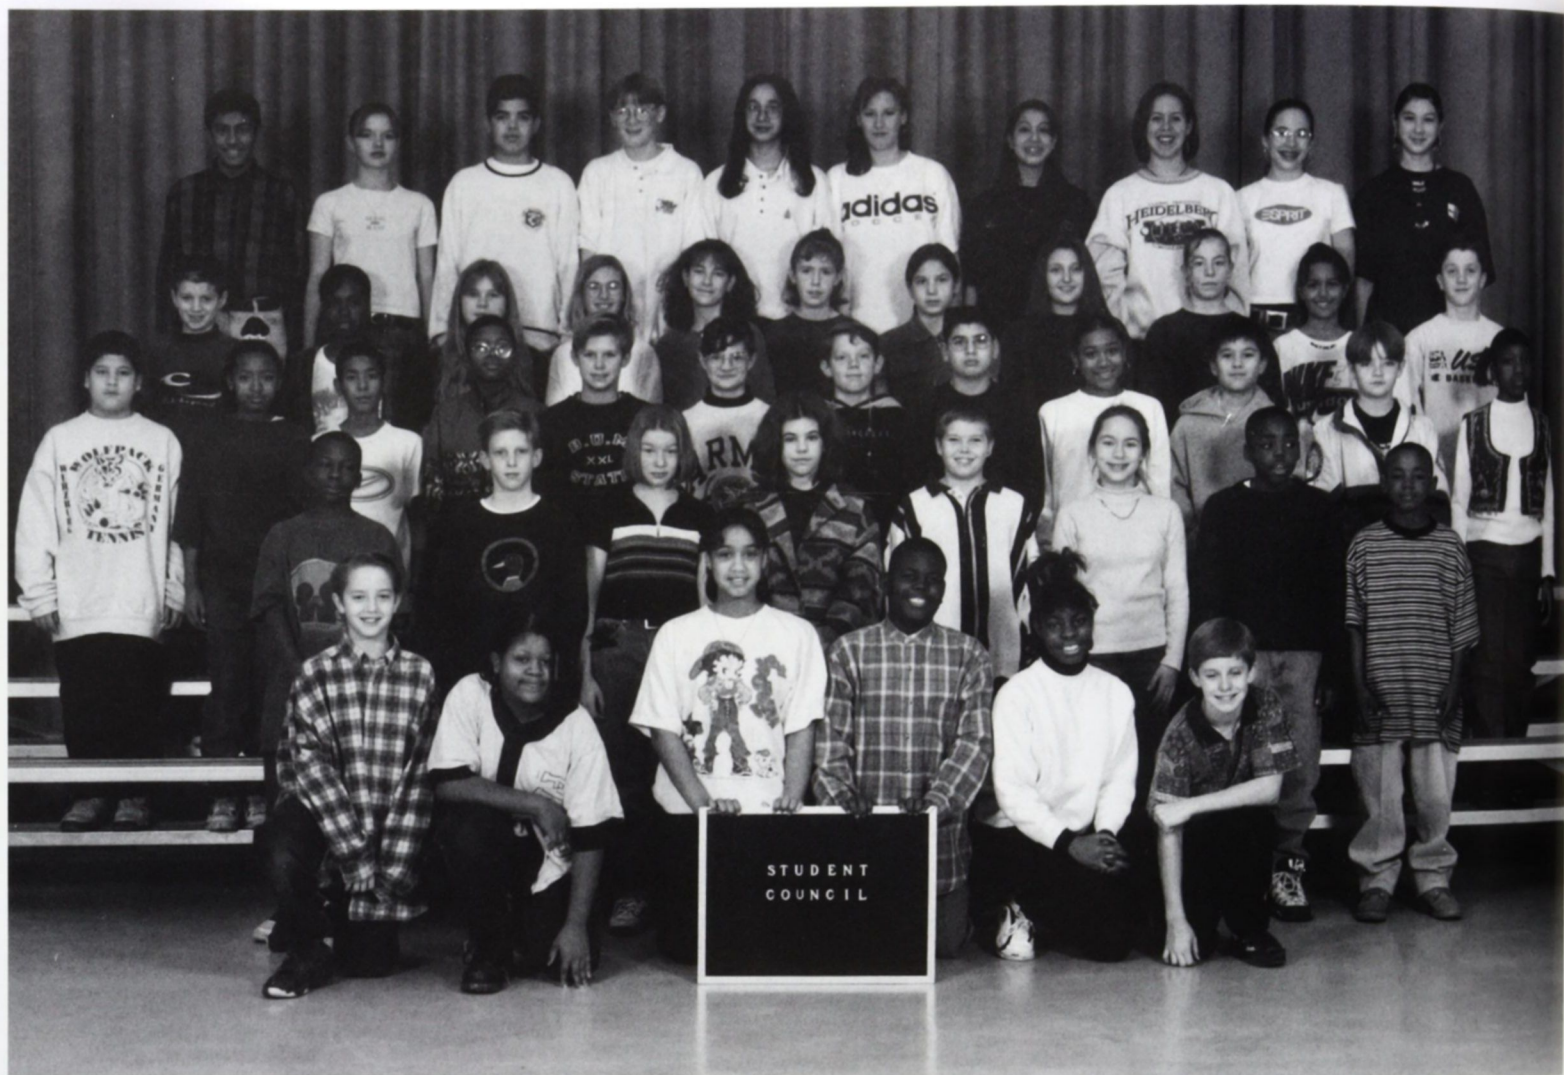

Flutists flaunt it in frosty flicks!

Is Jamison freezing or what?

Jared and Sarah tried to stay warm on one of the coldest days in Holiday Magic history.

HMS STUDENT COUNCIL

Student Council at HMS is made up of six officers elected in a general election and representatives elected by each advisory. Meetings are held after school the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month. Students learn to follow an agenda, use parliamentary procedure, take notes, and participate positively in spirited discussions. The administration of the school is very supportive of Student Council and often asks for members opinions on important issues concerning all students. Members work very hard in spite of the fact that their only reward is satisfaction.

Two major projects this year were the Showcase of Stars Talent Show and the Valentine Dance. Proceeds from the Talent Show enable the council to continue to sponsor Pius Issa of Malawi through the Save the Children Foundation. Pius was adopted three years ago when the council was guided by Ms. Green and Ms. Bruffey. Proceeds from the dance helped pay the cost of sending seven students to the Leadership Conference in Oberwesel. This training is invaluable in providing young leaders for future student councils here and at the high school.

--Ms. Peyton, Sponsor

NATIONAL JUNIOR HONOR SOCIETY

The Heidelberg Middle School chapter of the National Junior Honor Society, NJHS, called the Lucinda Campbell Chapter, was formed in December of 1971. Membership in NJHS is based on academic achievement and leadership. Excellence in scholarship, citizenship, leadership, character, and service determines membership. Each fall, eighth grade students are considered for membership. Each spring, seventh grade students are inducted. NJHS members are dedicated to the service of others.

-- Ms. McKedy and Ms. Gardy, Sponsors

DRAMA CLUB

VIDEO CLUB

HMS is bursting with talented students. The Drama Club is one of the outlets for all this talent. Each spring they produce an outstanding musical to the delight of the school and community. Their sponsor is Mrs. Pat Kiebler.

Video students spend many hours collecting footage for school news and features. Whether it be student-faculty sporting events, field trips, debates, induction ceremonies, or other event, the Video Club provides on-the-spot coverage. Mrs. Kiebler sponsors this group also.

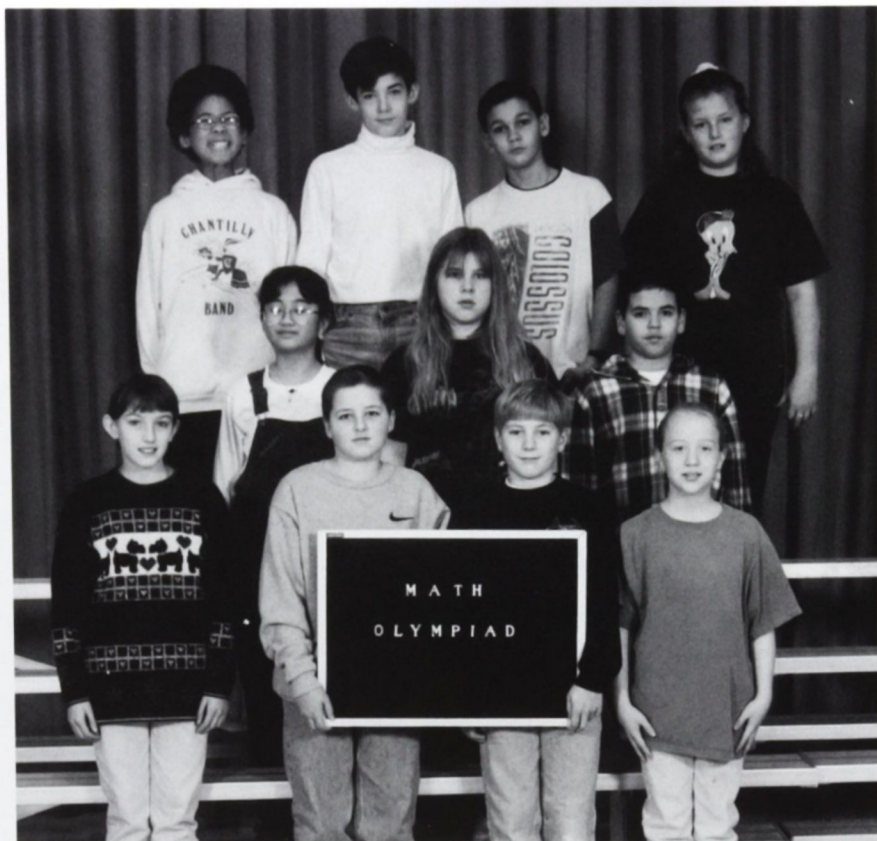

Math Olympiads students have the following proposal for our Panther yearbook readers.

"We solve problems in Math Olympiads. How about you, are you a problem solver? Try this:

--Alice needs one hour to do a certain job. Betty, her older sister, can do the same job in  $\frac{1}{2}$  hour. How many minutes will it take to do the job if they work together at the given rates?-- Good luck!"

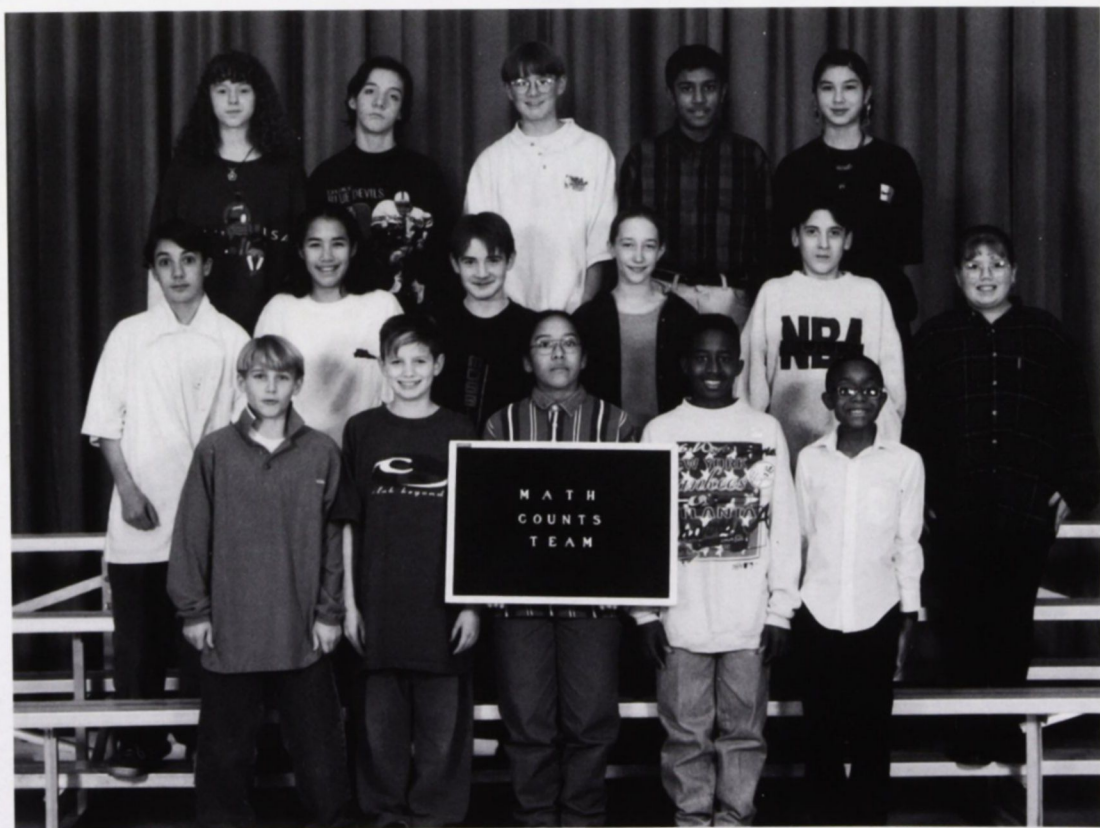

Ms. Gerber is the Math Olympiads sponsor.

MATH OLYMPIAD

MATH COUNTS

The Math Counts team is composed of 7th and 8th graders who meet weekly to practice solving interesting and challenging math problems. They then compete against other schools in a one day meet. Ms. Baumgardner is the Math Counts sponsor.

BEGINNING BANDS

ADVANCED BANDS

In addition to at least two major performances for the community and school, Chorus travels to the elementary schools to perform and to the high school to learn more advanced musical techniques.

Encore is a small group of performers who, via auditions, earned the right to represent HMS as Goodwill Ambassadors throughout the German and American communities. This song and dance troupe performs about fifteen times per year.

CHORUS

MEDIATORS

STEP TEAM

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

Fussball, the world's number one sport, was also popular with American kids.

Sports and Intramurals

Much of the sports program was organized and run by HYS, Heidelberg Youth Services. Intramural competition, however, was a popular part of the physical education program. The annual spring and fall track meets were another chance for our future athletes to "shine." Even our older staff members liked to participate occasionally, at least as cheerleaders.

The annual staff vs. 7th grade champs game ended up in the usual free-for-all.

Caitlin, Nancy, and Rachel at last year's Special Winter Olympics in Berchtesgaden.

Concentration and determination makes everyone a winner.

HMS Advisory Committee

Our school advisory committee consisted of Mrs. Graves, Mrs. Drinkwater, and Mrs. Johnson. Behind them are ranged Dr. Lewis, Mr. Kirsch, Mr. Gibson, Mr. Carlin, Mr. Matthews, President, and Mr. Don Johnson, Retiring Principal.

Pictured in the photo to the left are Mrs. Schmitt, our PTSA president, and Mrs. Rausch, former teacher-of-the-year and one of many "movers" here at HMS. The yearbook staff, on behalf of our student body, would like to thank all those volunteers whose time and efforts made this a year to remember. Very special thanks goes out to the Heidelberg Officers and Civilians Wives Club whose very generous donation helped pay for much of this book. THANK YOU, HOCWC. Our own PTSA also sponsored and supported the yearbook with a generous contribution.

THANK YOU, PTSA. Thanks also, to our students and parents who make this yearbook possible by supporting it with your purchases. We have done what we could to make this book a worthy memory of your year here in Heidelberg. Thank you all for the memories.

Sincerely,
Mr. Carlin and Mr. Dish
Panther Yearbook Sponsors, Ret.
