Junior Science and Humanities Symposium

First, students choose a scientific question to research and explore.

Then, these in-depth projects are reviewed by actual scientists. This year two HMS students were among the thirteen middle school students chosen to present their research at a European wide symposium.

Heidelberg Middle School PTSA

We are indebted to our members, to our volunteers and to the generous donations of the Heidelberg Community Spouses Club.

We are looking for people to continue the good work.
Our school needs you, so think about being part of the board next year.
