"Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself.
You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here.
And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should.
Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be.

Mom, Dad & Amanda

is her name. Born July 8th, 1996, weighing 7lb, 8oz, my first impression like any parent was; "She is beautiful and my ious Little Angel." I look at you now and I say you are still my beautiful angel, blossoming everyday and growing into a strong, determined, young lady. Everyday you make me proud that I am your mother and even more when I see all of wonderful things you have achieved. You have been everywhere I have been in my career for the most part. You have er complained or ever gave me grief of "why are we here". You have always given me hugs and kisses when I was tired own. We have all supported you, and you too have shown your support within our family. During every occasion, every sion you have expressed your opinion and shared your viewpoint. Showing honesty and maturity, giving that million ar smile when I look at you. You are leaving the 8th grade and I look at you now with sadness about how I remember en you started school and I worried so much if you were going to be okay. You have proved that you are okay. You are power to reckon with in any category: sports, academics, or in life. You always tell me, "When I grow up, I am going to be like you!" I love you, FOREVER, FOR ALWAYS, AND FOR LIFE. It hurts to know one day you will leave and go on your own and start you own life and begin your own family, but for right now, I cry tears of joy that I can keep up n you. Don't keep growing so fast, mommy can barely keep up. Love you with, not only my heart, but with my soul as I always ask you if you love me and you always say, "Yes, mommy." Know that I always will adore you as well.

ommy
