Student Life at Hohenfels

The first code blue drill found Nariah Sablan, Lance Howard, and Joshua Barnett enjoying the break in classes.

Hohenfels Middle/High School is the greatest school in DoDDS. The school may be small for a middle/high school but, it has many wonderful and smart students. Hohenfels Middle/High School also has wonderful teachers who care about the students and their education.

Hohenfels also offers a wide variety of extra-curricular activities for students. Whatever the season, there is some type of sport activity taking place and many students choose to take advantage of these opportunities. Other students prefer such activities as MUSS, Odyssey of the Mind, MathCounts, or other activities of this type.

Whatever the season, the students at Hohenfels can find much to keep them busy and active.

Practicing for their performance at the first HOME football game are Hannah Smith, Eric Wollersberger, Justin Hamlin, Natasha Fluker, and Tori Adams .

Taking inventory is part of running the Student Store as Maddie Helbling and Brigette Barriffe find out.

Johnrie Racick

Whatever your sport, Hohenfels M/HS has it. We begin the year with football, volleyball, cross-country, fall cheerleading, and tennis.

When winter approaches we move to more indoor types of activity such as rifle team, wrestling, and basketball.

When Spring rolls around, the fields are full of boys and girls chasing the soccer ball. The call of cadence can be heard throughout as the drill team begins to practice and the track is host of runners, jumpers and throwers.

Yes, Hohenfels is a sport-minded school

Tiger Foolldall ... stepped up to the plate

Starting the season off with a bang !! The $1 / 4$ soldiers shoot the "Touchdown Tank" when the Tigers cross the goal line.

The Hohenfels Tigers took the field to the sound of marching feet and the playing of the drums. Confident of a victory, the military community provided a tank which was to "sound off" each time the Tigers scored. The sound of the cannon echoed throughout the mountains surrounding the base as Hohenfels had a very good season.

The first home game was also the first

The players congratulate each other for a play well executed time the Hohenfels Tiger Fight Song was heard. Written by a friend of Mrs. W, the song was unique and well received.

Mixing it up to get the goal is what the Tigers do best.

Waiting for a decision by the officials can be nervewrecking, especially for the players on the field.

Cross-Country takes to the road

And, they're off ..... as Robert Dunwoody manuvers into a leading position.

The Hohenfels Tiger Cross-Country team had another successful season. Returning runners for this school year included Stephen Vandal, Dennis Vass, Vince Elmore, Drew Martin, and Nico Harris. I was happy to welcome four new runners to the team: Seventh graders, Korey Sessoms and Connor Timmerman, senior Rob Dunwoody and returning to Hohenfels High School after three years living in the states Sunny Petery.

We had a very successful home meet on homecoming weekend when runners from all over Germany came to compete on the toughest CrossCountry course in DODDS Europe. The highlight of the season was when the Hohenfels Tiger Cross-Country team qualified to compete in the DODDS European championships held in Heidelberg, Germany.

Congratulations team and I look forward to another exciting season in the fall.

Hohenfels Hurricanes swim up a storm

Hohenfels Hurricanes is a private organization that is a great experience for kids of all ages. Coach Beth Hoeh (We her) and Coach Delores Hoffman (We $\mathcal{S H}^{4}$ her) coached the swim teams this year. We had about 30 kids from grades $1-12$, practicing in three different pools, four times a week.

Our favorite part of this great swim season (August - February) was the Swim Camp that we organized around Christmas time. We took kids from the orphanage in Parsberg swimming for a weekend and we all had lots of fun.

$\square$ Clubs and Activities

- Hohenfels Middle/High School has them. Whether you are looking for fun, excitement, enrichment, whatever. Hohenfels has it.

Beginning Band

For many students, the seventh grade is their first exposure to musical instruments but it doesn't take them long to learn how to find the C flat or the A sharp on their clarinet or French horn. By the end of the year, they are ready for bigger and better things, like the Beethoven 1812 Overture.

Mr. W relaxes between performances.

Advanced Band

Members of the Advanced Band have mastered their instruments and are moving into the more difficult and challenging pieces. This year two of the Advanced band students, Emily Mittag and Eric Wollersberger, were chosen for the DoDDS Honor Band. This is quite an honor for both them and the school.

The clarinet and flute sections are ready for action.

Student Council -- the voice of the students

Student Council puts on many events throughout the year. The representatives for each class are responsible for taking the information from the Student Council meetings to their class. They then take the suggestions and questions from their class to the Student Council. Members help plan the different events and do their part to carry them out.

The Executive Board of the Student Council can take concerns of the students to Principal Dan Mendoza who takes these concerns under consideration. Thus, Student Council becomes THE voice of the students at Hohenfels Middle / High School.

Odyssey of the Mind...

I'm Only Thinking Of You...

OM is a program where students are given a choice of five possible long-term problems to solve and present at competition. OM stresses teamwork and that the end goal is not the focus, but the journey to reach the goal. As a team, participants have to complete both the long-term project and a spontaneous short term problem in which they try to solve the problem in an allotted amount of time. This year, Hohenfels grabbed first place in the Division III problem "I'm Only Thinking of You." Hohenfels also grabbed second place Division III with the problem "Around the World in Eight Minutes."

A PART OF EVERY STUDCNT'S LIFE

Bryce Metz finds the computer useful when doing his accounting lessons.

From to cell phones to i-Pods, computers to Smart Boards, electronic microscopes to sketch pads, the students at Hohenfels Middle/High School have got the technology bug. There is not a single class that is not impacted in some way or another by technology.

In gym the teachers use electronics to measure the body weight vs fat while math and science classes use technology to make our lives better.

Wacky-Tacky Day allows the imagination run wild, and boy did they run wild. This year Super Hero Day was the favorite. From Might Mouse to Quail Boy, anything was possible.

Eighth Grade - on the bide

The Eighth Grade students have recovered very well from their introduction to the high school and being low man on the totem pole. This year they are beginning to feel their oats and are spreading their wings.

They had a few more choices for classes this year, classes such as Business Enterprise, Music Appreciation, Computer Applications, MS Video Productions and MS Art. All of these classes are ones that could lead to deeper study and a possible career in that field.

Many students in the Several MS students excelled at Cross Country.

When Winter sport season arrived, a number of the boys in the eighth grade went out for wrestling. For the Spring season, there are many MS students on the track and field teams. Whether it be running, hurdling, jumping, or whatever, they are participating and enjoying their daily mile runs as part of the practice.

Eighth grade students not only participated in sports, many of them were part of the other activities such as Odyssey of the Mind or FBLA. Several went to FBLA Spring Conference and came back winners.

For the Eighth grade students, this was a wonderfully active year.

I can remember when you were born. You came into this world with a soft cry, now you have become this wonderful (Loud Sometimes) young man. I can truly say that God has blessed me with one of the best sons a parent could ask for.

As I see you come to the end of one of your Journeys, it is far from being over. As you enter into your adult life there will be some hard decisions you will have to make. But I know you will always make the right choice.

In about four years I will be in the Auditorium seats again with this big smile saying, 'Yes, you've made it.' But even better, I will see you in the NFL. I will definitely be yelling and screaming "B-Smoove" your #1 fan, and then you can get that Maid you always wanted!

What two words best describe a Service Credit Union member? At ease.

Banking with us is easier than ever. (And it's always been pretty easy.) Our members are always on the move, so it's no wonder our most popular features are also the most convenient, like online account opening and funding, online banking with billpay, and the ability to talk to a real person, 24/7.

What are you waiting for! Call or go online today militarycu.org-00800.4728.2000

I can't believe that we have put another issue of The Olbble Cat to bed. Thless you have woiked on a yearbouk or some ather typu of publication, you have no idea of the time and effort that groes into making the book the best theie is.
The members of the Yeartuok Etaff hope you enjay the boak. They are very moud of the book and think you will heeasure it as a history of the 2000-2007 school year at Kohenfels Middle/ Kigh School.
 At would be impossible to complete the boaks without the help of many people. The leachers who allowed us to take the students from their soom 'for just a second' to take a picture. The memberss of the administration who had complete faith in us and that we could do the jote.
There were also those people who took puctures for us at games, dances, etc. Trying to cover all the activities of a very busy school is quite a daunting effort. Alexis Treadwell, ©l'ate Apodaca, Mis. Gaicia and Mis. Cullum aie some of the people who helped us with this. Of comies, without Mr. Say Danna to answer our cries of "help" when we couldn't g.t into the progiam but everyone else could. Helping" us load and unload the progiams as we moved around the building. TPe owe him lig' time.

Money is always a problem with any yearbook. The suppoit lum, and Goselyn Reffin thank you for all your haid woik. TPe have had our ups and downs but we have always come out on top. This years clible Cat will be the best yet.
