Junior Leadership Seminar

At the Junior Leadership Seminar (JLS) four students from Hohenfels went to Oberwesel Germany, a town on the Rhine river. The students at JLS went on many study trips around the town, they learned about leadership and school improvement.

Awkward Moments

Ashley Moses

"I was in class, with Miranda, and I hate my neck being tickled. So Miranda tickled me and I fell out of my chair in the middle of the class!"

Hannah Watkins

"I was at soccer practice and we were all running. I tried to go faster and I ended up running right into a pole, and just fell over in front of everyone."

Anonymous

"I went for a killer slap on one of my friends, but he dodged it and I ended up smacking a little kid in the face. Naturally, he cried. Oops. I bought him a purple gatorade to make him feel better!"

Shelby Atkinson

"I was in the Java one day with Megan Scott and Ashley Moses. I got up to go to the bathroom and Megan "pantsed" me while I was walking down the hallway! I tried running, but since my shorts were around my ankles, I tripped and fell. Ashley was "Vineing" it the whole time and put it on Facebook!"

Mikaela Strange

"Two days after my boyfriend dumped me, I saw him in the hallway and tried to avoid him. I started to run up the stairs and as soon as I started running, I tripped right in front of him. Everyone around me was asking if I was okay, and I just turned around and ran."

Deutsch

"Die Grenzen meiner Sprache bedeuten die Grenzen meiner Welt."

Theater Performance

Students in various German classes visited a Theater performance of "The Wave" which was displayed by the American Drama Group.

Study Trips

Weihnachten

German Poems

German Students always make awesome props for their German Poems. Some of the works they did were "Der Kabeljau" and "Die Schnupftabakdose"

As well as being the German Teacher, Frau O was also a senior class sponsor for the class of 2014, sponsor of the German Honor Society, and was nominated as the Teacher of The Year for this school year, even though she humbly denied it.

"The limits of my language are the limits of my universe."

-Ludwig Wittgenstein

Testimonials

Career Practicum

Trevor Tufts and Jay Strange are seniors that took German one. They both enjoy learning about the language and culture of Germany and think that it is a great experience to finish off their senior year.

Julian Byles completed one semester apprenticeship with Frau O this year. After six years of working together, the legacy finally, and sadly, comes to an end.

German Students always enjoy having a "Kulturtag" where they take a break from class work and enjoy the German culture.

The game of basketball has been everything to me. My place of refuge, place I've always gone where I needed comfort and peace. It's been the site of intense pain and the most intense feelings of joy and satisfaction. It's a relationship that has evolved over time, given me the greatest respect and love for the game.

Dear son,

Congratulations on all your achievements! It would take hundreds of pages in this yearbook to express all my good wishes for your future. I will try to sum it all up concisely with a quote from Ralph Waldo Emerson:

"What lies behind us and what lies before us are tiny matters compared to what lies within us".

Always remember that I love you from the bottom of my heart!

In Liebe,
Mama

It's been rough sailing from middle school to senior year, but you took the helm and plotted a course to success. Although you are about to graduate, the voyage is not yet over. Stay true to your course until you reach your goals. I'm proud of you. Keep up the good work.

Love,
Dad

On Graduation Day you close a chapter in life's book. Your journey begins, stay the course and follow your dreams. You deserve the absolute best that life has to offer. Do not race to the end, life is about the experiences that you have and the people you love. Do not take one day for granted and remember that we will always be here for you.

Andrea,
Finally! The last one done and off to a brand new life. You have come a very long way from the lovable little baby to a wonderfully bright young lady with a promising future. It's been exciting, funny, sometimes exhausting, yet always rewarding to watch you grow into the great personality you are today, and we can't wait to see what the future will bring for you.

Enjoy your new found freedom and let the adventure called "life" begin.
We love you so very much,

Mamalein 137

Kirsten,

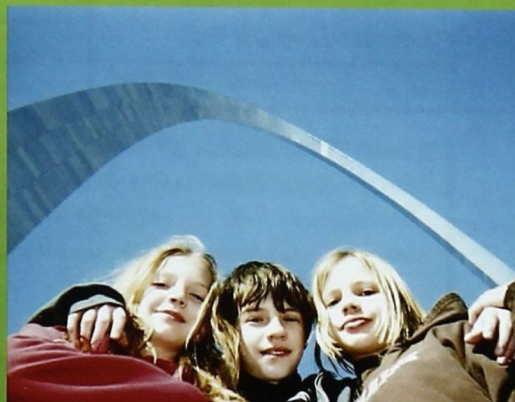

Since you were born you were determined to be your own person. You have always had your own opinions, been independent, and smart. These are strong characters that will take you far in life. Most of all you've been my beautiful little lady that I had the privilege to have in my life. I'm so proud to call you my daughter. I'm realizing how hard it is to let you go. I knew you had to grow up, but I'm not ready for you to leave home, yet. I don't know that I ever will be. I realize you have to leave to continue your education, join society as an adult, and have me some grandchildren later in your life. However, it's still hard to let go. I will think of you every day you're gone.

Take chances. Be willing to risk bumps and bruises to go after the things that you really want. When fear is holding you back, and you need an extra dose of courage, know that I will always be there cheering you on, and I will always give you a soft place to land. Stand up. Speak out. Always remember who you are and where you came from. Love. Live. Fly.

I love you more than I could ever express. I will be the one in the audience who starts crying when you make your entrance at the graduating ceremony this year and when I take you back to the US to college. They will be tears of pride and joy. Congratulations Kirsten, this is just the beginning. Your future is out there and I know you will do well in the "real world", you'll fly like a butterfly and make it yours. I love you so much!

Always Here for You,

Mom

What a truly outstanding young man you have grown to become! With your kind, easy-going manner, quiet determination to succeed, and abundant intelligence, you have richly blessed our lives as well as the lives of many others in these last eighteen years - which have flown by much too quickly. You have always worked hard and strived to do what is right. We are so proud of your achievements, but more proud of who you are. There is no doubt that the world is your oyster! (Are oysters sustainable?) So get out there and save the sharks! We love you, Iggy!

Mom, Dad, and Amelia

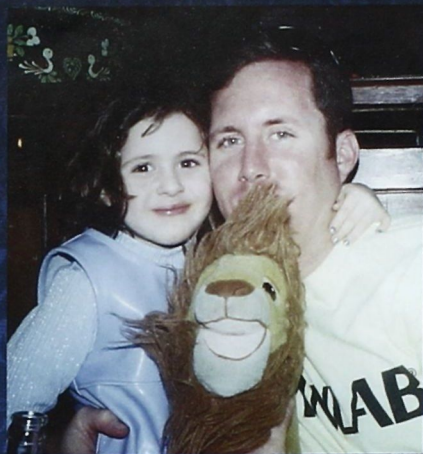

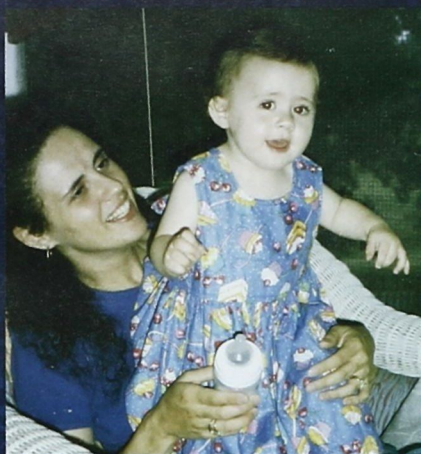

Lukie,

Since we were little you have been a great brother to me. We've always gotten along so well and have made so many amazing memories. I am so grateful for the close relationship we have. I honestly don't know what I'm going to do without you when you leave, but I do know that I'll miss you like crazy. BUT I am absolutely positive you will go and do great things. You have grown to become such an exceptional young man who has accomplished so much. I love you a million!

Amelia

From the moment we saw you, our hearts have been filled with love and joy, from then to now nothing but love and joy. Darling girl, Dorothy Laura Grace, you are the balance in the force of our family. From Virginia to Florida and across the ocean to Germany, your bright beautiful beaming smile has lightened our days and, reminded us of all that is great and good in the world. We could have never imagined what having you as our one and only daughter would mean, but we have learned that blessing and grace came in the gift of you...simply, you are amazing, and we couldn't imagine a day of life without you here.

*Confident, diligent, sweet, little, fierce, devoted, diabolically creative and intelligent, charming, naughty, you are one of a kind. The pride we feel as we prepare for your High School graduation is enormous, and grows larger every day as you ready yourself for college. Savor the moments that are happening, and are about to happen. Make the most of each day as you begin this journey into your adulthood. Go into this world with the knowledge that you are ready. Isaac "Country" ~ from the time you were born we knew you would be determined, driven, and motivated. When you first arrived it was touch and go to see if your lungs would be strong enough to carry you through this world. At first you were quiet, hardly moving until the nurse dropped the tape measurer across your face. You managed to grab the tape and screamed at the top of your lungs, and we have not managed to slow you down or stop you from doing whatever you set your mind to. You have grown into a strong, intelligent, kind hearted, compassionate young man with a bright future ahead. Keep your eyes focused on the Lord and everything else will always fall into place. We are so very proud of you and the young man you have become. We love you so very much,

Now that you are graduating,
we look back and wonder where the time went. We remember the day you were

You filled our hearts with so much love. We did not think someone so much as we love you. As your graduation day approaches, we wish the time with you was a video

and we could play it over and over again.

Believe in yourself,
and you will be successful.

You are special to us in so many different ways. Over the years we have watched you grow from a little, innocent boy into a handsome, smart, young man. Each day you give us a reason to smile. We're overjoyed to see that you have achieved one of your many goals. You have a really bright future ahead of you, so take advantage of every opportunity. Remember, with hard work and determination, there's nothing that can stand in your way. Keep striving to be the best that YOU can be. "For with God nothing will be impossible." ~Luke 1:37. We love you and are so very proud of you!

and even that is an understatement.*
- F. Scott Fitzgerald

Dear Stan,

Eighteen years doesn't seem all that long ago, but then again, our family and our life experiences have certainly taken us places that I could not have imagined possible. We have watched you grow from a baby, to a toddler, to a boy, and now a man; all in that brief 18 years. Along the way, you and the rest of our family, betrothed to the military, have moved seven different times and lived in three different countries. We still can't believe that our son is graduating from high school in Germany! In the space of the next twelve months, a thousand doors will open, and you will have to make life choices as to which ones to walk through. While we believe that God and divine providence guide us through this life, still a pearl of great price is not for the asking. Whatever it is you choose to do, commit it with all of your heart and all your faculties, and I know that you will find success. You have made your mother and me extremely proud, and we look forward to watching your progression, as you past the invisible line of demarcation from childhood into adulthood. Good luck with all you do.

We love you so very much,

Mom and Dad

Congratulations Breann!
