2020-2021

Welcome to HMHS! This year, Covid-19 has changed a lot and as a school we have had to make certain accommodations to ensure the well being of our teachers and students. We still find ways to make school a fun place to be and we hope our classic Hollywood theme does a good job of capturing all this year entailed!

COMING SOON:

STUDENT LIFE COVID EDITION!

Everyday life has been changed due to the rise of COVID-19 and student life has been altered drastically, but that doesn't mean it's gone!

"This year there were many changes to how we go about doing everyday things, like being with our friends. But, despite it all, we still managed to have fun (safely, of course)."

- Monique Buckner

STUDENT LIFE : COVID EDITION

Due to COVID-19 a lot has changed and we have had to make several changes as well. In order to make this a fun but safe school year the school has made certain accommodations, like wearing masks and social distancing, to ensure the happiness and well being of our Tiger students.

"I chose to do in-person school rather than online because my friends are here, I have great teachers and I wanted to experience my senior year in person rather than through a screen." -Alexa Simon (Left)

2020 ELECTION

IZA (Institute of Labor Economics) -->

2020 Election Predictions:

- According to the Fivethirtyeight project, Mr. Biden was projected to win. After playing out different outcomes, they determined that the overall electoral environment favors a democratic standpoint. The results are entirely dependent on which way swing states decided to turn.
- fivethirtyeight.com

Covid-19 effects on the 2020 US Presidential Election:

A study was conducted prior to the election to explore how the pandemic impacts the election.

- They found that Covid-19 had shifted the political narrative as it negatively affected the Republican party's support.
- The pre-election analysis concluded that areas hit harder by Covid were more likely to lose electoral support for Trump.
- Researchers were then able to determine that the way Trump handled the pandemic is what influenced voters to switch over their votes to the democratic party.

Joseph Rogers

Viktoria Beyl

Kaetlyn Truax

STUDENT INTERVIEWS : Pre-Election

| Popular Vote vs. Electoral College | Will either turnout be positive ? | Is this a fair election ? |
|---|--|--|
| "I believe we should go by popular vote. The electoral college served its time when not everyone had access to the news; but now since every man, woman, and child has access, popular vote, by far, makes more sense." - Joseph Rogers | "Neither turnout will have a positive outcome because our country has been divided over recent years and neither party is willing to compromise" - Viktoria Beyl | "This is not a fair election since people are not voting because they are skeptical on having to mail in votes, which could lead to voter fraud and more non-response bias than prior elections." -Kaetlyn Truax |

Declan Colbert

Caroline Grooms

Yosleen Alokoa

STUDENT INTERVIEWS :

Post-Election

What is your opinion on voter fraud claims?

“You know, all the issues would be resolved if candidates just arm wrestled it out.”

- Declan Colbert

Do you think major changes will come from this turnout?

“Oh definitely, there has already been major changes within the first few weeks into Biden’s presidency, like insulin prices skyrocketing.”

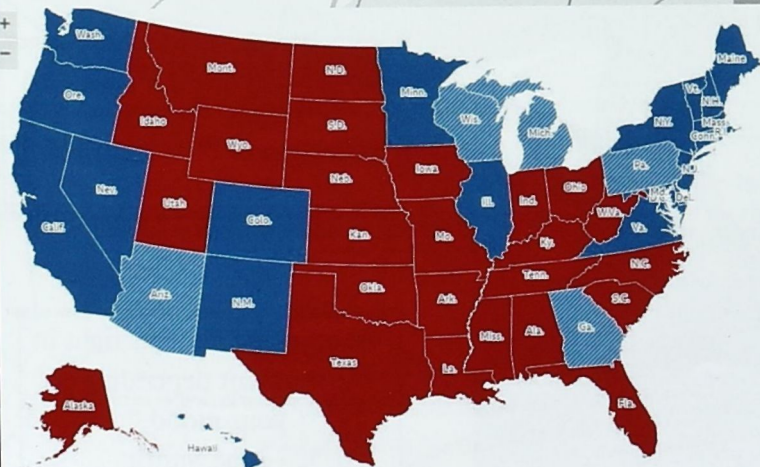

- Caroline Grooms

How were you feeling during the election?

“I was hanging off the edge of my seat, it was so close! Like what’s going to happen next?!”

- Yosleen Alokoa

The 2020 Presidential Election is one of the most ground-breaking elections yet!! It had everyone sitting on pins and needles as America was nervously waiting to hear the results of the polls. After a tight race, Mr. Biden came out on top and had President Trump by over 70 electoral votes!

Electoral College Results :

Joe Biden - 306

Donald Trump - 232

Popular Vote Results :

Joe Biden - 79, 843, 207

Donald Trump - 73, 794, 975
