Student Life

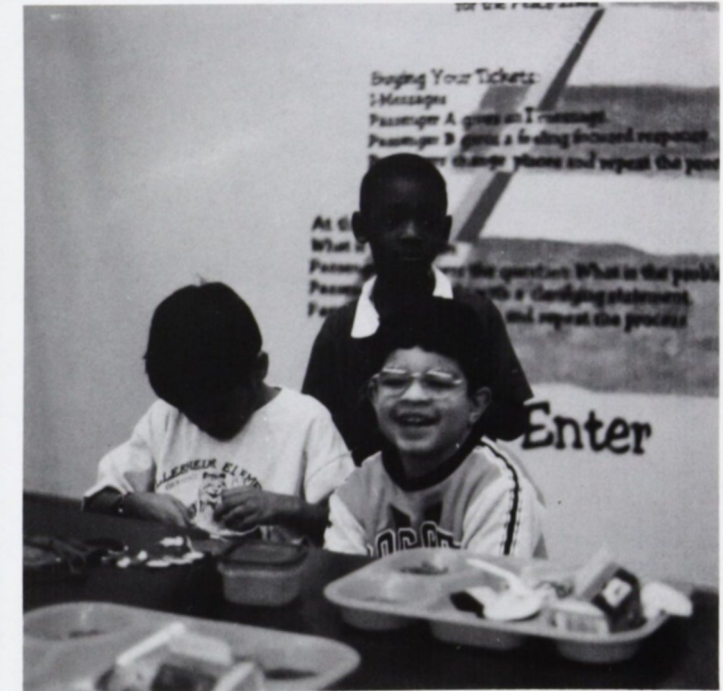

► Our school had a wonderful turn out for the Tree Lighting Ceremony. The Illesheim community always shows tremendous support for our school.

▼ Making the best of her time, Callie Johnson volunteers as a library aide.

▲ After a wonderful performance, a member in the a cappella group from St. Daniel's Church in Moscow answers questions from students.

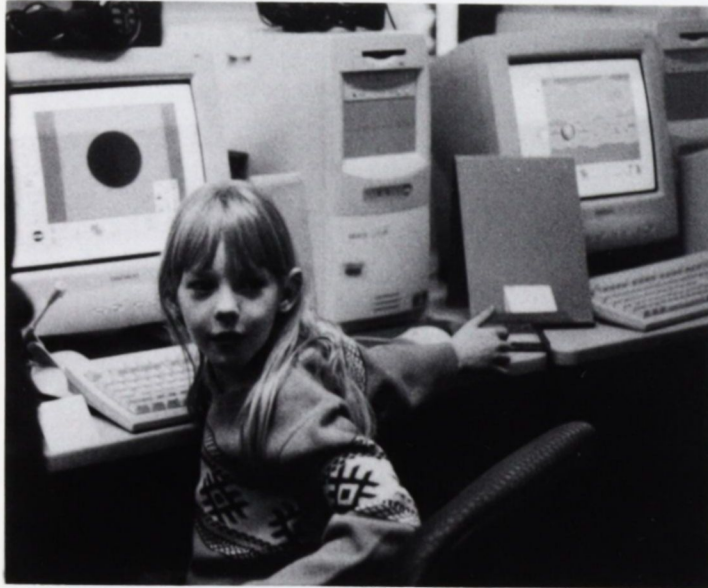

► Dressed from head to toe, Maggie Edens, Katrese Smith, Drake Rogney and Kristen Priest look groovy on Hippy Day.

▶ Letting loose, Jamal Johnson sings during a Bible Club meeting.

▼ The members of Bible Club sound like angels to the parents in the audience as Ms. Tague directs the sweet melodies being sung.

▲ Cutting the rug, Nikita Swanson and Shawna Waters have a ball at the Winter Formal.

▲ Standing in between Matt Coffman and Robbie Mycyk, Kevin Phipps sneaks in a smile as they recite their part for the Bible Club Christmas Program.

▼ Ms. Tuliau instructs Mrs. Camper's 3rd grade class as run laps to warm up for their P.E. activity.

▲ Making it look easy, Sean Szad runs laps in 5th grade P.E.

▲ Always motivated, Mrs. Johnson's 6th grade class learns how to work as a team during P.E. with Ms. Tuliau.

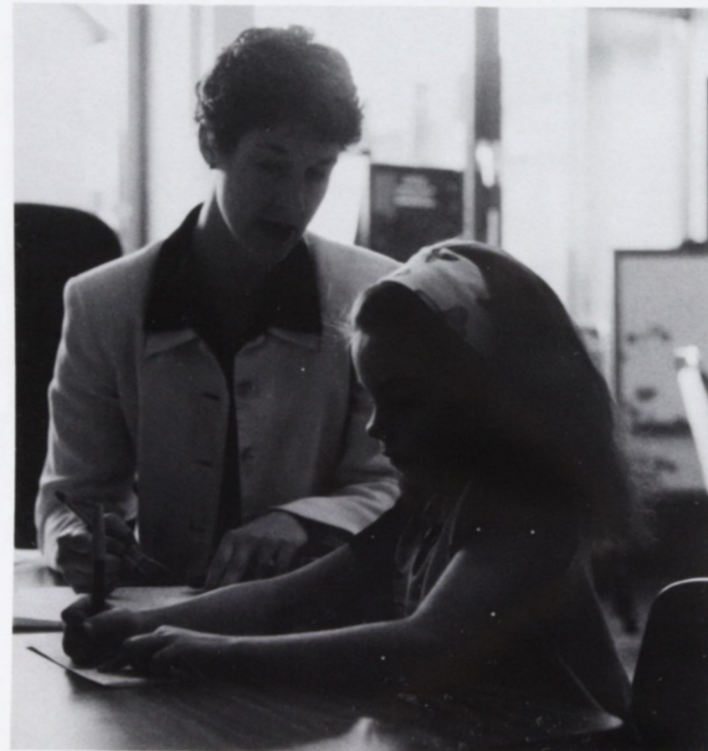

Specialists

*Mrs. Leonardo, Mrs. Gunter,
Mrs. Pearson, Mrs. Kinzie*

▶ Testing the literacy levels, Mrs. Kinzie provides a very important program for our students as Reading Recovery Instructor.

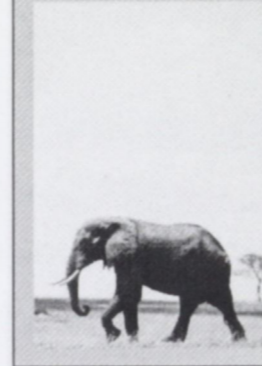

▲ Having a discussion with a student's parent, Mrs. Gunter also aids students eating lunch.

▶ Having an easy day with Mrs. Leonardo, Alexis Townsend and Dena Bullard relish in this well deserved occasion.

Mrs. Elizabeth Krauss

The Illesheim Elementary Yearbook Staff would like to acknowledge Mrs. Krauss for her distinguished career as a teacher. She has been a dedicated teacher for 38 years and will be retiring after the 2000-2001 school year. She has touched so many lives and will be deeply missed. We wish you well in your retirement. We would like to thank you for all that you have done for the youth of our country.

*Sincerely,
The Yearbook Staff*

Mr. Ness

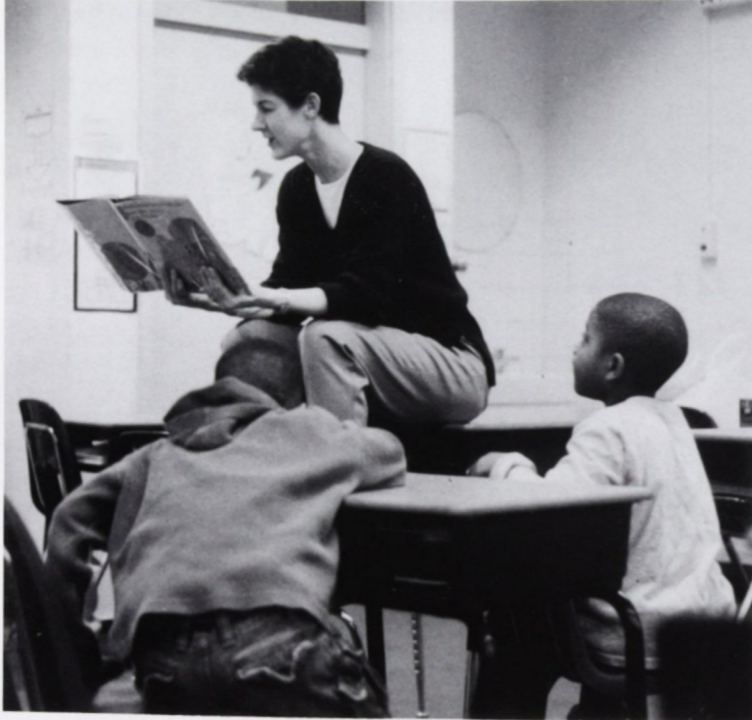

We loved having you as our Principal. You have always shown your support for the students and staff of Illesheim Elementary School.

Thank you for caring!

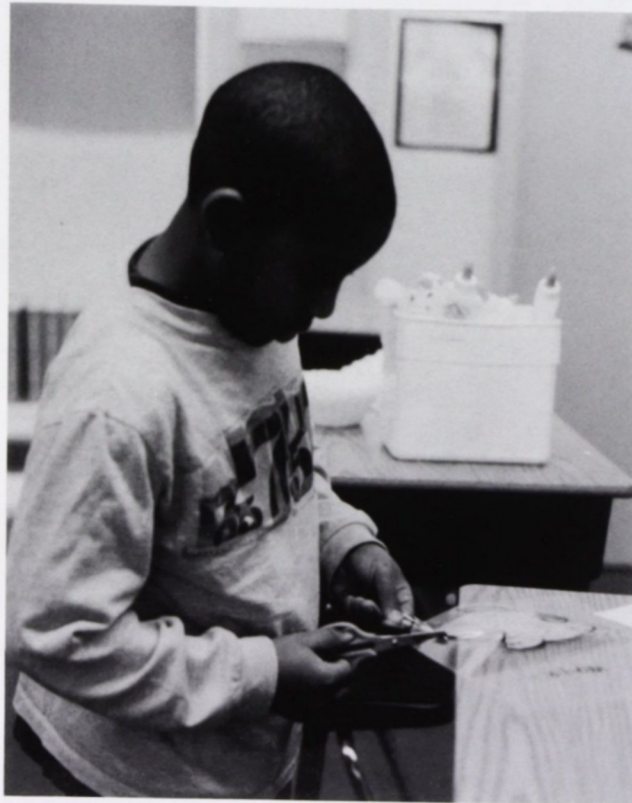

The Reading Club

Mrs. Kinzie

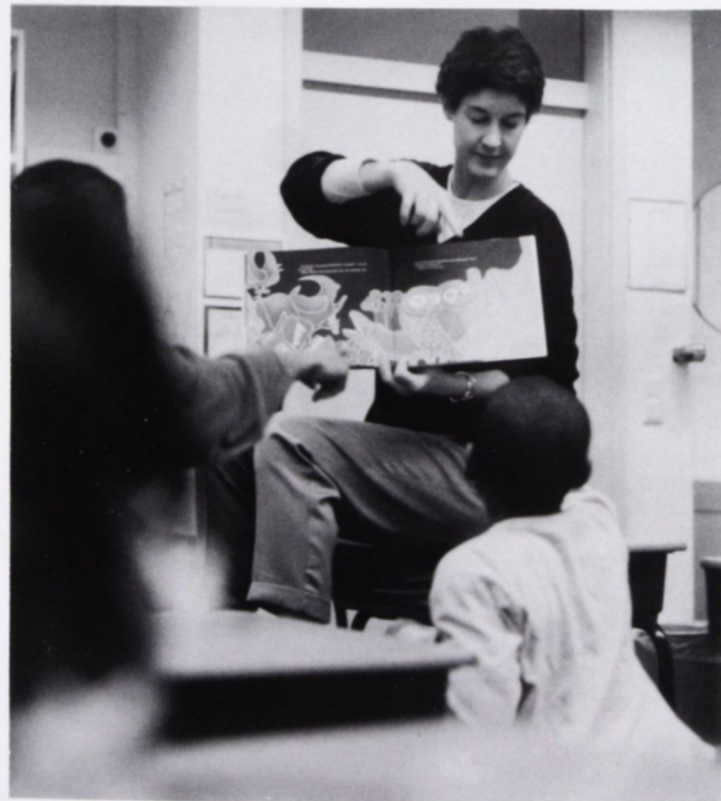

▼ Every Wednesday students meet with Mrs. Kinzie to read books and do fun activities that relate to the stories they've read.

▼ Trimming a translucent picture, Tatiana Jones finishes a project she made in Reading Club.

▲ Malik Brooks enjoys the projects he creates during Reading Club.

BIBLE CLUB MS. TAGUE

◀ Getting comfortable, Kristen Priest and Chloe Archer stand in their favorite spot for the Bible Club.

◀ ▼ Having a great discussion, Ms. Tague teaches the students stories from the Bible.

▲ Concentrating on the discussion, Alan Forsyth, Jovanny Vargas and Jessie Coffman follow along in the Bible.

◀ After a long day at school, Courtney Holt, Lauren Priest and Lauren Aylworth sit back and relax as they sing songs about the Bible.

Science Lab

► In the process of making an incision, Dena Bullard and Christopher Ferrell gain a new understanding of the anatomy of a frog.

◀ She thought she wouldn't be able to do it, but Alisia Shannon dissects her first frog in Science Lab.

Student Council Mrs. Johnson

◀ Every Thursday, Mrs. Johnson meets with the Student Council to discuss fund-raising, school events and many other important issues concerning Illesheim Elementary School.

◀ Members of the Student Council discuss the Talent Show they will host February 14, 2001.

▲ Discussing school issues, Lauren Priest and Danielle Denuff offer their opinions to the conversation.

YEARBOOK SPONSORS

The Yearbook Staff would like to give a special thanks to all of the organizations and families who helped sponsor the Illesheim Elementary Yearbook.
Thank you

Natasha & Katrese,

You've come a long way baby!
We are proud of you!
Love,
Mom & Dad

Jovanny Raphael Vargas

When you were a baby, I loved you simply because you were my son. As you became a child, I loved you for who you were and what you had become. But now as you are becoming a man, I admire you for the Loving, Respectful and Hard Working person that you are. Keep up the good work, and remember Mom and Dad will always believe in you.

Leah Esther Vargas

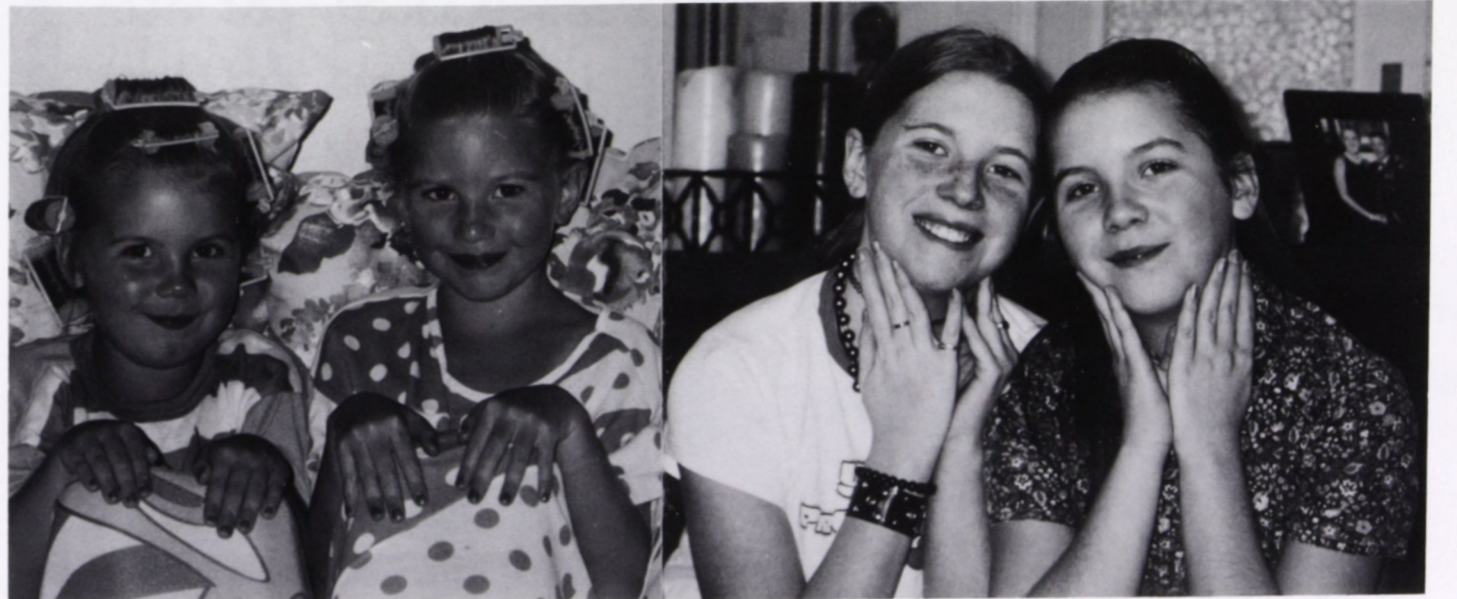

My daughter, my friend, we'll be here for you till the very end. You make us laugh; you make us smile, You'll always be our loving child. Thank you for the happiness and joy you bring us.
