Foreword

Marty Benson, Editor

I would the gift I offer here
 Might graces from thy favor take,
 And, seen through Friendship's atmosphere,
 On softened lines and coloring, wear
 The unaccustomed light of beauty, for thy sake.

So haply these, my simple lays
 Of homely toil, may serve to show
 The orchard bloom and tasseled maize
 That skirt and gladden duty's ways,
 The unsung beauty hid life's common things below.

From "Song of Labor" by John
 Greenleaf Whittier

I would like to thank personally, all those who have made it possible for this book to turn from a hope into reality. Next I would like to thank Mr. Frank Mathes, our sponsor, for the great amount of work that he did concerning the year-book, for without him there might not have been a book this year.

We the Sultana Staff sincerely hope that you enjoy this book as much as we enjoy presenting it to you. It has been work, but not without play; trials, but not without triumphs, and tears, but not without laughter. We hope that in these pages we have preserved a little of Izmir High, caught a few of those meaningful moments, and frozen for time a great many memories. It is our wish that this book provides you with many happy and memory-provoking hours both now and times in the future.

DEDICATION

John Louis Inglis Jr.
 February 19, 1940--November 29, 1965

Friend, adviser, teacher--John Inglis was all of these to the students who knew him. We could see from the first day in class how much he had to teach us and how well he would do it. We soon realized that, more than just being our teacher, he was willing and ready to offer his advice and friendship whenever we needed them. His stay with us was brief--three short months--but we are all better students, better individuals for having known him.

FACULTY

Mr. Luther C. Skelton

Principal's Message

A high school annual may be defined as the permanent record of the pleasant memories of your high school experience. And it may be added that it contains a visual record of your classmates, teachers, and the activities you participated in as a student.

In years to come your annual will become one of your prized possessions. Because of the fact that you are attending high school in a foreign land and your classmates and teachers come from all parts of the world, your school annual will assume a richer and deeper significance.

You live today to enjoy tomorrow. The enjoyment you experience in the future you determine by the attitudes you build today. May I offer the encouragement to each student that, as you turn the pages of this yearbook, you feel a sense of pride and satisfaction in the role you played as a student of the Izmir American High School.

It is our wish that you have learned, as students in Izmir High School, to conduct yourselves in such a manner that you will be a credit to yourself, your parents, your school, and your nation.

The brightest, surest hope for America rests with its young people. They, and they alone, can bring the much-needed leadership, courage, and determination to keep America great and free.

As you leave our school we trust and pray that you have learned the fundamental principles necessary to assure you a happy, full, and successful life.

Senior Decisions

Class Meeting

Onward to Greater Things in Whatever We Plan To Do

Seniors

The beginning, a brilliantly warm 30th of August, the year 1965. No one really felt like a Senior, but the role was gladly taken on. This was the year to remember above all others.

Classes were tackled with abounding ambition: "This is my last year and I am going to make the most of it," a resolution in most cases, doomed to extinction by the end of the first quarter.

The fall began with the carnival, and was passed, soccer game by soccer game, with joyous wins and disheartening defeats.

The seasons passed and winter brought the basketball games, pep and school spirit. The homecoming, the tournament; who could ever forget? As the time for the annual Senior Snowball drew near, the Officer's Club was rented and decorated as a disco, the theme was Snowball-A-Go-Go. The evening passed all too quickly as Jan Cousins and Tom Cheney were crowned King and Queen.

School was dismissed for the holidays and the old cry of "See ya at the Snack bar" resounded everywhere.

Grades were computed and sent to schools and colleges, while the third quarter dragged, waiting for Easter Vacation. Preparations and a rush to make money overwhelmed the seniors as they prepared for their class trip.

The finale---a graduation ceremony where we walked toward a goal for the last time, a party, and a year never to be forgotten.

Class Will

I, Barbara Allan, being hairy of head, do here-by will my wig to all worthy members of the Short-Top Club who find themselves in the unfortunate position of needing it. I, Nancy Bardaro, will my brother, Jim, my nose.

I, Marty Benson, do hereby will and bequeath the editorship of the annual and all its trials and triumphs to whoever should be so lucky next year. I also will to Penny McNeely pierced ears and my Snoot Boot to Dave Arendsee. May he wear it with happiness. I, Patricia Burger, being sound of mind and warm nose, do hereby will to Ed Gomez one red and white slightly used, in need of airing, Snoot Boot.

I, Barbara Burton, being of sound mind and will do hereby will my ability in French to John. I also will my Canterbury Prologue to Karl Scheuch with great relief.

I, Tom Cheney, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will my hair to Dave Woodward, who needs it more than I.

I, Max Collier, will my pet moth to Cowboy Bob, hoping that it will eat up all his raunchy sweaters.

I, Jan Cousins, will my hairpiece to Sam Cotton with all hope and sincerity she can wear it.

I, Fleta Cross, will my hair piece to Shep until his hair grows out.

I, Jeanne Daley, being of sound mind and body (?), do will to my little brother David, the proverbial pencil behind my ear; to any brave rising Senior locker No. 106; and to IHS my two brothers; David-'68 and Billy-'70.

I, Sue Dee, do will to Susan Woodworth. the ability to maintain her cools on the Cigli Housing Bus.

I, Milla Drumright, will my pom-poms and red shoes to any girl crazy enough to try out for Cheerleading. And to Dave Daley my bottle of Canoe.

I, Maggie English, will Fleta and one tea cup full of hot tea to Jim P.

I, Danny King Felger, being all here do hereby will to Sukoshi Michaelis one key to "405"; to my little brother Dennis, my seat in Mr. Halderman's English Class; to Carol Pozos, my trench coat for the trip from the Snack Bar to the school; and to any Junior who is crazy enough to have it, my Editorship of our school newspaper.

I, Bill Goldblum, will my ace bandage to Karl Langill, so that he can wrap it around his mouth.

I, Darrell D. Harmon, being of sound mind and body will absolutely nothing to anyone who wants it.

I, Edward Jenkins Laird, in bound sind and body, do will my red tennies and striped socks to Bob Bosworth, so that he won't paint his shoes anymore.

I, Peter Alexander Malik the II, of no sound mind and body, do hereby will to Bob Bosworth my bass guitar skills so the Shamefuls will never be without a bass guitarist, to Mr. James a blank check for all the damage I have done in his classes within the last three years, and to Connie Ely my Toni so that she will always be true to me until we meet in the States. Please, watch over Toni, Good Connie.

I, Deborah Jo McCarthney, will to Jean Matthews all of my songs from chorus, and a piece of gum I've tried to get in my mouth for 9 months (Mr. Halderman is always looking) Good Luck, Jean.

I, Toni Miller, will my brown, spit-shinned combat boots to Cathy Heinrich, my seat in Mr. Halderman's French class to Joe Miller and some of my sedate manners to Jean Matthews, in hope that she will benefit by them.

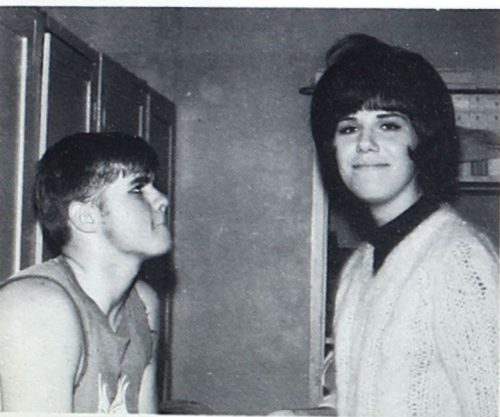

I, Cindy Smith, will my nickname "Snuffy" to any lucky soul with the last name of Smith.

I, Dave Stephens, will my hand warmer to next year's senior girls. I also will my Hamlet book to Mr. Halderman.

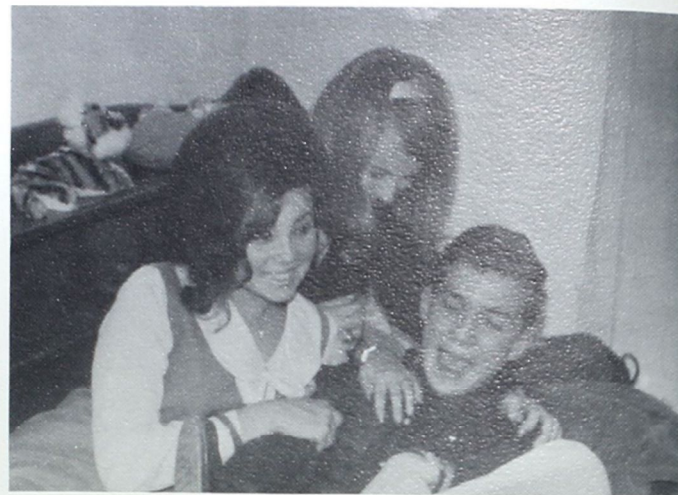

I, Greg Townes, being of unsound mind and racked nerves do hereby will my unwanted ability to blush to any underclassman who wants attention paid to him at the most unexpected and most embarrassing moments.

I, Nancy Tracy, being of sound mind and body will to Sue Woodworth and Peggy Deason my net to catch French Fries crawling across the Snack Bar.

Our Greater Moments

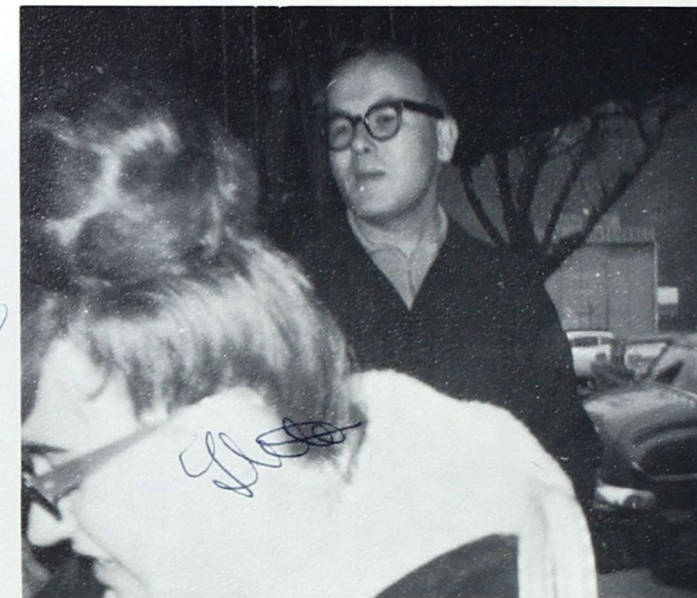

Should I or shouldn't I??

They told me not to use two dabs of cordovar!

Heh, Heh, I told you I'd collect!

Oh Fleta, Really!

We've got him trapped, now stone him!

Who me??

Yipes! They caught us!

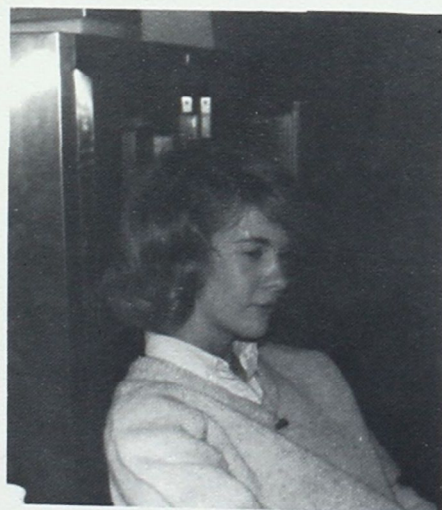

Boy, are we having a great time!

Wait a minute, wait a minute, WHAT'S GOING ON HERE?

Would you look at what I just stepped in!!

Hmmmmmm. . .I wonder. . .

Oh well, it's for the Senior Class.

One the count of three. . ."Cheese"!

Goldie dead. . .at last!

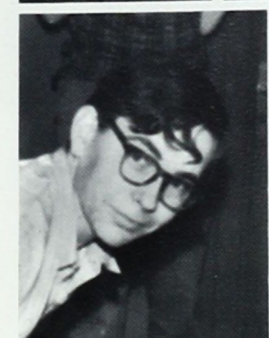

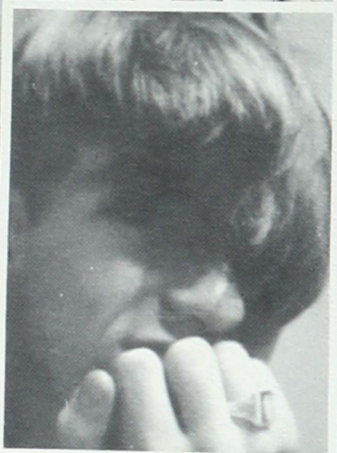

We've had our fun, our share of kicks,
Now we're the Class of '66.
Our lessons over, our schooling done,
But our memories have just begun.

The Squirt-Gun

Although it wasn't a regularly scheduled activity, was tried only as an experiment and wasn't long-lived this year, the Squirt-Gun, published by the fabulous "8-B's", proved to be one of this year's most popularly received activities. Under the editorship of Debbi Steward, the staff experience was valuable and should provide the high school paper next year with some expert staff members.

Our Booth at the Carnival

Under the leadership of Miss Lucille Capponi, faculty sponsor, this year's G.A.A. has provided activities ranging from bowling to basketball for the high school girls who make up its membership. Big fun this year has been the time spent in the bowling alleys, with many "strikes" to boost the girls' morale. Opportunities for athletic recreation aren't many in the Izmir area, but through the G.A.A. many girls found the chance for good, wholesome fun to spark flagging spirits. The organization has been especially great for the girls who don't take regular P.E. and has been one of this year's peppiest groups.

Autographs

Joe,
Really, I don't know what to say. What can I say but many thanks for what you've done for me. I've really enjoyed all the
"fun" we've had together.
Forget all the bad things
about me but only remember the good. Remember that stupid
Explorer Beach Party - what fun! Stay the way you are - but buy more cool
socks - I can't afford to buy any more. As I said, stay the same old sweet Daddy-type person so I'll know
you if I ever see you again.
Best of luck to my chunk.
God bless you & Toni.

Love always
