" . . . SEEN and not heard" is a cliché that definitely does not describe the teenagers of this decade. Today's younger generation is very militant in its determination to be heard and to be an individual. Understanding this determination requires a rare talent.

There is a man at Izmir High who possesses such a talent. He has helped many students to breakthrough---to be heard as well as seen. He has proven to be an understanding confident and a willing friend to the students during his seven years in Izmir. It is with a feeling of warmth and gratitude that we dedicate the 1969 SULTAN to our Guidance Counselor, Mr. Claude Boudreaux.

This is the decade of the breakthrough---from heart transplants to a turn around the moon, from a quiet walk along the beach to a not-so-quiet walk through the jungles of Vietnam, from press and movie censorship to "anything goes", and from the granny dress to the topless swimsuit.

In publishing the 1969 SULTAN we had our share of breakthroughs, beginning with the cover right through the last page. We invite you now to get set to enjoy the year in pictures, the year in words, the year at Izmir High School of the ---

A school on wheels was the feeling in Social Studies Classes this year as students took field trips to Bergama, Sardis, Ephesus, Priene, and Didyma. Other numerous short trips were made to nearby Kultur Park, the shopping center--Konak, to local Mosques, Alexander's Castle, and various shops nearby.

MATH AND SCIENCE

MATH and SCIENCE this year emphasizes individual study. Among the courses offered at Izmir High is Pilot Program, Scientific Research and Development. This course enables students with an interest in science to work on their own with projects of their choice. These projects are under the supervision of Mr. Fred Antrobus, who is the instructor of the course. This year's projects are being conducted in the fields of microbiology, animal psychology, behaviorism, and electronics.

FOREIGN LANGUAGES couldn't be learned in a more favorable place than a foreign country. Izmir enables students to practice their language since it is a center of many cultures. It is not uncommon to walk into a "Çay House" and "parler" with a friend about "Deutschland."

Yaşar Hanim points out the intricacies of a design in a Mosque to students Debra Bulls and Jane Baker.

SPORTS SURVIVES SETBACKS

In the face of almost overwhelming adversities, the fact that there is a sports program at all at Izmir High is in itself a tribute to the spirit and determination of both the coaches and the students. There is no adequate stadium, fieldhouse nor gymnasium for student use, yet determined teams met on the fields of Bayrakli or Cigli to carry on in the name of football. During the Winter lanky dribblers bounded across the floors of a makeshift, cold gymnasium at Sirinyer in the tradition of basketball.

There are no schools nearby to provide competition in athletic events. Teams had to turn elsewhere for a challenge. An intramural football program was set up with three schools pitted against each other. At the end of the season the all-star Sultan football team was formed from the best players from the three teams. A game was arranged between the Sultans and the dependent high school from Asmara, Ethiopia. After weeks of rigorous training and keyed-up spirits, the Sultans suffered a tremendous disappointment when the game was cancelled due to transportation problems. The basketball team found its challenge locally in the teams from various military and civilian groups.

(not played)

On a team in which young players compose 75% of your squad, good performances are necessary if you are going to win. By looking at the Crusaders record, one could very easily see that these young boys did their jobs. Accompanied by the hard running of Bruce Hills, Art Rousseau and Bill Haugh, the Crusaders marched to an undefeated season. The Sultan All-Stars from the Crusader team were: Ralph Garofalo, Mario Esparza, Tim Haugh, Mike Rousseau, Mark Amaral, Wayne Betts, Bill Haugh, Herb Fischer, Art Rousseau, Bruce Hills, and Rod Garlock.

TROJANS PRESENT CHALLENGE

The Trojans lacked experience at key position which hurt them both offensively and defensively this season. Relying mainly on ground gains, the Trojans sent Leroy Watson knifing through opposing lines for big yardage and numerous TDs. Big Heyward Watson was always good for short yardage. The Trojans selected for the All-Star Sultan team were: Richard Cabell, Leroy Watson, Louis Wilson, Llyod McClintock, Heyward Watson, Earl Harcrow, John Morris, John Reed, Mike Scott, Larry Colly, Philip Hunter. The Trojans were coached this year by Mr. Roger Morris.

Although the Spartans fielded the youngest and least experienced team, they showed a tremendous desire to win which carried them through the season. In a post season interview, Coach McCray said that despite what the record books state, the team performed admirably well and gained valuable experience which was their biggest goal. All-Stars for the Spartans were: Woody Woodfin, Steve Crossen, Lonnie Chambers, Ken McCray, Steve Wilson, Jerry Burger, and Andre Swygert.

SCREAM SQUAD : ALWAYS ON THE SPORTS SCENE

"Who are we yelling for this week?" is a question cheerleaders are asking each other during the football season at Izmir High. With three school teams to spark, the cheerleaders have their hands full just trying to remember who they're pulling for each weekend. The three football teams may not play each weekend, but the cheerleaders are front and center every weekend continuing on through the long basketball season. For longevity and endurance maybe the cheerleaders deserve a bigger hand than the sports stars . . . .?

At the left are the mainstays of the Izmir cheerleading squad. Standing are Sheryl Scott, Tyann McClintock, Lisa Matthews and Kathy Barker. Kneeling are Maria Saiz and Janet Wilson. Little Miss Dawnette Barker, the squad mascot, provides a diversion.

SULTANS FIRE-UP COLD COURT

The Sultans relied heavily on their speed during the season which turned out to be their most effective weapon. Realizing that his opponents held the obvious edge in experience, Coach Doug Lane utilized this weapon to its utmost.

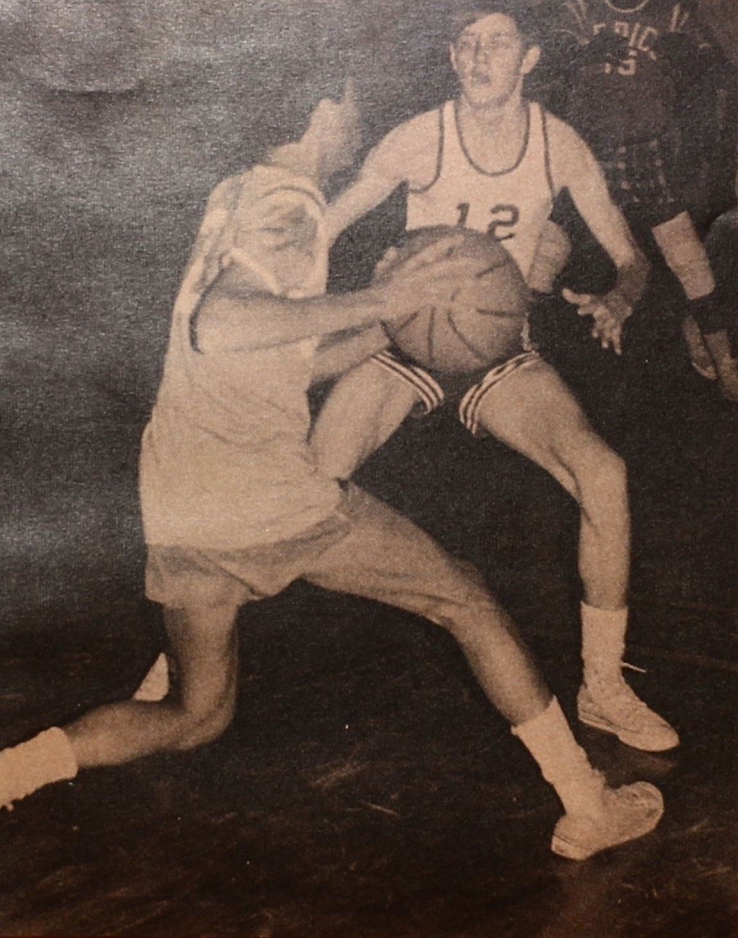

The Sultans also lacked height which should hurt most teams severely. But a good look at the record books proves that they out-rebounded their overbearing foes in many a game. Led by forward Dick Cabell, the Sultans saw a lot of action under the boards.

The Sultans would have to classify as scrappers. But in a league where almost 50% of every game consisted of scrapping, they did not feel out of place at all. The only problem was that some of the games had all the making of a football game.

The Sultans showed enthusiasm and spirit toward basketball by traveling to Sirinyer for each of their games. They play only four teams during the season but they play each team four times. In mid-February the Sultans venture to Athens for the annual basketball tournament and S.C.A. conference.

CLUBS AND ACTIVITIES

"TOM JONES"

DRAMA CLUB HIT!

The first play of the season produced and staged by the Drama Club enjoyed a 3-day run. TOM JONES was held on the last three days of school prior to the Christmas vacation and proved to be a delightful herald to the Holiday season. The comedy, staged in both Izmir and Cigli at the local movie theater, showed that club members have talent as well as enthusiasm. The play was under the direction of the club sponsor, Miss Jan Edelson. Another play is being considered for Spring production.

The Thespian Society is a national organization made up of members who have completed 100 hours of theater work. Thespian officers also serve as officers of the Drama Club. Pictured at left are Thespians (standing) Ross Larkin, secretary and treasurer; John Roach, president; and Greg Tillet. Seated are Bruce Hills, Phyllis Johnson and Randy Crain.

The Geography Club is composed of all the students in the Freshman Class. Since the group is too big to meet after school, meetings are held in the regular class periods. After-school meetings are attended by a core group made up of the Club's officers and a steering committee. Pictured at right are the members of the core group: (front) Brenda Jones, Cindee Williams, secretary; Mark Treacy, Carol Moore; (top) Mike Duncan, Ted Schoewe, David White, president; Bob Ingersol and Joe Gallo. Not pictured is treasurer Bonnie Neff.

The Geography Club stimulates interest in foreign lands, peoples and cultures; particularly Turkey. The club this year has taken trips to nearby Turkish villages, to Kultur Park, to Konak and to other points of interest in the city.

EVET VE HAYIR : JAH UND NEIN CLUBS

German Club members meet to discuss the culture of Germany and to practice that language. The club sponsored the successful Oktoberfest Dance last Fall. A Fasching Party and a German dinner was planned during the second semester. Mr. Albert Kitchener is the sponsor of both the Geography and the German Clubs.

CLUBBERS TO THE PARK WHILE OTHERS KICK UP THEIR HEELS!

The Host Nations Club, below, is sponsored by Miss Yasar Ozgarpacik. Members pictured below are (kneeling) Margaret Fitch, Evelyn Mishur, Nancy Kirton, VP Doris Nebioglu, Joe McFarland, and Pres. Valerie Montgomery. Other members standing are scattered among the visitors from a local Turkish school: Miriam Kajencki, Jane Baker, Sec. Ruth Dunwell, Linda Nebioglu and Mich Gage.

The Service Club was organized several years ago to promote school spirit, usher and sell tickets for plays and concerts and serve the school in other ways if they are needed. This years' Club also plans to run the Lost-and-Found counter and organize locker-checks. The club sponsor is Miss Carol White.

ART

URNS THEM ON

DECK THE HALLS WITH PSYCHEDELICS!

The halls of IHS have been brightened by the addition of psychedelic designs painted on the columns of each floor. The high School art students sparked the dreary hallways by spending the first 6 weeks of school individually planning and painting the design on each column. Plans are underway in the Art Clubs to raise money to paint the walls of the main stairwell. The Art Club also sponsored an exhibition of student art work in May at the TAA Exhibition Hall. The Junior High made the art spotlight through "Giovanni's Workshop", a special arrangement whereby advanced art student John Roach worked with students enabling each junior high art student to work for one week on the potter's wheel. Clay is one of the most inexpensive and plentiful local resources and was used extensively in the school's arts and crafts program this year.

SULTAN TRIUMVIRATE

Primarily responsible for the work that was behind the printing of the SULTAN were (at left) Editor-in-Chief, Miriam Kajencki; Art and Classes Editor, Diana Williams and Rosanna Pagnotta, Business Manager and Head Typist. These three, along with the yearbook's sponsor, Miss Drennan, put in countless hours after school, on weekends and holidays compiling and editing materials used in the book.

Many other students are not pictured who also assisted in publishing the SULTAN. Helping in the class section were Sue Nelson, Andrea Amaral, Leroy Watson, Barbara Kyle and Linda Nebioglu. Rod Garlock and Art Rousseau shared the honors as Sports Editors. Marybeth Blackinton was the Advertising Manager. Assisting with photography were Dale Owen and Dan Hudson.

THE SULTAN AND SCROLL:

Pictured below are the Junior High Yearbook Staff members. They proved to be as capable as they were enthusiastic and willing. These Staffers were among the most energetic salesmen to hit Izmir in many years. Those pictured in the front are Ramona Colley, Veronica Mayberry, Bente Bryhni, Libby Gray and Angie Burger; in the second row are: Joe McFarland, Terry Cooper, Andy Lehman, Jay Hughes and Chris Ingersoll; in the third row are: Clyde Dettor, Eric Crain, Kandi Brewer, Dawn Thompson and Jeanine Henry. Kandi Brewer and Dawn Thompson; Dana Komarek, Kathy Keeler and Veronica Mayberry were responsible for the eighth and seventh grade class layouts respectively.

In an effort to break the streak of bad luck that has plagued the Yearbook Staffs during the past two years, two innovations were introduced in the YB organization. First, the name of the book was changed from the SULTANA to the SULTAN. Another break from conformity can be noted in the SULTAN's cover, a lively design was used rather than the traditional-type cover design.

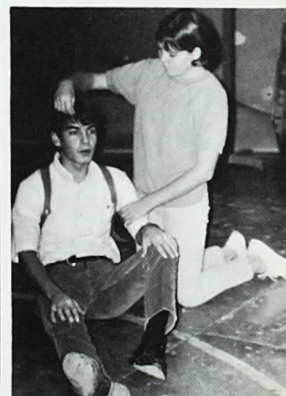

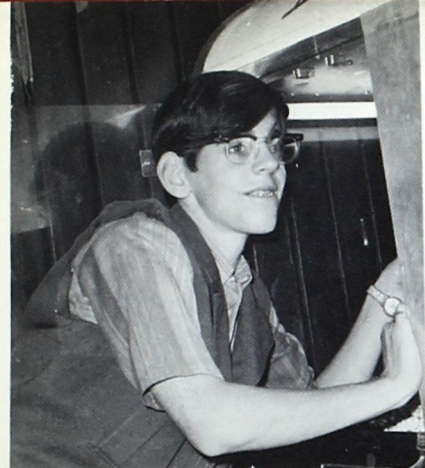

For the first time the Junior High was brought into the Yearbook Staff this year. The JH Staffers proved to be a boon to the sales program, bugging students right and left to "buy your yearbook now". They were also in charge of planning the layouts for their section of the book.

"In the beginning was the word" and the printed word has been carried on by the journalism class, they published the school's controversial newspaper, the SCROLL. The paper was characterized by witty and biting comments on the state of affairs centering around school life. The SCROLL socked it to both the faculty and students alike, raising a few cries of protest here and there. Students and faculty were given an opportunity for rebuttal in the "Letters-to-the-Editor" Column. This year's staff was one of the most dependable in recent years. Although new to the journalistic arts, they mastered the art well enough for each issue of the paper to be a journalistic success.

THE MAN IN THE GLASS

When you get what you want in your struggle for gain,
And the world makes you king for a day
Just go to the mirror and look at yourself,
And see what that man has to say.

It isn't your father or mother or wife
Who judgement upon you must pass,
The one whose verdict counts most in your life,
Is the one staring back in the glass.

You may be the one who got a good break
Then think you're a wonderful guy!
But the man in the glass says you're a fake
If you can't look him straight in the eye.

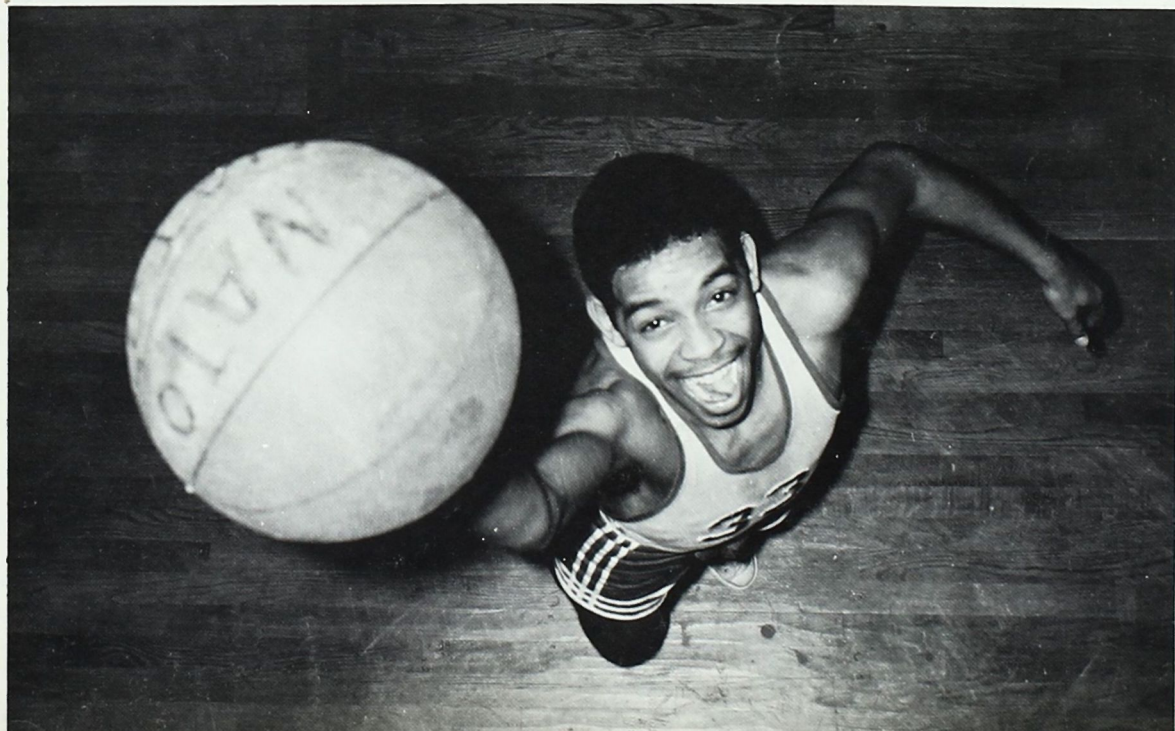

You may fool the whole world down your pathway of years
And get pats on your back as you pass,
But your final reward will be heartaches and tears
If you've cheated the man in the glass!

I.H.S. INVADES ATHENS

Nearly 35 IHS students invaded Athens on February 12, the beginning of six days of excitement. The students were there to take part in a SCA conference, a basketball tournament and a cheerleading clinic. SCA members met to discuss their common school problems. The cheerleaders demonstrated their techniques in the clinic and sparked the Tournament with their spirited cheering. The BB Tournament included five teams from IHS, Ankara and Athens. IHS's own Richard Cabell was chosen as one of the Tournament All-Star team.

HOMEcoming: IZMIR STYLE

In Izmir, Homecoming was the formal dance welcoming home the SCA members, basketball players and the cheerleaders from Athens. The dance was held at the Officer's Club on February 21, with Eldridge Spearman of AFRTS as the MC. The music was provided by the Daisy Democracy. The highlight of the evening was the crowning of the Homecoming Queen and the presentation of the Princesses and Attendants. The royalty group was chosen by the football and basketball players in a secret ballot just prior to the dance.

CAREERS UNLIMITED

Career Day was held at IHS on January 9. EVERY high school student in grades 9-12 had an opportunity to attend six career sessions. More than 45 seminars were held on the prospects of careers in both professional and non-professional fields. The Seminars were conducted by Americans from both the local civilian and military community.

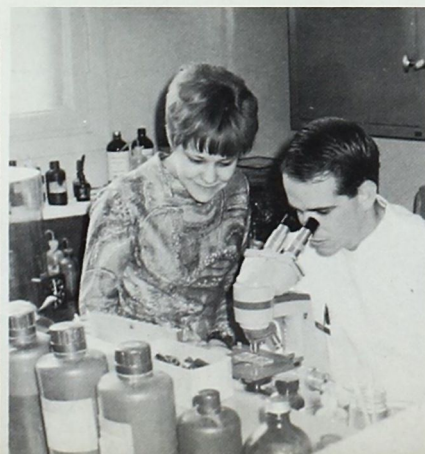

As a follow-up to Career Day, on April 1 each member of the Senior Class spent a day observing people at work in fields of their particular interest.

Career Day was a result of the special efforts of Mr. Boudreaux. He contacted all the individuals involved in the seminars and set up the schedule. He also made all the arrangements for the Seniors to observe the occupational areas.

Miriam Kajencki looks on as Technician checks out a Lab Test.

Kaye White discusses pharmacy operations with Capt. Pribyl.

More than 50 field trips were taken this year at IHS in conjunction with a broad range of subjects. History and Geography classes visited the ruins of Sardis, Ephesus and Pergamum; English and Drama classes performed Greek tragedies in the theaters in which they premiered over 2000 years ago. Geography classes visited nearby villages to study local culture and economy. All the 8th Graders took a trip to Cesme peninsula to observe geological formations and collect rock samples as a follow-up to a geology unit in science. Shorter trips to Kultur Park and local markets were made to fit in with other areas of study.

HEART SWITCH performed at IHS!

At one time or another this Spring, all of the students in Mrs. Keiser's biology classes donned surgical masks and prepared to perform a heart transplant. The heart donors and recipients were live frogs. Finding that surgery is no place for the faint-hearted or weak-stomached, the biology classes have not yet decided whether they will extend their experimentation with heart switching to higher animals.

"CINDERRABBIT" Easter treat for Kiddies

Miss Edelman's speech class along with volunteers from study hall provided an Easter treat for the elementary school students. They performed "Cinderrabbit", a rabbitry takeoff of the fairy tale, Cinderella. The play was staged in the elementary school auditorium prior to Easter.

SENIORS STAGE SIT-IN

When striking personnel caused the 6-week shut down of all facilities, students were called upon to share lunches the first day of the strike. The Seniors quickly printed protest signs, bought ekmik (bread) and sat themselves in front of the school to protest the commandeering of lunches.

SHAKY SPRING IN IZMIR

In late March classwork and home work often halted as tables and chairs skittered across the floor; buildings shook and groaned in the wake of several earthquakes which hit Izmir both during school hours and after. A few more cracks appeared in our warehouse-school as a result of the quakes.

HAIRY LEGS IN REVUE

Muscular, hairy legs were the order in late May at the Fashion Show staged by the Senior boys to raise funds for the Senior Class. Greg Tillett acted as MC while the boys paraded down the runway in turn to provide hilarious entertainment and questionable styles.

ELECT 69-70 S.C.A. HEADS, NEW CHEERLEADERS CHOSEN

SCA elections for next school year were held in early June. The new officers elected include Gary White, president; Kennon Johnston, vice-president; Marilyn Winder, secretary and Kevin Henry, treasurer. Prior to the election all candidates were introduced and given an opportunity to make campaign speeches in a special assembly.

Cheerleader tryouts began on May 28. The 69-70 squad was chosen by a panel composed of student leaders and teachers. Girls chosen for next year were Marion Watson, Rhonda Richardson, Carol Moore, Sheryl Scott, Lisa Matthews, Shirley Winder, Kathy Shay and Maria Saiz. The newly-selected cheerleaders chose Maria Saiz to be head cheerleader.

The National Honor Society, an organization of students who excel in academic accomplishments, service, leadership and character, inducted six new members on March 13. Mr. Guy Lee, American Consul in Izmir, was guest speaker at the ceremony. Below, Mr. Lee congratulates new inductee Stanton Wofford as other inductees Dale Owen, Julie Sevdny and Bruce Hillis look on. Other inductees were Bill Haugh and Kevyn Kilpatrick.

FINE ARTS FESTIVAL

The Arts received their share of attention this Spring. In addition to the constant art display on Floor Five, a special Art Exhibit "VISIONS 69" was held at the TAA Exhibit Salon from May 28-June 4. The Show was a joint exhibit of student work by Izmir High students and Amerikan Kiz Koleji students. Works included paintings, craft and sculpture pieces. The Izmir High Band and Chorus also presented concerts on ten occasions this Spring. The concerts were for students, parents and local Turkish schools.

AWARDS DAY BONANZA

Awards Day was observed on June 6 in a special assembly. More than 150 students were recognized for outstanding achievement in such areas as academics, sports, service, attendance and special

The Big Night... THE PROM

The Efes Hotel's Meyhane Night Club was the scene of "Mid-east Sojourn", the Prom sponsored by the Juniors to honor the Seniors. The Prom was held on the warm evening of Friday, May 23. After dining from a buffet of Turkish gourmet foods, the Prommers danced until the early hours. The highlight of the evening was the presentation of the Prom Queen and her attendants. Marybeth Blackinton, smartly attired in a gold brocade pantsuit, was named Prom Queen. Her attendants were Debbie Blanchard and Doris Nebioglu.

Somebody here had a happy surprise!

The Prom wasn't over when the dancing ended. Prom-goers shuffled down to the Izmir Theater at 3:00 A.M. to view a couple of movies. Following the movies, breakfast was served. A day at the beach concluded the Prom activities. Tired but happy Prom participants would long remember the "Mideast Sojourn."

Pantsuits were definitely "in" at the Prom.

SENIOR SKIP DAY

Seniors caused havoc at IHS when an underground movement to skip a day of school was started. The administration learned of the plan and a compromise was reached; the Seniors were given a half-day from school to enjoy an afternoon at a nearby beach. No matter what you call it, the Seniors still considered it "Senior Skip Day."

SENIORS HAVE THEIR DAY --

To mark the end of senior exams, the Seniors and the faculty enjoyed a banquet on the evening of June 2 at the Chateau Restoran. The highlight of the evening was the presentation of the Senior Superlatives and the reading of the Class Prophecy.

SENIOR BANQUET

AND THE BIG DAY... GRADUATION

On the evening of June 9, 1969 the Senior Class of Izmir American Dependents High School was graduated in commencement exercises held in St. Johns Cathedral. The salutatory address was given by Susan Nelson and the valedictory address was given by Louis Lee Wilson. The principal speaker of the ceremony was Mrs. Everett C. Blake, Principal of the American Collegiate Institute in Izmir. The diplomas were presented to the graduating class by Mr. Robert W. Kirkpatrick, USDESEA'S District IV Superintendent.

At right and below, Seniors practice in the hot noon-day sun prior to graduation exercises. Mr. Paul Halderman, senior class sponsor, was the director of graduation exercises. Phrases of "keep in step" and "stay in line" rang out constantly during the practices.

A few students were absent when school pictures were taken in October. Since then approximately 50 new students have enrolled at IHS. These students were not represented in the main body of the '69 SULTAN. These students deserve recognition in the SULTAN SUPPLEMENT.

LATEST ON THE SCENE

Due to the lack of space and lack of adequate photographs, we are unable to include pictures of the additions to the Seventh and Eighth Grade classes during the Year. These students are listed below:

THE END

... we thought we'd never find it but here it is! A lot of long hours, frustration and fun went into the making of this the 1969 SULTAN. We certainly hope you have liked our creation.

But it isn't quite the end...

In the fall you will receive an additional 16-page Sultan Supplement. It will give you a complete picture of the whole school year of 1968-69 at Izmir High School, right up through graduation and final exam week.
