Izmir High Sultans

Many hours of coaching was put in to make the Sultan team of this year. Putting in long hours right along with the Sultans were Mr. Doug Lane, head coach and his assistants Maj. (Daddy Rabbit) King, Maj. Eggerich, Capt. Winters, Mr. Tucker and Col. Johnston.

Scramblin' Sultans

The Many Moods of Football

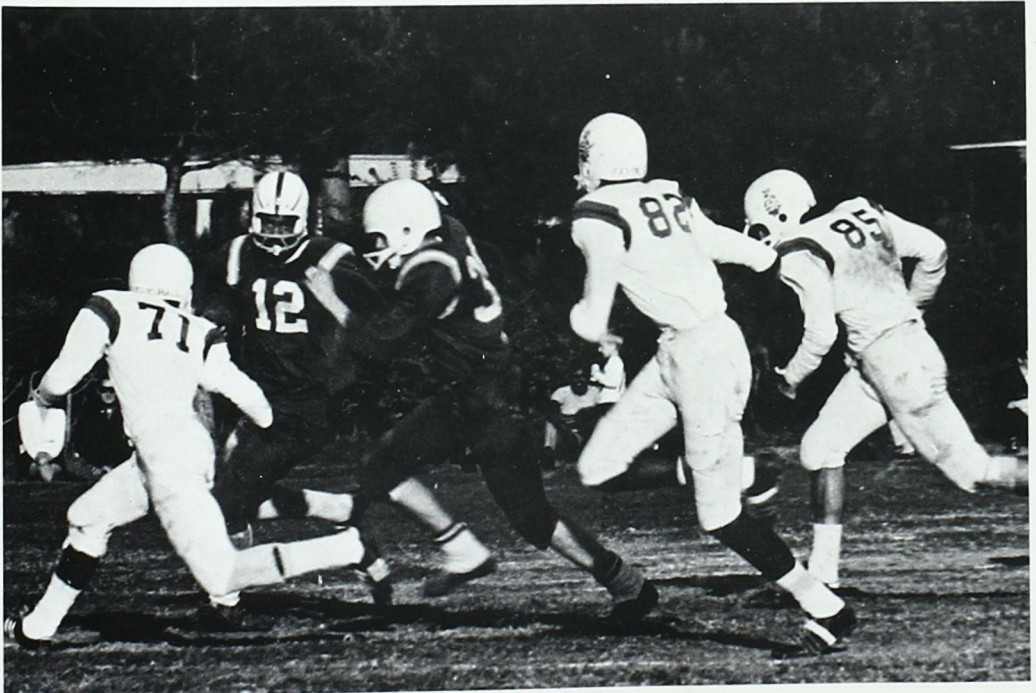

Offense

The Izmir offense averaged 25 points a game this year, and compiled a 2-2 record. Robert Burns lead on the ground with 8 touchdowns.

Defense

The IHS's defense was lead by the "Big Three." Erland Jones, Bill Scott, and Jim Roemmer aided greatly in holding the opposition to a 16 point average a game.

The Bouncing Sultans

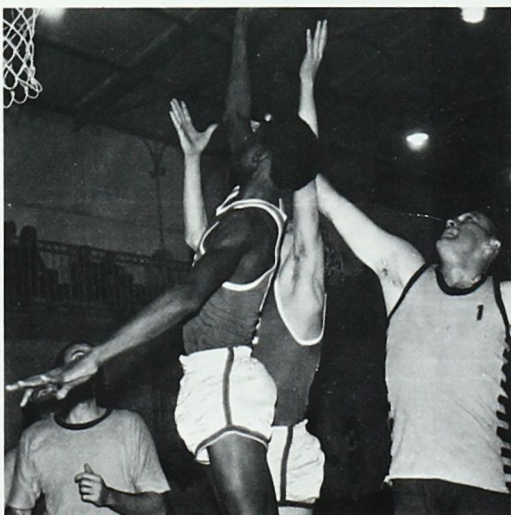

Sultan's basketball season proved to be exciting in 1970. Because of the distance between high schools in our area, the team challenged the military units here.

Coach Lane

Whether the Sultans, walked off the court with the agony of defeat or the ecstasy of victory, they were praised by the fans.

Here the Sultans show their style, in a victory over Det. 11.

Hi, sweetie!

Wow ... the excitement of it all!

Wendel does it again!

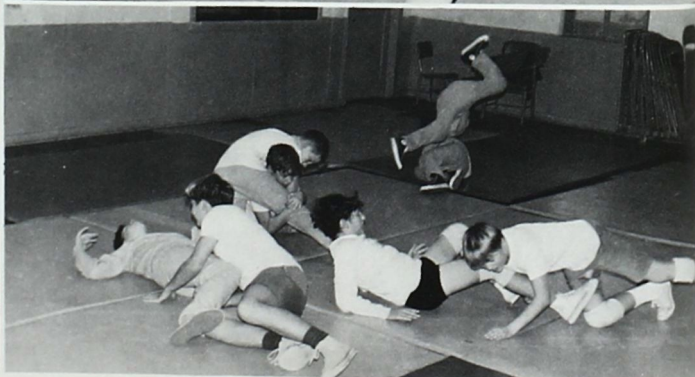

Watch it ... Fatso!

Although the Sultans lacked in some areas, they played up to their potential and developed into a highly disciplined team.

Let's Wrestle!

Another first at Izmir, a track team! Above are our track stars: (front) Marcia DaCosta, Cherilyn Gerland, Alice Lockwood, Judy Johnson. (middle) Candy Fascetti, Ralph Armstrong, Tony Medina, Robert Burns, Nell Johnston. (back) Hector Rodriguez, Jon Armstrong, Larry Barton and Mike Adams. The track team worked out under the tutelage of Mr. Jerry Smart. Mr. Smart, though not connected with the faculty of I.H.S., is a former U.S. Olympic Track Team star. The team competes with local Turkish teams.

On the Run?

Smiles and handshakes before the races begin.

I.H.S. Cheerleaders

At the left is the I.H.S. Cheerleader Crew. They are counterclockwise from the left: Leona Wycoff, Shirlee Winder, Lisa Rider, Carol Moore, Marianne Thomas, Chris McMurry, Rusty Hendricks, and Beth Gerhart.

The spirited cheerleaders are front and center throughout the year in all seasons and for all sports. This year several pep rallies were held in the base theater, the assemblies of course were spearheaded by the Scream Squad: our cheerleaders. The cheerleaders accompanied the football team to Ankara and to Karamursel during the fall, and again journeyed to Karamursel during the basketball and wrestling season.

ACTIVITIES

JR-SR POWDER PUFF GAME

The Juniors challenged the Seniors to a powder-puff football game to raise money for the prom. The Seniors held the Juniors through the first half, yet did not score. The Juniors somehow broke through the tough Senior line and surprisingly scored the winning touchdown. There was good spirit among both teams which held to the end, making it an enjoyable game. The Juniors thank the Seniors for helping them toward their goal, the prom. The Seniors congratulate the Juniors on a game well played.

HOMECOMING WEEK October 26-30 1970

Red and white colors day began the official IHS Homecoming Week activities. On the 27th elections were held for a Queen and Court. On Friday the 29th, a bonfire and pep rally were held at Bayrakli Park to promote school spirit before the next day's game against Ankara. Tug-of-wars were held between challenging classes (the sophomores came out winning every time) and a folk group led the crowd in song. Saturday the Izmir vs. Ankara football game was played and during half time the Queen and her Court were announced. That night there was a dance held to crown the Queen and Court.

The pictures on the next page are as follows:

Yearbook Sales Soar

Gettin' Goin'

To help kick off the SULTAN sales campaign this fall, two local I.H.S. rock bands donated their time and talents to a rock concert and a light show. The two bands were "Lasagna Joe and His Chicken Coop Group" and "Freudian Guilt."

"Who has the stamp?," "where's the eraser?" and "Can somebody type this up for me?" are questions that were flying around quite frequently in the art room during the frantic weeks that the SULTAN was being put together. The combined efforts of many students and hours of work on weekends and holidays produced this year's SULTAN in the face of many setbacks, such as the non-arrival of individual pictures from the States.

The officers of this club are Debbie Mitchell, president; John Armstrong, vice-president; Barbara Barkley, secretary, and Vickie Manderville, treasurer. Sponsor of the club is Miss Yasar Ozarpacik.

Host Nations Club

Sultan Pep Club

The Sultan Pep Club was the largest organized club at I.H.S. this year with almost a hundred members. In sparking and pushing school spirit the Pep Club made many accomplishments this year. Early in September the Pep Club sponsored a giant pep rally and "paint up your locker" campaign to boost school spirit. The Pep Club had a large Sultan symbol painted on masonite to be hung permanently in the school when not in use at sports functions.

Another accomplishment was the purchase of a large brass gong, which is to be sounded when the Sultan sports teams score at athletic events or need a little encouragement at games. The Pep Club also purchased special patches for their membership, and sold large red booster buttons to help build up school spirit and the Club's treasury.

This year's pep club has been the most active Pep Club in the history of I.H.S. This is due to the hard work on the part of the members, the officers and the sponsor, Miss Weise.

Pictured above is the Junior High Art Club. Officers of this club are the president, Bridget Jones; vice-pres., Steve Barton; secretary, Randy Chambers and treasurer, Michele Nauss. Mrs. Algar is the sponsor of this club.

Art Clubs

In addition to the officers, other Jr. High Art Club members are Mary Armstrong, Victor Creudson, Laura Hopkin, Glenda Adams, Suzanne Enriquez, Charlotte Campbell, Victor Brown, Joe Edwards, Thomas Cash, Paul Dockins, Dean Correa, Maria Gumacal, Christa McAdoo, Debbie McAdoo, Joanne Guertin, Gerald Jackson, Michelle Nauss, Vincent Sanders, Donald Traver, Tamara Allgood, and David Orrick.

The Art Clubs pictured on these two pages meet once a month. The Art Clubs work on small art projects during Club meetings and take field trips to nearby museums and art galleries. They also promote an interest in art throughout the school.

The High School Art Club is pictured at the left bottom below. Since the club is small, all members are also officers. The members are (seated) Mich Gage, treasurer; Linda McQuade, president; Margie Ryder, treasurer. (standing): Don Teer and Mary Sando, reporters; and Debbie Dorn, v-pres. Mrs. Algar sponsors both of the Art Clubs.

Drama Club

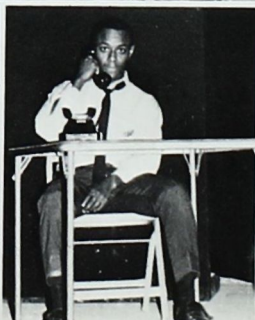

This year the Drama Class put on two one-act plays, "The Ugly Duckling" and "Sorry Wrong Number." In the near future the Drama Club plans on doing another play, this time a full-length play, "Up the Downstair Case" and close the school year with still another full-length play "West Side Story." The Drama Club is sponsored by Miss Jan Edelman.

Breathy and Breathless:

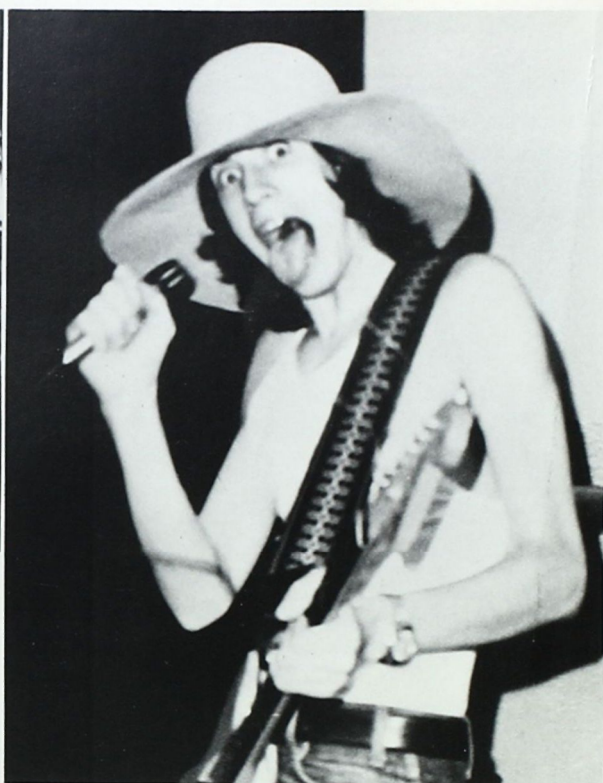

Chorus

At the present time, plans are under way for a joint production of the popular musical WEST SIDE STORY by the Chorus and Band. The production will go before an audience sometime during the middle Spring. A concert was held during the Christmas season and another pop concert is tentatively planned for the Spring.

At left is Mr. David Urness, IHS's band and choral director.

Although it had to be postponed until January, the SADIE HAWKINS DAY DANCE was packed with fun and action. Sponsored by the Junior Class, the dance was complete with Dogpatch clothes, kissin' booth and preacher to hitch up those that wanted to get hitched. The music was provided by Lasagna Joe.

The High School Geography Club with Mr. Drach.

The Junior High School Geography Club

Geography Clubs

Under the sponsorship of Mr. Tom Drach, the Geography Clubs meet once a month in formal meetings. Since the club is large it is divided into a junior high group and a senior high group.

The club is made up of students interested in travel and cultures of foreign lands. As part of their club activities, the club took a trip to Manisa, a nearby Turkish town, earlier in the school year. The formal club meetings are devoted to planning such trips and to showing slides of students who have travelled outside of Turkey and the U.S.

The officers of the clubs are (High School) Robert Burnsh, president; Debbie Mitchell, vice-president; and John Armstrong, treasurer; (Junior High) Gordon Haywald, president; Steve Kehoe, vice-president; Steven McQuade, secretary; and Kevin Mainz, treasurer.

Many new and prospective members are under consideration for membership in the organization and will be tapped in a special ceremony during the Spring.

Beer, Beer, Beer for Old Izmir High . . .

Thought for the day, class,
"A beer a day keeps the doctor away."

Hey, Miss Edelman
how about, "A beer
a day will get you an A? ...

I'm dreaming of a Malted
Liquor, just like ...

Beer comes in capsules, now.
Pop a beer, today!

Izmir's roving reporter asked this question of some of the outstanding members of
I.H.S. ... "Do you drink BEER?"

I haven't acquired a taste for it.

I'm used to higher things.

Don't touch the stuff, myself.

Me, drink? Never
...

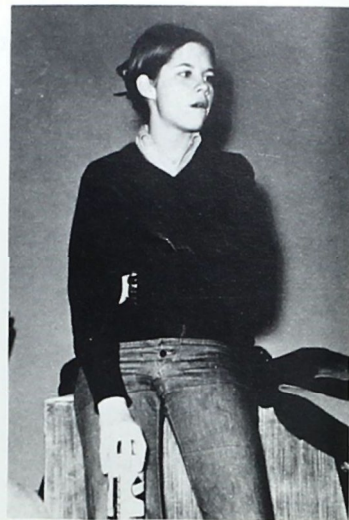

Thank God, we couldn't have lasted much longer - Here he comes with the beer ...

Milk? Who's she trying to fool?

Me? I prefer milk, myself ...

We'd do anything for Seagrams ...

Just for Fun!

"BEER CALL"

Pages 89, 90, and 91 are our "fun pages" this year, planned just for your enjoyment. No implications or embarrassment intended for anyone pictured on any of these pages.

My opinion on the drinking age? I say the younger, the better ...

A beer bummer or coordination? Only Jimmy's bartender knows for sure ...

"CELEBRATE"

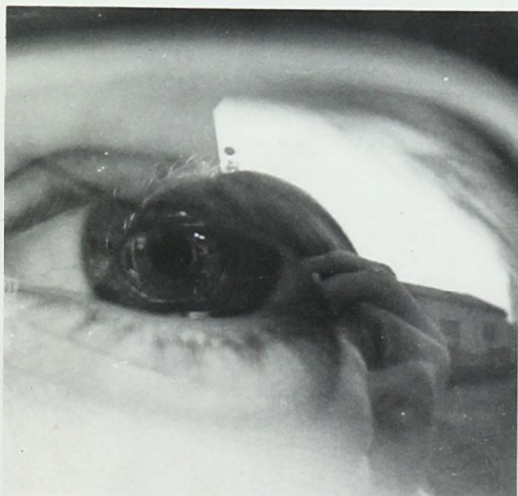

"Watch me hit that can of Beer with my ball ..."
He's no ordinary Joe!

"CAUGHT YA"

The morning after ...
"Oh my head ..."

From the
Izmir Officers' Open Mess, Izmir, Turkey

Before the beginning of years
There came to the making of man ---

Eyesight and speech they wrought
For the veils of the soul therein,
A time for labour and thought,
A time to serve and to sin;
They gave him light in his ways,
And love, and space for delight,
And beauty and length of days,
And night, and sleep in the night,
His speech is a burning fire;
With his lips he travaileth;
In his heart is a blind desire,
In his eyes foreknowledge of death;
He weaves, and is clothed with derision;
Sows, and he shall not reap;
His life is a watch or a vision
Between a sleep and a sleep.

prisoners of time, we grow through sunlit days of caring toward tomorrow and its challenge, chained to that which we have been,
drawn by what we will become.

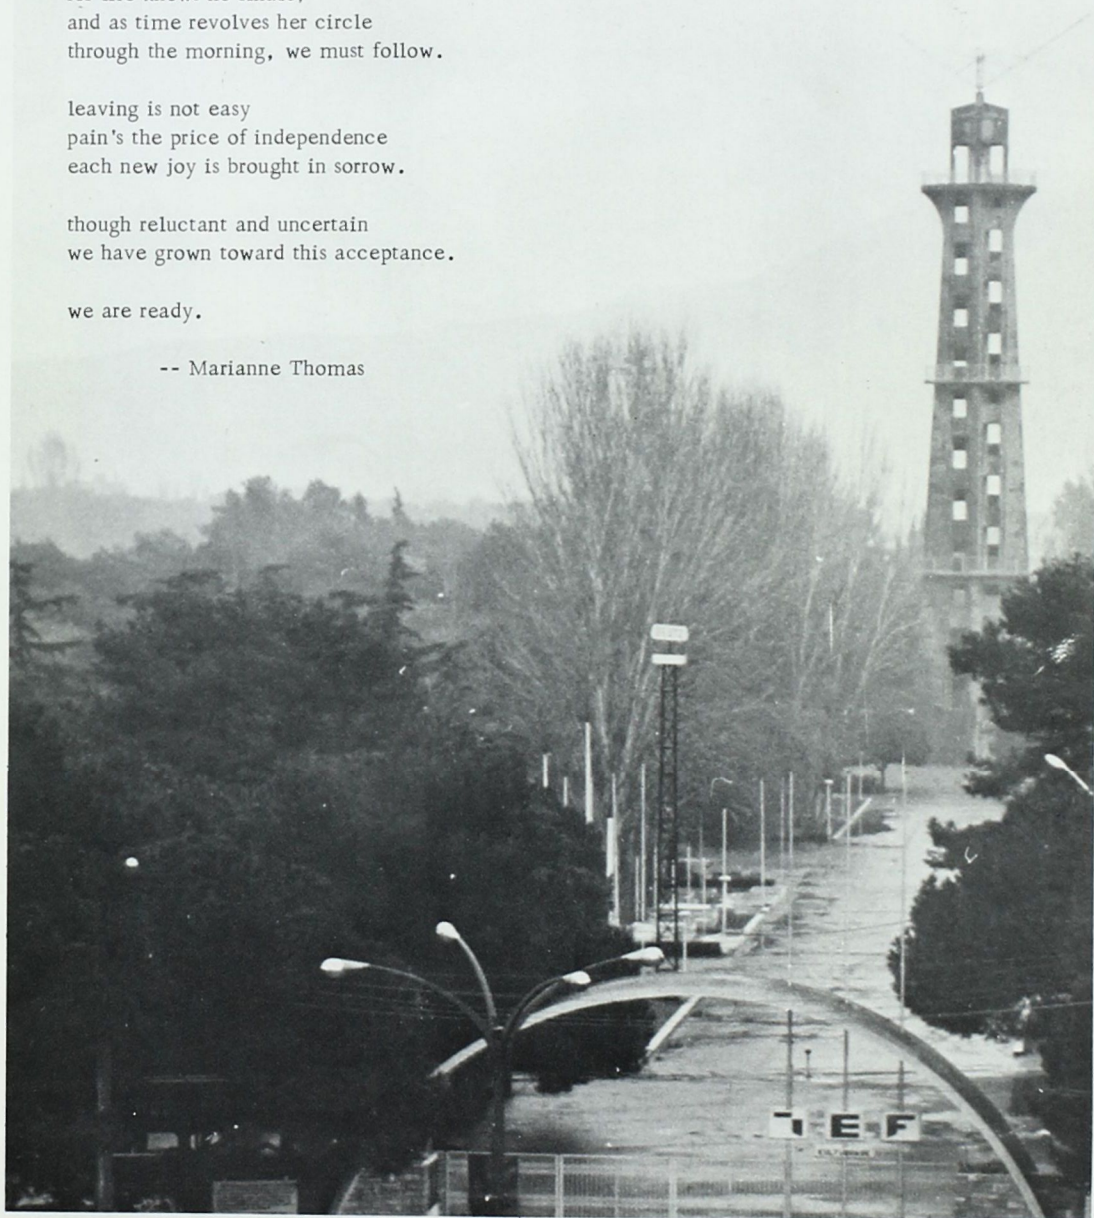

every end is a beginning,
for life knows no finale,
and as time revolves her circle
through the morning, we must follow.

leaving is not easy
pain's the price of independence
each new joy is brought in sorrow.

though reluctant and uncertain
we have grown toward this acceptance.

we are ready.
