Dedication

We, the Senior Class of 1974, dedicate the '74 SULTAN to Mrs. Shirley Algar.

Mrs. Algar has endured seven years in Izmir of cold rooms, problems with water and electricity, and several earth-quakes. She reminds us that it has also been seven years of sunny skies with clean, uncrowded beaches, good food, and great students.

Mrs. Algar, the sponsor of the SULTAN, has managed to get the yearbook out on time for the past six years. We hope this year makes it seven.

SENIOR CLASS OF 1974

The 1974 Senior Class marks the termination of another sequel in the story of Izmir High School.

Soon the Seniors' song of harmony will be heard no more. Just as the leaves in autumn fall to the ground and go their separate ways, so shall we go our separate ways in life. The leaves of the tree and the words of a silenced song are soon forgotten. Our names, too, will soon be erased from the minds of other students. We will not easily forget each other and our memories of Izmir High.

Yet in ending we are also beginning. We are the start of a new, exciting generation, one with ideas and spirations which may lead the world to new dimensions. Our imaginations are boundless and our goals set high, for we are the crusaders of a modern age.

The foundations have been set. If we, the Seniors of 1974, utilize our knowledge to the utmost of our abilities, we will each chip a mark in the monument called life.

after twelve years, we finally made it to the top

Pictured below is the able crew of officers that guided the Seniors through their final year at IHS. In front are Russ Dewey, treasurer; Hector Rodriguez, vice-president; Randy Weiss, president; sitting tall are Mona Williams, Senior SCA representative; and Mary Lynn Dawson, secretary. This hard-working group proved to be particularly adept at making money this year.

....and so with solemn dignity the seniors bid fond farewell to IHS.

At left are the duly elected leaders of the Junior Class. In front is class president Charles Ayala, followed by secretary Muriel Hufstetler, vicepresident Germaine Ruddell, (Ron Pierce formerly held the position of VP), treasurer Karen McCartney, and SCA representative Cathy Dawson.

The Juniors started the year off in their usual way...money-grubbing. In the beginning they were full of pep and ready to work for this year's Jr.-Sr. Prom, but their spirit suffered a blow when the class above them swiped some of the money-making activities that traditionally had belonged to the Juniors. The Juniors remained jolly though and worked like they had never worked before.

With the help of the class sponsor, Mrs. Urness, the Juniors sponsored dances, sold mistletoe at Christmas, had a Flower Day, and helped sponsor a play put on by the Sr. High Drama Class.

All in all, it was a great year that every Junior will remember.

SOPHOMORES

The Sophomore Class, better known this year as the "Sophomore Mafia", is led by the uncontested Godfather J.D. Turner. The Sophomores are "muscling in" on the money-making activities traditionally undertaken by other classes. The Sophomore class will show a healthy balance in their treasury at the end of the year. The class is sponsored by Mr. Bob Horn.

FRESHMEN

The frisky Freshmen have probably contributed more to the school than any other Freshman Class in the history of IHS. They have sponsored and staffed the "Student Store" which makes available refreshments and school supplies to the student body during the morning break. Besides helping the students, the store also helped the Freshman treasury.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

The IHS Varsity Cheerleaders provided plenty of pep and steam for the varsity teams this year. At the top of the page are (standing) Kim Arnold & Jacqueline Armstrong, (middle) Kathy Moore, Debbie Smith, and Sandi Kniep. Down in front is the cheerleaders' mascot Joanne Smith. The sponsor was Miss Culley.

WHIRL! TWIRL!

One, two, three-kick! Turn 'n twirl...a new group made the scene at IHS this year to add a bit of beauty and sparkle to athletic halftime events--the Majorettes. The group was sponsored by Miss Culley and coached by Monica Patrick.

WE BEAT ANKARA!

This year for the first time since football began at IHS, the Sultans beat Ankara, their traditional foe. In a hard-fought game before a hometown crowd, the Sultans handed the Trojans their first Izmir defeat in regular season games.

The Sultans went down to defeat when they battled Ankara in a return match. The Sultans also lost both of their games to the strong Karamursel Kougar team. Still, it was a good season. We beat Ankara!

Big 'I'' High shows how it's done..

The Sultans placed five men on the ASTL Football Allstar Team this year. They are, below, Hector Rodriguez, Tad Francis, J.D. Turner, and Billy Senne.

Loy. Standing tall in the back are Bob Morrow, Charles Anderson, Kurt Harms, James Poole, Paul LeFew, Steve Gibson, Ron Pierce, and Coach Jim Neuhaus. Not pictured is manager Jon Olver.

The Fighting Junior Varsity

The Izmir Sultan J.V. Football team ended the season with a 1-3 record. They started the season on the right road with a 6-0 victory over the Ankara Trojans. The winning touchdown was made by Roy Advincula on a handoff from the quarterback.

If spirit and determination won games, the JVs would have won them all. The fighting JVs were led by captains Roy Advincula, Bruce Biddle, and Bob Morrow. They were coached by Jim Neuhaus and "Big Jack" Jackson.

Heads up!

For the 3rd year running IHS CROSS-COUNTRY GROUP ranks 1st in ASTL!

IHS sent 6 men to the USDESEA Cross-country finals in Germany, among them were (below) Rick Stansell, Sam Parker, James Fleming, and Randy Stansell. Not pictured are James Tifft and Charles Ayala who also went to Germany.

Above are the tough Izmir Sultan Wrestlers. Kneeling in front are Brad Hunt, Ray Arnold, Rick Clark, Chuck Hunt, and Bruce Biddle. Standing are Coach Bob Horn, Jon Olver, Russ Taylor, Rick Wicker, James Glenn, Paul Dillman, Randy Stansell, Tad Francis, and Rick Stansell. These men held up through a rough season.

SPIN 'EM! PIN 'EM! WIN! wrestlers: a tough breed!

Below are the top men in their weight class in ASTL. Looking tough are Ray Arnold, Rick Stansell, Russ Taylor, Rick Wicker, and Randy Stansell. These men are considered (by IHS anyway) to be All-Stars.

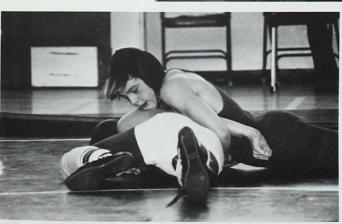

What do you weigh now?

Turn, pin, win!

Noonan, Steve Gibson, Russ Dewey, and Greg Smith. Due to a mistake in scheduling, the Sultans were scheduled for only two home games for the season. One of the games was cancelled due to the earthquake which shook Izmir on February 1.

THE BIG GUNS....

Sultan Varsity BB men making the ASTL All Stars are Scott Marsh and Francis Noonan pictured below.

sharpshooting Sultan Varsity Basketball

The Sultan's basketball season this year proved to be a disappointment from two standpoints: a very short one-game home season and the mighty Sultans lost some important games by only one or two points. The only time the Sultans were really seen in action at home was in a series of post-season games with local Turkish high school teams.

S-C-O-R-E two more!

SULTAN J.V. BASKETBALL

Queen Terri Lewis and King Hector Rodriguez, above, ruled over the Homecoming Ball to top off a weekend of spirit and football. Below, the Homecoming Court was presented at half-time of the big game. From left to right are Greg Smith & Jacqueline Armstrong, Hector Rodriguez & Kim Arnold, Wayne Elmer & Revis Lewis, and J.D. Turner & Terri Lewis.

On a balmy weekend in early November IHS celebrated Homecoming. The festivities began with a Pep Rally on Friday afternoon at school which proved to be filled with both fun and spirit. Firday night was brightened with a bonfire and rally at Bayrakli. Saturday saw us lose the big game to the strong Karamursel Kougars, but we love our Sultans still. Saturday night the SCA-sponsored Homecoming Dance was held at the Kordon. The Homecoming Court was presented and the King & Queen were crowned.

HOMECOMING ACTIVITIES

The Pictures on this page reflect the fun, excitement, and spirit of Homecoming Weekend. Among the fun things this year was a rather unusual Pep Rally filled with funny skits and stunts by the members of the Cheerleader Squads and both the JV and Varsity Football Teams. The Majorettes were presented for the first time at the pep rally, and performed at the halftime of the Varsity game.

Long live the Queen!

The weekends rocked with music and dance many times this year at IHS. Some of the more fun and spectacular dances were the Sadie Hawkins Dance in November, The Oldies 'n Goodies Dance, the Winter Ball, and the Sweetheart Ball. There was also the Homecoming dance, but it is pictured on another page. On this page and the opposite page are highlights of some of these dances.

Muriel Hufstetler, Kathy Moore, Tony Gandy, Randy Weiss, Virginia Smith, Hector Rodriguez, Nancy McCollum, Debbie Smith, Paul Dillman, Terri Lewis, Rick Schwartz, and J.D. Turner. Several members were absent when pictures were taken.

The National Honor Society is an organization composed of students who have been recognized for outstanding citizenship, scholarship, leadership and service in the school. On February 19, a whopping total of 42 new members were inducted into both branches of the Society. The members of this group traditionally pass out treats to all the classes in school on holidays and special occasions. They also serve the school by acting as tutors to those in need of academic help in the high school and the elementary school.

Student Council Association

The Student Council Association is the students' voice in school affairs. In addition to giving advice on formation of school policy, the SCA also has representatives at faculty meetings, sponsors various school events such as the Homecoming Dance and the Hall Decoration Contest at Christmas, and many other worthwhile activities.

International Thespian Society

The Thespians have proven to be one of the most active groups at IHS this year. Membership in the Society is based on points gained through theatrical experience both on-stage and off. The Thespians' major production of the Fall was an old-fashioned melodrama "Love Rides The Rails". In addition to this play, other short productions were planned and staged by the members themselves at the initiation ceremony on January 31. The Thespians and the Drama Class plan another stage presentation in the Spring.

Thespians Jacqueline Armstrong and Hunter Brown received special awards this year. Jacqueline was recognized for her outstanding performances on stage. Hunter received his award for technical assistance backstage.

OK! OK!! I'll do your homework!

We can't go on meeting in the halls like this.

It's agreed, we cut class the 6th period on Friday.

The cookie monster of IHS readies to strike again!

What? You mean you don't absolutely adore those darling seventh graders?

SULTAN SILLY PAGES

Both the SULTAN Silly Pages are brought to you through the courtesy of the NCO Wives Club. The characters pictured on these pages are real (we think...), but the sayings attributed to them are entirely ficticious. It's all in fun; no implications nor embarassment is intended for anyone pictured on these two pages!

Gee, do you think this thing will get us out of Izmir?

Fifteen sticks, I think I have room for one more.

No, we don't subscribe to Playboy. Do you have any other smart a-- questions?

Hey big spender! Wanna spend a dime on me?

Tell ya one thing! D.C. was never this cold!

Well, it's about as warm as any of the heaters in this school!

Say hey Mamma, when was the last time you shaved dem legs?

And what do you think of Einstein's Theory of Relativity?

Take it??! It looks like it's gonna blow any second now...

This place can really drive a girl bananas!

....more silly pages!!

Ah....Home, Sweet Home.

Oh, No! I forgot to use my Listerine!

GRADUATES OF 1974:

Hard work, sacrifice, frustration and failure, success and satisfaction are the landmarks along the road you have travelled for twelve years to reach your destination: graduation.

You have not been alone in your journey. Your parents, your teachers, and even concerned members of your community have also accompanied you every step of the way.

Now we come to the time when we must separate in our journey. It looks as if the road ahead for you will be steeper and fraught with more dangers than those faced by any generation in history.

We could not really prepare you for your future, for no man knows what the future will be. We can only give to you the tools for the future that were given to us: integrity, a degree of intelligence, and an appreciation for hard work. They have served us well. If used diligently, these tools will help you to overcome any problems you may encounter in your future journey.

You travel your way now with our sincere best wishes.
