So here I am, finally a 10th grader. An upperclassman. Not considered a runny nosed freshman anymore. So finally we can step on freshmen as we walk up the stairs, simply breathe and have underclassmen scampering out of the way and exert our power to the utmost. Right? Wrong! I soon found out that half the freshman class are taller than the Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors put together. And what's worse, they outnumber us 4 to 1. But what the heck, there's always next year!

YEARBOOK UNDERWAY

The yearbook class is well underway this year with 5 seniors, 1 junior, and 3 sophomores, who are working hard to put the Sultan '83 Yearbook together.

Although the class is smaller than last year, they are still right on schedule. The photography is done by Alan Ruddell, Danny Philpot, Annett Cautle, and Eric Dutcher. Taking care of business are Chuck Gilliam, Monica Salinas, Lisa Relyea, Dennis Laborada, and Nikki Emanuel. Everyone contribute in working on the layouts,

Mr. Larson stated that there would be a few less pages in this years' book due to a cutback in the amount of school pictures. The elementary school will be included again this year with pictures of folk dancing, AYA, and other activities.

There will be a new section on the computer club, and the class is also working to design a unique cover.

We would like to stress the fact that even though the book is sent off in January, it still covers a full years activities. This is achieved by placing any pictures after January of one year into next years book, and, by sending it off early, everyone can receive their Sultan Yearbook before the end of the school year.

"If your story isn't done, don't come to class."

"This paper isn't going to get out!"

"I'm not touching this paper!"

"I did it!" ". . . and it looks great!"

"I want to work on the machine!"

"We're not going to meet the deadline, girls!"

Mrs. Larson, "WE MADE IT!!!"

HOMECOMING

Preparations for Homecoming started a week before the actual game. Sunday a few people from each class came and decorated their assigned class hall or staircase. The next day, Monday, was Western Day. Tuesday, almost the whole school was dressed in red and white. Hat, Sock, and Glasses Day was Wednesday. Also on Wednesday the halls were judged, and the sophomore hall came in first place. The Seniors won second place honors. Thursday, we had quite a few new people in our school. We had punks, bisexuals, and some other strange students. That was Crazy Day, probably the most exciting day of all. Friday came along with people in their best outfits, Dress Up Day. Friday, we also had a pep rally to liven everyone up and get them ready for the big game the next day. At the Pep Rally, Homecoming Princess nominees were announced. Also banners for each class were shown to the school and judged. (The Senior banner was the winner.) Spirit chain contest was won by the seventh grade and the president, Scott Biggs, got a pie in the face. Saturday the game was played against Ankara. The Sultans lost a hard fought game against the Trojans. Everyone was looking forward to the Homecoming dance that night at the Etap Hotel. The dance was sponsored by the SCA and was a big success.

Volleyball Competition was very close this year. Season-wise, the Varsity team took 2nd place. However, we came in 3rd place in the Regionals. The Junior Varsity maintained their 3rd place position, fighting the whole way.

At the awards banquet trophies were given to Nikki Emanuel for the most Improved Player and to Lisa Relyea for the Most Coachable Player. Annette Cautle and Shelli Gilliam, members of the Varsity team, were chosen to be part of the All-Tournament team. Kim Mayfield was chosen to be part of the All-Tournament Junior Varsity team. All in all the season was quite admirable.

Because of a general lack of experience and a quantity of young players, the 1982 football season was a difficult one. The Sultans, however, retained a winning attitude and played to their potential.

Annette Cautle wrapped up her career as a gymnast in Turkey in her usual style, taking first place in all four events to win the Turkey Regional all-around title for her fourth consecutive year.

Cautle's strong performances were followed closely by teammates Jill Casey and Janelle Jurvelin as all three girls placed in the top six in all events. Casey's best performance came in the floor exercise with a second place finish and Jurvelin finished a strong third in the beam, despite a hard fall.

Izmir's varsity, with 77.47 points, easily outdistanced its closest competitor, Ankara, who finished with 52.23 points. Incirlik took third with 43.57 points.

Izmir's junior varsity took first place in the regionals as well, but just barely. Izmir scored 67.01 points to come out the winner with Ankara nipping at their heels with 66.48 points.

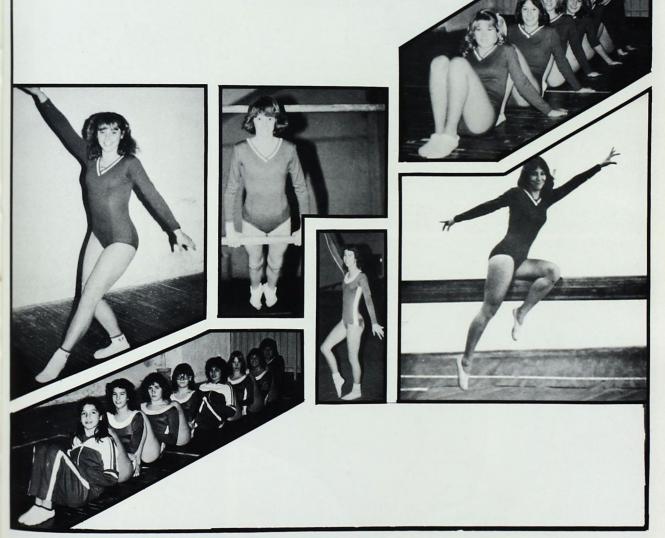

First place finishes and high scores by Kim Mayfield on the beam and Beverly Hutchinson on the floor exercise put Izmir over the top. Incirlik's junior varsity finished the competition with 43.57 points.

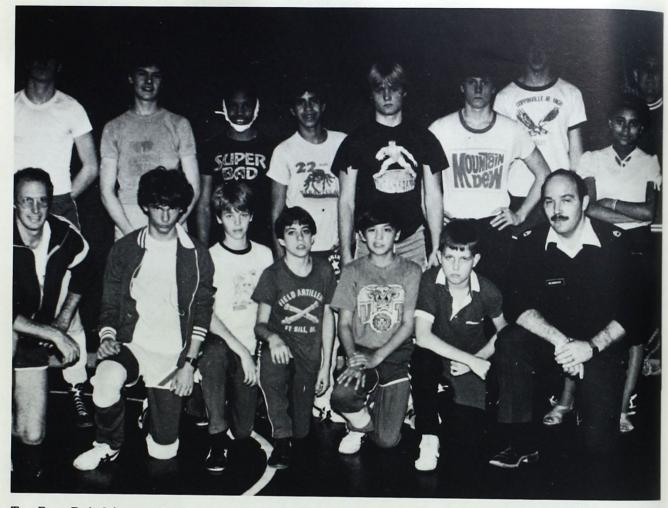

Two awards were given out at the Banquet, one to Annette Cautle (V) for being the "MOST VALUABLE" and the other was awarded to Beverly Hutchinson (JV) as "HIGH POINT".

WRESTLING

Wrestling is a highly competitive sport that requires physical strength and stamina, as well as a strong mental attitude. It is excellent in building personal character and a healthy outlook toward competition.

The Sultan Wrestling Team placed second in the regional tournament at Izmir. They had three Turkey Champions in the 1982 finals and numerous second places.

I feel so free whirling around, Little Lion playing ball, Jumping up then jumping down. Suddenly heard his Mother call. Down the hill, there we go. As time goes on the end grows near, Life is dull, full of fear. At last the end has finally come, The candle's flame is dead and done. It did not matter what we thought, For life was burning, always hot. The end was quick, there was no pain, For life was nothing but a candle's flame. By: Mark Linton Eleventh Grade
