"ADULTS OF TOMORROW"

A little red ball bounces in the park,
A fearful whimper in the dark,
We are all so very small.

The world around us is grand,
Shining seas, mountains, and farmlands,
There is so much to learn.

Give us time and we shall find out,
Gently teach us what life is about,
For we are the adults of tomorrow.

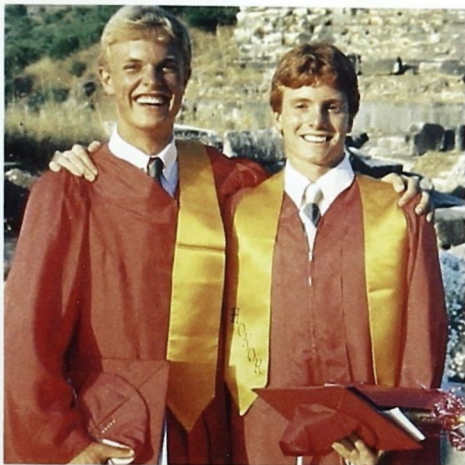

Have patience, one day you will see,
What we will grow up to be.
Merchants or doctors it does not matter.

As long as we know you care,
And your love will always be there.
For we are the adults of tomorrow.

By Carolyn Donham

Alan Casey and Eric Dutcher, the top two students in the class.

Graduation 85

1985 Graduation was held at Ephesus Turkey on June 7, 1985.

The opening flag ceremony was very well done by Army members.

Mr. Taylor, the senior class sponsor, laughs at a statement made by one of the graduates.

We're looking for a new beginning.

The graduating class of 1985 stands at attention for the opening flag ceremony.

Mr. Scheier congratulates the seniors.

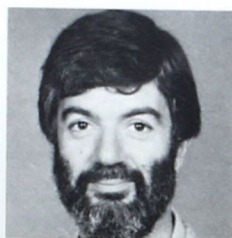

Graduation at Ephesus has become a tradition with students at Izmir American High School. Many students look forward to having their own graduation at Ephesus.

The Izmir Sultans celebrated Spirit Week, Nov. 12-15, by selling spirit items, balloon grams, and decorating the halls. In addition to all of this, each day was designated as a dress up day. Tuesday was Career Day, Wednesday was Nerd Day, Thursday was Punk vs. Preppy Day, and Friday was Red and White Day.

Chris Rose asks, "Anyone need a pen or a pencil?"

SPIRIT WEEK

Is that Pee Wee Herman and Farmer Ted? Or is that David Cullison and Kevin Wellman?

"Toby, Spirit Week was last week."

Standing: Shannon Nadeau, Heidi Montague, Amy Langston, Ceon Jones, Monica Ellington. Kneeling: Camille Pena, Lisa Westfall. "Hey dudes! Let's party!!"

A nice day with Track and Tennis.

Now introducing a new student Michelle Bueber.

123 jump, roll, kneel, is what the wrestling is up to, and Ron, Winston, and Terry demonstrate for us.

All sorts of things happened this year. These are just a few pictures of them. In between track and tennis meets, the team rested. New students arrived. Practice for sports was going on continuously, and of course, there were the sports trips.

Well, is that book that interesting Christina?

YEARS HAPPENINGS

DANCE-A-THON '86

Dance-a-Thon '86, sponsored by the Junior class, was a big success and everyone had a blast. Almost everyone completed the full thirty hours. Several Juniors also worked the whole time.

This year's Dance-a-Thon was from 4:00 pm Thursday, January 24 to 10:00 pm Friday, January 25. In addition, there were also two dances held, one on Thursday night and one on Friday.

The Juniors served everything from pizza to chili to Fudge Jumbles to give the dancers energy. Breakfast consisted of coffee and doughnuts.

The highlight of the evening was the surprise appearance of an unknown "woman," who turned out to be Mr. Rasmussen in disguise. The "lovely lady" spent the evening chasing all the eligible young men around the dance floor begging them for a dance.

The Juniors earned over $1,500 toward the Prom, which they hoped to hold on a boat or in the Efes Hotel.

The following dancers completed the full thirty hours:

|                   |                 |
|-------------------|-----------------|
| Jerry Adams       | Christina Lokey |
| Dawn Anderson     | Terry Meyers    |
| Kathy Blackshire  | Tresa Monroe    |
| Kristen Davidson  | Skye Moreau     |
| Carolyn Donham    | Shannon Nadeau  |
| Tanesha Ford      | Winston Noel    |
| P. J. Hamilton    | Melissa Salazar |
| Saul Hernandez    | Cyndi Slater    |
| LaCrecia Johnson  | Tim Slater      |
| Eric Lau          | Rusty Rasmussen |
| Rich Lingenfelter |                 |

Jennifer Fowler completed 26 hours, Amy Dempsey completed 25 hours and Michelle Powers completed 18 hours.

Thanks to everyone who participated for making this year's Dance-a-Thon such a success!

I need a partner!!

Acknowledgments:

To: All our advertisers who subsidized much of the cost of the yearbook.

To: The Sultan 86 staff who, although being inexperienced, still managed to produce a yearbook in spite of not having a yearbook class.

To: Peggy Major for sharing her knowledge of yearbook production.

We enjoyed putting the yearbook together. It has been quite a learning experience. We hope you forgive the inevitable mistakes and omissions. Be assured that none of the mistakes were intentional.
