Changing of the Guards...

LOOKING BACK

The next few pages capture some events of spring 2004. We see students a year younger performing in sports that challenge their determination and test their wills. These students now have a role in the Changing of the Guards. A new generation comes to take their place.

Special Olympics

Jovon Polite, number 362, wears his helmet, ready for the next event.

Everyone waves just in time for a photo.

I Think I Can
I KNOW I Can

The whistle blows and the runners take off, each in his own lane.

Students and staff from KAHS leave the grounds together, ending another great day of Special Olympics.

The students proudly display the school's banner.

Charlie-Anna Fisher catches her breath after a race.

The events begin with a parade of all the contestants and helpers. The day of games is about to start.

Charlie-Anna Fisher has her eye on the starter as she waits for the race to begin.

Together everyone walks toward the field where the races will begin.

Jamie Bizer and Sara Hanson show off their prize ribbons.

GIRLS SOFTBALL

Adriana Metoyer catches the third strike.

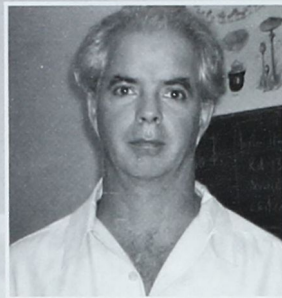

Natasha Carlson waits for the perfect pitch.

Christine Jensen winds up for the pitch as teammates look on.

Allyson Bunch: The home meet was the most memorable because we have the most challenging and difficult course. Mentally the course is defeating because the course just gets harder and there is never an end to the hills. In the end the girls team won by beating Ramstein by one point.

Anna Dallas: One of my most memorable moments would be doing the banana dance before every race, when you have butterflies in your stomach and you just get together as a team to bond. It is really an emotional sport.

Trysta Bradley: My most memorable moment was at Lakenheath. Tiffany and I ran side my side through the rain, cold, and mud, both finishing in the top 20.

Stephanie Colache: My most memorable cross-country moment would probably be Sumo-Wrestling with Erin Flahive after we won our race at Bitburg. At that meet, I also rememeber standing on the awards stage with Ally and Joy as we were called up.

Cross Country

Name one of your most memorable moments as a member of the cross country team.

Josh Sundberg: One rainy day during practice, the guys decided we would have a mud fight. For the entire practice we threw mud at each other, stomped in the biggest mud puddles, and even hosted a wrestling match. Needless to say, we were all covered head to toe in mud, our clothes were soaked, and most of us got sick. The moral of the story is....have fun!

Ian Sweeney: Okay, there I was, it was a rainy, windy, cold, and miserable day at Bitburg. Right off the gun I was in the middle of the pack, fighting my way up, but I was stuck behind a slow one. So what did I do? I TOOK HIS SHOE!! Turned out the slow kid finished with just a muddy sock on that one foot.

Louis Frank: The pain and glory of cross-country...It was going to be my best race ever, and I blew it royally. I was in the top ten coming off the first click, and I was chasing Ian's tail. There was a sharp turn going into a beast of a hill, and the crowd was lined up to cheer us on. There was mud EVERYWHERE. Ian made the turn just fine, and I followed in his footsteps but did not make it. SHLEP! THUD! "Oooh that had to hurt!" Let's just say it was not pretty.

TEACHERS AND STAFF

Teachers and staff are the driving force to help make things happen. As every season ends with the anticipation of the next, our staff will also be changing this year. Many will stay "with the force" while others will choose a different course. For these individuals, we salute them as we continue to watch the "changing of the guards."

A Story of an Angel

There once was an angel
That went to our school.
Everybody loved her.
She was so cool.

Her name was Alicia.
She was so sweet
Everytime she talked,
It was like a bird's tweet.

She worked at Burger
King.
She was all smiles.
She told us funny stories
That had us laughing for miles.

Unfortunately, that's all over.
But the memories are still there.
We will remember her pretty face
Along with her beautiful brown hair.

That day, God realized
That she had done her part.
We will never forget her.
She'll always be in our heart.

Alicia, we miss you!
You're in a better place right now.
You're in heaven with God
It's time to take your bow!

by Dariana Martinez

In Memory of ...

Angel

Touching lives, here and there,
a warm smile you carried everywhere.
Through the darkness, a light you shined, hearing the deaf, seeing the blind.
Now you're gone, forever no more,
leaving our hearts immeasurably torn.
We miss you, dear Angel,
We want to see you again,
But God must have had a higher plan.
Always kind and forever right,
Rest peacefully,
Angel, into the Light.

The flag in the front courtyard of the school was raised and then lowered to half mast for the remainder of the day, in honor of Alicia Dykes on Friday, September 24.

Students create a memorial of flowers, cards and pictures around the base of the flag pole.

K-town's Angel

Everybody knew and loved you.
Your smile, laugh and inspiration pulled us through.
Heard the news, my body along with the schools' went to a hush.
You were so bright, your dreams for life helped inspire us.
You defined spiritual beauty with every hue, color, and shade.
You went closer to Him last night. Now tears fall like an escapade.
Everyday, you brightened up our lives.
Angels don't live on earth, naw, don't believe the hype.
No one poem, or word of beauty could ever claim you
Your soul will live forever in our hearts as K-town's Angel.

Written and read by Patrick Tennen over the PA on Friday morning, September 24th.

Changing of the Guards...

Mr. Bryner,

Few teachers have the potential to impact students as you did when I took your chemistry class. It was a horrific year: hard, demanding and, at times, painful when I got my test scores. Yet you helped me to build my determination that I will definitely depend on when I am in medical school.

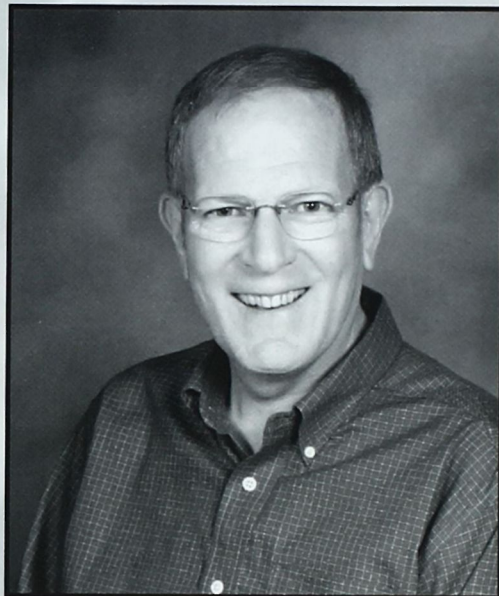

Thank you for not lowering the standards and for taking the extra time when students needed help. But, most of all, thank you for entering the teaching profession and dedicating your talents towards educating America's future.

Thank you. Susan Wozniak
Class of 2003

When I think "Mr. Bryner" I see a man in a white lab coat, with a periodic table behind him, and songs such as "PV=nRT" playing in his room.

Mr. Bryner, you cared about our education. You would not accept "mediocre" because you believed we deserved better. You continued to give us your best--always.

Megan Easley
Class 2003

Thank you, Mr. Bryner!

*Taught 11 years at KAHS

Mr. Bryner,

You really set the expectation with the first lab. You casually walked around the class with your hand open, beckoning any turn-ins. When you reached the front, you turned around and, with a bit of frustration and a bit of merciless glee, told us that if you weren't holding our reports, they were too late. From that day on, I've always made sure to have my stuff ready at the start of your class or any other--lesson learned.

With only one year of sophomore chemistry, I validated the final. I did not have to take a couple of USAFA's most dreaded core courses: Chemistry 141 and 142.

Jason Christopher
Class of 2003

Mrs. Willhoite,

When I first came to K-Town, I really had a hard time adjusting to my new life, but I did have some teachers who cared and helped me get through it all. YOU were definitely one of them and, after all, I didn't turn out half bad after three years at K-Town. I even got an award in your US Government class.

So this is my chance to say
"Thank you."

Love,

Raymond M. Snekkestad
aka "Norway"
Class of 2002

"Sweet Buddha!"

Mrs. Willhoite,

You have watched KAHS grow and change over the years. I have learned so much from you. I will always cherish your kindness and wit.

Your friendship means the world to me, and I look forward to visiting you again in Mississippi as we "clink our ice tea glasses." Ms. Gerry Mersinger

Thank you, Mrs. Willhoite!

*Taught 28 years at KAHS

Mrs. Willhoite,

You brought a vitality and a passion to AP U.S. Government. Some students were not sure what to make of a teacher who seemed to have endless amounts of energy, often more than we did as young seventeen and eighteen year old students!

Government is an ever-evolving field and so too was your classroom. We learned through some very creative ways, and often the entire class would be engaged in a discussion of the day's topic.

Ms. Willhoite, you seemed to enjoy watching us and we could see the smile grow as our arguments progressed as you fed us ever-increasing amounts of knowledge in subtle ways.

Good luck, Mrs. Willhoite. You deserve the best!

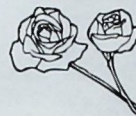

Megan Easley
Class of 2003

Thank you, Mrs. Bryner!

Taught 11 years at KAHS

Mrs. Bryner, you are one of those teachers whom I will never forget. You are also one of the few who does more than teach in class: you inspire. I can't ever remember leaving your classroom without learning something extremely valuable, whether it was about history, psychology or life. Your words will linger in my mind forever and, for that, I thank you.

I wish you and Mr. Bryner all the best!

Karijo Tiede
Class of 2004

Mrs. Bryner, you are an awesome lady. You really knew how to portray the information in a fun way. You also told us what the bigger picture was so we didn't become caught up in the facts.

Who can forget your Basketball Review, which my team always won, by the way? It was always "tuff-1 pt or 3?"

Jason Christopher
Class of 2003

Mrs. Bryner,

You are truly one very special teacher. I have enjoyed working with you for the last five years; I only wish I had the opportunity of meeting you sooner.

Your inspiration to every student who walks through your door for class, for help, for encouragement, for counseling did not go unnoticed. Your "shoes" as an educator will be difficult to fill.

Thank you for your friendship, laughter, and good times. I will always remember our golf team known as the "Shock and Awe" with a reputation that spread throughout the Woodlawn Golf course. EVERYBODY knew who we were as we looked for lost golf balls and fished them out of "Moby."

I look forward to visiting you and Mr. Bryner. What a road trip that will be! This note is not a farewell or a final good-bye. It is more of a "See ya soon!"

Ms. Gerry Mersinger

Changing of the Guards....

To a fellow time traveler:

Over the years we made a number of memorable trips at the same time and to the same places. These excursions include a camel ride on a beach in Tunisia, a bus ride to Czechoslovakia, a card ride to Paris, a walk down the aisle at the chapel in Ramstein and many, many journeys down the halls of KAHS.

Tunisia was a great vacation. Czechoslovakia was the perfect country for "heavy-duty" shopping. Paris was great for open air concerts. Ramstein was where Mrs. Luc united with Mr. Rickie Luc in holy matrimony, and I had the privilege of giving away the bride.

KAHS was where I entered room 155, and Mrs. Luc entered room 159 as we shared the joy and headaches of teaching science.

I hope we can take more trips when the Luc family relocates to the sunny Southland of the U.S.A.

As ever, your old friend,
Dennis C. Hendricks

Mrs. Luc,

You are a funny lady. I could see that you really loved biology, and it showed through your passion for the class.

More than five years later, I still remember dissecting a star fish.

Congratulations on your retirement!

Jason Christopher

Thank you, Mrs. Luc!

*Taught 31 years at KAHS

Mrs. Luc,

Thank you for making biology fun and interesting. I had a wonderful year in your class. The basics that I learned in your biology class are part of my everyday life now as I am about to embark upon my journey through medical school.

Thank you for having been there for me my first year of high school when I was only a freshman in your biology class.

Susan Wozniak

Cheryl,

You have been a dear friend and colleague since 1974.

You always had a friendly smile, a funny story and a great meal to share.

Thanks to both you and Rickie for all the sporting events we attended and for the times spent chasing a little white ball through the woods, sand and fairways of Woodlawn Golf Course.

Your continuing care, concern and friendship toward former and current KAHS students are without bound.

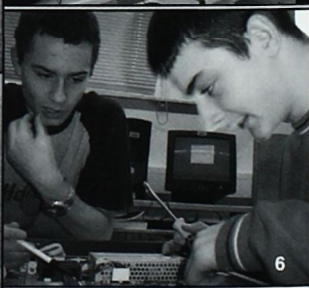

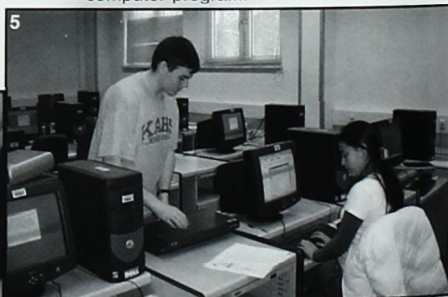

Congratulations
on a well-deserved retirement.

What is your most memorable moment during High School?

My Sophomore year we went on the German trip. The lunch was a typical German lunch, "Carbs and a dab of cheese." So we went "downtown" for dinner, which was pizza, that consisted of tomato sauce and parmesan cheese. Two meals I will never forget.

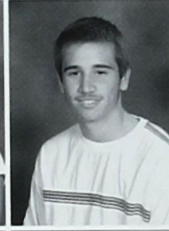

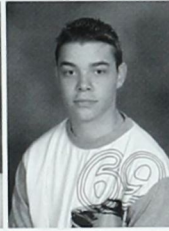

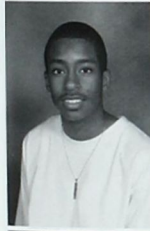

Just chilling with all my friends and talking about all the good times we've had together.

Changing of the Guards. . .

Sophomores

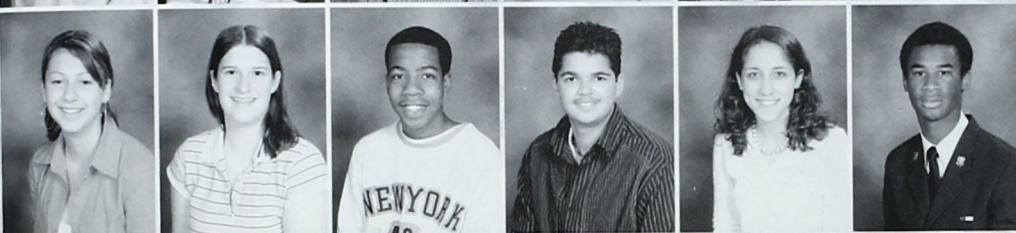

The Sophomore Class just finished their second year as true "under classmen." Their memories are clear and reminiscent of how life was as a freshman last year, a year of growth and introspection. Next year these students will experience their first year as upper classmen, as juniors. Within this new year, future plans begin to mold and take hold. They experience a "changing of the guards."

2005 WORDS -- Now no longer "in vogue"

AND MORE! – The merchant's way of giving you something 'value added.' Every merchant offers carpets, flooring and more. Can we envision baskets, caskets and more? Need I say less?

ALL NEW – referring to television shows... Of course it's all new. Why can't they just say 'new'?

BODY WASH – Also known as 'soap.'

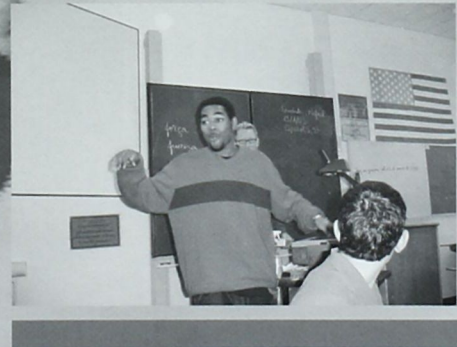

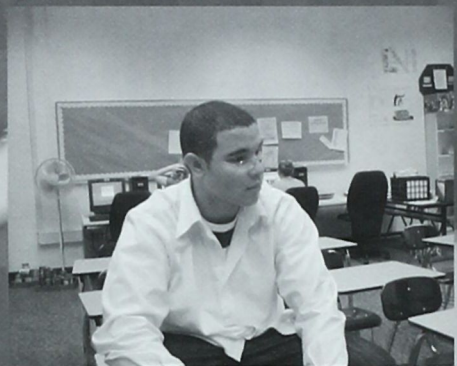

JOURNEY – Every single person on every reality show comments on how amazing the 'journey' was. Since when does dating a dozen nerds over a six-week span or conniving to win a million dollars over 15 other people qualify as a 'journey'?

WEBINAR – for 'seminar on the web.' It's silly. Next we'll have a Dutch 'dunch' ... bring your own lunch for a digital lunch meeting.

'IZZLE' – SPEAK – By far, the abomination that received the most nominations. Some sort of 'Rap-Latin' suffix, as in fa'shizzle, which means 'for sure.'

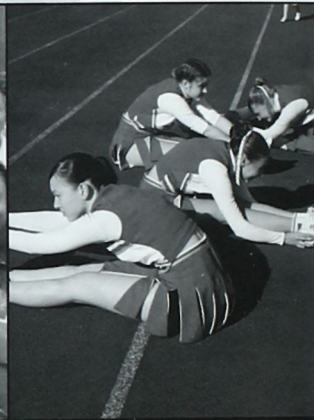

YOU'RE FIRED! – ...and the little hand movement, too!

GERMAN NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Yaishaly Molina

Kaiserslautern American High School is Chapter 374 (Overseas Beta) of Delta Epsilon Phi, which signifies Deutsche Ehrenverbindung.

The purpose of this organization is to recognize high scholastic attainment in the study of German and to promote interests in the study of the German language, literature, culture and civilization.

The organization is a national education honorary fraternity in the study of high school German and is sponsored by the American Association of Teachers of German (AATG).

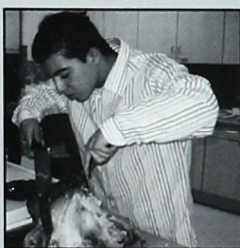

The chapter at KAHS was started on May 20, 1980. Membership of GNHS is based purely on academic achievement. To be eligible, students must have completed three semesters of German at the high school. The student must also have attained an average of 3.6 in German and a 3.0 general average in these three semesters on a 4.0 scale.

Fundraising usually consists of food sales --always a winner!--and the proceeds help to pay for the induction ceremony and the cords worn by our graduating seniors.

National Honor Society

The Kaiserslautern High School's National Honor Society is the home to fourteen dedicated, responsible students who have continued to work hard towards benefiting the school since the beginning of the year. With the help of its sponsor Ms. Kathleen Hellman, NHS's members are guaranteed to bring Kaiserslautern spirit and success throughout the rest of the school year.

Every year, National Honor Society is required to complete a project of a worthy service that the school and its many students can take advantage of. It also gives members the service hours necessary to maintain membership within the program. The organization began their yearly service projects in late September, tutoring students on a regular seminar basis. In addition, Kaiserslautern Middle School and the High School's AVID program have asked that NHS members tutor some of their students as well, opening more opportunities for the organization to broaden their assistance between programs and school.

Student Government sponsor Barriett Smith said, "It's a good service provided for the school because it allows all students an opportunity to see students helping others. It's one more way for kids to be successful in school."

Because tutoring sessions are no longer held after school, this schedule enables the students to have access to a tutor every other day of the week, which also makes it so much easier for those students to receive the help they need from high school students skilled in areas where they need assistance.

The national Honor Society is proud of the assistance that they have provided and will continue to provide. It is an honor and a source of pride, proving to the school how powerful one organization can be.

Steven Leist

Dear Steven,
 Congratulations on all your successes.
 Thanks for coming into our lives and making our family complete. We're always proud of you.

Love, Mom and Dad

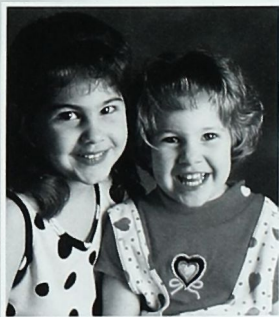

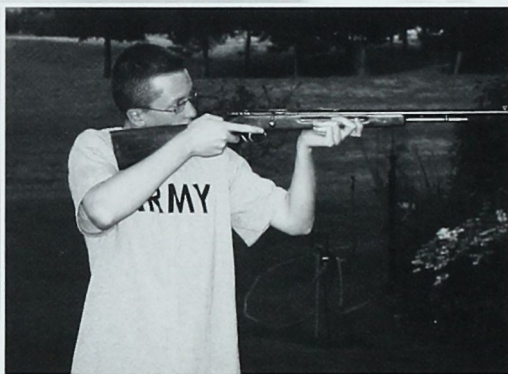

Tyler Carson

From the time you were old enough to talk you've wanted to wear camouflage and play soldier. JROTC is a perfect fit for you, and now you're almost to the age when you can fulfill your long dream.

You are an upstanding and honorable young man who we're proud to call our son. The choices you're making now give us confidence that you'll have an awesome future. Hooah!

Love always,
Mom and Dad

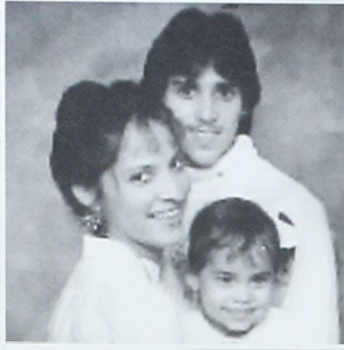

Ashlee Wyman

Ashlee,

You have brought so much joy and happiness into our lives. You taught us to laugh and to notice all the little things around us that we tend to over look. You've been a terrific role model and friend to your younger sister. Now that you are graduating we look forward to watching all the wonderful gifts you have to give to the world. We know that through God you will blossom and grow to be everything that he planned for you. As parents we're so proud. It's time now to spread your wings and find yourself. Know that you will never be alone, for we will always be there to love you and guide you. Don't be afraid, God is forever watching over you.

We love you,
Mom, Dad, and Haylee

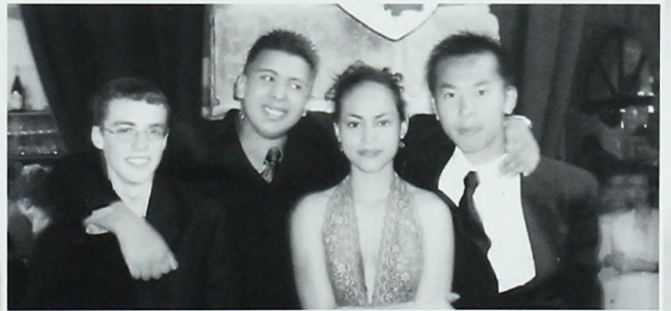

Yaishaly Molina Luna

Follow your dreams and never give up. Stay always simple, because the simple things in life are the ones that bring happiness to life.

With love, your parents,
Gina and Javier

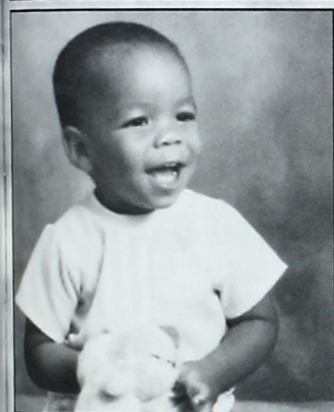

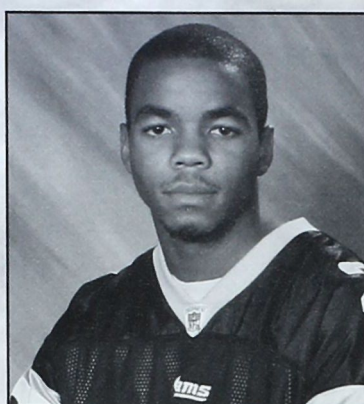

Shondrika J. Harvey

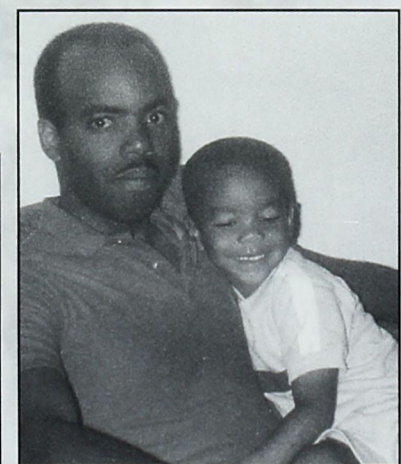

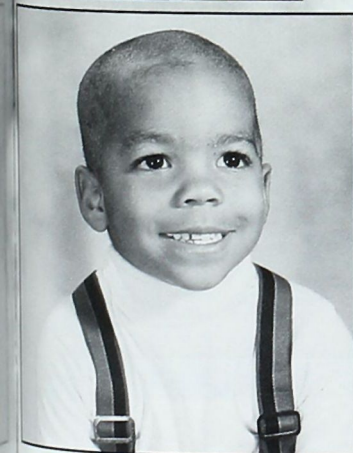

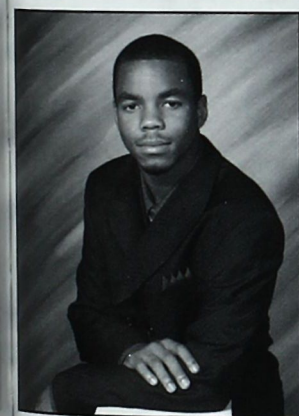

Shondrika, believe in yourself, have faith in God, set goals and dream. Nothing is impossible. Just believe and you will achieve. I am proud of you and I love you very much. Mom!

Gregory C. Thompson

Greg,
Your Mother Loves You!!!
I am so proud of the man you are becoming. Keep your head up and always reach for the stars. If you believe it, I know you can achieve it. That is just the man you are. I love you so much, and remember
.....IAAG!!!
Congrats, Baby
Mom

Tammy Lawley

We love you and are so proud of who you are. Follow God's will and you will never go wrong.

With all our love, Mom and Dad

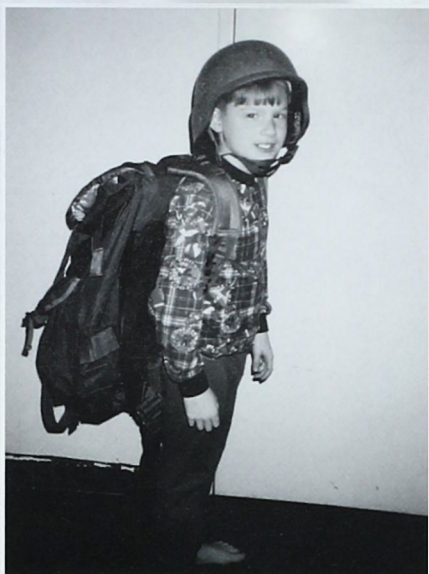

Pierceson Johnstone

From Godzilla to Calvin and Hobbes, from Zits to Doom 3. Life is good.

Mom

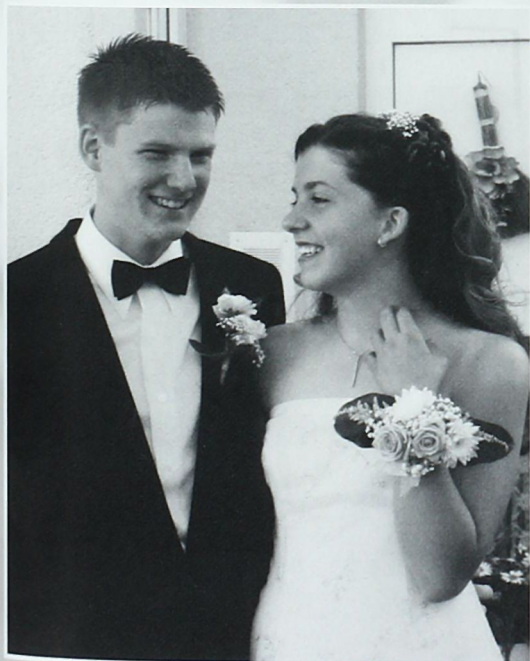

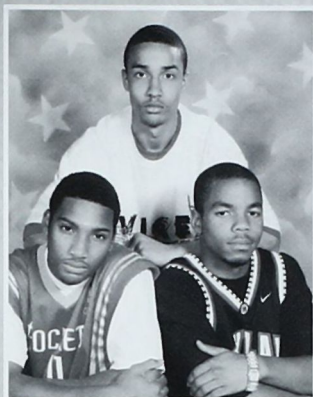

Ian Sweeney

You have made us both so very proud - Learn from the past, live in the present, prepare for the future.

Mom and Dad

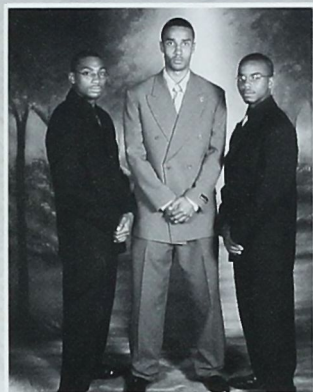

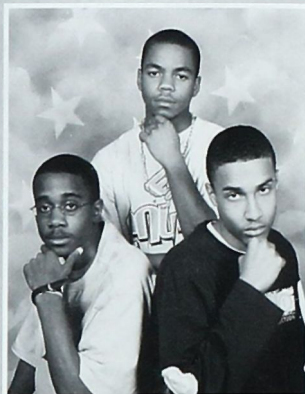

My Boys

Greg, Jamal, Donte, Zack, and Erik

Congratulations and Much Love
Mom Thompson

Louis Frank

Louis,
Never forget where you came from,
but always know where you're going.

Love
Mom, Dad, and John

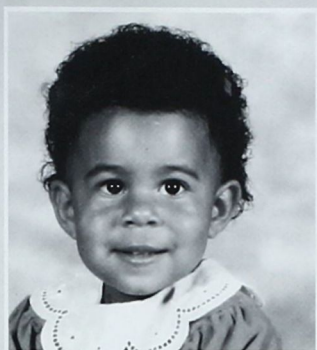

Sade Gomez

Sade always remember...
Proverbs 3:5-6
God loves you and so do we!

- Mom and Bradell

Mandra Smith

To the best girl in the entire world.

All our love,
Dad, Mom,
Braden and Jeff

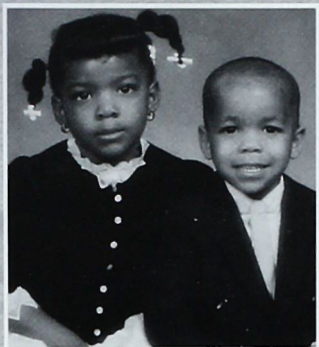

Tamiya Wright

Before you were born I wondered how I would care for you.
The day you were born I thanked God for a healthy baby.
As you grew I marveled at your beauty, brains, talent, and comedic sense of humor.

Now look at my baby girl all grown up and ready to greet the world. I'm a proud parent, whose love for you will always be unconditional.

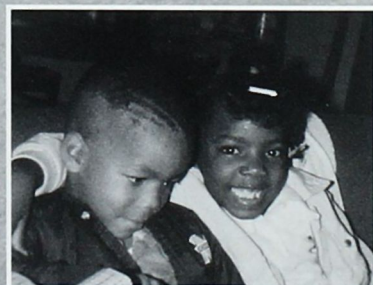

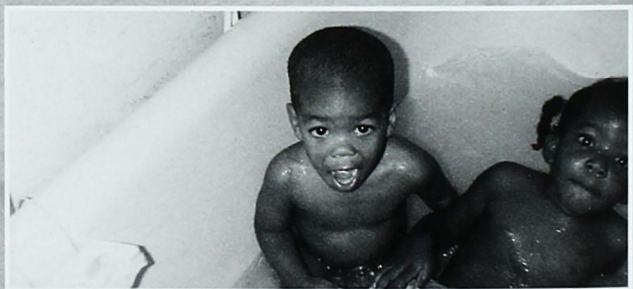

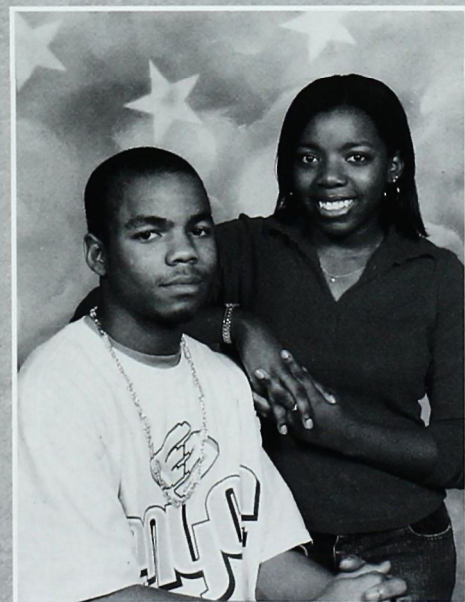

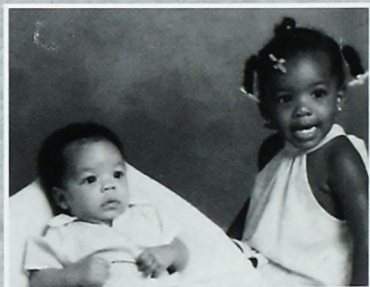

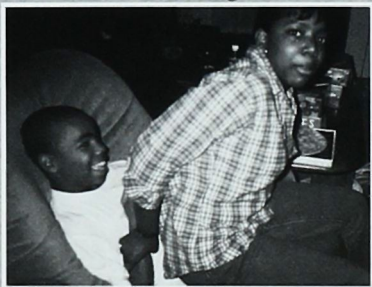

Love, Mom

Gregory Thompson

To My Brother, I have always looked up to you and you continue to make me proud. You've come so far and it's only going to get better from here. Keep looking forward - it's gonna be bananas.

Love, Your Big Sister

Jamie Culbreth

People so seldom say
I love you
and then it's either too late or love goes
So when I tell you I love you it doesn't mean I know you'll never go only that I wish you didn't have to
Laurence Craig Greene

Dear Jamie,
Go, accomplish great things, and be strong. You have our love and support forever!

Love, Mom and Dad

Robin Camille Blevins Cherrelle Evette Blevins

From the cradle to graduation day, double the trouble yet double the fun.
Twice as much to love yet twice as hard to let go.

Go confidently,
believing in the beauty of your dreams.
From the heart, you will always be loved unconditionally.

Miguel Castaneda

Miguel,

Always remember to meet each minute with faith and never dread tomorrow or what the future brings. Just pray for strength and courage and trust God in all things.

We love you,

Russ, Mom, Mike and Bry

"Pony"

Josh Warren

We are so proud of you and we love you! Your only limits are your own imagination. May you soar like the eagle and may all your dreams come true.

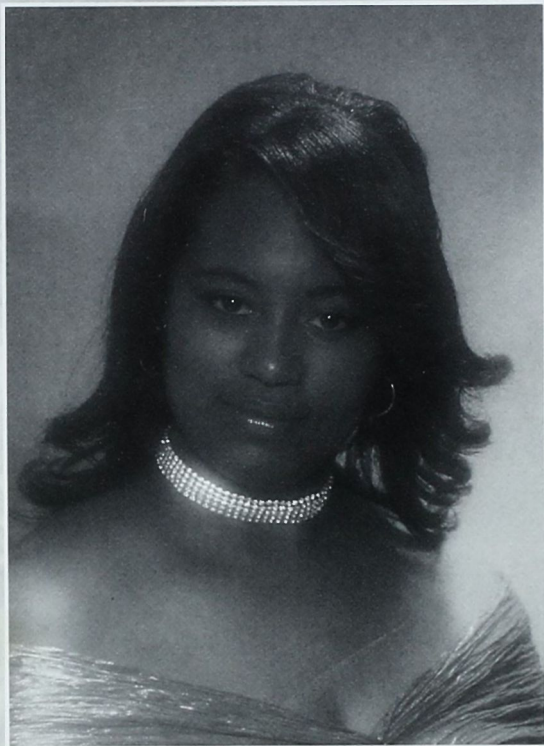

Megan Beier

Megan,

We are so proud of you. As you journey through life, remember you can and will achieve all your dreams. We love you very much.

Mom, Roger, Heather and Jessica

Ashley Moore

From beautiful baby girl to beautiful young woman. We love you and we are so very proud of you. We knew you could do it!

Love Mom & Dad

Jessica Hoffman

Where'd all the time go? Just yesterday you were our precious baby girl, now you're a beautiful young woman! We pray you always keep close to God and know He's always close to you.

We're so proud of you and love you very much.

Mom & Dad

Jamie Michelle Austen

Sunshine,
 "I lub you deeper"
 Remain devoted to your beliefs,
 Persevere through all obstacles to attain your goals,
 Endeavor enthusiastically to achieve your dreams,
 And you will succeed greatly.
 I'll love you forever!
 Mom
