BRIIN BOWL

Towards the end of the 2004-2005 school year, the Brain Bowl team, headed by Mr. Oyan and Ms. Hellman, consisting of then senior Heather Holgate, junior Josh Eklund, sophomore Britni VanDelinde and freshman John Frank, worked hard preparing for a brain-off with the teachers. The faculty team included Mr. Careless, Mr. Daniel, Ms. Surratt and Mr. Kollar. Ms. Boue announced the questions ranging from math to English and social studies; but in the end, the faculty came out on top by only ten points. REMATCH!

COMPUTER TECHNOIOGY

Mr. Robinson headed the Computer Technology Club which competed in the spring of 2005 . The students were asked to accomplish different tasks in order to win points for their school. The tasks included computer related jobs and they also had to show their engineering skills. They all did well and had a lot of fun.

Q. How much money did you collect all together?
A. I'm not sure. I know that it's around $$ 800$.
Q. What gave you this idea?
A. When I saw footage on the news I felt bad for them, so I immediately went online and donated $200 to the Red Cross.
Q. What did you have to do to start it? A. I had to have a sponsor. I got my sponsor (Ms. Wild-Sievers) to talk to the principal to get it started.
Q. How much money did you donate? A. To the school I donated $$ 200$, so all together I gave $$ 400$.

Constance Harris and Adrianne Carson. These brillant girls are ready to leave early!

Early

Graduates

Q- Why did you consider graduating early?
CH - Because I was accepted to college early admission and was moving
AC- To get a job to save money for college, which I plan on starting early. Q- Where do you plan on working before college?
AC- As a cashier at the commissary Q- What college are you going to, and what are you majoring in?
CH- Univeristy of Virginia (or Dillard Uni) International Relations and Political Science
AC- Brigham Young University,
Elementary Education
Q- Would you recommend graduating early to anyone else?
CH- "Yes, you get a head start on college. It's just a jump start."
AC- "Yes, high school is too dramatic and you should get away from it."

A Randy Atwood original..."Nobody puts Baby in a corner."

Q: When did you first become interested in drawing?
A: Always, since I was three.
Q: What do you love to draw and why?
A: Portraits, because it's a challenge and it's a good feeling when somebody can recognize who it should be.
Q : Who is your favorite Artist?
A: M.C. Escher
Q: Do you plan on making a career of art?
A: Yes, I'd like to go to an art school in Seattle.
Q: Painting or drawing?
A: Drawing, I've been doing it longer.
Q: Any tricks you use for shading?
A: Yeah, I developed a new trick for my portraits. I use Q-tips for the skin to give an even blend.

The Lady Raiders celebrate their undefeated season and European championship.

Undefeated

Champions

The Lady Raiders have worked hard to achieve a skillful team this year. Obviously all the hard work was worth it having an untainted season, 17-0. This was the year of the Raiders, demolishing the Royals 45-20 in the championship game; going on to win the DODDSEurope Division I Crown. That's why we are proud to be K-Town Raiders!

Ten Raider golfers began the 2005 season with a trip to England for two tournaments. Through 4 regular season matches the men's team scored well and the Women's team won the 4th tournament. Junior Ben Antonik (3-year varsity) as the best golfer in the DoDDS during the regular season, winning all four tournaments and finishing with the highest number of Stableford point among 137 competitors. Along the way, Ben picked up quite a lot of press coverage for his efforts. Ben finished his season at the 2 -day European Championship where he finished 3rd. Also earning a slot in the European Tournament were Senior Craig Myers, Freshman Barbara Burriss and Senior Aurel Moore. Barbara finished 7th among the women for a fine finish to here first season of varsity golf.

Between shots, Freshman Barbara Burriss strolls up the 10th fairway at Heidelberg Golf Club.

Commenting on the season, Coach Oyan said, "Ben made me look good but his father has taught him most of his shots and should get a lot of the credit."

Homecoming 2005

By Samantha Price
The best day of the week is Tuesday, Pajama Day. The one day that you can roll out of bed and into school. It's the first day of Spirit Week, a time to be crazy and go crazy without being judged.

Wednesday is Wacky Tacky Day; you all wear your neon and polka-dot boxers over your pants. You put up your hair weird, your shirts are backwards, you mis-matched socks and shoes. But every day comes to an end, and the tackiness wears out. But that's okay; it leads you into the next day of glamour and seriousness.

Thursday is Hollywood Day, your day to dress (and act) like one of your favorite actors or actresses. You see people running around like Marylin Monroe, or Manson, or acting "stupid" like Jessica Simpson. Being able to act and feel like a Hollywood hottic is one of the funniest days.

School Spirit all the way on Friday. Today you walk down the halls and up the stairs and do not feel alone in your clothing color. Mostly everyone is wearing red and white, but you better not be caught in blue and red. Big mistake.

Wait! There is still more. As well as a sea of red and white, there is a parade! What a feeling to walk down the street from the school to the football field full of school spirit. It makes you feel even better when you turn the corner at the light and see more people than you expected standing and cheering the home team. The Pep Rally is full of games and competitions, announcements and thanks, introductions and call outs.

Saturday is the big game. The court is announced, led by King Madison Hayes and Queen Joshlyn Penn. The Homecoming Dance had everyone in their finest dancing the night away. What a night to remember.

Top Ten

Four years ago you entered as freshmen, never realizing how far you could go.
You have made lifelong friends, suffered sports injuries, and found your first love.

Now it's the finish line, what have you achieved? You are the top of the class, the elite, the hard workers. You have maintained the grade under pressure and adversities.

Congratulations on maintaining a high GPA and making the Top Ten of 2006.

* Top Ten as of January 30, 2006 after seven semesters. Students are listed alphabetically.

Having my third brother graduate this year isn't going to be easy.
Everything will change, I'll be the oldest in the house. He's a big part of my life now. I will miss him.

- Harrison Hayes

The good thing [about] my brother leaving is that I can have his room when he leaves, but the bad things is that he can't help me with my homework anymore.

- Mahalia Bell

Having Troy leave means more chores for me, not cool! No, but seriously, it's going to be quiet and lonely in the house, and no one to blame things on. I'm really going to miss him.

- Sam Price

I'm definitely mad because now I have no one to help with the dishes. Naw, but for real I'm going to miss her a lot and I wish the best for her in life.

- CJ McKenzie

I don't [know if] when she goes to college its gonna be any different other than the house will be quieter. Also, I'll have no one to give tips on everything anymore.

- Molly Halpin

A death grip on my heart, saying you'll never let me go, but it's tearing me apart, and everybody knows...

The memories burn, and the future's foreboding. Wherever we turn, The Path must end.

No star is brighter than my own sorrow. No last promise could brighten tomorrow. Truth slithered into our garden too soon, and Hope, Truth decided to borrow.

Truth

I see truth

Behind your eyes You reveal it, But don't know why

Why do I do these things? What is wrong with me? Who did this?

The truth is fading
Its getting dark
Lorena Vega - 9th Grade

Living love in Misery, chance not on our side. We wrote countless letters, a thousand tears we cried.

The one Bright Thing was Hope..
Eclipsed by Truth,
It is now a black scar on a gray, cold sky.

All the birds silence.

The leaves cease their whispers.
A tear from your eye..
The Time has come for this to die The Time has come for this to die.

Change

Yesterday has passed us by and tomorrows yet to come The wind will blow a diffrent tune, with each rising of the sun. Looking back we see the start, of where we are today. The subtle or dramatic change, of life is on display.
A tiny seed to flower sweet, a child grown into a bride, all the changes that occur with the turning of the tide.
We cannot see the waves turn the stone to sand, or any of the other changes that make this life so grand.
The morphing of a catipillar into a butterfly, is just another tell tale sign of how fast that life goes by.
Theres only one today and tomorrow it is gone and the ever changing circle of life goes on and on.

Josh,
You are our oldest son and it is amazing that you have grown up so fast. You have grown to be a very intelligent young man and we are very proud of all that you have achieved. You have been a good friend to many of your peers and you have become quite the athlete through the years. We have enjoyed watching you mature and grow into an upstanding, respectable young man. We are so very proud of you and all of your accomplishments throughout the years. We are very proud and honored to call you our son. You have been a joy to have in our lives and we love you very much. Congratulations on your graduation from high school. This is the first of many giant steps toward a successful future.

Melissa Natasha Warner

On August 27, 1988, you were born into this world a beautiful little girl. As new parents we were nervous, scared, unprepared, excited, happy, and inexperienced with no idea what was in store for us. We watched you grow and cared for you, so proud to show you off as our baby girl. Mom and Dad would like to say best of luck in your fortune and always remember to make choices with God in your heart first. We love you and remember that no matter how old you are, you will always be our "little" girl.

Love you, Mom and Dad

Tiffany 凡. Chrisfian

Tiffany,
2006 is finally here and here you are a senior, graduating from high school. We are so proud of you and you should be proud of what you have accomplished, too. Through the many years of moving and relocating to different Air Force bases, you were strong and adapted to every change we put you through. This adaptability to change will help you now that you will go on to different challenges in life.

We love you so much and again are so proud of you and what you have done. We are always here for you and will support you always.

Love, Mom and Dad

Jessica Goforth

God richly blessed us July 11, 1988, when He sent you into our lives. We're so proud of how you've grown and matured into a beautiful, compassionate young lady. May you always allow the Lord to lead and guide you. We love you so much.

Dad, Mom, & Crystal

Cindy Martinez

We loved watching you grow, from a little girl to a young lady. We are so proud of you. It's been a long hard road to get to this point, and you have always been a good student, daughter, sister, and friend. Thank you for being who you are. God Bless you, now and forever.
Love you always, Mom and Dad

Adrianne Capson

You are a wonderful young woman with many talents and much potential in life. You've brought sunshine into the lives of your family and friends--you've made parenting easy!
