TEACHERS

I am extremely proud of the 'spirit of giving' that the students of KHS displayed this year. KHS students provided a unique way of raising funds for the victims of the earthquake in Haiti with a campaign of arresting the principal/teachers and another event - Soles 4 Souls - collecting shoes for disaster victims. The humanitarian spirit exhibited by the students and staff at KHS is humbling and a testament to the character and commitment of our school community.

"-Life's most persistent and urgent question is, "what are you doing for others?"

-Shallow understanding from people of good will is more frustrating than absolute misunderstanding from people of ill will.

"Our deepest fear is not that we are inadequate. Our deepest fear is that we are powerful beyond measure. It is our light, not our darkness that most frightens us. We ask ourselves, Who am I to be brilliant, gorgeous, talented, fabulous?"

Actually, who are you not to be? You are a child of God. Your playing small does not serve the world. There is nothing enlightened about shrinking so that other people won't feel insecure around you. We are all meant to shine, as children do. We were born to make manifest the glory of God that is within us.

It is not just in some of us; it is in everyone. And as we let our own light shine, we unconsciously give other people permission to do the same.

As we are liberated from our own fear, our presence automatically liberates others."

SPIRIT

WEEK

SPIRIT WEEK WAS A TIME FOR THE WHOLE SCHOOL TO SHOW HOW MUCH SPIRIT THEY REALLY HAD.

SOME PEOPLE SHOWED IT MORE THAN OTHERS AND IT WAS KINDA BIZARRE.

Homecoming Game

Patrick Burns runs up to kick the extra point.

Dallin Bridges attempts to break past a Lakenheath defender.

Joshua Fry looks for a block as Matteo Gazzale throws a pass.

Jamil McGinnis secures a catch.

KTown linemen throw aside Lankenheath defenders to block for the run.

Homecoming... the dance

Homecoming is a night for festivities, and K-town knows how to get down. Homecoming, October 17, 2009 was a huge success with ticket sales getting SOLD OUT.

Varsity football stars, Josh, Tyler and Jamil, pose for the camera at homecoming night.

Seniors, Velt and Jovonte, get the crowd pumped for the night by dancing and having a great time.

They are the dancing queens...

To our little Che' Che', this page alone cannot contain all of the love we have for you and hold in our hearts. We knew from the day you were born that God had a special plan for you and your life. We are so proud of you and all of your accomplishments, whether it had been academically, athletically, or spiritually. Remember to always "trust in the LORD with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding in all your ways acknowledge him and he will make your paths straight (Proverbs 3: 5-6) as you embark on the world. "Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid or terrified because of them, for the LORD your God goes with you; he will never leave you nor forsake you." (Deuteronomy 31:6). Take these words of wisdom and hide them in your heart. You will always be our beautiful, loving, intelligent baby girl!

With love from Dad, Mom, Maceo & Makayla

Sara Brown

August 31st 1992 you came into the world. So small and so beautiful you brought families together and broke down barriers. How could anyone have guessed that such small sweet bundle of joy could be so powerful? And now today who could have seen the beautiful, strong young woman you have become? We are so proud of you. We hope the world is ready for the love you will bring.

Dear Gabrielle, AKA: GIGI, Gabby, Gab-bee-el, I'm extremely Proud of you and all of your accomplishments. You are a Wonderful Young Woman and you make the World a better place. During my deployments, you took care of your younger sister Toni, yourself and our home. And for that, I want to say in front of the World "THANK YOU". When you leave for College, I will miss you more than words can express. But it is time for you to do all that GOD has for you to do. Always remember to put GOD first in your life, study the Word of GOD that is where you will always find Peace. Last but not least, "I LOVE YOU, CHILD OF MINE!!!!" with everything that is within me...

Love Mom

Psalm 91

He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

I will say the LORD, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will trust.

Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence.

He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day;

Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.

A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee.

Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked.

Because thou hast made the LORD, which is my refuge, even the most High, thy habitation;

There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.

They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet.

Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.

He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him.

With long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation. 186

MEAGAN DECKER

Hey! You have always been one of my closest friends. I will forever remember the lunch times we spent sitting around that tree and enjoying our friends company. I am so sorry i can not be there for your graduation. But, i am so proud of you. Nothing in the world is more important than who you are. Figure it out and stick to your morals. Always try to be a little better, a little more. I'll see you next year and, if you go to BYU-I we can have many more moments of just sitting and enjoying our company. I love you.
~Daniel

Meagan,
It is so hard to believe that almost 18 years have gone by. You have grown into such an amazing person. Your smile can light up a room. I have so many hopes and dreams for you but most of all I just want you to be happy and do the things you dream of doing. Always remember who you are and that alone will carry you through the tough times. I have loved all of our mother-daughter talks, shopping trips, singing in the car and just being silly together. I will miss those things more than you could possibly know. How am I going to survive without a Daughter at home? I know you will do wonderful things with your life and leave your mark on this world. Now go out there and make us proud!
Love You Kidde MOM

Maggie,
Love you! I can't believe it is all over, and, it is just beginning! I can't wait to see what you choose to do with your life. Find what makes you smile and then do it for life! I know that whatever it is, you will be amazing at it! You have the ability and talent to do anything. I love your dance thingy, the one you swore that I always do in the car, but never did.... You are a crack-up. I love you and will miss you terribly. Go and be a star kiddo!
Dad

Pegasus,
You are such an amazing person and I am so proud of you for making this far. You can do anything you set your mind to. I have loved all of our chats, notes we have left for each other and all the times we have sung and been silly. I miss you. You will do great in whatever you choose to do. Love you Baby Sis <3 Jessica Meagan ~i love u chica! oh man all those late nights hanging out with u have been amazing im gonna miss that, and all of our awesome inside jokes lol. just remember im gonna put it there and u're gonna like it. Senior year woun't be the same with out you!

Dear Son,
Hanawa G. Hampton, you are the greatest son that parents could ask for. You are an intelligent, handsome, charming, entertaining, semi-obedient, and very funny boy. You have brought happiness into our lives of others. We can safely say that you can do and be anything you set your mind to, all you have to do is stay focused and keep your eye on the prize (quit messing with those girls). The gift of laughter was given to you from birth when you first laughed. You always could make people happy, and always will.

We love you son, Mom and Dad

I want to thank everybody who helped me achieve the goals I set from day one. My experience here at K.H.S. was amazing, and the last four years will surely be some of the best in my life. I thank my friends for always being there for me, no matter what, Zio, Dre (both of you), Fry, Antonio, Jorge, Jenny, Hillary, Kat (Yes, you.), Sam, Ali, Tori and everybody else I might have forgotten. You guys mean alot to me, and always will. Bros 4 life.

Max,
Give to the world the best you have and the world will come back to you. The world is waiting for you, Max. You have so much to offer. Wishing you a fantastic future.

Much love
Aunt Janet and Grandma Belva

Max,
Our sincerest congratulations! This is quite a big accomplishment, and you're well on your way to even bigger and better things. We have no doubt that you'll be happy and successful in any path you choose, and there are so many to choose from. It's awesome to realize that you are in control of your own destiny. Many exciting, enlightening, educational, enriching, and exotic experiences are headed your way in the very near future. All we can say is enjoy it while you're young, healthy, bright, and eager. These are likely to be some of the best times of your life, and they are likely to define who you are in the future. Congratulations again, and best wishes in all your future endeavors!

Love always,
Uncle Rick, Aunt Heidi, Nate, and Will

Dear Max,
You have been a joy from the first time I met you. I am very proud to call you my grandson.

To a "Grand" grandson:
As you celebrate this graduation
And move ahead with your education,
May the game of life be filled with fun
And each "at-bat" bring a new Home Run.
So look ahead to each new inning.

Love,
Grandpa

To my Cousin Max:
Congratulations on finishing high school! I hope you go to college in Indiana, so we can see you more.

Love,
Katy

Wow... how did you grow up so fast??? It seems like only yesterday I was visiting my adorable blonde nephew in England, chasing him around the dining room table in his little plastic car, while he took umpteen trips to "the commissary, in the Honda, to buy eggs." You were such a sweet little boy, and a joy to be around. Although I wish we could have spent more time together throughout these past 18 years, the distance made our times together all the more special! Your Senior year will be something you look back on for the rest of your life, with lots of happy memories of long-time friends; teachers who helped shape who you are; and great after-school activities, both on and off the soccer field! In the next few months, your whole world will get a lot bigger; as you take your first huge step towards manhood by leaving home to start college. Your U.S. family will all be glad to have you on this side of the "big pond" for a while. Your graduation marks the beginning of a great adventure, Max. Congratulations---I couldn't be more proud of you! Wherever life's journeys take you, I wish you a safe voyage, great companionship, and smooth waters.

Love Always,
Aunt Laurie

Max--
Congratulations on graduating high school. Good luck with the next phase of your life, and may you always be blessed with tailwinds!

Symone January

Symone,

You have really made life very stressful at times, interesting most of the time, and a blessing majority of the time. We will tell you what we have always said, give your best in all you do and don't ever give up.

Don't be deceived, and don't deceive, speak the truth and expect the truth. You are a very special and loving daughter that we are so proud of. Put your faith in God, and follow his example, treat people as you want to be treated.

Keep in mind that life won't always be easy and friends won't always be who you think they are, but always use the gift God has given you and that is your brain and common sense. Remember that by observing the people you surround yourself with will teach you what you need to know about them. Their actions from a distance and what comes out of their mouth says a great deal about their character.

Be careful who you chose as a friend and your mate. And remember that what's always presented by folks isn't always who they really are. We love you with all our heart and wish you many successes in life. We will always be here for you.

Love,

Dad & Mom

Codie Kendrick

My Son,

I am extremely proud of the man that you have become and I know that you will continue to strengthen the qualities that make you special. The abilities to be the best at anything you set your mind to are within you. Draw upon them to reach the goals you have set for yourself and you will not fail. I pray that God fills your life with happiness and your heart with love.

Dad

Codie, It has been a pleasure to watch you grow from my baby boy to my little man. To see the many faces of you and the changes of your personality have been exciting. I now watch you grow and become a man. As you prepare to move on to the next phase in your life, I wish you luck and many prayers. Your strength and faith will see you to your next adventure, remember the road may be bumpy but God and your family will always be there. I love you son and am so very proud of you.

Madisyn,
Thank you so much for being the best military brat of all. Your hometown ins nowhere, your friends are everywhere and home is where the Air Force sends us. You've attended too many schools in too many countries and never complained as long as we were together. You've seen the sunset California's beach, the sunrise of Australia's outback, and the alligator infestation of Georgia. You can hail a cab in London, order schnitzel in Germany and tolerate international date line travel like a pro. Our deployments were hard on you but you handled it all with your love, grace and wisdom beyond your years. You are our best military brat and we love you for all the sacrifices you made for us.

You are beautiful, intelligent young lady with a strong drive and determination. You have struggled through American High School with the English language and I am so proud of you for hanging in there to graduate! You have so much artistic talent and if you continue to believe in yourself you will succeed at anything you attempt. I wish you health, happiness and above all love for you in your future. I am so thankful to have you in my life! I love you very much and I will always be there for you.

Sarah Megan Heinrich

Dear Sarah,
 We are very proud and happy for you that you have accomplished this first step into a new life. But be aware that life is like a big mountain that needs to be climbed. From the first hill that you now look up to the big mountain ahead of you, you must set your goal. Look forward and be positive and you will get to the point your goal is set at. There will be cliffs and valleys that try to stop you. Just look around and you will see helping hands reaching out for you. Don't push them away or ignore them just because they can't give you exactly the help you expect. Take it and let us help you as much as we can. Most of the time we can only push-start you and you have to keep climbing (makes us think of your license!). It will be all up to you! We love you and wish you all the best for your future. Love Dad, And Brigit.

Young woman, my daughter,
my joy and my heart.
You've reached the end
only to find a new start.
The world sees the young woman
with her charm and her smile,
but behind the woman,
I will always see the child.
Love,
Mom and Dad

Alex Hansen

She puts this veil at first and it's hard to get to know her, but once all of that is gone, she is an amazing person. When you get to know a person like Alex as well as I know her, you know you have done something right. There aren't a whole lot of people in this world that you can count on and will never break a promise, but you, of course you and Alex is all of this and a lot more. She is hands down the sweetest girl I know. I love you Alex, you are such an amazing person and don't ever let anyone tell you otherwise.
Love Always,
Dad 2008

I love you all!

Best Memorable moment in music

When Taylor was giving her acceptance speech on stage, Kanye ran up on stage, grabbed the microphone and said, "Yo Taylor. I'm really happy for you. I'ma let you finish but Beyonce had one of the best videos of all time. One of the best videos of all time!"

Kanye then shrugged his shoulders and walked off stage. Cameras panned for a reaction shot from Beyonce, who looked shocked.

Taylor stood there, stunned and speechless. The audience started to boo Kanye as he left the stage and started to cheer for Taylor.
