As always the yearbook is a challenge to finish on time. The first quarter of the year is mostly spent planning and the third quarter is where it all comes together. A few special members I want to commend are my editor, Bri and two fine layout and design artists, Stephanie and Charlene. Isaiah Williams was our main sports editor. It couldn't have been done without them. It's really a large joint effort with so many members contributing to all the details. The last few weeks before press time are the most demanding. As I tell the students, "I'll know every mistakes two hours after all the books are released". All in all, "the buck stops here".

Administration

"Kaiserslautern High School is a great place to be, and I appreciate the opportunity to work with the Kaiserslautern district and school administration and with the KHS faculty to serve this school's students, parents and larger community."
- Mr. Dana Francis, Vice Principal

"Each year I believe Kaiserslautern High School students will achieve more, become better citizens of our global community, and strive for new levels of excellence. Happily, each year YOU prove me correct. Thanks to our collective school community of faculty, staff, and parents, we help young men and women develop, mature, and grow. It is the RAIDER SPIRIT and PRIDE that continues to stand out in each of you that make me proud to be principal of this amazing school."

A young girl with dark hair and glasses, wearing a red shirt, is smiling and holding a stack of papers. She is standing in front of a display table that has various items on it, including a book titled "THE WIND" and some small figurines. The background shows a classroom setting with a bulletin board and a window.

A photograph showing three individuals in a classroom or office setting. In the foreground, a woman is looking at a laptop screen. Behind her, another woman is also looking at the screen. To the left, a man is partially visible. A speech bubble originates from the woman in the background, containing the text "CSI_SIP CSI_SIP_CSI_ ZZZZZZZZZZ zzzzzz".

A photograph of a man with a beard, wearing a Santa hat and a red and white patterned shirt. He has green face paint on his face and is pointing directly at the camera. The photo is tilted and has a white border.

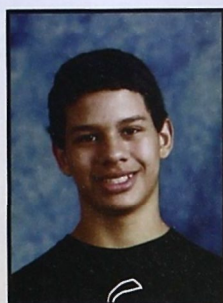

A man with dark hair and glasses, wearing a red polo shirt, is seen from the back, looking towards a whiteboard in a classroom setting. He is holding a small object in his right hand. The whiteboard has some faint writing on it. In the foreground, the back of a person's head wearing a red and yellow striped cap is visible.

A photograph of two young people, a Black male and a white female, standing side-by-side against a dark, textured background. The male is wearing a dark hoodie and the female is wearing a purple sweatshirt with 'PINK' written on it.

My Beautiful Angel,

"18 years have come and gone, for Momma they flew by..."
Words cannot describe how proud I am of you today. You have grown into such a wonderful young woman. There is no doubt you will be the world's best little nurse ever! May all of your dreams come true; as mine did the day you were born. Stay true to yourself as you venture out into this big world. Keep the faith and hold close the bond that only a mother and daughter can have, a bond like ours can never be broken. You are absolutely the most beautiful daughter a mother could ask for, and you truly are a real life Princess. "I know I had the best days with you." I love you so much my precious Angel...fish.
Momma

Hannah Hargis

Schwester,

I wanted to thank-you for always being there for me, especially when Mom was deployed. I will miss you more than you can imagine. Oh, here is something to remember me by (I thought this was funny because you are becoming a nurse); useless factoid #132-Goats have rectangular pupils! Remember I love you and always will.

Love,
Your Bruder, Sam

My Dear Princess:
I think we have been through it all in the last 18 years. We survived mom being deployed. We survived dropping everything and moving to Germany after 14 years of relative stability in Wisconsin. You survived being the only student in middle school in central Wisconsin who knew what the word "deployment" meant. Unlike so many of your friends in middle school, you did not have the luxury of growing up slowly and at your own pace. You had to grow overnight and learn a huge life lesson at such a young age. But somehow you managed it. Look how far we have come. Who could have imagined it? You will never know how proud I am of what you have accomplished with the opportunities you have been given. I know it is said so often that it has become cliché, but for you it is absolutely true: you have the world at your feet and you can do anything. I love you so much and you will always be my sweet princess and I will always be your "vater."
Love,
Daddy

There's always gonna be another mountain
You're always gonna wanna make it move
Always gonna be a uphill battle
Sometimes you're gonna have to lose
Ain't about how fast you get there
Ain't about what's waiting on the other side
It's the climb
You may not know it
But these are the moments that You're gonna remember most!
("The Climb" – Miley Cyrus)

"There is no better friend than a sister. And there is no better sister than you."
Erika, congratulations on your graduation! Way to make me look bad with a better GPA.
I love you, Amanda

Erika, my youngest dearest child, the time has come for you to spread your beautiful wings and make your dreams come true! I love you with all my heart and soul.
~Mom~

Erika Muñoz

I hope you never lose your sense of wonder
You get your fill to eat but always keep that hunger
May you never take one single breath for granted
God forbid love ever leave you empty-handed
I hope you still feel small when you stand beside the ocean
Whenever one door closes I hope one more opens Promise me that you'll give faith a fighting chance
And when you get the choice to sit it out or dance
I hope you dance
I hope you never fear those mountains in the distance
Never settle for the path of least resistance Living might mean taking chances but they're worth taking Lovin' might be a mistake but it's worth making Don't let some hell-bent heart leave you bitter
When you come close to selling out reconsider
Give the heavens above more than just a passing glance
And when you get the choice to sit it out or dance
I hope you dance
("I Hope You Dance" – Lee Ann Womack)

Young woman,
my daughter,
my joy and
my heart,
You've reached the end only to find a new start.

Work hard,
play hard!

The world sees the young woman
with her charm
and her smile,
but behind the woman, I will always see the child
Amanda Bradley

-and knows I'll always love you...

Amber,

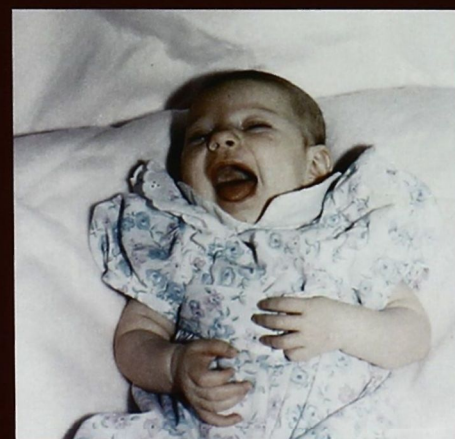

There comes a time in every woman's life when they realize how much power they have. As they grow & learn, if they pay close attention, they can use that power for the good that the world needs. But considering that we are talking about you, society is doomed. We only hope that you destroy the world quick and fast, instead of making us all suffer.

Congrats Amber,

A Mi Hija Con Amor...

Mi Monica, mi hija, mi amiga, mi corazon. Como explicarte, la emocion que me hiciste sentir, la primera vez que te senti en mi vientre. Supe enseguida, que ibas a ser una nina con un corazon muy grande, una nina de bien, una nina querida por todos que cruzaran tu camino. El hablar de ti me llena de tanto orgullo. Tu eres mi vida, mi primer amor. Juntas tuvimos momentos dificiles, pero el amor mutuo de madre e hija supero cada uno de esos momentos dificiles. No recuerdo haberte dicho esto antes, pero al verte y tenerte entre mi brazos aquel Domingo 19 de Junio de 1994, dio inicio a mi vida. Me diste fortaleza, me diste una razon para vivir y ser quien, hoy, soy. Mi princesa, te adoro con toda mi alma, y con todo mi corazon. Se que tienes un futuro muy brillante por delante, y una gran vida por descubrir. Recuerda siempre, que no tan solo soy tu madre, pero por siempre una amiga que te admira y que cuidara de ti por siempre. No importa que edad tengas, tu siempre seras mi primer bebe, mi pequenita Angel de La Guarda. Con todo mi amor!

Tu mami.

To My First Baby Girl,
It seems like yesterday when we used to play Tomb Raider together while we waited for your mom to come home from work. That sweet little girl who used to run around the house with Cinder #1 and laugh and play with that big beautiful smile. From the trips to the miniature golf course to the "drop the hammer" drives down the back roads of Clovis, New Mexico, I will forever remember my little baby girl: Monicaca! I am so proud of all that you have accomplished so far in your life from Presidential Awards to the simple things like living a "good girl" lifestyle. As you graduate this year and move on to adult situations and life, I am 100% confident that you will succeed and prosper. Your demanding and persistent drive to achieve your goals will serve you well in life and I hope I had a little to do with giving you those life traits. Always remember that your Dad will be looking out for what is best for you and will always be there for you in the future. I love you with all my heart and thank you for making this family that much more special!
All my love, Dad :)

For the past 17 years, we have had the pleasure of watching our son, grandson, and brother, grow up before our eyes. Having attended five schools in two countries, Chris is now about to enter the big time of college life. We could not be prouder of the choices you have made in your young life. Staying in Scouts with your brother, playing high school soccer, joining ROTC, traveling Europe, and playing in the church band, you have certainly made the most of your life experiences. We feel blessed to have you in our lives. We know you cannot wait to go off to college, but do so knowing that mom, dad, grandmother, and your brother, will miss you. Most importantly, go off into the world knowing we love you and that there will always be a place at home for you our Colombian Kid aka Peca Pooh. May God continue to bless you and watch over you.

Dear "Baby Girl",

I knew you long before I ever saw your face. And when I first held you in my arms, I fell in love. Some days I think I know you better than I know myself. I know the way your hair naturally falls. I know the shape of your eyebrows. I know the pink shade of your lips. I usually know what you're saying, even if no one else does. I know where your bruises are, and I know how you got many of them. I know that when you hurt your head that it feels better after you put your head to mine. I know the sound of your laugh better than I know my own. I know what helps you fall asleep. I know your tears and what they mean. Your singing always makes me smile. You have inspired me to keep going when I felt like giving up. You are my sunshine in the storm. Your surprise kisses brighten my heart. Some days I wish I could hold you and keep you from the world, in hopes of keeping you from heartache, but that would also keep you from many joys. You amaze me. You have taught me more about what unconditional love is. It's given me a firsthand glimmer of how God must have felt towards us. I am a better person because of you, so thank you. And sometimes when I look at you, especially when you're sleeping, I still see my little newborn baby.

Love Always, Mom

My Bubba,
They say it takes a village to raise a child. I didn't know it back in the day, but it has been one of my most rewarding duties. Mama says I used to hold you and say "My baby". I still feel that way now. It has been amazing to see the young man you have become and I am looking forward to seeing how your future unfolds. Enjoy this next chapter and learn all you can. I'll give you some advice Daddy gave me: Guard your heart. I love you more than words can express. And remember, we'll always have July '09.

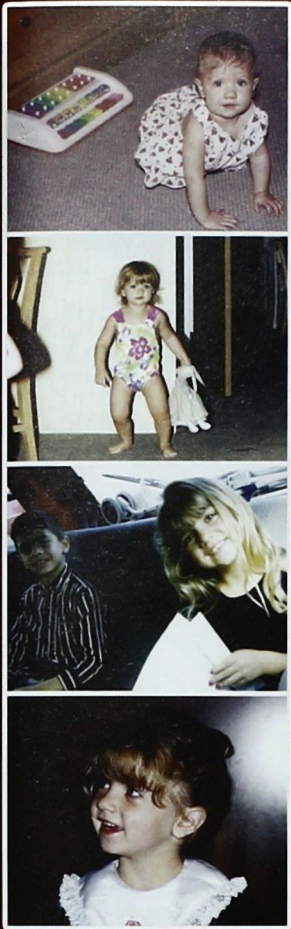

Love Always,
Your favorite sister

To My Favorite Son,
Time has flown by and you are almost off to college to embark upon the next phase of your education and life. It has been a pleasure helping and watching you develop; you have grown into a smart, handsome and profound young man. Keep God at the forefront of all your thoughts, words, deeds, and endeavors, leaning on him for all understanding; I know that you will do well and make your mom and me more proud than we already are. You have been an inspiration to your family and peers, as well as people in the local community; keep up the good work, stay focused and continue on your journey to become the great person that you are destined to be.

Elizabeth Scher

Dear Elizabeth Rose,

When you were born you were a determined little girl and not much has changed. You were our blonde, beautiful, little ladybug. You wouldn't really talk to us but spoke through your brother until you were about two, but once you started you made us look at the world in a different way. You always had a perspective on something that we hadn't thought of before. And you continue to do so. You had your awkward years but you never strayed from who you truly are. As you grew you found that your nurturing nature expanded from your family, to your dolls, to your classmates, then to your friends. And it has led you to select a path for your life using that as your guide. You will take who you are and what you've learned to make a difference in others lives.

Letting go of you is not easy. You are a great daughter and we are glad to also call you our friend. We have prepared you as much as we can for your new life. And we believe you are ready to take on that challenge and succeed beyond your wildest dreams. So as any ladybug that has been captured in our house for as long as we can remember.....we scoop you up in our hands, and we let you go!

Love you forever,
Mom and Dad
