Thomas Mack Wilhoite had a commendable Sultan football team for the '61 season. We were defeated by a 22 to 18 margin the first game, and the same holds true for the second match, this time by an 8 to 6 score. The Sultans came back battling to win the homecoming game with the final score 24 to 16. Fired by the homecoming game, the Sultans returned to Nouasseur, only to be defeated again by 12 to 8.

The flying Sultans were piloted by Stan Hall with the help of Larry Ray. Throughout the season, the boys gallantly represented Thomas Mack Wilhoite in enthusiasm, sportsmanship, appearance, and behavior.

BASKETBALL CANDIDS

After four hard-fought games with the Nouasseur Hellicats, Wilhoite's Sultans came out victoriously in three of the contests. This enabled them to win the trophy which is awarded after each basketball season. In addition to the games played with Nouasseur, the Sultans were in the intramural league here at Port, and they found themselves far from the bottom at the end of the season.

Glenn Goes!

Around the world three times in 4 hours and 56 minutes: this historic feat by Lt. Col. John H. Glenn, Jr., February 20, 1962, was followed by radio by an excited student body and faculty. U.S.I.S. provided the film of the epic flight for our viewing. We joined the world in cheering the history-making accomplishment.

Moroccan Friends

Ambassador Bonsal and the Pasha of Kenitra confer about the Pasha's good will trip to the States under a State Department leadership grant. The Pasha while in the United States enjoyed a varied sampling of American life, including Disneyland, a fire truck ride, schools, hospitals, factories, and farms. Upon return from the trip, the Pasha said that he found the States "Beyond my expectation."

A popular sport in Morocco is the fantasia, a game involving handsome horses and men brandishing guns which they shoot into the air upon galloping over the finish line. The above fantasia is being held in front of the Mosque of Moulay Abdallah at El Jadida.

Every Friday the colorful palace guard lines up for the traditional visit of the king to the mosque for prayer. These ceremonial parades are viewed by the public, and our students and faculty have been among the camera-clicking observers. The second picture shows the mosque where King Moulay Hassan II prays.

Here is your 1962 SULTAN. It represents the good times and the bad that we experienced in Morocco. Here you find the friends and teachers you knew at TMW. The SULTAN was designed with a definite Arabic influence in mind, because we have all certainly benefited from our stay in the host country.

We enjoyed working together to bring you the yearbook; and we hope that with the experience of this year's staff behind them, the editors of the 1963 SULTAN will raise the standard even higher.
