Foremord . . .

For centuries man has turned to the tarot to see the future—
Puzzled, he seeks the unknown.
Awed he gazes on a whirling modern world,
On a nation—on individuals—that have reached out with eager, groping hands to conquer the mysteries of space, inner/outer.

The tarot reflects phases of life.

We see these phases—faces—
personified
in the halls of Lajes High School.

The future is here, waiting,
no longer bound by the limits of earth.

June, 1969, proved that.

Therefore, we set our goals higher and higher—building new strength in body and mind, gaining new confidences and the power of knowledge to sustain our flight through life.

Persistently, we move forward into a new decade—our decade a coming of age.

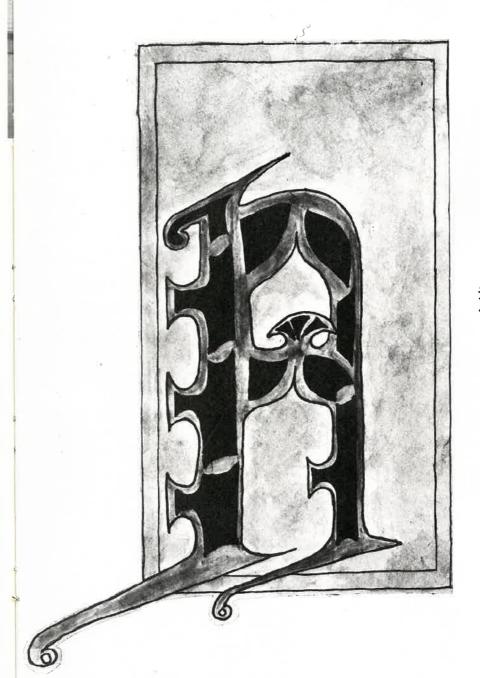

Suddenly, we realize that we are caught up in an intricate pattern of progress . .

THE SOARING 70's is ours.

THE MAGICIAN

The Magician is will, mastery, skill, occult wisdom, power, and diplomacy. He has the ability to take power from above and direct it through desire into manifestation.

THE STAR

An eight-pointed star radiates cosmic energy on the young girl. The maiden is eternal youth and beauty. She pours the Waters of Life into the pool of universal consciousness and onto the earth perpetual renewing creation. The bird is the soul resting in the tree of life.

nderclassmen

THE HERMIT

The hermit is alone on a snowy mountain peak far above the weary climbers below for whom he lights the way. His lantern is a six-pointed star, suggesting "Where I am, there you also may be." He is Absolute Wisdom, the goal of existence.

THE MOON

Imagination, intuition, dreams. A dog and a wolf are baying at the moon. The pool is the great deep of mind shift out of which emerges physical manifestation. The wolf is nature's untamed creation, while the dog is a product of adaptation to life with man. The upward progress of man is here symbolized; the moon signifies the reflected light of subconsciousness, the descent of the life-force from above into material existence.

THE CHARIOT

Both the carnal and the spiritual urges are under the strong control of the charioteer. He drives the chariot by the strength of his will. Conquest for the seeker will persist if he resists his lower promptings.

Symbol of the whole cycle of cosmic expression. The center of the pivot is the archetypal or thought world, the inner circle, creative; middle circle, formative; and the outer circle, the material world. The eight spokes represent the channels of universal radiant energy. The wheel is ever turning and typifies unchanging reality. That which was, is, and ever shall be.
