THE VOICE BEHIND THE MIME

Our lives are filled with happiness
Our lives are filled with sorrow.
We struggle with indecision
As we step into tomorrow.

Confusion as to where to turn
Our future we can't know.
Sharing one last smile and tear
Deciding where to go.

We clutch at lasting memories
We steal away from time.
We hurt inside and cry sometimes —
The voice behind the mime.

The voice behind the mime, you see
Is really how we feel.
We're filled with mixed emotions
Not expressed yet very real.

And in time of growing up
Of memories made of gold.
The face of the mime is not enough
Our act begins to fold.

The words come out, the voice is heard
We all see what we are.
We hug — we hold — we say goodbye
We move closer to our star.

Who left us oh, so suddenly.

Now, even in our most joyous day,

How very swiftly the Spring winds blow,
Which calls us without a sign.

May the memory of them join us
As we go forth in search of our destinies.

Gram urged us all to make each precious,

The 1983-84 Lajes High School Football Team performed with poise and determination throughout the season. Highlights included the quarterbacking of Scott Brooks. Brooks led the offensive team with a fine running combination of Tim Gibson and Verapong Daranai and also strong back-up of Pete Cooper and Steve Ross. The passing-receiving connection of Brooks to John Davis accounted for numerous long gains and touchdowns. Davis was selected Most Valuable Player for the season. He contributed by playing for safety on defense, wing-back, flanker on offense and also was a fine punter. He scored 24 touchdowns for the year. The defensive team was anchored by Allen Roby. He inspired a tough and never quit attitude for the defense. Defensive standouts were Bryan Caudill, Pat Lasley, Earl Davis, and Gene Bultren. Another highlight of the season was the teams' 20-6 victory over Communications Squadron Team 2 in the Homecoming game. The team had a 5-7 record.

BASKETBALL

The 1983-84 Lajes High School Varsity Men's Basketball Team was a spirited group of players. Returning starters were Simpy Grant, David Berglund, Scott Brooks, John Davis, Pat Lasley, and Steve Ross. New additions on the starting line-up were Reggie Johnson and Bobby Seymour. Hustle and determination were the key to the team. Patterned offensive plays and fast breaks kept the action going. Grant and Johnson supplied outside shooting with Davis supporting strong inside offense rebounding and scoring. Berglund was a valuable asset on offense and defense. The additional players who supplied support were: Jerry Franklin, Eric Lohmann, Robbie Windley, Ryan Field, and Pete Cooper.

The Women's Basketball team finished the season just in the black with a seven win six loss record. For a young team playing against seasoned players this record shows a lot of determination and hustle. The team fought hard to finish third in both league play and the end of the season tournament.

VOLLEYBALL

The Volleyball team this year was a small group made up of experienced players. They were challenged by a new coach, Ms. Jo Brei, who had a few new ideas on offensive plays. The season was exciting and productive, once the team became adept at using their new plays. The only drawbacks to the year were the injuries sustained by Ron Brown and Bryan Caudill, two of the team's starting players.

WOMEN'S

It was a great season for the Women's Volleyball team this year. With the experience of Mary Lou Selva, Stacy Davis, Lana Polous, Tawnie Reynolds, and Nesa Davis from last year, the help of the newer members, and Ms. Henke's coaching, they made it all the way to the base championship playoffs. A hard match against the Angra team, which they lost, brought them to second place for the season. They all did a super job, Congratulations!

The 1983-84 Drill Team consisted of ten members who devoted a lot of time and effort to the group. All of the girls worked hard to perform their routines of synchronized dance set to music at many of the football and basketball games. The leaders for most of this year were April Brosseau and Rhonda Boswell. The drill team would like to thank their sponsor, Liz Coleman, for devoting her time and effort to the team, they couldn't have done it without her.

CRYSTAL BALL

The Crystal Ball was sponsored by the Sophomores and was the second formal dance of the year. The theme song was "Candy Girl". The decorations reflected the theme because of the candy cane poles and the balloon lollipops. The dance was held in the Lisbon Room at the Officer's Club on the Friday before Christmas vacation. Brian Caudill assisted Alan Roby in producing a fine assortment of music.

SADIE HAWKINS

The Sadie Hawkins Dance gave everyone a chance to kick up their heels. The dance was held in September. At the dance the two most frequented areas besides the dance floor were the Hitchen' Post and the Jailhouse. Everyone relaxed and had lots of fun. The dance was sponsored by the Seniors and the proceeds were donated to the Junior Class.

COUNCIL

Mary Lou Selva - Secretary, Stacy Davis - Treasurer, Scott Brooks - Vice President, Ron Brown - President, Dr. Getz - Sponsor.

The Student Council is made up of students who are voted in to office by their respective classes. They meet as often as is needed to get things done. It is the Student Council which coordinates the activities of Spirit Week with Homecoming and with the Homecoming Dance. This year they helped the Student Store carry on the tradition of fixing a delicious turkey meal and bringing nicely wrapped presents to the girls at the Angra Orphanage. The Council also had two hamburger sales at the end of the year to raise money for their treasury. The Student Council did their best to serve the student body.

YEARBOOK STAFF

Work on the 1983-84 Falcon Yearbook got off to an incredibly bad start. Two months behind schedule, a sponsor, Mrs. Gaittens, and a starting staff of one, Nanette Kosht, were finally organized. They started to gather the bits and pieces of school life that become the yearbook. A larger staff was soon inducted to help with the work, but only a dedicated few like Sharon Milloy and Dawn LaMonte stayed on to help throughout the year. All the help that was given was appreciated. A special thanks is given to Mrs. Pat Hatcher, who drew the artwork for the cover and all the division pages, to Mrs. Nancy Wray, who took pictures with her own camera, and to all the other people who helped in one way or another with the making of this year's book.

STUDENT STORE

The Student Store, which is run by Mr. Ashby, had a great year. By selling everything from hotdogs, to candy bars, to cold sodas, the store made a lot of money. This money didn't sit around accumulating dust, however. Mr. Ashby and the student workers helped the Student Council give the girls in the Angra Orphanage a very merry Christmas. They also presented a gift of $500 in this Falcon Yearbook, and they awarded an unprecedented three $500 scholarships to Seniors Ron Brown, Tim Gibson, and Mary Lou Selva.

Mr. Ashby would agree that a lot of the store's success can be attributed to the student manager, Allen Roby. The Student Store workers and Lajes High School would like to say thank you and goodbye to Mr. Ashby who is moving to Rota, Spain, and Allen Roby who is going on to college.

FALCON'S QUEST

Laura Cook, Mrs. Brown - Advisor; Cassie Creamer

Although not as active as it once had been, the staff of "Falcon's Quest" (perhaps better known as "The Lajes High Times") put out one issue of the high school newspaper this year. It was very informative, and a lot of work went into the making of it.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The purpose of the National Honor Society is to recognize and promote outstanding achievement in high school students. Eligibility is determined first on the basis of scholarship, members having maintained at least a 3.0 grade point average out of a possible 4.0 throughout their high school years. Then, the qualities of character, leadership, and service to the school and community are considered. Selection is decided by the high school faculty. Each year, the new members are inducted in a traditional candlelighting ceremony.

CONCERT BAND

Bottom Row: Heidi Ramroth, Rhonda Boswell, Janna Bjerken, Beth Cox, Sharon Millay, Aaron Ramroth, Lois Lumley, Robin Taylor. Top Row: Mrs. Wray, Lisa O'Donnal, Trevor O'Donnal, David Rohe, Ray Jones, Sam Galer, Robert Hackersmith, Lia Hurcherson, Randy Boswell, Tod Messner, Wade Sawaya. Not Pictured Are: Gail Windle, Sandra Atkinson, Cindy Wren, Ron Atkinson, Nikki Rohe, Brad Simmons, Tim Gibson.

The LHS Music Department was very active performing for the school and community throughout the year. Wearing new outfits consisting of gold shirts and navy sweaters with white pants, the Concert Band and Chorus staged a fund raising concert in October as well as a formal Christmas and Spring Concert. The newly organized Stage Band entertained the student body on several occasions and also played for the students at Angra High School. A musical play, "Kings and Things", was presented by the chorus class in the springtime. It was a nice way to bring the busy year to a close.

HOST NATION

The 20 member Host Nation group, under the leadership of Ms. Maria Falcao-Toste, Mr. Frank Curry, and Mrs. Marilynn Mendes, spent the year exploring the island, visiting a high school, and a bakery. The final outing was a combined museum and the castle in Angra. About 50 students and guests visited the three Terceira Island caves which include Gruta do Natal near Biscoitos, Algar do Corvao near the golf course, and Furnas do Enxofre, where sulphur springs are located. At the Angra High School, the club members danced and introduced the American school's Pep Band.

COMPUTER CLUB

Dr. Getz - Adviser, Russell Rogers, Danny Getz, John Saurer, Shane Sims, Alex Holshouser, Richard Davis.

The Computer Club meets after school three times a week in the high school computer center, located in the office of the counselor. Students work independently on programs they write themselves or on ones which have been previously written. The 12-member club is open to all high school students with or without computer experience. Dr. Harvey Getz is the adviser.

DUNGEONS AND

Dungeons and Dragons is a game that uses strategy and a wild imagination. All that is needed is special dice, a character, and other members. Coach Perez was the sponsor.

DRAGONS

Co-Presidents: Heather Galer and David Rohe.
