been there every part of my life. When you need a shoulder to lean on you can always count on me. I give you memories of some of the happiest days of my life along with the hardest imes. I leave you with not only memories but also a future that is everything to me. You mean everything to me, I love you.

-Chris Day, my "bestest" buddy. I give you my everlasting bank of advice and an eternal supply of questions. Thank you for being right there beside me every step of the way and most of all thank you for watching out for me, even when it seemed as if I hated it. One day maybe you can be "Airmen of the Century."

-Szybist girls, you girls are the greatest! I have enjoyed watching you grow up. When we're together it's as if we're sisters. I leave you plenty of giggles, smiles, and tickles.

-To my fellow classmates I leave not only memories of past experiences but lunchtime talks in the hallway.

-To all, may we stay in touch when the time comes to go our separate ways.

Andre Lloyd

Dominique Dumas

Last Will and Testament of Dominique A. Dumas The words I want to leave behind here at LHS are the thanks and gratitude to my teachers, friends, and family. I want to tell my family I love them very much and thank them for being there for me, and also for keeping me on track with my school work. I want to thank my teachers for encouraging me to pass my tests and telling me to never give up. I would also like to say thank you to all my friends who accepted me for who I am and being there for me as well.

Last Will and Testament of Susana Paula Hammond

-Mom and Dad, I leave you with many bills:), lots of gray hairs, and my heart.

Thanks for putting up with me. -Andrew, thanks for always being there for me and for your great friendship, I leave you all the good times we've had.

-Paula, thanks for everything that you've done, I leave you my cell phone that you gave me for my birthday :).

-Christina, I leave you our friendship of course and all the fun times we've had at the bullfights... "Are you hungry?!" You know what I'm talking about. Thanks for everything! -Last but not least, there's Luis, I want to thank you for all the advice you've given to me about life and other stuff, but maybe it would have helped if I listened to what you said huh? Thanks!

-And to everyone else, all I have to say is enjoy life and high school while you can!

Sam's Advice to Underclassmen

"Could've," "should've," and "would've," all lost out to "did."

Know your enemies deadlines.

Be good friends with the counselor! You're really going to need him.

I hope that the trip will be really fun and a great place to aet to know students from other schools who share my interests. One good thing, besides drawing of course, is that my mommy will be right by my side...so she can buy me whatever I want and dad won't be there to stop her." Stephanie Stamper
