Right: "Class Clown" Becky Buijten "threatens" Gerald Smith and Sarah Garrett at Sarah's going away party. Becky was also voted by her classmates as "Best Dressed", while in addition to "Friendliest", Gerald was voted to have the "Most School Spirit". Sarah's list of accolades includes: "Friendliest", "Best Looking", "Most School Spirit", "Best Body", "Most Popular", "Most Likely to Succeed", and "Best All Around".

SENIOR SUPERLATIVES (mostly)

Above: "Most Talkative" Sandi Kowalski is momentarily quiet as she licks cake frosting off her finger, while "Class Flirt" Sheryl Browning appears to be doing an ad for Gatorade. Kevin Kimble isn't sure what to think of these antics. Kevin was voted "Most Popular", "Most Likely to Succeed", "Class Clown", "Class Flirt", "Most Talkative", and "Best All Around".

Above right: Sarah was a good sport after her classmates affectionately "caked" her at the conclusion of her farewell party in January. Sarah graduated mid-year and went off to school in Germany.

Above: Dean Newberry doesn't appear very shy here, yet his fellow seniors voted him "Shiest", "Most Talented", "Best Dressed", "Best Looking", and "Best Body". Julie Simon was voted "Most Talented" and "Most Athletic", while Amy Swift was declared "Shiest" among the senior girls.

JUNIORS

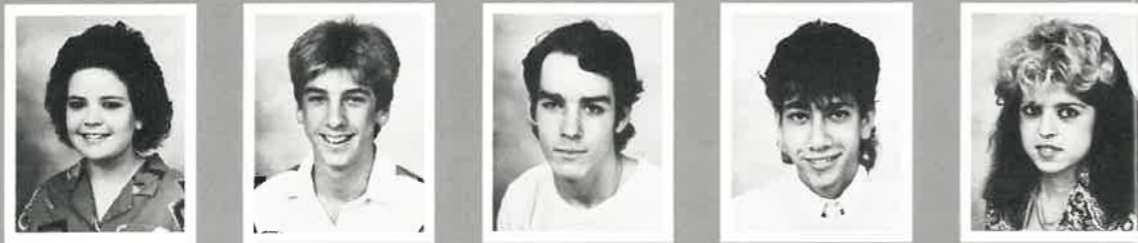

Only One More Year

Right: Voted by their junior classmates as "Most Likely to Succeed", Warren Caples and Patty Curry smile proudly. Smiling in the background are the "Shiest" juniors, Diana Jones and Jay Snell.
Below: Grady Kite helped with the lunch-time intramural program by refereeing floor hockey games.
Below Right: Kevin Metcalfe was dubbed "Class Flirt" and Mark Herberman "Most Athletic", while Laura Shank was selected as the female in both those categories.

Top Left: This quartet earned most of the accolades in the voting by their classmates. Amy Oleszek and Todd Hammonds were selected "Most Popular", "Best Looking", and "Best All Around". Amy was also voted "Best Body". Clint Lindsay and Becky Kite have the "Most School Spirit" and are "Most Talkative" according to their peers. Clint was also voted "Best Dressed" and "Best Body", while Class Vice-President Becky was tabbed "Friendliest" and "Class Clown".
Top Right: Close friends Nina Cassiba and Dawn Reilly added a flash of fun and color with their hair styles and dress.

FRESHMEN We Finally Made It To High School

You can tell that the students pictured on these pages are Freshmen — they don't appear to know how to do anything properly. Right: What are you girls doing in the boys' bathroom? Tasha Buijten, Kimi Sawaya, and Charm McCallum seem to have become lost on their way to representing the Class of '90 at a Student Council meeting.

Right Center: Bay Le was also a Student Council representative. Here she is seen taping a sucker to the inside of her locker?!

Extreme Right: These girls either thought they were linen or that this closet was a quadruple bunk bed. Tasha Buijten, Julie Harbison, Yvonne Caples, and Heather Mason (top to bottom) exhibit this strange behavior.

Above: Robert Thompson and Brandon Snowball need some training on how to go up (or down) the stairs.

FALCONS SPORTS

Sports at LHS are somewhat unique in that most competition is against military teams that are older (and usually stronger and more experienced) than our students. Despite this, we have a good sports program here and we enjoy participating. Some of the ingredients that make up the sports scene are pictured here: the fans, the huddles, support from the bench, and the Pep Squad. We hope you enjoy the moments in time captured on the following pages.

Part of education is learning social skills and working as a member of a team. Through organizations such as band, choir, student council, yearbook, and through such activities as freshmen initiation, door decorating contests, decorating for dances, and the dances themselves, these types of skills are learned. On these and the following pages we have tried to encapsulate some of this year's more memorable events. We hope you enjoy the memories.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Tynesia Tate and Aaron Speary were inducted into the Junior NHS last year, while Julie Simon was an inductee of the National Honor Society.

New members of the National Honor Society (below) are Veronica Davis, Cori Cummins, Laurie Bayne, and Sandi Kowalski. Theresa Davis, Jenniffer Guerts, Angela Davis, and Brad Tillman (below right) were selected as new members of the Junior National Honor Society.

STUDENT COUNCIL

BAND AND CHOIR

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

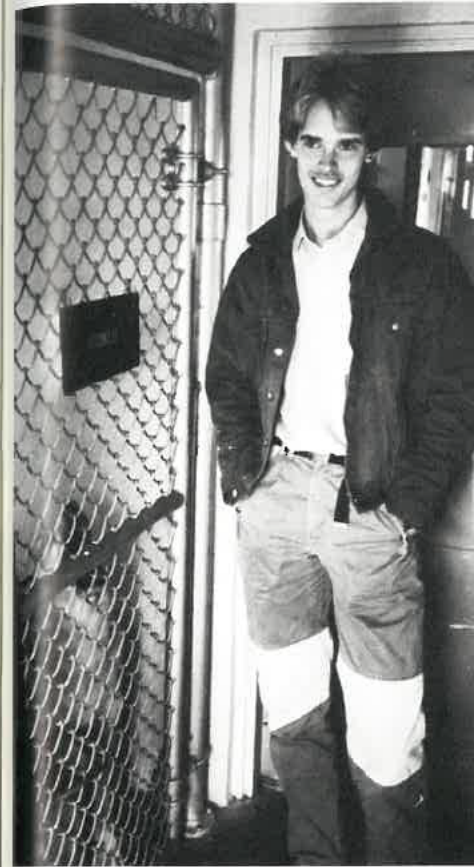

The month of February was celebrated base-wide as "Black History" month with several events involving LHS students. The assembly at the base theater was a great success with many students having an opportunity to display their talents. Also, celebrated earlier in the year was Hispanic Week, during which television personality Rene Enriquez from "Hill Street Blues" was a guest on-base for several days. Unfortunately, our cameras did not record any Hispanic Week events.

YEARBOOK AND NEWSPAPER

The Senior Slave Auction was a lot of fun and raised over $100 for the senior class. Below: Mr. Cummins auctions off Becky Buijten who commanded the highest bid for the auction. Right: Scott Dillon was the high bidder for the services of "Ski" Smith, and later (below right) had "Ski" dust off his shoe to the delight of his seventh grade classmates.

Left: Kevin Kimble is kept on short leash by Michelle Lumm as he "serves" in his laughable costume.

Opposite Page. Top: This happy group of juniors and freshmen has just seen a presentation by a group of Portuguese dancers at the Rec. Center. Right Center: Riding horses is one of the favorite pastimes of Monica Mason and Heather Skogerson. Bottom Right: "Sidewalk surfing" — another activity enjoyed by a large number of LHS students. Far Right: Mrs. Coyle takes to the "wearin' of the green" for St. Patty's Day.

THE LAST PAGE

Sarah Garrett

Sarah was the Yearbook editor until she graduated mid-year. Her picture did not appear in the Senior section for several reasons, but mostly because of her unselfishness. Thank you Sarah for all you contributed to this book.

Michelle Sharp

Michele came to us too late to be included in the Senior section. She contributed to a lot to the Senior Class and to the school. Thanks Michelle.

As complete novices to the production of a yearbook, we can now appreciate the effort that it takes. We learned a great deal this year. We hope the end result meets with your approval. We would like to thank all of those students who in any way were involved in the production of this book, filled with memories of the 1986-87 Lajes High School year. We would especially like to thank those listed below.
