Foreword

"To see a world in a grain of sand
And a heaven in a wild flower
Hold infinity in the palm of your hand
And eternity in an hour."

These are the intangibles for which we reach. To be able to visualize these beautiful and meaningful concepts in everyday events is to enjoy one of mankind's greatest gifts. They are a part of our challenge for the future, but they are also a part of the challenge we face today at Lajes.

We so often overlook or forget the exciting and wonderful parts of our school years - the minute of silence at the beginning of the day with the pledge of allegiance and spiritual guidance . . . the games we win . . . the exaltation in making that well-earned A . . . the school dances with their soft lights and softer music . . . for the Juniors, planning painstakingly for the Prom . . . and for the Seniors, that night when they take a big step forward on the road to eternity . . . These are the golden moments we should recall from our days here at Lajes.

It is the sincere hope of the annual staff of 1964 that this book will capture these memories so that many years from now, we will be able to look through the Taurus and fondly recreate what has been the special, the exciting, the important, the best of the days spent here. We give you this book as a tangible record of a year of memorable experiences. Perhaps you may then be able to "Hold infinity in the palm of your hand / And eternity in an hour."

Dedication

It is with respect and admiration that we, the annual staff, dedicate the Taurus of 1964 to Major Eugene B. LeBailly, a man whom we hold in the highest esteem. For his interest in Lajes Dependent School and the activities of its students; for his efforts to make Lajes a better place to work and play; for his guidance in our successful relations with the Portuguese; for his devotion to the ideals that have brought us to the Azores - for these qualities we shall always remain grateful.

The Taurus Staff of 1964, under the direction of Miss Barbara McGough, Miss Barbara Tyson, and Mrs. Mary Jane Ginty, has worked to publish a superior annual that will capture the spirit that was Lajes. The '64 yearbook is one to which the entire staff has contributed; photographers, class editors, section heads, editors, and sponsors have given the best of their skill and effort to the 1964 Taurus, one of the best annuals in L. H. S. history.

Displaying Character, Service, Leadership, and Scholarship under the guidance of Miss Curlee are (top to bottom) Tony Bower, President; and Jane Fountain, Secretary-Treasurer.

National Honor Society

Belonging to the National Honor Society of Lajes High is the highest honor a student can attain during his high school career. Not only must a student excel scholastically but he must also reveal high degrees of Character, Leadership, and have given his time and effort in Service to Lajes. Miss Mary Curlee, this year's sponsor, has maintained the society's high standards.

The membership at L. H. S. is small this year because of the rotation of many of its members, but the high quality of the remaining students more than makes up for their small number.

Office Staff

The office staff this year has been of invaluable help to the secretaries and at the same time has gained practical knowledge to be put to use in later life. Their assistance in the many little jobs that have to be done has gained them the gratitude of both the elementary and high school staffs.

Library Staff

The library staff assists the librarian in the details of keeping the Lajes library in its fine condition. They catalog and file incoming volumes and assist the students in checking out books. Their willingness to be of service to the school reveals character and industry.

Senior Play in Progress

Dirty Work at the Crossroads, a revised nineteenth-century melodrama by Bill Johnson, was the play chosen by the Senior class this year. Under the able direction of Miss Mary Welpton, they spent much of their time in long but enthusiastic rehearsal. The hours of hard work were more than enough compensation for the prospect of a successful production in the spring. Shown on this page are some lively samplings of the cast at work.

Above, Adam Oakhart (Tim Gette) has saved the beautiful Nellie Lovelace (Mary Mannie) from disgrace before the death of her widowed mother (Linda Eggink).

At Right, Mookie Maguggins (Tony Bower) takes his revenge on the terrible villain Munro Murgatroyd (Leo Drake) as Nellie Lovelace, Ida Rheingold (Debbe Stein), and Fleurette the French maid (Joan Kenally) look on.

Munro Muragatroyd literally bends the notorious Ida Rheingold to his will as Leonie Asterbilt (Edie Brusewitz) and Fleurette watch in complete horror.

Bob Gurley learns charcoal technique from Miss Barbara Tyson, Art Director.

Art Activity

Due to a rather large student demand this year, art classes were divided into three terms. The boys' and girls' classes, alternating with chorus classes, were conducted strictly on a voluntary basis. Besides drawing and painting, the art program consisted of a variety of projects, including mosaic reproductions at Christmas-time, gift wrapping, and posters.

Boys' art class learns to combine pen and water color.

Tuesday-Thursday art class concentrates on required art projects.

The officers of F. H. Determination and Spirit

The LHS basketball team this year showed spirit and determination at all times even though the odds were heavily stacked against them. The squad, youngest in the school's history, was certainly one which the school took great pride in. Although the scoring record was not as outstanding as in previous years, the squad left behind them a string of victories not registered in the won-lost column. These were victories in personal accomplishments, improved physical skills and stronger moral determination and integrity—which were far more important than the final score on the scoreboard.

Cheerleaders Perform

At L.H.S. during this past year the cheerleaders have worked to instill in the students the sportsmanship needed to support the team in victory or defeat. Under the watchful guidance of Miss Mary Welpton, the cheerleaders' spirit and zeal never lagged even when the odds were against the team. Because of their long hours of practice and hard work, they have become recognized as superior cheerleaders in Lajes's history.

The 1963-64 cheerleading squad is, from top to bottom, Debbe Stein; Sherry Gaddy; Joanie Keneally, captain; Pat Payne; and Cathey Anderton.

G.A.A. Promotes

The Girls' Athletic Association, under the able direction of Miss Mary Welpton, offers a wide variety of athletic activities to high school girls. The program emphasizes basketball, volleyball, and badminton. Having many enthusiastic and highly competitive games in all activities, G.A.A. offers an excellent opportunity to have fun, to display sportsmanship, and to develop physical ability.

A smile and a helping hand is characteristic of Miss Mary Welpton.

G.A.A. officers Judy Mancuso, Secretary-Treasurer; Sherry Gaddy, Vice-President; Debbie Stein, President; and Louise Pinon, Intramural Manager, display the variety of sports available to members.

BREAK, BREAK, BREAK
by Alfred, Lord Tennyson

Break, break, break,
On thy cold gray stones, O Sea!
And I would that my tongue could utter
The thoughts that arise in me.
Oh, well for the fisherman's boy,
That he shouts with his sister at play!
Oh, well for the sailor lad,
That he sings in his boat on the bay!
And the stately ships go on
To their haven under the hill;
But oh, for the touch of a vanished hand,
And the sound of a voice that is still!
Break, break, break,
At the foot of thy crags, O Sea!
But the tender grace of a day that is dead
Will never come back to me.
