Understanding

Has Prevailed This Year . . .  Our Hopes and Aspirations Are:

. . . Where there is hatred Let us sow Love;
Where there is doubt, faith; Where there is despair, hope; Where there is darkness, light;
Where there is sadness, joy . .
Saint Francis of Assisi

To Mrs. Sarah Hacket

For her personal concern in each student, her energetic spirit, her high regard for principles, and her untiring efforts for the entire school system.

To Mr. Pinky Hacket

For his devotion and loyalty, his endless hours of service, his cheering, comforting words, and his quiet wisdom.

To Mrs. Louise Sweetman

For her interest in youth, her guiding example, her ever constant patience, and her willingness to give.

Happily, but with reminescence, we walk to our long-awaited goal, the diploma.
We are engulfed by flashing memories.
Our struggles, despairs, and frustrations seem so insignificant when the cherished moments of joys, smiles, and triumphs are reflected among us.
We appreciate the thoughtfulness of all who have extended their time and patience to help us reach this moment:
Our high school graduation.

LAURELS AND RASPBERRIES

A laurel to the girls in the front row with the cute knees.

A raspberry to the frowning staff members.

A laurel to the gorgeous and energetic sponsor.

A laurel to our modest and capable editor.

A raspberry to Padilla. Were you supposed to be in the picture?

The most sincere laurel of the year comes from the CUMBRES staff to the RECUERDOS staff for being numero uno!!!

The most deserving laurel to the Jr. high staff members for having to tolerate the so called brainy seniors.

A raspberry to each CUMBRES staff member who skipped 4th period to have his picture taken and does not appear in the picture. (see the clock!)
