FACES AND

PLACES AT RJHS

Students are photographed at many places. You may find some in the halls during change of class. You may see them crossing the street to meet for class in one of the portable rooms. Everyone remembers lunch served in the tent. All have visited the library. The campus brims with over 700 students for the 1995-1996 school year.

DOIN' THE SCHOOL THING

Students at Ramstein Junior High take time between classes to share a few minutes with friends. When the cameras are out, everyone seems to find time to join in for a GROUP PICTURE! Good friends and good times make learning fun at RJHS.

USSIAN EXCHANGE

The RUSSIAN EXCHANGE CLUB sponsors guests from Ivanovo, Russia in the early part of the school year. The visiting students participate in swimming parties, study trips, a Thanksgiving dinner, and a variety of other activities. The Russian exchange students, in turn, perform for the Ramstein Junior High students. In May members of the Russian Exchange Club return the visit and see the many sights of Moscow and St. Petersburg during the week stay in Russia.

MATHCOUNTS

MATHCOUNTS is an after school group of seventh and eighth graders who compete against other Mathcounts chapters in local, regional and national competition. The students brush up on their math skills on Tuesdays after school under the direction of Ms. Bedard and Ms. Nelson.

SERENDIPITY CLUB

Matthew Ng, Mrs. DeHaas, Bret McGowan Group Leaders

Serendipity is a Christian Bible study group that meets Wednesdays in Mrs. de Haas' room. The word serendipity according to Franklin's dictionary, means "good luck in finding things not sought for." This is exactly what our goal is every single Wednesday - looking through the Bible studying it, interpreting it, and then learning something new and exciting that we didn't expect. During each meeting, we start off by playing a game, which is usually followed by a passage of scripture being read. Sometimes we have a skit or some sort of talent art being presented. We usually end with a prayer to God the father. During this school year, we hope to find ways of spreading the good news of Jesus to the people around us, and to also participate in projects that may benefit our community.

ASSASASASA

U B

Drama Club is composed of students who choose to participate in any extra-curricular drama activities. This year they starred in a video on BUS SAFETY. The video was sent by the transportation office to all DODDS schools in Europe. They also performed at the Ramstein Base Library for STORY HOUR. Additionally, they performed at the DODDS and Regional SDEECH AND DRAMA FESTIVALS.

EUROCLUB

EUROCLUB - As its name indicates, the purpose of the club is to give students an opportunity to travel throughout Europe. For the last several years our main trip has been to Costa Brava, Spain. We have visited the Salvador Dali Museum, the monastery of Montserrat, and the city of Barcelona. Students have had an excellent chance to practice their Spanish and to enjoy the sights. We have also taken other trips - to Austria, Hamburg, Strassbourg, and Luxembourg to name a few. Students gain money points toward trips by sponsoring dances and selling food on Wednesdays.

Conservation Club Wins First Place in Ramstein Recreation Center Trim the Tree Content.

For the second consecutive year in a row, Ramstein Junior High School's Conservation Club won first place in the Ramstein Recreation Center Trim the Tree Contest. The theme of the Conservation Club Tree was: "State Tree". The decorations were hand sewn hearts with each of the 50 state outlines and names stitched into them by club member Robyn Hornick and Mrs. Hornick. Robyn and her mother also made ribbon festooned coasters with the 50 state emblems glued to them that were then colored by Michelle Stench, Mike Mayo, Stephanie Cruz, Joel Phillips, Robyn and Tasra Hornick.

Mrs. Phillips, Adult Friends of Mrs. Phillips and Mrs. Lorenz along with student club members put the lights on the tree and put the student made decorations on the tree. Ribbons with each state's outline, flags, flower, and bird colored and cut out by club members were glued to them were draped vertically from the top of the tree.

Packages wrapped in state maps decorated with state trees, products, and landmarks were arranged under the tree on a large USA map that students had decorated with state birds. flowers and tree. Jason Washignton's idea of wrapping the packages with maps was clever and original. Nurbert Hughes, Jeffery Clonch, Krista Schmacher, Kristy Barefoot, Kelly Paavola and many other club members worked long hours designing, coloring and cutting out Christmas tree decorations for the club tree.

The $500 first place prize money will be spent adopting rainforest land, adopting endangered species such as whales and gorillas and buying trees, flowering shrubs, and roses for planting on the Ramstein Junior High School campus this spring on Arbor Day/Earth Day, April 22, 1996.

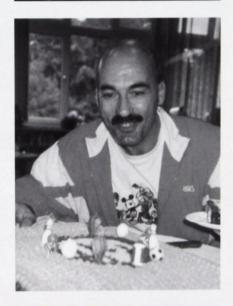

Sincerely, Robert J. Lorenz Conservation Club Sponsor

Remember

Remember all the good times we've had all year long, some were good and some were sad love songs.

You've made new friends and lost some too! Just remember that they will always be with you.

Remember all the things you've done during the years, all the memories bring back so many tears.

Remember when you sat in your room and dreamed of being with your loved one, but not being seen!

The years have been great filled with love and an occasional embrace, If you lost that love you had, someone's there just incase.

Remember the years with all the happiness and love; it feels like you're flying through the sky like a dove.

Remember me and I'll remember you, fust one last message, Remember that I'll always love you."

The Fire Hydrant (Part 1) See Spot run. Spot is having fun. > Spot saw a fire hydrant, so he decided he had to go! The Fire Hydrant II (Part 2) See Spot fall. Spot is having a ball. A fire hydrant is near the malls. So Spot opes because nature Calls. I think these poems will be popular someday. What do you think? By: The One +Only, Michelle Na

Hey cus, You know its Kinda Weire if we call eachother "cus", but then we have the same mother, ! the He Hee. I guess that's O.K. Since we are weird anyway. I am SD happy your my friend. You're the only person who I haven't had a "poroblem" (mad, argument, annoying) alle year long. You Altroyal throw great parties and L'inda funny 400 In Dappy I ive been your friend and that ce can De your friend next year too. (I hope !)
