RECOLLECTIONS

[1901]

As we call back to mind something temporarily forgotten, we again collect what has been scattered in the back of our minds.

We try to recollect and hold in our minds the most memorable moments of our city, of our people, of our school, and of ourselves.

The City . . .

Berlin . . .

A city vibrant and alive,
Yet a City of history.
For years Berlin
Has been the attention
center of the world,
Constantly changing.
The city itself represents a contrast between past and present.

The facades of old buildings dashing with skyscrapers of today
But in the end balancing.
To be alive,
Like all cities,
Berlin must possess a life-
blood . . .

The People . . .

The Berliners are of a special breed,
A people well versed in the meaning of the word freedom.
The variety of Berliners,
Contrast, but balance.

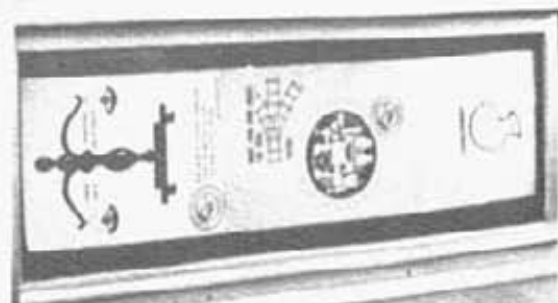

Give the city an extra glow.
As the city has grown, so
have the people,
Struggling to preserve what is rightfully theirs.

The School . . .

COOPERATIVE
EXPERIENCE

Like the city of Berlin, the high school has gone through numerous changes. In 1946, the school was founded in Dahlem.

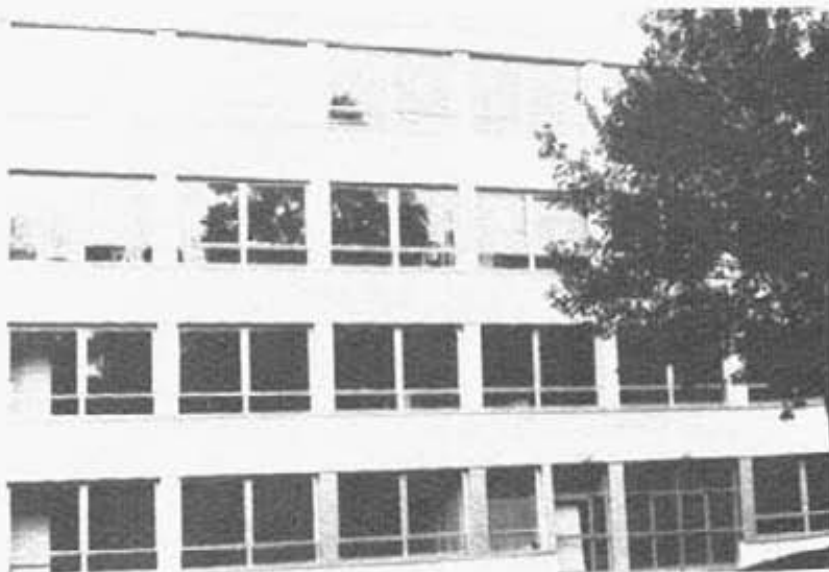

4 HIGH SCHOOL

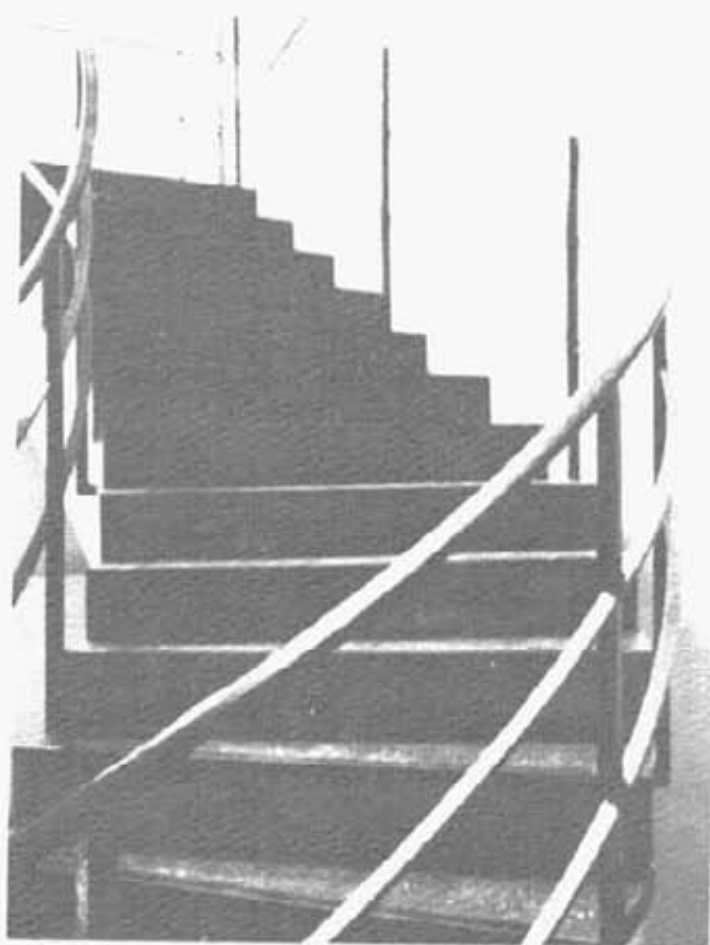

The Thomas A. Roberts School housed grades 1-12 from 1953-1964. In 1964, the present high school was built, where additions and improvements are always in the works.

SENIORS

Carl Adams

There is a lot to be learned about life, and not enough time to learn it all, but with the help of the close friends and family I have, one could learn a lot, like I have!

Curtis Adkins

Those who live for pleasure are the ones who get less pleasure out of life.

Jeffery Alexander

Success is more attitude than aptitude.

We drown our doubts, in dry champagne and sooth our souls with fine cocaine. I wonder why we even care, we will get so high and get nowhere. We know it's just a passing faze, but I have loved these days.

Kathy Balthasar

Yesterday is already a dream, and tomorrow is only a vision, but today, well-lived, makes every yesterday a dream of happiness, and every tomorrow a vision of hope.

James Batchelder

A paper-clip is a small object . . . But it holds together important things now and then. People sometimes feel small and unimportant, but together we hold together the world.

Gerry Beck

Coming together is beginning.
Keeping together is progress.
Working together is success.

Robert Bell

Do a little more each day than expected of you . . . And soon everyone will expect a little more.

Pam Corder

Today is the tomorrow you were worrying about yesterday.

Kathy Crawford

Life is easier than you think. All you have to do is accept the impossible, do without the indispensable and bear the intolerable and be able to smile at anything.

John Dillon

"I am basically a free spirit. I let myself be taken by the wind and I live to the fullest. Remember to live is to love, so live large and fully."

Eric Engrectson

"I'd hate this to get out but I really like opera."

Jimmie Estep

For those of you who follow your dreams, I have hope. For those of you that know the difference between reality and dreams I have esteem. And for those of you that turn your dreams into reality I have respect.

Mark Foster

To act is easy, but to think is hard.

Jeri Gibson

Solitude is peace of mind that comes from within. It is a quiet seclusion that calms the soul. It is a time of silence and contemplation . . . it's a drag.

Thomas Graham

Now comes the ultimate challenge for which I have been trained these past twelve years. To withstand the obstacles of life I must stand strong. I am prepared to meet this challenge!

BAHS Celebrates Spirit Week

This year, within the week of October fourteenth through the seventeenth, Berlin prepared itself for Homecoming with a week of spirit-raising games and events, showing the zany sides of a number of previously-sane people.

On Tuesday, the seventh and eighth grades sponsored "Hat and Sock Day", where students were decked out in crazy hats and wacky socks.

Wednesday was a spirit-packed day. Not only did the Freshmen and Sophomores sponsor "Career Day", but later that afternoon, there was a pep rally on the football field. Students and teachers took part in a sack race, a jello-eating contest, a tug o' war, and a memorial for a dead "Ruc".

The Juniors sponsored Thursday's "Backwards Day". Students dressed back to front (or front to back) and made for a very interesting situation.

Friday was the Senior-sponsored "Maroon & White Day" and our school colors could be seen all over the BAHS campus.

But the highlight of Spirit Week came with the annual Powder Puff football game. There the Junior-Freshmen girls defeated the Senior-Sophomore team, while sideline entertainment by the "girls" was well-provided.

1980 Homecoming at Berlin

The theme for the 1980 Homecoming was the 1920's "Come to the Cabaret".

The night before the Homecoming game, the Baumholder Buc was burned in the "Bear Inferno" at the bonfire. The following morning, Berlin High had a beautiful Homecoming parade. The sponsors of the parade were our own Miss Recucki, and band director, Miss Risner.

During the halftime of the Homecoming game came the coronation, where Lynne Schenkelberger was crowned the 1980-81 Homecoming Queen.

The Homecoming dance was held at Berlin's newly-opened Club Checkpoint. A delicious buffet dinner was served. The music was furnished by an AFN disc jockey, to contribute to the enjoyment of all who attended the dance.

Rally Raises Voting Enthusiasm

As 1980 was the big year for elections, BAHS held its own mock-up of the festivities on November 3rd. Outstanding performances were shown by the student representatives of each of the candidates. Mark Foster posed as Jimmy Carter himself, with Eric Engbretson portraying his supporter, Ted Kennedy. Tim Beech also spoke for Carter, while Joan Chartier and April Coffin announced their opinions in support of Gus Hall. Steve McDonald and Mark South represented Ronald Reagan, and Paul South and Kim Rajzek spoke for Barry Commoner and John Anderson, respectively. Martha Andrews led the way as Chairperson. Mrs. Payne and the chorus and Miss Risner and the advanced band added to the festivities with their musical contributions.

Berlin Applauds Tom Sawyer

The pages of a Mark Twain classic came to life when students and teachers from BAHS took part in the MSAD production of The Adventures of Tom Sawyer. The play was presented at Andrews Theater on Nov. 7th, 8th, and 9th, and Berlin audiences enjoyed watching Tom's exploits. Those who worked on the play were: Mr. Conway, director, Miss Risner, lighting director, Bryan Couchman (Tom Sawyer), Miss VanGelder (Aunt Polly), Robert Rettie (Sid Sawyer), Mark South (Huck Finn), Shawn Vorrath (Widow Douglas), Glenn Rielly (Injun Joe), Brandee Blewett (Becky Thatcher), David Major (Joe Harper), John Bell (Walter Potter), Elizabeth Wood (Mary Rogers), J. C. Schenkelberger (Amy Lawrence), Connie Duncan (Mrs. Harper), and Brooke Krempel (Mrs. Thatcher).

BAHS Holds Assembly in Honor: Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

BAHS commemorated Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s birthday this year like never before. On January 15th, 1981, a special assembly was held in his honor. Eric Edwards and Trisha Lindsey posed respectively as Master and Mistress of Ceremonies. With a special, added touch by the Interfaith Choir, Mrs. Payne led the chorus in appropriate selections, and opera singer Charles Williams honored the school with his participation. Dr. Jack was more than proud to lead the assembly with a motivating speech to get the school ready for the activities of Black History Month, February 1981.

Student Delegates Attend M.U.N.

In January, members of the Educational Trip Club went to the Model United Nations in the Hague. The club represented two countries, Egypt and Guinea Bissau, and the students who participated got a chance to practice world decision-making. The sponsors of this trip were Mr. Bluem and Mrs. South, and these students attended: Don Stovall, Jeff Alexander, Mark Nelson, and Tony Nelson (Egypt); Mark Lewis, Mark Bans, Kim Jackson, Connie Briniger, and Sharon Sams (Guinea Bissau).

Student Actors Present

Neil Simon's comedy Plaza Suite came to Berlin this year. This, the Drama Club's major production, was directed by John Pinschmidt, and was presented at Andrews Theater Center on Jan 30th and 31st and Feb. 1st. The technical director, Pete Goodwin, and his assistant, Ric Strange, led the tech crew, which consisted of: lighting director Jay Michalsky, sound director Ray Jurray, properties managers Elizabeth Wood, Birgit Zander, Cheryl Dearing, and Michelle Barsh, and Delores Threatt, who made the wedding dress for Act Three.

Neil Simon's Plaza Suite

In Act One, Sam Nash (Vincente Lingner) and his wife Karen (Martha Andrews) arrive at the same hotel suite in which they spent their honeymoon, twenty-three (or was it twenty-four?) years ago today (or tomorrow). Sam, a business executive, has lately spent more time at the office and Karen's fears of a failing marriage increase when she sees his secretary Jean McCormick (Carrie Huml), whose life is centered around the office — and Sam. Ending on a somber note, the scene is laced with comedy with the help of the waiter (John Bell).

Act Two adds spice to the production as Hollywood "big" Jesse Kiplinger (Vincente Lingner) entertains a high school sweetheart in Suite 719. Crossed in marriage, he decided to find the last of the decent women; he invites Muriel Tate (Robin McDonald) to his hotel room. She arrives, over-awed at him, but wary, telling of her happy marriage and no interest in fooling around. They talk and we learn Hollywood has jaded him and her life is not as she claims. With the help of vodka, she is then coaxed into staying longer than expected...

In Act Three, Suite 719 is for the third time the critical room as Mimsey (Lola Cervantes) with cold feet on her wedding day waits out the ceremony in the bathroom. Parents Roy (Tom Hesse) and Norma (Suzanne Wood) have little time to get her out and are frantic. In a series of attempts, Roy gets bruised, broken, and drenched. Finally we find out why she is so apprehensive, afraid her marriage will go the route of her parents' constant fights. They give up and send for fiancé Borden (Scott Koon) who in a surprise move saves the day.

SPORTS

Soccer Team Kicks Up Its Heels

The 1979-80 soccer team was composed of all underclassmen. Led by coach George Pepoy, the team ended its season with a 1-5 record.

Although they had only one victory, there were some who showed outstanding, individual talent on the team. Fullback Scott Cheetham was the only member of the team to make all-conference. Other nominees included Tom Graham, a fullback, and Tony Nelson, a halfback.

Even though the losses outnumbered the wins, much experience was gained and coach Pepoy felt that the 1980-81 season would be a winning one for the BHS soccer team.

The 1979-1980 tennis team, under coach Ms. Barlow, performed very well. With a 5-1 record, they placed first in their district. The boys' team retained a very close ladder throughout the season and remained undefeated.

The top 3 players of each team travelled to Wiesbaden for tournaments. The top showing was made by Richard Clarke and Irvin Hicks in doubles competition, who placed second in Germany.

If anyone at BAHS has supported the fall and spring sports, it would definitely have to be our cheerleaders. The cheerleaders were divided into varsity and junior varsity squads for the fall sports, and came together as one squad for the spring sports.

Even though there were many changes in the squads this year, our cheerleaders were at all of our school sports events supporting our outstanding athletes. They also did an outstanding job raising the school spirit at the pep rallies.

Mrs. Lewis and Mrs. Williams sponsored the varsity and junior varsity squads this year. Under their leadership and encouragement this year's squad was the best!

The Bears ended the year with a 1-3-1 record, defeating Bamberg by the score of 19-8, and giving up their victories to Baumholder, Karlsruhe, and Osterholz. The Homecoming game was a very hard fought battle against Hahn, disappointingly ending in a 20-20 tie.

The season was thought to be one of experience for many of the players and one of frustration and agony for the others.

For one special player, the injuries and sweat were all worth it for he, Scott Hoefer, was the only Berlin player to make All Conference. He made it at the position of defensive cornerback.

J.V. Football

This year the Junior Varsity football team followed the last years' teams to only be defeated in the championship game. The team was unbeatable in the conference games, except to Osterholz in the final game, to finish with a record of 4-1-1.

The J.V. team was a great one, led by the coaching staff of Ron South, David Coyne, Ronald Knowles, and Bob Johnson. The team was a well-balanced one led by top performers on defense such as John Cervantes, Frank Richards, and Eddie Jackson. Offense was led by quarterback Tyler Frazier, power runner Von Johnson, and speedster Timmy Hardison.

This year's Varsity Volleyball team followed in the footsteps of the preceding team placing seventh in championships.

In all the 1980-81 Volleyball season was a fair one for the coaches and the members of the team.

The Junior Varsity Volleyball team learned a great deal this season, not only about volleyball, but other things such as good sportsmanship, winning and losing, and most of all working together as a team.

Three of the J.V. players, Susan Setzer, Elizabeth Waldrop, and Vicki Villarreal, were selected to go to tournaments with the varsity team. Thanks to the help of coaches Jo Gygax, Sandra Mercer, and Lt. Colonel Butlak, the J.V. team ended with a 10 win, 4 loss season.

Cross Country

After the season games were played, the golf team attended the regionals at the Rheinblik military golf course in Wiesbaden, Germany. This proved to be successful, as Kevin Stewart, Michele Barsh, and Pat Cleaver went on to the golf championships at Feldafing, in Munich, Germany, placing fourth, eighth, and ninth respectively. The golf team did well over all, and were noted for their outstanding performance in the season.

Varsity Girls Basketball

This year's Women's Varsity Basketball team was a young and inexperienced one. Pushing this handicap aside the girls still managed to give even their toughest competition a stiff game with their defense.

The team's top scorer was a junior, Tracey Turner, averaging 17 points a game. Nancy Chartier controlled the game with her dribbling efforts as point guard. Turner, Trisha Lindsey, and Barbara Hunt, a 6' 1" freshman, contributed great rebounding strength for the She-bears. Shawn Vorrath, Liz Waldrop, and Evelin Cruz challenged the opposition all year long with tough defense.

The season was a rebuilding year which saw many talented freshmen and sophomores competing on the varsity level. These are the same young ladies who will represent our team in the years to come.

The coaches of this year's Women's Varsity team were U.S. Army Captain Tom Gruber, and Mrs. Betty Rowlands.

J.V. Girls Basketball

The 1980-1981 BAHS junior varsity basketball team was made up of young and inexperienced women who put out their utmost efforts to bring home a victory in the season during which they played. The team, in combined strength and understanding with the coaches, Betty Rowlands and Tom Gruber, who helped lead them onto various basketball courts throughout West Germany, gave the school a reason to be proud of their team.

The young women who tried so hard to support the colors of maroon and white on the various courts ranged from a height of 5'1" to 6'1", which both helped and handicapped those glorious moments of getting the ball through the hoop.

Though amateurs, and playing for the glory of the junior varsity, the experience acquired by most of the girls this year will hopefully account for an experienced, hard-working team to form next year's women's varsity team.

Wrestling

This year the B.A.H.S. Wrestling team was coached by Mr. Chavies. The assistant coach was Mr. Moeller. The Wrestling team captain was Daniel Short. The team had three away meets: in Osterholz, Baumholder, and Karlsruhe. In total the team competed against twelve different schools. In overall Class A competition the Wrestling team had one win and ten defeats.

In the 98 pound range the team member was John Leal. Team members in the 105 pound weight class were George Seymour and Larry Speer. The 112 pound weight class was represented by Jeff Marsh. In the 119 pound weight class the team member was Ray Juray. The 126 pound weight class was represented by Vernon Lee. Team member in the 138 pound weight class was Von Johnson. In the 145 pound weight class was Mike Short. Daniel Short wrestled in the 155 pound weight class. The heavyweight members of the team were Ian Stong and Jim Triplett. The JV member was Pete Waldeck.

Berlin Varsity Basketball Team

Enjoyed a Successful Season

As the saying goes "Good things come in small packages." This is true of this year's team. Although only having eight people on the varsity squad, the team, under the coaching of James Cobb, Ogden Lazenby and Pat McCormick, showed that they could play with anyone in the league.

Brian Frazier was the playmaker and leader in assists while his counterpart, Kevin Buckles, scored in double digits as well as handing out a countless number of assists. Russell Walton and Sergio Kentish came in all season long to spark the team with their speed and ball handling ability.

The big men on the team this year were Richard Cichy who averaged double figures, Ron Watt who was the team's leading rebounder and second leading scorer, Cliff Jack who led the team in scoring and was second in the rebounding column and James Batchelder who came in to provide the long range shooting consistently all year.

The team competed against Patch, Wuerzburg, Zweibruecken, Baumholder, Karlsruhe, Ansbach, Osterholz, and Bamberg on their way to the team's winning record.

J.V. Boys Basketball

This years' JV team was a very young and inexperienced one. It consisted almost entirely of freshmen and sophomores. The team got off to a slow start but toward the middle of the season their long hours of drills and practices started to pay off. The team won its first conference game of the season defeating Karlsruhe. Coached by Pat McCormick, the team played tough man-to-man defense and a fast moving offense which used the fast break. The JV team gained valuable experience by scrimmaging with the varsity team as well as the DYA Senior League team. The JV Bears were fine representatives of the school and we were proud of them all.

Watch Out For The Future!

Bear-A-Cudas Drown Opponents

This year's Bear-a-Cudas once again proved that Berlin swimmers are not to be taken lightly. Under the skilled coaching of John Fingerhut, they practiced twice a day on weekdays, and once a day on weekends to average some 18 hours and 42,000 meters of torturous training a week. The hard work paid off by putting them in second place behind the Shape Seals with a fantastic 10 win, 2 loss record.

Many records were broken by Berlin swimmers this season. Susie Sams broke a pool record while Veronique Alderson, Jim Finley, Susan Finley, and Jerry Rettie broke league records.

JUNIORS

The Junior Class, led by class officers, Mike Short-president, Bob Colangelo-vice president, and Sharon Sams-secretary/treasurer, and sponsor, Miss VanGelder, showed Berlin American High School just how spirited they were. A carwash in September raised a record amount of money, and started them on a series of other money-raising activities. Their concession stand fed hungry fans at Bears' football, basketball, and wrestling matches, and Juniors sold snacks to students during second lunch. The Juniors added color and excitement to Spirit Week through their sponsorship of "Backwards Day", their spectacular decoration of the school cafeteria, and their "Buc Wheats, Breakfast of Champions" Homecoming float. The highlight of the year came with their hosting of the 1981 Junior-Senior Prom.

SOPHOMORES

The Sophomore Class of '83, along with their sponsor, Mr. Wieland, and the class officers who were Mark Nelson-president, Mina Buenviaje-vice president, and Laurie Barsh-secretary/treasurer, motivated class spirit and participation. For Spirit Week, this class received honorable mention for the flamboyant decoration of the second floor hallway and for the sensational effort on its float. The Sophomores showed that they could all pull together as they won the tug-of-war, which was one of the Spirit Week activities. They also participated in the sack race, which proved to be very challenging. With the support of Mr. Wieland, the Sophomore Class '83 was a vital part of Berlin American High School.

FRESHMEN

The Class of '84 showed their unique spirit through out the whole school year. They participated in school dances, pep rallies, and many other activities.

Their class officers, Elizabeth Marston-president, Barbara Hunt-vice president, and Kim Jackson-secretary/treasurer, put forth great effort during Spirit Week in decorating their hall and class float. Also during Spirit Week the freshman class helped defeat the seniors and sophomores at the Powder Puff Football Game.

The Sponsor of the class of '84' was Ms. Gygas. She was working with this class for the second year straight and helped guide them through an exciting school year.

8TH GRADE

This year the 8th grade class displayed an outstanding amount of school spirit. To start off the year, the 8th grade class sponsored two dances. They also sponsored a bake sale with the help of their sponsor Mr. Long. During spirit week the class sponsored "Mum Day" which turned out to be a great success. The theme of the class float was "Beat the Bucs."

The class leaders were Nicholas Meimaris-president, Angela Gibson-vice president, and Michelle Nicolow-secretary/treasurer. These individuals together with their sponsor, Mr. Long, gave the class encouragement and motivation. This combined with a great amount of class participation in student events led to a successful year for the class of '85.

7TH GRADE

On August 25, 1980, one hundred and thirty-three very nervous but excited seventh graders walked through the doors of Berlin American High School. You would think that the Class of '86 would take their first year in a new place as a break to get used to the high school way of life, but this was not the case. With the help and inspiration of Mr. Long, the seventh grade sold pencils, sponsored dances, and helped organize the Junior High Congress.

The Class of '86 joined in other school activities. They won third place with their homecoming float and an Honorable Mention for their hall decorations during Spirit Week. You can ask any seventh graders and they will tell you that they are proud to be the Class of '86!

BERLIN OFFICERS' AND CIVILIANS CLUB

We would like to take this opportunity to thank a very fine group of young people, the busboys and busgirls of the Class of 1981, for their outstanding contributions while employed at the Harnack House during the past year. They are:

Lynne Schenkelberger
Jeff Alexander
James Batchelder

Debbie Mitzel
April Coffin
Scott Hoefer

As a result of their dedication to duty and personal involvement, the operation of this club has reached a level of quality which is considered the best of any US Army Officers' Club in Europe.

As you enter a new phase of your life, be it to continue your formal education or to dedicate yourselves to other meaningful endeavors, we would like to share with you an excerpt of Ralph Waldo Emerson's writing:

"Write it in your heart that every day is the best day in the year. He is rich who owns the day and no one owns the day who allows it to be invaded with fret and anxiety. Finish every day and be done with it. You have done what you could. Some blunders and absurdities, no doubt, crept in. Forget them as soon as you can, tomorrow is a new day; begin it well and serenely with too high a spirit to be cumbered with your old nonsense. The new day is too dear with it's hopes and invitations to waste a moment on the yesterdays."

On behalf of the management and staff, we would like to extend our sincere appreciation to all of you for your contributions to the Harnack House. May the stars be your guiding light for the future with the hopes for a better and peaceful world.

A PROSPEROUS FUTURE

Years and decades from now, when time has dimmed our memory, the pages of this book will be slowly turned. Then, recollections of a long ago time will flow through our minds. We will fondly recall these most memorable moments of our city, of our people, of our school, and of ourselves. In these pages we will live again the memories and dreams of yesteryear.
