What Dreams May Come

Student Council

The "soon to be" snack shack, a STUCO project, is pictured left. Below is the official WAHS Student Council emblem.

"This meeting is now called to order" is heard at the beginning of most Student Council (STUCO) meetings by the president/parliamentarian, Elena Phillips. This year's Student Council really got the students involved in what goes on around the school. The revision of the STUCO constitution was intended to be two or three meetings long, but turned out to be a year-long activity, showing students' dedication to making changes at WAHS. New ideas were in surplus this year, thanks to Mrs. Weyhrauch, the new STUCO advisor. One was the guide-on spirit flag. The snack shack is also a new project to give students a choice at lunch. Seeing that the student body wasn't always aware of what happened in meetings, STUCO decided to produce a newsletter. The first edition was a big success.

Mrs. Weyhrauch (above) is the Student Council advisor. The Executive Board (left) is President Elena Phillips, Vice-President David Dowty, Treasurer Lacey Sims, Secretary Loryn Bruce.

American Graffiti

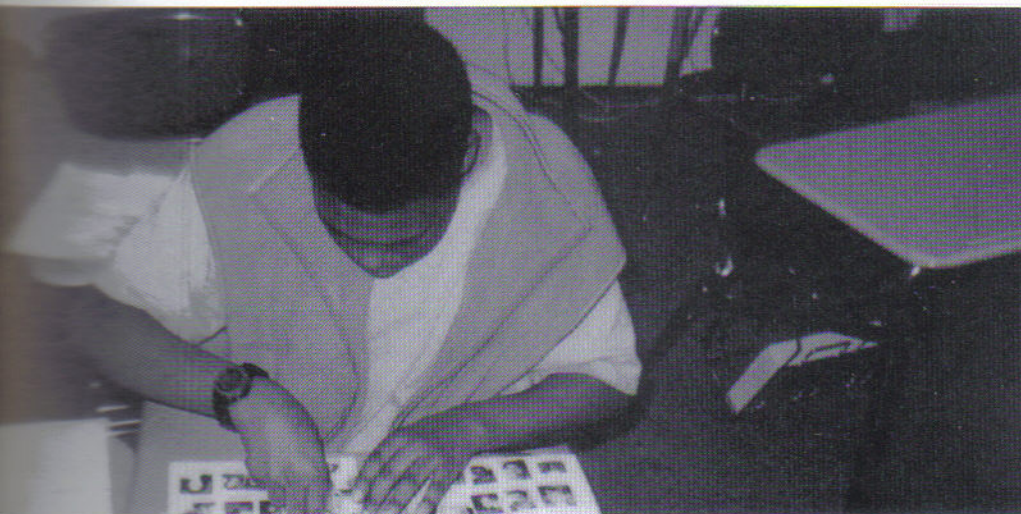

Yearbook: It was real and it was fun...

Not everyone made the last meeting but after working on the yearbook for the last eight months, who can blame them. The staff lost some great workers to sports but also picked up some great workers. Seniors Samantha Cline, Tiffany Kokitus, Jennifer Torres and Jennifer Wilson did a great job on the senior section. Cara Brown, Jessica Brown and Erin Walden gave us a great start. Joining us for the 2nd season were Monique Schumacher, Torrie Brandt and Jackie Dorn.

The core of the team was Cassandra Boyd, Zack Dorsey, Brandy Godley, Stephanie Hardman, Kortni Kamp, Megan Mastrian, Robin Nelson, Sabine Raphael and Alicia Sears. So I give you back your Wednesday afternoons and your tutorials....until the proofs come in! (Except for Brandy-it's track season!)

hosts of the show, Rachel Sweeney and Elena Phillips are here with the contestants: Chris Patterson, Eric Dowty, Brian Jones and Mark Vail. (not pictured is Tim Kerrick).

Spirit Week's Spaghetti Dinner

The traditional Junior class fundraiser was quite a success again this year. The most exciting event (or so we're told) was the Beauty Pageant, where all the contestants were guys dressed as girls.

The five brave volunteers were seniors Eric Dowty, Brian Jones, and Tim Kerrick and juniors Chris Patterson and Mark Vail. This year's winner was Eric Dowty. And if you think he wanted to remain anonymous, well, guess again. Who do you think gave us all of these great pictures???

Don't miss next year's show where you not only get a great spaghetti meal but entertainment like you've never seen before!

The Longest Yard

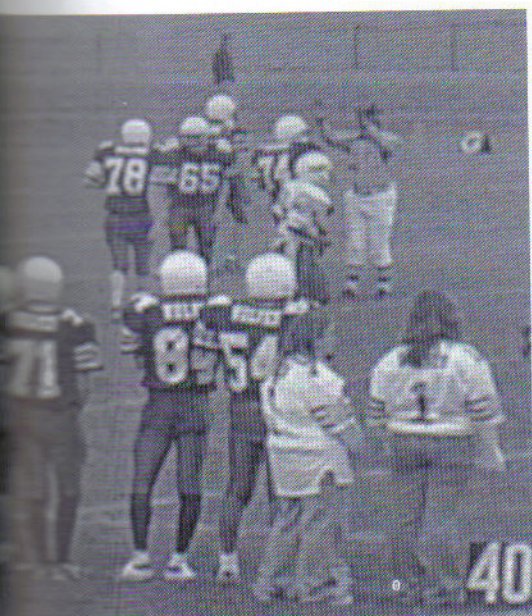

J V F O O T B A L L

The Wuerzburg American High School JV Football team was out for fun this year and in that respect, they were definitely winners. Their mantra? "Winning isn't everything, but wanting to win is!" Used often by Coach Chance Giddens, it was originally said by Vince Lombardi, former coach for the Green Bay Packers.

This year's team showed significant improvement over last year. The JV defense was led by Zac Zeltner and Cameron Smith.

The JV offense was led by Cedric Cato, who ran for over 100 yards in each game he played. He also scored the only touchdown in the Varsity Championship, leading the Wolves to a 7:6 victory.

This was also Chance Giddens' first year of coaching. When asked for his reaction of the season, he said, "This outstanding group of young men played beyond our expectations all year. With that in mind, they were truly champions."

Legends of the Fall

Wuerzburg Wolves take Division I Championship Title, Ending a Great Season

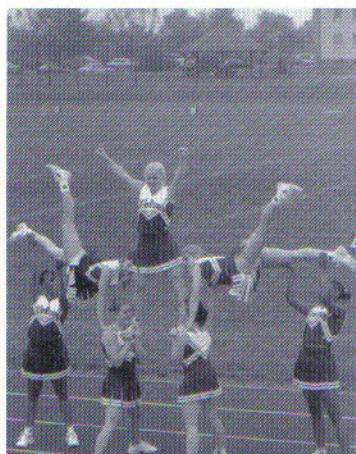

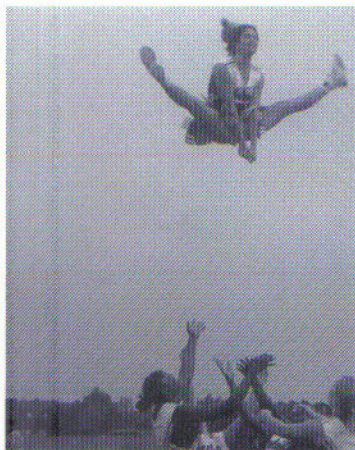

The Wuerzburg Wolves finished their season with only one loss...to Ramstein. Ironically that is the same team they beat to win the Division I Championship! What a great season!

Awarded MVP for regular season games: Korey Gunter, Brian Jones, Billy Porter, Matt Shriver, Roderick Haynes, Eric Dowty, Stephen Hopkins, Jeff Wasson, Darryl Diltz, Stuart Duncan, and Mike Woolford. At the Sport's Banquet, Alex Lee received the Jason Holland Award, Roderick Haynes-MVP 1st Team all-conference; Eric Dowty and Matt Shriver-the defensive player award; Korey Gunter and Michael Woolford-2nd team all-conference; Zac Zeltner-defensive player; Cedric Cato-offensive player and Cameron Smith-Spark award.

When I Say "Wuerzburg", You Say "Wolves"!

Who would have known that throwing a girl covered in purple and gold, could draw so much attention? Cheerleading has become a well-respected sport at Wuerzburg American High School during the past three years. And so far this year, cheerleading has been off to a great start. The 2000 Varsity Cheerleaders are Captain Malorie Holloway (12) and Co-Captain Lacey Beamon (12), Ingrid Nagle

(12), Jen Galloway (12), Becky Vail (12), Tianna Seabourn (11), Marquita Wells (11), Nyesha Sevier (11), and newcomer Erin McGinty (11). All of these girls have come together to form a high-spirited pack of cheerleaders. Teamwork is the first word that comes to mind when the fans see them on the field. Keeping the crowd motivated and the team pumped is their game agenda. New sponsor Archie Tucker has also helped the girls this far into the season. GO WOLVES!

JV VOLLEYBALL

Side Out!

The JV Lady Wolves displayed the tenacious fight and spirit of a true Wolfpack during the 2000-01 season, reports Coach Francomb. "With a tremendous amount of time devoted to mastering basic skills and fundamentals of the game, the Lady Wolves displayed the voracious bite of their finely honed skills in the season's highlight by devouring the K-Town Raiders. Not only in that match but in all matches the Lady Wolves exemplified a true devotion to their TEAM and to representing WAHS. Great Season! Lady Wolves--filled with a lot of hard work, dedication and determination." And the players had the same idea: "We finally became a team," said Erin Sullivan. Erin Ortiz agreed saying, "It ran smoothly at the end. It was a lot of fun!"

What Dreams May Come

This year the Varsity Volleyball team began the year with four returning starters, allowing them to work together both on and off the court. Alicia Preskey made 1st team All Conference, 2nd team All Europe and won the coaches' award and Stephanie Toth made All Conference honorable mention and the MVP award. She remembers the best moments of this season as "beating undefeated Ramstein at home and beating Wiesbaden at Europeans."

"It was an exciting experience for all of the golf team members, many of whom were golfing for the first time", comments Coach Bob Voce. The Wuerzburg Golf Team won one tournament, placed second in another, and third in yet another.

Chris Susnir was the top scorer for the boys' team. Amy Kessler was the top scorer for the girls.

"We have a great nucleus with which to build on for next year and I look forward to our team doing much better".

The Net

This year's tennis team was a lot of fun, according to Coach Konzal.

Tyler Russell and Eric Linderman were the only team players to remain undefeated. Many of the tennis team members said that they practiced hard for every meet and if you look at their stats, it appears to be true.

The boys ended up with a two win/two loss season and the girls ended up with a three win/one loss season.

Coaching the team this year were Coach Konzal and Coach Falso.

Playing for the girls' team were Denise Terry (MVP), Jill Abellanosa (best sportsmanship), Lacey Sims, Julia Smith, Gemma Mangrobang, Zeryna Wells-Betancourt, Cherise Seay and Laurie Carpenter. Playing for the boys' team: Steven Rose (MVP), Tong Yi (best sportsmanship), Eric Linderman, Tyler Russell and Pierre Smith.

The Finish Line

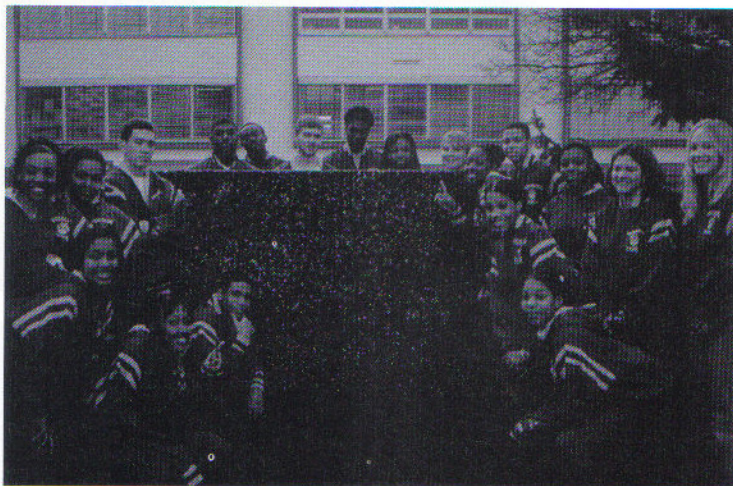

There were over 100 high school students who came out for the first day of track on Monday, March 5th. "We've never finished less than 3rd in the past six years and we hope to continue the tradition! Personally I would like to get another gold medal in sprint medley and other relays." -Junior JoJo Furman, third year track team member. Beyond the Mat

With an undefeated season, the Division I title, and three European champions, the WolfPack Wrestling team had a season to remember. The wrestlers were on a winning streak from beginning to end. 103 pounder Zack Smith won the first match of the season at the WolfPack Tournament on December 2nd. Heavyweight Stephen Hopkins closed the deal by winning the last match at the European Championships on February 10th.

Throughout the season, wrestlers continued to exceed their own expectations, as well as the expectations of their committed coaches. With Coach Werner and Assistant Coaches Mendez, Scott, and Williams giving directions from the corner, WolfPack wrestlers were unstoppable. Each weekend brought a new tournament with new challenges and obstacles. And each weekend, the WolfPack took the first place title.

Although the wrestlers trained together as a team, many individuals chose to stand out above the rest. 112 pound senior Eddie Sarsoza made his way to the Division I Championships with three first place titles to his name. 125 pound wrestlers dreaded their inevitable matches against the formidable Tobias Champagne. Champagne led a 25-1 season all the way to the first place slot at the European Championships. He ended his third year of wrestling by breaking the school record for takedowns and receiving his third "Outstanding Wrestler" award. In the 130 pound weight class, junior Austin Henry gave all he had to make it to his Championship match on February 10th, honorably deserving his "Most Improved" award. 135 pound Anthony Harris put forth all his effort and respectfully came out at 5th place in the Championships. The team's "Best New Wrestler", 140 pound junior Eric White fought his way through each tournament to emerge in the finals at the Division Tournament in Ramstein. The 145 pound weight class was led by senior Jermaine Miller. Miller wrestled to the max in every match, landing him a slot in the Championships. After a mid-tournament trip to the emergency room for an injured shoulder and ankle, Jermaine still earned 6th place on the bracket. Also in the 145 weight class, junior Chris Ortiz completed his first year of WolfPack wrestling by winning the award for "Most Escapes." After a late start in the season, 171 pound Eric Dowty surprised opponents with his wrestling skills.

He, along with 152 pound brother Sean, made his way to the Championships with ease. Leading the 189 pound weight class was senior Matt Shriver. With well rehearsed tactics, custom-made for his final opponent, Matt capped his high school wrestling career with the well deserved European title. 215 pounder Zach Stone pulverized his way to his Championship match. He took first place in the Shape, Aviano, and Würzburg tournaments. Rounding out the group was senior Stephen Hopkins, who went home with a first place Division I title as well as the 275 pound European Championship.

WolfPack Wrestlers: Robert Baker, Nathaniel Barnett, Evan Bradley, Brad Brittsan, Tobias Champagne, Jason Collins, Glenn Davis, Darryl Diltz, Zach Dotson, Eric Dowty, Sean Dowty, Bill Dunn, Chris Hamilton, Cissy Harklerode, Anthony Harris, Austin Henry, Ian Hodges, Stephen Hopkins, Greg Kerrick, George Larimore, Ian Lathem, Jermaine Miller, Chris Ortiz, Arturo Perez, Chris Perron, Jen Retasket, Jonathan Reyes, Branden Richardson, Eddie Sarsoza, Matt Shriver, Mike Silvis, Zack Smith, David Stieffermann, Zach Stone, Josh Summers, Audrey Sundquist, Darrina Swan, Greg Tatum, Alicia Thomas, Jeff Wasson, and Eric White.

WolfPack Mat Crew: Cara Brown, Jessica Burzynski, Laurie Carpenter, Samantha Cline, Carolyn Cobianponce, Aubrey Frazier, Jen Galloway, April Hayden, Tiffany Kokitus, Ingrid Nagle, Heather Patton, Sabrina Schwarz, Katie Silvis, Elizabeth Spillman, Stephanie Stone, Kathleen Sullivan, Lindzey Temple, Megan Williams, Jennifer Wilson.

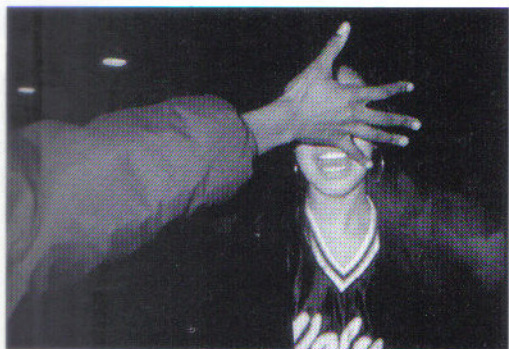

Love & Basketball

Squad succeeds with determination and hard work.

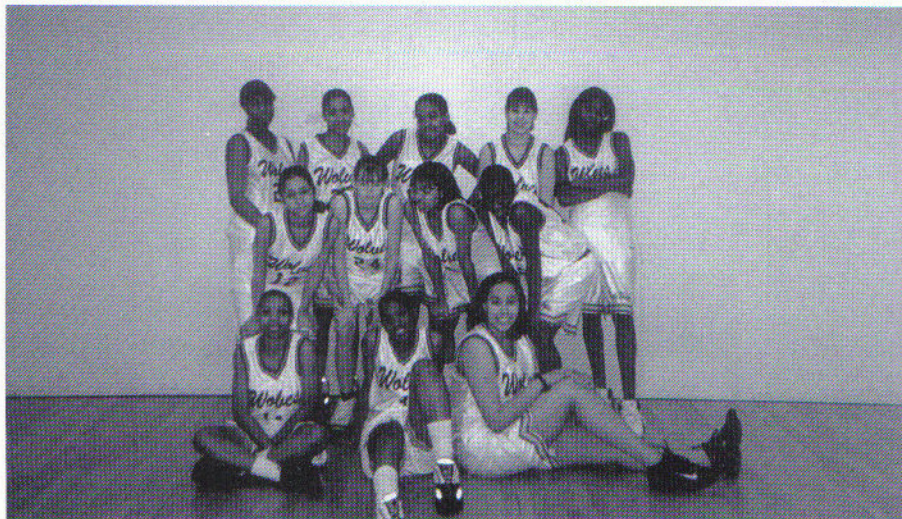

There's only one way to describe this year's season; it was like whoa! The Lady Wolves Basketball teams had their great times as well as their bad; they felt pleasure in their victories and gained a better knowledge when they were defeated. They struggled to come together as a team, using communication, dedication, patience and a lot of hard work. It took a long time but when it finally happened, it not only made them stronger as a team, but also as individuals. Says Senior Toni Nelson "...we went to championships and made 3rd place! I love my teammates and I thank them for making my last basketball season so special" Senior Cassandra Frank was All Conference.

JV Girls Team: Adrienne Brown, Jessica Brown, Allison Toth, Jessica Calzadilla, Jane Castillo, Tracy Howard, Katherine Vargas, Diana Atkins, Latoya Patrick-Saunders.

League Of Their Own

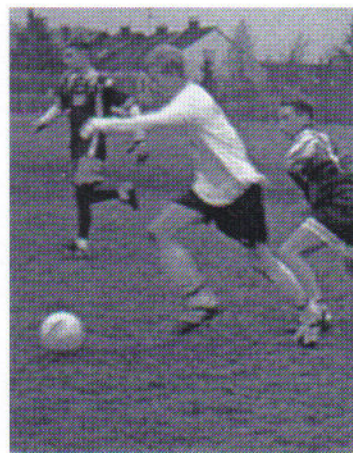

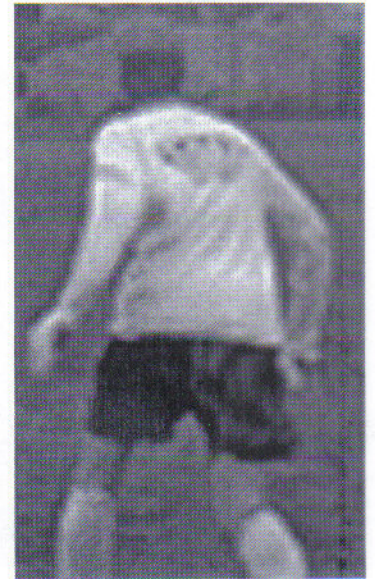

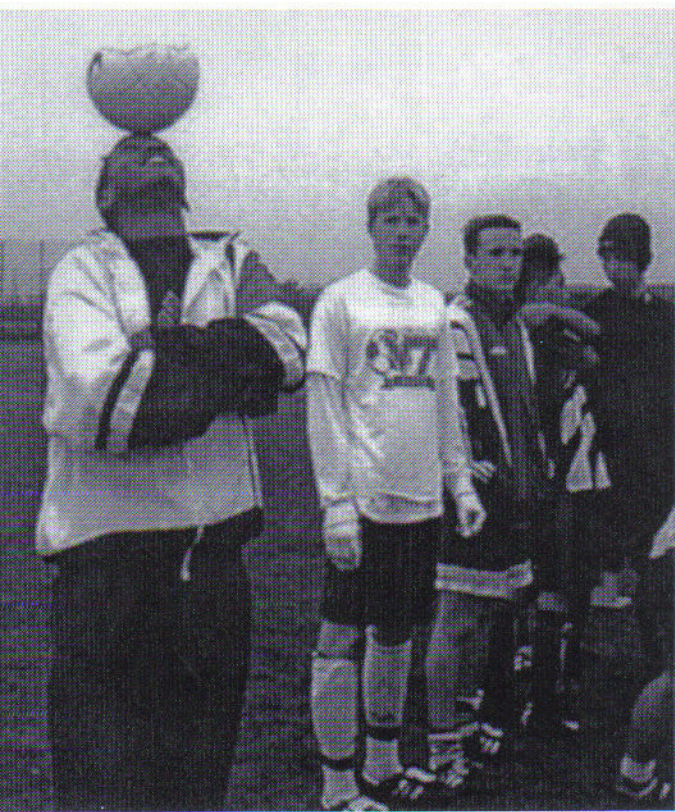

Breakfast of Champions!

It was a successful and exciting sports season this year for the Wolves. Not only did the Football Wolves rule the Division I Conference, but the Wolves Wrestlers also did some damage to their opponents. They led their own invitational January 27 with 246 points, taking four championships. (For more wrestling information, turn to page 116-117). Earlier in the year, the football team played some fantastic defense to take out the Ramstein Royals. Matt Shriver was named the defensive MVP of the championship game. Korey Gunter, who ran the ball twenty-three times for 113 yards, was named the offensive MVP. Freshman Cedric Cato ran 15 yards for the one touchdown of the game and Billy Porter kicked the winning point.

You Can't Take It With You

By George S. Kaufman & Moss Hart

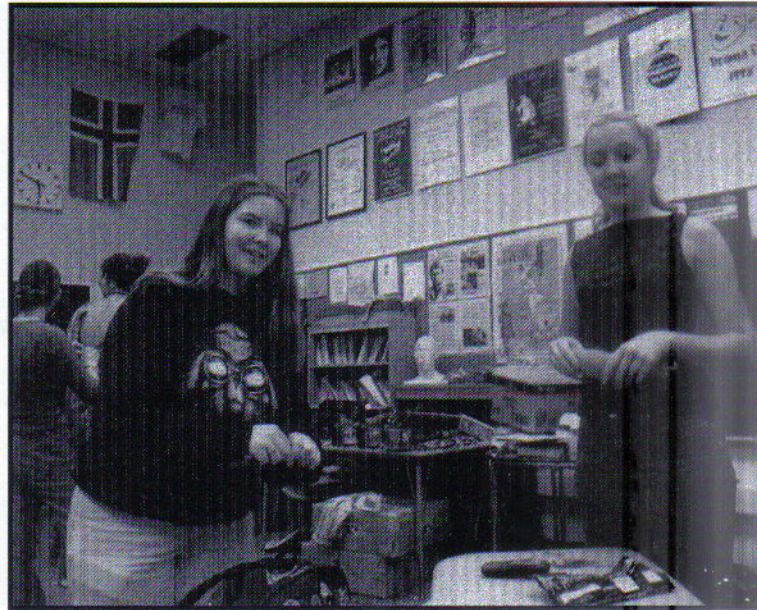

Ed (John Hamilton) appears lost in thought (or is he thinking of typing messages?). Getting ready for dinner at the Sycamores are Mr. Kirby (Andrew Currier), Penelope (Bridgette Bynum) and Ed.

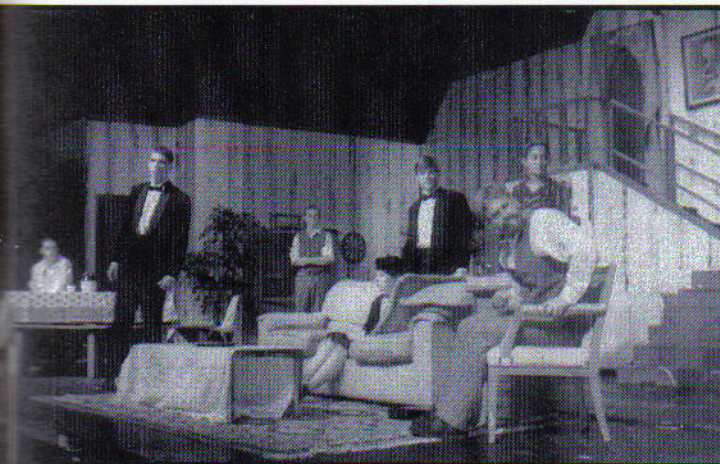

The WAHS cafeteria was full of cheers and laughter as the comedy "You Can't Take It With You" was presented November 2, 3 and 4, 2000. The play takes place at the home of Martin Vanderhof, New York, 1936. Everyone met the challenge... from the cast who put in over eight weeks of rehearsal to the techies who helped make the stars shine. "The best sound is the sound of the audience laughing," according to Cassandra Boyd.

Director: Mr. David Flom; Set Design: Mr. Mike Schmidt; Lighting: Erica Cartwright; Sound: Julia Smith; Poster Art: Eric Flom; Poster Design: Stephan Bayer; Makeup: Nicole David; Stage Manager: Bekah Harmon; Set Crew: Karl Mueller, Eric Hodges, Brett Clements, Jeff Kerrick, "Pip" Baker, Dan Humphries, Greg Tatum, Vaness Voce, Rachel Sweeney, Jessica Blount, Cast Members.

And finally the cast (left) gets into character as they anticipate a game involving the truth of the Kirby's family life.

All aboard the Dolly Express! The train was action-packed with a sing-along cast of outstanding performers. Congratulations to the dramatic duo of Mary Todd and Ben Ayres. The quarreling couple set up fun-filled laughs the whole night long. The lively costumes and bubbling attitudes of all who participated added a blast for young and old alike. The spectacular scenery of the triple backround (designed by Kathleen Sullivan) gave the audience a sense of being right in the action. The play definitely left people humming "Hello Dolly!" for days after.

Model United Nations

The Hague International Model United Nations (or THIMUN as it is generally called) took place in the Netherlands January 21-26, 2001. Among the more than 3500 students from around the world participating in the XXXIII Annual Session were twelve WAHS Wolves. Ten students represented the country of Uzbekistan. After months of researching this interesting place, the students became experts on the political views and culture of this country.

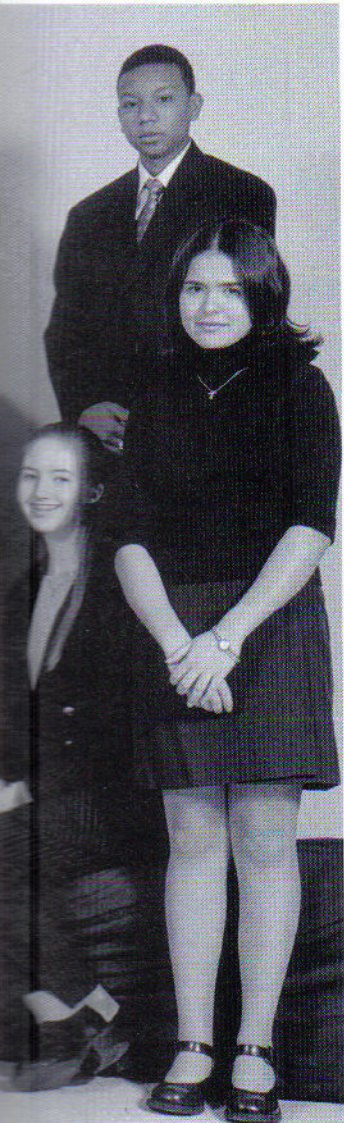

Attending THIMUN for her fourth year as a student officer was Allison Atterberry, who was the chairperson for ECOSOC (The Economic and Social Council).

Attending for her second time, Elena Phillips was a reporter for the THIMUN daily newspaper, "THE MUNITY".

And sponsoring this great group (and for the 8th year!) were Ms. Fortson-Leno and Ms. Reichert.

Read all about it! Paw Prints hit the stands this year as ready as ever. The hard work from Mr. Amundson's journalism class paved the way for this dynamic WAHS newspaper. According to Teneshia Bullock, "Printing the paper was one of the most challenging things I ever did during high school."

Club Beyond

"We loved you so much that we were delighted to share with you not only the gospel of God but our lives as well, because you had become so dear to us."
1 Thessalonians 1:2

Club Beyond would like to thank all of you who made this year so amazing. We do love and care for you very much! Thank you for all the memories you have given us. We cherish the friendships that are too numerous to picture on these pages. We hope that one day you will look back on the yearbook and remember all of the crazy Wednesday club nights, Monday night Beyond Club meetings and awesome road trips. We pray that these fun experiences and friendships will encourage you in your faith and help you down the road to come.

Yep, Wendy joins us in offering our congratulations to you, Allison. We are all so proud of you and we will miss your daily presence more than you can imagine. But we look forward to witnessing your continuing success in your post-high school educational endeavors and other life pursuits. It has been our pleasure and privilege to parent you for your first 18 years. We love you very much and always will.

Mom & Dad

Andrew,

It seems as though you just graduated from Preschool. Where have twelve years gone? We watched you grow from a small child into a charming young man.

Now, it's your high school graduation. We would like to say to you....take time to remember the good times as well as the not so good times. Think of the friends you've made, the places you've gone, and the sports you've participated in. These memories will remain with you forever.

You will be making many decisions in life. We pray that we have equipped you with the necessary knowledge, love and wisdom to face the roads ahead. Andrew, you have always been a very strong-willed individual. This will help you conquer whatever lies ahead.

Always remember, we are here for you! And we will always be your #1 fans!!!

CONGRATULATIONS!

We are so proud of the man you have become. God blessed you with unique talents and abilities, and you have used those gifts well. As you begin the next journey in your life, remember the love of your family and friends. Remember that God has a special plan for your life. You have so much to be thankful for and so much to look forward to. Continue to work hard as you prepare for a challenging future. Believe in yourself and know that you are loved.

Dad, Mom, Angela, and Jennifer

Josh,
 You are very unique and special. Your many talents give you varied paths to choose. Your phenomenal intelligence always leads you to consider things deeply. Your varied interests constantly keep you occupied. Your positive outlook gives you the energy to accomplish great things. Your determination assists you in achieving your goals. Your excitement for life causes you to always have fun. Your sense of humor is contagious and helps you keep things in perspective. Your confidence allows you to take risks and not be afraid of failure. You are an incredible young man. I was so proud of you when you were born. I was proud of you as a young boy. Now as you continue to grow in your own unique wonderful way I am even more proud. What an incredible feeling to see my beautiful boy grow up to be a beautiful man.

Love,
 Mom

Billy,
 On May 3rd nineteen eighty two
 Your mom and dad were waiting for you.
 Our hearts were filled with love and joy
 As soon as we saw our little boy.
 God was good. He sent us a treasure.
 Helping you grow has been our pleasure.
 We wanted to watch you play and grow,
 And teach you all that you would need to know.
 But your childhood could not forever last,
 Yet for us it seemed to pass too fast.
 You are a son who has swelled us with pride.
 We are proud to have been by your side.

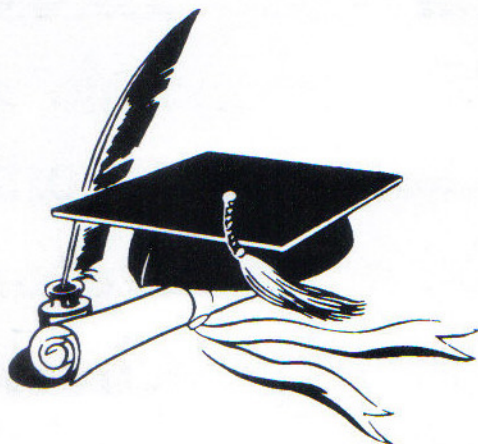

The time has come to go out on your own.
 A new life beckons, now that you are grown.
 It is yours to live and spend as you will,
 But always be growing and never stand still.
 Follow your dreams and don't settle for less,
 For anything is possible if you give it your best.
 The world is there for you to pick and choose,
 What you want and what you will use.
 But always put back more than you have taken,
 And when you do your soul will awaken.
 Go out boldly and accomplish all that you can
 Because now my son, you are "THE MAN".
