SPIRIT!

This student council banner lets everyone in on what to exduring Spirit Week!

the freshman bench says "cage the royals"

Spirit Week began on October in order to blow a bubble. The 9th. Tuesday was Pajama Day and sophomores won their game. the freshman game, an Egg Toss, Thursday was Hawaiian Day. The was won by the juniors. Wednes- junior game was to see which class day was Decade Day. The idea was could pass an orange under their for everyone to come to school chin down a line without using their dressed in 60's, 70's and 80's at- hands. Friday was the traditional tire. Wednesday was also desig- Purple Pride Day. The Senior game nated for the sophomore game, was Tug of War. The Seniors which was a race to see which class walked away the winners of their could dunk their head in a bowl of game. Although the juniors won pudding and find the bubble gum the Spirit Link contest, it was the sophomores who won Spirit Week.

SPIRIT-Heating up for Homecoming.

As you can see spirit week was a lot of fun this year. The lack of rain for once made the pep rally even better! Teams were introduced by their coaches, spirit links were presented and run down the field, and cheerleaders got pies in their faces! What else could you ask for?

The band was on hand to add some music and the cheerleaders got the crowd to cheer by classes. Can you guess which class was the loudest and won the competition?

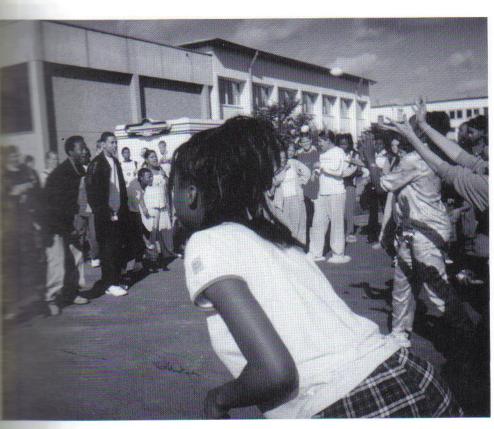

Dress up days, pep rally, pie in the face... it must be SPIRIT WEEK!

Noises Off

This autumn's play "Noises Off" frolicked into the history of WAHS's great plays. Dirtected by David Flom, it was another interesting and entertaning play. Noises Off, a play inside a play, was complicated and very frustrating at times. It included three acts for our talented acting crew to perform. The play "Nothing On", also being performed, was a play about everything possible going wrong. While the actual play being performed, did have things going askew, everything from the set fallling down in a dress rehearsal to things being broken during a performance. The cast, crew, and definitely the director put a lot of time and energy into this year's play, making it a great and memorable performance.

The Hague Model United Nations

W

uerzburg American High School was honored to represent the grand nation of Canada at the Hague Model United Nations (THIMUN). THIMUN is a yearly event where young people from around the world come together to find solutions to a variety of world problems: in human rights, the environment, economic and social development, disarmament, education and in areas of armed conflict. This year there is also the Special Conference on Science and Ethics.

THIMUN is a nongovernmental organization (NGO) with the United Nations Department of Public Information. Its annual conference is a simulation of the United Nations for secondary students (over 3500 fro over 90 different countries

This year's STUCO was incredible. Their goal was to hear the voice of the students and they achieved it way before the year's end. They were also responsible for the crowning at Homecoming, the opening of the Snack Shack, the new schoolwide calendar, raising money for September 11 through ribbon sales, the Data Match Survey, the Dating Game, the Leadership Seminar, 8th grade orientation, Field Day and the list goes on!!!

Football All Fired Up!

Wuerzburg is the Best!

The guys of the Varsity Wuerzburg Wolves started off the year with grueling practices in the hot German sun (as if), working to keep their 2001 title of European Champs. Everyday they worked hard and in the end it paid off. They were once again titled the European Champs.

Not surprising with the coaching talents of Coach Dave Eidem and Coach Allen Archie, and of course, the team.

They only lost one game but the rest they won with a sweep. When they made it to the playoffs, they beat Wiesbaden 21-16. And when they made it to the finals, against arch rival Ramstein Royals, they crushed them causing a mercy rule at 41-0.

All I have to say is "Way to Go Wolves!"

Victory is sweet!

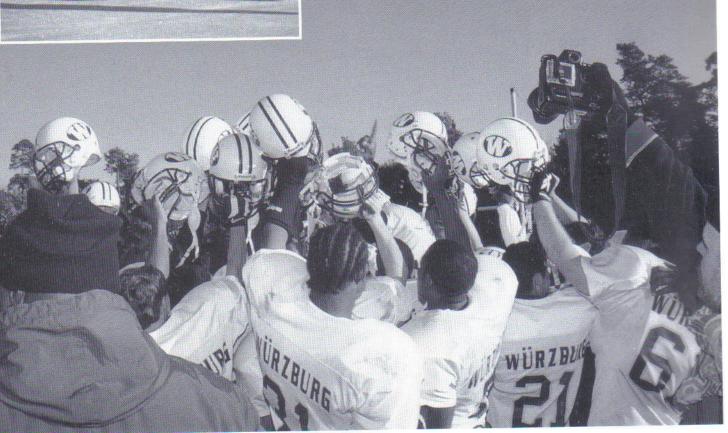

a Go Boyz!

The Huddle!

Royals hope for a lost cause.

We Won!!! (of course)

Cheerleaders Start the Fire!

Fall Season's cheerleaders really had spirit! With their great cheers and words of encouragement, our Wolves defeated Ramstein in the Division I European Football Championship on November 11. The cheerleading squad was led by Senior Samantha Eldridge and Junior Erika Jewel. I wish the up-coming season cheerleaders the best of luck and success!

Rashad,

So much to say and just a lifetime left to say it.

How quickly time passes.

If I had my way, I'd keep you safe within my arms

While the storm of life crashes.

I won't always be with you, my child, good advice never passes.

Above all else, know God's the one who'll never leave you.

Look to him above all don't let life deceive you.

Pops and I have prepared you as best we know to face the world.

Always know we believe you will be successful in any endeavor you take on

You are able to weather any storm.

There will be laughter, there will be tears.

You will gain wisdom over the years.

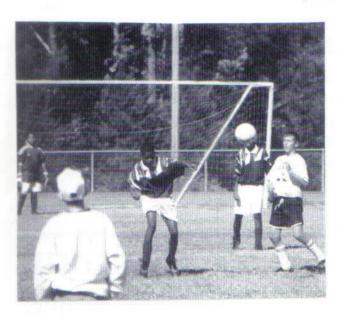

All that's left now to do.

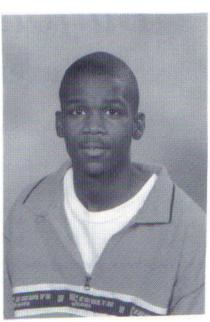

Is be the man God wants you to.

Love, Mom & Pops

"Trust in the Lord-with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding; In all your ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct your paths".

(Proverbs 3:5-6)

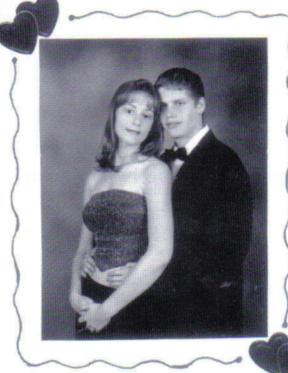

Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It is not rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always preserves. 1 Corinthians 13:4

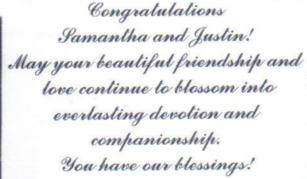

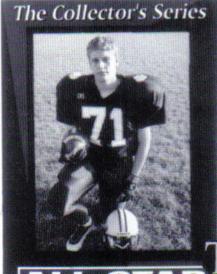

Trust each other

Sharing our mother's womb,
With a little bit of room.
Sharing our first bed,
With the same pillow under your head.
Sharing our first fight,
Awfully hard did we bite.
Sharing our first hug,
After all, brother, it is you I love.
Sharing angry words,
Some still do hurt.
Sharing each other's pain,
Strength from you I did gain.

We've done a lot of sharing during the past 18 years, Something that may not happen in the future I fear.

We will, however, share
Something that will always be there.
I dare anyone to try to break us apart,
It wouldn't work, because we share the same heart.
So, brother, let the sharing begin.
Austin, my heart, I love you, my twin.

I'm proud of you Austin Your sister, Alaina

Austin,
You fill me with pride, and
you have surpassed all expectations.
Good luck in the future,
Brandon

You are my pride and joy; A champion among champions. In the words of Les Brown, "Shoot for the Moon, Even if you miss, You'll land among the stars."

Mom

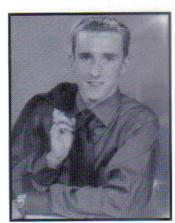

Chris---You have grown into a fine young man and have made us very proud. We will miss you so much, but know you will do super at college. Study hard, have fun, and stay true to yourself. We may be miles apart in distance, but you will always be close in our hearts. We love you very much-our #1 son.

Mom & Dad

To Jennifer Rochelle Smith With love, Mom

Oh how the years have gone by, It snuck up on me You've grown so beautifully For the way world to see.

teur Jen, I can't believe the time has come for you to graduate. It will be hard for dad and I (and even your brothers, Chad and Chris) to see you go on your own, brown own but what ever you set your midd, you will do fine. After all we did raise your gift of I chank the Lord for giving us a beautiful and smart girl. I love you and congrantilation.

To Jennifer Rochelle Smith From Daddy with Love

Jennifer, I am and always have been proud of you even though I don't always say it. When your Mom and I found out that we were having a baby, we spent most of our time trying to imagine what you would look like. At that point in our life you were the center of our world. Here we are having our first child, the daughter I hope for, a beautiful, independent, and strong-minded fittle girl. I knew the very first time I held you in my arms that long tiresome night that I had a little Erma on my hands. I knew that we would have a challenging life together; through your development from that little girl to the young lady you are today. Boo, believe me when I say, I felt your struggle to find your way, your identity in this sometimes-complicated world. As father and daughter, I think we managed to grow together, even though we don't always see eye to eye. I know I demanded and expected a lot from you, I still do and always will, but that's the price for being the first-born. Even though I harp on you about the importance of good grades and the need to prepare for the future, my Jennifer, I am and always have been proud of you even though I don't that is the price for being the Intst-torin. Even thought I may be you about the importance of good grades and the need to prepare for the future, my goal for you was to manage the distractor that will confront you during your life. I think you have done that very well, even though there were times that I didn't think I was getting through to you. You should be proud of yourself, thesawes I have be book as it is those supports. More, and your grandparents are proud of you. As far as a good education, you and your gramuparents are private or 10 your. Set as a good execution, you have completed the first phase by graduating from High School. Now, as a young adult you have to make that decision to reach your personal goals. And with the support of your parents, I know you will do well. It is truly a blessing to be able to see my first born, my beautiful daughter graduate from High School and enter the adult world. Boo being an adult is a beautiful thing but it is also hard work. The decision you make now plays a big part in your life, so look back down the road you have traveled and learn from it. And know, whatever decision you make, your Mom and I will be there to support you even if we don't necessarily agree with it. I'm looking forward to the opportunity to see you grow in your adult world.

And don't think, just because you are an adult now, that I will be slacking off as a parent. Remember, this is your Dad. I love you Boo and look

To our precious Daughter Natasha

CONGRATULATIONS!

We love you and are very proud of your success. You have come a long way--- the best is yet to come.

Love,

Mom & Dad

Andrew.

Thank you for the past 18 years! You have given us countless reasons to be proud and we shall forever cherish each and every memory. We love unconditionally who you are and the young man you've become. Know that we are always here for you. We look forward to all the special times yet to come as you start this next step in your life.

Congratulations!

All Our Love, Dad, Mom, PJ, & Sox

Erika, seek that place of peace within yourself to remain calm in the midst of all storms! Know that you have "PERSONAL POWER"!! Congratulations... you've made it through 1/4 of your life. Now it's time to venture on and introduce yourself to the world. You have the ability to conquer and move any mountains that form up against you. No matter how big or small take the challenge! Accomplish all the goals you set for yourself and don't get sidetracked, as a result of your choices who will accept the responsibilities of your actions? You must apply yourself as a whole, to make all your dreams a reality. I've enjoyed every moment we've shared. You have been like a daughter and a sister to me. I hope I have inspired you as much as you've inspired me. I will miss you dearly. Keep smiling you have a beautiful smile. Keep being who you are & never change for noone unless it's for the better. Stay true to yourself. You are a successful cosmetologist now...imagine what your future holds. "Remember, always ask questions if you don't understand". God Bless, Sharleen
