NATIONAL JUNIOR HONOR SOCIETY

National Junior Honor Society or NJHS is a club which creates service projects for the community. Its not that easy to be a member of NJHS. At the beginning of the year you fill out a form if you want to be a NJHS member. Then it is sent to the teachers and they select the students for NJHS. Thats not all. Through out the year you must maintain a 3.0 grade average. Some service projects NJHS did was a food and clothing drive, and a green dance.

President Amanda Poole

Vice President Teresa Kleinnens

Treasurer Jessica Payton

Secretary Christina Mullen

Ms. Rose was the sponsor of National Junior Honor Society

Outdoor Education

Outdoor Education met on Wednesdays. They planned future activities like the first dance and Hinterbrand. They did accomplish their goals with Ms. Mavrofrides sponsoring the club. They also enjoyed visiting the Kessler Gym to play basketball and rollerblade. The club included Alicia Jackson, Lisa Anderson, Talon Rozen, David Barbie, Jessica Barnes, Landon Stultz, Joseph Furman, Marlon McKenzie, Shawn Simpson, Leighton Stultz and Cassie Jennings.

including making sweatshirts, sewing Valentine's hearts and making their own stamped 'thank you' cards. Ms. Schmidt who sponsored the club said "everyone who participated had a good time and that includes me too." The following students participated: Monica Murray, Nadine Hohmann, Roesha Cook, Ashley Meyoyer, Heather Buchberger, Alicia Olbrys, Chantell Baker, Jobe Herbert, Joyce Ventura, JoAn Llanas, Ty Johnson and Jennifer Raymond.

Hinterbrand

Outdoor Education took a trip to Bertchesgarten, Germany, also known as Hinterbrand. The trip was from February 3rd to the 7th. It included group and physical challenges. Also, they cooked a meal for thirty-four people. On the trip, they had to learn to face a challenge and they succeeded.

Sponsors: Ms. Mavrofrides and Mr. Warren

Computer Club

CRAFTS CLUB

The Crafts Club enjoyed making many things including making sweatshirts, sewing Valentine hearts and making their own stamped holiday cards. Ms Schmidt who sponsored the club said "everyone who participated had a good time and that includes me too." The following students participated: Monica Murray, Nadine Hohmann, Koesha Cook, Ashley Meyoyer, Heather Buchberger, Alicia Olbrys, Chantell Baker, Jolie Herbert, Joyce Ventura, JoAn Llamas, Ty Johnson and Jennifer Raymond.

Math Counts

Math Counts met last semester. They practiced word problems and other mathematical problems. The group included Patrick Tyler, Ashleigh Boyne, Jill Bice, Bianca Brown, Joey Payton, and Jessica Payton. Headed by Ms. Brisben they won fourth place in the district.

Computer Club

The Schweinfurt Middle School computer club met on Thursday afternoons from 2:45 until 3:45. The club members were involved in a variety of projects during the school year. One of the projects was a computer simulation through the University of Michigan. The school assumed the role of a country and each team member the role of a leader in that country. The students learned about that person and the country and then communicated with other schools throughout Europe and North America concerning issues in the Middle East. The name of the simulation is the Arab-Israeli conflict. After the simulation ended in January the computer club met to play computer games and work on class projects.

Newspaper Club

Newspaper meetings were every Tuesday. The Newspaper Club accomplished producing and distributing an issue every six weeks and one special edition. They covered everything from what was happening to solving people's problems. The meetings were run by Ms. Dauber and Ms. Tardif. Other members included Ashley Bjorkman, Christina Sorbel, Ashleigh Boyne, Talon Rozen, Carlos Jenkins, Katie Tubbs, Valerie Uviedo, Jessica Ventura, Christina Rios and Kyle Bergner.

POSITIVE ACTIVITIES DAY

Positive Activities Day is known to students as PAD. PAD was twice a quarter. PAD is a fun day filled with bowling, dancing, game playing, basketball tournaments, kickball, ice skating and watching movies. We did all these things in the 1996-97 school year. In order to be able to participate in PAD, you couldn't have detentions. People that participated in PAD thought it was worth it and enjoyed being rewarded for having no detentions.

SPIRIT WEEK

Spirit Week was a super fun week, where we dressed up, played games, won prizes and entered contests of many kinds.

This year, Spirit Week was run by the Student Council. Student Council members prepared all the activities that were done during the week. Here are some of the things we did....

We had a tape race. In this contest, you had to buy an inch of tape for a nickel. Then you put the tape on the wall and kept adding on to the last piece of tape. Each grade level had their own color so we could tell who was winning. Eighth graders won the contest.

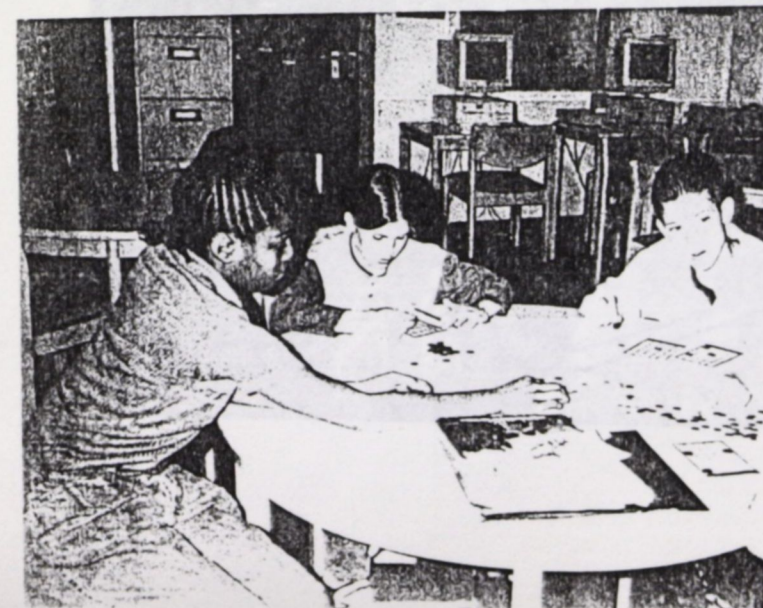

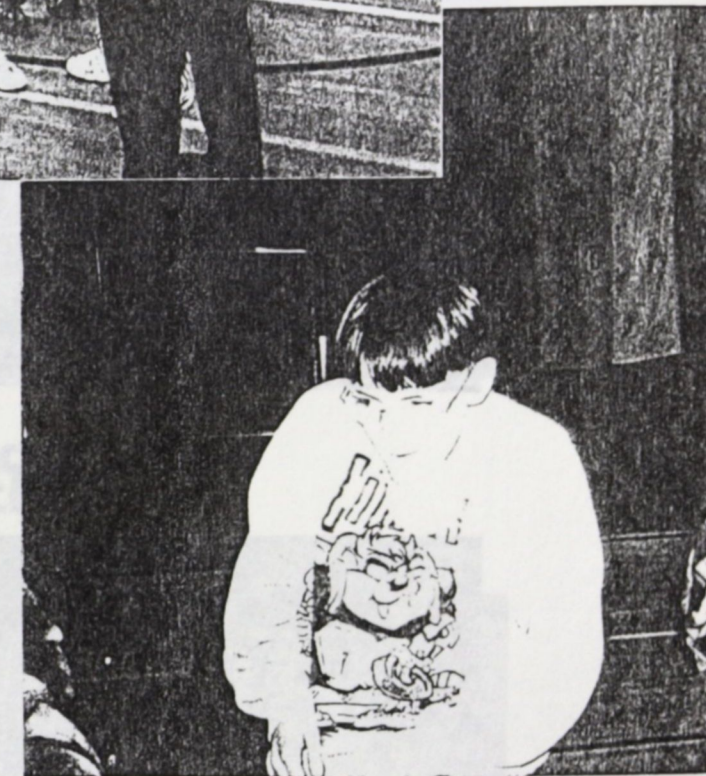

That week we dressed up...

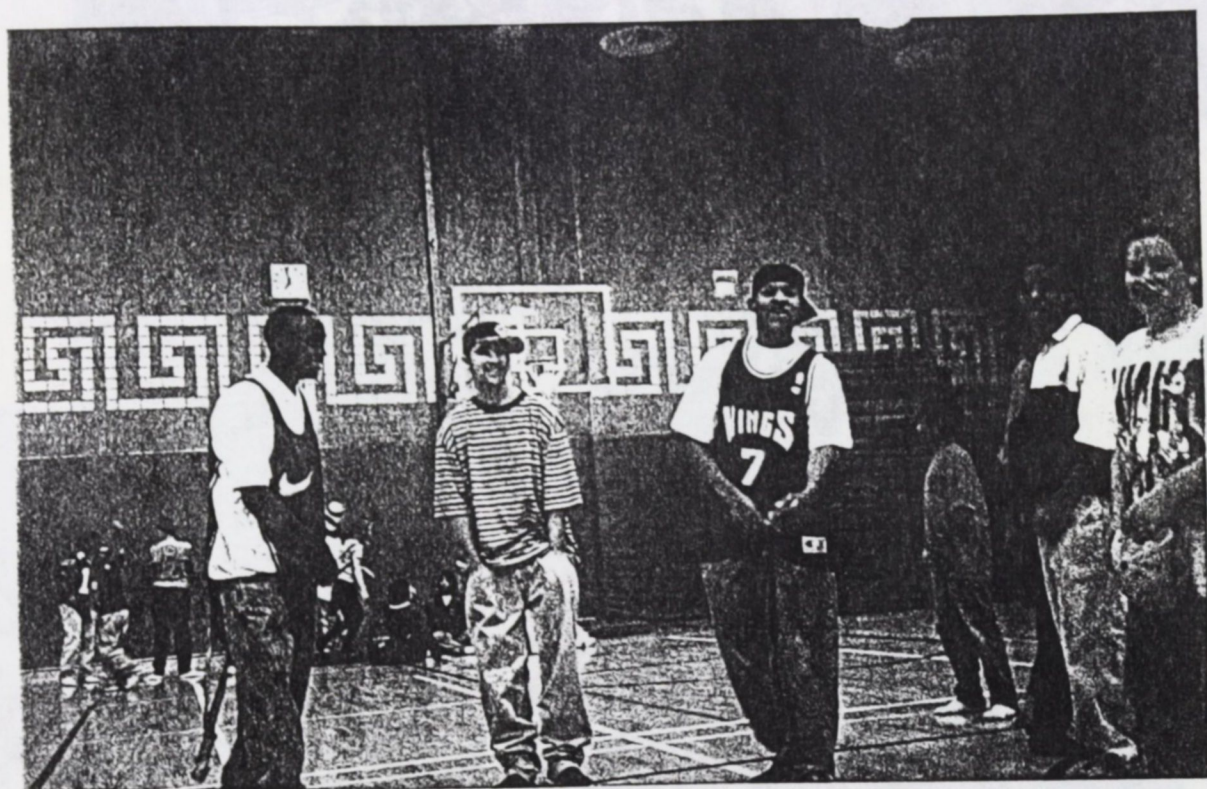

Monday	Nerd Day
Tuesday	Bum Day
Wednesday	Pajama Day
Thursday	Opposite Sex Day
Friday	School Color Day (black & gold)

On Friday, the teachers drew names from each grade level out of a hat. If you were wearing gold and black, the school colors, you won $10.00.

Student Council members had a contest going between them and teachers it was....The Pie Contest. That week the members collected money and so did the teachers they were against. Who ever won got to throw a pie in the loser's face.

On Thursday and Friday we played many exciting games at the end of each day. The games were fun for everybody whether you were playing the games or watching. For the over all scoring eighth got first, seventh got second and sixth got third. Even if you did not get first place, Spirit Week was still a lot of fun!

DANCES

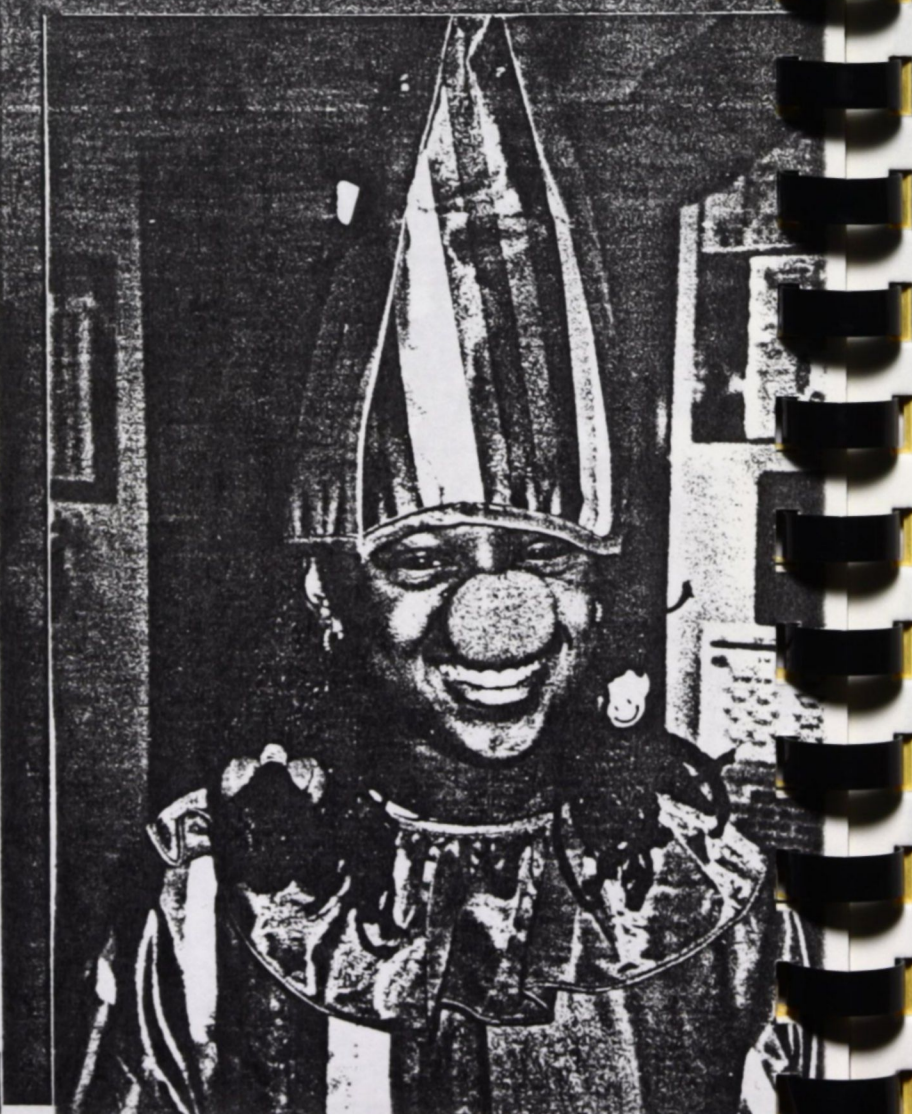

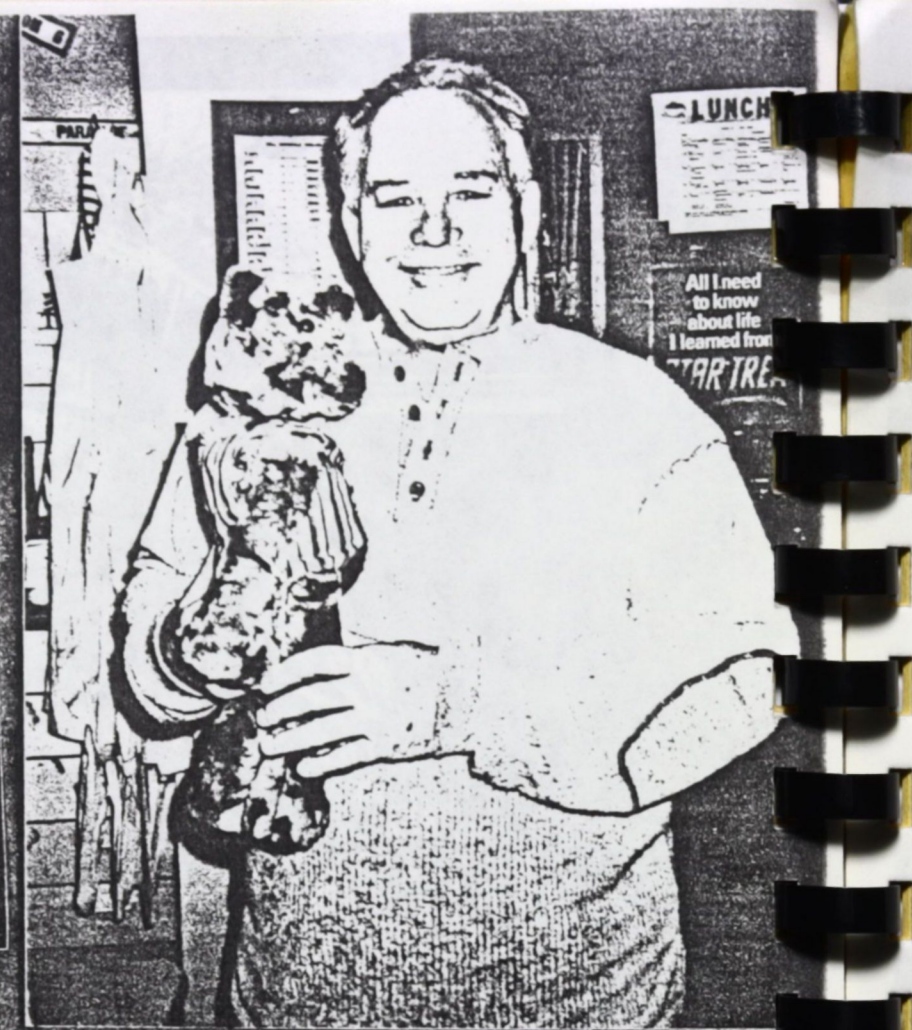

Dances in our school were awesome. This year they were held by Student Council, Outdoor Ed and National Junior Honor Society. The dances were usually held from 6:00 - 9:00 p.m. Dances included raffles, dance contests, pictures and snacks to buy.

At the beginning of the year, Student Council and Outdoor Ed had a Hat Dance. If you wore a hat, you only paid one dollar but, if you didn't you paid two dollars. In February, Student Council and Outdoor Ed held a Sweetheart Dance for Valentine's Day. NJHS held a Green Dance in March that was quite a hit. All the dances were fabulous for people to come and have fun and "boogie down."

Something Big has Been Here

*Something big has been here,
what it was I do not know,
for I did not see it coming,
and I did not see it go,
but I hope I never meet it,
if I do I'm in a fix,
for it left behind its footprints,
they are size nine-fifty-six.*

Mysterious Gray

Kristine Rios-7

Gray is a foggy morning and polluting smoke from a factory and a soft feathery pillow.

Gray is the taste of water.

A newspaper and a dusty room smell gray.

Seeing people pollute the ocean makes me feel gray.

Gray is the sound of raindrops on a sunny day and someone crying.

Gray is jail, an empty room, a deserted parking lot and the clouds.

Death in the family is Gray.

Going to a funeral on a rainy day is also gray.

Gray is sad and alone.

A Perfect Day

Have you ever thought of a good day,
A day that always goes your way.
How a day goes so right,
How you thought it might.
How it may seem,
That it is,
The perfect,
Day.

My Fish...

My fish can ride a bicycle,
my fish can climb a tree,
my fish enjoys a glass of milk,
my fish takes naps with me.

My fish can play the piccolo,
my fish can bounce a ball,
my fish is not like other fish,
my fish can't swim at all.

We all make the same drum beats.
We all like to have fun.
When we play "Dyno Rock."

I'm obsessed.

Fairy

By: Katie Tubbs

Fairies, Fairies, everywhere,
Dancing, skipping everywhere.
Where they go no one knows,
No one dare asks one of those.
I decided to find out one day,
By asking one of them on their way.
And the one I came across,
Was rather and definitely cross.
But to the Super Market was her reply,
And ended it with a cackling cry.

Me

By Lisa Anderson-7

*In the land of lebkuchen and bratwurst I was born.
I am my brothers ages added, minus three.*

*I travel quickly into the future with everyone,
Traveling towards college so someone I may be.*

*My hamster falling into a wine glass makes me laugh.
The things that make me cry are hurt and death.*

*I am living middle-class.
I dream of the future and forget the past.*

*I was born when age 29 was hers and 26 his.
I have joy in my life as it is.*

Blackaristic Carlos-7

Black is boots by the campfire, and the sights of thunder, and being locked out of the house and from your hunger.
Black is the taste of burnt waffles in the morning, and the smell of a new shirt and watching a movie that is very corny.
Holding a dead puppy in my hands makes me feel black.
Black is the sound of thunder being in a cave where bats are.
Black is being in a theater being in a soundless car at night, also seeing people fight, and wearing shoes that are too tight.
Stroking a paint brush on a white piece of paper is black.
Being dumped by your boyfriend or girlfriend is black.
Black is the smell of dead rose's.

Life

Life is the sun,
Life are the plants that grow.
Life is the tree with it's roots in the ground.
Life is the sky, earth, and stars,
Life is the things all around.
Life are the things we do each day.
Life is the butterfly with it's beautiful wings,
Life is the deer that run like the wind.
Life is the beginning,
Life is the end.

My Sisters

Vanessa Catalano-7

My sisters are different if you know what I mean.
They act like they are the most powerful Queens!
Their hair is blond and they drive me crazy.
I wish they would stop being so lazy.
Yes they are my sisters, but it doesn't show,
and don't ask me why 'cause I don't know.

Letter Poem
By: Chris Curriden-7

Dear Dad,

I miss our long walks with our talks.
I miss when we played basketball you were too tall.
I miss riding in your car when we had to go far.
I miss when you made peas with macaroni and cheese.
I miss when we play all sorts of sports.
I miss when you eat your deer and drink your beer.
I miss seeing you coming all sweaty from P.T. sitting on the couch watching T.V.
I miss the fights with the camlights.
I miss when you bought the pogs after we walk the dogs.
I miss your funny ways on all those days.

Lustrous Life

By: Jo Jo Furman-7

Life can be sorry, life can be good.
Life can be lived in a neighborhood.
Life is free like a dove.
Life is full of love.
Life can be sorrow.
There's always tomorrow.
To live.
Life.

Snow

Snow falling from the sky.
Snow that covers the ground
Snow that makes everything white
Snow sparkles from the glare of the sun,
Snow that glistens on the ground.
Snow makes you feel fresh.
Snow makes you feel cold
Snow brings you joy,
Snow makes you feel relaxed
Snow.

Phone

The phone is like my friend because it holds my most important secrets.

That I have with my best friends.

From time to time I wonder what the phone will do next, either ring or just be talked on with my best friends.

But I guess we will never know until that time comes when the phone is real so it can be my friend too forever, and ever until I whisper in it's ear another one of my most powerful secrets.

Why you should care for people
By: Joseph Furman-7

You should care for people, like give.
Even if it's not your prerogative.
Some people are stingy,
They don't want to share.
Some people aren't,
About people they care.
You can't say you can't do anything.
Unless you lived that kind of life.
Some families are homeless, and have a lot of strife.
So next time you see someone homeless think of what I said.
Or you'll be feeling guilty when your in your coffin, dead.

Ice Cream
Cold, sweet
Lick, slurp, splat
On a sunny day
Frozen delight.

Ashley Bjorkman 7

I like...

I like to go ice skating,
I like to collect cards,
I like to talk,
but, I like talking on the phone more.

Sometimes when I wake up for school,
I think school that day will be a drag,
but, it can turn out ok,
so I guess you can say I like school most of the day.

Blue

Jessica Mood grade 7

Blue is the ocean and the sea and O.K. things.
Blue is the taste of blueberries.
Salty water and rainy days smell blue.
Talking with my friends makes me feel blue.
Blue is the sounds of waterfalls and dripping faucets.
Blue is the sea, beach, sky, and Kentucky.
Swimming is blue.
Scuba diving is also blue.
Blue is running in the rain.

SOUND IS LOUD,
 SOUND IS IRRITATING,
 SOUND IS SOMETHING YOU
 LISTEN TO WHEN YOU'RE BORED ...
 SOUND IS SOMETHING YOUR MOM SAYS "TURN THAT DOWN" SOUND IS MUSIC,
 SOUND IS NOISE,
 SOUND IS RELAXING,
 SOUND IS COZY,
 SOUND IS FLOWING,
 SOND IS WIND.
